MIKE IRISH

Mike Irish Named Director of Texas Commerce Bank In Lubbock

A former Abernathian, Mike Irish, a Lubbock attorney, has been named a director of the Texas Commerce Bank in Lubbock. An AHS graduate, Mike is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Irish of Abernathy. J.L., who has been a director of that bank since August of 1962, was made an advisory director when Mike was elected to the board of directors of Texas Commerce Bank. Clyde Tatum, who has been a director of TCB since January of 1950, also was named an advisory director when his son, Claude Tatum, II, was elected director last week.

Mike Irish is the President-Elect of the Texas Young Lawyers Association, and will assume the Presidency some time in the summer of 1979.

Irish, who received his B.B.A. and Doctor of Jurisprudence degrees at Texas Tech University, has served Lubbock County as assistant county attorney and assistant criminal district attorney. He is a member of the Lubbock County Bar Association, State Bar of Texas and American Bar Association.

He is currently serving on the board of directors of the Texas Boy's Ranch.

Mike is a member of the Administrative Board of the First United Methodist Church in Lubbock.

Larry Griffin, Carmen Lopez To Try For School Board Representatives

Larry Griffin, local pharmacist and President of West Texas Junior Basketball Association, is a candidate for school board representative in the April 7 election. He was an unsuccessful candidate for the office last year but served four years on Abernathy City Council. He feels his experience in municipal government qualifies him well for service on the school board.

Griffin is a native of Earth; his wife, Ann, is a Canyon native. They have lived here 17 years. Their two children are Sharla, an AHS sophomore, and Micah, a 7th grader. The family attends First Methodist Church.

Griffin says the most important responsibility of school board representatives is to reflect the feelings of the community on any aspect of school policy. He wants to be in a position to do this.

He'd like to see a volunteer-not appointed-group of interested parents and teachers evaluate present school board policy to see if it does reflect community feelings. He wonders if school faculty members are ever asked for constructive criticism.

Griffin thinks policy that truly represents the community should be a joint effort.

Carmen Lopez, local housewife and former teacher aide, is a candidate for school board representative in the April 7 election. Carmen said she has thought about running for the office for two years and finally decided to do it.

She attended Abernathy schools but did not graduate. She earned her GED (high school equivalency certificate) in 1970 and worked here as a teacher's aide from 1970 to 1975. She is active in Saint Isidore Catholic Church and is secretary of

Her husband, Joe, is the paint department foreman at EMCO in Plainview. They have five children: Joey-15, Rachel-13, Eddy-12, Becki-11, and Rosi-9.

Carmen's parents, Daniel Mary Ramirez, are both long time employees of Abernathy schools. Mr. Ramirez, now retired, was a custodian from 1962 until 1972. Mrs. Ramirez has been a cafeteria employee since 1965.

Carmen said she thinks it's necessary that people—especially Mexican-Americans—be more informed about what goes on at school. They need a representative whose vote may not have much effect but who can at least see what is going on and communicate that to others.

UPDATE ON MEETING PLACE PROJECTS

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)

A community attempt to fill the need for public meeting facilities went two different directions last fall by mutual agreement. The catalyst for both projects was Abernathy Stock Show Association which needs show barn facilities about four days a year but doesn't want to maintain it the rest of the time. At the same time, city officials were feeling pressure from community groups with no place to have various gatherings. They were also faced with obvious need for expansion of the city library. Harvey Lutrick, chairman of the Stock Show organization, called a meeting of interested persons to discuss a common solution to both problems.

The stock show group's idea was something associated with the school, on school property, and combined with additional athletic facilities. Control of that type of facility, however, knocked out provisions for the public library, dances, bridge games, and other activities. The consensus of that meeting was that stock show facilities are incompatible with basic community needs and that school regulations will prohibit many meetings and activities needed by the general community. They decided that the city should plan a downtown facility to take care of those needs and the stock show group would try to work out something combined with the school.

