NOTICE, FARMERS

ONE HOUR COTTON REFERENDUM PROGRAM TO AIR DECEMBER 9
Reports on current and projected cotton research and promotion programs on behalf of cotton growers will be presented Thursday, December 9 at 9 p.m. on KCBT television, Channel 11.
Moderators Ed Wilks, farm director for KFYO radio and Bob Etheridge, KCBT's farm editor, will interview J. Dukes Wooters, Cotton, Inc. president, and High Plains cotton producers L. C. Unfred, New Home; Lloyd Cline, Lamesa and J. D. Smith, Sudan.
Ten years ago, cotton producers voted a one-dollar-per-bale assessment to meet costs of advertising and product development for cotton. Thursday's program is expected to outline the progress made through that assessment and to outline cotton's present research and promotional needs and opportunities. A question and answer period is scheduled in the program.
Also explored will be the issues at stake in the upcoming referendum for increased assessment for cotton research and promotion.

ND LIONS LISTED IN ALL-SOUTH PLAINS SQUADS

The New Deal Lions placed two men on the All-South Plains Class A football squad, plus two in honorable mention.

PHOTOGRAPHER COMING DEC. 16

An experienced photographer from Shugart Studios of Levelland will be at Pinson Pharmacy in Abernathy during business hours Thursday, Dec. 16, to take color photos. Everyone, from babies to grandparents, may have color photos taken that day.
See Shugart's ad in the Review Dec. 2 and Dec. 9 for details and specials.

Cotton leaders, in recently completed public field hearing conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, expressed the need for and overwhelming support of expanded cotton promotion and research programs.
Mr. Wooters explained that producers' programs are getting results, but inflation has eroded the buying power of their one-dollar-per-bale contribution by more than 40 per cent. In addition, federal budget cuts have eliminated supplemental government funding for the programs.
"Cotton is at a big price disadvantage with its major synthetic competitors," he said, "and we must expand our research and promotion if we are to maintain markets."

AHS FFA Team Places 3rd. In State Meet

More than 400 F.F.A. members and advisors from throughout Texas competed in the 45th Annual State Leadership Contest on Saturday, December 4, 1976. This activity was held on the campus of Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas.
Abernathy High School Future Farmers of America members placed third in Farm Skill Demonstration in the Chapter Farmer Division. Being eligible to participate in the State Leadership Contest indicates that the F.F.A. members have had a successful record in leadership development. These contestants made up sixty teams coming from the ten areas of Texas. These teams had first to win in their district and then in the area in order to participate in the State Contest.
The State Leadership Contest is one of the highlights of the year for F.F.A. members. Development of leadership is one of the primary purposes of the F.F.A. Organization. COTTON PRODUCERS ARE AT A CRUCIAL CROSSROADS IN THE UPCOMING REFERENDUM

You can either vote "yes" to increase your self-help research and promotion programs that lead to better markets and bigger profits . . .

OR

You can vote "no," turn over your markets to synthetic fiber producers, and slide down the road to a drop-off . . .

THE CHOICE IS UP TO YOU

Your $1 a bale contributions already have brought a turn-around in cotton's market situation. Cotton is making a comeback that's got synthetic fiber competitors crying "Enough, enough!" But inflation and the loss of government research funds are threatening the continuation of cotton's market momentum generated by your past investment. Cotton's future—and the economic future of this community—depends on the road you take. Which will it be—better markets and bigger profits or a drop-off? Manuel Martinez and Phyllis Guillen attended the Lubbock meeting at Christ the King School as delegates of St. Isidore Church, Abernathy. Jean Kveton, also of St. Isidore, attended the Amarillo meeting at St. Anthony's Hospital School of Nursing Auditorium. She presented the program on the Detroit meeting. Mrs. Kveton had attended this meeting October 20-23 as one of eight delegates from the Diocese of Amarillo. Entitled "Call to Action", this national consultation of bishops, clergy, religious and laity was the culmination of a two year American Bicentennial program sponsored by American Catholic bishops. In preparation for this meeting, there had been a two year program of parish discussions on "Liberty and Justice for All", and six regional hearings throughout the country on various aspects of justice in the church and in the world. Voting proposals prepared from input from these programs provided the working papers for the national assembly, which presented resolutions and a plan of action for the next five years.

BEATITUDE

Blessed and enviably happy, (with a happiness produced by experience of God's favor and especially conditioned by the revelation of His matchless grace) are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted!

Blessed--happy, bilithesome, joyous, spiritually prosperous (that is with life-joy and satisfaction in God's favor and salvation, regardless of their outward conditions)--are the meek (the mild, patient, long-suffering), for they shall inherit the earth!

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY

Mrs. David Mikkel Krause
(nee Sandra Kay Wilkes)

Wedding Solemnized

Sandra Kay Wilkes and David Mikkel Krause were united in marriage on Saturday, November 27 at the Crestview Assembly of God Church in Lubbock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George M. Wilkes of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Boggus of Abernathy.

Rev. Tom Lake officiated. Mrs. Susan Wilkes of Lubbock served as matron of honor and Mel Boggus, father of the bridegroom was best man.

Other attendants were Mrs. Sue Adams of Lubbock and Mrs. Jo Kitchens of Slaton. The groom's attendants included Bill Mays of Lubbock and Morris Wilkes of Lubbock. Mrs. Dorothy Morton of Plainview served as organist and Miss Carol Waggoner was the vocalist.

