MISS CONNELL REPRESENTS NORTH IN NORTH-SOUTH ALL STAR GAME

A number of local boosters made the trip to Brownwood last Saturday to cheer former Lady 'Lope Cindy Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Connell, as she participated in the prestigious Texas High School Coaches Association's North-South All Star game, held at 8:00 p.m. in Brownwood Coliseum.

Attending the game from Abernathy were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Davenport; Mr. and Mrs. Coy Phillips and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Connell and Cody; Tim Presley; Mr. and Mrs. David Haladay; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lutrick; Scott and Carrie; and Jane Colleen.

A starting guard for the North squad, Cindy traveled to Brownwood Tuesday, (July 13), along with AHS coaches Diana Lewis and Betty Cagle, to begin two-a-day workouts in preparation for Saturday's game, which saw the North team victorious over the South by a final score of 81-72. A 1976 graduate of Abernathy High School, Cindy is currently a student at Leveland's South Plains College.

Instrumental in the North team's victory was a 31-point scoring spree by Jill Rankin of Phillips, who, along with Canadian's Tressa Williams, led the North on a four-minute 12-4 tear that opened up a commanding 81-71 lead with just 47 seconds remaining in the game. (Miss Williams finished the game with 18 points.)

The victory, which took place before a near-capacity crowd, leaves the North with a 17-3 series edge. The South had won two in a row.

The game was a final to activities in the week-long Texas High School Coaches Association Clinic, held annually at Brownwood for the past seven years.

Highlighting the clinic was the sixth annual Texas High School Girls Coaches Association Honor Award Banquet, held Friday in the coliseum. Former AHS roundballer Connell was honored in being selected to present the All-Star response for the North team during the course of the banquet. Patty Kirchineyer of Calallen High School in Corpus Christi gave the South team response.

That is far out!

Hale Grand Jury Clears Local Officer

(From a news story in the Plainview Daily Herald, reporting on action of the Hale County Grand Jury in session last week.)

Abernathy police officer Floyd Bankston was cleared of blame in a May 31st shooting incident that took the life of Manuel Marquez, Abernathy.

Bankston was not charged in the case, but authorities presented evidence to the grand jurors anyway. The shooting occurred at an Abernathy gas station after police arrived in response to a burglary call. BANKSTON SAID Marquez came at him with a brake tool and refused to halt. Marquez was shot once in the chest with a .357 magnum revolver. He was dead on arrival at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

An autopsy report stated Marquez' blood alcohol level was 238 mgs. per 100 ml. The report noted he was "markedly intoxicated." The National Council on Alcoholism considers 150 mgs. per 100 ml as intoxicated.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smiddy of Amarillo visited here Sunday afternoon in the home of her brother, Buford Davenport.

AUSTIN--Texas consumers should be wary of a new type of deceptive trade practice involving the sale of "rights to manufacture" products such as small decor items, wall plaques, coasters, and sailboats.

Reports of consumer problems with such promotions by a few unscrupulous companies have surfaced not only in Texas, our attorneys note, but in at least eight other states as well.

Our Consumer Protection Division recently filed lawsuits against two such companies alleging that they were selling Texas consumers the "right to manufacture" products for which there is no retail market. Since no market exists, we allege the sale of a "right to manufacture" the products is a deceptive trade practice.

Some promoters of this new "investment opportunity" exploit consumers' belief in the need to work hard to make a profit. Typically, salesmen of such manufacturing rights will tell prospects that they can only succeed in the business by spending long hours at the work of manufacturing and by being willing to invest their own hard-earned cash.

This type of approach strikes a responsive chord in persons who have no desire to "get something for nothing." And by using such an approach, salesmen for some companies throw consumers off guard, making them less cautious than they ordinarily might be.

Contracts used in these schemes appear to make the investment foolproof. For instance, nearly all of the contracts have a provision by which the company will buy back all or most of the products produced by each manufacturer. And the contracts usually say the company will refund the initial investment of the manufacturer as specified production levels are reached, so that by the end of a year the consumer is "assured of getting most, if not all," of his or her money back.

The problem with the agreements is that the money to buy back the manufacturer's production and to refund the investment is obtained from the sale of more "rights to manufacture" contracts, rather than from retail sales of the goods manufactured. As a result, the plan is an endless chain of sales of manufacturing positions with no money coming into the companies from any source other than the manufacturers.

Our attorneys say there is no guaranteed way to protect yourself against this type of scheme. The best advice is to try to find out as much about the company and its personnel as possible.

