Antelopes and Lady Lopes Win First District Games

Abernathy took the honors Friday night against the Lockney Longhorns in two action packed games.

First it was the Lady Lopes winning by a thin margin in the fourth quarter 45-42. It was a typical Abernathy-Lockney rivalry game. The play was intense and high-spirited throughout the entirety of the game.

Ramona Irlbeck displayed accurate aerial tactics coming up with 28 of the 45 points scored.

The win left the Lady Lopes with a 21-2 record on the year and 1-0 in district play.

The Antelopes capped Friday night's action and the Longhorns' hopes of winning their first district game.

It was the Antelopes all the way beating the Lockney Longhorns 77-60.

Leading the scoring pack were Roger Pinson with 22 points. Joey Garcia followed with 11 and Rodney Cannon had 10.

The Antelopes have a 14-10 overall record and are 1-0 in district. The Lockney Longhorns now have a 10-10 overall count and a 0-1 record in district.

Next the Antelopes and Lady Lopes face Idalou in their second district game of the season. The games will be at Idalou Tuesday, January 20, and will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Long Shot - Rodney Cannon shoots a long one in Friday night's game against Lockney. The Antelopes won it 77-60.

On The County Line

BY KEITH TOOLEY

Friday night's game against Lockney brought back memories of my days at Floydada High School.

Lockney was and still is Floydada's biggest rivalry team. It wasn't so much basketball as it was football. We used to, rather some friends of mine, would burn Lockney's spirit bon-fire before they could burn it themselves.

I don't know if the rivalry between Abernathy and Lockney goes to the extent of property destruction. Beating a team 77-60 I think would satisfy any hostilities.

Abernathy is like Floydada in that both towns reflect enormous pride, spirit and support for school sports. The large crowd at the basketball game Friday night is typical of this support. I would say good fans deserve at least 30 percent of the credit for any team win.

Tried any Old Tascosa sausage lately? I tried some the other day. Couldn't believe how lean it was and the taste speaks for itself. In my own opinion, it was very good. It is good to know we have the Old Tascosa plant right outside of Abernathy. We'll never run out.

MISS-TAKE - An irate employee went to the paymaster and carefully counted the money in his pay envelope. "It's one dollar short! What's the meaning of this?"

The paymaster checked a record sheet and, smiling broadly, replied: "Last week we overpaid you a dollar. You didn't complain about that mistake, did you?"

"An occasional mistake I can overlook," answered the angry man, "but not two in a row!"

If anyone happens to be looking for another salesman, we think the young lady who wrote the following letter would be a prime prospect.

Dear Mom and Dad: I'm sorry to be so long in writing, but all my writing paper was lost the night the dormitory was burned down by demonstrators. I'm out of the hospital now, and the doctor says my eyesight should be back to normal sooner or later.

The wonderful boy, Bill, who rescued me from the fire, kindly offered to share his little apartment with me until the dorm is rebuilt. He comes from a good family, so you won't be surprised when I tell you we are going to be married. In fact, you've always wanted a grandchild, so you'll be glad to know you will be grandparents next month."

Then she added the following postscript:

"Please disregard the above practice in English composition. There was no fire. I haven't been in the hospital. I'm not pregnant. And I don't have a steady boyfriend.

"But, I did get a D in French and an F in Chemistry, and I wanted to be sure you received this news in proper perspective. Love, Mary."

Audit Depicts City In Black

The Abernathy City Council met in regular session January 12 to discuss various business. The main topic of the night was the audit report for the City of Abernathy.

The audit revealed that the city is in stable condition. There was no deficit spending for 1980 and a slight surplus of operating funds accumulated over the year.

Revenue sharing will continue for the next three years. Each year the City will receive $21 to $22,000 if state appropriations continue.

Expenditures for the year 1979-1980 were mainly set aside to contract the community center and make library improvements. $225 thousand of a $250 thousand bond appropriated for these two projects has been used.

$671,000 was appropriated to construct a 200 thousand gallon water tank. Along with the tank two water wells were purchased, five miles of twelve inch line and 78 acres of land. This project made up the majority of these expenditures for the 1977-79 budget.

One area of expenditures that is surprisingly down from last year is the use of gasoline. The City purchased less than last year even though the price of gas has risen substantially. In 1979, $11,481 was spent on gas and oil. For 1980 the figure was 9 percent less with $10,637 used to purchase gas and oil.

