A lot of our readers seem to think that George Darden and old Chronicle are about to come to town. Well, let me tell you, "aint so." We are both too old to fight, and too slow to

It just happens that we are paying George a little dab of money for writing his column, and we think he is doing a fine job.

Notice when people pick up the paper the first thing they turn for is to see what Mr. Shots has to say. That's good. One thing about newspaper people—we differ, but we don't fight. By having both sides presented, people should be able to make up their own minds.

Last week this column required a bout the word, "Chicano." We knew it was a word used by Texans of Mexican lineage, but wondered how it was coined.

Well, we got some replies, but not exactly what we were asking about.

One man of Mexican descent, sent us a message. He said he looked upon himself as a loyal Texan, and would not use the term. He brought the word itself came from a slang usage of the Mexican pronunciation of the word "Mexicano." But he said the word was first used by communist agitators, in an effort to stir up the so-called "Latin Americans" and get them to rebel against the so-called "whites". But, he said, "I am against white people—whites counted as white myself. I am not a Chicano."

Also, this week, a boy, high school age, brought a copy of paper to the Chronicle office, put it on the desk, and asked me without identifying himself. Here is what it said:

"In last weeks newspaper I asked for someone to tell me what the word "Chicano" meant. Well it means us brown people who were born in the United States.

The reason for this word being used is because some of the whites use the words wet-back or Mexican to describe brown people."

County Children Get Rubella Vaccinations

One hundred and eighteen children between ages one and ten received their rubella vaccination Thursday, Oct. 8, at the Jayton School. Mod Mom and Jayton Lions Club sponsored the program, with Jayton School and Texas Department of Health cooperating.

Dr. Bob Alexander of Spur, gave the shots to the preschool and school age children eligible to receive them. Helping him were Mrs. Hal Dean Cave, Jayton School Nurse, and Mrs. Darrell Morris of the Lubbock City-County Health Department. Mr. Morris had sent publicity booklets and brought the vaccine and supplies.

The following Mod Moms helped with the campaign: Mrs. Bessie Trammel, Mrs. Nancy Chayne, Mrs. Katherine Dunham, Mrs. Bea Shipp, Mrs. Bette League, Mrs. Dolores Gaston and Mrs. Sharon Stanaland and Sally Hilton.

Local Group Attend Workshop On Drug Use

On Oct. 6, 7, and 8 a team from Jayton is attending a workshop on Drugs in Lubbock. They are Mr. Newton, Mr. Eugene Harris and Bobette Hamilton. This workshop is studying such things as "Current Problems as Depicted in Lyrics and Art," The Press and Drug Problem, Identification of Abuse of Drugs, and others.

This workshop is being conducted by Region 17 Education Service Center and the Texas Education Agency.

Arthur Johnson catches a pass in the endzone for his first touchdown of the year.

John Charles Davis is brought down by two Matadors after catching a pass. He scored four touchdowns in the game.

Harold Judy outmaneuvers one Matador, but he can see four other white-shirts on the way to tackle him.

Jaybirds Get Easy 34-6 Victory Over Matador

The lights on the Matador field score board were kept flashing last Friday night, ringing up the scores made by Jayton's John Charles Davis. Four times he lit up the board, as he got off some good touchdown runs. Once Arthur Johnson took a Kim Nichols pass in the end zone to score. The Jaybirds took an early lead that was never really challenged. They had a 27-0 budge on the board at half time.

Matador had a scrappy little team, but actually they were no match for the fired up Jaybirds.

Jayton will be hosts to the Rule Bobcats tonight on Jaybird field, in a homecoming affair. This will be one of the strongest the Jaybirds have had all season. Rule has a good solid team, with a good defense and some good runners.

Friday Night Upsets Hinder Game Predictions

The guessers did not find it so easy in the contests this week. There was one tie game, which set everyone back. Sleepy Brown had the best score. He guessed eleven games right, with no misses except the tie.

Tied with one miss each were David Geeslin, Kim Nichols and Rogene Brown.

Geeslin missed the score by 2, Nichols by 5 and Rogene by 9. This gave Geeslin second and Nichols third. Aaron Bennett and Glenn Phillips both guessed the total score, but had 2 and 3 misses. There was a very large number of people who entered the contest. Interest continues to grow each week.

CHILDREN HOME

The L. C. Smith's had their children from Denison; also Merle and Gail from Amarillo; Martell Smith E family from Lubbock last weekend. They reported a nice time.

GRANDCHILDREN VISIT

Donny, Holly, and Heather Hogan, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker have been visiting here for a week.

ABILENE VISITORS

Brother Jim Endfield and Lesa of Abilene spent Sunday with the Gordon Hamilton's.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank everyone that was so nice to me while I was sick in the hospital; for the cards, letters, visits and beautiful flowers; also the nice gifts the TEL Class brought.

May God bless each of you.

The Facts On Kent County Finances

An Editorial

In recent weeks several people have questioned the figures referred to by the editor of the Chronicle, supporting the proposed bond issues. Several have asked the question: How could they build a library without a bond issue, when they are now overdrawn? Such statements are misleading and give a false view of county finances.

According to the official records in the courthouse, on Oct. 1, 1970 total County funds, in the bank amounted to about $17,000.00. This does not include interest and Sinking Funds, set aside to pay bonded indebtedness. One fund, the Officers Salary Fund was about $300,00 overdrawn as of Oct. 1, the records show. But this is nothing new, this happens quite often, at about any time of the year. There are certain funds that may be transferred from one fund to the other to care for these overdrafts.

Another thing, Sept. 30 is the end of the county financial year. New tax funds begin to come in early in October. Really, no one worries if some accounts run out about the end of the year.

