

MERRY CHRISTMAS

REACHING.....GRASPING.....CHEWING

LINC WALSH, 7 month old son of Steve and Patti Walsh, reaches...grasps...and begins chewing on a Christmas tree ornament. This will be a common scene in most households Friday... as children everywhere will be reaching for presents left by Santa. Linc is the grandson of Lon and Vivian Carmickle.

1981 Rebates Way Up For Abernathy

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday sent checks totaling $41.4 million to 802 cities as their share of the one-percent city sales tax for December.

This final payment for 1981 brought to $656 million the total collected and returned to Texas cities during 1981. Bullock said this total is more than 17 percent over last year's $560 million.

The December monthly payment is $7.9 million more than the cities received during a comparable period in 1980.

Yearly totals in area towns include: Crosbyton, $36 thousand; Petersburg, $22 thousand; Hale Center, $28 thousand; Floydada, $91 thousand; Tulia, $124 thousand; Idalou, $35 thousand; Lockney, $41 thousand; and Slaton, $167 thousand.

Abernathy payments to date for 1981 amount to $51 thousand, an increase of 14.76% over 1980. Abernathy will receive a check of $2,341 for December.

New Deal will receive no payments for December making this year's total $2,109, a 43.35% decrease in payments compared to payments of $3,724 to New Deal in 1980.

Locals Contribute Time And Efforts To Build First Baptist Mission

The First Baptist Mission of the First Baptist Church has been cherished by local members since early November, when the dedication ceremony was held. Since then, the Mission has been the meeting place of capacity crowds carried over from the old Mission.

The congregation had simply outgrown the old mission building, which had been used for the past 17 years. The new Mission was built next to the old one at 1112 Jerome, Abernathy.

The new Mission auditorium is 37 feet by 80 feet. In addition, the building has two classrooms, a vestibule, corridor and rest room facilities. There were no construction costs as the entire building was constructed by volunteers. The only cost was the materials used to build the mission, which amounted to $45,050.

The construction began in March when 23 men from throughout the state came to get the mission started. These men stayed three days and accomplished a great deal during this short stay.

Many members of the Mission contributed their labor along with many members of the First Baptist Church. A complete list of those who donated their time toward this effort could not be obtained. This is a partial list and anyone left out should notify the Review and they will be recognized in next week's paper.

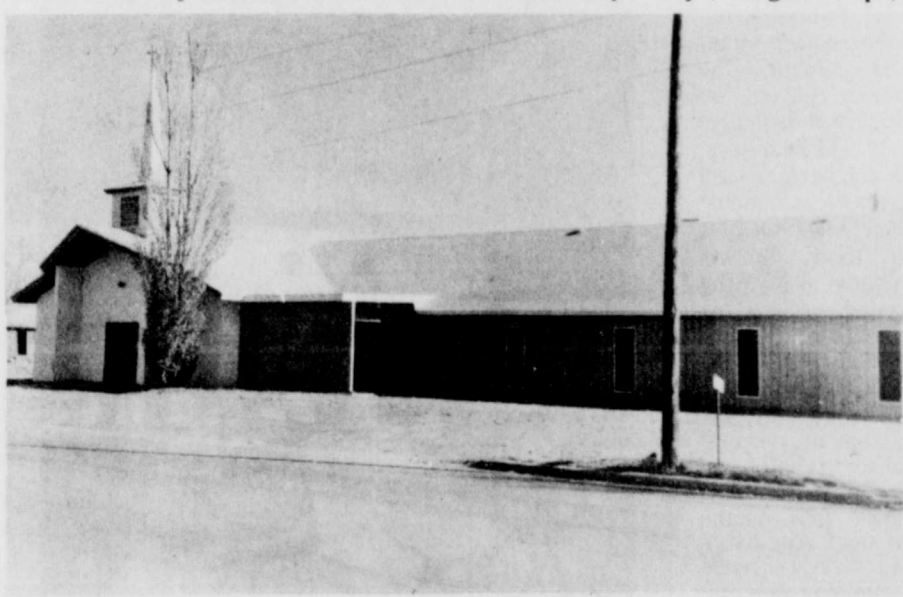

Volunteers were: Rev. Lloyd Riddles, Richard Howard, Pete Gregg, Otis Pope, J.W. Hamilton, Shirley Riddles, Faye Pope, Angela Pope.

Darryl Brightbill contributed the heating and air and other utility labor necessary to make the Mission a comfortable place to worship. Bill Scott and James Conn did the electrical work, also as a labor of love.

The Mission was completed in 8 months and is presently being enjoyed by members.

THE FIRST BAPTIST MISSION was constructed in 8 months at a cost of approximately $45 thousand. No money was needed for labor as volunteers from all over the state and Abernathy donated their time and labor. (Review Photo)

ABERNATHY'S SANTA CLAUS, (Alias Josh Howard), made the big time two weekends ago when he was asked to sit on the throne at the South Plains Mall in Lubbock. Josh gladly accepted and was the center of attraction for a day as Santa Claus. Josh said he wouldn't miss tilling Santa's shoes "for the world" and he hasn't for the past 10 years.

HAL HOWARD told us that he has a lot to be thankful for. The other day he and a buddy were out somewhere hunting when his car caught on fire. Hal immediately got out his Amway Fire extinguisher, since he is an Amway dealer, and put the fire out. Hal said his engine was a mess and knew they would be stranded out in the country. It was then that Hal asked the Lord to lend a hand. Following this, Hal started his car and they drove all the way back to civilization with no car troubles.

WE SAW SANTA CLAUS the other day and he told us what the most popular gifts were this year. Most kids are asking for tippy toe dolls, strawberry short cake dolls, rubics cube, Dukes of Hazard game, Tonka Trucks and good grades in school.

