UNKEL ZEKE SEZ

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

With this war to shorten the war picking up in Louse, the diplomats and statesmen at the country store Saturday night allowed as how getting out of Vietnam is like spitting agin the wind for distance. Its another case of the hurrier we go the behinder we git and I can't help but think about Brer Fox trying to git loose from the tar baby ever time I read somepun about Louse being the way out of Asia.

Clem Webster spoke on this subject during the session, and he was asking how you tell the difference between a invasion and a incursion. The Nixon Administration is calling what we're doing in Louse a incursion, Clem allowed, but it looks to him like we're jest getting stuck deeper in quicksand.

Clem, that actual has stood up fer President Nixon onct or twict, said he reckoned that is like a deficit of strength that President Kennedy use to talk about. When you go in debt on purpose it's strength, and when you invade so you can withdraw it's incursion, was Clem's words.

Talking about deficits, Clem reported where he had saw where this column writer says Nixon's next budget will run $20 billion in the hole, nearly double the $1 billion that turned into $10 billion this year. Clem was of the mind that they ain't going to be a heap of surplus in Washington to send back to the state: if things go like this feller is perdicting.

Furthermore, Clem said, Nixon is taking credit instead of blame fer his budget being bad in the red. The way he tells it, a balanced budget would stunt the economy growth, but a deficit stimulates it. Clem said he had saw where Nixon had come around to a spend the country back in shape way of thinking, but this was the first time he had ever heard a Republican President sound like a New Deal Democrat.

That brought Ed Doolittle to his feet, but when he got the floor he allowed he hadn't done his homework as good as Clem. Ed allowed that Clem is bad to complain about the heat in the summer and the cold in the winter, and he recalled that back when President Johnson was spending money like a drunk trying to drink hisself sober Clem was even sneeking into the Republican corner on money matters.

General speaking, Mister Editor, I would agree with Ed that the average American is getting more wishy washy all the time. He use to be a pritty solid feller, but he's been bumboozled, pushed and punched around so much til nowadays he's got a lot of give in him.

Like the feller said, it's hard to tell if the early bird gits the worm or the early worm gits the bird.

Yours truly,

Unkel Zeke

Did you notice in the news that Cap Rock Telephone is planning two major changes affecting Jayton and Girard customers?

One is to install toll free calling between Jayton and Girard. The other is direct distance dialing. The news release, sent to the Chronicle by Senator John Tower, did say in what towns the DDD is being planned, but it is not included Jayton.

There is fireworks going on in the Texas Legislature. The Texas House passed a huge tax bill without very much trouble, but the liberal minded senate may balk on them. Gov. Ben Barnes said Monday. See THIS WEEK page 3

Boyce House---I give you Texas. Texas has a state flower, the Blue Bonnet, and there is a state tree, the Pecan and senator Rogers Kelley, who lives down on the Rio Grande thinks Texas should have a state dog, an excellent idea. But the senator favors a chihuahua, let us grant that the tiny creature is cute--but he isn't a Texas dog. He is from Mexico. There are lots of Texans that have never seen a Chihuahua, in their lives.

Let us select a dog that is typical of Texas. One that has played a part in the winning of Texas and in its life. Maybe a hunting dog, or watch dog that herd cow or sheep, or a dog that romps with children should them from harm and that can jump into water and drag them to safety.

Yes, the nondescript dog that the pioneers brought with them when they headed west in their wagons on the danger be set trails a dog that went without food and water on the desert still did not run away. A dog that flew to his masters side when in a fight with a wild animal. A dog whose bark warns of the approach of Indians. A dog that was a brave and faithful friend giving affection, comradeship, loyalty service and if necessary life itself asking only in return a word of cheer and a pat on his head. That's the kind of dog Texas should select.

Policy Is Made On 1971 Set Aside Acreage

It appears that policy as pertains to set-aside acreage for the 1971 crops has been established as they pertain to the Agricultural Act of 1970. The percent required cotton and feed grain for 1971 is 20% of the allotment of base. The percent required for wheat is 75% of the allotment. For land to be eligible to qualify for set-aside it must be at least as productive as the average land on the farm. The County Committee must determine this. If they determine the set-aside is not average productive as compared to the land being devoted to the crop then they are required to make reductions in payments.