In particular, it's extremely important to demand details as to how and to whom the products manufactured will be sold, because unless there is a market for the product, you will be wasting your investment money.

MY 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY TRIP By Neva Lee Calvert

Roy Alvis Calvert and Neva Lee Staples were married June 13, 1926 in Turkey, Texas, in Hall County, in the Methodist Parsonage. I was 14 years-old and Roy was 17 years-old. We ran off and got married. My parents lived at Whiteflat, Texas on the farm, in Motley County. His parents lived on the farm about five miles east of Flomot, Texas, also in Motley County.

October 7, 1928, a pretty black-haired baby girl was born to us. God let us keep her three and a half years. She died with a sudden illness-Acute Leukemia.

We farmed ten years in that part of the County. And farmed twelve years in the Abernathy area. All dryland farming and cheap prices for cotton and grain, and cattle and hogs.

I had always wanted to go to Nashville, Tennessee. I left home June 12 about 8:30 p.m. and drove to Tulsa, Oklahoma, for I wanted to attend Church Services at Oral Roberts University on Sunday, June 13-my 50th Anniversary Day. I registered in at the West Trade Winds Motel in Tulsa about 6:30 p.m., that is on Peoria Ave. that takes you to Oral Roberts University, which is about nine miles out.

Oral Roberts University is located on 500 acres of rolling country side in south Tulsa, just one mile from the Arkansas River. The campus has 17 major buildings valued at over $60 million. After Church Services I walked to some of the beautiful buildings and went through the beautiful Prayer Tower. I left Tulsa about 1:30 p.m. and drove to Little Rock Arkansas and registered in at the Holiday Inn about 7:30 p.m. Little Rock is a beautiful city. I left Little Rock Monday morning about 8:30 a.m. and drove to Nashville, Tennessee and registered in at the Travel Lodge Motel at 7:30 p.m.

The State Capitol of Tennessee was just across the street from the motel. It is a beautiful building. I walked around some that evening and saw some beautiful trees, flowers, well kept lawns, and beautiful buildings. The next morning, which was Tuesday, I went to Opry Land U. S. A. I spent the day out there. I got a program and a map of Opryland, where I bought my ticket and looked the program over and selected the shows that I thought I would enjoy the most since I wasn't going to be there but one day.

"I Hear America Singing" was the first show that I saw. It was a lighthearted history of American music from the "Roaring 20's" through the hits of 1975. A full orchestra and bright young entertainers in a lavish new production of Opryland's most popular show in American Music Theatre. I enjoyed it very much.

The next show I saw was "Showboat 76" - authentic music from the days of the Mississippi floating palaces. What Opryland has: There were twelve shows that day, but Opryland is on 110 acres and you could stay there three or four days and still see different things.

I rode the Skyride which took you over Opryland. That way I could see more of the buildings and both of the Grand Ole Opry houses. The old one was built in 1941. The new building is just two years old. I rode in the log raft that was on part of the Cumberland River, that was fun also, I wanted to ride the antique carousel, but I became very tired after so much walking and didn't get around to it.

I took some pictures of the beautiful flowers. They are just gorgeous. I bought a souvenir and decided I had better go back to Nashville and eat my supper. I had reserved my motel room for two nights. I rested good that night and showered and got dressed and opened my door and it was pouring down rain. But I took my rain coat with me. So I loaded my luggage and went to the restaurant and ate my breakfast and left Nashville at 9:30 a.m. and drove back to Memphis, Tennessee. I drove about 100 miles in pouring rain, but drove out of it and was in Memphis by 1:30 p.m. I left Memphis and went back through Little Rock, Arkansas and down to Texarkana, Clarksville and on to Paris, Texas. I registered in at the Holiday Inn at 9:30 p.m. that night. I drove twelve hours, 602 miles.

I visited two friends in Paris, Texas. Mrs. Anne Whitlock, who is 91 years of age and lives in Pleasant Grove nursing home and her bachelor son, Lawrence Whitlock, who lives at the home place in Paris and sees after his mother.

I left Paris at 2:00 p.m. and drove to Wichita Falls, Texas and spent three nights and two days with my cousins, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Jackson, and Saturday afternoon I drove to Electra, Texas and spent the afternoon with my cousin and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baxter.