Not too many years ago, I sat in on a meeting of the court when A. F. Eady of General Crude, and other tax men, gave the court members a chewing out, because too many accounts had large surpluses. These Oil Company tax men highly frown on end of the tax year surpluses. This to them, means taxes were too high.

In an editorial, Commissioner Gordon Hamilton was quoted as saying a library could have been built, without the voting of bonds, thus saving some money, because there is quite a lot of expense in expediting a bond election and issue. Several people have questioned this. Well, here are the figures.

Right now, Kent County owes $50,000.00 on the Rest Home, and $47,000.00 on the special Road and Bridge bonds. But when this year's taxes come in, by Jan. 1, 1971 all of these bonds will be paid, and the county will owe no bonded indebtedness at all.

This year, there is more than $3 million in values over previous years. This will bring in an additional $37,500.00. This with the 47,000.00 set aside for bonded indebtedness in past years, would make available, for a library, at least $121,000.00 by the end of next year, with no raise in property values or tax rate.

And, too, if the Court needed some short term money, they could issue interest bearing warrants, without an election.

And here is something else to think about. Kent County does not operate on a budget. They estimate the needs and set the tax rate, and get the money, and then spend the money as they need it, with the exception of the Interest and Sinking Funds.

Between Oct. 1, and Dec. 31, this year there is an anticipated county income from taxes of about $325,000.00. Since there is no set budget and a good part of this money subject only to the order of the Commissioner's Court, at their discretion large sums of money could be legally manipulated and be spent just about any way they want to spend it.

The members of the Kent County Commissioners Court, in the past ten years, to my certain knowledge, have had no trouble in buying anything they have wanted to buy.

Only the things they don't want to buy, have they had any trouble raising the money for.

Does this answer the question?

Dear Editor:

It seems that a man of your standing and the owner of a County Newspaper would want the facts about county matters when same is published.

In issue in the Chronicle where you said you had examined the minutes of the Courts of Kent County for the last ten years or so, and you mentioned Girard and Claremont having a fire truck paid for by County funds, however you seem to have forgotten to mention the facts that Jayton also had a fire truck purchased by the County for the sum of some $14,000. Maybe you overlooked that purchase in the minutes that you examined.

And it seems that some one said that the library, Community Center, golf course and park could be built without voting bonds for same. It would be well for you to check with F. O. Harrison, County Treasurer or Dallas Keady, County Auditor for facts concerning available county funds in the bank.

Sincerely,
Carlos Dickerson
Commissioner, Prec. 2.

Girard POT SHOTS

By GEORGE

On the front page of the Chronicle last week, it was interesting to learn from the editor, that Ole' George made so many folks mad that they turned out in numbers to vote for the Bond issue.

The fact is: Only about half of the voters turned out to vote either way--for or against said issue. So maybe there isn't to many folks mad at me because I stated that I was voting against the $175,000 package deal. It appears from the voters of Clairmont, Girard, Polor and Red Mud--that about eight to one or more went along with the Pot-shot man and several even in the Capital City voted like we J.L.

I also noted from reading the front page editorial why the election carried. At least three people told the editor their views pertaining to the election results--and why it carried. Frantly I didn't know until now that folks of sound mind would get mad at anyone for voting like he wants to, or even telling folks how he was going to vote.

I believe Kent County folks to be intelligent enough to vote like they please and neither I nor the editor can tell straight thinking folks how to vote on anything. Anyway, I did make the front page--and most folks that commit a crime makes the front page.

Had no idea that I had been eating "sour grapes" until the editor mentioned it last week, surely some "hair brain" isn't telling him what to write.

Gotta' a pretty good notion that Ole' George doesn't fear any "Boogers" not even a front page Editorial.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell and grandson Lee from Brownfield visited last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Brown. Mr. Howell was for many years a ginner at the old Swift cotton gin in Jayton, many years ago.

The Porter family from Wellington visited her father the George Willis' last week-end.

Attending a HD Council tea at the local community Center here last Wednesday from Jayton were Mrs. Glenn Hancock, Mrs. Dr. McLauray and Mrs. Jackson East, after the tea they visited Mrs. George Darden in her home.

Mrs. Carlos Dickerson visited her children a couple of days in Lubbock last week.

Have had quite a lot of "Ribbing" last week by good friends in Jayton and Girard about me making the front page in the Chronicle last week, never can tell just where a "hoss fly" will light.

A few folks are still around that remember back when Monroe (Munn) Hargrove ran a cotton gin here, was also Depot agent and carried the mail, and when Munn laughed you could hear him a mile off wind was in the right direction.

Ran right smack into Button Mayfield and son Jim in Rotan the other day they were spending some "dough" at the oil mill there for cow feed, kinda sad situation but cows has gotta' eat.

Clifford Scott and Ollie Bural were trucking cattle to the live stock auction in Lubbock last week.

Alton Clark says the cotton gin here is ready to gin cotton and he expects a bale or two within the next few days.

Jake Simmons still "batching" as his wife is in Houston with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Yandell. Mrs. Yandell at this writing is still undergoing tests in the Anderson Hospital there.

The old time "cow hands" seen around the Rodeo grounds and at the race track at the Kent-Dickens Fair were Dick Sampson of Spur and Brit McDaniel of Dickens.

Pat Nilson, Kent County Home Demonstration Agent has resigned her job as HD Agent effective 31st. of Oct. Pat says she has accepted a job in Wichita Falls. So I s'pose Kent County will be looking for another HD Agent. Club members say, they come in mighty handy at times.

