MEET LOST HEAT ON YOUR OWN GROUND... HIGH NOON OR ANY TIME

the heat pump captures lost heat, SAVES YOU MONEY...

A new heating system is a serious consideration. Make sure your new heating system pays off in savings for you. The electric heat pump saves energy, so it saves you money. By using otherwise wasted Lost Heat present in outside air, the electric heat pump delivers as much as two units of heat for every unit of electricity it uses.

Call The Electric Company and find out about the heat pump... the electric heating system that saves energy, and saves money.

NEWS AND COMMENT By Buford Davenport

NGC--At this time, Abernathy would be far down on the list in a "Cleanest Town in Texas" contest. An organized Clean-Up Campaign is badly needed. Downtown and residential areas need a good clean up of paper scraps, soft drink cans, beer cans and bottles. Alleys with damaged top dumpstons are littered when wind whips the trash out of the containers. Also adding to the shabby appearance is the circulars brought here from Lubbock and thrown in the yards in the residential section each week. I consider those out-of-town circulars as litter thrown in our yard. Some householders may welcome the circulars. I recognize their right to receive them if they want them, but I do not. And, there should be a city ordinance requiring local and out-of-town businesses that throw circulars on a regular basis, especially every week, to first obtain permission from the householder to litter his yard with the circulars. This should not apply to The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal. The daily newspaper is ordered by the householder, who expects to find it in his yard every morning.

NGC--It's 77 in '77 for longtime area resident L.M. Hobgood, retired farmer who lives east of the Caldwell Gin southwest of Abernathy. He will observe his 77th birthday Feb. 20. Also to be 77 in '77 is O.D. Rhodes, former Abernathian now residing in Lubbock. He will be 77 in December.

NGC--Checking through a 1963 edition of The Review, I found these prices in McAlister Food and Maxwell House Coffee, 2 pound 99c; Longhorn Cheese, 49c per pound; Church Post, 43c per pound; Spunk, 10 pounds for 39c.

NGC--According to reports from area farmers, the coyote population is increasing in this territory. Time was when you seldom saw one in this section of the South Plains. Farmers and ranchers are told by the federal government to produce more and more food to feed an ever-increasing world population. In typical bureaucratic action, the federal government throws a protective coat of rules around predators that destroy potential food products on farms and ranches.

NGC--The maiden name of two sisters living here translates as "noisy brook." But they are not. NGC--The Traveling Strives, who have been to the far corners of many countries in this world, now are headed for a long visit in South America. The only other Abernathian who may have travelled as much, or more, is Elbert Harp, an executive of GSPA. He has logged thousands of air miles to many counties of the globe selling the natives on the versatile food value of grain sorghum.

Letters To The Editor

Feb. 12, 1977
Houston, Texas

Dear Buford:
 This week's Review caught up with us at Shirley Ward's in Houston. It will be the last Abernathy news we will have for several weeks until we get a letter from Dan Ward. (Dan is good about keeping us informed.)
 The front page spread about Tella Walker was so very good. News doesn't have to be had to be good copy.
 I always read your "News & Comments" before reading the rest of the paper... if I can find it!
 Wonder if Joey Sherman shouldn't also have had rabies shots after the lady bit him.
 When Lowery Deering offered a choice; with or without conversation, I think your decision was to accept the inevitable but I'm sure the conversation was worthwhile if it was about fishing (also inevitable).

Like your opinion about the Kennedy-King assassination investigation committee. Why stir up old traumas?
 Appreciate the mention of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Snider. I have often wondered where they might be now... (Give us more of these "what became....?" items.)
 Another thing: Bill Clayton's article about natural gas and its value touched a chord in my memory. I recall shoveling coal into the cheese factory boiler before we got completely clean natural gas and the automatic pressure control devices that enabled us almost to forget about the boiler. I guess we'd have been glad to pay more for the gas than we did than to go back to shoveling coal with the accompanying need for cleaning up thoroughly every time we added fuel. (The gas also probably kept coal dust out of the cheese!)

As we consider going this morning to "catch a plane" to Miami on the first leg of our journey, I thought what an absurd phrase that is. We might "catch" a horse and buggy or a stage coach but never a bus, train or least of all a jetliner. We'll be in Bogota, Columbia tonight.
 Amo Struve

Shana Toler To Visit In South America
 Sophomore Shana Toler left yesterday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amo Struve, for Brazil. Their first stop was Houston and then Miami, Florida before flying to Brazil.
 They plan to tour Brazil and parts of South America which will take them two and one-half to three months. While there, they will visit Nelson Melon, an exchange student from Brazil who lived with the Struves two years ago.
 Nelson lives in Belo Horizonte and is studying to be a doctor.
 Shana will keep up with her studies through correspondence and will take her tests when the returns before the end of school.

