Nobody's Business

By Julian Capers Jr.

Austin, Texas.—The old adage "it never rains but it pours," has proved itself again in connection with the Texas oil fields. The Southland Insurance Co. of Dallas is on the verge of closing out the work of the assembly year, and completing plans for attending the Nineteenth Annual Northwest Texas Conference Young People's Summer Assembly, which is to be held at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, June 3rd, to 7th. Under the leadership of the district staff, plans have been made for an Auto-cade to run from Stamford to Abilene on June 3rd, carrying between fifty and seventy five young people from this district.

The program for the Knox City meet will be under the direction of the new district director, Frank Cocke, and built around the theme, "Forward with Christ." Registration for the expected two hundred guests will begin at five o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist Church. Nineteenth Annual Northwest Texas Conference Young People's Summer Assembly will be held at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, June 3-7. The theme for this year's assembly will be: "Follow Me." More than thirty outstanding personalities have been secured for the program. Five hundred delegates, ages 16 - 23, representing all churches of the conference are expected to attend.

Pre-Assembly Rally At Knox City

Methodist young people of Stamford District will hold a Pre-Assembly Rally at Knox City, May 25-26 for the purpose of closing out the work of the assembly year, and completing plans for attending the Nineteenth Annual Northwest Texas Conference Young People's Summer Assembly, which is to be held at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, June 3rd, to 7th. Under the leadership of the district staff, plans have been made for an Auto-cade to run from Stamford to Abilene on June 3rd, carrying between fifty and seventy five young people from this district.

Farmers Busy Planting Moisture is Plentiful

The more than three inches of rainfall last week has started farm work in this county as nothing else could. Every farmer is busy at this time getting the seed in the ground and Jayton has been as deserted this week as a graveyard after nightfall.

If the weather holds good there will be very little land left for seeding after ten days, and much of the early planting will have been worked out the first time. The wheat and oats that survived the dry weather is growing fast and one more good rain will assure a better than average harvest. While there is a very limited acreage in these grains they will continue to contribute their part toward a financial recovery of the country.

Early planted feed crops are looking good and the pastures are coming fast and it will only be a matter of a few weeks until the cattle will be rolling in grass and weeds and putting on fat and growth that will mean many additional dollars to the cattle man.

If the weather man will treat us for half way right the rest of the year, this country known as the east part of West Texas will stage a comeback that will astonish the world.

We can't hope to make two crops in one year but we do hope to make one big crop in two years, and if we do, watch us strut our stuff, pay our debts and dress up once more.

Work and Starve

Most men before starving will work, but most also prefer to starve without working and starving. No man has had a higher opinion of the President than the editor of this paper, but when he set wages for his five billion dollar work relief program so low that the worker could not support himself in decency let alone support an average family, we feel free to step down off his band wagon and beg Heavens pardon for some things we have said and thought about him.

The idea was when the four billion was set aside for work relief, to take all able bodied men off the relief rolls and place them on the work rolls of the government. If they refuse to work when able, then let them starve. The proposed wage scale as we understood it would be $50 per month. We still believe a man can afford to work for $50 per month and we further believe every man who is able to work would gladly get off the relief rolls and go to work for the above wages. But we don't believe any man with a wife and as many as two or more children can afford to work for a dollar a day or less and pay rent, fuel, pay doctor bills, and have anything more to wear than the cheapest of rags or anything more to eat than rabbit stew. And if he worked how could he run down the rabbits?

Mrs. Wm. Alexander New Club Leader

Mrs. William Alexander was unanimously elected President of the Jayton Culture Club Monday night at the final meeting of the year, held in the home of Mrs. R. L. Alexander. Mrs. William Alexander was elected to succeed Mrs. C. J. Robinson. Other new officers elected Monday night were Mrs. N. E. Porter Vice President, Mrs. C. J. Robinson Parliamentary and Mrs. Eldon C. Wade, as reporter. Miss Mary Robinson was elected Secretary and Mrs. A. L. Patton was re-elected corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Baker Robinson submitted a Study program for next year, the theme being "Texas" is keeping with the Texas Centennial.

After the business session a short program was enjoyed—a piano solo "Narcissus", by Mrs. Tom Fowler, vocal solos by Mrs. C. J. Robinson and Mrs. Grover Little and two readings, "Blue Roses" by Mrs. William Alexander and "The Joy Ride" by Mrs. Eldon Wade. After several amusing contests were held, an attractive plate of sandwiches, cake and an iced drink was served by the hostesses, Mrs. R. L. Alexander and Mrs. Tom Holly and Mrs. Grover Little.

The Club adjourned for the summer, the next meeting to be held in September.

Farm Colony Has 10-Mile Terrace

On the site of the Ropesville rural community in the eastern part of Haskell county, where Texas Rural Communities is preparing to build homes for 66 homesteaders, is the longest farm terrace in the world. It measures 10 3/4 miles in length and it required 10 1/2 hours for men operating construction machinery to complete one round in building it.

"It is the longest terrace I have ever heard of," said W. B. Orr, assistant general manager of Texas Rural Communities, who has charge of all the corporations collective rehabilitation projects, "and its construction cost of $12 per mile makes it also the most economical job with which I am acquainted."

When the job has been completed, home steads will move onto a tract of 4,000 acres of land on which approximately 165 miles of terraces have been built to hold the water on the land.

Ropesville is situated in eastern Haskell county on the Santa Fe railway, 20 miles southeast of Lubbock on the South Plains, which in recent years became one of the leading cotton producing regions of the state.

Texas Rural Communities paid $25 per acre for 4,000 acres of virgin land and immediately began the work of clearing it of catclaw and other shrubbery native to the section. Contracts then were awarded to farmers in the vicinity with tractors to flat break and harrow the land. This cost the corporation 75 cents per acre.