When they discussed financing, the rough guesses amounted to $200,000 for the meeting room and $20,000 for the library. City Manager Larry Fields said a $300,000 issue on 11 year payout at 11 1/2 per $100 valuation would probably require an 18 1/2 percent increase in taxes. That would be an increase of $36 per year ($3 per month) on a $40,000 home which is listed as $24,000 on city tax rolls.

The city's bond advisor, though, will help the council choose the bond indenture most advantageous to the people. He might suggest a payout arrangement which would require no tax increase.

Mayor Thompson said he thinks it will be well worth it to the community. Ward said people are generally enthusiastic about the project, especially since it will give kids a place to gather for music and dances here at home under supervision.

Councilman Jerry Givens asked how they felt the general "Proposition 13 attitude" of tax revolt will affect the project. Mayor Thompson said he thinks people feel differently about taxes spent locally on something they can see and use.

Fields said he'd try to arrange a February 27 afternoon meeting for the council with the city's bond advisor and the architect who would have final blueprints and cost estimates.

food service to the meeting room. The present library room will be fine for small gatherings when the library is moved to new quarters.

The proposed arrangement will make it possible for three groups to meet at the same time. Heating and cooling of the areas will be arranged so none will be used until required for meetings.

Library remodeling plans include carpet and paneling, glass on the north wall (where the entrance will be), lowering the ceiling, addition of another restroom and wash up area for hobby projects.

Ward said the committee tried to make plans as basic as possible and still fill community needs. They thought to save money, people might prefer to build the structure and finish it nicely later as funds become available. The council, however, thought it would be better to include cost of finishing out in the necessary bond issue. Later funds for finishing would have to come out of the city's everyday finances which are already tight.

When they discussed financing, the rough guesses amounted to $200,000 for the meeting room and $20,000 for the library. School Building Plans Committee

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)

The building plans committee appointed by Abernathy School Board met for the first time Thursday, February 15. Twenty-four of the 27 people appointed attended the meeting. They decided there is enough need to justify a combination stock show/school and community recreation facility and listed 25 possible uses.

The suggestions amount to a giant size YMCA indoor summer camp for the whole community but they wanted to include everything in hopes of getting some of the desired features. They listed stock show, livestock breeding sales (commercial breeders to rent facility), rooms for fitting livestock, meeting places (for FFA, Young Farmers, short courses, adult and commercial meetings, Young Homemakers, CPR and 1st first aid courses), youth basketball, school athletics (tennis, basketball, volleyball, indoor track, P.E., off season program), pep rally, annual meetings (gins, elevators, chamber of commerce banquets), Boy and Girl Scouts, handball and racquetball courts, dressing facilities, Lions Club, swimming pool, summer recreation (all community, weight and mat rooms), school sponsored dances, 4th of July celebration, clubs, (home demonstration, etc.), adult recreation, food serving facilities, family reunions, talent shows, indoor rifle range, storage (athletic equipment), adequate parking, roller skating, and a full time director for the facility.

Chairman Harvey Lutrick mentioned as the probable site, six acres of land by the football field that the school owns. All agreed the facility must be financed with a bond issue. Committee member Joe Lovelace said it must be separate from any other school improvements. The proposed facility must stand on its own merit.

The committee's major reservation about the project involved restrictions on community use of local school board policy and state school laws. For instance, local board policy does not permit school dances or rental of facilities for dances. It also prohibits use of the buildings after 6:30 PM on Wednesdays so as not to interfere with mid-week church services. It prohibits prolonging of scheduling of regular use by local organizations.

The cafeteria can be used for banquets only if the food served is prepared by school cafeteria staff. This has in the past eliminated Lions Club pancake suppers and catered dinners.

State law prohibits alcoholic beverages, smoking except in specified areas, and Sunday meetings (because state employees cannot be required to work on Sundays). Ancient state law prohibits card games on school premises.

Some committee members pointed out that local policy can be changed. Others said perhaps so, but that could work two ways according to who happens to be serving on the board at any given time. Larry Griffin said the board really needs to say for sure what activities and organizations will be approved before committee members can help sell the project to the community. Frankie Mills agreed that lots of people will not vote for the project unless the board does this.

