VOLUME 39-- NUMBER 45

Entered As Second Class

JAYTON, KENT COUNTY, TEXAS 79528

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1970

This Week In Jayton

It seems that some Ralls people have come up with the wrong idea about Daylight time this year. It will go into effect on Sunday, April 26. Daylight time is effective all over the nation. For a state to get out of daylight time, the state must hold a referendum and vote to get out. The authorities in charge in the State of Texas recently refused to call this referendum.

Some people confused the act of having the referendum with not having daylight time.

By the time you read this, the census taker may have been by to see you.

People received their census by mail Saturday and were asked to have them filled out when the census worker comes by.

This happens once each year.

We have been asked a number of times whether or not there will be a city election in Jayton this year. And we do not know the answer. We have had no notice of the matter given the paper.

However, there are those on the council who have been appointed to fill out unexpired terms. Most of such appointments just hold until the next election time.

The Chronicle has not contacted anyone at the City office about the matter.

I guess I am one of the few in this area that did not go over to take a look at "Festival '70". Several of the area papers have eye witness accounts of the event. Some were highly critical, some so-so, and others had words of praise for many of the kids.

Quotations from some of the leaders seem to indicate it was miserable and a financial failure. The Easter weather was extremely bad for such an occasion. Also, the event was very closely policed, they say, that word got out, and many who planned to go, stayed away.

One good thing about being a law-abiding citizen is that you can look upon the police as friends rather than as enemies.

One person who attended part of the event, said there were more officers than other people there. What with the highway patrol, the Sheriff officers, Lubbock City police, and the others, it could have well been more. No one, except the agencies, probably knew how many in clothes officers were working among the party. They are

4-H Club Horse Short Course Scheduled

A 4-H Club Horse short-course for 4-H members, prospective members, and adult leaders will be held on Friday night and Saturday, April 10-11, at the 4-H barn in Clairemont. Extension Service Horse Specialist, B. F. Yeates of Texas A & M will conduct the training sessions for 4-H members from Kent, Dickens, and Stonewall Counties.

A practice session on Judging will be conducted on Friday night. A class of Quarterhorses will be judged. Mr. Yeates will discuss judging, what to look for, and training, for a judging team. Educational films will be shown on judging and horsemanship.

On Saturday morning, a session on showmanship will be conducted. Each 4-H club member who brings a horse will be given an opportunity to show his horse. Demonstrations and discussions will explain western pleasure and reining performance classes.

After lunch, barrel racing and pole bending timed events will be discussed, with emphasis on how to train and prepare for these events.

Each 4-H member will be responsible for his own lunch on Saturday. Drinks will be available from the concession stand at the 4-H barn.

Know Your Faculty

By Jayton High School Journalism Department

Mrs. Peggy Neskorik says "The kindness of my teachers and my liking of young children are the factors that made me become a teacher." Fifteen years of teaching experience and a Bachelor of Science degree from Texas Women's University in Denton have contributed to the success of Mrs. Neskorik, Jayton sixth grade teacher.

Having lived in Kent County since the age of four, Mrs. Neskorik is a 1944 graduate of Jayton High School.

Mrs. Neskorik and her husband, John, a custodian in our school, are proud of their daughter, Linda, who is also an art teacher at Floydada.

Mrs. Neskorik is a member of the First Baptist Church of Jayton. When not occupied with school activities, Mrs. Neskorik gives as her hobbies sewing, needlework, and yard work.

We at Jayton High School would like to welcome Mrs. Neskorik back for another eventful year in Jaybird land.

Tap - Ballet Recital Set

The Tap and Ballet Recital will be given this Friday, April 3rd in the High School Auditorium at 7:45 P. M. The public is invited.

HCME FROM COLLEGE

It seemed like all of the college students were home for the Easter Holidays. If you wanted to see them, all you had to do was stand on the street corner and eventually they would ride by making the town drag. Good to see them well and happy.

Jayton Seniors Honored With Banquet

Jayton High School Seniors were guests March 23 at the First Baptist Church for a brief Hawaiian Holiday.

Realistic palm trees decorated the room under streamers of red. Tables were centered with red foil over white cloths. Centerpieces were miniature Hawaiian guitars and yellow candles surrounded by tiny orchids. At the head table the centerpiece was a lovely arrangement of yellow spring flowers and greenery in a white basket.

