PAINT CREEK . . . COMMUNITY NEWS

Mrs. Gene Overton

The cotton at Paint Creek is so pretty, and growing so fast. This little cotton that was replanted after the big rain is looking good, and when the farmers get the weeds out of it, it will look even better. Everybody is fighting careless weeds. Those things can grow so fast, and so big, and so big so fast, they make a farmer lose what religion he has. I once heard a man say he hung his water jug on a careless weed, ploved a round, and couldn't reach his water jug for a drink when he got back. One can almost believe it when he sees how much they grow in just one day. But crops are beautiful. The rain seems to come just when we need it, and except for the work getting ahead of us, we are fine. Seems in June and July farmers can't see the end of all they have to do. The cotton needs almost constant care, and the wheat stubble needs plowing under, maize needs hoeing, and the hay is ready to cut, bale and haul to the barn, and machinery won't run constantly without some repairs, and a farmer needs to be three people, with seven hired hands helping him.

Finding a hired hand is something else. Nobody wants a job. Everybody wants a pay check, but nobody wants a job. Ask a man if he would like a job loading bales of haygrazer hay onto a trailer and hauling it to a barn and unloading it, and he turns pale, and assures you he is going to be real busy for the next few days. It is even hard to find hoe hands.

The week of the 4th was a busy one. Many Paint Creekers helped at the Old Settlers' Reunion. Mrs. Allen Isbell was again in charge of serving the chuck wagon meals, and Jeanne Isbell, Janice and Danny Isbell, Butch Kahout, Mrs. Wanda Morrison, Vicki, Janay and Jo, and Mr. and Mrs. Lem Ivy helped serve.

Mrs. Jennie Brazell sold tickets to the rodeo. Debbie and Danny Weaver, Ray Perry, Danny Ivy, Lem Ivy, Marvin Cobb, Bud Casselberry, and maybe many others I didn't see, rode in the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Coleman of Fort Sumpter, New Mexico, spent the 4th of July holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Coleman, Phil, Mr. and Mrs. Martindale Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Griffith.

Sgt. and Mrs. G. H. McGuire and daughters of Dyess AFB, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Bland.

Milla Perry of Texas Tech spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Cockrell and Mellisa of Garland spent the holiday week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cockrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Woods and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess J. Miekler have had their grandchildren, Danette and Melynn Miekler, of Vinson, and Lisa, Vanessa and Monte Williams of Lubbock, as guests this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Smith had their children, Mr. and Mrs. John Carlos Montgomery, John, April and Scot, of Midland, and Jeff Smith, who is stationed at the Naval Air Base at Grand Prairie, here for the 4th week-end, and to attend the Scott reunion. Mrs. Smith's family.

Mr. J. W. Howard had the misfortune of falling while fishing on the 4th and breaking a leg. He was carrying his little daughter up a steep river bank, and he slipped and fell. It is a very serious break, about four inches above his ankle, and he will have to undergo surgery for the insertion of a pin in his leg. He was first taken to the Throckmorton Hospital, and then was brought to the Haskell Hospital. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Howard, were with his family on the fishing trip.

Mrs. Pat Morrison and Jo had as week-end guests, Vicki and Janay Morrison, Kathleen Long and Mike Ashby of Hardin-Simmons University.

Visiting Mrs. Bill Miekler over the week-end, and here for the Scott Reunion, were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Miekler, Jay and Max Atherton of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Miekler, Martha, Steve and Judy, of Snyder.

Miss Linda McGaw of Dallas spent the week-end with the Gene Overtons, Mike and Wallar.

Mrs. Pat Morrison is spending the week in Elbert with her brothers and their families while Jo attends Girls' Auxiliary Camp with the girls from the Elbert Baptist Church.

Jim Poque, who plays with the Hardin-Simmons Band, spent Wednesday night with Danny Isbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carlton and little daughter of the University of Oregon are spending a vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Carlton and Mr. and Mrs. Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Gillespie had as their week-end guests for the Scott Reunion, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Gillespie, Debbie and Greg of Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henley and Allen of El Paso, and Mr. and Mrs.