SCRIPTURE
 When you sit down to eat with a ruler, consider who and what are before you; For you will put a knife to your throat, if you are a man given to desire. (Pro. 23:1-2)

THOT: Self-preservation may be the first law of nature, but self-denial is the first law of grace.
THOT: God's help is only a prayer away!

Band Students Present Program For Local Lion's

The program was brought to the Lions Club by band students of Abernathy High School. All of the students presenting the program are entered in the U.I.L. competition to be held on Friday, February 18, 1977 at Lubbock. They performed the pieces they will be judged on at the contest.

Those playing were: Tom Adams, saxophone solo, accompanied by Clinton Barrick; Julene Dorman, David Brightbill, & Blane Neis, Trombone trio, accompanied by Dianne Schafer; Shari Cecil, cornet solo, accompanied by Clinton Barrick; Kelly Henderson, cor net solo, accompanied by Clinton Barrick.

All did a superb job and everyone enjoyed the music.

Happiness is going to Bible Club and singing, hearing stories about Jesus Christ and learning Bible verses and playing games.

Staying lean

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Women who wish to lose weight should increase their physical activity rather than relying solely on reducing their calorie intake, a University of Texas nutrition specialist suggests.

Dr. RoseAnn Shorey says one of the problems of extreme diets is that fewer calories are not sufficient for proper nourishment "because so many of the trace minerals and vitamins occur at small amounts in a wide variety of foods."

She points out "exercise can allow us to eat more and stay lean," but notes that the success of a weight-loss plan depends on "day-in and day-out discipline." She adds: "There's no easy way."

Bible Club Has Valentine Party

Lillie Belle Kramp and Dorothy Looney meet each Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Havens and family at 802 14th St. to have Bible Club.

The meeting Tuesday was a valentine party and Bible story time. The children had a flannel graph story and sang songs and said scriptures.

They played tug of war games, had a balloon dart game. Refreshments of ice cream and valentine decorated cup cakes.

Each child received a red and white heart with a scripture on it.

Any child is welcome to attend Bible Club each Tuesday at 4 p.m.

THOT: Christian kindness is love in working clothes!

Mrs. Lillie Belle Kramp Attend Conference

Mrs. Lillie Belle Kramp has returned from a trip to Longview.

While there she attended the annual meeting of National Home Missions Conference composed of 43 independent missions. Mid-American Mission is a member.

68 workshops were held for the benefit of the individual members.

Mrs. Kramp attended the workshops on puppets—use of them, script writing and ventriloquism. Others that she attended were on teaching Juniors and then one of office procedures.

John DeDrine, a youth worker from Boston, was the main speaker.

A tea was held on Friday afternoon for all the ladies. Mrs. Le Toumeau, wife of the founder of the college, Mrs. John Walvord, wife of Dr. John Walvord president of Dallas Theological Seminary and Miss Winona Walworth, representative of Scripture Press were the speakers. Each spoke on the joys and frustrations of their lives.

The conference ended with a banquet on Friday night January 28th. Dr. Walvord was the speaker.

Le Toumeau College of Longview hosted the conference.

In 1978 the conference will be held in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

THINK ON THESE THOUGHTS

THOT: You must accept God's Son today if you wish to live in Heaven's sunshine tomorrow.

THOT: You can often tell a wise man by the things he doesn't say!

THOT: Confession of sin is a sign of strength rather than an admission of weakness.

THOT: The HIGHEST kind of giving is done from the BOTTOM of the heart!

THOT: Make sure the things you're living for are worth dying for.

THOT: If we cannot do the good we would, we ought to do the good we can.

THOT: It's better to bite your tongue than to allow it to bite someone else.

THOT: God afflicts us, not to break us but to broaden us.

THOT: Do you make others thirsty for the Water of Life?

THOT: A Christian should be an expectant UPLOOKER, not a sleepy ONLOOKER!

THOT: Think out your work; than work out your thoughts.

THOT: To be rich in God is better than to be rich in GOODS.

THOT: One taste of the goodness of God and you'll want to feast on the riches of His grace.