As guests entered, they were greeted by young ladies who placed the traditional Hawaiian leis about their necks. Invocation was given by Ray Smith, Bro. Joe Gilmore, pastor, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the evening's luau. Mrs. Joe Favor, president of Woman's Missionary Society, gave the welcome with the response given by Senior Earl Brownlee was prepared by ladies of the church, and served by girls wearing leis over bright colored dresses and orchids in their hair. Lajuana Hamilton and Holly Hahn presented a musical number in costume of an old couple singing "When I Grow Too Old to Dream." Mrs. Tom Fowler was the accompanist.

A delicious Hawaiian banquet

Highlight of the evening's festivities was speaker, Rev. Don Timberlake, pastor of Oak Street Baptist Church, Colorado City. He kept the group entertained with many jokes on many subjects, which the toasts named at random as they were called. After much laughter from stories and jokes, he closed on a serious note with thoughts about God and the choices we have to make.

Our church was honored to have these outstanding young people and sponsors as our guests. Gilmore said.

Shorts Have Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short had a family reunion Sunday with all of their children and grand children present.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Ools, Sr. of Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Short and boys of Lovington, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Short and family of Coppas Cove, Mr. and Mrs. Rex

Short and girls of Moore, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Ted Short and family of Jal, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ficken of Alva, Okla. and Addison Ools, Jr. of Jayton. They reported that all had a wonderful time in getting together, making pictures and just having a great time.

Funeral Held Sunday For L. R. Hollobaugh

Lester R. Hollobaugh, 56, died Friday in Stamford. Funeral was held Sunday, with burial in Stamford Cemetery. He was an employee of West Texas Utilities for many years, and was well known to Jayton people.

His wife is a sister to G. L. Hamilton and Mrs. C. C. York of Jayton.

Coats Funeral Held Thursday

Mrs. Bernice Coats, 77 of Lubbock, a former resident of Jayton died Tuesday in Lubbock.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 2:00 P. M. in Lubbock. She was the sister of Dallas Kenady of Jayton, George Kenady of Aspermont, Harold Kenady of Wheeler; also Mrs. Odera Norred of Big Spring, Mrs. Elizabeth Teaver of Plainview, Mrs. Margaret Brandenburg of Santa Fe, New Mexico and Mrs. Evelyn Maples of Taft.

TO HAMLIN

Helen, Paula Jean and W.L. Mayer went to Hamlin to have a medical check-up by their doctor, Monday.

VISITS SON

L. O. Mayer was in Jayton over the Easter holidays with his son, John Henry and family.

Mrs. Brown Wins Quilt

Mrs. G. H. Brown was the proud winner of the quilt made by Home Demonstration Club women. The quilt was given away at the Girard Game Night on March 21. An evening of dominoes, 42, and other games and refreshments was enjoyed by all who attended.

Game Night has become a monthly activity sponsored by the Girard Home Demonstration Club. It is the third Saturday of the month, beginning at 7:30 p. m. in the Girard Community Center. Game Night is free and is open to all families in the county and guests. The next one will be April 18th. Be sure and come--bring the whole family and cards, dominoes, or other games.

Robinson Rites Held Monday

Funeral services for Mrs. C. J. Robinson, a former Jayton resident was held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Jayton Methodist Church, with the pastor the Rev. Tommy Ewing, officiating. Burial was in the Jayton Cemetery.

The family lived in Jayton many years, moving to Haskell in 1956. Mrs. Robinson was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Haskell.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Jane Byford of Houston, Mrs. Jo King of Anchorage, Alaska, Mrs. La Rue Keiser of Bettendorf, Iowa, Mrs. Sallie Sanford of Fort Worth and Mrs. Lucille Gilley of Hurst; three sons, Charles of Kaufman, Harvey of San Antonio and John of Oklahoma City; 24 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Odell Harrison, Buddy Gallagher, Ewell Harrison, Larry and Charley Bylord and H. T. Wilkinson.

INJURES HAND

Joe Kidd was working on his farm equipment, Monday when he had the misfortune of getting his left hand injured in the power lift. At this writing it is not known the extent of injuries to his hand.

STAMFORD VISITORS

Mrs. Lullie Raney of Stamford was visiting two sisters, Junie Long and Mrs. Sallie McAteer for a few days this week.

Jaytonites Join The Lubbock Festival

By DONNY RICHARDS

The Southwest '70 Lubbock Peace Festival drew people from all around--even Jayton.

In the center of the picture to the right are four Jaytonites: Martin Garcia, Kim Nichols, Lanny Barbee and David Parker.