ALL-ALUMINUM Chippendale chair illustrates the many properties of the light metal. The chair was sand cast after original wooden chair was broken down into six parts. A mold of these parts was made. Aluminum was poured into the resulting mold and each of the six aluminum duplicates was reassembled. The aluminum was varnished to give the metal a long-lasting lustre.

J. D. Gillespie and Pamela of Pecos.

Lt. Mike Overton spent a 15-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and Wallar before he reported to Fort Hood Monday. He has just completed the Field Artillery Officer's basic course at the U. S. Artillery and Missile School at Fort Sill, Okla. At Fort Hood he will have casual duty until he receives orders for flight training.

Riding in the Cowboy Reunion parade last Tuesday with the Haskell Saddle Tramps were Butch Kahout, Jeannine Isbell, Otto Baumbach of Paint Creek, and Mrs. Louie Davis of Abilene.

Greg Jones of Tokyo, Texas spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer.

Boy Scout Troop 48 spent last week at Camp Tonkawa near Buffalo Gap. Thursday night the parents took supper and attended the Kotoso Lodge Tap-out ceremony. Parents attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Bud Casselberry, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton, Mrs. James Ross Miekler, Marsie and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chaney of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Miekler and grandchildren, Danette, Melynn, Debbie and Jamie Miekler, and Lisa, Vanessa and Monte Williams, Mrs. Forest Cockrell.

The Scouts returned home Saturday morning, and all had earned from one to two merit badges, and had had a wonderful time. The school sponsors the troop a school bus for the week. Scouts were: Joe and James Ross Miekler, Dale and Glen Casselberry, Ricky and Mike Brazell, Tommy Pritchard, Kenneth Cockrell and Scoutmaster Wallar Overton.

Sp. 4 William Overton was voted Outstanding Enlisted Man for his unit, the 94th Reserve Hospital Unit at summer camp at Fort Sill. The two weeks' active duty for the unit ended Sunday June 30th, and they returned to Dallas. Sp. 4 Overton was given a plaque and a $25 Savings Bond. This unit is one of the largest reserve units in the State and is composed of doctors from the Dallas area, and enlisted men. I am always proud of any award the boys receive, but when their award is for something they don't especially like to do, I am doubly proud. William's army reserve has been a thorn in his side for five years because it interferes with the things he really wanted to do. It has delayed his Master's Degree for a year, and reserve meetings every other week-end have made it impossible for him to be in any plays at Dallas Theater Center, or have an active job in his church. So we tease about his being "at war with the Army." He has only one more year and his service will be finished. We don't often stop and appreciate these men who give their time, and give up their vacation time for Reserve Army service after they have completed their active duty. These men are all busy, some with families, and they have to sacrifice a lot to keep a reserve army ready in case the country needs it.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following letter was written by Dennis Dean Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle D. Johnson, of Pasadena, Texas, to his grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Cain, of Haskell. Dennis left June 18th for a six-week study of governments of Spain, France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland and England.

Grandson Of Mrs. J. A. Cain Tells Of Trip

Dear Granny: How are you, hope you are doing good and everything around Haskell is alright. Well, here I am in sunny Italy just about ready to fly to Switzerland. It's great over here...so much to see and do there's never a dull moment. I'm having the time of my life getting out and meeting the people and seeing the sights each country has to offer. When we first landed in Madrid, Spain, I immediately noticed one major problem. There's a definite language barrier over here...there's few people who speak English. I soon learned enough of their language to get by and enjoy it. In seeing the countryside in some locations make you think of West Texas, only occasionally you see a large mountain out of place, but beautiful nonetheless. As I said I must finish packing and head for Switzerland so I have to say good bye. Love, Dennis Dean.

Playing With Power Windows Is Hazardous

AUSTIN—Playfully closing a power window in a car can result in death or serious injury, the Texas Safety Association said today in warning parents not to leave small children unattended in cars with such automatic devices.