THOT: The humble Carpenter of Nazareth was also the mighty Architect of the Universe.

SCRIPTURES
All the days of the desponding afflicted are made evil (by anxious thoughts and foreboding), but he who has a glad heart has a continual feast (regardless of circumstances.) (Pro. 15:15)

OUT OF THE MOUTHS OF BABES by Mrs. Lillie Belle Kramp

How do we love the Lord Jesus? When do we express our love?
David, the five year old son of a former pastor, expressed love such as often shown.

The church had finished their communion service. The juice used was a delicious home canned product which far exceeded the commercial kind.

After church, David went to the basement and watched one of the ladies put away the communion service cups and grape juice.

He said, "Mrs. Marshall, I really do love you!" Surprise, she turned and looked at him and said, "Why, that's lovely, David—but why do you love me?"

David again said, "I really do love you very much—give me some grape juice."

Do we love God and express our love because we stand in need of something that we want?

Do we want people to love us this way? Or do we want them to love us because we are us?

Jesus said, "As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you."

There enters a new dimension to our loves when we spend time telling God of our love and not asking for anything in return.

The words of a favorite song are:
"Jesus, the very thought of thee
With sweetness fills my breast
But sweeter far thy face to see
And in thy presence rest."

THOT: No one can achieve greatness unless his life is focused, dedicated, and disciplined.

THOT: God allows temptation in order to temper us, never to trip us!

THOT: The most productive force in witnessing is not the compulsion of LAW but the compassion of LOVE.

THOT: Beware, the mote you see in your brother's eye may be the reflection of the beam in your own!

THOT: Faith will fade unless it feeds on the promises of God!

Be not always wanting. Some other work to do, but cheerfully perform the task which Christ has set for you.

THOT: A preacher should spend as much time on the preparation of the preacher as on the preparation of the sermon.

Always have.

After more than 35 years of experience, the member-owned electric cooperative has the distribution problem down pat, delivering an abundant supply of dependable power. Our cost of delivering power has been kept under control.

But the price of power and the cost of generating fuels is something else.

A shortage of natural gas means higher electric bills. Conversion of generating plants to alternate fuels is expensive. And the people who generate our power are no happier than we are with these increased costs.

But our job has always been to deliver power as efficiently, as dependably and as economically as possible. This we have done. This we are doing. And this we will do. It's a 35 year tradition.

Victor Trevino Dies Tuesday In Galveston Hospital

Word was received late Tuesday that Victor Trevino, an Abernathy Junior High student, died Tuesday afternoon in a Galveston hospital.

Parental Involvement Program Meetings

Parental Involvement is a partnership arrangement among parents, school, and community. Parents can assume active roles in the education of their children if they understand what the school is doing and are sympathetic with its aims; are encouraged to work constructively to improve its methods; and are actively involved in their children's educational activities.

How effective our Parental Involvement Program is depends on all three participants: the home, the school, and the community. The relationship among these three institutions effects the total development of the child.

Some of the specific goals of the Parental Involvement Program are:

- (1) To develop a closer relationship among parents, school personnel, and the community.
- (2) To increase interest and knowledge among parents about the education of their children.
- (3) To promote and involve parents in all types of educational opportunities available. For example, Adult Basic Education and art classes for parents of high school migrant students.

We want to encourage all parents to feel free to visit the school at any time. Your child will work harder at any task if he knows that his parents are really interested in what he is doing. Get to know the school principal and your child's teachers. Attend school activities with your child. Meetings are held each month to encourage parental involvement. Attend these meetings and bring any suggestions that you feel could improve the educational system in our school.

If you have any questions concerning this program, please contact Amy Garcia or Janis Myatt, 298-2812 or 298-2567.

"The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom."

Science collections

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) -- Not all scholars at The University of Texas go to the library to do research. Some go to collections of rocks, plants or animal specimens.

UT has 10 such science collections -- ranging from rare butterflies to meteorites. One of the best is in the UT Herbarium, seventh largest in the nation with 850,000 specimens of native plants from the southwest U.S. and Latin America.

The UT Herbarium collection provides vegetation data that is fundamental to programs in range management to environmental biology, and even including poisonous plants and obnoxious weeds.

Western paintings

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) -- Thirty-six paintings that date from the 1870's to the 1970's and that record the opening and development of the American West have been given to The University of Texas.