The festival as a whole fell far short of expectations of the promoters, but not for law enforcement officers. Highway Patrol, narcotic agents and liquor control board officers combined forces for more than 100 arrests including over 60 felony charges. The felony charges were for drug violations and the carrying of prohibited weapons. The other charges made varied from traffic violations to littering.

The trouble had trouble from the start. First, it had to change sites several times, then it had to postpone its opening for a day in order to get sufficient electrical power, and after it got started, weather conditions hampered all three days of the affair.

The festival attracted only about one-tenth of the 100,000 expected for the three-day period with the most appearing on the opening day.

Narcotic agents mixed with the crowds of young and old "hard rock music lovers" and many were arrested inside the premises of the festival site. However, in later days of the festival, the agents, who were dressed to blend in with the crowd, were recognized by festival officials and the crowd was informed of the agents whereabouts on numerous occasions. Whenever an agent began to move through the crowd, the master of ceremonies for the festival had his crew shine a spotlight on the officer. Many of the arrests were made outside the grounds as agents followed drug users out.

Folkestone, England--When asked to show his driving license to a policeman, John Brunt became excited and ate it. The 29-year-old man explained he was in a "happy mood" having just left a party. A $57 fine changed his mood.

This Week

probably responsible for many arrests.

Anyway, West Texas will probably not be bothered with other such events. They will move their live stage events to more favorable locations.

West Texas as a whole is unclear getting the reputation of being "parties" in nature. The presence of West Texas is referred to in the area of the "Bible Belt" and a lot of the modern liberal in the latter areas are voting with opinion.

Not long ago a survey was conducted at Lubbock among the students and the results showed that the majority of them voted that it has too much of a "Bible Belt" influence, and there is nothing to do, and not enough ways to have fun.

What do you think of a reputation like that? Maybe that is what we need to bring to the game.

There is one thing in the "intercollegiate league" this week that interested me very much.

Class football competition is downed only to the regional level, and the state championship. It would require only seven full games to take it from regional level to determine state champion.

About five years ago the state championship game was decided not to get the matter put on a referendum and let the voters decide. But to no avail. The athletic board then William's has opposed it all along.

When an anti-letter to voters of newspaper in town starts play Class B football and also do experiments and number of students, saying there is no such thing. We should do better and make highly deserving. But the superintendent, the most of them, were making the case of even admitting it.

These experiments on the matter "I am not going to give this William's trouble. There is not a school in the country that would stand the test if he began to work down on it."

The same official will appear this week in a letter to the superintendent. The superintendent will be doing the voting and they will probably vote it down.

Jayton Superintendent J. S. Preece is one of the few Class B School Administrators who would openly support the program.

- gals and men! try these fun-exercises together they will
- SWIVEL AND REACH:—Tones Absence. Reaching in the right direction at the main point here—whether or not you touch the feet at first. Arms out, feet apart, keeping legs straight, swivel from waist and reach for feet with opposite hand. Repeat on other side. Do five times. Do touch right foot with left hand and vice versa.
- ARM LIFT:—Builds Shoulders, Chest and Arm. This seemingly simple exercise brings several sets of muscles into active play. Stand straight, feet apart, hold weights, books or similar objects at sides, keeping elbows straight, raise arms to the side. Do five to ten times.
- FRITZEL:—Flexes Waist and Forearm. Start by lying flat on your stomach. Bend knees and reach back to grasp ankles firmly. Then, keeping arms straight, raise thighs, three times. Then, don't pull up with arms, so much as pushing feet out against hands. Then you might roll over and apply a good sunscreen lotion like bromelain while resting.
- SWAN DIVE:—Flexes Chest and Arm. Feet slightly apart, bend forward from hips, back straight. Pull arms way up and back, move them in opposing circles, then reverse direction. Do each five times.
- LAZY LADY:—Flexes Hips and Forearm. Lie on one side, leaning against forearm and backward—outstretched arm, act as a prop. Raise leg straight into the air as far as you can, five times up and down to a steady count. Roll over, repeat with the other leg. Don't bend knees.
- KICK-UP:—Strengthens Back and Legs. Also good for balance and coordination. Lie flat on back, legs overhead and try to touch your toes. Prap legs up. Then quickly straight legs, reach for the sky. Do four or five times.
- MAJORETTE:—Hips and Thighs. Do this exercise to a 1-2-3-4 count. Stand straight, hands on hips, one knee. Straighten leg forward, then swing it to the side, and do the three times, then repeat with other leg.
- MODIFIED PUSH-UP:—Builds Triceps and Muscles. Start with the easier version, the modified push-up, weight at knees. Work up to the classic form in which the body must be straight from head to heel. Note: lower slowly to floor, don't let it rise too fast, try the modified version.
- TOO TOUGH:—Lowers Back, Thighs and Waist. Start in execution, long on benefits. Whether you touch your toes is less important than the attempt. Sit straight, hands reaching to ankles. Bend and reach for your toes, exhaling. Do the knees. Do three times at first, five times later.
- KICKOUT:—Strengthens Abdomen and Back. Sit with arms and legs straight out in front of you. Raise leg, back to balance or outstuck. (Don't slump.) Bend knees, alternate a count of ten. Optional: weights or books or sand-filled rub bag may be used by him for arm-building benefits.

Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

Recipe of the Week

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

If your family has a "sweet tooth," we have found that this Lemon Cake recipe makes a big hit at our house. The added lemon juice and rind to the cake blends with the frosting to give it just the right tangy lemon flavor.

LEMON CAKE

- 1/4 c. butter
- 1/2 c. shortening
- 2 c. sugar
- 3 eggs
- 3 c. all-purpose flour
- 1/2 t. salt
- 1/2 t. soda
- 1 c. buttermilk
- 1 t. vanilla
- 1 t. lemon juice
- 1 t. lemon rind

Cream butter, shortening and sugar. Add eggs one at a time. Next fold in flour that has been sifted with salt and soda. Lastly, add buttermilk, vanilla, lemon juice and rind.

Pour batter into a tube pan which has been greased and floured. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour.

FROSTING

Melt 1/2 stick butter. Add 1 cup powdered sugar and juice of 1 lemon. Pour over cake while it is still hot.

In Fashion

Prints in every form seem to be the word coming from the smart shops. Black and white prints are very popular in geometric forms, checks, flowers, etc., etc.

An oriental theme seems to be evident in some of the new designs. We see ankle length clothes which call to mind the Japanese kimono and these are covered with gay, colored prints in stripes or blocks.

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you most of all for your prayers, flowers, cards, notes and for your friendship. May You have good health is my prayers.

ALL BRAN ROLLS

contributed by Mrs. Elizabeth Nilson

1 cup lukewarm water
2 pkg. yeast
1 cup shortening or 1/2 cup crisco & 1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup All-Bran
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup boiling water
2 eggs, beaten
6 cups flour

Dissolve yeast in 1 cup lukewarm water. Mix shortening, sugar, All-Bran, and salt. Add beaten eggs and dissolved yeast. Mix. Add flour all at once and beat. Roll out flat. Cut in 1 x 3 inch strips and roll like a jelly roll. Let rise 1 hour. Bake at 400 degrees, 15 to 20 minutes.

VISITS IN OKLA.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Long and Mrs. Alex Long and children of Lubbock visited in Silver City, Okla. last week with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Dorothy Prewitt. Alex and family returned to Jayton with his mother and father to spend the Easter holidays.

VISITS SONS

Mrs. Connie Anderson of Abilene visited her sons, Terry and Monty the first part of the week in Jayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ussery of Brady celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary and Mrs. Ussery's 77th birthday March 26, with only a few of their relatives able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ussery were married at Oriana by Rev. Dondelson. Mr. Ussery was born in Slado, Bell County, Oct. 28, 1889 and came to Stonewall County in 1905. Mrs. Ussery was Alta Vista Bilberry born in Locker, San Saba County, March 26, 1893.

The Usserys lived in Jayton for about twenty years with him doing plumbing for many years before retiring and moving to Brady. Mr. and Mrs. Ussery had four children: Nora Lee Ballard of Kingsland, Charles of Salt Lake City, Utah, Ernest (Chalk) of Kingsland, and Andy of Jayton.

GUEST HERE

Miss Pat Ball of San Angelo State College was a guest in the home of the Rex Alexanders over the weekend. Mickey and Pat returned to San Angelo Sunday afternoon.

Is it true that the best cooks cook by the weather? Yes, there is scientific basis for cooking by the weather. Experienced chefs know that there are certain cakes and icings which cannot be satisfactorily made in rainy weather. Cakes fall and icings turn out too grainy. Certain candies, like pralines, do not become creamy. This is due to the great amount of moisture in the air, which is picked up by the ingredients.