Texas Relief Commission engineers and soil conservationists ran terrace lines and Lubbock and Haskell counties furnished road machinery for the doing of the work, which is almost completed. This road machinery soon will begin the construction, call for five-room homes community leading to main county and state highways.

"With this preliminary and fundamental work done," said Orr, "we intend to list the entire 4,000 acres here as soon as possible."

Golfers Enjoy Their Annual Picnic

Following the recent tournament which was won by the team chosen by John Fowler, the boys on the losing side, which was chosen by H. Kennedy, provided the annual feed for the golf club at the City Lake site Tuesday evening of this week. Feeling just a little sorry for the boys they had dusted out, the losers graciously contributed a goodly portion of the cats and the result was one grand feed. There were roasted hot dogs, toasted buns, and the fixings and plenty of ice cream to top the feed off with. The feature of the feast was the super delicious sauce prepared by a secret formula by Tom Johnston. The hot dogs, roasted over an open pit and dunked in this delicious sauce were declared the best ever eaten by everyone who tasted them.

The affair was attended by all members of the Jayton Golf Club and their families.

After the feast, a short business session was held, and officers for the coming year were elected. Tom Jones was elected President by a unanimous vote. The new grounds committee elected were Lee Patton, Earl Harrison and Thos. Fowler.

Q. T. Wade Joins U. S. Marines

New Orleans, La. May 27.—Q. T. Wade of Clairmont was one of ten young men selected for service in the United States Marine Corps at monthly examinations held in this city today. He was transferred to Parris Island S. C. for few weeks preliminary training before assignment to some school, ship, marine barracks or to some overseas station. The Marine Corps offers special instruction in aviation, electrical mechanics, and other specialties. Sea and foreign duty offers a wide range of adventure. Men serving afloat or abroad travel thousands of miles and visit many strange places.

Applicants to fill existing vacancies receive their preliminary examinations in their home localities and those selected receive their final examinations at U. S. Marine Headquarters, 535 St. Charles St. New Orleans, La.

Prior to entering the Marines, Q. T. Wade lived with his Mother, Mrs. Astena B. Wade, at Clairmont. He graduated from Clairmont high school in 1930.

The Proposed Constitutional Amendments

Elsewhere in the Chronicle we publish the seven proposed constitutional amendments that are to be voted on at a special election to be held on the 4th Saturday in August.

All of these proposed amendments are very important and we ask that the readers of the Chronicle who are qualified voters, read them carefully and study them closely and be prepared to vote on them intelligently. A majority of our law makers do not believe the amendments should be put up for a vote.

A part of the fundamental laws of the State or not. It is more important to vote wisely on a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state than it is to vote wisely on any one political candidate. Nothing is of more importance, or has a more reaching effect than for the voters to go wrong on a constitutional amendment.

Ford Minimum Wages to be $6.00

The Ford Motor Co. announced Tuesday the restoration of the $6 a day minimum for all employees.

The prepared statement, issued by the company's advertising counsel, said that all employees working at the previous $5 a day minimum have been advanced to the $6 a day standard, which, the statement added, was the 1929 minimum wage for the Ford Company.

Employees engaged at rates above the minimum were also advanced to higher wage levels through hourly increases of five cents and more.

The statement said that the new scales go into effect at all Ford and Lincoln Motor Company plants and effect 126,000 employees, 81,000 of them in Detroit. Of the Detroit workers, 41,000 are minimum wage employees. The statement estimated the cost of the increase at $2,000,000 a month.

Learn To Swim

The call of the open spaces is with us again, the old swimming hole, lake, river, and shore all have their devotees, but in the contemplation of the good times we are going to have on the water let us pause a moment to resolve that we will not be one of the unfortunate victims that each year is added to the toll of those drowned.

If you expect to spend some time near the water, learn to protect yourself, learn to swim. It is not difficult; you will soon learn to keep afloat, and better still, lose that dreadful fear and panic into which a person is thrown who knows nothing about swimming when he finds himself beyond his depth. Just the ability to keep afloat a few minutes may mean life. And, those of you who can swim! Remember, it is not always the non-swimmer who drowns. Do not let the knowledge that you are a good swimmer make you foolhardy; you can have just as much fun swimming parallel to the shore as trying to make the other side, and it is much safer. It is much more fun to swim with a companion than alone. Don't dive unless you know where you are "heading."

Have you ever stood helplessly by and seen a bungling attempt to resuscitate a drowning person, minutes lost when seconds are precious? The prone pressure method should be started at once. You can learn the proper method in a few minutes yourself.

Swimming is one of the best sports from a health standpoint, but needs to be indulged in with a proper respect for the possible hazards involved. Incidentally, middle-aged and older persons should be physically checked up before engaging too strenuously in this form of activity.

Have Narrow Escape

Mrs. Walter J. Wade, W. E. Wade and K. I. Ward were caught in the flood just this side of Spur last week and escaped from the car by swimming out to the Railroad dump. The car in a few moments after the occupants got out and to safety, was in water to within a few inches of the top. Being a heavy Buick sedan, is probably all that kept it from being swept away by the water. The car stayed in the flood all night. Mrs. Wade spent the night with Mrs. M. Hunter and continued her journey to the plains the next day. J. R. Ward of Jayton went after Med and Kenneth and returned then to Jayton the night after the accident.

L. O. Mayer took his wrecker and brought the car back to Jayton Saturday morning and after cleaning it up good, washing out the dirt and sand and reoiling all parts thinks the car will be as good as ever. The car belonged to Miss Alice Wade.

