New Well Water Turned Into Mains

Jayton citizens were using that good soft water, they have heard so much about for so long, this week; for it was turned into the mains last Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

There is no comparison between the new well water at the city lake and the old gyp well water from the square, but the old gyp well has been worth its weight in gold in its time, and has earned the right to remain in operation for emergency use.

Yes, Jayton now has plenty of good water and the men who were responsible deserve resounding applause of appreciation for their efforts.

There is still more work to be done on the new well and equipment to be installed as soon as it can be obtained.

Protection Against Typhoid Fever

Austin, Texas. — If you have not been vaccinated against typhoid fever within the last two or three years, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises you to go to your doctor or to the nearest health officer and have him give you the three "shots" that will protect you against the disease.

"The three shots that will protect against typhoid are given at intervals of one week apart," Dr. Cox stated. "As it takes some time for the protective treatment to be established throughout the system, it is wise not to delay in having it done. My advice is, have it done now so that immunization may be complete before summer arrives and vacation trips are taken."

This advice was addressed particularly to Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and other youngsters who are looking forward to spring and summer camps and trips. It is, however, also for others, young and old, whose business or pleasure during the summer will take them to places where there may be doubt as to the purity or safety of the water supply, or as to the care with which food is handled.

The old adage that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is particularly applicable to this disease, which is so dangerous and debilitating when it does occur, and which can be prevented, so easily through immunization.

Jayton Baseball Club Organized

Last Friday evening at 7:30, about 18 men and boys of Jayton met at the Chronicle Office for the purpose of organizing a baseball club.

The meeting was called to order by B. J. Kellett and P. D. Allen was elected temporary chairman. Mr. Allen took charge of the meeting and the group elected Gaston Jackson as manager and Barney Gardner assistant manager.

A number of topics were discussed such as uniforms, equipment, ball diamond and to what league, if any, the club would want to join.

A number of business men have promised to buy uniforms and donate money for equipment. It was decided to use the ball diamond on the school ground for the present, and the Caprock League will be the one the club will join if the necessary players can be arranged for.

A practice session was held Sunday afternoon and about 20 players were on hand to show the managers what they could do. The team needs a good pitcher and the managers are on the lookout for one this week.

Another practice session will be held next Sunday afternoon and maybe a practice game, be there.

Labor Bill Passed By House

Representative George Mahon reports that the long awaited labor bill designed to protect the public and prevent abuses by labor bosses and management passed the House of Representatives in Washington last week by the overwhelming vote of 308 to 107. The bill now goes to the Senate for consideration where some revisions are anticipated. Mahon expressed the hope that when the bill is put in final shape it will be reasonably fair to all concerned, meaning fair to labor and industry, and not least of all, the public.

The Texas Members were divided on the final vote on the bill, Mahon, along with 13 other Texans, voted for the measure, and 5 voted against it.

Georgia Willis Weds James Porter

Double ring wedding rites united Georgia Faye Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Willis of Girard, and James K. Porter, son of the Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Porter of Girard Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church at Girard. The Rev. M. L. Porter of Peacock officiated at the ceremony before an altar of fern, lilacs and gladioluses.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and she was attended by Lorene Beadle, maid of honor. R. L. Porter Jr. attended his brother as best man.

Lawanda Porter played the traditional wedding music at the piano.

The bride wore a white suit, blue blouse and white hat with white accessories. For something old she wore a gold wedding band belonging to her mother, and for something borrowed she carried a white Bible.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Porter. Mrs. Porter greeted the guests, and the newlyweds cut the white wedding cake from the white covered table centered with an arrangement of lilacs. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

After a brief wedding trip the couple will be at home at Wellington where the bridegroom is employed with the Wellington Leader.