Visiting the George Darden last Friday afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pickron of Hamlin and Mrs. Carlor Dickerson of the home town.

Most all the farmers in this neck of the woods have their wheat and oats in the ground and now awaits soaking rain.

Mrs. Elmer Long is much improved since under-going surgery in an Odessa Hospital and is now in her daughter's home in that city.

at a meeting of the Commissioner's Court the other day and this is "direct from the horse's mouth" there wasn't enough money in the Treasury to pay the Kent County bills without borrowing the dough or riding a over-draft. Still wonder about the $175,000 Bond election, with out the Bond election, without a tax raise.

Eastland County was on a big Oil Boom in the 1920's and was producing so much oil and the Oil Companies were paying about 90 percent of the taxes, and the Commissioners went on a "spending spree" so the Big Wheels of Oil Companies got their heads together and decided to just slow down the operations until the present Commissioners either died off or were defeated. That's what they did.

Kent County old timers like Merle Jay and Glenn Hancock were on hand for the Dickens-Kent Fair. Wish we had the names of all the early day folks who were attending the Fair. Yep, Lawson Allen of the Jayton Rest Home was there.

Maybe Girard will soon be on a oil boom, a good well was brought in last Friday on the John Lankford place north of town in Dickens County. We are all happy for the Lankford's, and we are just hoping that the drilling will edge in close to town.

Met up with some trends in front of the Kent County State Bank in Jayton last Saturday morning. One of my friends asked me if my "body guard" was with me. Yep, I had a five pound poodle dog in the back seat of the car.

Has off to the Jayton-Girard High School football team for winning three games in a row, in fact, the boys haven't lost a game which speaks mighty well of players and coaches.

A feature at the Kent-Dickens Fair were the Hide races, the old boy that is on hide and a horse pulling him by the saddle horn in a dead-run is a lot of fun for the spectators. Clyde Spray pulling Bill Vencil around the Rodeo Arena at full speed was a sight to behold.

Never saw folks work harder at any Fair than Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Turner, Ollie Burzand, all the bar-beque folks plus all the good ladies who were at the head of the women exhibits in the buildings, in fact, everybody had a hand in making the Fair a good Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hooper spent the week end in Colorado with a niece and nephew and did some fishing and visiting.

Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Brown spent the week end in the Tom Hunnicut home.

Test Tube Democracy

Think of television networks and jet transportation, and the United States will appear to be one vast, interconnected unit.

But think of traffic laws and the real estate taxes and grounds for divorce, and the United States will appear to be a jumble of diversities.

Such diversities can be confusing. But they are also rewarding in a way that is too often overlooked. Supreme Court Justice been on the sick list and has made several trips to a Dr. in Lubbock for tests; she is better at this writing.

Thanks to all my friends who last week either called or told me to stay in there and pitch with reference to my "sour grape" disposition; and for all who have complimented this column in the past, and it depends whether or not after this week's "sour grapes" we shall continue this in the Chronicle, but if not, you can read all about it in the Texas Spur.

And for now that's it.

Louis Brandeis once put the matter as follows:

"It is one of the happy incidents of the federal system that a single courageous state may, if its citizens choose, serve as a laboratory; and try novel social and economic experiments without risk to the rest of the country."

This advantage of diversity is not the least bit theoretical. On the contrary, there are countless examples of one state leading the way, trying out a new idea, while other states wait and see how it works--very much like a scientist watching an experiment in a test tube.

For instance: is it a good idea to give the customers of door-to-door salesmen a "cooling-off period," during which they may reconsider and cancel the order? Some say this would protect the gullible buyer from high-pressure salesmanship. Others say it would put an unfair burden on the legitimate firms engaged in this field. A number of states are now putting the idea to a test.

Or: is it a good idea for the state to pay compensation to the victims of violent crime?

Some say this would be fulfilling a moral obligation of the state. Others say it would be just another costly boondoggle. Several states are now trying it out. Of course, no two states are exactly alike. Lawmakers, considering a new program, will weigh local conditions and consult local opinion. Yet, they will also be influenced by finding out what actually happened when the idea was tried in a sister state. "The science of government," said an earlier Supreme Court, "is the science of experiment."

the GOOD NEWS!

An excited aliveness!... That describes a man getting good news over the telephone. Then, there is the gospel, which means "The Good News" which gives life when it comes to a man. It generates life anew. This Good News is proclaimed weekly and oftentimes daily, through God's messenger in His Church. Jesus announced the Good News when He said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Matthew 10:10. Listen to the proclamation of the Good News in the church of your choice

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

EDITOR'S NOTE: We would like to ask someone from each church to please keep us informed about your calendar of activities. And keep your church listing up to date.

Wade-McGinnis Wedding Is Held In Arkansas

The Chapel of the Cross in Fayetteville, Arkansas, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Sara Kay Wade and Wayne Douglas McGinnis on Saturday afternoon, August 8th.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cameron Wade of El Paso and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren McGinnis of Ursa, Ill., all of whom were in Fayetteville for the wedding.

The Rev. Victor Nixon performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Lewis Chessier, organist, played selections from Handel's Water Music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of moonlight blue crepe with matching accessories. She carried a large white Dutchess rose.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. John Wink, who wore a street-length dress of gold brocade with a matching chanel bow and carried an apricot Dutchess rose.

John Wink was best man and Dennis Jackson served as usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Wink home.

Attending from out of town were the bridegroom's sister, Miss Arlene McGinnis of Urse, and Robert Andres from Ashdown, Ark.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis are at home in Fayetteville where he is working on his Ph. D. degree in English at the University of Ark.