Charles Bowen said the city's facility won't be open ended either and Griffin added that the community must look at the school facility with open eyes—not as a thing of grandeur that everybody can use.

Council Sticks To Building Code, Committee Submits Electrical Code

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)

Abernathy City Council stuck to the building code Tuesday last week and turned down an appeal by Otis Pope that a building he owns at 302 Ave. D not be condemned. Pope said the building isn't worth bringing up to standards but since he only uses it for seed storage, he felt he should be allowed to repair and clean up the outside of the building.

The council sympathized with Pope and said they hate to do it but have too much time and effort in the code to set a precedent of leniency. The purpose of the code is to improve the looks of the town—especially Ave. D which gives first impressions.

They suggested he move the building and Councilman Harold Thompson offered to lend him a fork lift and truck to help the moving effort. Councilman Toler suggested the property might be worth more to Pope if cleared off the building. Pope disagreed and said there will be an awful lot of empty lots in town if every house in the shape of his building is torn down. Mayor Thompson pointed out that only unoccupied ones come under that provision of the code.

After a couple more good tries, Pope asked City Manager Larry Fields if the city could help with demolition of the building. Fields said the city has arranged for use of a bulldozer for another project and if Pope wants it done while the machine is available, the city will do it for him.

Mr. Pope accepted the council's decision with good humor saying, "Well, I've only got one problem now—where am I going to put my seed?"

ELECTRICAL CODE
Local electricians James Conn, Dean Wesley, Billy Gist, Toby Cox, and Bill Scott attended the council meeting to explain the electrical code they adapted for Abernathy. The council previously asked these men to work out a suitable code for the city. City Manager Fields said they took the Plainview code, which is an adaptation of the national code, and adapted it further for local use.

The code sets licensing and permit rules for electricians who do work in the city, standards for installation of electricity, stipulates a board of appeals, and an electrical inspector.

School faculty member Jerry Adams and Spec Cox described livestock show facilities at Muleshoe and Post (which are under county or private control) and one at Texas Tech. Griffin mentioned the low cost of racketball courts and the benefits the game offers older citizens. Coach Larry Aldridge mentioned the school's lack of storage for athletic equipment and indoor practice facilities. He also talked about summer recreation for young kids including instruction for which fees would be charged. The swimming pool was one of the most discussed features. Mona Toler envisions swimming as part of the athletic program as well as for the community recreation. Several other committee members were also anxious that it be considered. Former school board member Loren West said swimming pools are terribly expensive and cause lots of problems with disease prevention, maintenance, and liability insurance. He thinks if the citizens want a pool, the city should build and be responsible for it and let the school use it. After all discussion, Lurick reminded the committee that its job was only to look into the needs and see if they warrant further consideration. He will report their findings to the school board which will take it from there.

The following from Texas Tech University PR department will explain why we do not receive names of all of our people who make the honor rolls at Tech and other schools: "This list may not be complete. Because of state privacy laws, we cannot release hometown stories about students unless we receive their permission. Many do not give us this permission. Farm Worker Froze to Death In Winter Storm

A Mexican National, Raymundo Resendiz Santos, 49, apparently froze to death some time late Friday night or shortly after midnight Saturday morning. His body was discovered by a passing motorist on a turn row of a farm east of the intersection of Farm Roads 54 and 400, west and north of Petersburg. Justice of the Peace Jeanne Marr of Abernathy pronounced Santos dead from exposure to the cold at noon Saturday. Deputies said that they investigated thoroughly and found no indication of foul play. No autopsy was ordered.

A Sheriff department 4-wheel drive vehicle brought the body from the turn row to the paved highway where a Chambers Funeral Home vehicle was waiting. The body remained at the funeral home here until Monday morning when it was sent to Acambaro, Gto., Mexico. Justice Marr's report said death was due to Hypothermia caused by being exposed to abnormally low temperature. Santos' papers indicated that he had been approved for work in the United States. He had been employed on a farm in the Petersburg area.