City salaries also decreased from $107 thousand in 1979 to $104 thousand in 1980. Payroll taxes increased considerably from $1717 in 1979, to $4159 in 1980.

City manager Rod Ellis said, "Expenditures generally go up every year due to inflation." He also stated that it was very unusual that the City gas bill was lower this year than last.

The IRS will begin collecting taxes on interest earned on city bonds appropriated by the state. This federal tax law will go into effect in May and could cause serious repercussions for all cities. Many investors may reconsider purchasing these low yield bonds.

Other business was discussed at the meeting.

Mr. Joe Vandevier with the General Telephone Company asked for comments on the telephone service here. Some complaints were registered as to why we have to dial two or three times before we can get a call through, why do we hear other conversations on the line when we call either local or long distant calls, noisy lines, and others. The representatives assured the council they would check this out and correct them if at all possible.

The library committee discussed monthly library payments. Dan Ward, a member of the Library Board, made a report on the progress of the library and asked the council if they could possibly raise the allowance.

After discussion, the Council agreed to increase their allowance from $125.00 per month to $200.00 per month.

Other business discussed was to hold a public hearing to consider sealed bids to lease for oil, gas, and mineral purposes lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, of block 139 original town.

Only one bid was submitted and it was opened by Mayor Thompson and

Also a cute plaque entitled "Grandma's Favorite Flowers" with each of her grandchildren's name on a flower and a tiny tub with an artificial flower arrangement in it.

Dyvena showed two crocheted pajama pillows, two pictures in crewel embroidery, and a painted cotton bole and painted deer on glass, all that she had made.

She also showed a yarn box, a recipe box, a domino box, a picture frame for twelve years of school pictures, a shadow box and two wooden plant hangers for her patio, all made by her husband, James.

Hostesses Minnie V. Presley and Vera Vaughn served delicious cookies, punch and coffee.

We regret that several of our members have withdrawn from our club. We will miss them.

The next meeting will be February 5, 1981.

Historical Commission Newsletter
Happy New Year for 1981. The past year has been good to us and we have made many accomplishments.

We dedicated two historical markers, have finished cataloging a large picture collection in the archive room and begun a newspaper clipping file.

The Main Street Project was received by Plainview, thus producing an inventory of historical buildings in downtown, as well as many pictures and other historical information collected.

The county courthouse renovation project was completed and one for us to take pride in. Historical tours were given and many historical programs throughout the county. Thanks to all who continue to work to preserve our county's history.

To begin the new year our program for the first meeting will be a ceremony of sealing a time capsule in the Hale County Courthouse, with County Judge Bill Hollars in charge. If you would like to take a tour of the new courthouse it will be available.

Remember - it is time to pay our dues and to re-new our subscriptions to the quarterly. The first issue will be ready next month.

See you Saturday!
Sincerely yours,

A cotton loan price of at least 65 percent of parity and extension and improvement of the current disaster program will be two of the objectives of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, as it works to influence the new cotton program to be passed by Congress in 1981.

These goals and others were set by the PCG Board of Directors at a meeting in Lubbock January 13.

Other loan program provisions favored by the Board included a continuation of 18-month maximum term loans, interest rates on loans no higher than the cost of money to government, and an automatic loan at 90 percent of parity should cotton export sales be embargoed for any reason other than a national emergency declared by both Houses and Congress.

Complementing these aims, PCG will (1) continue its opposition to payment limitations, (2) shoot for elimination of Normal Crop Acreage provisions and the attendant cross-compliance and offsetting compliance requirements between crops and/or farms, (3) support continuation of the Secretary's authority to limit plantings and offer paid acreage diversion, (4) recommend that authority to require acreage to be set aside and devoted to conservation use be revoked, and (5) strengthen both producer and state and county ASCS committee advice and participation in the administration of the cotton program once a law is on the books.

In areas less directly related to cotton program details, the Board voted (1) to support reduction of inheritance taxes and provide exemption for estate transfers between spouses, (2) to seek more effective export credit assistance and encouragement, and (3) to continue to support Cotton Incorporated and urge efforts to make the organization serve cotton producer interests even more effectively.

