FLY YOUR FLAG JULY 4

PROCLAMATION

The Fourth of July will mark the 196th anniversary of the founding of our nation. As we celebrate this historic date, our nation is faced with its greatest challenge; a burgeoning population, restless youth impatient for fulfillment of our nation's ideals, demands for greater civil rights, and the sapping of our country's moral strength through increased crime, drug abuse and poverty.

Communities throughout the nation are declaring this Independence Day, July 4th, as a day to "Honor America" in an effort to encourage an expression of appreciation for the blessings and greatness of our country.

It is the opinion of this office that this activity should be recognized as an effort to unite Americans at a time when our patriotism and respect for the nation's purposes should be encouraged by all responsible citizens.

Therefore, by virtue of the powers vested in this office, I as Mayor of our city do hereby proclaim Tuesday, July 4, 1972, as "Honor America Day" and call upon all citizens, organizations, churches, schools and lay groups to recognize this special day through appropriate programs.

Signed in the City of _____ this date of _____, 1972.

L. G. Deering

FABULOUS, FRIVOLOUS FOURTH

That day of days is almost here—July the Fourth. It's that happy national holiday that's applauded alike by the makers of fireworks and calomine lotion. And dreaded by those who enjoy it too much.

It's a day known for family outings, fireworks displays, blanket tosses, blueberry whale blubber ice cream, damp deer, and St. Martin.

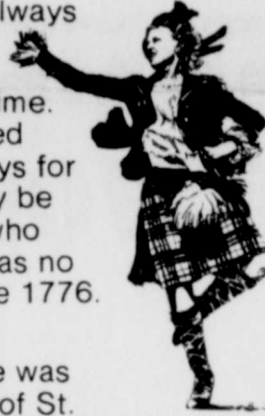

But perhaps July the Fourth is best known as Independence Day—a day with both the applause and the dread. Applause for another birthday of our freedom. Dread from harassed fathers driving cars full of assorted relatives, dogs, and screaming kids through bumper-to-bumper traffic. And dreaded by the bug-stung, sunburned vacationers who had too much of a good thing.

BEFORE 1776

The Fourth has not always been freedom's birthday—nor the vacationer's dream-time. It has been celebrated in many different ways for centuries, which may be surprising to those who thought that there was no Fourth of July before 1776. But it's true.

July the Fourth once was celebrated in honor of St. Martin. And that's where the damp deer (or soggy stags, as the natives of Scotland say) come in.

St. Martin of Bullion was a very popular Scottish saint. It was once popular to claim that the weather which prevailed on St. Martin's Day (or Bullion Day) was prophetic. It was a kind of medieval groundhog day. But instead of groundhogs, the weather prophets were the deer. "If the deer rise dry and lay down dry," the saying went, "there will be a good fall harvest." If the deer rose wet or lay down wet, then that meant 20 days of rain.

AFTER 1776

But back to America. Few took notice of the first American Fourth. In fact, the Declaration of Independence was read on July 4, 1776, as more or less an impromptu speech to a few passers-by. Someone read the document from a platform erected in the street to observe the passing of the planet Venus. It was not until the next year, 1777, that the nation had its first Fourth of July celebration. That year, John Adams went to the July Fourth dinner on a ship named "The Delaware." And he danced to the music of a band of Hessians taken prisoner at Trenton. Guy Lombardo didn't come until later—much later.

FIRECRACKERS AND FESTIVITIES

Fireworks became a popular way to express July Fourth enthusiasm soon after our country started making history. The bang-up idea was probably borrowed from the Chinese custom of setting off firecrackers on New Year's Eve to drive away evil spirits. And also to ward off evils, America adopted the custom called the "parade of the horrors." An early morning parade through the streets by persons dressed in wild costumes and making as much noise as possible supposedly drew in the good and frightened off the bad.

Community celebrations of a wide variety have long been Fourth of July favorites. One of the first was the Greeley, Colorado, "Spud Rodeo."