WORDS FROM THE WISE

Willingness to be taught what we do not know is the sure pledge of growth both in knowledge and wisdom.

The wise carry their knowledge, as they do their watches, not for display, but for their own use.

Don't make the mistake of letting yesterday use up too much of today.

Happiness is a peculiar sensation you get when you're too busy to be miserable.

Pride is always too big for its shoes and not large enough for its hat.

There is no index of character so sure as the voice.

There's no harm in having nothing to say. Just try to say it out loud.

A sharp tongue is the only edged tool that grows keener with use.

There is a wonderful, mystical law of nature that the three things we crave most in life—happiness, freedom, and peace of mind—are always attained by giving them to someone else.

You can fool the wisdom of men, but you cannot fool the instinct of children.

Owner Of Famous Modeling Agency Discovers Local Beauty

Selects Girls With The "All American Appeal"

What would bring the originator and owner of one of the most famous modeling agencies in the United States to the small town of Abernathy? What else but the discovery of another model.

William Adrian, of Pasadena, California, is the man looking for beauty and talent, and he found it in Kori Heard, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Heard and a 1979 graduate of Abernathy High School.

Adrian was in Abernathy Friday through Sunday, December 11-13 to visit Kori and relax for a few days at the Heard residence, 1706 Ave. H.

Bill Adrian has been promoting the "All American Girl" for the past 30 years. He has been called the "Dean of model directors". Adrian attributes his success to having an eye for talent and knowing it when he sees it. "Either you have it or you don't," said Adrian.

Adrian is not your average talent scout. In fact, he is one of the most distinguished men in his field and noted for having an "eye for beautiful girls".

Adrian specializes in the natural look. "My girls don't have to be tall, slender, etc. to be accepted to my modeling school or agency," Adrian said.

He has discovered some of America's most beautiful models. For instance, he picked Linda Gray, actress in the popular television series "Dallas", out of 200 other beauties who tried out for the part. He discovered Cheryl Tiegs at Alhambra High School when she was 16. Kim Carnes, who had the recent pop hit "Bette Davis Eyes", is another of Adrian's finds.

Adrian is famous for picking girls that have the "All American Look And Appeal". He specializes in picking models and talent who are in their "school girl years", usually from 12 to 21 years of age. Young girls are who are selected will be accepted to his modeling school, modeling agency or talent agency. Adrian took the initiative to help girls get started in the modeling and entertainment fields.

How Adrian Found Kori

This past summer Adrian discovered Abernathy's own Kori Heard. Kori went to California this past summer and auditioned at the Adrian Modeling Agency. Adrian picked Kori out of many girls and two or three weeks later she was accepted. Adrian had this to say about Kori: "Kori is totally representative of the All American Girl and is my first pick to represent Texas Tech and the look of this entire area."

Kori is presently a Junior Fashion Merchandizing major at Texas Tech University and a member of Alpha Chi Omega. The Adrian agency has used several of her pictures in Anita Shops, which is a popular clothing chain in California. Kori also had an opportunity to do several commercials for Adrian, one of which was for Quaker Oats.

The Accident

Kori was asked to do several commercials for Adrian Agency and to ride in a float in the Roses Parade held annually in Pasadena. But Kori would not get the chance to go back to California immediately due to a tragic accident.

The unfortunate accident occurred about 10 weeks ago when Kori and her roommate, Melinda Miles, were driving to San Sabba, Texas. Melinda was driving the Corvette and fell asleep at the wheel.

The Corvette went off the road, through two barbed wire fences, over several trees and just missed hitting a culvert in a creek bed.

The girls were extremely lucky as Kori suffered only a broken arm, a broken collar bone and a cut knee. Melinda suffered a broken jaw and a bad injury to the head. The car was completely totaled and it was a wonder that they even survived the wreck.

Since the accident, both girls have recuperated and Kori is again interested in future Adrian prospects. Kori stated that she may or may not finish school before returning to California. She would graduate in 1983. Kori also said that she wanted to get a portfolio started by doing commercials and bit parts.

Adrian's Opinion Of Abernathy

Adrian was pleased to find the people of Abernathy very friendly, courteous and polite. "People in Abernathy seem so patient and laid back," Adrian said. "In California, people are most impatient and it is so crowded that it is impossible to get anywhere." Adrian was also impressed with the miles and miles of flat open land in Texas and the new cars that are seen on our highways.

The Heards took Adrian on a tour of this area, showing him cotton modules, cotton gins and the Texas Tech campus during his stay. Adrian was impressed with the people and countryside of this part of Texas.

More About Adrian And His Agency

Adrian selected 35 roller skaters for the movie "Roller Boogie". He selected the 1981 "Kodak Girl" who is used in most magazine and T.V. commercials. Adrian even does layouts for album covers.

Annually, Adrian selects song leaders, cheerleaders, flag girls and majorettes for the Miss Drill Team U.S.A. as well as being a judge of many other important contests.

Adrian Agency has turned out 600 national cover girls.

Adrian concluded by giving this advice to girls who have a dream of becoming professional models: "Natural beauty is something you have to have, not acquire. Girls must have a clean natural appeal, a sweet sex appeal that reflects a girl's personality," Adrian said.

Adrian will continue to discover beautiful girls such as Kori. And who knows, Kori may become as famous as Cheryl Tiegs, the highest paid model in the business. And who ever said small town girls aren't pretty?

Struves And Dodsons Enjoy Carribean Cruise

International Harvester XL dealers from all over the nation and Canada were awarded a week's Caribbean Cruise on board the Cunard Princess for attaining outstanding goals during the summer of 1981.

Struve Implement qualified for four persons to take the trip. Rudy and Marian, (thanks to son, Ruwayne's generosity), and former manager, V.A. Dodson and wife, Pat, were the recipients of the trip.