The only real controversy to develop during almost six hours of discussion centered on the issue of tying the minimum loan to parity. At 65 percent of current parity ($1.13) the loan minimum would be 73.45 cents per pound.

Those who opposed the idea were afraid the loan in 1982 or subsequent years would encourage excessive cotton acreage increases in other parts of the U.S. Cotton Belt and in foreign countries, bringing back the huge surpluses that plagued the industry in the decade of the sixties. And, citing the sparsity of support for the parity-based loan in other cotton producing areas and in Congress, opponents also expressed the opinion that a PCG position favoring such a loan was unrealistic.

Proponents of a minimum loan based on parity, who eventually prevailed, were directors convinced that a minimum loan price at 65 percent of parity would not lead to surplus production, and was the only way to assure producers of prices sufficient to cover high and rising production costs. Countering the "unrealistic" label, one said he had been told from Washington that a law mandating such a minimum would have a good chance to get through Congress and would be signed by incoming President Reagan, if passed.

AMARILLO, Texas - Pioneer Gas Products Company, a subsidiary of Pioneer Corporation (NYSE), has agreed with Palo Duro Pipeline Company to construct a natural gas processing plant on Palo Duro Pipeline's system.

The new plant will be owned and operated by Pioneer Gas Products, said K.B. Watson, president and chairman of the board of Pioneer Corporation, in announcing the project today.

Watson said the plant will have the capacity to process 150 million cubic feet of natural gas per day and will recover about 210,000 gallons of natural gas liquids per day when operating at its designed capacity. The construction will cost approximately $13 million, he said.

A contract for design and construction has been awarded to Key Engineering, Inc., of Houston. Construction will begin immediately and the plant should be operating in October.

The plant will be built south of Sweetwater, in Nolan County, Texas.

The company has a processing agreement with Palo Duro Pipeline Company to process the gas in Palo Duro's pipeline system which extends from the Texas Panhandle to Sweetwater. After plant payout, Palo Duro shall have the option to become a 25 percent working-interest owner in the plant.

Antique Scales And Oil Paintings On Display At Abernathy Library

Antique Scales
An antique scales collection belonging to Diane Peoples is on display at the Abernathy Public Library through January. Diane began collecting about six years ago when she became interested in finding some unusual ways to hang plants in her home. An antique lover, Diane decided that finding some antique scales might be an attractive and different idea. Her scales are made from brass and other metals. All scales are not made from brass, but she personally prefers the brass ones. Some of her more interesting scales include:

British letter scales used to weigh letters;
Cotton scales;
Confectionary scales used to measure candy;
An adjustable scale for grams and ounces; and
A balance scale.

Diane and her husband Randy live at 1202 3rd St. They have a son, Steve, and a daughter, Shannon. They are the owners and operators of The Ceramic Peoples here in Abernathy.

Oil Paintings

A beautiful collection of oil paintings by Alma Ruth Patterson of Abernathy is currently on display through January at the library.

Alma Ruth began painting in 1978 when she decided to tackle a closet door in her entry hall. She later studied with Georgia Bartlett of Abernathy, Mildred McGuire of Plainview and Jean Green of Olton.

Landscapes provide the most pleasure for her art because she feels one can imagine where the painting might lead and what one can discover just by looking and studying a painting.

Playing the organ and piano at the Nazarene Church and for weddings are leisure activities for her. She also teaches second grade at Abernathy Elementary.

For her next project, she would like to paint a night scene, depicting a windmill with a shining moon.

Latest From The Library

On display in February will be paintings and bronze sculptures by Abernathy native Carroll Powell.

Need a special book but don't know how or where to find it? Contact our librarian and she will be happy to locate it for you through the Inter-Library Loan Service. Don't hesitate to ask, this is a service the library is proud to offer!

Coming up in April there will be a bridge tournament sponsored by friends of the library. Make plans to attend!

The library is currently receiving two best sellers a month. Some new books include:

- Side Effects, by Woody Allen;
- Unfinished Tales, by J.R.R. Tolkien;
- Come Pour the Wine, by Cynthia Freeman; and

The Vantage Point, by Lyndon B. Johnson.

Be sure and remember to drop by the library when you are out around town - you'll be glad you did! Library hours are MWF - 12:00 to 5:30 p.m., 9:00 to 12 a.m. Tuesday, closed Thursday.

