Steering Committee Agreed On Facilities, Ready For Conference With Architect

By Jacquelyn Smyers
 The Building Plans Steering Committee appointed by Abernathy City Council is ready, after only two short meetings, to show an architect what facilities the community needs for a library and public gatherings. They agree that the present city hall meeting room must be enlarged by at least two thirds to furnish approximately the same amount of space as the school cafeteria. The cafeteria contains a little under 4000 square feet. The committee feels we must have at least 3000 square feet. The present room has 1,200. The room should be divisible to accommodate two gatherings at the same time. It must have a stage similar to and as large as the cafeteria's, two restrooms, and either a new kitchen or expansion of the present one. The kitchen design must include an arrangement for food service from the kitchen directly into the meeting room. Amold Maeker, the architect who designed City Hall, said he planned for expansion to the south side of the building. He also said the old fire station (the one attached to City Hall on the north side; not the old fire station by the water tower) can be remodeled to house either the library or police station. The old station contains 1,200 square feet which library representatives think is just right for an expanded library. They thought the building was tall enough to be made two stories but Maeker said no. Another possibility however is 1 1/2 stories with the half used for storage of books and city records. If it's to be a single story building, the ceiling must be dropped. The north side can be glassed in to match the front of City Hall. Library representatives said an expanded library must have reading tables, books shelves, files, and be recatalogued. If the library meets certain requirements, it can be classed by the state as a public library and be eligible for grants to help out on expense. The 1935 Study Club starts dandistill operates the library with financial aid from the city and county. The city contributes $1500 per year to the county, $945. If it becomes a full fledged public library, the city must assume responsibility for its operation with the aid of a citizen group. Committee members asked City Manager Larry Fields to set up a meeting for them with Mr. Maeker as soon as possible since they are ready for drawings and cost estimates.

School Board Acknowledges Oversight, Members Suggest Goals For Future

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)
 Abernathy School Board acknowledged its oversight in not including members of minority groups in the recently appointed committee on building plans. Several Black and Mexican-American citizens had protested to school board members after appointments were announced last month. Board members said they did not intend to exclude any part of the community and defended their oversight by pointing out that no one from minority groups attended the original meeting to discuss the need and possibility of a show/bam/community meeting place facility. The list of those present at that meeting was the basis for the majority of committee appointments. Several board members also said they've known the people of different races here so long, they don't think of them as separate groups. They were concerned about the large size of the committee but agreed that representatives of minority groups should be included. The committee, headed by Harvey Lutrick, plans to meet for the first time January 23. Board members discussed several plans for appointing additional people before that meeting but decided to put it on the agenda of the next regular board meeting. Members will then nominate one person each for appointment. GOALS As requested by Dan Fondy at the board's

CLAYTON ENGER RETIRES FROM FARMING

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)
 An auction sale at a farm seven miles east of Abernathy on FM Road 597, Friday, January 19, brings to an end Clayton Enger's 30 years of farming. Enger faces the future with some anticipation and some sadness. "I've had so many good years farming," he said. "Nobody has had as good a life." He looks forward to playing golf, fishing, and traveling, yet he says there's some regret at ending all the productive years. Enger moved out here from Lubbock in 1948 to start his farming career. The farm is in New Deal School District so the three Enger children attended New Deal schools and Clayton served six years on the New Deal School Board. However, he attended church in Lakeview, had his cotton ginned at Heckville, and was a director of Abernathy Chamber of Commerce, and two local cooperatives. He and his wife, Merle, have a home on First Street here in Abernathy now. Their son, Don, farms near Shallowater. Their daughter, Beth, is Mrs. Billy Gist and daughter, Sue, is Mrs. Bud Rhodes. Enger is a member and past president of the New Deal Lions Club. He joined there because they meet twice a month at night which was more convenient for a farmer than the usual