The trip began December 4th from Lubbock aboard a Braniff plane. After staying overnight in Miami, the group consisting of David and Linda Cole, (formerly of Petersburg) and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Washman, of the Harlingen area; Mr. James Box, of Seminole; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Brown, Floydada; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Roney, Brownfield; V.A. and Pat Dodson, Abernathy; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Ashford, Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wood, Earth;

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, Olton; Bob Hurst, Friona; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Oglesby, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oglesby, Dumas; Mr. and Mrs. Ronny George, Tulia; Mr. and Mrs. Cottral, Meadow; and others arrived in San Juan, Puerto Rico in the afternoon of Dec. 5th.

Most everyone, at least 700 people, boarded the beautiful Cunard Princess about 4 p.m. The passengers were assigned comfortable cabins where they unpacked, rested and dressed for a delicious "Welcome Aboard Dinner" and an evening of entertainment.

Later that evening, the ship pulled out of port for the farthest island, Martinique, and the Leeward Islands, a distance of 384 miles with everyone on the deck to see the tug boat get the ship underway.

Sunday was spent on board eating, attending church services, visiting and taking part in the many and varied activities or sitting on deck relaxing. Some of the activities available were arts and crafts, bridge, backgammon, golf, tennis, swimming, exercise classes, movies and reading in the very adequate library. There was also bingo and many electronic games and slot machines.

A boat drill was held with everyone donning a life vest and proceeding to a designated station to receive instructions in case the ship had to be abandoned for any reason.

The Captain's welcome party, including pictures was held in the afternoon followed by the Captain's Gala Dinner and a full evening of entertainment in the beautiful Showboat Lounge. Most of the entertainers were from England and were very good in their various fields.

The Princess docked early Monday morning at Fort de France, Martinique. A well planned tour followed of the island of St. Pierre which was very interesting and beautiful. The vegetation is tropical, very much like Hawaii, especially the rain forest with huge tree ferns and brilliant flowers. There were banana orchards, fields of sugar cane and pineapple, and coconut palms. These are the principal products of the island.

A small village lying at the foot of Mount Pele was destroyed by a cloud of hot gas from the volcano in Aug. of 1902. The only survivor was a prisoner who was being held in a thick walled jail. There was a museum with artifacts recovered after the catastrophe. The natives are all black people who speak French, so shopping was not very easy.

After a delicious French dinner on board, and another

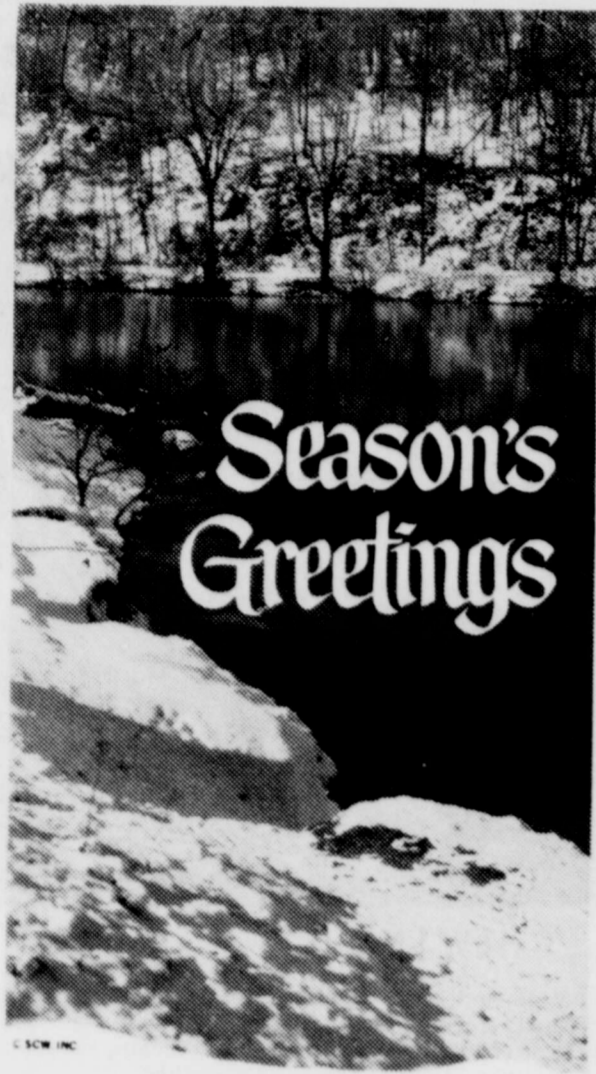

Club, or Topsail Lounge. The midnight buffet on this night was very special as the decorations were beautiful and appropriate ice sculptures, made by some of the restaurant staff.

The next morning, our last full day after breakfast, buses were furnished to transport passengers on a tour of the islands. Bluebeard's Castle was the first stop. It is now a beautiful and very expensive hotel, but the lookout tower of the famous pirate may be seen as well as much of the beautiful original furniture and treasures.

The bus then went to Drake's Seat where the famous Englishman could count his fleet and watch for the enemy. The tour ended with a visit to Coral World where all kinds of fish and underwater life could be seen. The coral and pearls were beautiful and were offered to shoppers in many forms ranging from your own live oyster possible containing a pearl or very expensive jewelry.

Upon the return to the ship and lunch with friends, everyone went their own way

REMEMBERING AT CHRISTMAS

Snow scenes . . . frosty shining Christmas mornings . . . tinsel and the smell of pine . . . all are part of the memories of Christmas in the past.

These memories quicken the heart . . . make us eager for another Yuletide.