In spite of extensive publicity given in the past to incidents of strangulation, loss of fingers and other injuries to children and adults from automobile power windows, tragedies of this kind are being reported in increasing numbers, the Safety Association noted.

The greatest hazard from power windows is to small children as they often play with the switches, if left alone in an automobile and usually cannot operate the window if they are accidentally caught.

Some car models are designed so that the power windows cannot be operated when the key is in the "off" position, but most cars do not have this feature. The Safety Association suggests that if your car's power windows operate when key is "off," have a mechanic or dealer adjust the wiring so that the windows cannot operate unless the ignition switch is "on." This is a fairly simple modification.

As with all other motor vehicles, cars with power windows should be left completely locked when not in use. This not only greatly reduces the chances of theft, but also prevents inquisitive children from injuring themselves with power windows, cigarette lighters and other dangerous equipment, or by releasing the brake.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank the Doctors and Nurses, Mr. Turnbow and each and every one who was so nice to me while I was in the Haskell Memorial Hospital. The ones who sent flowers, visited and sent cards. We thank you all. Eva McMillin and family.

DARK FOR CONTRAST

Sometimes a dark flower is just what you need to furnish a contrast with brighter blooms. Such a contrast is the single French Marigold using such varieties as Ruffled Red, yellow, gold or orange kinds. These colors are varieties like Sunny, golden yellow, Naughty Marietta, blighted maroon, etc. All four varieties are form plants that are mounded at the top. Not only is such effective in the garden, also helps the flowers to achieve greater contrast using the darker color lower in an arrangement.

Indians Host Abilene Jets Semi-Pro Team

Saturday night, July 6, 1968, the Haskell Indians were host to the Abilene Jets, a Semi-Pro team. The Jets collected 9 hits enroute to the win 6-4. Perry Scott was the winning pitcher and was relieved in the fourth by Gary Simmons. Scott hit a home run in the first inning after John Stewart had scored on Berry Bailey's single to place the Jets in the lead by 2 runs. A double play by Indians Larry Ivy, Gary Felker, and Derrel Davis had taken the pressure off of starting pitcher, Douglas Bartley. The Jets scored three other runs in the third with two outs, and scored one run in the sixth.

The Haskell Indians' first hit came in the second on Ray Acosta's single to left field but could not score Ray before the third out. In the fourth the Indians exploded for three runs with two outs. Roy David Pittman had drawn a walk. Ray Acosta had reached base on an error, and were both batted in on Gary Felker's double to left field. Sam Stone's double scored Felker.

The Indians had one hit each in the fifth and sixth inning, when relief pitcher Randy Wiseman hit a double, and Lee Pippin singled to left field. In the seventh, again with two outs, Haskell threatened with Terry Chapman reaching first on shortstop's fumble, was advanced to second on Derrel Davis' single, and scored on Larry Ivy's single. Haskell left six men on base.

Haskell 000 300 1-4 7 4 Douglas Bartley and Roy David Pittman; Randy Wiseman (4) WP-Perry Scott. LP-Douglas Bartley.

July Dollar Day Tuesday Offers "Big Bargains"

The mid-summer season finds the friendly Haskell merchants offering some "red-hot" specials for Dollar Day next Tuesday, July 16th.

Yes, good old summer time is in full bloom. The weather is hot...but not near as hot as the many bargains offered for D-Day.

Shoppers may find just about anything they desire listed in the big four-page Dollar Day circular to be distributed and mailed throughout the trade area this week-end.

Watch for the circular and when it arrives "eyeball" it from the front through the back page...then make plans to be in Haskell, Tuesday, July 16th.

Major James Vandell Home From Vietnam

Major James C. Vandell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Vandell, of Munday, has arrived home from a year's duty in Vietnam where he piloted the 4-engine SP-2E Neptune Aircraft for the U. S. Army.

Major and Mrs. Vandell and two sons, Jim and Jerry, will visit his mother for three weeks prior to reporting to Fort Sill.