CITY COUNCIL MEETING REPORT

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)
 Both the school board and city council had regular monthly meetings Monday night, January 8 and the Review could cover only one. The school board lunched out on personal coverage because of its packed agenda. However, City Manager Larry Fields summarized the city council meeting in a telephone interview later in the week. AUDIT Jack Moss of Bolinger, Segars, Gilbert, and Moss, CPA, presented and the council approved a detailed summary of his firm's findings during their audit of city finances for 1977-78. He said the city is in good financial condition but should pay attention to cash flow. More cash reserves than usual were spent for utility lines, the city's responsibilities in Lakeview Subdivision, the new landfill and water tower. While increasing the city's fixed assets, these expenditures decreased its cash available. Therefore, the city may have to increase water rates or take some other precaution to insure more cash flow in the future. POLICE CAR The council authorized Fields to advertise for bids on a new police car. The car is to be smaller than in the past with a six cylinder instead of V-8 engine. Bids will be opened at the February 12 regular council meeting. POST OFFICE LEASE The U. S. Postal Service leases the post office building from the city. The lease includes a tax escalation rider which the city doesn't like but didn't notice when the 10 year lease was agreed to in 1964. The city says the rider was not supposed to be in the lease agreement and tried to get rid of it when it was noticed in 1965. The postal service said it's their standard lease and wouldn't remove it. The post office is supposed to pay the city $4188 each year but because of the rider, deducts $750 because the city doesn't pay property taxes. The lease was up in 1974 but the post office still had several five year options which it chose to use, one of which will be up in May this year. The council decided to try to get the postal service to renegotiate the lease and exclude the rider. CON'T ON PAGE 3-COL. 5

FFA/4-H SHOW MEETING TO BE HELD MONDAY JANUARY 22

Harvey Lutrick urges all interested persons to attend a meeting at 7 p. m. Monday, Jan. 22, in the vocational agriculture department at Abernathy High School to discuss the annual FFA & 4-H Club Livestock Show here. It will be an organizing meeting, including the election of officers of the stock show committee. Lutrick, current president, emphasized that this meeting is very important due to a problem never before faced in the history of the show. There is a quarantine on swine that says a hog taken to such a show cannot be taken back to its home pen. This is the main problem to be discussed. At the present time, the barn usually used at Service Grain Company is available, and will be on the usual show dates early in March unless the owner, Harold Davis, makes some kind of disposition of the property between now and the show dates.

The Sunshine Group will have their regular meeting on Thursday, January 18 at 11:00 a. m. in the City Hall Club Room. There will be a covered dish luncheon and program. All senior citizens and visitors are welcome.

Rutledge Returns From Iran Jan. 12

A former Abernathy resident, and a graduate of AHS, Harold G. Rutledge arrived at Lubbock International Airport Friday night, Jan. 12. His flight originated at the airport in strife-torn Teheran, Iran, on a KLM Dutch airliner. The KLM plane could not refuel in Teheran because of the strike in the country's oil industry, so it flew from there to Athens, Greece, to refuel before flying on to Amsterdam, the Netherlands, then to New York City, where he boarded a domestic airliner for the flight to DFW Regional Airport then to Lubbock. Harold, who is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. Rutledge of Abernathy, left in April, 1978, on what was to be a two-year stay in Iran. He spent only 8 months and 18 days with the U. S. Grumman Aircraft Co. as a flight line instructor at an airport near Isfahan in Iran. Formerly with the U. S. Air Force, Harold's job with Grumman was to teach Iran Air Force personnel how to maintain the fighter planes which Grumman sold to that country. Harold, who is a brother of Buford Davenport of Abernathy, had to wait three weeks to get a flight out of Iran. Grumman took their employees by bus from Isfahan to Teheran airport and bought their flight tickets home. He is a veteran of U. S. Air Force duty in Vietnam during the war in that country. His two children, Gail and Robert, made their home in Lubbock while he was in Iran. Harold's daughter, Gail, plans to enlist in the U. S. Air Force. Harold also is a brother of Walter L. Rutledge and Mrs. Hugh K. Fry of Lubbock, Mrs. L. E. Smiddy of Amarillo, Mrs. Cecil Hall of Littlefield, Mrs. Oleta Welch of Benjamin and Willie F. Rutledge of Vera. Walter L. Rutledge also is a Vietnam war veteran, having served there in the U. S. Army.

PLAINS GRAIN IS BURGLARIZED SUNDAY NIGHT

(By Billie Rantz)
 Employees arriving for work at Plains Grain & Farm Supply Monday at 7:30 a. m. discovered the business had been burglarized. The burglary is believed to have been committed either late Sunday night or early Monday morning. Police are conducting an investigation at this time. Among the items stolen were 42 cans of Treflan, cash from the elevator cash drawer and vault, a radio belonging to an employee, and an antique gun which was taken from the desk of manager Charles Hobgood. A radio belonging to Hobgood was evidently overlooked by the thieves. Desk drawers had been pried open, even those which were unlocked and paneling around the vault had been ripped and pried off in an attempt to gain entry into the vault. The door of the vault was pried open. At this time no definite assessment of the amount of damage and loss could be made as employees were still discovering items missing. There was extensive damage to the roof, paneling, vault, desks, and the window. The burglars gained entry into the building by knocking a hole in the roof, probably anticipating a burglar alarm, and then exited through a window. They used a company trolley to move the stolen goods to the window and then broke into another building to gain access to a company truck which they used to haul away their loot. An all points bulletin has been issued for the stolen truck.

