Hills Attend GOP Convention

The State Republican Convention held June 20 and 21 at Sam Houston Coliseum in Houston was for the most part a unified convention, according to several Plainviewians and Ted Hill of Abernathy who attended as delegates.

Everybody seemed to be there for one purpose and that was to elect Ronald Reagan as President of the United States and get Republicans into offices of all kinds.

Twenty resolutions were presented and acted upon, 19 resolutions carried and 1 was tabled. The biggest challenge was the Pro-Life Revolution (against abortion-on-demand). This issue was brought up several times and by voice or standing vote withstood the challenges and was carried in tact.

An Agricultural Resolution which read: "Therefore, be it resolved that the Republican Party of Texas supports and promotes legislation and for programs to encourage the sale of raw agricultural products in the market, at prices on par with the rest of the economy," was carried.

A resolution urging congress to prepare a constitutional amendment limiting the term of federal judges to one 10 year term only was carried. A resolution that Bi-Lingual education be restricted to pre-school and 1st grade only was carried after some discussion. The following resolutions on these issues carried: against forced busing; to abolish the Department of Education and return total control of education to local school boards and state agencies; to open 750 million acres of federal estate to prudent exploration for hydrocarbons and other energy resources and to support repeal of the "Windfall Profits Tax"; Natural Gas Policy Act, federal price controls and to encourage private sector with as little regulation as possible to develop all forms of energy through the free enterprise system; opposed to limiting federal budget to a fixed percentage of gross national products and require a balanced federal budget; to increase national defense; against National Health Insurance; for a work permit program as a solution to the illegal alien problem; for tax reduction; for reduction of federal bureaucracies by a program such as sunset law; and return of the government of the American people to the elected officials who are answerable to the citizens; for the right to bear arms; for the right to work; for traditional families (the Republican Party of Texas resolved to support laws that encourage the traditional family unit and opposes the teaching of homosexuality as a life style in our public schools; marriage between homosexuals, adoption of children by homosexuals, and the model adoption law. The traditional family is defined as persons related by blood, heterosexual marriage or adoption in this resolution; for voluntary prayer in public schools; for workfare which is for the reform of all welfare programs for the purpose of returning control of such programs from the federal government to the states and counties, denying welfare payments to individuals who are able to work, but refuse to work; and restricting the eligibility of food stamps recipients to the truly needy.

A resolution on the drafting of women was tabled.

Speakers at the convention included: The Hon. Jon Lindsay, Hon. Bill Archer, Hon. Anne Armstrong, Hon. John Tower, Hon. William P. Clements, Jr., Hon. Ron Paul, Hon. Jack Kemp, Hon. James Collins.

Doris Hill attended the convention with Ted. They met an ex-Abernathian there also. Deana Smith, who moved from Abernathy to Ingram several years ago, Deana was a delegate to the convention.

They also visited their son and wife, John and Lyntha Hill in Bryan and Doris' sister and husband, Madrine and Ralph Glenn in Cisco on their return trip.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A little girl asked, "Mom, is Jesus a rose?" "Not really," she answered. "Why do you ask?" "Because," said the girl, "I heard the people singing in Sunday School. 'He's a rose.'" "No, no," corrected the mother. "You heard them singing, 'He arose.'" Christ died for our sins just as the Scriptures said He would, and He was buried. But He did not stay dead. Three days afterwards He arose from the grave, just as the prophets predicted.

Norman & Caroline Nible

MISSIONARIES TO SPEAK:

The First United Methodist Church of Abernathy will have special services on Sunday morning, July 13th. We will host a Missionary family, Norman and Caroline Nible with two of their children, Sharon and David.

The Nibles come to us from their work at Southwest Indian School near Peoria, Arizona. This is a boarding school with elementary and high school grades and has served 34 tribes since it was founded in 1952. At present there are 180 students enrolled who come from several states. The school curriculum is approved by the state of Arizona.

Norman and Caroline were born in Colorado. Norman is a graduate of Bartlesville Wesleyan College. Before going to their present position the Nibles worked at Twin Wells Indian School in Arizona where Norman served three years as school director.

Now, serving with World Gospel Missions out of Marian, Indiana the Nibles have three children of which two will be with them in Abernathy.

Sunday schedule begins at 9:45 a.m. with Norman and Caroline each talking to adult Sunday School classes and Sharon who is a High School Junior and David a High School Freshman meeting with the Jr & Sr Hi Youth classes combined. The morning worship at 10:55 will allow time for a slide presentation of their work and Norman speaking. Following will be a covered dish luncheon in the fellowship hall.

Everyone is invited to both services and a nursery will be provided says Tommie Beck, pastor.

LIBRARY NEWS

Vows Spoken

Rejeania Dawn Turner and Bobby Layne Grimley were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Saturday, June 21, at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church. The couple exchanged vows in a simple traditional ceremony before white trellis adorned with greenery. The Reverend Roswell Brunner of the Nazarene Church, officiated.

Cindy Turner, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Pauline Brunner served as bridesmaid. Both attendants were of Abernathy. Perry Evans attended as best man. The groomsmen was Jody Smyers.

Four-year-old Heather Ann Turner served the couple as flower girl. Cory Turner, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer. Dee Ann Attebury, pianist, provided wedding music and accompanied Toby Barrick as he sang "Time in a Bottle" and "Longer Than".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of voil and embroidered lace. Tiers of lace fell from her waist forming a cathedral length train. She also wore a matching veil which draped from a cap of embroidered lace and seed pearls. Her attendants were dressed in baby blue formal gowns with matching caps. The groom and his attendants chose tuxedos in baby blue. The bride's father wore an off-white tuxedo. The same blue and white colors were repeated at the altar and in the reception hall of the church.

The bride's table was decorated in a baby blue and white theme. The colors were repeated in the four tier cake decorated with blue roses and cupids and topped by a cluster of wedding bells of satin and lace. Blue heart and rose shaped mints accented the table. Serving at the brides table were Becky Pearson and Teresa Dillinger.

A chocolate cake decorated with a groom and coach and the words, "Get Me To The Church On Time" set the theme of the groom's table. A brown candle and a silver coffee service accented the table. JoAnn Stone, Sherri Stone and Susan Stone, all cousins of the groom served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Turner of Abernathy. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Grimley, also of Abernathy.

The bride is a graduate of Abernathy High School. The groom is also a graduate of Abernathy High School. He is currently employed as the Assistant Manager of the Pay-N-Sav grocery store.

The couple will make their home at 207 Ave. F after a wedding trip to New Mexico.
