the front of the church. Both aisles were decorated with yellow candles, hurricane globes and yellow bows.

Registering the guests were Mrs. Greg Pearson and Mrs. Tommy Pugh of Levelland. The organ prelude was presented by Mrs. W. C. Clement. As the mothers were being ushered into the church, Susie Ellis and Bobie Miller sang, "The Hawaiian Wedding Song", accompan-ied by Mrs. Bobby Cunningham. Susie then sang, "Till" followed by Bobie singing, 'And I Love You So. "

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a Rennaissance gown of white silkened organza. The moulded bodice was enriched with heavy Venise lace and featured a scoop neckline, edged in a triple birtha collar. Long sheer sleeves were caught at the wrists repeating the triple ruffle motif of the bodice and accented with Venice lace flowerlets. A deep flounce and matching Venice lace gently graced the bot-tom of the full bell skirt which swept to a chapel train. She wore the traditional blue garter and an English sixpence in her shoe for good luck. She also wore a string of pearls belonging to her Grandmother Shipman, and her deceased Grandmother Powell's wedding band was worn on her right hand. A bouquet of white roses and stephanotis accented with baby's breath was carried by the bride.

Karen Shipman, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Tammy Shipman, sister of the bride, Marilyn Powell of Brewster, Washington, Charie Abbe of New Deal. Mrs. Frank Watson of Canyon served as bridesmatron. They were attired in sleeveless dresses of yellow crepe. They were fashioned with sweetheart necklines and wide collars. The floor length dresses fell in a full A-line. The brides maids carried spring bouquets of mixed colors accented with baby's breath. The maid of honor carried a solid yellow bouquet of mums accented with yellow baby's breath.
Loy Dale Clark of Lazbuddie served as best man. The groomsmen were Chris Pearson and Eddie Joe Pearson, of Happy and Greg Pearson of Levelland, all brothers of the groom, Frank Watson of Canyon, and Steve Cole Amarillo. Ushers were Gary Pate of Lubbock, cou-sin of the bride, Dell Knight of Brownfield, cousin of the groom, Johnny Megna and Mike Lambert, both of Abernathy. They were all attired in vellow western cut tuxedo jackets accented with black satin yoke and lapels. Yelboots were also worn. The groom and the two fathers wore black western tuxedos with white shirts. The flower girls wore yellow miramist dresses with a deep lace ruffle around the bottom. They were Jennifer Beard of Odessa and Stephanie Young of Cashmere, Washington, cousins of the bride. The ring bearer was Clint Forbes of New Home, cousin

BASEBALL ASSOCIATION

The Baseball Association has scheduled a meeting Tuesday, August 27 at 8:00 p. m. in the city hall. It is important that everyone interested in the Baseball Program for 1975 attend. This includes all coaches, officers, parents of boys playing, and fans. We would especially invite the sponsors to attend so you may have some idea of the personnel who will be responsible for running the program next year. We will be electing new officers and hoard members. Those members who will be going off the board are: Jim Friesen-president, Don Heath, secretary-treasurer, Jim Odom, Bob Scot and Curtis Davenport. Two board members staying on for another term are Skeet Engle and W. D. Sanders.

Attend and have a say on who is running your Abernathy Baseball Association.

daughter, Donna, have returned from a 9-day vacation in Colson, Calif., where they visited relatives. They visited several points of interest, including Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm and the Movieland Wax Museum, They made the trip by plane.

AHS-DIMMITT SCRIMMAGE HERE FRIDAY

The first week of football practice ended last Friday with 55 enthusiastic players participating in the drills. These included 8 seniors, 13 juniors, 14 sophomores and Workouts were held twice a day during the week. The morning practices lasted from 7:00 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. and the evening workouts lasted from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Under U. I. L. rules, contact was not allowed until Friday, so the first four days were devoted to play timing and conditioning.

The coaches have been very pleased with the attitude of the squad and the leadership of the seniors. Friday, August 23, will be the first test for the Antelopes as they scrimmage one of the top teams in the area, the Dimmitt Bobcats here at Abernathy.

The scrimmage will be on Antelope Field Friday, August 23 at 7 p. m.

New address for former Abernathy school teacher J. W. Combs: P. O. Box 682, Pittsburg, Texas 75686. He is on the Pittsburg school faculty.

Little Britches Rodeo Set Here August 30-31

Our first rodeo in June of this year created a great deal of local interest. It has been requested by a number of local citizens that we stage another rodeo. The Abernathy Riding Club, therefore will sponsor a Little Britches

Rodeo August 30 and 31st. Our entry blanks were mailed out August 6th and our bucking events have already been filled for a week or more. This indicates that not only is the local interest high, but all over the area as

> We have cowboys and cowgirls from Sweetwater, Big Springs, Morton, Silverton, Hico, Girard, Roby, Justiceburg, Crosbyton, Roosevelt, Ralls, Levelland, Littlefield, Anton, Cotton

> We also have several wellknown cowboys and cowgirls of our own.

No need to use extra money and gas driving to Lubbock to see "The Great American Cowboy"--stay in Abernathy and see the "Greatest Cowboys and Cowgirls in the World".

Struve's I H Moves to 87-54 Crossroads

Rudolph Struve has moved his International Harvester business to the crossroads of U. S. Highway 87 and FM 54, three miles north of Abernathy. Struve Implement Company is in the large building bound on the west by Highway 87 and on the south by FM 54. Driveway entrance is from FM 54.

Reports said that a White's Auto Store will occupy the building on Main Street vaccated by the implement co.