TUBB HOUSE DEMOLISHED HERE

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)
Nobody did anything about the Tubb house so it was demolished Wednesday last week. The Weekly Review had many calls from people with ideas for using the house and referred them to the owner. The owner, however, said only one person contacted him.

The coldicy weather has delayed his car wash project. He will proceed as soon as possible and thinks the new business will be an asset to the community.

We regret that the house couldn't be saved but perhaps it wasn't a total loss if local people begin to pay attention to their surroundings. The old house's existence is recorded in the Review and scattered members of the Tubb family enjoyed the story.

1935 Study Club received a donation from artist Bill Barrick who wanted to help save the house for community use if possible and buy a book on art for the library if it were not.

ANTON WOLFS RETURN "HOME"

Wednesday, Jan. 17, was scheduled as moving back "home" day for Mr. and Mrs. Anton Wolf. The house on the Sterrett farm about a mile and one-half west of Abernathy was "home" to Mr. and Mrs. Wolf for the 36 years that they farmed the place.

Anton quit farming with the 1976 crop and they moved to town to a house they bought at 301 South Ave. D. They missed the peace and quiet of the Sterrett house, which is about a half-mile north of the nearest highway, FM 597, and they were ready to move back to their home of 36 years. In addition to the Sterrett house, the Wolfs will have the big pasture on a lease basis to run some cattle as they did when they formerly lived there. Benny Turner will have the farming portion of the Sterrett place, and Anton will assist him when he is needed.

The Wolfs sold their home in town to the Johnny Carver family, who will move there from 405 Ave. H. Johnny is employed in Lubbock and Mrs. Carter is a teacher in the Abernathy School system.

SCHOOL BOARD NEWS

ents for people who use the old gray matter instead of the muscular approach. He'd like getting a letter for drama, English, or math to be pretty exciting and prestigious in kids' minds. Harrison pointed out that students receive academic awards certificates at the yearly honor assembly. Pinson said, "You can't wear that, though."

Don McKenzie said he'd like to see a school nurse for Abernathy schools. He said teachers have to take care of problems like lice that a nurse could more easily handle. He'd like the school to have an industrial arts program—not just power mechanics and other courses tied to agriculture. He's also for continued renovation of the entire school facility including the already started dirt and fencing projects.

Jerry Orwalt said he'd like to see board members and administrators be more attentive to needs and pursue them until something is accomplished. He'd like to see Abernathy graduates qualified to accept the challenges of life. He said also that there's got to be some way to get the educational process back into the home. The school can provide the best of everything but until parents see that the kids are trying, not much can be accomplished.

He suggested that the "something good happened at school today" program be beefed up and that board members take special care to commend school personnel for specific good jobs.

Harrison said he'd like teachers to be specific in commending students' good points, too. He said everyone appreciates recognition for achievement and the whole school can benefit from a positive approach.

Dr. Webb presented a detailed outline of his goals for all areas of the school program. He said he'd refine his goals, include those mentioned by board members, confer with teachers, other administrators and groups of students like the student council, and bring it all back to the board for implementation. He said the cooperation of personnel and students is essential for success.

STATE SOYBEAN MEETING

-----The 12th annual meeting of the Texas Soybean Association will be held Jan. 25-26 at Paris Junior College. The first day will feature meetings of the TSA board and directors and a banquet, with Texas Commissioner of Agriculture Reagan Brown as the keynote speaker. Discussions on soybean production and marketing will highlight the second day's program, and winners of the 1978 Texas Soybean Yield Contest will be announced, notes an agronomist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Fondy asked Floyd Galloway, a student council sponsor, if the student representatives had not already made some recommendations. Galloway said they did but the recommendations had not yet reached Dr. Webb. One of their requests was for a career day later in the year. This was done several years ago. Fondy also asked Pinson to mention a teacher of the year award to the Chamber of Commerce.