The local ASCS Office has been advised they will be checked to see that these instructions are being carried out. If they are then for 1972

Just how big is the King Ranch? Nearly a million acres--but a million acres is like a billion dollars; so big we can't visualize it; so it becomes almost meaningless.

A man parked his car on the ranch while he was on a hunting, fishing trip, and forgot where he parked it, and they found it the other day--12 years later.

That's how big the King ranch is.

the provisions that required land to be devoted to a crop for harvest within the 3 preceding years will again be waived.

Under previous farm programs with acreage diversion provisions some producers have diverted acreage that was inferior in productivity. Such a practice does little to help achieve the program goal of bringing supply and demand into relative balance. And, it is unfair to other producers who willingly cooperate with the intent of the regulations and set-aside productive land.

In planning one's 1971 farming operations careful consideration should be given to productivity of land before using it as set-aside acreage.

Bird Tracks

Saturday, March 6th at 7:00 P. M. that roaring band from Jaybird Land had its annual banquet. Many pleasures were shared under the circustent in the school cafeteria. The decorations were of colorful balloons along with watchful eyes of several zoo characters, pictured on the walls of the tent. Entertainment was provided by Lisa York and John Davis, who sang pop and western style music. Kim Nichols and Nickey Williams furnished guitar accompaniment.

The food, prepared by the band mothers, was delicious and was served by the sixth grade, wearing colorful clown suits.

Mr. Nauret took Bill Wallace, Monte Andreasen, Tommy Parker, and Mike Rice to Lubbock Saturday where they competed in a Science meet in preparation for the district meet in April. Mike won first place in the Junior Division. Bill Wallace placed fifth. Over all the team placed second. There were twenty-nine high schools entered in the meet, with eighty-seven contestants. The places which were won were first place, Lubbock Coronado, second place, Jayton; and third place Andrew.

This weekend, the FHA girls with Mrs. Kathy Owens, will attend an Area Code meeting at Midland.

All school is buzzing with various activities and out-of-town workshops as the students are preparing for District UIL meets.

Saturday, March 13, the band students will participate in solo and ensemble contests held at Hardin Simmons University in Abilene.

Also the track boys will be going to Levelland.

"Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom must undergo the fatigue of supporting it."

Thomas Paine Sept. 12, 1777

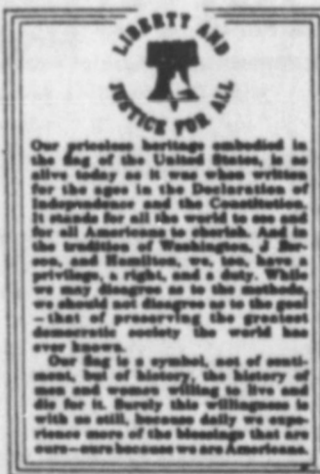

"We, the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

This short paragraph--the Preamble of the Constitution for the United States of America--states in one sentence the intentions of the men who wrote it. Not many would find themselves in disagreement with the proposed objectives, but from the beginning there has been disagreement over the laws which would be necessary to fulfill these objectives. Some of this disagreement arises out of the tendency of many of us to look at everything in the light of our own personal desires, ambitions and material gain.

In order to be able to properly evaluate laws, either those now in force or those being proposed, we need to take a more impersonal point of view and try to think more in terms of "WE, the people of the (WHOLE) UNITED STATES."

Our greatest heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the traditions of Washington, J. Adams, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal--that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours--ours because we are Americans.

they would probably send to them with the notation "What else have you got?"

The Legislature this year seems to be different from most. The house seems to want to admit defeat, or come up with some sort of excuse. The Senate, while the Senate some business taxes to give, as they say balance.

Under if they have tried a way of getting along without new taxes?

It looks like the rainmaker in Stonewall County will admit defeat, or come up with some sort of excuse. The guess is that he will have a dilly. I'm watching it.