Defense Sometimes Necessary

After years of peaceful co-existence, your neighbor decides your back yard contains right of way for an alley—and that he wants to use it. You disagree and a court battle develops.

In the courtroom, maps and plans are introduced to support your contention that no right of way is on your land. Expert witnesses testify in your behalf. After a protracted struggle, the court finally rules in your favor.

You have won—but you also must pay for the legal services that made an effective defense possible.

Actual cases similar to this are on record—and illustrate the importance of being prepared to defend your home ownership. A helpful form of related protection often obtained by home buyers before completing a real estate purchase is owner's title insurance.

This type of coverage will pay for a legal defense against an attack on a land title as insured—and will pay all claims proved to be valid.

Owner's title insurance also includes a check of separately-located public records for land title problems that could affect the security of a real estate investment. If such difficulties are found, they are reported so work to resolve them can be completed before ownership is transferred from seller to buyer.

From The Recipe File Of Opal Richards

The following recipes were given to me by Billie Lue Joiner of El Campo and she assured me they were real "Men Pleasers."

IMPOSSIBLE PIE

4 eggs
1/2 stick butter or marg., melted
1 3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp salt
2 cup milk
1-4 oz. can shredded coconut
1 tsp. vanilla

Beat eggs thoroughly in mixer. Add melted butter, sugar, flour and milk. Beat until well blended. Stir in coconut and vanilla.

Pour into 2 ungreased 9 inch pie pans and bake in a 350-degree oven 35-45 mins. Cool and cut. Mixture is rather thin, when poured in pan, but cuts clearly after you bake it.

SALT GRASS BARBECUED POTATOES

5-6 lbs. potatoes in skins
1/2 cup batter, (don't skimp)
1-2 large onions peeled and chopped
1/3 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 Tbs. salt
1 1/2 Tbsp. paprika (don't skimp)
1/3 tsp. pepper

Boil potatoes until tender. Cube them (peeling is all is best). Place in a large greased baking pan. Melt butter in skillet, saute onions for about 3 mins., stirring often. Add remaining ingredients. Pour over potatoes and mix well.

Bake 350 degrees for about 45 mins. Serves 6-8.

VISIT THE SMITH'S

Mr. and Mrs. Rayborn Fitts visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith Monday.

SOUR CREAM PIE

1/2 cup flour
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups sour cream
3 egg yolks
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1 baked Pastry Shell
1 recipe Meringue II

Mix flour, sugar and salt together;

stir in cream and cook in top of double boiler until thickened, stirring constantly. Pour hot mixture slowly over egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return to heat and cook 3 minutes longer. Add flavoring and cool. Pour into pastry shell, top with meringue and proceed as directed. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

Among those chosen, "Mrs. John T. Scheepers" (pictured here) a Single Late Tulip is not only one of the largest but is also one of the best of the pale yellow tulips. It has enormous flowers of elongated oval shape, borne on strong, erect, 34-inch stems.

All of the 1970 International Holland Bulb Selections are available in nurseries throughout the United States. Early purchase is recommended while all the 1970 selections are still available.

Bulbs should be planted as soon as purchased. For the North, planting time is usually from September through late November. In the more temperate sections of the country, it extends into late December.

UNUSUAL SHRIMP SALAD IS A DIETER'S DREAM

It is not often one slim-down dish offers so much for so few calories, but it is all here—protein, vegetables, starch, great flavor, and servings so generous they can take a long, beautiful time to eat!

Shrimp and rice are at the heart of it. Shrimp, of course, are all lean and low-calorie (about 150 to the 4 1/2-ounce can), but they contribute the high quality protein needed to hold back hunger between meals. In modest quantities, rice adds only its wallop of fuel and energy. As the saying goes, it is not the starch that fattens but what is spooned over it. And a trick way of cooking the rice gives the whole salad a very satisfying but deceptively rich flavor.

This is a pretty salad—all shrimp-pink and greens—with a slightly Oriental look, particularly when vegetables are cut on the slant. It serves four but for one person single servings may be spaced by adding rice and fresh ingredients to the shrimp mixture as needed.

WAIST WATCHER SHRIMP SALAD

- 1 can (4 1/2 ounces) shrimp
- 1 can (1 pound) cut green beans
- 1 garlic clove, thinly sliced
- 1 tablespoon salad oil
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 2 chicken bouillon cubes
- 2/3 cup uncooked rice
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 1/2 cup sliced scallions or sweet onion
- 2 cups shredded crisp lettuce
- Soy sauce (optional)

Have shrimp and beans chilled in the can. Drain both, reserving the bean liquid. Crush garlic in a large salad bowl. Add oil, mustard, sugar, vinegar, shrimp, and beans. Toss well; refrigerate. Heat bean liquid; add bouillon cubes and stir until dissolved. In a saucepan combine liquid with enough water to make 2 cups. Add rice. Bring to a boil and cook rapidly, uncovered, about 8 minutes or until rice stands above the water line. Reduce heat to lowest point; cover closely and steam 12-14 minutes. Spread rice in a shallow pan to cool, using a fork to separate the grains. Refrigerate 10 minutes or until needed. At serving time, add rice to shrimp and bean mixture; toss together with celery, onion, lettuce. Serve with soy sauce. 4 servings.

The National Guard arrives August 17, 1931, to enforce martial law in the East Texas oil field. With more than 848,000 barrels of oil flowing daily from the field's wells creating chaos, Gov. Ross Sterling called out the troops to re-establish order.

This Week In Jayton

It seems that "Pot Shot" garden up at Girard did not get all of his own grapes eaten last week. He's still at it this week, with some help from his neighbors.