Chief in our memory is the friendship of those we serve. It is our wish that in the future you will be able to look back on this Christmas as a memorable one; filled with a full measure of happiness and joy.

evening of entertainment, the Princess embarked for Antigua, a distance of 172 miles. The ship docked at 8 a.m. and most of the passengers were ready for the tour to Buccaneer Cove for a beach party. Everyone enjoyed, sunning, swimming, visiting, and listening to the Calypso music played on drums, made from ordinary oil drums of various sizes. After the beach party, a land tour was taken. Some passengers chose a sailing tour on the Jolly Roger to Fort James, where swimming and snorkeling were enjoyed.

This island was beautiful with its poinsettia hedges, palm trees and brilliant blooming tropical flowers. There were some nice shops, Roger Alberts being the largest duty free store on the island, and since English is spoken and U.S. currency accepted, shopping was fun. It was "All Aboard" at 5:30 and the ship set sail for St. Maarten, in the Virgin Islands.

Another lovely dinner, pirate motif, and evening of entertainment was enjoyed on board the Princess. The trip was made to St. Maarten, a distance of 110 miles while the passengers attended the midnight buffet and slept to the tune of smooth sailing.

After a wonderful breakfast on board, the passengers disembarked for a scenic tour of both the Dutch and French sides of the island, or a sailing snorkel tour to uninhabited Pennel Island with its beautiful beach and brilliant waters. The tropical flowers were beautiful on parts of the island while cactus grew in other parts.

The history of St. Maarten is most interesting as 16 square miles belong to the Dutch and 21 miles belong to the French, but the people of both cultures live and work in perfect harmony. Phillipsburg is the capital of the Dutch side and Marigot is the French capital.

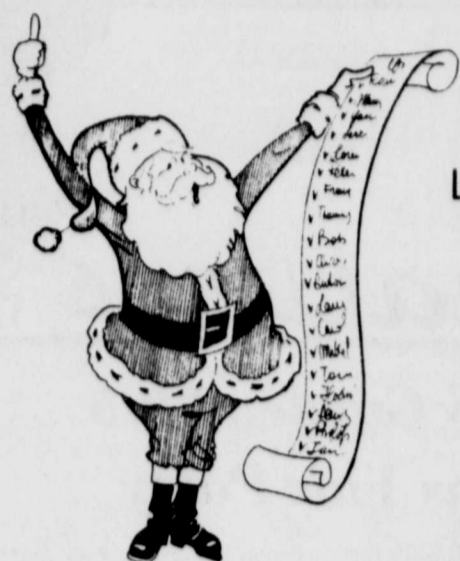

In each of these towns, a tourist will find excellent shopping. English is spoken and American currency is used. There is everything of good quality to buy at good prices in the many shops. The things to buy included want to thank you. This year I am older and have something more important to ask of you. Could you please send peace, happiness and love to all the people in the world?

With gratitude for your loyal friendship and support, we extend our warmest wishes for a very cheery holiday season.

Thank you!

Love,
Micah Griffin

Dear Santa,
Hi there your jovial plumpness. How's it going? Everything is going pretty well on my side of the world.

Well, another year has gone by since I last wrote to you, and I must say I am still disappointed that you could not come up with the gold-plated Cowette I asked for last year. But, I have thought about it, and I guess that was a little too much to ask.

This year, I have lowered my hopes a bit, and am sure that you can come up with this gift. All I want is an itsy-bitsy teeny-weeny certificate deeming me supreme ruler of the universe. Is that too much to ask? I didn't think so. Well Santa, that's about all I want this year so I guess I'll talk to you later.
Trey Stone

Dear Santa,
Hello! How are you and Mrs. Santa Claus? I'm fine!

I've been really good all year. I wish you would bring everyone lots of love and peace! And let everyone have peace with everyone else. Also if you have time, I would like some new clothes. This is all I want for Christmas. I hope you have a good trip Christmas Eve!

Love always,
Amy Boyles
P.S. Tell Mrs. Claus and all the reindeer "Hi"!

Dear Santa:
I am Stacey Kelley, from Abernathy, and I would like to ask you for a few things for Christmas. Sure I want some clothes or games, maybe even something to put in my room. The thing that I want most is that my family is smiling and eating and just having a good time. But, there is one more thing that I want and that is that all the kids that have been kidnapped to be found and returned home safely, so that they can have a Merry Christmas too.

Love ya always,
Stacey Kelley

bike to go riding around on with my friends. Second, I would like a radio to listen to my favorite music. Third, I would like a tape recorder to record things I like to hear over and over again. Last, but not least, I would like a big, beautiful, war blooded horse, so I can ride him anywhere I want. I will brush his hair and put him in the barn.

Santa, I want to say thank you for the red headed doll you brought me last year. Also, I want you to know I always keep you cookies and milk by the chimney.

Santa, I hope to hear reindeer bells again. Maria Zavala

Dear Santa,
This year for Christmas I'm asking very little. First off, that Chevette I was asking about, scratch that. Put a Porche in it's place! And that bicycle I asked for, scratch that. I now want a 650 Suzuki. And that B.B. gun I wanted, scratch it. I now would like a 370 B.D.L. Deer Rifle with high power size 10 zoom scope by Remington. Oh yes, about the family, they will not be needing anything, as they will barely be able to pay for this.

I know you'll oblige.

Letters To Santa From High School English II

Dear Kris Kringle,

Merry Christmas! I have something very special to ask you for this Christmas.

When I was younger, all I ever wanted for Christmas were toys and presents for myself. Nothing was more important or special to me than all the wonderful presents you brought to me on Christmas Eve. I wish to thank you for all the joy and happiness you brought to me for so many years.

This year, I am asking for something very different. Yet very special. I realize it is a large request, but I trust that you will be able to fit these presents in your sleigh.

This Christmas, it would be so wonderful if you could leave a little love, caring, peace, and happiness in everyone's homes. As always, you will leave some toys and presents, and that will make everyone very happy. If you could just leave a little love, honesty, peace, and trust under the trees, and some care and happiness in the stockings. You could make this Christmas more wonderful than any this world has ever known.