And in Kozebue, Alaska, the blueberry whale blubber ice cream came about. The citizens of Kozebue marked the Fourth with the blanket toss, too. Participants tried to bounce as high as they could on a kind of hand-held trampoline. And the women tugged the rope against visitors. The ladies of gay Kozebue almost always beat the outlanders at the rope tug.

But back to the ice cream. In Kozebue, the frozen delight is really made with blueberries and whale blubber. The fat and berries are hand-mixed with canned milk, sugar and snow. Was this the first "flavor of the month" for July?

TEXAS FOURTH

But Alaska cannot surpass the celebrations of Texas. The Lone Star State has its own unique ways of marking the Fourth of July. Here the day sees quarter-horse races and shows in Stamford and Columbus.

And rodeos in Belton and Pecos. And old-fashioned festivals in Brady, Taylor, and at Round Top and Winedale. There's a fishing festival in Brazosport. Golf tournaments tee-off statewide. And good old-fashioned fireworks explode in Carrollton and many other Texas home towns.

No matter how the Fourth is celebrated in Texas, it is always marked with friendliness and good cheer. Go somewhere and celebrate this Fourth of July. And as you go, remember to spread friendliness on the highways, too. The Governor's Committee on Traffic Safety urges all Texans, native and transplant, and all visitors, to DRIVE FRIENDLY during this happy, frivolous holiday.

Remember that DRIVE FRIENDLY means keeping your speed in check, observing all traffic laws, and—most important of all—letting someone else drive if you have had a drink.

The "Spirit of '76" is the July Fourth spirit that we commemorate. The "Spirit of '72" is the friendly spirit behind the wheel that will also live on forever.

WOMEN IN BUSINESS

(By Janet Moore, For The Abernathy Weekly Review.)

In a world that is rapidly being changed due to new inventions and the recycling process of many of our materials to preserve our environment, there is no wonder that women are increasingly becoming the backbone of industry in America. While the home was once her confines, the average American woman is fastly becoming more capable of becoming the business-minded individual that revolutionized our world.

In communities, large or small, the appearance of women "holding the fort" in a business world made up mostly of males is quite encouraging to the future of this nation.

There are countless reasons for women being in business: these ranging from just wanting to work, to being the family breadwinner. No matter what the reason, women are in the business world to stay -- not only as secretaries, but as owners and managers of large and important businesses in our community. Let us look into some of these firms and the women they employ.

Assuming a job at a bank is not always easy, especially when one starts at the bottom and works up. Now assistant cashier, Mrs. N. C. Hix has been employed by the First State Bank for over twenty-five years. Her services to the business world will be long remembered by the citizens and by her fellow workers, alike. Other women who are important in the field of banking are Mrs. Betty Smith, who has had eight years experience; Mrs. Kathy Vannoy, who is approaching her third year at the bank; Miss Peggy Peacock, who is in her first year; and Miss Pat Aguirre, who serves as janitor, and has had a year's experience. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Vannoy and Miss Peacock are bookkeepers.

Graham's Restaurant has been serving the South Plains for the past 25 years and more. There, always ready to offer her service, was Mrs. Ed Graham. Sarah Graham has helped her husband build the restaurant into one of the finest on the South Plains. Graham's also wishes to thank Mr. James Graham, who has served the public for the past six years. Currently, Graham's employs around fifteen women.

Mr. Lon Carmickle cited his wife for her loyal services. Vivian Carmickle has worked for the twenty-four previous years. No matter what the job might have been, she was there, ready to do her part. Mrs. Augustine Cantu has served for 17 years as an employee, taking care of the finish-work. Mrs. Ruth Hernandez has been with the business for the past 15 years. She does the alterations. Mrs. Lorraine Davis also helps out with the alterations. She has been employed at Lon's for five years.

Edith Waits has helped manage Waits Farm Store for the past twenty-one years. She has done just about everything around the store. She has had help from her daughter-in-law, Thelma Waits. These women have dealt with almost every facet of farm needs.