Just the ability to keep afloat a few minutes may mean life. And, those of you who can swim! Remember, it is not always the non-swimmer who drowns. Do not let the knowledge that you are a good swimmer make you foolhardy; you can have just as much fun swimming parallel to the shore as trying to make the other side, and it is much safer. It is much more fun to swim with a companion than alone. Don't dive unless you know where you are "heading."

Have you ever stood helplessly by and seen a bungling attempt to resuscitate a drowning person, minutes lost when seconds are precious? The prone pressure method should be started at once. You can learn the proper method in a few minutes yourself.

Swimming is one of the best sports from a health standpoint, but needs to be indulged in with a proper respect for the possible hazards involved. Incidentally, middle-aged and older persons should be physically checked up before engaging too strenuously in this form of activity.

Learn To Swim

The call of the open spaces is with us again, the old swimming hole, lake, river, and shore all have their devotees, but in the contemplation of the good times we are going to have on the water let us pause a moment to resolve that we will not be one of the unfortunate victims that each year is added to the toll of those drowned.

If you expect to spend some time near the water, learn to protect yourself, learn to swim. It is not difficult; you will soon learn to keep afloat, and better still, lose that dreadful fear and panic into which a person is thrown who knows nothing about swimming when he finds himself beyond his depth. Just the ability to keep afloat a few minutes may mean life. And, those of you who can swim! Remember, it is not always the non-swimmer who drowns. PATHFINDER SAYS:-

"A prize of a million dollars ought to be given to the genius who thought of the "planned scarcity" idea — if it can be learned what asyln he is in. The idea is worth money to the nation — as an example of WHAT NOT TO DO. That is — it's worth money to us if we know enough not to repeat the same blunder in the future."

The idea to destroy plenty to bring back prosperity and in the destroying of plenty, force millions to the verge of starvation, in order to force up the price to the producers whom the powers to be seem to have forgotten is a consumer also. Reminds us of the fellow that cut his throat to collect his insurance. A dead man can not spend his insurance money.

True, conditions are improving, but not on account of what the brain trusters have done to the country, but in spite of what they have done. With dollar day wages we could buy a little five cent pork to go in our two cent beans, but with dollar day wages we can not buy 30 cent pork or 10 cent beans; therefore, we all go hungry most of the time, and even a scarcity becomes a surplus, no matter how scarce and how high priced.

"When the blind lead the blind we all fall in the ditch together, and it looks as if we were both blind and drunk on the ignorance of the brain trust.

If we could not eat when flour was a dollar a sack, how can we eat when flour goes to two dollars a sack, and wages go down from $3. per day to $1. per day? If we went half clothed when overalls sold for ninety cents, how can we dress up when they are selling at $1.80 and wages are less?

"Truely ignorance must be bliss, that we rejoice in our poverty and starvation, our nakedness and penury."

Don't wait for things to turn up, turn things up while you wait. That's the genius for this rapid age.

Do your part to lift the whole race a notch in the scale of humanity; then your heaven will take care of itself.

In a sense, there is no such thing as free gifts. We pay for all we get. Even when free, we rightly expect the fullest returns in the coinage of the heart. And, like Prometheus, we do not steal fire from the altars of the Gods they would still let us feel and think, but the Olympians would chain us to a rock.

GRISSOM MAY GET APPEALS COURT PLACE

Appointment of Judge W. P. Leslie to the chief justice's post in the eleventh civil appeals court, in which he is now an associate justice, was announced Wednesday by Governor James V. Allred. He will move up to the post vacated by Chief Justice J. E. Hickman, who has been appointed a member of the supreme court commission of appeals.

It is expected that Governor Allred will, this morning, tender the vacancy in the Eastland appellate court to Clyde Grissom of Haskell, now judge of the thirty-ninth district court. Late Wednesday Judge Grissom received a telegram from the governor asking him to come to Austin for conference, the Haskell jurists left immediately.

The man who does things is the man who has determined not to take a nag out until he strikes living water.

There is one painter to which you may make a complete surrender, the passion of lefty ideal.

When Jenny Lind was str'ring old Boston with her power of song. Webster called on her. When he had done, she arose and walked to and fro, and with indomitable earnestness exclaimed: "Oh, that is a man, that is a man. I never saw a man differ."

It is a true fact that the willingness to pronounce a thing impossible in view of the difficulties in the way of its accomplishment grows quickly into a habit. This habit shortens the mental vision; it stifles ingenuity; it discourages enterprise; it limits every power.

TWO SIDES TO SILVER-

The Government's present silver program contains the seeds of great good, and at the same time it involves potentialities for great damage.

Wisely pursued, strengthening the value of silver can be of much aid in stabilizing world monetary systams. And it is likewise beneficial in that it stimulates the long depressed mining industry, and opens up opportunities for investment, employment and general industrial development.

On the other hand, over hasty action in forcing silver prices up inevitably brings with it the fear of inflation, which is in itself a great detriment to the course of recovery.

The government experts have a vast responsibility in seeing to it that silver is given a fair and established value, and that the standing and worth of our currency is not imperiled in the process.

PRESIDENT DENOUNCES 'SPECIOUS LIES' OF SELFISH CRITICS

President Roosevelt's talk to the farmers who journeyed to Washing on to urge continuance of the AAA was described by the Baltimore Sun as "a fighting speech, reminiscent of his 1932 campaign and the 4,500 farmers from thirty states who listened to its delivery from the White House portico punctuated almost every line with cheers, cowboy yells, and gleeful laughter."

Reviewing the AAA to date, the President emphasized that it is an adjustment act, under which production can be increased as well as curtailed, but that there "always must be a check rein." There were only two alternatives to this policy. One would have involved governmental price fixing for farm products, the other unrestrained production with the surpluses dumped in foreign markets. The former clearly would not have solved the farm problem of overproduction. The latter was discarded because other nations had already begun to stop dumping and were raising their tariffs, establishing quotas and clamping on embargoes.