That is all I want this Christmas, and it is all I need. I hope you will find a place in your sleigh (and your heart) to bring these wonderful gifts.

Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Love,
Melissa Thompson

Dear Santa,

I have been especially good this year, so bring me some goodies. I want a big red bicycle and a pair of skates. I want to wish you and Mrs. Claus a Merry Christmas too.

I would also like some snow for Christmas. I want the ground to be covered with snow when I wake up on Christmas morning.

My mom and dad want to thank you for dropping me down the chimney sixteen years ago. That is the most challenging present they have ever received on Christmas. Tell everyone hello for me, and have a safe trip.

Love,
Vicky McKenzie

Dear Santa,

How have you been. I hope that everything is going well with you now that your elves are off strike. How has Mrs. Santa been since your vacation to Florida? I hope that it wasn't too hot for her. I heard that Mrs. Santa put you on a diet, oh well you will get over it. By the way the things I want for Christmas are: Corvett, Blazer, Horse Trainer, money, waterbed, and a Saint Bernard.

Well See ya later,
Mark Bell

Dear Santa:

How are you? I will be waiting for you on Christmas eve. Last year, I waited til almost midnight, but I fell asleep.

I don't want an awful lot for Christmas. I got what I wanted last year. This year, I want a gift that won't get boring and will last all year. Bring something that is not made in Hong Kong.

There will be milk and cookies waiting for you when you get here. Be careful not to get dog-bit. It probably won't snow and you may have a hard landing. So be careful. Our fireplace maybe burning so don't get burned.

P.S. See if you can do something about helping me pass my school work.

Yours truly,
Grady Arthur

Dear Santa,

When I was little, I asked you for toys and games. You always made sure what I wanted was under the tree Christmas morning. For all you have always done, I

Rhonda Webb And John Henry Exchange Wedding Vows Dec. 19

Mrs. Rhonda Henry

Miss Rhonda Suzanne Webb and John Wesley Henry were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Saturday, December 19, at the First Baptist Church. Rev. Jerry Miller, minister of the Peaster Baptist Church, officiated.

Parents of the bride are Dr. and Mrs. Delwin Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby McBeth, Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henry, Lubbock, are parents of the groom.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She was attired in a traditional gown of white organza and Chantilly lace. The moulded bodice featured a scalloped sweetheart neckline and natural waistline accented with lace appliques. Seed pearls and sequins adorned the bodice at the neckline and waistline.

The fitted sleeves, which came to a point over her hands in medallion design, were also bordered with pearls and sequins. Her bouyant skirt of silk organza featured two wide ruffles of Chantilly lace which circled the skirt and became a part of the train. A cascade of nine wide ruffles, beginning at the waistline in the back and running the entire length of the dress, swept into a full cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a cap of Chantilly lace enhanced by seed pearls and sequins. Matching lace edged the length of the veil. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart and white tea roses enriched with spray of pearls and lily of the valley.

Melissa Webb attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Terri Henry, Plainview, sister of the groom, Lorna Barron and Barbara Borah, Lubbock. The attendants wore identical princess style gowns of holiday red satin and carried bouquets of miniature red poinsettias accented with white rosebuds and baby's breath.

Bobby McBeth served as best man for his stepson. Groomsmen were Miles Vasek, Hale Center, Trey Underriner, Victoria, cousin of the bride, and Joe Quaranta, Austin.

Music was provided by Bobbie Miller, Floydada, vocalist, and Clinton Barrick, organist. A tape of the bride singing "Through the Eyes of Love" was presented as her cousins Teresa and Mike Murphy of Brownfield lit the candles.

Ushers were Mike Murphy, Rob McBeth, brother of the groom, Bobby Kaiser, Plainview, and Wayne Riley. Teresa Murphy secured names for the guest registry.

Assisting at the bride's table were Debbie Householder, Brenda Bewley, both of Lubbock, and Susan Finck, Austin. The table was covered with white satin overlaid with white lace fastened in a scallop design. Centering the table was a crystal candelabra arrangement featuring poinsettias and frosted greenery. The three-tiered wedding cake was accented with miniature Grecian colonnades and topped with an arch of white satin bells.

The groom's table was laid with a cloth of red floor-length knit. A Waldorf cake centered the table, with a brass candelabra arrangement and gold coffee service completing the appointments. Foncine Carthel and

Williams-Rodriguez United In Double-Ring Ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged between Cathy Lyn Williams and John Alan Rodriguez December 19 at the Abernathy Church of Christ. Glenn Reagan performed the double-ring ceremony.

Cathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claudy E. Williams, and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Gore of Albany, and the late J.F. Rodriguez.

Musical selections were presented by Kerry and Pam Miller; Mike and Kathy Roberts; Dennis and Celia Setliff all of Lubbock; and Roy and Karen Davis of Odessa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza with a schiffli embroidered and silk venise lace edged Queen Anne neckline. The bride was adorned with silk venise schiffli embroidered lace falling to a fitted lace cuff.

The chapel length train was complimented with a flowing schiffli lace flounce. The look of elegance was completed by a matching venise lace mantilla. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses accented with baby's breath.

Miss Barbara Williams, sister of the bride, of Abilene, was Maid of Honor. James Rodriguez, brother of the bridegroom, of Albany, was best man.

Bridesmaids included Cindy Meason, of Lubbock, and Toni Edwards, cousin of the bride, of Dennison. Keitha Largent, cousin of the bride, of Paradise, was flower girl. Groomsmen included Jeff Ray, of Lubbock, and Jason Hobgood, cousin of the bride.