For Mrs. Ray Pinson, drug business is a life's profession. Mrs. Pinson helped her husband for 35 years until, in 1960, their son, David, bought their share in the pharmacy. Mrs. David Pinson has been assisting her husband with their business for twelve years. Mrs. Mildred Tannehill has been employed by Pinson's Pharmacy for the previous seven years. Mrs. Jeane Herring has been employed by this firm for the past three years.

Mrs. Gertrude Prather has been working for Struve's Hardware and Dry Goods for 22 years. She has always been efficient and ready to help each customer individually. Her twenty-two years of service have been appreciated and will be long remembered. Working beside her are Mrs. Marie Galoway, who has had ten years prior experience; Mrs. Vida Adkisson, who has been with Struve's for the past eight years as business manager; Mrs. Myrna Davis, who will be in her sixth year.

Abernathy Floral has always been the favorite spot to select that present for that special person. No one can help in the selection of that gift like Mrs. Dorothy Stephens. She and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Petty, have been in the flower business for over 20 years. Being more of a woman's business, Abernathy Floral has three other women ready to help with gift suggestions and pretty flower arrangements that would fit any occasion. These women are Mrs. Billie Jean Harrison, Mrs. Ethel Petty, and Mrs. Dortha Deering. Deciphering yearly income tax is no easy job, but it is the one Mrs. Ted Smithee chose. She has been in this type business for the past twenty-one years. She operates her business in her home.

Mrs. Ruby Floyd has been beautifying women around Abernathy for a long time--19 years to be exact. She owns her own beauty shop and operates it alone. She also does her own bookkeeping.

Mrs. Lottie Jones has been in the bookkeeping profession and real estate business for the past 18 years. For the last year, she has operated the business by herself.

Out on Farm Road 54, Lena Martin, wife of Martin Gin Co. owner, will begin her eighth year as bookkeeper and co-owner. She and her husband busily anticipate this fall's business.

Mrs. Maudie Jones of Jones' Bookkeeping Service has had 14 years experience in public accounting and bookkeeping. There are many businesses in Abernathy that she does business for.

Mrs. Lucile Rogers has spent fifteen years in her business. Her business is making the women of this community lovely to look at. She is owner and operator at her beauty salon in her residence at 507 10th Street. She also employs Mrs. Judy Downs who has recently been added to the staff. Mrs. Rogers said she does her own bookkeeping.

Dr. Kenneth Gregory has had the privilege of employing Mrs. Earl Carter for the past 15 years. Mrs. Carter has served as secretary and bookkeeper for the doctor. Also serving the community are Mrs. Mac Bridges who has worked for four years as a nurse; Miss Frances Aguirre also a nurse, with three years behind her; Mrs. Wayne Kitchens who has been in charge of the insurance for four months.

There are many who have served our public schools well, but one woman who has done an outstanding job in the business office of Abernathy High School is Mrs. Judy Stracener, who has served this community for 13 years. She is assisted by Mrs. Phyllis Stalcup who has been with the school nearly a year. In the principal's office is Mrs. Marie Adkisson who has been there going on five years. Mrs. Donna Adams is secretary to the Counselor Charles Bowen. She is in her second year as his secretary.

Otelia Clement has been working for the City of Abernathy as City Secretary for twelve years. She takes care of the bookkeeping and secretarial business for the city. Mrs. Wilma Stillwell has assisted Mrs. Clement for three months. Also a lady that cannot be overlooked is Miss Nannie Belle Ritchy. Miss Ritchy has been the librarian since 1964 and has faithfully executed her job. She has been an inspiration to many, young and old alike. Also, she is the night police radio operator.

Mrs. Jettie Hall has been the business manager for Reid Chevrolet then for Don's Chevrolet for the past 12 years. She has recently been given a couple of assistants. Mrs. Skeet Engle is a bookkeeper who has a year's experience; and Mrs. Martha Sanders, assistant bookkeeper, works part-time. This triumvirate takes care of the business matters at our local Chevrolet dealer's.