What do you think about losing out to Frazier on their 15 round fight? Too will be sure to come up with some kind of saving excuse.

The real joke of it all is the big television network full hour of prime time to promote this fight. And all the junk they fed their viewers during that hour. Of course it meant a lot of dough for them. Something like six million dollars in closed circuit television was expected.

Now, it will have to be re-matched, and another big deal, similar to Monday night's spectacular.

I got my opinion of anyone that would go for such fees, even 25¢ worth.

The recent bombing of the National Capitol building has created considerable commotion among the law makers. When I was in Washington in the fall of 1969 I saw a scene involving a drunken brawl, a complete non-chalant on the part of D. C. policemen and a really disgusted me. With the kind of police attitude, I can expect anything.

Most of our officers in all branches, city, county, state and federal levels are honest, hardworking and dedicated officers. But this being true, it is right now, less respect, and more criticism of enforcement personnel than there ever has been. Why is this?

I think the fault lies partly in professional false pride. No one in public position, or in supervisory position over an officer of any rank, would ever admit even in the face of obvious guilt, that there was something wrong. They may admit out privately, but they would do anything to bolster their opinion in their efficiency, or the lack of it.

This attitude of refusing to be honest with the public, decreasing public confidence in the police, as well as the bad, and should not be.

Have you ever seen a time when so many officers are being shot, and when so many officers are shooting suspects? This, too, is a sign that something is wrong. Officers can be too careless, and get themselves, as well as fellow officers shot. Or at the other extreme, they can get bigger happy, and this cause them to kill some innocent victims. Either extreme is bad.

By this, you can be in a group of four people, and let the conversation get around to shooting officers, and two, maybe even three of them express distrust and lack confidence, or maybe even hostility toward, not a particular officer, but all officers in class. This is bad, and is getting worse.

What's the remedy? Better training? Better pay schedule? A better public attitude? Any of these would help, but they are not the remedy, entirely.

In a sense, people are too tolerant with things that are bad. You can have 99 fine officers, and one bad one. This bad one hurts the reputations of the good ones. Any person that gets fouled up with this bad one, will be unhappy with the other 99 also.

The worst enemy that a good officer has, is another officer that is doing a bad job because he hurts everybody, and the good officers should not tolerate him, but should see that he loses his badge, his gun and his uniform, and that quickly--but how many of them will do this?

And, then of course, public attitude needs to be worked on. The public needs to have a better understanding of the officers and of some of the difficult situations they face daily, one of them being a general apathy toward law and order itself.

Maybe I don't even have the right attitude about it myself.

BRIGHT PROMISE
By Natalie Kling
Lovely Laurel Graham was shattered by the untimely death of her fiancé. Nothing mattered any longer, not even the prospect of becoming a teacher in her home town of Worth Valley.

Laurel, however under the insistences of the school principal, numbly took on the job. She once again remembered her love for the great English poets and writers. Maybe she could help the students in her classes to enjoy these poems and books as she did.

ROGENE'S FLOWERS

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW BY CLIQUE

Mrs. Edd Reeves called the office to see about renewing their subscription to the Jayton Chronicle to be told that her subscription has been paid by her daughter, Barbara.

Bob Reeves the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Reeves of Jayton finished work on his Masters Degree in January. Over the week end he got moved to his new home in Plainview, where he will be Entomologist for Crkin Chemical Corp.

Received a phone call from Granville and Jamie Smith, they are now living in Victoria. They moved there last week. Still no house to move in, Granville is teaching in the commerce building all adult classes.

About eight o'clock on Wednesday morning the telephone rang. When I answered the phone, there was a voice on the other end of the line saying Clique why aren't you at work, saying that I only work on Monday and Tuesday mornings. A little sleepy I'm afraid, as I have a bad or good habit which ever way you look at it, to sleep late on my days off. But the voice seemed so clear and thinking, that it couldn't be the person it sounded like. He proceeded to say where he thought the mystery house was. I told him that I didn't know where it was but I always write all guesses down, saying who are you, well this is C. Ray Williams; where are you calling from? Oh I'm at home, now home is out on the east coast close to our nations capitol at least not far.