Remember, a memorial to the library is a special and thoughtful way to remember friends and loved ones.

Dear Friends,

Friends to us you were in our time of need in the snow-storm of Sunday night November 16, 1980.

Many times have we thanked the One Above for your nice, compassionate people who were willing to forego sleep, rest, and the comforts of a warm home to rescue unfortunate human beings trapped by ice and snow.

There were others who assisted us - the two men in the 4-wheel-drive vehicle, the owner of the pickup camper, the driver of the wrecker, and the John Deere people.

To all of you Hale County residents, and especially to you of Abernathy, we send our heartfelt thanks.

I was able to get a flight out of Lubbock on a standby ticket on Monday afternoon. With the exception of seven days at Christmas I have been in Dallas since Nov. 17 staying with my aunt while her daughter is in Houston with her brother who is in the hospital with cancer.

We had a death in the family during the holidays.

Our intentions of writing you have been somewhat delayed, but the memories of your kindness have not diminished in the least.

When the three of us are back in Portales again you will receive some of our valley peanuts to enjoy in your "leisure" moments at the Fire Department.

Gratefully,

Valentine facts & fancies

Does Cupid Wear Cologne?

Greek mythology doesn't give a clue, but odds are that as Valentine's Day approaches, Cupid, that amorous little fellow, will be spraying fragrances rather than shooting arrows at lovers.

Scent and sex appeal are often inseparable. For centuries poets have proclaimed the erotic influence of fragrance on males. In Tolstoy's "War and Peace" it was love at first "scent" for Pierre and Princess Helene. The book notes that when she leaned forward, he became aware of the scent on her body.

Men aren't the only ones aroused by fragrance. A recent survey indicates that women are even more receptive. It's no wonder then that 50 percent of men's colognes and after shaves are bought by the fairer sex.

What sort of fragrances do women prefer? It probably depends on the man they're buying for. If he's fun loving and playful, yet cool and confident, he might respond to something like Denim, the fragrance "for the man who doesn't have to try too hard."

Preacher's Weekly Devotional

for any gift he wanted. Rather than ask for anything selfish, Solomon asked God for "an understanding mind to govern thy people, that I may discern between right and wrong" (1 Kings 3:9). God was pleased with Solomon and granted his request, even more abundantly than Solomon had imagined. And in addition, God gave him things he had not asked for, like riches and glory. It makes us think of the words of Jesus: "Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well" (Mt. 6:33).

The lesson for us should be clear. Jesus has invited us to ask so that we might receive. If we ask unselfishly for blessings that will build up the kingdom of God, He will give us our request in even greater abundance than we could imagine. And also, He will provide us with all we need. No such abundant provision can be expected when we ask selfishly.

The wisdom of Solomon enhanced by the teaching of Jesus is offered to us today. We would be wise to hear it and translate it into action.

Wisdom
The name Solomon is traditionally associated with wisdom. God offered Solomon the opportunity to ask

WORD OF GOD

What shall be the sign?

Mark 13:4

Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

And shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

SAVING BY DEGREES

Don't play thermostat roulette-it's wasteful to readjust the thermostat every time your house becomes too warm or too cool. Rather, set your thermostat at the desired daytime and night levels and let it do its work.

It makes sense to invest in an automatic clock-driven thermostat with separate day and night settings. You should be comfortable at 65° F in the daytime and 50° F after bedtime. Remember, if your house needs 1,500 gallons of oil a year at 65° F, it will use about 1,700 gallons at 70° F. If you are chilly at these temperatures, you may need a humidifier. Moist air at 68° F and 35% humidity is as comfortable as 72° F air in a very dry house.

Make sure, also, that your heating unit is properly cleaned and maintained. The conversion of an obsolete oil burner to a modern "retention head" unit will conserve additional fuel.

Lakeview Philosopher

Tries To Help Automobile Industry

Editor's note: The Lakeview Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm tries to help the automobile industry this week, he claims.

Dear editor:
One of the worries of the 1981's is what's going to happen to the automobile industry. As I understand it, the more cars produced in more different colors and models, the more the car makers are going in the hole. Since about one in four workers in the country is dependent on the car industry in one way or another and the rest of us are dependent on it to get to where we're going without walking, the problem needs solving.