"In record time you farmers set up the machinery to control your own affairs and put the new law to work," he said. "I remember the high and mighty people who said you could not do it, that there was no use for you to try, intimating clearly that their only remedy was to let the sheriff's sales go on. These people did not understand many of them do not today, that if the farm population of the United States loses its purchasing power, the people of the cities of necessity suffer with them. One of the greatest lessons that city dwellers have come to understand in the past two years is this: Empty pocket books on the farm don't turn factory wheels in the city.

"As you know a great many of the high and mighty—with special axes to grind—have been deliberately been trying to mislead the people who know nothing of the farming by misrepresenting—no, why use a pussyfoot word? by lying, about the kind of farm program under which this nation is operating to day.

It is your duty and mine to continue to educate the people to the fact that adjustment means not only adjustment downward but adjustment upward. If we have a bumper crop one year we will, by mutual consent, reduce the next year's crop to even up that carryover. We get a short crop in a given year, you and the government agree to increase the next crop to make up the short age.

"It is high time for you and for me to carry, by education, knowledge of the fact that not a single program of AAA contemplated the destruction of an acre of food crops in spite of what is said by the people with special axes to grind. It is true that the Relief Administration has purchased hundreds of thousands of tons of food stuffs to feed the needy and hungry in every part of the United States.

"The crocodile tears shed by the professional mourners of an old and obsolete order over the slaughter of little pigs and other measures to reduce surplus agriculture inventories deceive very few thinking people.

"Let us make another point clear for the benefit of the millions in the cities who have to buy meat. Last year the nation suffered a drought of unparalleled intensity. If there had been no Government program, if the old order had maintained in 1934 and 1934, that drought on the same ranges and in the corn belt of America would have resulted in the marketing of thin cattle, immature hogs and the death of these animals on the range would have had a vastly greater shortage and much higher prices. Our program saved the lives of millions of head of livestock now in consumption and production.

"The memory of old conditions, under which the products of a whole year's work often would bring not even the cost of transportation of said product to the market, is too fresh in your minds to let you be led astray by the solemn admonitions and specious lies of those who in the past profited most when your distress was greatest.

"You remember and I remember that not so long ago the poor had less food to eat and less clothes to wear and practically gave away their farm products. The surplus were greater and yet the poor were poorer than they are today and when you farmers are getting a reasonable although still insufficient price."

THIRTY-FIVE CENTS FOR DRESSING TABLE

Thirty-five cents for varnish and cotton print for draping purposes is the least I have ever spent in adding furnishings to our home that have been the pleasure and convenience of this dressing table.

This being what Addie Mae Milligan, cooperator of the Girard 4-H club told the county home demonstration agent.

Two orange crates, one board 10 by twenty seven inches, a dried fruit box, a bottle top, varnish and one and one half yards of cotton print were the materials used in making the dressing table.

ONE THING LEADS TO ANOTHER

"Reducing our grocery bill down to an average of three dollars per month since December of '34 by having a pantry filled as adequately as possible has been the means of our being the recent owner of a well built clothes closet which was made of new materials throughout for the small sum of $5.50" says Mrs. H. D. May, wardrobe demonstrator of the Jayton H. D. Club.

"Who would not be proud of a clothes closet which is two feet wide, six feet high with four shelves twelve by twelve inches." she stated.

FINDS HAND PIN CUSHIONS ARE USEFUL

"They are pin, patience and time savers," said Mrs. W. O. McFalls, cooperator of the Harmony H. D. Club, in speaking of pin cushions which can be easily made to wear on your hand while you are fitting and sewing.

These cushions can be made by using a flexible piece of cardboard about one and one-half by two inches. This is slipped in a cover made preferably of wool flannel. Next, stuff with wool which has been cut to bits or sawdust. The cardboard prevents the pins from pricking the back of the hand. Cut a narrow piece of elastic to fit the hand and attach to pin cushion. The elastic holds the pin cushion in place while you are using it.

"I was so pleased with the one I made for myself that I made two for friends and they are equally pleased with theirs," she states.

And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever; nor shall the same, or any part thereof ever be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school, provided that the State Board of Education may furnish State Adopted text books free to every child of scholastic age, attending any school within the State; and the available school fund herein provided shall be distributed to the several counties as may be provided by law and applied in such manner as may be provided by law."

Here are the main reasons given by President Roosevelt for vetoing the Patman Bonus Bill:

1. Full payment of the bonus is not due until 1945.
2. It directs payment to the veterans of $1,600,000,000 more than was contemplated in the 1924 bonus act.
3. It would not be an aid to relief because it would not improve conditions necessary to expand the industries in which there is the greatest unemployment.
4. The issuance of new currency as the method of payment would raise similar demands for the payment of claims of other groups which invites "ultimate reckoning in uncontrollable prices and in the destruction of the value of savings." 5. Congress did not provide additional taxes to cover the expenditure of $2,200,000,000 contemplated in the bill.

Nobody's Business

By Julian Capers Jr.

Austin, Texas.—The old adage "it never rains but it pours," has proved itself again in connection with the Texas oil fields. The Southland Insurance Co. of Dallas is on the catching end this time. Records of the railroad commission recently revealed the fact that the Union Guaranty Company brought in a deep well at well seven miles north of Mercedes. The oil tested out the heaviest gravity of any ever found in the part of the country, 56.9 and Magnolia Southland has 600 acres in the immediate vicinity, located strategically around the well, which has been free of being at its full allowable ever since it came in. Commission reports also show that last week a test my. Duval County was spudded in and new short wells will disclose whether the Southland has oil on another 1200 acres it owns there. Major operations drilled both wells on May 23. Still a third announcement last week reported the Orlean Oil company had found production on a well owned by Southland near Wichita, Oklahoma. Under a quarter choke, the well is flowing about 10 barrels daily and is expected to develop into a large producer under normal conditions. One of these three wells could make the Southland one of the richest companies of its size in America, should any one or more of the three develop present indications.