ORGANIZING FOR COMMUNITY ACTION-----

Good leaders are the catalyst to community improvement, and the Extension Service can assist in leadership development and in planning and organizing for action.

COUNCIL MEETING CON'T.

NEW CODE
Fields recommended and the council agreed that since the building code is in effect and operating smoothly, it's time for the city to adopt a plumbing and electrical code as originally planned.

Fields said the codes used in Plainview and Lubbock can be adapted for Abernathy needs. The city will enlist professional electricians and plumbers in the community to help work out reasonable standards strict enough to protect the city but not so strict as to keep anyone from making a living.

WATER LINE
The city water line to Tim Hill's home at 1st St. and Ave. D was laid only six inches deep. The extremely cold weather lately is causing him problems because of this shallow line.

The council authorized the water department to run a deeper, more protected line to his property. The project involves about 100 feet of line. Hill is responsible for installation from the city line to his house.

CITY FENCE
The city is in the process of cleaning up its acre of land on 12th St. in Lakeview Addition and someone offered to do the clean-up in return for some of the chain link fence. Since the city has had several offers through the years from people wanting to buy the fence, Fields suggested that to be fair, the council put it up for bids. The council, though, decided to keep it for future use.

LEASE ADJUSTMENT
Lindell Myatt leases and farms city sewer farm land. The city's new landfill, however, covers 8.5 acres of what he leased. That's 1/3 of what he had under cultivation. Therefore, the council decided to make an adjustment and take $50 per acre (or $425 total) off his payment to the city this year, $180.92 off in 1980, and $92.28 in 1981.

COMMITTEE REPORT
Fields reported that the Building Improvement Steering Committee had its first meeting January 8 to decide what kind of meeting place facility will best fill community needs. The committee plans to have a recommendation by the April 7th election so voters can decide whether to support or reject the effort. Councilmen were pleased with the good attendance at the committee meeting. All but one of those appointed took part. The committee was to meet again January 15.

By age 16, the average child spends more hours watching TV than in attending school, reports Patricia Lamson, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

The All-Region Band is made up of students from B, A, and AA schools in Region 16, South Zone. Kids chosen will attend a clinic January 25 and 26 conducted by Dr. Charles Traylor of Abilene Christian College. Mr. Eddie Chance of Lubbock Christian College organized the clinic.

All-Region Band members from Abernathy will perform with the band in concert at Monterey High School in Lubbock January 27 at 6:30 PM. Music on the program that evening will be Sabre and Spurs by Sousa, Satiric Dances by Norman della Jolo; selections from the musical "Annie" by Philip Lang, Alleluia by Thompson, and Trombone Country by James Christensen.

The public is invited to the concert. An admission fee of $1 will be charged at the door. You do not have to buy tickets ahead of time.

HATTIE FORBUS' 88TH. BIRTHDAY

I called Mrs. Hattie Forbus Sunday on another news item, and in the course of our conversation, I learned that Sunday (Jan. 14) was her 88th birthday. She and her late husband, A. B. Forbus, moved from Winters to the farm east of town, which she still owns, in January of 1926, and Mrs. Forbus has lived on that farm all of those 53 years. (BFD)

Dangers, as we all know, permeate our very existence. We can't eat vegetables because of pesticides. We can't eat beef because of food additives. We can't smoke because of cancer. We can't breathe because of air pollution. We can't drink diet sodas because of saccharin.

The government has been very good to warn us of these dangers. Just recently I read in the Round Rock Leader where the CPS commission warns us of a sofa menace due to the natural fibers used in upholstering furniture.

The government, however, falls far short in issuing enough warnings. Being the Good Samaritan that I am, and looking out for the well-being of our society, I wish to point out further dangers omitted by our erstwhile bureaucrats.

A pleasure . . . and a challenge!

That's the way Ben McMullin, PRINCIPAL STRUCTURAL ENGINEER for Southwestern Public Service, sees his job . . . his role in the boy scouts . . . and life!

"You know, I've got some 30 years in scouting. I've done it all . . . workin' with the boys and the adult leaders. Lookin' back, I think the highlight in scouting for me was taking 11 boys to the National Jamboree in Idaho. Now that was an experience! It's been a pleasure . . . and a challenge. Same as my job at SPS. I'm the Principal Structural Engineer in charge of the power plant group . . . that's the steel and concrete that holds up the place, you might say. It's very exacting work. We combine past experiences with research on new and better materials and products . . . trying to make the next power plant we build more efficient than the last one. It's a real challenge but that's what it's all about . . . keeping the costs down for everybody. I've been at it 25 years now and I'm glad to be part of that team. We're doing the job we set out to do.