But the car makers are going about it in the wrong way. It used to be said that eventually airplanes will be as cheap as cars but the car makers misunderstood and are making cars as expensive as airplanes. When they advertise a car as "the lowest-priced" what they mean is it's the least high-priced.

They didn't ask me but what the car makers ought to do is roll up their sleeves and come out with a 1981 style Model T.

The Model T was not, as some youngsters might think, a football formation, it was a car. It sold for about $400 and Henry Ford the First said you could have it in any color you wanted so long as it was black. If a dollar is now worth only one-fourth of what it was in those days, the $400 car should sell for $1600 today, and it wouldn't even have to be painted if its body, unlike the Tin Lizzy as the Model T was called, was made of bright, rust-proof aluminum. It wouldn't go 75 miles an hour but the people who drive 75 miles an hour don't seem to have more to offer when they get there than if they'd traveled at 40.

The car industry ought to get at this at once, lest they all have to borrow from the government to stay in business and eventually the government might have to foreclose, take over the operation and turn it over to the post office.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

County Line Chit Chats

by Faye Ann Nelson

We boarded the Braniff air line at 6:30 on Monday morning December 8 and got in Dallas at 7:30 and caught the Delta airplane going to Los Angeles.

We got to Los Angeles at 12:30pm and got on the big 747 jet United air liner and got to Hawaii at 4:00pm. You gain four hours going over. We landed on the island of Oahu and were greeted by Hawaiians who were dressed in their mumsus. They gave us a kiss and put the lei around our necks. Then they took our pictures with the one that puts the lei around your neck.

They put you in a cab and take you to the Hotel Sheraton Waikiki right on the beach. We were put in one of the 2200 rooms which had one entire room of sliding glass leading to your own private lanai for sitting or sunning. Our's faced inland and we could see all the high risers and condominiums. It looks like any large city. When we entered the room there was a big pineapple on the desk all cut and ready to eat...so good and fresh. Each hotel has its own dazzling shops, restaurants and entertainment and on it's doorstep, the endless allure of one of the world's most celebrated beaches...Waikiki.

We were served dinner in the hotel buffet style. Never saw so much food in my life...a whole table of salads, then a table of vegetables then a table of meats...then back behind these tables one whole table is covered with deserts...pies and cakes, puddings, Jello deserts. (Glad we did not have to pay)...about $10 to $15 each course, you can eat all you want...but you can just hold so much.

The rooms run from $70 to $100 daily according to size. Next day, Tuesday, Dec. 9, we called and told them we were ready for the free tour which was a tour of the island including Pearl Harbor which was very sad. They took us out to it on a boat.

Then you get to the Memorial U.S.S. Arizona which spans the sunken hull of the battleship U.S.S. Arizona, which rests in 38 feet of water at the bottom of Pearl Harbor.

They had a memorial service Sunday before we got there and the wreaths were still all around the memorial building. You can see the old ships Arizona, Oklahoma, West Virginia, California and Pennsylvania sticking up in the water.

It is a very sad experience to see all the names of the dead on the bronze plaque...where more than 750,000 tourists visit annually. In tribute to the American fighting men killed during the attack on Pearl Harbor, the national ensign is flown over the U.S.S. Arizona daily. MORE ON OUR TRIP TO BE CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.

Congratulations to Grandpa and Grandma Floyd. They have a new grandson born Wednesday, January 14, 1981.

The parents are David and Phyllis Harp of Plainview purchased the land southeast of County Line from Bob and Sharon Coffee who moved to Savannah, Georgia last year.

Mr. Davis is owner of Davis Plumbing in Lubbock. Mrs. Davis is an ex-school teacher, they are members of the County Line Baptist Church.

Less than half the population of America sees a dentist once a year or more.