James Jr., seven year old son of Arthur James V. Allred, has demonstrated that a good many Texans do not know their Texas History. To review their Texas History for the Centennial, Mr. Jimmie observed the following comments which visitors to the executive mansion had on view of the beautiful oil portraits of two of our greatest heroes—Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin—that hung in the mansion. So he switched the two brass plates, with the names of the two men that were on the bases of the frames. He giggled delightedly to him for a couple of hours as dozens of visitors admired "General Houston" gazing at the portrait of Austin and vice versa. Not one of them noticed the difference and young Jimmie had so much fun he could not keep the secret, so he told his father. The governor sternly bade him put the proper name back on the portrait, but Jimmie Jr., still a child, it was a good joke.

Now comes the prospect of dog racing as another "amusement" device which Texas citizens can't get their earnings, if the slot machines, marble boards and horse racing machines leave them any. A syndicate in Dallas has announced that it will build a $10,000 dog racing track, and District Attorney Bob Hurt of Dallas County threatened with an injunction if track attempts to open. Attorneys for the promoters claim the Antonio Court of Civil Appeals rendered a decision that dog betting is as legal as horse betting. The dog tracks aim to pocket book of the little fellow who can't afford to go to a track. They charge 25 to 50 cents admission, and take bets from the starter up. Bill Cunningham, a Texas Newspaper man, recently wrote a graphic account of dogs are trained to chase the animal rabbit by attaching a real Easter rabbit to the machine, letting the dogs chase it after they have been starved for several days. The dogs catch the helpless bunny and devour it. Nobody's business recommends to any reader who isn't sure how he feels about dog racing that he read Cunningham's article in a recent issue of Col-

Charles H. (Chuck) Newell, once president and general manager of the Dallas Dispatch and later publisher of the Texarkana Press, has recently been elected manager of the Highway branch of the Associated General Contractors of America, with headquarters at the Hotel Newell, known to most newspaper men as an able member of their clan, plans to make association of further benefit to the people of the state as well as road builders. Shortly the state will inaugurate an information, prepared to furnish any information on any road project in the state to newspaper editors, daily or weekly, who will take the trouble

Methodist young people of Stamford District will hold a Pre-Assembly Rally at Knox City, May 25-26 for the purpose of closing out the work of the assembly year, and completing plans for attending the Nineteenth Annual Northwest Texas Conference Young People's Summer Assembly, which is to be held at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, June 3rd, to 7th. Under the leadership of the district staff, plans have been made for an Auto-cade to run from Stamford to Abilene on June 3rd, carrying between fifty and seventy five young people from this district.

The program for the Knox City meet will be under the direction of the new district director, Frank Cockral, and built around the theme, "Forward with Christ". Registration for the expected two hundred guests will begin at five o'clock Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist Church. Nineteenth Annual Northwest Texas Conference Methodist Young People's Summer Assembly will be held at McMurry College, Abilene, Texas, June 3-7. The theme for this year's assembly will be: "Follow Me." More than thirty outstanding personalities have been secured for the program. Five hundred delegates, ages 16 - 23, representing all churches of the conference are expected to attend.

Golfers Enjoy Their Annual Picnic

Following the recent tournament which was won by the team chosen by John Fowler, the boys on the losing side, which was chosen by H. Kenady, provided the annual feed for the golf club at the City Lake site Tuesday evening of this week. Feeling just a little sorry for the boys they had ousted out, the losers graciously contributed a goodly portion of the eats and the result was one grand feed. There were roasted hot dogs, toasted buns, and the fixings and plenty of ice cream to top the feed off with. The feature of the feast was the super delicious sauce prepared by a secret formula by Tom Johnston. The hot dogs, roasted over an open pit and dunked in this delicious sauce were declared the best ever eaten by everyone who tasted them.

The affair was attended by all members of the Jayton Golf Club and their families. After the feast, a short business session was held, and officers for the coming year were elected. Tom Jones was elected President by a unanimous vote. The new grounds committee elected were Lee Patton, Earl Harrison and Thos. Fowler.

Have Narrow Escape

Mrs. Walter J. Wade, W. E. Wade and K. I. Ward were caught in the flood just this side of Spur last week and escaped from the car by swimming out to the Railroad dump. The car in a few moments after the occupants got out and to safety, was in water to within a few inches of the top. Being a heavy Buick sedan, is probably all that kept it from being swept away by the water. The car stayed in the flood all night. Mrs. Wade spent the night with Mrs. M. Hunter and continued her journey to the plains the next day. J. R. Ward of Jayton went after Med and Kenneth and returned then to Jayton the night after the accident.

L. O. Mayer took his wrecker and brought the car back to Jayton Saturday morning and after cleaning it up good, washing out the dirt and sand and reoiling all parts thinks the car will be as good as ever. The car belonged to Miss Alice Wade.

G. H. Brown and Thos Fowler are attending Federal Court at Lubbock this week. Wesley Osman and H. W. Davis of Claremont are also reported as being in attendance at the Federal Court.

There is some new improvements in the Post Office building this week in the form of new paint for the boxes.

to write and ask for it. With millions of dollars of State and Federal funds available for highway construction in Texas this year, local newspapers and citizens committees interested in highway development in their sections should find Newell a capable and accommodating ally.