JOSEPHINE WATSON. ROSALIE COPPING, winner of a national photographer's model contest in Akron, O., took first honors attired in a film bathing suit made entirely of limestone, coke and salt by the B. ## KENT COUNTY OIL NOTES

Humble Oil and Refining Company No. 1 Boren, section 46, block 5, H and GN survey, prospective quarter-mile north extension to the Polar pool of southwestern Kent County, bottomed at 7,800 feet in the Ellenburger, was preparing to install pump and complete after failing to develop commercial flowing production from 7,793 to total depth.

Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

Most farm commodities moved at about steady to slightly higher prices at southwest markets last week according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture; but sheep and hogs weakened materially.

Demand for vegetables improved in the Lower Rio Grande Valley last week. Cabbage prices strengthened as the season neared its end and quality declined. Carrots sold a little higher, too; and potatoes found better demand at unchanged prices. Onions moved slowly in a weak market, and shipments were expected to begin tapering off rapidly. Squash and snap beans remained a light supply. Citrus held about steady. More leafy vegetables moved into Fort Worth and strawberries brought $5.00 a crate.

Egg and poultry markets strengthened slightly last week. Heavy hens brought mostly 28 to 30 cents per pound and fryers 32. Week's egg prices averaged 37 cents per dozen at Topeka and Wichita Falls; 38 at Amarillo, Lubbock, and San Antonio; 39 at Oklahoma City and Waco; 39½ at New Orleans; 40 at Dallas, Fort Worth, Denver, Corpus Christi and El Paso; 42 at Houston and Carlsbad; and 43 at Shreveport.

Mature slaughter cattle sold mostly steady to some higher last week, but other classes lost ground at some terminals. Good weighty cows cleared mostly at $15.50 to $16.50 at Houston and Wichita, and $16 to $17 in Oklahoma City. Medium and good kinds moved around $13.50 to $16.50 at San Antonio, Fort Worth, and Denver. Heavy heifers brought up to $18 at Houston; good yearling heifers $21 at Fort Worth; and medium and good heifers mostly $17 to $21.50 at Oklahoma City and Wichita.

Hogs dropped $1.00 to $3.00 or more at southwest markets last week. Closing bulk prices at Fort Worth ranged from $24.25 to $24.75 on good and choice medium weight butcher hogs; $23 to $24 on heavy weights; and $19 to $19.50 on sows. Late top was $24 at San Antonio and Oklahoma City; $24.25 at Wichita; and $24.50 at Denver.

Slaughter lambs lost 50 cents to $3.00 per hundred pounds at various southwest points, but aged sheep held mostly steady. Bulk of good and choice spring lambs sold at $20 to $21 at San Antonio, Fort Worth, and Oklahoma City; $21 to $22 at Wichita; and $21 to $21.25 at Denver. Medium clipped goats brought $7 to $7.50 at San Antonio.

Wheat recovered from its early-week slump to close Friday just a little lower at $2.87 per bushel in Fort Worth and Galveston. Other grains saw only slight day-to-day changes. Light offerings and slow demand ruled most grain markets.

Milled rice markets remained firm. Rain and cool weather held back planting. Alfalfa hay developed a weaker undertone, but scarce prairie hay sold firm to higher. Light demand for ample supplies of most feeds held prices little changed. Wet fields delayed peanut planting in North Texas, but other areas went forward on schedule. CCC ceased buying wool April 15. Good French combing Texas wool failed to sell at $1.02.

Cotton weakened early last week, but spot prices climbed back up to net gains of $1.75 to $3.00 per bale. Demand improved some, but better grades sold most readily.

DON'T SHOOT THE PIANO PLAYER!

There was once a sign in a famous frontier saloon which said: "Don't shoot the piano player—he's doing the best he can."

That would be a good slogan to apply to your retail store operator in these days of whirling dervish prices and variable qualities.

All of us gripe about the fact that a basket of groceries that used to cost ten dollars now runs to twenty or more, and that old dollar-ninety-five shirt carries a three-fifty price tag. But that isn't the retailer's doing—and he doesn't like it any better than you do, because it limits sales and irks the consumer. His unit profits are no larger than they used to be—and in many cases are smaller. And it also isn't his fault; if he can't supply just what you want when you want it. Stocks are by no means complete as yet, but they are being built up fast in most lines.