A lot of our readers seem to think that George Darden, Girard, and old Chronicle are about to come to blows. Well, let me tell you, we're not. We are both too busy to fight, and too slow to start.

It just happens that we're paying George a little dab of money for writing his column, and we think he is doing a fine job.

In case when people pick up the paper the first thing they turn to is to see what "Pot Shot" has to say. That's good. One thing about newspaper people--we differ, but we don't fight. By having both sides presented, people should be able to make up their own minds.

County Children Get Rubella Vaccinations

One hundred and eighty-eight children between ages one and ten received their rubella vaccination Thursday, Oct. 8, at the Jayton School. Mod Moms and Jayton Lions Club sponsored the program, with Jayton School and Texas Department of Health cooperating.

Dr. Bob Alexander of Spar, gave the shots to the preschool and school age children eligible to receive them. Helping him were Mrs.

Hal' Dean Cave, Jayton School Nurse, and Mrs. Darrell Morris of the Lubbock City-County Health Department. Mr. Morris had sent publicity booklets and brought the vaccine and supplies.

The following Mod Moms helped with the campaign: Mrs. Bessie Trammel, Mrs. Nancy Chayne, Mrs. Katherine Dunham, Mrs. Bea Shipp, Mrs. Bette League, Mrs. Dolores Gaston and Mrs. Sharon Stanaland and Sally Hilton.

Local Group Attend Workshop On Drug Use

On Oct. 6, 7, and 8 a team from Jayton is attending a workshop on Drugs in Lubbock. They are Mr. Newton, Mr. Eugene Harris and Bobette Hamilton. This workshop is studying such things as "Current Problems as Depicted in Lyrics and Art," "The Press and Drug Problem, Identification of Abuse of Drugs, and others."

This workshop is being conducted by Region 17 Education Service Center and the Texas Education Agency.

4-H CLUB CHILI SUPPER FRIDAY

The Kent County 4-H groups are sponsoring a Chili Supper at the school cafeteria Friday night before the Rule ball game.

On the menu will be chili, cole slaw, a drink and peach cobbler. Cost of the meal will be $1.00 for people over 12 years; 50¢ for 12 and under. Everyone is invited to this supper, states Pat Nilson, County 4-H Agent.

John Charles Davis is brought down by two Matadors after catching a pass. He scored four touchdowns in the game.

Harold Judy outmaneuvers one Matador, but he can see four other white-shirts on the way to tackle him.

Jaybirds Get Easy 34-6 Victory Over Matador

The lights on the Matador field score board were kept flashing last Friday night, ringing up the scores made by Jayton's John Charles Davis. Four times he lit up the board, as he got off some good touchdown runs. Once Arthur Johnson took a Kim Nichols pass in the end zone to score. The Jaybirds took an early lead that was never really challenged. They had a 27-0 budge on the board at half time. Matador had a scrappy little team, but actually they were no match for the fired up Jaybirds. Jayton will be hosts to the Rule Bobcats tonight on Jaybird field, in a homecoming affair. This will be one of the strongest the Jaybirds have had all season. Rule has a good solid team, with a good defense and some good runners.

Friday Night Upsets Hinder Game Predictions

The guessers did not find it so easy in the contests this week. There was one tie game, which set everyone back. Sleepy Browning had the best score. He guessed eleven games right, with no misses except the tie.

Tied with one miss each were David Geeslin, Kim Nichols and Rogene Browning. Geeslin missed the score by 2, Nichols by 3 and Rogene by 9. This gave Geeslin second and Nichols third. Aaron Bennett and Glenn Phillips both guessed the total score, but had 2 and 3 misses. There was a very large number of people who entered the contest. Interest continues to grow each week.

CHILDREN HOME

The L. C. Smith's had their children from Denison; also Merle and Gail from Amarillo; Martell Smith & family from Lubbock last weekend. They reported a nice time.

Line Facts On Kent County Finances

An Editorial

In recent weeks several people have questioned the figures referred to by the editor of the Chronicle, supporting the proposed bond issues. Several have asked the question: How could they build a library without a bond issue, when they are now overdrawn? Such statements are misleading and give a false view of county finances.

According to the official records in the courthouse, on Oct. 1, 1970 total County funds, in the bank amounted to about $17,000.00. This does not include interest and Sinking Funds, set aside to pay bonded indebtedness. One fund, the Officers Salary Fund was about $300,00 overdrawn as of Oct. 1, the records show. But this is nothing new, this happens quite often, at about any time of the year. There are certain funds that may be transferred from one fund to the other to care for these OD's.

Another thing, Sept. 30 is the end of the county financial year. New tax funds begin to come in early in October. Really, no one worries if some accounts run out about the end of the year.

Not too many years ago, I sat in on a meeting of the court when A. F. Eudy of General Crude, and other tax men, gave the court members a chewing out, because too many accounts had large surpluses. These Oil Company tax men highly frowned on end of the tax year surpluses. This to them, means taxes were too high.

In an editorial, Commissioner Gordon Hamilton was quoted as saying a library could have been built, without the voting of bonds, thus saving some money, because there is quite a lot of expense in expediting a bond election and issue. Several people have questioned this. Well, here are the figures.

Right now, Kent County owes $50,000.00 on the Rest Home, and $47,000.00 on the special Road and Bridge bonds. But when this year's taxes come in, by Jan. 1, 1971 all of these bonds will be paid, and the county will owe no bonded indebtedness at all.

This year, there is more than $3 million in values over previous years. This will bring in an additional $37,500.00. This with the 47,000.00 set aside for bonded indebtedness in past years, would make available, for a library, at least $121,000.00 by the end of next year, with no raise in property values or tax rate.