Training School Is Set For 120 New Patrolmen

A training school for 120 new patrolmen with the Texas Department of Public Safety will start July 30, Major Luther Moore, Regional Commander, announced today.

"We have several new benefits to offer qualified young men," Moore said. "For instance, the pay during training is $500 per month and upon graduation this is increased to $571."

"Also, our selection methods are more liberal in that an applicant is not required to live in Texas for one year prior to employment, and the entrance examination is given every day at our larger offices."

To qualify for employment in the uniformed services of the DPS, a man must be between the ages of 20 and 35, not less than 5 feet 8 inches tall, have a high school education or its equivalent, be in sound physical condition with good vision and must be a citizen of the United States.

"Among the many benefits that patrolmen enjoy," Moore pointed out, "are two weeks annual vacation, all holidays provided for by the Legislature, modern liberal retirement systems and group hospitalization and life insurance plans, traveling expenses and longevity pay, and uniforms and all the necessary equipment to perform their duties."

For complete information concerning the position of patrolman, training and benefits, Moore asked that those who are interested contact the nearest DPS patrolman or DPS office. "In return," he said, "they will receive complete information in regard to the application and examination."

Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Launching Membership Drive

The Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., is launching an all-out membership drive, according to Charles Bragg of Stamford, executive vice president.

The group, organized in 1964 largely through the efforts of Bruce Campbell, Knox City banker, and Sam Reed, O'Brien farmer and cotton seed breeder, has operated on voluntary contributions since that time. Originally, producers were invited to contribute 15 cents a bale, ginners one cent, compresses and warehouses a half cent and oil mills two cents per ton of cotton seed processed.

Due to the short crop in 1967, the association does not have the backlog of cash necessary to carry out its overall program until revenue from the 1968 crop begins to come in.

"If we don't get some money soon, we will have to curtail some of our activities," Bragg said, adding that the cotton industry was facing a "serious situation" and if research and promotion activities suffered from lack of financing things might get worse.

Anyone wishing to become a member, or just make a contribution of any size to the non-profit group, is asked to contact Bragg.

The group has served as the voice of King Cotton since its beginning, striving to promote the welfare and protect the interests of its member cotton farmers.

The group serves a 32-county Rolling Plains area and represents more than 12,000 cotton producer members.

Bragg pointed out that income from cotton during a normal crop year is from $60 to $70 million, with producers harvesting over a half million bales.

The organization is a nationally-recognized producer group approved to participate in the selection of Cotton Board members and alternates who administer the $1 per bale Cotton Research and Promotion Order.

AN OVERHAUL NEEDED

As one reads of lawlessness and rebellion in colleges and universities throughout the world, including the U. S., one cannot help but wonder what is wrong with the educational system.

In view of student and other unpunished lawlessness seen in the U. S., one cannot help questioning the character of our educational system on which countless billions of tax dollars are spent by U. S. citizens.

THE DONKEY was well established as the Democrats' mascot by the time the Garfield-Hancock campaign came along. The New York Daily Graphic published a cartoon showing the Democratic candidate mounted on a donkey and leading a procession of crusaders.

GRADUALLY as the donkey and elephant became the accepted symbols of the Democrats and Republicans, each party gave the other symbol certain traits.

THE DONKEYS usually regard the elephant as bungling, stupid, pompous and conservative. The Republicans think of him as dignified, strong and intelligent.

THE REPUBLICANS regard the donkey as stubborn, silly and ridiculous. The Democrats think of him as being humble, homely, smart, courageous and lovable.

In the months just ahead we will be seeing a lot of both.

Green Thumb Tips

It takes a special kind of corn to make good pop corn—corn with little hull so there will be no hard center after it is popped.

One of the newer varieties is a hybrid hullless corn called Minihybrid, developed by the Minnesota Experiment Station. Higher yield and greater expansion when popped are other virtues.

Do you love blue morning glories but lack a fence to support the vines? Plant Royal Ensign, a bush-type morning glory instead. This grows only a foot high; needs no support.

It has the brightest, deepest blue you'll find in flowers, each bloom set off by a golden throat with a white halo around it.