A cheery face will greet one at Southwestern Public Service Company. This face belongs to Mrs. Iva Rhodes and she's been greeting customers for eleven years. She is the accountant and treasurer.

Beauty is Mrs. Donna Pawell's business. She is owner and operator of Alice's Beauty Salon. She has employed herself for eleven years and has served many customers in this area. Outside of her family, she also finds time to keep up with the changing trends in the world of hair fashions and goods.

Although Mrs. June Speer has been in the restaurant business since 1937, she has had June's Drive-In in Abernathy for the past 10 years. She employs two other women who only work part-time.

Of course we couldn't forget the secretaries of some of our local churches. Secretary of the First Baptist Church is Mrs. La Verne Pope. Mrs. Marie Neve is in charge of the nursery. Attending the secretarial duties for the Church of Christ is Mrs. C. C. (Opal) Shipman, who has taken the job from December 1971. Mrs. Chris Waters serves as secretary for the First Methodist Church and has for the past six years. For the Assembly of God Church, Mrs. A. D. Helms has assumed the office of secretary for the past 16 years. The Nazarene Church recognizes Mrs. Phil Grindstaff as their secretary. Her services are offered when requested by Rev. Louis Schaap.

Sixty-Six Butane and Fertilizer has had Mrs. Robbie Freeman as their bookkeeper for the past eight years. She is the wife of co-owner, John Freeman.

Abernathy Insurance Agency is owned and operated by Miss Ethel Pierson and Mrs. Stella Helms, who now only works part-time. They have handled their business for the past 8 1/2 years.

Mrs. W. E. Guerrant has been in charge of the bookwork at Lee's Sausage nearly seven years now.

Well-known for her unfaltering services, Mrs. Lois Fuller has been employed with Plains Grain and Farm Supply for the last six years. She works as their bookkeeper. Also employed there is Mrs. Wilma Bristow.

Sue's Beauty Salon has been well-known in this area for fashionable hairstyles and fine services. Mrs. Sue Johnson owns and operates the salon as she has for the past six years. She also keeps her own books. Mrs. Mary Jane Davis assists Sue and has for the last three years.

Gordon's Automotive is co-owned by Mrs. Guy Gordon. She has assisted her husband for the previous five years. She serves as bookkeeper at the firm.

Dr. John Hale has the assistance of four efficient helpers. Mrs. Eita M. Condray is the receptionist and bookkeeper and has been at the office for the past six years. Dental Assistant to Dr. Hale is Mrs. Martha Reeves who is in her third year. Custodian is Mrs. Ruth Murphy. She has been with the business for the past 10 years. A high school junior, Miss Barbara Bowen, has been assisting Dr. Hale with the office duties and dental assistance since June 1, 1972.

Mr. L. S. Chen, Production and Quality Control Manager of Southwest Textile Mills, has released a list of six women who have been with that firm for the longest time. Mrs. Faye Williams, Mrs. Jenny Slough, and Mrs. Helen Wade are listed as working at the mill longest with four years each. Mrs. Josefa Dominguez, Mrs. Micki Villegas, and Mrs. Vida Nabors each have 3 - 3 1/2 years experience at the mill. The mill currently employs about 40 women. Mrs. Maxine Patterson is bookkeeper at this business.

Joe Thompson Implement Company employs Mrs. Dorothy Davenport. She is the bookkeeper and secretary and has been for three years.

Mrs. Craig (Gary) Stewart has worked at the Pioneer Natural Gas Company for 3 1/2 years. She serves as secretary.

West Texas Pipe and Supply is the business that Mrs. Aletha Sanders is secretary with. This is her second year.

Mrs. Pernie Eldredge is employed as secretary for Home Furnishings Company. September will bring her to her second year with this business.