Ray wanted to know how things were here, and stated that they were living in the wrong part of the country. Well why don't you and Lela come back home? Of course I knew their children live there and that is the place for all of them to be close etc. The Williams are fine and the grandson is planning a wedding pretty soon, and Lela and Ray will celebrate their golden anniversary soon. He said he thought we were a bit old fashioned all celebrating anniversaries close to 39 years and them at 50. When our family moved to Girard from Cleburne, in 1927 he was the gliner at the Williams and Miller gin and Lela was assistant to Mrs. Woody at the Post Office. Then later she became our post mistress at the retirement of Mrs. Woody and she stayed until she retired and they moved to Maryland to be close to the children.

It is always good to hear from folks you have known so long. He said that there seemed to be a lot of illness and deaths among their old friends, that near fifty close acquaintances had passed away since they left here.

Again thanks for calling. When you folks celebrate that big day let us know, and how about a picture to put in the Chronicle?

Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Smith visited in the home of their parents last week end, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brantner. William is stationed at Camp Polk, La.

Glenns Vencil was called to the hospital at Eastland last Saturday a. m. by her mother's physician, as surgery was necessary. Surgery was scheduled for Monday, March 8.

Mrs. Bill Bingham, the former Nancy Smith is to have surgery on Monday, March 8. Her parents and Mrs. James H. Smith are with her in Brownwood hospital.

Lee Parker received word Monday that an Uncle, Asia Franks had passed away at Farmington, New Mex. The roads were blocked with snow and ice, and he was unable to attend.

Jackie Williams is working in Snyder at the Ritz Mobile Home, Inc. He was visiting his parents recently.

Rodney Bud Smith son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith of Benjamin visited his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Smith last weekend, and of course grandmother wanted to take his picture. It was pretty hard to get a boy to sit for eight pictures all in one sitting and keep his cool.

Mr. Sam Newberry was by the office one day last week, saying he and Sue were feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parks and David drove to New Braunfels Friday evening and spent Friday night and Saturday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Bonny Culpepper, Kendra and Karla. Saturday afternoon they drove to San Antonio and spent the remainder of the week-end with the Gary Hogans. They also had the pleasure of visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Haddock Athene and Camille, who were visiting the Hogans at the same time. They reported it rained Sunday morning in San Antonio while they were there.

Billie Faye, the sister of Mrs. Oleta Moore was injured in a car accident last Wednesday morning at Arlington; when a car skidded on ice, sending her to the hospital. Her husband is in the same hospital as a cancer patient.

At first, she was not believed to be seriously hurt, but when her foot began to swell, it was found to be broken. The woman in the other car was fatally injured. She was thrown out of the car, and she did not have her seat belt fastened.

So many times we start out driving without this protection. Shoulder straps and seat belts are for our own protection. Of course, we think that the accidents will happen to the other person, not us. Why do we take chances? There are very few that are not guilty at one time or the other. So, fasten those seat belts before cranking that car!

Reports of three deaths in the Girard community; of Mrs. Henry Stiles, Earl Darden, and the mother of Ethel Carr. May we of the Chronicle extend our sympathy to all their families.

Sunday visitors in the Lee Parker home was her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Byrum of Anton.

Mrs. Edna (Tode) Byrd Ellis, of Clyde and Mrs. Jewel Puryear were in Jayton on business and visiting friends.

Kevin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith of Midland died quickly Saturday night.

He and a friend were on their way to a show and without warning he slumped on the steering wheel. The 19 year old youth had visited in Jayton visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith. His funeral was held in Midland, March 8.

Other survivors were his parents, a sister and a brother.

We are sorry to hear of the death of the sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Leach returned from Abilene last Saturday after her check-up. Her doctor said she was doing that no further tests were

At least you can go into a cellar from tornado's, but with those quakes there isn't a real safe place even in the open ground cracks and opens up.