Sunday morning I left Wichita Falls and drove to Graham, Oklahoma, my birth place. My father was a oil field worker. I got my education in Wilson, Oklahoma and Duncan, Oklahoma. I went through the eighth grade. Then my father moved to West Texas. I have a cousin who lives on the Highway, seven miles out from Healdton, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Henderson. They went with me to the Graham Cemetery where my father and grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins are buried. I bought a wreath for my father's grave, and flowers for my grandparents' graves in Wichita Falls. I spent the rest of the day and stayed over night with them. Monday morning I left there and started back to my home. My last visit was in Lockney in the Lockney nursing home, with my 84 year-old cousin. I drove to Plainview and spent a couple of hours there, ate my supper at the Congress Inn Restaurant and drove home by 7:30 p.m.

Roy and I have lived in the Abernathy area and here in town, 807 14th Street, for forty years last January 12. I have done a lot of hard work these 50 years; had a lot of sickness, sorrow, and heartache. But I have many blessings to count for the Lord is so good to me. Two years ago I weighed 80 pounds. Today I weigh 113 pounds. I have never used my sickness for a crutch. I enjoy life and thank the Lord for every day that He gives me. I love to go places and I have been asked if I was afraid to make my trip by myself. No I wasn't afraid. I never got scared a time. I had no car trouble. Just a wonderful trip and will have a lot of pleasant things to remember.

SENIOR CITIZENS SUNSHINE CLUB TO SING AT BURIAL OF BICENTENNIAL TIME CAPSUL

Well I see the 4th of July and Bicentennial Celebration didn't get us down. I thought several times that I was going to have to drop out of some thing, but I made it. I sure enjoyed the people that I hadn't seen in so long-I also learned that a lot of them read this report and that made me feel good. Most of them know I am capable of stretching the facts at times too. Anyway I'm glad they are keeping up with us through our local paper. Some folks ask what the Sunshine Group was so we decided we need Senior Citizens on here somewhere. They might think we were a bunch of kids or something. We are proud to be known as Senior Citizens anyway.

Our club met July 15, 1976 with Floyd at the wheel. We had our opening prayer by Ruby Knox. Then Dixie led us in singing the "Old Rugged Cross" and "Standing on the Promises." Mrs. Hawkins read the minutes of the last meeting. We sang "Happy Birthday" to two people. We enjoy that Mrs. Cal Tucker made us feel very important by inviting us to sing in chorus "America the Beautiful" for the program when they bury this time capsule in front of the City Hall. There will be a notice in the paper about the time, we might even ring in the telephone committee to get the word around for a practice run before the big day. Everyone raised their hand in favor of this. We want to do our best. I haven't figured out how they will get us in that capsule, but I am sure they have. I am still working on how the telephone works. Ruby Hill was in charge of the program, but she asked me to present it. It was fun because we had Micah and Jill Blalock, grandchildren of Floyd and Dorothy. All you have to do is say "here they are" and they fall right in. Micah plays the piano and both of them sing some time duets, sometimes solos. They are really a joy to listen to. Their dad, Haden, sang on songs with them. They sang eight different songs. Everyone that wasn't there missed a treat. They are living here now so maybe we can get them more often. Haden Blalock offered the blessing and we had a wonderful dinner as usual. After meeting a while, enough stayed for a game of 84. It was fun, but those sharp we played beat us; but there will be another game! That is what keeps us playing. Remember to watch for a notice.

People present were Mrs. C. Brewer, Dixie Pittman, Vera Hawkins, R. A. Lutrick, Lizzie Lebow, Cora Shuman, Martha Phillips, Mrs. Dewey Price, Ruby Hill, Lillie Mae Wilson, Ollie Selke, Oma Toler, Pearl Bryant, Floyd Shipman, Dorothy Shipman, Callie Nunn, Ruby Knox, Hixie Royal, C. J. Camp, Dot von Struve, Elizabeth Harrison, Jill Blalock, Micah Blalock, Dona Blalock, Haden Blalock, Mr. Ellison, Mrs. Ellison, Mr. Talbott, and Maybel Glass.

O. S. H. A. EXTENDS FARM SAFETY RULE DEADLINE

COLLEGE STATION---- Farmers now have until October 25 to comply with certain safety standards under the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) that were to become effective June 7.

The safety practices concern guarding tractor power take-offs (PTO), displaying safety signs and providing initial employee training for machinery operations.

"Even though the deadline has been extended, farmers should continue with preparations to meet these safety standards," advises Dr. Gary Nelson, agricultural safety engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Particular emphasis is on guarding the PTO drive line. The tractor shield on the rear PTO shaft must be kept in place, notes Nelson. However, the master shield may be removed when necessary to operate PTO driven equipment, provided the guards on such equipment cover the tractor PTO shaft.