Valued at about one-half million dollars, the paintings are a gift to his alma mater from C. R. Smith of Washington, D.C., who for many years was the head of American Airlines.

Included in the recent gift of Western art are paintings that portray Indians, cowboys, desert ranges, covered wagons, cattle stampedes, prairie fires and landscapes of the "big country."

More protein for world food

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — More protein for world food supplies may result from a University of Texas study that has yielded 20 times as much meat protein per square meter per year as could be produced through agriculture or animal husbandry.

Conducting research in the Virgin Islands, UT marine scientists are engaged in a project to increase the protein yield from shellfish such as oysters, clams and scallops.

Called "artificial upwelling," the project brings up from ocean depths nutrient-rich water which, when it is mixed with nutrient-poor surface water, stimulates the growth of algae on which shellfish feed.

4-H NEWS ROUND-UP

GREAT NEWS! Due to the increased interest in the 4-H Citizenship Short Course over the past few years and the expected increase in applications this year, reservations have been made at the state level to send three Citizenship Short Course delegations from Texas this summer.

The inclusive dates are June 14-28 for 70 delegates, July 6-19 for 40 delegates, and July 26-Aug. 9 for 80 delegates. Each delegation will form a citizenship group in Dallas the first day for registration and orientation. The tour and short course will end at the point of departure the last scheduled day for each delegation.

Application blanks are available in the Extension Office and are due in the district office on Feb. 22. The total cost of the trip will be $450 to cover transportation, lodging, tuition, meals en route and spending money. A $25 deposit is due with the application, $300 due in the State 4-H and Youth Office by April 22 and $125 will be used by the 4-H'er for meals enroute and spending money. Traveler's checks are suggested for this last balance.

The Nation's Capitol, the many branches of government, and memorials to great Americans enhance the daily citizenship learning experiences. Citizenship topics relating to the individual's concept and responsibilities of citizenship are covered in assemblies and opportunity sessions at the Center. Foundation personnel, summer staff, and guest speakers provided a broad spectrum of resources in each week's program.

Citizenship short courses help young citizens in their personal development.

—Realize their potential as effective participants in our democratic system of government.

—Gain leadership training to help implement newly realized abilities, responsibilities, and programs back home.

—Develop a better understanding and appreciation of their American heritage.

—Realize a new relationship and responsibility of the individual to self and others.

—Better understand the federal government and their relation to it.

—Gain an insight into the aspects of international citizenship.

Any 4-H member who will be entering either his or her junior or senior year in high school in September 1977 is eligible, states Mrs. Wynon Mayes, County Extension Agent. Any 4-H member who has previously attended the National 4-H Citizenship Short Course is not eligible to attend a second time. Several Hale County 4-H members have attended this Citizenship Short Course in the past few years and report that it is a great learning experience. Come by the office and pick up your application this week so you will have your choice of dates, advises Mrs. Mayes.

Three 4-H adult leaders will be selected to attend each tour based on application. Applications are to be submitted to district agents along with a $25 deposit. Adults are subject to the same expenses as 4-H members.

Picture Bright Says Federal Res. Bank

The financial squeeze on farmers and ranches in the southern High Plains of Texas eased somewhat during the 1976 crop year. Repayment of loans has quickened, fewer loans are being renewed, and bankers generally report adequate funds to meet current requests for loans, a January survey of area agribankers by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas shows.

Credit conditions improved largely because both yields and prices of cotton were good in 1976. In areas where cotton is clearly the major crop, bank deposits and farm incomes had increased substantially compared with a year earlier. One banker in a cotton growing area noted that loan demand was off and deposits were at an all-time high due to the exceptional crop income.

Among survey results reported by Carl G. Anderson and Alan M. Young, agricultural economists for the Dallas Bank, were these: Where last year 24 percent of the bankers surveyed said loan repayments were slower than usual, this year only 14 percent did.

Where 38 percent said loan renewals were greater than usual last year, this year 21 percent did. Where 26 percent of the respondents said the availability of funds was greater than usual, this year 29 percent did.

The financial condition of many other agricultural operators in the area deteriorated, however, because of increasing production costs and a drop in prices for grain, slaughter cattle, and hogs. One banker reported "yields were excellent in our area this year; however, the soaring costs of energy to pump irrigation water combined with tremendously high other production costs in conjunction with weak grain prices resulted in a not so glamorous net farm income year."