Gardeners desiring tall plants for use against a building or at the back of a border should consider cosmos—especially the Sensation strain.

These plants grow 4 to 5 feet high, have delicate, fine foliage and bear single flowers of white, pink or rose.

In case you didn't know it—cosmos can be disbudbed by removing all but the tip bud on each stem and, if the plants also are thinned to stand 3 feet apart, enormous blooms will result. Try this trick!

A good many of the insects that attack vegetables can be controlled without the use of poison.

Retenone dust, used weekly, covering the undersides of leaves as well as the tops, is an effective material.

Non-poisonous to warm-blooded animals, humans included, it will kill fish, so it must be kept well away from pools in which these cold-blooded creatures live.

Have you tried the garden netting that is made from plastic cord?

It isn't strong enough to hold heavy vines but lightweight ones like sweet peas or edible peas can easily be made to climb upwards on it.

Stretch it along a row between stakes at either end.

The soil that you put into window boxes should be rich. Remember that it will have to nourish the plants all season.

Be sure to use several inches depth of coarse material at the bottom of the box, underneath the soil, so the soil does not become waterlogged—a sure way to kill the plants in it.

THIS IS BESIDE the point except to explain that three U. S. Congressmen (two Democrats and one Republican) in trying to make a good impression, committed a "faux pas," which was almost fatal to our mission. On the morning of our official visit to the Chamber of Deputies—their members called Deputados—we were given a white carnation for our lapel.

We thought it nice and pinned it on. Advised by our Ambassador that white identified one political party and a red flower represented the other, we quickly accepted a red carnation and wore both, looking something like a pot plant.

MOST COUNTRIES which have only two or three political parties have some representative insignia. It may be an animal, a fowl or other objects of identification.

OURS, of course, are the Democratic donkey and the Republican elephant.

IT WAS IN 1870 that Thomas Nast, a political cartoonist, first used the donkey as a Democratic Party symbol.

ON JANUARY 15, 1870, Harper's Weekly published a Nast cartoon depicting the donkey in the "Copperhead Press," (anti-war faction) kicking a dead lion which represented Secretary of War, Edward M. Stanton. Writers at the time interpreted Nast's cartoon representing the Democratic Party as one of "noise and obstruction" which he believed it to be.

THE DONKEY was used in connection with Andrew Jackson's campaign for the Presidency. Jackson's proposals to help the people were viewed with alarm by the opposing Party, which labeled him a "Jackass."

JACKSON SEIZED upon the opportunity to capitalize on name calling and won a sweeping victory.

The symbol caught on, although some researchers have since said that Nast did not actually portray the donkey as the symbol of the Democratic Party but the anti-war faction within it.

ON NOVEMBER 7, 1874, Harper's Weekly published a Nast cartoon using the elephant as representing the Republican Party. The cartoon titled "The Third Term Panic" and used animals representing various issues and newspapers running away from a donkey wearing a lion skin labeled "Caesarism." The elephant is labeled the "Republican Vote"

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:
If we have accumulated a few thousand as the years go on, we start to worry about how much tax our children will owe when we die. There is an inheritance tax in the State of Texas, and a federal estate tax to consider. On the federal tax you do not have to file an estate tax return unless your estate amounts to more than $80,000. If you own community property this goes up to $120,000.

Publication No. 448, a Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxation, is available for 25 cents from the Government Printing Office. A 25-cent investment could help you avoid a lot of problems for your heirs.

WONDERFUL WORLD OF COINS

Coin collecting is one of the oldest and most fascinating hobbies in the world. In the U.S., the coin collections of former President Harry S. Truman and the late Francis Cardinal Spellman, are among the most famous. The hobby itself is growing in popularity each year. Back in 1817, there was only one known coin collector in the country; in 1850, there were 300 and today, there are more than 8,000,000.

The Jerusalem Coin

The newest coin to be minted is the Jerusalem Coin, commemorating Israel's 20th Anniversary and the reunification of Jerusalem. The Jerusalem Coin features the four-column facade of the Temple of Solomon on one side, and a panoramic view of the reunified city on the other.