"Regarding safety training, a farmer must instruct every employee in the operation and servicing of all equipment with which the employee is involved," emphasizes the Texas A&M University System engineer.

Among the safe operating practices in which the employee must be instructed are the following:

--Keep all guards in place when the machine is in operation.

--Permit no riders on farm equipment other than persons required for instruction or assistance.

--Stop the engine, disconnect the power source and wait for all machine movement to stop before servicing, adjusting, cleaning or unclogging equipment, except when the machine must be running to be properly serviced.

--Make sure everyone is clear of machinery before starting the engine, engaging power or operating the machine.

--Lock out electrical power before performing maintenance or servicing equipment.

The requirement for safety signs calls for such signs to be placed at prominent locations on tractors and PTO driven equipment indicating that power drive system safety shields must be kept in place.

Furthermore, when removal of a guard or access door might expose an employee to any equipment that continues to rotate after the power is disengaged, the employer must provide warning to look and listen for evidence of rotation and not to remove the guard or access door until all component movement has stopped.

"Complying with these safety standards will make the farm a safer workplace, so they should become a part of the farm operation as soon as possible," advises Nelson.

EGG-PRODUCTION FIRM ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR NEW FACILITY AT HECKVILLE

(Editor's Note: The following is from THE IDALOU BEACON, weekly newspaper published at Idalou, dated July 16, 1976.)

One of the nation's largest egg production firms has announced it will start construction soon on a plant at Heckville that eventually will produce about a quarter million eggs daily.

Joe Raith, vice president and general manager of the firm, said construction will start on the big facility in two to three months.

The initial construction phase will see Sunnymead Ranch Inc. build one brooder house and laying houses to shelter 18,000 hens each. Size of the facility will gradually increase and in two to four years, plans call for a total of 300,000 laying hens on the production line.

The firm's home office is located in Sunnymead, Calif., where it has a large egg production facility. Another similar plant is operated by the firm in Platteville, Colorado.

Sunnymead's operation here will be located on the west side of Heckville. The firm purchased a triangular tract from Mr. and Mrs. Dan Castle of Abilene. The tract includes 110 acres with a small frontage on FM400.

Events leading to the firm's decision to establish a plant here began when J. T. Wiley of Idalou Grain Co. started selling grain to the firm.

At the time Sunnymead was planning to build a plant at Grand Prairie.

But when the president and principal stockholder of the firm, Robert N. Jackson of Sunnymead, visited Idalou, Wiley introduced him to Charles Jackson (no relation), president of Idalou State Bank.

Jackson immediately went to work to convince the firm to locate in the Idalou area. The banker spent weeks on the task, and after an intensive market survey showed the Panhandle and South Plains area has a shortage of real fresh eggs, the decision was made.

Raith, who will be active in getting the Heckville plant in production, said when the operation reaches 300,000 hen capacity, 40 to 60 people will be working at the ranch.

Manager of the Heckville plant will be Jack Meador, 32, who will move to Heckville with his wife and son, 4, from Colorado.

The old home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Meador (no relation), who live near Heckville, is being purchased to move on to the egg ranch.

News From The Nazarene Missionary Society

(Report from Nazarene Missionary Society, July 14, 7:30 p. m.)

Our service was some what different this time. Several of the members had attended the General Assembly at Dallas. Some reports were given, just some of the highlights, which were interesting. We still have one missionary in prison in South Africa, some have been released, for which we thank God. Billie Jean Spruiell presented the lesson, showing slides, some of them showing results of the terrible hurricane which did much damage in Honduras. Our missionaries were spared, but lost most of their personal possessions. Our Latin and Spanish Radio broadcasts were emphasized, these do a great work. We have about 1500 Spanish stations giving out the Gospel to many lands. We closed with special prayer for our work and our missionaries.

Employers Reminded Of Quarterly Tax Return Deadline

Saturday, July 31, is the last day for employers to report and pay Social Security and withheld federal income taxes for the third quarter of 1976.

According to the IRS, employers have until August 10 to file Form 941, "Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return", if they have deposited the entire quarterly tax liability on time in a Federal Reserve Bank or authorized commercial bank.

Employers who received the preaddressed Form 941 in the mail should use it to file their report. Those who did not receive the preaddressed forms can obtain forms from their local IRS offices.

IRS Publication 15, "Circular E--Employer's Tax Guide", is available free from local IRS offices to provide more information for employers.