And, too, if the Court needed some short term money, they could issue interest bearing warrants, without an election.

And here is something else to think about. Kent County does not operate on a budget. They estimate the needs and set the tax rate, and get the money, and then spend the money as they need it, with the exception of the Interest and Sinking Funds.

Between Oct. 1, and Dec. 31, this year there is an anticipated county income from taxes of about $320,000.00. Since there is no set budget and a good part of this money subject only to the order of the Commissioner's Court, at their discretion large sums of money could be legally manipulated and be spent just about any way they want to spend it.

The members of the Kent County Commissioners Court, in the past ten years, to my certain knowledge, have had no trouble in buying anything they have wanted to buy.

Only the things they don't want to buy, have they had any trouble raising the money for.

Does this answer the question?

Dear Editor:

It seems that a man of your standing and the owner of a County News paper would want the facts about county matters when same is published.

In case in the Chronicle where you said you had examined the minutes of the Courts of Kent County for the last ten years or so, and you mentioned Girard and Claremont having a fire truck paid for by County funds, however you seem to have forgotten to mention the facts that Jayton also had a fire truck purchased by the County for the sum of some $14,000. Maybe you overlooked that purchase in the minutes that you examined.

And it seems that some one said that the library, Community Center, golf course and park could be built without voting bonds for same. It would be well for you to check with F. O. Harrison, County Treasurer or Dallas Kenady, County Auditor for facts concerning available county funds in the bank.

Sincerely,
Carlos Dickerson
Commissioner, Prec. 2.

WEEK-END VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. William Stratford spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Brantner and Becky and Mrs. Ray Smith.

Girard POT SHOTS

By GEORGE

On the front page of the Chronicle last week, it was interesting to learn from the editor, that Ole' George made so many folks mad that they turned out in numbers to vote for the Bond issue.

The fact is: Only about half of the voters turned out to vote either way—for or against said issue. So maybe there isn't to many folks mad at me because I stated that I was voting against the $175,000 package deal. It appears from the voters of Claremont, Girard, Polor and Red Mud—that about eight to one or more went along with the Pot's hot man and several even in the Capital City voted like we did.

I also noted from reading the front page editorial why the election carried. At least three people told the editor their views pertaining to the election results—and why it carried. Frankly I didn't know until now that folks of sound mind would get mad at any one for voting like he wants to, or even telling folks how he was going to vote.

I believe Kent County folks to be intelligent enough to vote like they please and neither I nor the editor can tell straight thinking folks how to vote on anything. Anyway, I did make the front page—and most folks that commit a crime makes the front page.

Had no idea that I had been eating "sour grapes" until the editor mentioned it last week, surely some "hair brain" isn't telling him what to write.

Gotta' a pretty good notion that Ole' George doesn't fear any "Boogers" not even a front page Editorial.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell and grandson Lee from Brown filed visited last week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Brown. Mr. Howell was for many years a ginner at the old Swift cotton gin in Jayton, many years ago.

The Porter family from Wellington visited her Father the George Willis's last week end.

Attending a HD Council tea at the local community Center here last Wednesday from Jayton were Mrs. Glenn Hancock, Mrs. Dr. McLaury and Mrs. Jackson East, after the tea they visited Mrs. George Darden in her home.

Mrs. Carlos Dickerson visited her children a couple of days in Lubbock last week.

Have had quite a lot of "Ribbing" last week by good friends in Jayton and Girard about me making the front page in the Chronicle last week, never can tell just where a "hoss fly" will light.

A few folks are still around that remember back when Monroe (Munn) Hargrove ran a cotton gin here, was also Depot agent and carried the mail, and when Munn laughed you could hear him a mile off wind was in the right direction.

Ran right smack into But-ton Mayfield and son Jim in Rotan the other day they were spending some "dough" at the oil mill there for cow feed, kinda sad situation but cows has gotta' eat.

Clifford Scott and Ollie Bural were trucking cattle to the live stock auction in Lubbock last week.

Alton Clark says the cotton gin here is ready to gin cotton and he expects a bale or two within the next few days.

Jake Simmons still "batching" as his wife is in Houston with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Yandell. Mrs. Yandell at this writing is still undergoing tests in the Anderson Hospital there.

The old time "cow hands" seen around the Rodeo grounds and at the race track at the Kent-Dickens Fair were Dick Sampson of Spur and Brit McDaniel of Dickens.

Pat Nilson, Kent County Home Demonstration Agent has resigned her job as HD Agent effective 31st. of Oct. Pat says she has accepted a job in Wichita Falls. So I s'pose Kent County will be looking for another HD Agent. Club members say, they come in mighty handy at times.

Visiting the George Darden last Friday afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pickron of Hamlin and Mrs. Carlos Dickerson of the home town.

Met all the farmers in this neck of the woods have their wheat and oats in the ground and now awaits soaking rain.

Mrs. Elmer Long is much improved since under-going surgery in an Odessa Hospital and is now in her daughter's home in that city.

at a meeting of the Commissioner's Court the other day and this is "direct from the horse's mouth" there wasn't enough money in the Treasury to pay the Kent County bills without borrowing the dough or riding a over-draft. Still wonder about the $175,000 Bond election, with out the Bond election, without a tax raise.

Eastland County was on a big Oil Boom in the 1920's and was producing so much oil and the Oil Companies were paying about 90 percent of the taxes, and the Commissioners went on a "spending spree" so the Big Wheels of Oil Companies got their heads together and decided to just slow down the operations until the present Commissioners either died off or were defeated. That's what they did.