SPS has encouraged me in my job and in all my civic activities. You bet I'm proud to work for SPS . . . and for my community. For me, it's hard to imagine one without the other."

JOY OF SHARING

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A man's house had been broken into. Fifty dollars had been stolen. But the thief had never been caught.

One day the man received twenty-five dollars in the mail with this note: "I stole fifty dollars from you. I am ashamed. Remorse is gnawing on me, so I am sending you this money. If it gnaws again, I'll send you the balance."

But nothing is ever rightly settled until it is settled rightly. And trifling with sin is no trifling sin.

He forfeits his future here and hereafter who seeks goods without God, culture without conscience, power without purity, intelligence without integrity, and rejoicing without repentance.

God cannot forgive until we forsake. Nor can He cleanse without confession. The Bible says, "Conceal your faults, and you will not prosper; confess and give them up, and you will find mercy."

Our confession and God's mercy are like two buckets in a well. While the one ascends, the other descends.

BASKETBALL SEASON

Abernathy Antelopes

ON TO DISTRICT

Lady Lopes Enter District with 13 to 8 record

(By Milt Pope)

The Abernathy Lady have completed a successful non-district campaign and enter district play with a 13 win 8 loss showing. Coach Diana Lewis is pleased with the team's progress at this point and says the team is definitely a threat for the district championship.

Coach Lewis points out that the Lady Lopes are young and inexperienced and have played at times when the lack of varsity experience shows. For a successful district slate, the Lady Lopes will need to mature and maintain consistency in each game.

The Lady Lopes have had to make the transition from six person to five person play this year. Coach Lewis believes the team has adjusted well and made steady improvements while losing only to top-notch teams, including several state-ranked clubs.

Antelopes Enter District with 13 to 6 record

(By Milt Pope)

The Antelopes have wrapped up one of the strongest non-district slates of any AA team in this area with a 13 win 6 loss record. Coach Carl Irlbeck and his charges are ready to begin district play with the confidence that playing a strong schedule brings. The Lopes rely heavily on underclassmen but make up for this with experience, since most of these people played with the varsity last season.

Coach Irlbeck expects the strongest competition in district play to come from Tulia Hornets. The Hornets are blessed with size and talent and are ranked in the 10 AA teams in the state in at least one poll. The Lopes have been ranked in top 20 in the AA polls themselves and Coach Irlbeck states that they have the ability to win the district championship. Teamwork and desire are two factors which will propel the Lopes to be championship and on into state playoffs.

CARDS OF THANKS

Thanks to everyone for your kind expressions of sympathy, for the cards, flowers, and thoughtfulness when our mother passed away.

Lon & Vivian Garmickle

Your love, prayers, calls, visits, flowers, gifts and cards, were such a great help to me while I was in the hospital and since coming home. It is wonderful to be encouraged by so many wonderful people. It is my prayer that God will richly bless you each day.

Jill Havens

I would like to thank the Frontier Savings Association for the portable television they gave away at their open house Jan. 7. It was such a shock when Tommy called me at the hospital and announced that my name had been drawn. We had just gotten Jill checked into her room when she called. Needless to say that helped us get our minds off Jill's surgery for awhile.

I would also like to thank R. D. Presley for drawing my name.

COTTON PRODUCERS IN HALE TO MEET

Hale County cotton producers and agribusinessmen will elect a Businessman Director to Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. at 1:00 p. m. meeting on Tuesday, January 23, at the Hale County Agriculture Building, Plainview.

The meeting will be held following the lunch to be served in connection with the Hale County Soil Fertility Day which will begin at 10:00 a. m.

Announcement of the election comes from Henry Kveton of Petersburg, Hale County Producer Director to the 25-county cotton organization, and John McQuien of Plainview, current Businessman Director. Each of the counties in PCC territory has two directors, one a businessman and the other a cotton producer. They are elected on alternate years for two-year terms. Each is eligible for re-election every second year.

All producers and businessmen are invited to the meeting. However, under new PCC By-Laws, only current dues-paying members of PCC will be eligible to be elected a director or to vote in this election. This provision of the by-laws will be fully explained at the meeting.

A PCC staff member will conduct the election and show a slide presentation which explains the organization and its objectives.