4-H'ers Cut Energy Waste

CHICAGO—Using an air conditioner just one extra hour wastes as much electricity and money as using a lamp for 12 hours, according to an energy specialist.

The difference is in the wattage, says Charles M. Hohn, extension agricultural engineer at New Mexico State University. The average window air conditioner uses about 1,200 watts of power. A 100-watt light bulb uses only 100 watts.

Conserving energy by using electricity efficiently is one of the goals of young people 9-19 in the national 4-H electric energy program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. Incentive awards in the program are provided by Westinghouse Electric Corporation through the National 4-H Service Committee.

4-H members learn-by-doing to select, care for and operate appliances wisely to avoid energy waste.

Tours of generating plants help answer questions about how electricity is produced.

what it costs and why, and how usage is measured.

Depending on their interests and abilities, 4-H'ers can study the fundamentals of electricity and electronics, make basic electrical items, repair small appliances, and explore careers in electric and allied industries.

For outstanding achievement in electric energy projects, Westinghouse awards $800 college scholarships to six national winners and an expense-paid trip to the 55th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 28-Dec. 2 in Chicago, to one winner per state. Medals of honor go to as many as four 4-H members in each county. All winners are selected by the Extension Service.

Westinghouse also is helping produce "Exploring the World of Electricity," new educational materials for beginning members in the 4-H electric energy program. The materials are slated for publication this summer.

Additional information on the program is available from county extension agents.

Wedding Solemnized

Soft candlelight set the scene last Saturday as Miss Stacy Dockery became the bride of Gene Dane Vickers in an evening ceremony at Ozona United Methodist Church of Ozona, Texas. The Rev. Murry Brewer of Plainview, and the Rev. Ben Bohmfalk of Ozona, performed the ceremony.

The newlywed bride and groom are the children of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Dockery of Ozona and Mrs. Gene Vickers and the late Mr. Vickers of Abernathy.

The bride was given in marriage by her father before an altar lit by white candles entwined with English ivy. Two spiral candelabra flanked the altar and were repeated at the communion rails and at the center of the altar. These were accented by two white columns with arrangements of daisies and greenery at either side of the altar stairway.

The entry to the chapel was decorated with baskets of caladiums and English ivy, and the mood was further enhanced by the white runner marking the bridal aisle and the white ribbon, baby's breath and ivy marking the family pews.

Mrs. Steve Kenley, organist, provided the traditional nuptial music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Nanda Dorrler of Alpine, who sang "The Wedding Prayer," "I Walk With God," and other bridal selections.

The bride chose a white empire-style wedding gown of quiana. The bodice was slightly gathered from neckline to waist, with three vertical insets of beaded English net, which also encircled the natural waistline, and was repeated in the high wedding ring neckline and cuffed long candlestick sleeves. The skirt fell in soft folds and swept to back fullness to form a chapel train. Her quiana turban, accented by the beaded English net, held the fingertip veil of chiffonette.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white rosebuds, stephanotis, baby's breath and English ivy.

The bride's attendants wore formal layered dresses of blue quiana, and carried nosegays of white daisies, baby's breath and ivy; and the candlelighters and the flower girl were attired in identical white dotted swiss gowns, trimmed with blue satin ribbon.

Miss Shannon Dockery of Ozona, served her sister as Maid of Honor, and other honor attendants were Judy Mosley of Humble, LaDon Vickers of Abernathy, Chris Innes of McAllen, and Nikki Sewell and Belinda Bebee, both of Ozona.

Miss Ami Lee Sewell of Ozona served as flower girl, and candlelighters were Coralie Melton of Las Vegas, New Mexico and Kim Bebee of Ozona.

Burl Fuller of Houston served as best man, and the groom's nephew, Cody Forbes of Abernathy, was the ring bearer. Other groomsmen were Steve Foster and David Lovelace, both of Lubbock, Larry Lutrick of Abernathy, Jerry Fuller of Plainview, and Doyle Fuller of Levelland.

Serving as ushers were Darryl Stephens of Abernathy, David Pagan of Ozona, and Jerry Ryan and Gary Lovelace, both of Lubbock.

Hostesses serving at the groom's table were Mmes. Darryl Stephens, Larry Lutrick and Gary Lovelace, all of Abernathy, and Miss Susan Sanders of Lubbock.

Special wedding guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Guthrie of Abilene.

The bride's table was covered with a floor length cloth with an overlay of organdy. The four-tiered wedding cake was supported by columns and surrounded with four smaller cakes, all decorated with fresh flowers in the same motif as was seen in the bridesmaids' bouquets, which encircled the silver candelabrum in the center of the table.