Serving as ushers were Claudy E. Williams, Jr., brother of the bride; Joe Rodriguez, brother of the bridegroom; Jim Tom Daniel, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and Nigel Fair, of Abilene. Registering guests were Susan Williams, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride's attendants wore red chifon dresses with sleeveless fitted bodices, flared capelets attached to scooped necklines, a natural waistline with criss-crossed cummerbunds, and flared skirts. The flower girl's dress was red dotted swiss with a tucked bodice front accented with lace, a Peter Pan collar accented with lace, short ruffled sleeves, a high fitted waist with a front band and a flared skirt with a lower ruffle.

The groom and both tatters were dressed in black tuxedos. The groom's attendants wore solid gray tuxedos.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall with Elaine Daniel, sister of the bridegroom; Shirley Ritchey, cousin of the bride; and Ginger Reedy serving at the bride's table. Included in the house party were Frances Overstreet and Martha Reeves.

After a wedding trip to Durango, Colorado, the couple will make their home in Abernathy. They are both teachers at Abernathy Baptist Church.

Great Society Extension Homemakers Meeting

The Great Society Extension Homemakers Association went to the Plainview Agriculture Center Monday Dec. 14th instead of having their regular monthly meeting at Abernathy.

Maybell Glass sang a solo and Mrs. L.A. Suttle read the story of Mary's encounter with the Angel Gabriel and Magnification of Mary. Mrs. Suttle also led the group in the singing of Christmas carols.

Each club furnished a handmade article for the door prize. Great Society gave a gift which was made by the talented Sue McAllister.

The Extension Association will have their first meeting of the new year Jan. 18, at the Neighborhood Center in Abernathy. It will be a lesson on how "Interference From In-laws can Destroy A Marriage".

Those attending were Olean Mathis, Imogene Suttle and Maybell Glass.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll Miller are the proud parents of a son, Justin Zane Miller, born December 14 at Hi-Plains Hospital in Hale Center.

Justin weighed 8 pounds, 13 1/2 ounces and was 20 1/2 inches long.

Those To Remember

Otelia Clements has been in St. Mary's Hospital with pneumonia.

Ona Vernon, sister-in-law of Agnes Motheral, is in Methodist Hospital, room 591 East.

Mrs. Robert Littleton of Lubbock, who is a member of First United Methodist Church, is in Methodist Hospital.

The U.S. Silver depository is at West Point, New York.

Sunshine Group Enjoys Christmas Lunch

The Sunshine Group met Dec. 17th for their Christmas meeting. A very nice crowd attended with two visitors and two or three who might become regulars.

Mrs. Chock Brewer recited several chapters from the bible she had memorized several years ago. It was very interesting and good.

Don Moore, from the First Baptist Church, gave the program in song. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

There were 39 present. They were: Reita Smith, Oleta Lambert, Minnie Olcutt, Oma Toler, Alice Price, Juanita Brantley, Addie Robertson, Ethel

Petty, Martha Phillips, Sarah Fitzgerald, Dixie Pittman, Amando Ellison, Rubye Knox, Loyal Judkins, Vida Judkins, Mrs. Brewer.

The Cure For Failure
Do you ever wonder why you fail in your christian life and service? I'm sure that most of us have considered this question at one time or another. Perhaps you have failed at something you tried to do for God, just this past week. Would you like an answer so that this coming week might be better? Well, God has the answer. Most of our failures come because we try to do it all and leave God out of it. His answer to this is found I Thess. 5: 24. "Faithful is he that called you, who will also do it". Why not let Christ be active in your life this week?

Hale County 4-H Food Show Winners

Knowledge of nutritional needs, ability in menu planning and skills in preparing a dish of their choice won top honors for four youths in the South Plains District 4-H Food Show here Saturday (December 12).

Junior division winners received ribbons but do not compete beyond the district level. The top juniors in each category were: Main dish, Jim Bob Carver, Hale County, first; Amy Sims, Terry, second, and Mimi Lupton, Lubbock, third. Fruits and vegetables, Samantha Moorhead, Terry, first; Billy Robertson, Yoakum, second, and Misty Riney, Lamb, third. Breads and cereals, Shelly Salyer, Parmer, first; John Hamilton, Hale, second, and Donna Smith, Lamb, third.

Nutritious snacks and desserts, Nikki McGinty, Yoakum, first; Cindy Greaves, Lubbock, second, and Jana Bontke, Hale, third.

Other 4-H'ers from Hale County participating were Nikki Reed, Tanya Tyrer, Donna Stout and Lonnie Howard.

Lady Lopes Skin Mules 54-37

The Lady Lopes defeated Muleshoe 54-37 at Muleshoe December 18.

Abernathy came out shooting and racked up 16 points to Muleshoe's 10 in the first quarter. The Lady Lopes out-scored Muleshoe again in the second quarter 12 points to 8 and by the half led 28-18.

Muleshoe was not down yet and came back to score 16 points to Abernathy's 15 in the third, but the Lopes secured the game in the fourth by scoring 11 points to Muleshoe's 3. The Lady Lopes played extremely defensive in the fourth quarter. Stacey Kelley scored 13 points and Vicky McKenzie 12 to lead the Lopes in the scoring department.

Antelopes Edge Muleshoe 64-61

The Abernathy Antelopes edged Muleshoe 64-61 at Muleshoe December 18.

Both teams played defensively in the first quarter. The Lopes allowed Muleshoe 10 points to their 9 in the first. In the second quarter, both teams generated some offense. The Antelopes scored 23 points to Muleshoe's 19 in the second, and at the half led 32-29.

The Antelopes stayed on top through the third quarter scoring 14 points to Muleshoe's 11. Muleshoe attempted to come back in the fourth scoring 21 points to Abernathy's 18, but it was too late.