Kent County old timers like Merle Jay and Glenn Hancock were on hand for the Dickens-Kent Fair. Wish we had the names of all the early day folks who were attending the Fair. Yep, Lawson Allen of the Jayton Rest Home was there.

Maybe Girard will soon be on a oil boom, a good well was brought in last Friday on the John Lankford place north of town in Dickens County. We are all happy for the Lankford's, and we are just hoping that the drilling will edge in close to town.

Met up with some friends in front of the Kent County State Bank in Jayton last Saturday morning. One of my friends asked me if my "body guard" was with me. Yep, I had a five pound poodle dog in the back seat of the car.

Hats off to the Jayton-Girard High School football team for winning three games in a row, in fact, the boys haven't lost a game which speaks mighty well of players and coaches.

A feature at the Kent-Dickens Fair were the Hide races, the old boy that is on hide and a horse pulling him by the saddle horn in a dead-run is a lot of fun for the spectators. Clyde Spray pulling Bill Vencil around the Rodeo Arena at full speed was a sight to behold.

Never saw folks work harder at any Fair than Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Turner, Ollie Buzarand, all the barbeque folks plus all the good ladies who were at the head of the women exhibits in the buildings, in fact, everybody had a hand in making the Fair a good Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hooper spent the week end in Colorado with a niece and nephew and did some fishing and visiting.

Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Brown spent the week end in the Tom Hunicutt home.

Test Tube Democracy

Think of television networks and jet transportation, and the United States will appear to be one vast, interconnected unit.

But think of traffic laws and fishing regulations and the real estate taxes and grounds for divorce, and the United States will appear to be a jumble of diversities.

Such diversities can be confusing. But they are also rewarding in a way that is too often overlooked. Supreme Court Justice been on the sick list and has made several trips to a Dr. in Lubbock for tests; she is better at this writing.

Thanks to all my friends who last week either called or told me to stay in there and pitch with reference to my "sour grape" disposition; and for all who have complimented this column in the past, and it depends whether or not after this week's "sour grapes" we shall continue this in the Chronicle, but if not, you can read all about it in the Texas Spur. And for now that's it.

Louis Brandeis once put the matter as follows:

"It is one of the happy incidents of the federal system that a single courageous state, may, if its citizens choose, serve as a laboratory; and try novel social and economic experiments without risk to the rest of the country."

This advantage of diversity is not the least bit theoretical. On the contrary, there are countless examples of one state leading the way, trying out a new idea, while other states wait and see how it works—very much like a scientist watching an experiment in a test tube.

For instance: is it a good idea to give the customers of door-to-door salesmen a "cooling-off period," during which they may reconsider and cancel the order?

Some say this would protect the gullible buyer from high-pressure salesmanship. Others say it would put an unfair burden on the legitimate firms engaged in this field. A number of states are now putting the idea to a test.

Or: is it a good idea for the state to pay compensation to the victims of violent crime? Some say this would be fulfilling a moral obligation of the state. Others say it would be just another costly boondoggle. Several states are now trying it out. Of course, no two states are exactly alike. Lawmakers, considering a new program, will weigh local conditions and consult local opinion. Yet, they will also be influenced by finding out what actually happened when the idea was tried in a sister state. "The science of government," said an earlier Supreme Court, "is the science of experiment."

Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must undergo the fatigue of supporting it."

the GOOD NEWS!

An excited aliveness!... That describes a man getting good news over the telephone. Then, there is the gospel, which means "The Good News" which gives life when it comes to a man. It generates life anew. This Good News is proclaimed weekly and oftentimes daily, through God's messenger in His Church. Jesus announced the Good News when He said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Matthew 10:10. Listen to the proclamation of the Good News in the church of your choice

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Wade-McGinnis Wedding Is Held In Arkansas

The Chapel of the Cross in Fayetteville, Arkansas, was the setting for the wedding of Sara Kay Wade and Thomas Douglas McGinnis on Saturday afternoon, August 8.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cameron of El Paso and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warren McGinnis of Ursa, Ill., all of whom were in Fayetteville for the ceremony.

The Rev. Victor Nixon performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Lewis Chessman, organist, played selections from Handel's Water Music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of moon-blue crepe with matching blue sash and carried a large white Dutchess rose. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. John Wink, who wore a street-length dress of gold brocade with a matching chanel bow and carried an apricot Dutchess rose.

John Wink was best man and Dennis Jackson served as usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Wink home.

Attending from out of town were the bridegroom's sister, Miss Arlene McGinnis of Urse, and Robert Andres from Ashdown, Ark.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. McGinnis are at home in Fayetteville where he is working on his Ph. D. degree in English at the University of Ark.

HOME BUYER

Defense Sometimes Necessary

After years of peaceful co-existence, your neighbor decides your back yard contains right of way for an alley—and that he wants to use it. You disagree and a court battle develops.

In the courtroom, maps are introduced to support your contention that no right of way is on your land. Expert witnesses testify in your behalf. After a protracted struggle, the court finally rules in your favor.

You have won—but you also must pay for the legal services that made an effective defense possible.

Actual cases similar to this are on record and illustrate the importance of being prepared to defend your home ownership. A helpful form of related protection often obtained by home buyers before completing a real estate purchase is owner's title insurance. This type of coverage will pay for a legal defense against an attack on a land title as insured—and will pay all claims proved to be valid.

Owner's title insurance also includes a check of separately-located public records for land title problems that could affect the security of a real estate investment. If such difficulties are found, they are reported so work to resolve them can be completed before ownership is transferred from seller to buyer.

For free information on things you need to know in purchasing a home, write American Land Title Association, 1828 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.

From The Recipe File Of Opal Richards

The following recipes were given to me by Billie Lue Joiner of El Campo and she assured me they were real "Men Pleasers."