Farmers Busy Planting Moisture is Plentiful

The more than three inches of rainfall last week has started farm work in this county as nothing else could. Every farmer is busy at this time getting the seed in the ground and Jayton has been as deserted this week as a graveyard after nightfall.

If the weather holds good there will be very little land left for seeding after top days, and much of the early planting will have been worked out the first time. The wheat and oats that survived the dry weather is growing fast and one more good rain will assure a better than average harvest. While there is a very limited acreage in those grains they will continue to contribute their part toward a financial recovery of the county.

Early planted feed crops are looking good and the pastures are coming fast and it will only be a matter of a few weeks until the cattle will be rolling in grass and weeds and putting on fat and growth that will mean many additional dollars to the cattle man.

If the weather man will treat us half way right the rest of the year, this country known as the east part of West Texas will stage a comeback that will astonish the world.

We can't hope to make two crops in one year but we do hope to make one big crop in two years, and if we do, watch us strut our stuff, pay our debts and dress up once more.

Work and Starve

Most men before starving will work, but most also prefer to starve without working and starving. No man has had a higher opinion of the President than the editor of this paper, but when he set wages for his four billion dollar work relief undertaking so low that the worker could not support himself in decency let alone support an average family, we feel free to stop down off his band wagon and beg Hoovers pardon for some things we have said and thought about him.

The idea was when the four billion was set aside for work relief, to take all able bodied men off the relief rolls and place them on the work rolls of the government. If they refuse to work when able, then let them starve. The proposed wage scale as we understood it would be $50 per month. We still believe a man can afford to work for $50 per month and we further believe every man who is able to work would gladly get off the relief rolls and go to work for the above wages. But we don't believe any man with a wife and as many as two or more children can afford to work for a dollar a day or less and pay rent, buy fuel, pay doctor bills, and have anything more to wear than the cheapest of rags or anything more to eat than rabbit stew. And if he worked how could he run down the rabbits?

The Proposed Constitutional Amendments

Elsewhere in the Chronicle we publish the seven proposed constitutional amendments that are to be voted on at a special election to be held on the 4th Saturday in August.

All of these proposed amendments are very important and we ask that the readers of the Chronicle who are qualified voters, read them carefully and study them closely and be prepared to vote on them intelligently. A majority of our law makers would like to have the amendments passed but it is left up to the voters to say whether they become a part of the fundamental laws of the State or not. It is more important to vote wisely on a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state than it is to vote wisely on any one political candidate. Nothing of more importance, or has a more reaching effect than for the voters to go wrong on a constitutional amendment.

Ford Minimum Wages to be $6.00

The Ford Motor Co. announced Tuesday the restoration of the $6 a day minimum for all employees.

The prepared statement, issued by the company's advertising counsel, said that all employees working at the previous $5 a day minimum have been advanced to the $6 a day standard, which, the statement added, was the 1929 minimum wage for the Ford Company.

Employees engaged at rates above the minimum were also advanced to higher wage levels through hourly rate increases of five cents and more.

The statement said that the new scales go into effect at all Ford and Lincoln Motor Company plants and effect 126,000 employees, 81,000 of them in Detroit. Of the Detroit workers, 41,000 are minimum wage employees. The statement estimated the cost of the increase at $2,000,000 a month.

Learn To Swim

The call of the open spaces is with us again, the old swimming hole, lake, river, and shore all have their devotees, but in the contemplation of the good times we are going to have on the water let us pause a moment to resolve that we will not be one of the unfortunate victims that each year is added to the toll of those drowned.

If you expect to spend some time near the water, learn to protect yourself, learn to swim. It is not difficult; you will soon learn to keep afloat, and better still, lose that dreadful fear and panic into which a person is thrown who knows nothing about swimming when he finds himself beyond his depth. Just the ability to keep afloat a few minutes may mean life. And, those of you who can swim! Remember, it is not always the non-swimmer who drowns.

Do not let the knowledge that you are a good swimmer make you foolhardy; you can have just as much fun swimming parallel to the shore as trying to make the other side, and it is much safer. It is much more fun to swim with a companion than alone. Don't dive unless you know where you are "heading."

Have you ever stood helplessly by and seen a bungling attempt to resuscitate a drowning person, minutes lost when seconds are precious? The prone pressure method should be started at once. You can learn the proper method in a few minutes yourself.

Swimming is one of the best sports from a health standpoint, but needs to be indulged in with a proper respect for the possible hazards involved. Incidentally, middle-aged and older persons should be physically checked up before engaging too strenuously in this form of activity.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Campbell visited in Jayton this week.

Clint Edwards and wife are on a vacation in Arkansas.

Farm Colony Has 10-Mile Terrace

On the site of the Ropesville rural community in the eastern part of Hockley county, where Texas Rural Communities is preparing to build homes for 66 homesteaders, is the longest farm terrace in the world.

It measures 10 3/4 miles in length and it required 10 1-2 hours for men operating construction machinery to complete one round in building it.

"It is the longest terrace I have ever heard of," said W. B. Orr, assistant general manager of Texas Rural Communities, who has charge of all the corporations collective rehabilitation projects, "and its construction cost of $12 per mile makes it also the most economical job with which I am acquainted."

When the job has been completed, home steads will move onto a tract of 4,000 acres of land on which approximately 165 miles of terraces have been built to hold the water on the land.

Ropesville is situated in eastern Hockley county on the Santa Fe railroad, 20 miles southeast of Lubbock on the South Plains, which in recent years became one of the leading cotton producing regions of the state.

Texas Rural Communities paid $25 per acre for 4,000 acres of virgin land and immediately began the work of clearing it of catclaw and other shrubbery native to the section. Contractors then were awarded to farmers in the vicinity with tractors to flat break and harrow the land. This cost the corporation 75 cents per acre.