With the increased operating costs, demand for farm loans is expected to strengthen. Almost three-fourths of the bankers said they expect the volume of operating loans in 1977 to be higher than in 1976. Farmers are borrowing more money to store crops and to buy machinery.

Interest rates at the beginning of 1977 were close to year-earlier levels. Rates reported averaged 9.48 percent for feeder cattle loans, 9.23 percent for operating loans, and 9.30 percent for intermediate-term loans (1 to 7 years).

Bankers estimate the price of "good" farmland in the area increased 10 to 14 percent in 1976, with ranchland increasing only 2 percent. However, with farm incomes under increasing pressure from much higher energy costs, most bankers expect the land market to show little change in the first part of 1977.

The bitter orange was the only kind known in Europe until after 1500 A.D. It was used as a seasoning, not as a fruit.

NEW DEAL FFA STOCK SHOW SET FOR FEBRUARY 19th

City animal control is serious problem

By GARY OTT
Herald Staff Writer

(From Plainview Herald) "I think it's safe to say we have a serious problem here in Plainview, but it's one that is controllable," remarked the City's Director of Public Safety Johnnie Ballew discussing Plainview's animal control situation.

The serious problem is the number of stray animals roaming the city streets here.

"It's definitely a problem and the public needs to be educated to the situation," he added. Using fiscal year 1976 figures, Ballew said, "We (City animal control officials) picked up 2,108 animals of which only 299 were reclaimed by their owners. In addition, another 21 were adopted by the public." The remainder were disposed of by "drug shots."

The animals, when picked up by the animal warden or his assistant, are kept for 72 hours. If unclaimed in that time, they face disposal.

BUT THERE are exceptions, most notably "blood dogs." "If we pick up a good male blood dog and he's unclaimed we will, with usual success, try to find him a home," said Ballew, adding, "The only time we let females be adopted is if the new owner will agree to have her spayed."

Although the current animal problem has been labeled "serious" it also is one that is "improving."

Referring to his files again, Ballew noted, "The situation has improved in recent years. For example, in 1974 approximately 2,800 live animals were picked up and only nine were reclaimed by the owners."

BALLEW GIVES some of the credit for recent improvements to the current animal warden Jessie Rivera. "He's a very conscientious worker and tries to deal fairly with the public."

According to Ballew, the worst section of town for stray animals is the Frisco Addition, although he is hesitant to place all of the blame on those residents. "A lot of people just dump unwanted animals in that part of town," he added.

A recent trend being pursued by the City is to file a court complaint against owners of stray animals. In fiscal year 1976, some 148 such cases were filed, and according to Ballew, more can be expected this year.

UNDER THIS plan, the animal does not even have to be picked up for a complaint to be filed. If city officials can correctly identify the animal, complaint can be issued without having the animal in possession.

Once a complaint is filed, the owner is required to appear in Municipal Court. While many will just plead guilty and pay the fine (which usually ranges from $5 to $12.50) others request a jury trial. "We win some and lose some (jury trials), but overall we like the new procedure of filing complaints and going to court," Ballew said.

In addition to potential court fines, the city also charges a fee for picking up and handling stray animals. Although these fees will often fluctuate from year to year, the current costs are: city license, $2.50; duplicate tags, $1; first time pick-up, $6; each subsequent pick-up, $12; upkeep for one day, $3; and distemper shots, $3. Also, animals are not released if they have not had their rabies vaccinations, which currently runs about $5. But even with these figures, according to Ballew, the city continues to lose money on each animal handled.

ANOTHER recurring problem is the low number of owners getting city tags for their animals. Currently, the City sells about 1,000 to 1,200 tags annually (bulk are sold during clinics in March) which is a vast improvement over past years, when as few as 150 tags were sold. But despite these obvious improvements, many owners simply do not bother to buy tags.

"The burden is on the owner. Our ordinance requires the owner to come in and get the tags for their animals," Ballew said.

PX 74

...the smut-resistant single cross that's leading a corn yield revolution.

In 1976, Northrup King PX 74 helped many High Plains corn growers produce yields that were almost unheard of a few years ago. Many topped the 200-bushel mark by impressive margins. Barry Williams of Texico, New Mexico, averaged 233.7 bu./A. with PX 74 last year. And he noted that there was no problem with head smut. Texas grower Paul Condit of Seminole made 226.5 bu./A. with PX 74. Come in today... and pick up a load of PX 74, the smut-resistant single cross that's leading a corn yield revolution.