Because moisture has such a great effect on certain kitchen products many recipes are varied—are slightly different in the dry western states from those recommended in the other states, proof that the weather has a considerable effect on cooking.

VESTED FASHIONS—The layered look is popular in children's wear this spring. Here, polka dots pop out on two vested cotton knit styles by Cinderella. Little sister's tank vest tops a panel-pleated skirt and long-sleeved blouse. Big sister's low-sashed dress takes a matching vest for a three-piece look.

Give New Look To Frozen Pies

Day by day, throughout the year, frozen main dish pies—chicken, turkey, tuna and beef—continue to be among the most popular items in frozen food cabinets. Served with a crisp green salad and a dessert from your grocer's freezer, they offer a speedy solution to a tasty, nourishing and economical meal.

Illustrated here are three ways to add a decorative flavorful touch to the ready-to-bake pies: top, Chive-Garlic Topping on beef pie; center, Lemon-Pecan Topping on chicken pie; foreground, Caraway-Cheese Topping on turkey pie. Follow the package directions for baking the pies, adding the topping for the last five minutes of the baking time.

Toppings For Frozen Pies

Chive-Garlic Topping—For 4 beef pies, combine 3 tablespoons melted butter, 2 teaspoons frozen chopped chives and 1 finely minced garlic clove. Spoon mixture over pies; return to oven and bake 5 minutes.

Lemon-Pecan Topping—For 4 chicken, turkey or tuna pies, combine 1/4 cup chopped pecans, 2 tablespoons melted butter and 2 tablespoons grated lemon rind. Spoon mixture over pies; return to oven and bake 5 minutes.

Caraway-Cheese Topping—Arrange 1/2-inch-wide strips of processed cheese slices over the top of each turkey or chicken pie in a lattice pattern. Sprinkle lightly with caraway seeds; return to oven and bake 5 minutes.

GROW UP AND FACE REALITY!

Dear Amy:

I am 18 years old and had a child out of wedlock. She is 8 months old and a very adorable baby.

About two years ago, after the baby's father left me, before she was born, I met two boys. The one boy's name is Skip, 19 years old. The other is Bill, 21 years old. Bill is very stubborn and set in his ways. We've been going together for a year and a half and we continued to see each other even after the baby was born. We even thought of marriage. But Skip keeps entering the picture. Bill and I have never been separated for more than a month. Skip is too young and can't accept responsibilities. He is very carefree.

My problem is that I am afraid, scared, worried and very much in love. Bill and I had an argument recently over Skip. He left and claimed he would see me the next day. I cried all that night. The next day came but he didn't come to see me. I called and learned he started drinking again. I talked to my mother and she said I should return his ring. So I did! The next day I received a letter but not my ring. I love Bill very much and I feel he loves me. He wrote in his letter he thought it would be best if he and I had time to think. He asked me to be true and wait. But he didn't say how long or when he'll be back.

Amy, should I wait or am I wasting my life on him? I haven't seen or heard from him in weeks.

Lillian

Dear Lillian:

I should think that a girl of 18 who has brought so much trouble upon herself would be a little more cautious in the future. You have a child 8 months old and you are involved with two young boys who are neither in a position to accept the responsibilities of marriage, financially or emotionally or to assume your ready-made family.

I advise you to get a job to support your daughter, pay your mother room and board and be independent. You need a lot of growing up to do before you can consider marriage with anyone, and in my opinion, you do not yet know what love is all about. . . and I urge you to wait until you do.

Dear Amy:

A little over a year ago, my husband passed away leaving me with a fifteen year old son. Some of my friends and relatives have told me I should no longer wear my wedding ring. Others have told me I should wear it because of my son.

I'm so confused. What is the proper thing for me to do?

Mrs. H.P.

Dear Mrs. H.P.:

A widow continues to wear her wedding ring until the time she desires the company of the opposite sex, in which case she removes the ring.

Dear Amy:

PLEASE print this! Please tell "Lynda" that the man she's in love with happens to be my father. I'm 14 1/2 and have seen her often. My father and mother are very happy and my father has told my mother of this "pint-sized flirt". He says he has no feelings for this girl. He only called her up and asked her for a ride because he wanted to frighten her so much that she'd leave him alone!

I don't want her to get hurt. "His Daughte"

Dear Amy:

My sister and I want to date boys, but we have a great fear of them. Please give us some advice on how to cure this fear.

The Sisters

Dear Sisters:

Fear is experienced by the young in age and the old in heart. You will lick those fears in a few more years!