Sunshine Group Met

Our Sunshine Group met December 15, 1980 at 11 a.m. Mrs. Toler gave the opening prayer. We just had one birthday this time which is unusual as there is more most of the time. We sang our songs and the minutes were read and we shivered. It took a long time to get a bigger room to meet in but with a lot of taxes and griping we got the new room but we can't turn the heat up or down either so I can't figure out which is better, the smaller room and keep warm or the big room and shiver. So, if there are 34 cases of flu it will be us. Well, we can't be pleased about everything, I guess. Back to the program, Lillie Mae had charge so she said there would be a song by "George & I" but it turned out to be Floyd and Lillie singing "Till the Storm Passes Over". It was very pretty but the song leader George may be surprised to learn he was going to sing for us. Then Lillie introduced our speaker Mrs. Ester Williams. First she said she had said she wouldn't do it at all, she was too bashful. Now who ever would thought she was too bashful? Surely not me. But after thinking it over she decided she should do it after all, would just put on some bloop and maybe we wouldn't know she was scared. She read us some short articles from a book by Tanner Lane. He compared our early settlers to the astronauts of the present. The first one was "The Big Burn on the Yellow House". There were three things to watch when a prairie fire started - the wind velocity (only we didn't say that, we said high or low), how far it was from the person who discovered it, and to plow fire guards if you have time. Another thing to do to help put it out was kill a cow and split her open and tie ropes on her legs and two cowboys would pull her along the fire. Don't ask me why the rope didn't catch on fire, I wasn't there but I have heard that told so much I know it helped. Fire fighting was a neighborhood project, everyone could help, maybe just a pot of coffee when the men came by after work. How they ever got started was usually a mystery. Some times lightening, very seldom cigarettes because people knew to be careful about that. Most often travelers left smoking chips, or covered the fire with a little dirt and later on it would break into a blaze. Something like this happened to Mr. White, the owner of the Yellow House. He saw some smoke and started to it. He was in a wagon working mules. The wind changed and the fire encircled him. He turned his mules loose and lay flat on the ground. The fire went over him and he was critically burned. It took him years to get over it. He visited the ranch often but never went back to live. I know this was all before my time but I was raised on a ranch not too far from where this happened and have been raised on pioneer stories, so some of this is Tanner's, some Ester's and a lot is mine. Now this happened on the Spade Ranch. Elwood was owner and also had the first patent on bob wire, which most people have and probably don't know it. J. Frank Norfleet was the first foreman. One fire that was started on it was the cowboys were going to kill out the prairie dogs by pouring some gasoline in the holes and throwing in a match. A rabbit got his tail on fire and set the grass on fire. That might have been the one that burned to the Caprock.

Then she read about the good Samaritan of the West. The cowboys had the cattle all bedded down for the night when one of the boys saw something coming. He rode out to find a woman driving a covered wagon. She said her husband was sick so the boss sent her a quarter of beef to make him some broth. Years later they met at some big ranch doings and recognized each other. The woman said it was the quarter of beef that saved her husband.

The last one she read was called "Alls Well That Ends Well". The cowboy went after the preacher and was taking him where the bride was. Well, they came to the draw and it was up. The preacher said "You swim the draw and get the girl and I'll stay over here and perform the ceremony. The boy took off his blue surge suit, kept on his long handles of course, and swam the draw holding his suit high and dry. There were people from everywhere to see that wedding. They lived to celebrate their 50th anniversary and raised seven children. Some one probably will send me visiting somewhere when they have another pioneer program. H.B. Coggins said he married a couple the same way once except the boy didn't have to swim. He and the girl were on one side of the creek and the preacher on the other.

H.B. gave blessing and dashed to the table. Thirty-four other people were there. They included: Callie Nunn, Mrs. C. Brewer, Oma Toler, Lillie Mae Shipman, Floyd Shipman, Lizzie Lebow, Dot Von Struve, Addie Robinson, Elizabeth Harrison, HB Coggins, Blanch Coggins, Cora Shuman, Martha Phillips, Dixie Pittman, Ina Bell Anderson, Katherine Dye, Juanita Brantley, Ethel Petty, Ollie Selke, Minnie Northcutt, Frances Howard, Maybell Glass, Ruby Knox, Mildred Bundick, Ona Maserang, Ruth Phillips, Ester Williams, J.O. Pope, Vera Pope, Ollie Slater, Susie Anderson, Mrs. Talbot, Bernice Smith, and Mary Ruth Manley.

Listen To The Hum

It's the sound of growth, prosperity and progress in the Southwest. It's the sound of the Southwest making a bigger and bigger contribution to our nation's economy. It's the sound of electricity. Electricity that surrounds us with opportunities and jobs, pride and security. And with proper use of our resources, and new power plants using efficient, reliable fuels like coal, that sound is going to keep right on humming.