IMPOSSIBLE PIE

4 eggs
1/2 stick butter or marg., melted
1 3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp salt
2 cup milk
1-4 oz. can shredded coconut
1 tsp. vanilla

Beat eggs thoroughly in mixer. Add melted butter, sugar, flour and milk. Beat until well blended. Stir in coconut and vanilla.

Pour into 2 ungreased 9 inch pie pans and bake in a 350-degree oven 35-45 mins. Cool and cut. Mixture is rather thin, when poured in pan, but cuts clearly after you bake it.

SALT GRASS BARBECUED POTATOES

5-6 lbs. potatoes in skins
1/2 cup batter, (don't skimp)
1-2 large onions peeled and chopped
1/3 cup Worcestershire sauce
1 Tbls. salt
1 1/2 Tbsp. paprika (don't skimp)
1/3 tsp. pepper

Boil potatoes until tender. Cube them (peeling is best). Place in a large greased baking pan. Melt butter in skillet, saute onions for about 3 mins., stirring often. Add remaining ingredients. Pour over potatoes and mix well.

Bake 350 degrees for about 45 mins. Serves 6-8.

VISIT THE SMITH'S

Mr. and Mrs. Rayborn Fitts visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith Monday.

Deft handling of meringue, a moderate oven and a short time, gives just a tinge of golden brown.

SOUR CREAM PIE

1/2 cup flour
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups sour cream
3 egg yolks
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1 baked Pastry Shell
1 recipe Meringue II

Mix flour, sugar and salt together;

stir in cream and cook in top of double boiler until thickened, stirring constantly. Pour hot mixture slowly over egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return to heat and cook 3 minutes longer. Add flavoring and cool. Pour into pastry shell, top with meringue and proceed as directed. Makes 1 (9-inch) pie.

1970 INTERNATIONAL BULB SELECTIONS

Flower lovers all over the world helped select the 1970 International Holland Bulb Selections. Nine tulips, a daffodil and a hyacinth were chosen by a jury of experts from Holland's bulb-growing industry, from a pool of visitors to Keukenhof, the world's largest bulb gardens.

Flowers chosen for special beauty this year include:

- | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| Triumph Tulip | "Thule"—red, edged yellow |
| Triumph Tulip | "Garden Party"—white, carmine edged |
| Triumph Tulip | "Prince Charles"—purple, violet |
| Darwin Hybrid Tulip | "Apseloom"—cherry red, yellow base |
| Single Late Tulip | "Mrs. John T. Scheepers"—pale yellow |
| Single Late Tulip | "Renown"—carmine-red, blue edged yellow base |
| Lily-flowered Tulip | "Mariette"—satin-rose |
| Parrot Tulip | "Orange Favourite"—orange, feathered green |
| Greigii Tulip | "Cape Cod"—bronze yellow, black with red base |
| Hyacinth | "Amsterdam"—salmon-pink |
| Narcissus | "Bridal Crown"—ivory white, orange center |

Among those chosen, "Mrs. John T. Scheepers" (pictured here) a Single Late Tulip is not only one of the largest but is also one of the best of the pale yellow tulips. It has enormous flowers of elongated oval shape, borne on strong, erect, 34-inch stems.

All of the 1970 International Holland Bulb Selections are available in nurseries throughout the United States. Early purchase is recommended while all the 1970 selections are still available.

Bulbs should be planted as soon as purchased. For the North, planting time is usually from September through late November. In the more temperate sections of the country, it extends into late December.

UNUSUAL SHRIMP SALAD IS A DIETER'S DREAM

It is not often one slim-down dish offers so much for so few calories, but it is all here—protein, vegetables, starch, great flavor, and servings so generous they can take a long, beautiful time to eat!

Shrimp and rice are at the heart of it. Shrimp, of course, are all lean and low-calorie (about 150 to the 4 1/2-ounce can), but they contribute the high quality protein needed to hold back hunger between meals. In modest quantities, rice adds only its wallop of fuel and energy. As the saying goes, it is not the starch that fattens but what is spooned over it. And a trick way of cooking the rice gives the whole salad a very satisfying but deceptively rich flavor.

This is a pretty salad—all shrimp-pink and greens—with a slightly Oriental look, particularly when vegetables are cut on the slant. It serves four but for one person single servings may be spaced by adding rice and fresh ingredients to the shrimp mixture as needed.

WAIST WATCHER SHRIMP SALAD

- 1 can (4 1/2 ounces) shrimp
- 1 can (1 pound) cut green beans
- 1 garlic clove, thinly sliced
- 1 tablespoon salad oil
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon sugar
- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 2 chicken bouillon cubes
- 2/3 cup uncooked rice
- 1 cup sliced celery
- 1/2 cup sliced scallions or sweet onion
- 2 cups shredded crisp lettuce
- Soy sauce (optional)

Have shrimp and beans chilled in the can. Drain both, reserving the bean liquid. Crush garlic in a large salad bowl. Add oil, mustard, sugar, vinegar, shrimp, and beans. Toss well; refrigerate. Heat bean liquid; add bouillon cubes and stir until dissolved. In a saucepan combine liquid with enough water to make 2 cups. Add rice. Bring to a boil and cook rapidly, uncovered, about 8 minutes or until rice stands above the water line. Reduce heat to lowest point; cover closely and steam 12-14 minutes. Spread rice in a shallow pan to cool, using a fork to separate the grains. Refrigerate 10 minutes or until needed. At serving time, add rice to shrimp and bean mixture; toss together with celery, onion, lettuce. Serve with soy sauce. 4 servings.