Mrs. Wade Britt of Lovington, N. M. underwent surgery in Methodist, Lubbock. She is a sister of Mrs. Artie Oswalt.

This giant snow dog was molded from last weekends snow fall. It was in the yard of a home in the 600 block of 15th St. It was a real work of art with a bone made of snow in it's mouth and a scarf around it's neck.

SNOW STORY

When I get out of bed each morning I have a habit of looking out to see what the weather is like. Friday morning February 16 when I looked out about 6:45 it looked like a nice morning. I went about my business getting Richard's lunch ready and getting him off to work and then I was busy getting the children up, washing and the usual chores that need to be done before leaving for school and work. One of the children came into the living room and looked out and said, boy it really is snowing. Much to my surprise it was and the ground was covered. By the time we left for school there was a good bit of snow. It was just beautiful. The snowflakes were so large.

By mid morning I saw people driving down Ave. D with their children and we heard reports on the radio that surrounding schools around us were turning out school. We made a call to school and they said, that they were having a meeting to discuss turning out school early and that parents were already arriving at school and picking up their children. By noon we decided to close up shop and go home for the afternoon. My car was parked out in front of the office covered with snow by this time. I took a broom and got it uncovered and made my way to school to pick-up my children. There were cars everywhere with parents getting the children. It was really snowing hard and I made the mistake of turning off my windshield wipers and they froze and would not work. I got out

Public Schools Week in Texas Is March 5-9

AUSTIN--"Texas Public Schools: Democracy in Action." That's the theme for the annual observance of Texas Public Schools Week, scheduled March 5 through 9.

The Texas State Teachers Association is joining with other education organizations and Masonic bodies throughout the state in urging teachers, students, and the public to participate in the 29th annual observance of the special week.

TSTA President Virginia Stacey of San Antonio is calling on members to lend their support to the state-wide observance in this 125th year of free public school education in Texas.

In a letter to members, Mrs. Stacey points out that TSTA is on the eve of its own 100th birthday anniversary, having been established in Mexico in 1880.

Gov. Bill Clements recently signed a proclamation designating March 5 through 9 as Texas Public Schools Week and urging citizens to take part in local observances.

The first school week in March is set aside each year to give Texas citizens a special invitation to visit their public schools.

Many school buildings participate with open houses, classroom displays, and special exhibits of student work.

"We want parents and other school patrons to meet teachers and get a better understanding of the way their schools operate," Mrs. Stacey says.

"They will discover that Texas teachers care about their children and need parental support in their everyday efforts to help children learn."

The Texas State Board of Education has cooperated with Texas Masons in their sponsorship of the special week since the first observance in 1951.

Work Underway On One-Act Play For UIL Contest

Almost every day February through March, the cast and crew of Abernathy High School's one act play prepares their presentation for UIL contest. Director Gary Stalcup planned a detailed practice schedule for the 15 actors and crew-alternates. The play is "Eden," by Jerome McDonough of Amarillo. He is the author of many plays for high school performers.

In the play, the Leader of an unspecified country announces his displeasure with the quality of one facet of the National Product-children. The Chairman of the Board of a corporation, meanwhile, unveils a new product--synthetic human beings called Geniots (Genies, for short).

The new "children" (18-year-olds) will be available to families whose women have been inoculated against fertility. A strong conflict develops between those favoring the new program and those opposing it. The opponents claim that Genies will eventually take over the world, making the human race obsolete.

To find out what happens, attend a dress rehearsal or assembly performance scheduled for late March.

Major characters are played by Cindy Stillwell, Dana Flud, Charles Badley, and Gay Hobgood. The other actors (who play several parts each) are Cliff Ward, Beverly Taylor, Buddy Bowen, Shana Toler, Linda Adkisson, Penny Evans, Lisa Wolf, Leah Skipper, Susan Sanders, Jill Blalock, and Jorene Hobgood.

Crew members, who also serve as alternates, are Tony Heath, Kelly Mills, Jolanna Ward, Carrie Smyers, Sharla Griffin, Jane Sanderson, and Lisa Garza.