Leading scorer for the Lopes was Rodney Cannon with 32. The Lopes have a record of 3-9 following this game. Muleshoe's record stands at 6-7.

Abernathy Bandsmen Participate In "Christmas For Kids"

Approximately 50 Abernathy High School bandsmen participated in an 800 piece band during the "Christmas For Kids" concert, December 12.

The concert to be televised Christmas Eve by channel 28 was sponsored by area high school bands and that station to benefit area children's homes. From Antelope Outlook.

Student Religious Group Meets

"It's new and it's exciting," said a student who attended the first ACJF Team meeting, Thursday, December 10. ACJF stands for Another Campus For Jesus.

"The ACJF is an organization which provides the high school Christian students the opportunity to meet together and encourage each other and to urge each other to be better witnesses for Jesus Christ and the salvation He brings to those who ask Him to come into their hearts, to cleanse them of their sins, and to be their personal Savior. It also provides the opportunity for the students to share with each other what Jesus is doing for them in their Christian lives," said one of the organizers. The group meets Thursday morning before school begins, from 8:30 a.m. until 9:50 a.m. The team plans "to do all that we can for the Kingdom of God," said a supporter.

From The Antelope Outlook.

TO EFFECTIVELY REMOVE common laundry stains, soak articles in cold water with detergent for 30 minutes. Then follow with a warm wash, says Becky Saunders, a clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

COTTON TODAY
A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

FARM BILL BACKED: The National Cotton Council supported the recently passed farm bill as the "best possible bill" that could be achieved given the present budget climate.

The new bill: (1) maintains the existing loan formula and increases the minimum loan from 48 cents to 55 cents per pound; (2) provides target price protection at higher of 71 cents in 1982, 76 cents in 1983, 81 cents in 1984, and 86 cents in 1985, or 120% of the established loan rate; (3) provides recourse loans for seed cotton; (4) eliminates normal crop acreage (NCA) and "cross-compliance" provisions of the 1977 act; (5) gives the Secretary authority to require mandatory acreage reduction; (6) provides enhanced protection against embargoes; and (7) establishes a revolving fund to boost agricultural exports.

COTTON EXPORTS JUMP: Net new sales for the 1981-82 marketing year totaled 171,000 running bales during the week ended Dec. 10, up 37% from the previous week. The major buyers were Japan, 60,500 bales; Taiwan, 41,500; South Korea, 24,000; and Hong Kong, 20,100. Although the week's export shipments decreased to 123,300 bales from last week's record high, net new sales for marketing year 1982-83 increased by 5,400 bales to 18,300.

BALE SPECS MAY GO: The U.S. Department of Agriculture is proposing to discontinue publication of specifications for bale packaging materials on cotton pledged for price-support loan.

Instead, the Commodity Credit Corporation would maintain the requirement that packaging of cotton meet specifications, while requesting the Joint Industry Bale Packaging Committee to assume responsibility for publishing and distributing specifications.

What To Do With Unwanted Gifts

Many consumers will find themselves with unwanted gifts come Christmas morning. What can the consumer do with such gifts besides giving them away?

First, thing is to find out what store they were purchased from, second, make sure that the original wrappings are kept, third, get the sales slip if possible. Then proceed to the store.

The store may give you an exchange, refund, credit, or it may tell you that it is against store policy to do such. Stores are NOT required by law to give refunds or exchanges or credits, unless an item is defective or was sold through misleading representation.

STRUVE TRIP TO THE CARRIBEAN ISLANDS

to do what ever pleased them which was usually to go back to town to shop or just look.

Most of the passengers returned to the ship and prepared for the beautiful Farewell Dinner and the best evening of entertainment so far. The entertainers for the week were two good orchestras: four girl dancers in beautiful costumes called "Sweet Elegance"; an excellent puppeteer, Ray Solaire; a pianist, Bryan Humbert; Britain's Singing Sensation, Heathmore King; French singing star, Lynda Gloria; a humorist, Ben Sanders; a Harmonica player, Danny Welfton, and the John West Trio from London. They were all very personable on stage.

After the midnight buffet, goodbyes were said and bags packed to be unloaded in San Juan, Puerto Rico where everyone would board their respective flights for home Saturday.

The ship docked in San Juan at 7 a.m. Breakfast was eaten and customs completed on board. Everyone was told to remain in the lounge until all luggage was ashore. The waiting began, time passed, and many realized their flights had departed.

The dock workers who were to unload the luggage walked off when it began to rain saying they didn't work in the rain. About noon the passengers began disembarking in the pouring rain.

The flight to Dallas had gone, so those passengers had to be re-routed. Some to Atlanta, others to New York and our group to Chicago then to Dallas, where we stayed in the Amtaec Hotel.

We left DFW about noon Sunday arriving in Lubbock at 1 p.m. This was a frustration part of the trip, but the McDonald Travel Agency and the American Airlines were great and solved the problems.

While waiting in Chicago, a man waiting at the same gate said to Rudy, "You're a long way from Abernathy." To our surprise, the man speaking was Leon Harp, the brother of Elbert Harp.

"Small World."
 Texas really looked great even though we had completed a dream trip, had excellent food, lots of fun and good fellowship on the Caribbean Cruise. Many of our shipmates were people that we had been with in Feb. on an XI.

Dealers trip to the Hawaiian Islands. It's nice to meet people with whom you've previously traveled. We turn our attention now to celebrating our 70th anniversary of the Struve business in Abernathy. Thanks, Abernathy.

Cotton Council To Assess 1982 Planting Intentions

The National Cotton Council will mail questionnaires December 31 to a sample of cotton growers to assess their 1982 planting intentions. President Frank M.