Hi-Plains Drilling is the place where Mrs. Harold McCune is secretary. She will be nearing a year's employment with the firm.

Bookkeeping for Struve's Implement is Mrs. C. B. (Wanda) Beeson's occupation. She has been working as a secretary here for almost a year.

Mrs. Ann Barchers is at Ann's Drive-In and is the owner. She has been in the business for a year. Part-time help includes Misses Joyce and Teresa Teeter.

Abernathy Upholstery is owned by Mrs. Betty Hall. She has been in business for a year.

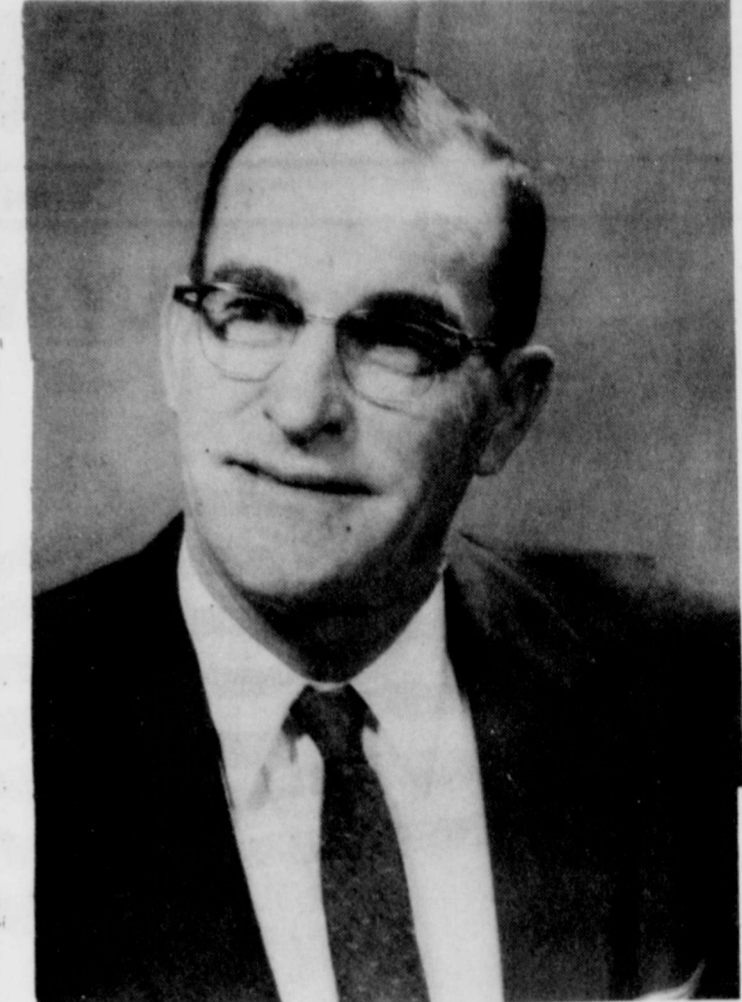

Mrs. Gale Davis is bookkeeper for Service Grain Company. She has been at the business for the past six to eight months.

Mrs. Leona Willingham is the only post-woman employed by the U. S. Postal Service here in Abernathy. She works only part-time now, but she had 1 1/2 years experience.

And, there is Burnie's Beauty Shop, which was the first, or close to the first, beauty shop to be established in Abernathy. It is operated by Mrs. Burnie Hardin and Mrs. Douglas Chapman.

Mrs. Alice Selke has been on the Abernathy business scene for a number of years and in several firms. Currently, she Lodge will be opened at 8:30 p.m. Following the opening ceremony, the Lodge will be declared an open meeting for the installation of new officers. The open meeting portion of the event July 7, means that the installation ceremony will be open to the public, with families and friends of Masons invited to attend. Vernon Bartlett will be the installing officer and Jack B. Cox will be the installing marshal.

Light refreshments will be served. Duckett will follow Guy Bartlett as Worshipful Master of the Lodge.