The groom's table was covered with a white cut-work cloth over blue, and was decorated with traditional flowers, a copper coffee service and appointments, and a double ring chocolate cake.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Montgomery hosted an informal party for the guests at the Ozona Country Club, with music provided by Tommy Owens of Rankin.

Essay Winner Announced By Foursquare Church

First-place essay in a recent competition among youths of the First Foursquare Gospel Church at 3115 2nd St. was 14-year-old Dana Flud, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Flud of Abernathy.

The subject of the winning essay was "What It Means to be a Christian Citizen."

Dana's essay ran only 99 words.

Here is what he wrote:

Former Residents Meet Here For Pearce Reunion

Mrs. May Groves, Montebello, Calif., a pioneer resident of Abernathy, and her daughter Mrs. Floyd (Sybol) Orr, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Oliver Groves of Baldwin Park and Montebello respectively flew in from California on June 28th for a two week visit with Amylee Smithee and other relatives and to attend the Pearce reunion on July 4th at the Chester Pearce home. Also coming from California were Mrs. Oliver Groves' son, Martin and grandson, Glenn. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keith (Neil Groves) of Hemet, Calif. came and attended the class reunion and family reunion. In all there were fifty-five persons who attended the reunion on July 4th at the Pearce farm. And it RAINED. Chester said had he known it would bring a rain we would have had the reunion much earlier this year.

Mrs. Groves, daughter and daughter-in-law flew back home Sunday afternoon. All living brothers and sisters of Mrs. Groves were here for the reunion. Maude Pettit from Houston; Will Pearce, Mason; and Nelse Pearce, Broadview, N. M. and Jas Pearce, Lubbock. It was a very happy occasion, especially since Mrs. Groves had been ill and was not expected to be able to come. Several friends called at the Pearce home during the reunion and others visited Mrs. Groves at the Smithee home.

The Flud family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Flud, the parents; Dana; and his sister, Alisa, 17, who will be a senior in Abernathy High next fall.

The family attends First Foursquare Gospel Church at Lubbock.

"Being a Christian citizen is more than just going to church and voting on election day. It goes much deeper than this. First of all, one must have Christ in his heart and must live for him day by day. And as one struggles and fights through each day, he can know that God is always by his side ready to catch him when he falls. Being a Christian citizen requires an interest and concern for people and a deep, sympathetic understanding attitude toward our nation's leaders. We must pray that our leaders will acquire God's knowledge and wisdom."

On July 4 the essay was read at Bicentennial services of the church.

Also, Dana was awarded a free registration to youth camp at Whispering Oaks Camp near Buffalo Gap, Tex., was announced. The camp will be held Saturday through July 24.

Dana will be a first year student in Abernathy High School next fall, and he says he loves to write.

Five articles he has written have appeared in The Abernathy Review, a newspaper at Abernathy. The youth will enter a Bicentennial poetry writing contest soon. The title of his work is "The Superior," in which he credits God with shaping the lives of American people as well as the nation.

O. S. H. A. EXTENDS FARM SAFETY RULE DEADLINE

COLLEGE STATION—Farmers now have until October 25 to comply with certain safety standards under the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) that were to become effective June 7.

The safety practices concern guarding tractor power take-offs (PTO), displaying safety signs and providing initial employee training for machinery operations.

"Even though the deadline has been extended, farmers should continue with preparations to meet these safety standards," advises Dr. Gary Nelson, agricultural safety engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Particular emphasis is on guarding the PTO drive line. The tractor shield on the rear PTO shaft must be kept in place, notes Nelson. However, the master shield may be removed when a necessary to operate PTO-driven equipment, provided the guards on such equipment cover the tractor PTO shafts.

"Regarding safety training, a farmer must instruct every employee in the operation and servicing of all equipment with which that employee is involved," emphasizes the Texas AGM University System engineer.

Among the safe operating practices in which the employee must be instructed are the following:

--Keep all guards in place when the machine is in operation.

--Permit no riders on farm equipment other than persons required for instruction or assistance.

--Stop the engine, disconnect the power source and wait for all machine movement to stop before servicing, adjusting, cleaning or unclogging equipment, except when the machine must be running to be properly serviced.

--Make sure everyone is clear of machinery before starting the engine, engaging power or operating the machine.

--Lock out electrical power before performing maintenance or servicing equipment.

The requirement for safety signs calls for such signs to be placed at prominent locations on tractors and PTO driven equipment indicating that power drive system safety shields must be kept in place.