The retailer's fine work during the war should not be forgotten. Long before government price control, the retail industry, including both the chains and the independents, voluntarily held down prices and did a fine job of it. They fought profiteering and hoarding. They divided scarce goods as equitably as possible among their customers. That kind of public spirit still dominates retailing. And the consumer should realize that it is keeping prices lower and quantities higher than they would be otherwise.

There is no Texan about whom more stories are told than David Crockett, tho' most of them relate to his days in Tennessee before he came to Texas. Incidentally, while your radio columnist was in Crockett recently, citizens pointed out the tree under which the famous hunter camped while on his way to San Antonio where he died gloriously in the Alamo.

David moved into a new country in Tennessee when he was a young man. All he had to do on moving day was pour water on the fire and whistle up the dogs. He was made justice of the peace and as he said, "I got along pretty well. My judgments were never appealed from but if they had been they would have stuck like wax, as I gave my decisions on the principles of common justice and honesty between man and man, and relied on natural-born sense and not law-learning to guide me for I had never read a page in a law book in my life."

FOR Mothers Day
NYLON HOSE
CANDY
ALEXANDER DRUG

After serving in the legislature, Crockett decided to run for Congress. His opponents were two dignified and solemn individuals who took themselves quite seriously and ignored the back-woodsman in his hunting costume who told jokes and discussed matters in a common-sense kind of way. When the votes were counted, he had beaten both of them put together. He had to borrow money to make the trip to Washington. On his way, he stopped at an inn and in trying to get to the fire he accidentally jostled a self-important chap who demanded "Who do you think you are?" Davy shouted, "I'm Davy Crockett, half horse and half alligator, a little touched with the snapping turtle. I can wade the Mississippi, jump the Ohio, ride a streak o'lightnin' and slide down a honey-locust with cut a scratch. I can whip my weight in wilcats and, if any gentleman please, for a $10-bill, he can throw in a panther. I can hug a bear to close for comfort and I can lick any man that's against Andrew Jackson."

Have you ever been to Hot Springs, Arkansas?

It's not so far from us Texans—325 miles from Fort Worth—less than from Wichita Falls to San Antonio for instance, and Texas folks think nothing of a drive like that.

Your columnist visited Hot Springs recently—and it was a most enjoyable experience. All activities seem to center on the main street because the city is in two sections which are connected only by that one thoroughfare, so closely do the mountains press at the midway point.

And such a main street! On one side is bathhouse row, places of store in a setting of trees and velvety lawns, and in the distance the vast structure which is the Arlington Hotel, on the other side of the street, shops with displays of lace, jewelry and curios. People from every state in the Union saunter in a leisurely manner along the sidewalk. Incidentally, Texas ranks second for out-of-state visitors, Illinois being first.

There are sight-seeing buses drawn up at the curb, and there is a shooting gallery on that main street—the targets are against the side of a mountain. One spot was blasted out of solid rock to make room for a filling station and nearby is a bus stop which is only a few paces from a ledge of rock under which one can take refuge from rain.

Over yonder is an ancient two-seated carriage, the kind the governor used to ride in when there was a parade when you were a boy; and the old driver is wearing a high top hat. honeymooners go for a drive in the quaint vehicle, and of course have their picture taken. From somewhere there comes the sound of music—and you look through a fringe of trees and see, in a park bandstand, an Army band. Hot Springs has facilities for 31,000 visitors, declares Miss Alta Smith, of the Chamber of Commerce, who for years has ably publicized the city's many attractions. But the races were in progress and finding accommodations for the wife, her mother and myself was a problem—which Miss Smith solved by appealing to a former Texan, Vance Bryan, who used to run a big trucking business out of Killeen and now is owner of the Jack Tar Court Hotel, favorite stopping place for famous athletes, big business men and movie stars—the most luxurious quarters I've ever seen.

