Thirty-Eight Attend Sunshine Group

The Sunshine Group met at regular time, Thursday, Sept. 20 at 11 a. m. in the city club room. We had a very good meeting. There were thirty-eight in attendance. We missed Floyd and Dorothy Shipman very much, someone reported that Dorothy has been moved to Hale Center Hospital in room 38. Everyone signed a card that was taken to her. ## Kirk Lane and Kim Bartell Exchange Vows In Double-Ring Ceremony In Andrews

Twin branched candelabra, holding seven lighted cathedral tapers and tree candelabra entwined with palm leaves, and arrangements of white gladioli, lavender daisies, carnations, statice and baby's breath graced the altar of Faith Lutheran Church for the 6:00 p.m. formal marriage Sept. 1 of Miss Kimberly Gayle Bartell and William Kirk Lane. Rev. Paul Rist, pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The communion rails were entwined with greenery and candles and greenery marked the pews.

Christi Smith, organist, presented traditional wedding music and accompanied Jana and Jamie Mosley as they sang "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bartell of 1103 N.W. 9th St. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lane of Abernathy are parents of the bridegroom.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride was formally gowned in a white Quiana knit featuring silk Venice lace and bridal pearl trim. The fitted empire bodice with a Queen Anne neckline, was designed with a sheer English net yoke sprinkled with lace motifs and pearls. Motifs of the lace and pearls accented the long fitted sleeves. The A-line silhouette shirt cascaded into a Watteau train and was finished with a band of lace. A custom designed picture hat of identical lace held her long veil of illusion which completely covered the train and she carried a cascade arrangement of white daisies, roses, baby's breath and purple statice with love-knot streamers ornamented by golden wedding rings. The traditional something-old and borrowed in her attire was a cameo necklace belonging to the groom's grandmother. She wore a blue garter and a six-pearl in her shoe.

Fredia Payne of Corpus Christi, former college room mate, attended as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Karen Coby of Farmers Branch, sorority sister of the bride, and Mary and Nancy Lane of Abernathy, sisters of the bridegroom. Attendants were attired in matching gowns of huckaberry Quiana designed with a crocheted knit blouse bodice featuring an oval neckline and split sleeves. The slim pleated blouse bodice featuring an oval neckline and split sleeves. The slim pleated skirts were floor length. They wore large picture hats of matching colors and carried colonial arrangements of huckaberry colored roses and lavender flowers accented with baby's breath and lavender streamers.

Dave Johnson of Washington, Pa. served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Mike Kerr of Lubbock, Larry Olive of Grand Prairie, Dave Pierce of Meadow, Larry Klafka of Lorenzo and Robert Wright of Andrews.

Following the ceremony, a reception honoring the nuptial couple was held in the Andrews Country Club. Dana Hamilton registered guests at a table enhanced by an invitation candle decorated with pink carnations, purple statice and baby's breath. Others in the houseparty included Vicki Blair, Peggy Greer, Catherine Tausch and Lori Jordan of Lubbock and Devi Bruton, Andrews.

The bride's table was spread with a full length white lace cloth featuring inserts of lavender ribbons. Centering the table was an elegant spiral gold candelabra with lighted white tapers and a floral arrangement of mixed flowers in shades of huckaberry and pink. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a nosegay of fresh flowers accenting the bride's chosen colors. Garlands of greenery graced the base of the punch bowl, candelabra and cake. Punch, mints and nuts were served with the cake. White wedding bell napkins imbricated in gold, "Kim and Kirk, Sept. 1, 1979" completed table decor.

The table holding the champagne fountain was accented with a nosegay of fresh flowers in the bride's selected colors.

The groom's table was spread with white linen. German chocolate cake, decorated with fresh fruit and flowers, was served with coffee from gold appointments. Flowers and garlands of greenery circled the gold coffee service and cake. The food table was laden with fresh vegetable dips, melon balls, chicken livers, peg legs, assorted finger sandwiches, nuts and chips.

Decorated baskets of rice roses were passed out at the reception by cousins of the bridal couple, Tina Byers of Oklahoma City and Cynthia Lackey of Comanche.

Following a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico the newlyweds are at home in Houston. For travel the bride wore a huckaberry knit dress with silver accessories and a corsage of white roses and daisies.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Tech University where she was member of Sigma Kappa Sorority. Her husband received a BBA degree in Management from Texas Tech and is employed in Houston by AMOCO Company.

A man on a streetcorner was heard to say, "Jesus is the only Somebody you can't match!" How true. He was unique in His birth and business.

No earthly person is ever born a king. He is born a prince. But Jesus was born a King. No one was ever King before Him, and there will never be a King Jesus the Second.

Early in His life an excited crowd wanted to "make Him a King." But the mob cried, "We will not have this Man to reign over us."

The day is coming when He will return to reign, for the Living Psalms declare, "The Lord is King." He your King?

Years ago there was a great Youth Conference in Liverpool. Students came from all over the world.

Something prevented the delegates from the Christian University of Japan from coming, and they promised to send a cable.

When it arrived it consisted of only three words: "Make Jesus King."

In some lives He is only over the threshold. In others He is on the throne. Where is Jesus in your life? "Make Jesus King!"

Great Society Group Meets

The Great Society Extension Homemakers Association had its first meeting of the fall season Monday, Sept. 16th at the Community Center with fifteen present.

Maybell Glass called the club to order with prayer. For an opening exercise the poem "My Prayer" was read. The roll call was answered to "What I did this summer I was proudest". Mrs. L.A. Suttle had charge of the program. She gave a demonstration on how to make popovers. It is a quick bread that may be served for breakfast with butter, honey or preserves or perhaps used for luncheon with a meat salad. She reminded the women that the test for a good popover is (1) should be well puffed, (2) well browned and (3) fairly dry on inside of the shell. They are very delectable.

Earlier in the day Maybell and Imogene Suttle attended council meeting at Plainview Agri. Bldg. where Maybell made the report on Great Society Club work for the year. It was a report of a very successful club year.

Maybell Glass and Imogene Suttle met in Plainview on Sept. 10th with all the Hale County clubs at the Reddy Room where County Extension Agent, Wynon Mayes gave a program on Public Speaking. Roll call was answered "How I over come my fear of public speaking." The council delegates were hostesses to the group which included Mrs. Suttle.