Other recently elected and appointed officers to be installed July 7 along with Duckett are:

is employed by Hoppy's Shop, Shoes and Men's Clothing.

Mrs. Ruby Booth is in the office of Big State Grain Co., Inc.

Mrs. Doris Harris, Jr., assists in the office of Co-op Grain Co. of Abernathy and Heckville.

And, speaking of Heckville, Mrs. M. S. Smith helps her husband, "Cotton", operate the grocery and snack bar at Heckville, and Mrs. M. A. Waters and her husband run the Bacton grocery store.

Ladies employed full-time at Billy Floyd Shipman's Insurance & Real Estate office are Tijana Loper and Rola B. Covey, with part-time workers Lois Ann Lovelace and the wife of the boss, D'Aun Shipman.

And, the lady who is setting type for this story is Mrs. Donna Gail Hunley, employed part-time by The Abernathy Weekly Review.

Mrs. Kenneth Wright, owner, is one of many ladies working at the Dairy Mart of Abernathy.

Mrs. Brinda Fox, working in her home, does poodle grooming.

Mrs. Leonard Kinast and her husband own and operate Abernathy City Cleaners.

Mrs. Jack Casey owns and operates Casey's Greenhouse at 1201 Ave. E.

A comparatively new business in Abernathy was started by a woman and is of major interest to women. It is Vera's Yarn Shop at 406 10th, owned and operated by Mrs. Hugh (Vera) Vaughn.

Mrs. Dot Wilson is secretary in the Abernathy Junior High School office. Mrs. James Greene doubles as school nurse and secretary to Abernathy Elementary School Principal Jerry Moorhead. Mrs. Layton (Dorothy) Dorrell is manager of the school cafeteria.

It would be a near impossible task for us to obtain the names of the dozens of women who make their homes in Abernathy but work in Lubbock, Hale Center and Plainview. Also, some who reside here work in Petersburg.

We cannot forget those women who are responsible for the good care of the working women's children. Without their help, many women could not be able to hold a job away from home. One of these is Mrs. C. E. Crow. Mrs. Crow operates a licensed Play School. She said that she has her day care center because she loves children and thought this work to be the most satisfying. She has been in her business for three years. One of her colleagues, Mrs. Margaret Jones, has had her Avenue G Nursery for the past eight years. She, too, is a licensed professional in her work. Mrs. Dorothy Adams is her assistant. The reason for Mrs. Dorothy Hemphill to become interested in this field of work was simply because she loved to take care of children. She has had her nursery for the past three years. All of these day care centers are under strict regulation of the State of Texas. They must meet the standards of the day care centers regulations. Food and care must be top variety and the facilities must be in the best of working conditions before a home will even be considered a day care center.

There are many people who have already retired from the hurry and scurry of the business world. But they have left a lasting impression on those who are now in business. Take for instance, Mrs. U. L. Moreland. She and her late husband ran a cleaners and barber shop combined in the same building. They successfully operated their business from 1925-1953, that is a total of 28 years of service to this community. This should be an encouragement to any of the new businesses in Abernathy. The Morelands retired in 1953.

Mrs. J. A. Bruce helped manage Bruce's Furniture for a total of 22 years. Beside her husband, Fanny May Bruce helped build a respected business of integrity and quality that the Bruces are well-known throughout the South Plains for. Mrs. Bruce took care of the bookkeeping at their business until they sold it in 1972.

Mrs. L. T. Nix assisted her husband with matters concerning Nix Shamrock Service for many years. Prior to the Nix operating the station, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Attebury attended the operation. Mrs. Attebury was ready to assist her late husband with all business matters concerning the station and yet was able to keep a home.

(Continued next week, with more "Women In Business" and a Tribute to the "Everyday Housewife" and Mother.)

From The Desk of the City Manager

Have you ever visited another country? Did you look around at their situation as compared to ours? Did you take a better, closer look at your hometown after you returned? If you did, then you have some real reasons for celebrating the 4th of July.