To sum up the swirl of impressions of the three days: Hot Springs seems a fantastic fair, colorful fiesta, a perpetual holiday where everyone is having a great time.

Did you hear about the man who advertised for a wife in the newspapers and received letters from 200 husbands to the effect that he could have theirs?

Small boy writing answers to an anatomy test: "Your legs is what if you ain't got two pretty good ones you can't get to first base, and neither can your sister."

Hail Insurance On Growing Crops

With the recent good rains it looks like a good wheat year. Better protect it against hail as it could be destroyed in just a few moments by hail

Come in and let me explain HAIL INSURANCE for your wheat. I can insure it up to $24.00 per acre, and it does not cost any more now than later, and will give you protection until harvest.

SAVE SUGAR FOR CANNING

College Station. — Easy on the sugar! There will be no sugar stamps issued for home canning this year.

As consumers start using the sugar made available by a new 10-pound stamp April 1, the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service cautions that the sugar bought with the new stamp will have to take care of both home and canning needs. No stamps labeled specifically for home canning will be issued this summer.

Miss Gwendolyn Jones, Extension food preservation specialist, explains that this situation does not mean that each consumer will get less sugar this year. Actually, each person will get 30 or 35 pounds this year in comparison with only 25 pounds last year. In the past, the OPA issued stamps at regular intervals for regular table use, and, at canning time, issued canning sugar stamps. Under the board's new system, each stamp is worth ten pounds instead of four or five, but no canning stamps are available. Therefore, home-makers will have to save from this last 10 pound stamp if they plan to do any home canning.

The stamp issued April 1 will be good until October 1.

DUCK CREEK SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

To the farmer and rancher, soil and moisture conservation means money. To the public it means food. Anything that causes loss of soil or moisture therefore hurts the farmer, rancher and the public. Not yet, however, is the public fully aware of the fact that poor land management leads to a scarcity of good food; to inferior food at higher prices; that soil and moisture conservation puts high quality food in store counters at reasonable prices. As consumers become interested in these matters that touch them so closely, it also becomes apparent that there are ways in which they can encourage the farmer and rancher in their effort to produce the maximum quantity of good food while conserving his land.

Veterans News

The Veterans Administration has reviewed more than a third of its disability compensation cases in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi in the Congressionally-authorized program to establish more accurate ratings for disabled veterans, VA reported this week.

Of the 207,000 compensation and pension cases in VA's Dallas Branch Area subject to review under the new disability rating schedule approved by the last Congress, VA has reviewed 75,353 cases, slightly more than 36 per cent.

VA said virtually all veterans drawing compensation for service-connected disabilities will have their cases reviewed under the new schedule. Reviews are automatic, therefore, VA requested disabled veterans not to make inquiries about their cases while they are pending.

Although the new schedule provides increased ratings for certain types of disabilities and decreases for other types, it does not make any blanket change in rating. However, the increases far outnumber the decreases.

WESTERN THEME IS FOLLOWED IN JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The shrill, lonely howl of a coyote and the blood-curdling answer of its mate was the only sounds as a hazy moon rose over the far distant hills on a quiet, still night of April 19, 1947.

All of a sudden the pounding of horses' hoofs could be heard. Into the skyline the silhouette of the Lone Ranger (Melvin Mathis) was galloping ahead at full speed. But where could he be going? To his left about three miles—"Deep in the Heart of Texas"—lay the home corals of J. H. S. Ah! tonight — he mused, "I'll have much fun and I shore is hungry." Then Hi Ho Silver took him away. He was soon joined by the handsome Range Rider (Ray Dunlap). Upon reaching the old headquarters they found it was in a general uproar. Out in the bunkhouse the top hands, (Ray Culver, Melvin Murphy, Fenney Derden, E. W. Cade, Delton Fisher) were spinning yarns and sawing whiskers. In the home ranch house, the gals (Joyce Brantner, Ollie Engledow, Cherrie Stanley, Margie Myrick, Lucille Robinson, Madgalene Scogins, Wanda Rogers) were polishing up to meet the guests.