Furthermore, when removal of a guard or access door might expose an employee to any equipment that continues to rotate after the power is disengaged, the employer must provide warning to look and listen for evidence of rotation and not to remove the guard or access door until all component movement has stopped.

"Complying with these safety standards will make the farm a safer workplace, so they should become a part of the farm operation as soon as possible," advises Nelson.

EGG-PRODUCTION FIRM ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR NEW FACILITY AT HECKVILLE

One of the nation's largest egg production firms has announced it will start construction soon on a plant at Heckville that eventually will produce about a quarter million eggs daily.

Joe Raith, vice president and general manager of the firm, said construction will start on the big facility in two to three months.

The initial construction phase will see Sunnymead Ranch Inc. build one brooder house and laying houses to shelter 18,000 hens each. Size of the facility will gradually increase and in two to four years, plans call for a total of 300,000 laying hens on the production line.

The firm's home office is located in Sunnymead, Calif., where it has a large egg production facility. Another similar plant is operated by the firm in Platteville, Colorado.

Sunnymead's operation here will be located on the west side of Heckville. The firm purchased a triangular tract from Mr. and Mrs. Dan Castle of Abilene. The tract includes 110 acres with a small frontage on FM400.

Events leading to the firm's decision to establish a plant here began when J. T. Wiley of Idalou Grain Co. started selling grain to the firm.

At the time Sunnymead was planning to build a plant at Grand Prairie.

But when the president and principal stockholder of the firm, Robert N. Jackson of Sunnymead, visited Idalou, Wiley introduced him to Charles Jackson (no relation), president of Idalou State Bank.

Jackson immediately went to work to convince the firm to locate in the Idalou area. The banker spent weeks on the task, and after an intensive market survey showed the Panhandle and South Plains area has a shortage of real fresh eggs, the decision was made.

Raith, who will be active in getting the Heckville plant in production, said when the operation reaches 300,000 hen capacity, 40 to 60 people will be working at the ranch.

Manager of the Heckville plant will be Jack Meador, 32, who will move to Heckville with his wife and son, 4, from Colorado.

The old home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Meador (no relation), who live near Heckville, is being purchased to move on to the egg ranch.

News From The Nazarene Missionary Society

(Report from Nazarene Missionary Society, July 14, 7:30 p. m.)

Our service was some what different this time. Several of the members had attended the General Assembly at Dallas. Some reports were given, just some of the highlights, which were interesting. We still have one missionary in prison in South Africa, some have been released, for which we thank God. Billie Jean Spruiell presented the lesson, showing slides, some of them showing results of the terrible hurricane which did much damage in Honduras. Our missionaries were spared, but lost most of their personal possessions. Our Latin and Spanish Radio broadcasts were emphasized, these do a great work. We have about 1500 Spanish stations giving out the Gospel to many lands. We closed with special prayer for our work and our missionaries.

Employers Reminded Of Quarterly Tax Return Deadline

Saturday, July 31, is the last day for employers to report and pay Social Security and withheld federal income taxes for the third quarter of 1976.

According to the IRS, employers have until August 10 to file Form 941, "Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return," if they have deposited the entire quarterly tax liability on time in a Federal Reserve Bank or authorized commercial bank.

Employers who received the pre-addressed Form 941 in the mail should use it to file their report. Those who did not receive the pre-addressed forms can obtain forms from their local IRS offices.

IRS Publication 15, "Circular E—Employer's Tax Guide," is available free from local IRS offices to provide more information for employers.

4-H'ers Cut Energy Waste

CHICAGO—Using an air conditioner just one extra hour wastes as much electricity and money as using a lamp for 12 hours, according to an energy specialist.

The difference is in the wattage, says Charles M. Hohn, extension agricultural engineer at New Mexico State University. The average window air conditioner uses about 1,200 watts of power. A 100-watt light bulb uses only 100 watts.

Conserving energy by using electricity efficiently is one of the goals of young people 9-19 in the national 4-H electric energy program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service. Incentive awards in the program are provided by Westinghouse Electric Corporation through the National 4-H Service Committee.

4-H members learn-by-doing to select, care for and operate appliances wisely to avoid energy waste.

Tours of generating plants help answer questions about how electricity is produced.

what it costs and why, and how usage is measured.

Depending on their interests and abilities, 4-H'ers can study the fundamentals of electricity and electronics, make basic electrical items, repair small appliances, and explore careers in electric and allied industries.