For further information on all official offerings of Israel's coins and State medals, write to: Office of the Assistant Trade Commissioner, Government of Israel, 850 Third Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10022.

This distinctively beautiful home was once a barn. With flair, imagination and the right building materials, the owners transformed it into a showplace. Window and door treatments played an important part in the remodeling. All are stock ponderosa pine units available at local lumber dealers. (Photo courtesy House Beautiful.)

Foot's Attend Services At 'Lonesome Dove'

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foote, of Haskell, recently returned from a visit with Mrs. Foote's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Watson in Dallas.

They also attended the dedication of the Historical Marker at the Lonesome Dove Missionary Baptist Church four-and-one-half miles northwest of Grapevine.

"Lonesome Dove" was the first church Mrs. Foote attended while a small child. Her father, the late William Jordan Foster, was Sunday School Superintendent of the church from about 1908 to 1912 and Mrs. Foster taught a Sunday School class.

The church was founded in February 1846.

Mrs. Pearl (Foster) O'Donnell, author of the book "Truck To Texas" and the history of the church, appeared in the dedication program. She is a cousin of Mrs. Foote.

VA Questions and Answers

Editor's Note: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—Occasionally I see a Veterans Administration-repossessed home advertised for sale. Does a prospective buyer have to be a veteran to qualify as a purchaser? Does a person deal with VA or with a real estate firm? Is there any savings by dealing directly with VA?

A—In answer to your first question, a person need not be a veteran to buy a VA-repossessed home. Such homes are generally sold through real estate brokers approved by VA. The VA does not reduce its list sale price when it is approached directly by a prospective purchaser. So there is no saving to be made by not contacting a sales broker.

You may obtain a list of approved local sales brokers and further information about VA-repossessed homes from your nearest VA regional office.

The Good Earth

By Mrs. B. F. Cobb

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Scott, my husband and I, went to Gorman, Wednesday, to gather peaches. We went to the W. H. Smith orchard located half-way between Gorman and DeLeon. We drove through the orchard to a large oak tree, where stacks and stacks of baskets waited to be filled. A very large trailer pulled by a tractor took the people and their baskets deep into the orchard to the ripe fruit.

I've been from North Carolina to California and have never seen any more beautiful fruit than in the Smith orchard. One of Mrs. Scott's friends weighed four of one variety of peaches we gathered, the four weighed two pounds. We each had about a bushel and a half of the large beauties. The peaches were so uniform they looked like they all came from the same mold.

We gathered a bushel of white peaches that were average in size and were delicious for eating raw, as they contain less acid than most peaches. The extra large peaches were a deep red on the outside and had deep yellow meat. All the fruit was just right for freezing.

There was only one thing wrong about picking the peaches ourselves, the fruit was so pretty on the trees we could hardly quit gathering it.

At the proper time, during the winter, the peach trees are pruned by cutting all branches even. Pruned in this manner the trees look like large umbrellas. This method of pruning causes strong branches and large fruit.

Evidently the orchard had been sprayed at the right time. We found only two worms in two-and-one-half bushels of peaches.

Peaches are not the only fruit grown on the Smith farm. Apple trees were loaded with red checked green fruit. Ox heart plum trees were weighted down with red, heart-shaped plums. Persimmon trees are full of green fruit and will be a beautiful sight this fall when the persimmons turn to a deep, deep gold.

The pecan orchard promises to yield plenty of nuts this fall, in fact there are some kinds of ripe fruit in the Smith orchard from June until frost. Persimmons are the last to ripen.

There were about 15 people left out on the trailer we took, but only about nine came back when we did. There were 19½ bushels of peaches on the return trip. They had returned for people and fruit three times before they picked us up. Funny, we were not even tired, as we had enjoyed the adventure so very much.

Mrs. R. C. Couch Sr., first vice-president of the Haskell Garden Club, bought three Italian paste tomato plants from the nursery. I have never seen three tomato plants so