We are so privileged in this country that we are spoiled rotten. Far, far too many of us want the government to do everything, provide us with all we ask, protect us and our property, and at the same time allow us to have all the freedoms and rights that we ever had. That is just like saying, "I am going upstairs so I can get to the basement." Somehow there must be a better way to make it than that.

We have always prided ourselves as being a compassionate person. We will jump at the chance to help a brother in need. We hope that we love everybody like we say we do. We want everyone to have every opportunity to better themselves and their lot in life. But at the same time we like to see some Good Old American Sweat on the forehead of the one being benefited because he or she is trying their best to make a meaningful contribution to their own needs and desires.

Even 4th of July Celebrations, as wonderful as they are, only come about because some few people go to work sessions at 6:30 in the morning or after supper at night. My Mavis is doing a Visual Aid project in her class at Tech this summer about words and their meanings. Synonyms are two or more words that mean the same. So what we are saying is that Americanism and Work are synonyms. All that we have ever had, all that we have now and all that we will ever get will be the direct result of somebody's work.

Let us all be proud Americans. Let us all be proud of the Honest Sweat that we spend achieving this high goal. Let us say to our neighbor, "I respect you as a real person." I want to see you prosper and have the good things in life, I want to help when the job requires the talent and effort of us both. But I am not going to rob you of the wonderful satisfaction of knowing that you and your ability is recognized and appreciated. There is little, if any, personal satisfaction on your part in knowing that someone else can do and provide for him and his own. The real pride comes when You did it and will do more in the future. Did you ever notice that the ugliest monkey you ever saw thought her baby was the most beautiful in the whole world.

Join your friends and neighbors when it is convenient and profitable to all to do so. But, first and foremost, stand up and be counted as an Individual American who can and will carry his end of the load plus a little extra for those who are less fortunate. America needs you, Texas needs you, Abernathy needs you, your family needs you but only if you are

Catholic Women Have Meet Here

The summer meeting of the Board of Directors for the Amarillo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women was held Friday, June 23, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kveton. The Board is comprised of the diocesan president, the five deanery presidents, and the diocesan commission chairmen. Also included are Lawrence M. DeFalco, Bishop of Amarillo who serves as Spiritual Advisor, and Msgr. Francis Smyer who serves as Diocesan Moderator, and priest-moderators from the five geographically divided deaneries. Mrs. Kveton serves on the Board as Diocesan Family Affairs Commission Chairman, and is also the Plainview Deanery Vice President.

The meeting convened at 10 p. m. and adjourned at 4 p. m. The agenda included planning for the fall convention to be held in Lubbock in November and the election of officers for the following two years. Luncheon was served at noon by the women's organizations of St. Isidore Church, local affiliate members of D. C. C. W. Presidents of the local organizations are Mrs. Francisco Rodriguez of the Guadalupanas and Mrs. Pedro Cuevas of the Altar Society.

Also assisting with the luncheon were Mrs. Edward Bertera, Mrs. Ted Hill, Mrs. John Villanueva, Mrs. Daniel Cuevas, Mrs. Joe Garcia, Mrs. Lupe Ramos, Mrs. Ted Villanueva, and Miss Maria Ramos. John Kveton made one brief, reluctant appearance in the meeting room at the insistence of the members. He and his daughters were given a round of applause for preparing charcoal-broiled steaks for all present.

Dan Schaap, son of Rev. and Mrs. Louis Schaap, is presently working in Oklahoma City. His plans call for him to work there until the fall semester begins at Bethany Nazarene College when he will become a member of the freshman class at the college. Dan is a 1972 graduate of Abernathy High School.

first an individual who cares; who cares enough to be proud of all of them and yourself. Have a happy holiday. Rest and relax with your family. Just like every other individual, you can do it all alone. But that is what you are expecting someone else to do when you fail to do your part. Happiness is working and contributing to the betterment of all mankind. --Jim Davis.