For outstanding achievement in electric energy projects, Westinghouse awards $800 college scholarships to six national winners and an expense-paid trip to the 55th National 4-H Congress, Nov. 28-Dec. 2 in Chicago, to one winner per state. Medals of honor go to as many as four 4-H members in each county. All winners are selected by the Extension Service.

Westinghouse also is helping produce "Exploring the World of Electricity," new educational materials for beginning members in the 4-H electric energy program. The materials are slated for publication this summer.

Additional information on the program is available from county extension agents.

Former Residents Meet Here For Pearce Reunion

Mrs. May Groves, Montebello, Calif., a pioneer resident of Abernathy, and her daughter Mrs. Floyd (Sybil) Orr, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Oliver Groves of Baldwin Park and Montebello respectively flew in from California on June 28th for a two week visit with Amylee Smith and other relatives and to attend the Pearce reunion on July 4th at the Chester Pearce home.

Also coming from California were Mrs. Oliver Groves' son, Martin and grandson, Glenn. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keith (Nell Groves) of Hemet, Calif. came and attended the class reunion and family reunion. In all there were fifty-five persons who attended the reunion on July 4th at the Pearce farm.

And it RAINED. Chester said he had known it would bring a rain we would have had the reunion much earlier this year.

Mrs. Groves, daughter and daughter-in-law flew back home Sunday afternoon. All living brothers and sisters of Mrs. Groves were here for the reunion, Maude Pettit from Houston; Will Pearce, Mason; and Nelze Pearce, Broadview, N. M. and Jas Pearce, Lubbock. It was a very happy occasion, especially since Mrs. Groves had been ill and was not expected to be able to come. Several friends called at the Pearce home during the reunion and others visited Mrs. Groves at the Smith home.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A little boy was saying his go-to-bed prayers in a low voice. "I can't hear you," his mother said. "I wasn't talking to you," answered the boy. "I was talking to the Lord, and I don't have to yell because He is close to me."

How true. Psalm 145:18 informs us, "The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him, to all that call upon Him in truth."

But prayer should be simple. It is just as natural as breathing. Think of it as a conversation between the Lord and yourself. Just as a child cries for his father when a need arises, so call on the Lord in your difficulties. Prayer should be sincere.

The Lord wants genuineness. He wants you to be honest with Him. Someone has said, "Prayer is either a force or a farce." It is a force if you are sincere, a farce if you are insincere.

Prayer should be specific. When you place an order for something from a catalog, I know you name the item, size and color. You are specific. So it is with prayer.

A God who is almighty is always close to you. Call on Him at all times and in all places. You can pray and get an answer, for He wants to answer your prayers.

Convert Waste Problems Into Energy Resources

By Robert L. Haney
TAES Science Writer

As our energy needs grow, we are forced to import more and more oil in order to close the gap between energy we produce and that we need to meet demands.

With domestic energy sources depleting, additional resources are being sought and tapped continuously. Scientists are seeking ways to produce methane from the vast municipal and animal wastes that are readily available natural resources.

Methane is a flammable gas that is a major constituent of natural gas. This efficient fuel is an important source of hydrogen as well as a wide variety of organic compounds. The rate of methane production under natural conditions is a very slow process and not commercially feasible.

Two TAES microbiologists in the Department of Veterinary Microbiology, Drs. Don Lewis and Richard Hidalgo, Texas A&M University, are working in cooperation with the Center for Energy and Mineral Resources to improve this process by using specific microorganisms. They plan to introduce microorganisms which have the capacity to speedily break down the sewage and waste products and generate methane.

At present it takes 3-5 weeks to produce methane from raw sewage and waste.

"We believe the introduction of the proper combinations of microorganisms into the process can cut this time in half or to a fourth of what it is now," Lewis says. "This means we can produce more methane per unit of time plus greatly shorten the time required to dispose of the waste materials. This would be a double benefit."

Initially, they see this process as applicable on a small farm. The process will not only speed up and make easier the disposal of waste but also produce gas to heat houses and buildings on the farm.

The amount of waste accumulated day to day in this country is indeed staggering. For example, almost 2 1/2 million cattle are fed every day in the High Plains area of Texas, resulting in about 19 million pounds of waste per day. The energy-producing potential of these products is immense.

Lewis and Hidalgo point out that possibilities other than producing methane from animal waste matter exist for using the same basic process of isolating microorganisms and using them to the advantage of mankind. If so, some of our worst liabilities can be turned into assets — from unwanted wastes may come a solution to the energy problem in the U.S. and a long term answer to the world energy crisis.