Texas Relief Commissions engineers and soil conservationists ran terrace lines and Lubbock and Hockley counties furnished road machinery for the doing of the work, which is almost completed. This road machinery soon will begin the construction, call for five-room homes community leading to main county and state highways.

"With this preliminary and fundamental work completed, we intend to lift the entire 4,000 acres and plant grain sorghums. Since there are no fence lines yet constructed to interfere with large-scale tractor farming, we hope under normal conditions to make a profit from our grain crop this year.

"Farming operations, however, will not interfere with construction of homes for the settlers, and this part of the program will be started in the next few weeks. Plans have already been approved by federal authorities, call for five-room homes, a barn, a chicken house, individual wells, water system and the necessary fencing.

"Houses will vary slightly in design to avoid a stereotyped appearance, will be of frame construction, and scientifically planned to provide the utmost utility. Our application for $228,000 with which to build permanent improvements has been approved by Washington and we will begin construction as soon as the money is received.

"The families selected for the Ropesville community will pay on an average $3,600 for their land and improvements, payments to be amortized over a period of 35 years. Originally, it was planned to allow each homesteader to buy 40 acres, but we have since become convinced that it will take 60 acres in that section of Texas to enable a farmer to meet his obligations."

Although the entire acreage is being planted to grain crops this year, the land by the next farming season will be fenced into 60-acre plots and individual farmers will operate them independently of their neighbors; however, the corporation will finance farming operations, as well as the storing, handling and processing of the products from the individual farms.

PATHFINDER SAYS:-

"A prize of a million dollars ought to be given to the genius who thought of the 'planned scarcity' idea—if it can be learned what asyln he is in. The idea is worth money to the nation— as an example of WHAT NOT TO DO. That is — it's worth money to us if we know enough not to repeat the same blunder in the future."

The idea to destroy plenty to bring back prosperity and in the destroying of plenty, force millions to the verge of starvation, in order to force up the price to the producers whom the powers to be seem to have forgotten is a consumer also. Reminds us of the fellow that cut his throat to collect his insurance. A dead man can not spend his insurance money.

True, conditions are improving, but not on account of what the brain trusters have done to the country, but in spite of what they have done. With dollar day wages we could buy a little five cent pork to go in our two cent beans, but with dollar day wages we can not buy 30 cent pork or ten cent beans; therefore, we all go hungry most of the time, and even a scarcity becomes a surplus, no matter how scarce and how high priced.

"When the blind lead the blind we all fall in the ditch together, and it looks as if we were both blind and drunk on the ignorance of the brain trust.

If we could not eat when flour was a dollar a sack, how can we eat when flour goes to two dollars a sack, and wages go down from $3. per day to $1. per day? If we went half clothed when overalls sold for ninety cents how can we dress up when they are selling at $1.80 and wages are less?

"Truly ignorance must be bliss, that we rejoice in our poverty and starvation, our nakedness and poverty."

Don't wait for things to turn up turn things up while you wait. That's the genius for this rapid age.

Do your part to lift the whole race a notch in the scale of humanity; then your heaven will take care of itself.

In a sense, there is no such thing as free gifts. We pay for all we get. Even when free, we rightly expect the fullest returns in the coinage of the heart. And, like Prometheus, were we to steal fire from the altars of the Gods they would still let us feel and think, but the Olympians would chain us to a rock.

GRISSOM MAY GET APPEALS COURT PLACE

Appointment of Judge W. P. Leslie to the chief justice's post in the eleventh civil appeals court, in which he is now an associate justice, was announced Wednesday by Governor James V. Allred. He will move up to the post vacated by Chief Justice J. E. Hickman, who has been appointed a member of the supreme court commission of appeals.

It is expected that Governor Allred will, this morning, tender the vacancy in the Eastland appellate court to Clyde Grissom of Haskell, now judge of the thirty-ninth district court. Late Wednesday Judge Grissom received a telegram from the governor asking him to come to Austin for conference, the Haskell jurists left immediately.

The best vintage, though it may not appear so then, is gathered from our misfortunes.

The low and sensual ideals of life cannot be lost sight of, however brilliantly set out and gorgeously attired.

The shadow reports—true of the substance. There are no doubtful foreshadowings of your inner self.

That man is wise in his choice of literature if he forms the iron-clad rule, to read only the books and articles that generates independent thought.

The man who does things is the man who has determined not to take his anger out until he strikes living water.

There is one passion to which you may make a complete surrender, the passion of lofty ideal.

When Jenny Lind was stirring old Doston with her power of song, Webster called on her. When he had gone, she arose and walked to and fro, and with indescribable earnestness exclaimed: "Oh, that is a man, that is a man. I never saw a man before."

It is a true fact that the willingness to pronounce a thing impossible in view of the difficulties in the way of its accomplishment grows quickly into a habit. This habit shortens the mental vision; it stifles ingenuity; it discourages enterprise; it limits every power.

TWO SIDES TO SILVER--

The Government's present silver program contains the seeds of great good, and at the same time it involves potentialities for great damage.

Wisely pursued, strengthening the value of silver can be of much aid in stabilizing world monetary systems. And it is likewise beneficial in that it stimulates the long depressed mining industry, and opens up opportunities for investment, employment and general industrial development.

On the other hand, over hasty action in forcing silver prices up inevitably brings with it the fear of inflation, which is in itself a great detriment to the course of recovery. The government experts have a vast responsibility in seeing to it that silver is given a fair and established value, and that the standing and worth of our currency is not imperiled in the process.