Kay Wilkes wore a Renaissance style gown of ivory silken organza with accents of Brussels lace and highlights of beaded Alencon lace. The high rise moulded bodice featured a high yoked neckline of the embroidered Brussels lace. A high Duchess collar was trimmed in scalloped Brussels lace. The beaded Alencon lace defined the yoke and extended to mark the crescent shape waistline. Full billowy sleeves repeated the Brussels lace and were shirred to lace cuffs. The full bell shaped skirt was embellished in the beaded Alencon lace and swept to a chapel length train. The entire hemline and train was encircled in a border of Alencon lace scalloped with a flounce of the Brussels lace. Her veiling, designed to match her gown was caught to beaded lace Camelot capulet and fell in tiers with the first tier edged in scallops of the Brussels lace forming a mantilla effect sweeping beyond the length of her train.

Her attendants complemented the bridal theme in apricot and orange gowns. The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the reception hall of the church.

Serving as hostesses were Mrs. Ruby McCowen of Lubbock, Mrs. Freda Hoffner of Lubbock, Mrs. Sue Key of Lubbock, Miss Angie McCowen and Miss Cathy Horton. Serving at the groom's table were Mrs. Moody Meixner of Lubbock and Mrs. Debbie Chamlee, sister of the groom, of Abilene.

After a wedding trip to Orlando, Florida, the couple will reside in Lubbock.

Mrs. Krause is employed by the Lubbock Independent School District. She is a 1968 graduate of Abernathy High School, attended Texas Tech and Commercial Business College.

Krause is a 1967 graduate of New Deal High School. He received his B.S. degree in Engineering from Texas Tech and is employed by the Texas Water Quality Board.

THOUGHTS FROM WITHIN

By Vicki

As we are now in the Christmas season, we feel a spirit of excitement, as decorations are being put up and everyone is thinking of what gifts they want to buy. It is a wonderful time of year but, let us always keep in mind the true meaning of Christmas. The time of the birth of Jesus Christ in the city of Bethlehem. Luke 2:1-19: AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. 2. And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria. 3. And all went to be taxed, everyone into his own city. 4. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of Nazareth, into Judaea unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) 5. To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. 7. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. 8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night. 9. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. 10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. 11. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. 12. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. 13. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. 15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known to us. 16. And they came with haste and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. 17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. 18. And all that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. 19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

Out Of The Mouths Of Babes

By Mrs. Lillie Belle Kramp

Then in my own experience many years ago—the beautiful song—"The consecrated cross I'll bear" even today when singing this song, I have to close my mind to cross-eyed bear.

Therefore in teaching children it is time consuming. This means hours and hours working on illustrations to help the children understand. What a delight to teach the little ones—a joy which in years to come we can say about them as the Apostle Paul said about those he won and taught:

"For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy." I Thes. 2:19-20.

Then another little girl who was singing with the adults in church—the song which said, "Oh, I want to live in the land of Goshen." To her it said, "Oh, I want to live in the Atlantic Ocean"—therefore she closed her mouth when they came to this part of the song as she didn't want to live in the Atlantic Ocean.

One of the most important things to remember in teaching children is: Be sure that they understand the words and the meaning of them. This often takes much explanation and the use of visual aids. Children can receive some strange ideas from what they think that the words say.

As an illustration—a friend in Nebraska had taught the children a song which said, "He blotted out my sins, I know." Her little girl was going around singing the song with these words: "He blotted the mountain, I know."

Quite a difference in what the song said and what the child was singing. With this incident she realized the necessity of visual aids not only in the lessons but also the songs.

building or buying a new home? ask about E. E. H.

AND IT'S TIME, ALSO

...to think about the conveniences of your home. The appliances you need to make your home more modern, more convenient, to provide more leisure time... all are here for your selection. We invite you to come in.

A beautiful story this is from the Bible. As the angel said, to the shepherds that night, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

The angel told them they would find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger and then suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

As we think on these words, "A Saviour, which is Christ the Lord, was born, and then appeared with the angel a multitude of heavenly host praising God. At this Christmas time we should all praise God for sending His beloved Son into the world to save us from our sins.

At this time we see Jesus came to give peace on earth and good will toward men. The only way we will ever have real peace is to ask Jesus Christ to be our Saviour, and then we will experience true peace.

God sent His Son, John 3:16: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Everyone loves to receive gifts. Let us all search our hearts at this time of year and see if we have received the greatest gift ever given. It is free, all we have to do is ask Jesus to come into our hearts and be born again of the spirit and ask Him to be Lord of our lives. Then we will have true peace. Let all tell the Christmas story and let everyone know the love of God. God wants everyone to come to Him but He does not force His way into our lives. He wants you to invite Jesus into your heart and life today. II Corinthians 6:2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) God is always ready for you to accept the salvation that Jesus brings. He will meet you where you are right now. Just ask Him in and believe on Him. Read the Bible and learn of Him.

Let us all rejoice and be glad in Him. There are many joys and also many trials in these days but, with Jesus you will be given the grace and help you need in them all. Open your heart and life to Jesus Christ today and receive everlasting life and happiness you have never known before. Share Jesus with others this Christmas season.