Look Who's Here

Congratulations to Henry and Judy Edwards, Jr. of Smyer on the birth of a boy at 6:27 AM February 7. His name is Jason John Floyd Edwards. He weighed 8 lbs. 1 1/4 oz.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards of Abernathy. Maternal grandparents are Mr. Floyd Howell of Big Spring and Mrs. Sue Howell of Lubbock. Maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Howell of Big Spring and Mrs. Alpha White of Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gonzales are parents of a son born Feb. 17, weighing 7 pounds 7 ounces.

School Board Extends Heat & Cool Estimates & Academic Letter

(By Jacquelyn Smyers)

After an executive session to discuss personnel at its February meeting, Abernathy School Board voted to accept the resignation of Marsha King from the HONDA program and to hire Mary Ann Norman to fill a vacancy in elementary school. Lynda Thomas in junior high, and Claudia Helm for the HONDA program. These three will work the remainder of the school year.

The board voted to extend for one year the two year contracts of administrative personnel Earl Carter, Mitch LeMoine, Frank Bartlett, Gid Adkisson, Charles Bowen, and Wayne Starch. They renewed the one year contracts of departmental personnel George Riddell, Jerry Adams, and Gerald Kelley and coaches Aldridge, Ater, Dearing, Irbeck, Bullard, Cagle, Cox, Lewis, Cassler, and Luther.

HEAT & COOL
Dr. Webb explained the school's options for modernizing the heating and cooling systems as figured by the school architect. He also brought out the fact that the elementary and middle school buildings are not insulated at all and that the rest is a 40% heat loss through the windows.

Daniel Fondy and Jerry Oswalt said they think insulating the buildings is a must but asked how much money the school has available to spend on the heating and cooling systems. Dr. Webb said the estimated $3500 to replace the high school boilers would be no strain but the cost of air conditioning and revamping the systems of other buildings might have to be included in the building improvement bond issue.

He suggested board members study the various plans figured and consider the matter again in March.

ACADEMIC LETTER
Board President Billie Harrison said he'd had more comment on David Pinson's suggestion of an academic letter award than on anything else discussed at meetings in a long time. Pinson said he too was surprised at people's enthusiasm.

They discussed qualification for letter awards in ball sports, band, and cheer leading and which should be required if an academic letter is initiated. Richard Howard suggested they ask the student council and National Honor Society to work out suitable criteria. Several men thought membership in the NHS might be a good qualification.

Jerry Oswalt mentioned seeing two Tullia students with letter jackets and the word "scholarship" on their letter. He thought that school might have an award like the one under consideration here.

VANDALISM PAYMENT
Mr. Carter reported an $800 payment to the school for damage by vandals earlier in the year. The insurance company paid so much and the county juvenile court made the responsible persons pay the difference between insurance reimbursement and actual cost of repair.

REPORTS
Dr. Webb reported that school enrollment dropped 15 students in January and that the cafeteria is still a little in the red but will pick up soon. He reported that TASA-TASB might offer liability insurance soon at rates comparable to what the school now pays.

He said school personnel are looking at the "I Can" program being used in Petersburg schools, as suggested by board member Fondy, to assess the problems and possibilities. He mentioned a local parent advisory committee's suggestion for a school nurse and elementary playground facilities.

He said the school's present carrier of fleet insurance can add coverage for vandalism to school buses as requested by the board, and that he has no figures on bus communication systems yet but will see displays of that equipment at the American Association of School Administrators convention in New Orleans this month.

DOES HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF?

By Larry Aldridge

The incidents in Iran spanning the last several months bring the question to mind, "Does history repeat itself?" The occurrences in Iran of 1977 and '78 are strikingly similar to those in Russia of 1916 and 1917.

In both countries, strong dictators ruled with an iron hand suppressing opposition by killing many of the rioters and opponents of the government--Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi in Iran and Czar Nicholas Romanov II in Russia. Romanov abdicated the throne, and Pahlavi left the throne.