PRESIDENT DENOUNCES
'SPECIOUS LIES' OF SELFISH CRITICS

President Roosevelt's talk to the farmers who journeyed to Washington to urge continuance of the AAA was described by the Baltimore Sun as "a fighting speech, reminiscent of his 1932 campaign and the 4,500 farmers from thirty states who listened to its delivery from the White House portico punctuated almost every line with cheers, cowboy yells, and gleeful laughter."

Reviewing the AAA to date, the President emphasized that it is an adjustment act, under which production can be increased as well as curtailed, but that there "always must be a check rein." There were only two alternatives to this policy. One would have involved governmental price fixing for farm products, the other unrestrained production with the surpluses dumped in foreign markets. The former clearly would not have solved the farm problem of overproduction. The latter was discarded because other nations had already begun to stop dumping and were raising their tariffs, establishing quotas and clamping on embargoes.

"In record time you farmers set up the machinery to control your own affairs and put the new law to work," he said. "I remember the high and mighty people who said you could not do it, that there was no use for you to try, intimating clearly that their only remedy was to let the sheriff's sales go on. These people did not understand many of them do not today, that if the farm population of the United States loses its purchasing power, the people of the cities of necessity suffer with them. One of the greatest lessons that city dwellers have come to understand in the past two years is this: Empty pocket books on the farm don't turn factory wheels in the city."

"As you know a great many of the high and mighty—with special axes to grind—have been deliberately trying to mislead the people who know nothing of the farming by misrepresenting—no, why use a pussyfoot word? by lying, about the kind of farm program under which this nation is operating to day."

It is your duty and mine to continue to educate the people to the fact that adjustment means not only adjustment downward but adjustment upward. If we have a bumper crop one year we will, by mutual consent, reduce the next years crop to even up that carryover. If we get a short crop in a given year, and the government agree to increase the next crop to make up the short age.

"It is high time for you and for me to carry, by education, knowledge of the fact that not a single program of AAA contemplated the destruction of an acre of food crops in spite of what is said by the people with special axes to grind. It is true that the Relief Administration has purchased hundreds of thousands of tons of food stuffs to feed the needy and hungry in every part of the United States."

"The crocodile tears shed by the professional mourners of an old and obsolete order over the slaughter of little pigs and other measures to reduce surplus agriculture inventories deceive very few thinking people."

"Let us make another point clear for the benefit of the millions in the cities who have to buy meat. Last year the nation suffered a drought of unparalleled intensity. If there had been no Government program, if the old order had maintained in 1933 and 1934, that drought on the cattle ranges and in the corn belt of America would have resulted in the marketing of thin cattle, immature hogs and the death of these animals on the range would have had a vastly greater shortage and much higher prices. Our program saved the lives of millions of head of livestock now in consumption and reproduction.

"The memory of old conditions, under which the products of a whole year's work often would bring not even the cost of transportation of said product to the market, is too fresh in your minds to let you be led astray by the solemn admonitions and specious lies of those who in the past profited most when your distress was greatest."

"You remember and I remember that not so long ago the poor had less food to eat and less clothes to wear and practically gave away their farm products. The surplus were greater and yet the poor were poorer than they are today and when you farmers are getting a reasonable although still insufficient price."

THIRTY-FIVE CENTS FOR DRESSING TABLE
"Thirty-five cents for varnish and cotton print for draping purposes is the least I have ever spent in adding furnishings to our home that have been the pleasure and convenience of this dressing table."

This being what Addie Mae Milligan, cooperater of the Girard 4-H club told the county home demonstration agent.
Two orange crates, one board 10 by twenty seven inches, a dried fruit box, a bottle top, varnish and one and one half yards of cotton print were the materials used in making the dressing table.

ONE THING LEADS TO ANOTHER

"Reducing our grocery bill down to an average of three dollars per month since December of '34 by having a pantry filled as adequately as possible has been the means of our being the recent owner of a well built clothes closet which was made of new materials throughout for the small sum of $5.50" says Mrs. H. D. May, wardrobe demonstrator of the Jayton H. D. Club.

"Who would not be proud of a clothes closet which is two feet wide, six feet in length and seven feet in height with four shelves twelve by twelve."

FINDS HAND PIN CUSHIONS ARE USEFUL

"They are pin, patience and time savers," said Mrs. W. O. McFalls, cooperater of the Harmony H. D. Club, in speaking of pin cushions which can be easily made to wear on your hand while you are fitting and sewing.

These cushions can be made by using a flexible piece of cardboard about one and one-half by two inches. This is slipped in a cover made preferably of wool flannel. Next, stuff with wool which has been cut to bits or sawdust. The cardboard prevents the pins from pricking the back of the hand. Cut a narrow piece of elastic to fit the hand and attach to pin cushion. The elastic holds the pin cushion in place while you are using it.

"I was so pleased with the one I made for myself that I made two for friends and they are equally pleased with theirs," she states.

The general rule in the feed lot is for chickens to eat what the horses scatter but on E. C. Schneider's farm in Waller county 270 white leghorn hens have reversed this order and bought the feed for four work horses after paying their own board bill.

DR. J. H. WAYLAND FREED OF CHARGE

MAIN REASONS FOR VETO

1. Full payment of the bonus is not due until 1945.
2. It directs payment to the veterans of $1,600,000,000 more than was contemplated in the 1924 bonus act.
3. It would not be an aid to relief because it would not improve conditions necessary to expand the industries in which there is the greatest unemployment.
4. The issuance of new currency as the method of payment would raise similar demands for the payment of claims of other groups which invites "ultimate reckoning in uncontrollable prices and in the destruction of the value of savings."

5. Congress did not provide additional taxes to cover the expenditure of $2,200,000,000 contemplated in the bill.