After they had tied their bronchos to the hitchrack the two prodded to join the goingsons. They were greeted by the Ranch Boss (J. S. Hinds) and their guns were checked by wranglers (Bert Sartain, and Marie Smith). After chatting with the boss a few minutes, the two handsome heroes headed for the cookshack.

Underwood, Melvin Florence, Reuben Capps, Billy Glenn Vencil, Hanford Long, Don Patton and some of their lady friends (Norma Ruth Turner, Virginia Donaldson, Norrine Harrison, Laverna Harrison, Joyce Vardiman) came a-riding up. Then they all gathered around the chuck wagon where their jokes were enlivened by the straw bosses: (Mesdames Brantner, Fisher, Robinson, Vencil, Derden, Smith, and Patton).

The chuck was rolled out by the camp cooks: (Hugh Kissick, Kenneth Pearson, John Henry Mayer, Henry D. Taylor, Johnnie Davis) were fondly bossed by Evelyn George, Helen Welch, and Jimmie T. Cave who dipped up Cowboy's Nip, Dominecker Special, Black Eyes, Speckled Spuds, Round-up Combination, Green Acorns, Silver Spurs, Maiden's Delight, Sweet Pound, Jayton Hi Special and the trimmings.

Tenderfeet (Jones, Brown, Jay, Florence, Fowler, Simons) who are commonly called school marm, were granted second helpings. Camp musicians: (Happy Jack Davis and Marvin Goodall) played before and during Java, Head Wrangler (R. P. Mereland) said: "Howdy Stranger" Broncho Busters (Melvin Murphy, Billy Glenn Vencil, Lucille Robinson, and Marie Smith) speeled off quite a bit of lingo. Tallest, wooliest and widest yarns were told by Boss Hinds. Tales were then called from Norma Ruth Turner (Prophecy), Cherrie Stanley (History) and our town lawyer (Norrine Harrison) passed favorite possessions to a younger punchers just learning the ropes.

After some campfire singing, the eastern horizon began to reddens. It was then that the puncher, cow-girls, dudes, tenderfeet, and Easterners all hit the trail; and the Lone Ranger hied off for wider spaces.

—Joyce Brantner.

A MILLION VEHICLES SINCE THE WAR

Detroit, April 9 — With the assembly of its 1,000,000th postwar vehicle today, Chevrolet Motor Division became the first single producer in the auto industry to build a million vehicles since the war, it was announced here today by Nicholas Dreystadt, general manager of this largest General Motors division.

The unit, a 1947 model sedan was produced in the Janesville (Wis.) assembly plant, one of nine across the country whose combined output has established numerous postwar production records for Chevrolet, including first quarter output of more than 250,000 vehicles and a March total of 101,107 units, making Chevrolet the first producer to build more than 100,000 cars and trucks in a single postwar month.

Completion of a new assembly plant in Flint, Mich., in the near future and of a similar plant in Van Nuys, Calif., next fall, will further augment the Chevrolet production potential, Mr. Dreystadt pointed out.

With approximately 8,000,000 Chevrolets on the road today, Mr. Dreystadt added, Chevrolet represents approximately one-fourth of all motor vehicles in the service of the American public.

BAKING POWDER BISCUIT

Remember those light, flaky biscuits mother used to make? They added just the right touch to the meal. You're sure to find mother's secret in this recipe for

Baking Powder Biscuit
 2 cups flour
 3 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 3 to 4 tablespoons fortified margarine
 3/4 cup milk (about)

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut margarine into flour until it looks like peas (do not cut too small—flaky bits about the size of peas will make flakier biscuits). Add milk sufficient to make a soft but not too sticky dough. Turn out on a floured board and knead for two or three turns. Roll out or press to desired thickness. Cut. Bake on ungreased biscuit pan in hot oven (425° F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 1 1/2 dozen biscuits.