Both were succeeded by Provisional governments that lasted only a short time--Shahpour Bakhtiar's in Iran and Alexander Kerensky's in Russia. Both governments were short lived as Kerensky's fell in six months and Bakhtiar's in less than two months.

The leaders of the new governments coming into power were both in exile prior to the overthrowing of the Provisional government. Nicolai Lenin of Russia had spent nine years and nine months away from Russia living in Switzerland. Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini has lived in exile in Paris, France for the past fifteen years.

Both Lenin and Khomeini are revered in their home lands. Russia is full of relics and statues of Lenin. His mausoleum is visited by millions each year and the Soviet Union's second largest city, Leningrad, is named after him. Khomeini is worshiped in Iran by millions of Moslems and cities are covered with posters of him.

It remains to be seen if Iran under Khomeini will enjoy the success the USSR did under Lenin and his successors, but the question keeps popping up in one's mind, "Does history repeat itself?"

Pioneer Seed Firm Promotes Don Michalec

PLAINVIEW, Texas--A native of Moulton, Texas, has been chosen by the Southwest Division of Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., to fill a newly created position at the Plainview production facility.

Don Michalec, who joined the Southwest Division as assistant plant manager in 1978, has been promoted to the new post of plant operations manager, according to Duane Griffith, general production manager.

"The operation of the Pioneer plant at Plainview has become very complex over the past three years," Griffith said in making the announcement. "The plant has the capability and capacity to simultaneously handle several crops. In fact, on any given work day, the operations of sorghum and corn harvest plus cottonizing, rework, drying and shipping may be occurring."

"With this expansion, an increased need has developed for planning and scheduling to insure efficient operation. The position of plant operations manager was designed to fill that need," Griffith said.

Before his employment with Pioneer, Michalec worked for another seed company for 11 years in various management positions.

Dr. Gary L. Rea has been assigned to the Pioneer cotton breeding facilities at Vernon. His main areas of responsibility include investigating the potential for development of hybrid cottons and development of glandless cotton varieties. Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc., was founded in 1929 by the late Henry A. Wallace. Pioneer was the first company formed for

Bids Opened For I-27 Work

AUSTIN--Bids were expected to be opened last week by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for reconstruction of some 8 miles of US 87 to Interstate Highways standards.

The existing highway will be ripped up and rebuilt to Interstate Highway standards and will include safety lighting, signs, curb and gutter, and safety rest area driveways.

The project is expected to be completed in about 450 working days, according to V. G. Chetty of Lubbock, the department's engineer in charge of the work. Overall project supervision is by Lubbock District Engineer George C. Wall, Jr.

"They're Just Like Family . . ."

That's what James Stovall, Southwestern Public Service Company High Voltage Substation Electrician, says about the people he works with at SPS and the boys at the Maverick Club.

My boy Mark was in about the third grade when he came home and told his mom and me, 'I'm gonna be a wrestler.' Sure enough he goes out for the Maverick Club's wrestling team. He got more and more involved in it...brought a note home askin' could I come up and help start a booster club. Well, I got involved and now I'm really into it. My other two boys are wrestling and I do everything I can to help. I raise money, drive the bus...put 11,000 miles on a new van in 'bout 6 months driving Maverick boys to tournaments. I'm even a substitute daddy when their folks can't be at a tournament. I'll hug 'em and cheer 'em on. And the big boys watch out for the little ones, too. Those Maverick Club boys, they're just something special to me. Just like family. And you know, I feel the same 'bout Southwestern Public Service Company. They're like family too, everybody pitches in to get the job done. And they take good care of you. Take the Company Training program. Eleven years ago, I didn't have a trade, no job security. Now, thanks to SPS, I'm a journeyman electrician...that's a trade for life. My family...my trade...that special feeling I get working with the Maverick Club boys...those are things nobody can take away from me."

JOY OF SHARING

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A charming little girl asked the minister of a big church, "Please, sir, may I join your church?"

"You may," he answered, "if you are a Christian. We accept only Christians. Are you a Christian?"

"Yes, sir," she replied. "I am sure I am saved."

"Who saved you?" he questioned.

"Me and God," she answered.

Startled, the preacher said, "But the Bible says, 'By grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast.'"

"Oh," exclaimed the girl, "I forgot to tell you. I only did the letting. God did the saving."

There is a split today in Christendom. The line of separation does not run between Catholic and Protestant. It runs between those who believe that salvation is of God and those who believe that salvation is of man.

The Bible says it is of God. Will you let God save you now?

Profiles and Things

by don watkins

I have a friend who is admittedly apathetic toward certain events concerning national affairs. He tells me he could care less about women's lib, ERA, or Virginia Slims.

He's always making derisive quips and jokes using his wife as the embodiment of the female gender. Ever on the defensive, he denies accusations labeling him chauvinistic, but the themes of his stories seem to belie his negations.

For instance, he told me once that he had bought his wife a birthday gift and hid it. She didn't find it for three months.

"Where on earth did you hide it?" I asked.

"In the oven," he replied. "Oh, I see. Then you're telling me your wife shuns the kitchen."

"One could say that. She came in the other day and asked to go someplace to eat we hadn't been for awhile."

"And did you take her?"

"No, I just said how about our dining room."

"Then you really can't deny, and be honest about it, that you're not put out about all these feminist movements we read and hear about these days."

"Well," he says slowly, "they really don't bother me all that much."

"Then why do you complain about taking your wife golfing among other things?"

"Because of this equality junk, that's why. They tell us they're equal and turn right around and demand we spot them 25 yards on the driving tees. And that's not all," he continues, "if I don't open doors for the wife, she gripes. She gripes if I'm late and never, never does she carry out the trash. Not a woman's job, she says."

"But after all," I tell him, "she is a female and is entitled to respect."

"That's all well and good," he answers, "but I'm sick and tired of being belittled for the sake of so-called equality. The rest of you men may want to coddle them and pamper them, or whatever, but as for me, I believe it's time we men take our own stand and offer resistance."

"Okay, Okay," I say. "Have it your way. Now, what time are you going to be over for the weekly poker game?"

"Oh, er, uh," he stammers. "I, uh, can't make it tonight. Blanche tells me I'm taking her to the movies."

Georgia Bartlett To Teach Art Class

Local aspiring artists will have the opportunity in the near future to study beginning oil painting under Georgia Bartlett. Because of many requests, she plans to offer basic instruction in classes one night a month.

She received permission from Abernathy School Board to use the Academic Center and Art Lab for private classes. She will charge a fee and class enrollment will be limited.

She asked interested people, whether beginners or experienced oil painters, to attend a meeting in the high school art lab Monday, February 26 at 7 PM. It will last about 40 minutes.

"oh, er, uh," he stammers. "I, uh, can't make it tonight. Blanche tells me I'm taking her to the movies."

For an Interesting and Entertaining Season

You can't see the smoke for the clouds

Not long ago these giant stacks were belching vast clouds of pollutants. But electric precipitators now scrub the smoke inside the stacks and clear the air above them. Ecology needs electricity. Clean low-cost power from the rural electric cooperative is a vast rural resource which contributes to a cleaner rural environment while Helping Texas Grow.

THE SPANISH TEACHER

—Sadowsky y Garcia ©appl. '78

The word "it" is a real problem for students of Spanish. In English we always use "it" when the subject is understood. We say "It is pretty" or "It is late". In Spanish if the subject is understood we just say "Is pretty" "Es bonito" (ehs boh NEE toh) or "Is late" "Es tarde" (ehs TAR deh).

Practice these expressions.

It is pretty.	Es bonito.	(ehs boh NEE toh)
It is late.	Es tarde.	(ehs TAHR deh)
It is mine.	Es mio.	(ehs MEE oh)
It's blue.	Es azul.	(ehs ah SOOL)
It's big.	Es grande.	(ehs GRAHN deh)
It's true.	Es verdad.	(ehs vehr DAHD)