Mitchener, Jr. said today. Mitchener said the Council is conducting the survey because the U.S. Department of Agriculture plans to consolidate its January and March surveys into one. It will be carried out in February, and results will not be reported until late February. "The Council survey will provide planting intentions earlier. Individual cotton growers need this information for planning purposes. In addition, Council delegates will need it for their policy deliberations at our annual meeting early in February," Mitchener explained. "We want to encourage every grower who receives a questionnaire to complete and return it promptly," the Council president said. "Results will be made available to all cotton growers through announcements in the media."

Motorists, Watch For Cotton Bale Haulers

Each year at this time the motoring public on the South Plains experiences a large influx of cotton bale haulers on the highway. Even though the majority of cotton has been stripped from the fields these vehicles will be on the roadway carrying 500-pound bales for several months. Keep in mind that many of these semi-trailers are unsafely loaded. It has been noted that these flat bales of cotton are not secured properly in many instances when they leave the gin and proceed to their storage place. These trucks are on the road 24-hours a day. Sometimes they carry 45, 50 and maybe as high as 60 bales of cotton on one flatbed float.

The motorist should recognize this hazard immediately and keep a longer safer following distance in order to escape injury if the load of cotton bales fall from the truck, so be alert for bales that are laying in the roadway.

The Department of Public Safety strongly urges the transporters to exercise more caution in loading their trucks and in securing their loads before movement. Major C.W. Bell, Commander, of the DPS Region 5, strongly supports the theory that all other vehicles should exercise due respect for these cumbersome trucks and avoid any unnecessary close position to them. Major Bell said, "The most dangerous mile driven is the next mile ahead."

Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the Lord thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

New Deal Players Selected To All District Team

Several football players from New Deal were selected to the 4-AA All District Teams.

Selected to the first team for their performance on offense was Brian Jerden, a right back, and Ken Richardson, a guard. On the first team defense was: David Pardo, a defensive lineman, Manuel Adams, a defensive back, and Brian Jerden, a left back.

Players selected to the All District second team were: Gordon Koonce, an end, and Teddy Ballard, a tackle. Both were selected for their offensive performances. On the second team defense was: Ernest Adams, a defender, and Robert Villegas, a defensive back.

There were no honorable mentions from New Deal.

New Deal Loses Water To Fire

The New Deal water supply was depleted Thursday when the water was used to put out a fire in a mobile home at New Deal.

New Deal fire fighters used water from their trucks to attempt to stop the fire at approximately 1:30 p.m. Thursday. The water from the fire trucks was not enough to save the mobile home from the flames. It took the City's well water supply to finish the job. The well used was supplying the residents of New Deal with water, but it was depleted early that afternoon following the fire.

Jake Scharnberg, president of New Deal Water Supply, stated that this was just one of New Deal's wells and all they had to do was get the pumps hooked up to another city well with plenty of water. Water was restored to New Deal by 8:45 that evening.

A CHRISTMAS WISH: We hope you enjoy a happy holiday season in warmth and peace. Our best wishes of the season to everyone.

It Pays to Know! COTTON FACT #1
CCC LOANS
Participation in the CCC loan program is a critical business decision that only the cotton producer can make. The following facts are presented only to stimulate thought and present alternatives.
No significant cost difference exists between the Form A loan and the Form G (Coop) loan in placing cotton in the loan. Also the Form A and Form G (Coop) loan interest costs are identical. But, there is a difference between the two Commodity Credit Corporation loans. The difference is your profit.
FORM "A" LOAN
No costs are incurred by the producer or the buyer for repaying the loan or selling the equities.
FORM "G" LOAN (NO ELECTRONIC MARKETING SYSTEM)
The farmer or buyer is charged $1.50 per bale for Form G loan cotton not sold by the coop. This includes farmer-redeemed cotton and equities sold by the farmer to an outside buyer.
FORM "G" LOAN (ELECTRONIC MARKETING SYSTEM)
This Form G (Coop) loan program generally charges a $3.50 per bale fee when cotton is taken out of the loan. This $3.50 per bale fee is considered an added cost by the buyer, which reduces the price paid to the producer for his Form G (Coop) loan cotton. The producer does not have the option of taking the cotton out of the Form G (Coop) loan, but can request the Coop to take it out for the standard $3.50 fee.

WHAT CHRISTMAS MEANS TO ME...

What Christmas really means to me. Christmas is love, joy and happiness to me. The one day of the year when everyone feels happy and loved. The happiness of cleaning ones soul and asking for forgiveness. To start a whole new clean life, without committing sins. It also brings the family together and it brings love to not only you and I, but also to everyone around the world. The love long ago that was set on this earth also lives today in the hearts of all people. The day that people let it show. The love that is so strong that no one can control is always shown on Christmas day. There are so many things that Christmas means to me, but the most important one is that everyone shows his love and passes it on. That's what Christmas means to me.

Martha Flores

Christmas

To me, Christmas is the most special time of the year. Christmas, to me, is a time for love and fellowship with relatives. Christmas is the birthday of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

God loved us so much that he sent his son to save us from the eternal fires. I believe that from this we get our tradition of giving gifts. Although I know our gifts will never be as good as God's gift to us.

Bilinda Scott

The Meaning Of Christmas

Many people think Christmas is a time when you give and receive. They are right in some ways. Christmas is a time when you share your love with others. This is the day you show respect for the birth of Christ. I think if everyday was Christmas the world would be a better place to live.

Jan Cecil

Giving and Sharing Christmas is the time of year that we celebrate Christ's birthday. We give to others as the wise men gave to baby Jesus. We give and receive the love we feel for others.

Christmas is also a time for sharing peace and joy with others. This is what Christmas means to me!

Terri Gist

What Christmas Means To Me

Christmas is a special day for me. It is a time to get together with all my relatives and family. Christmas is a time to be happy and to make others happy. It is a time to enjoy each other and to make everyone feel special.

At Christmas we give gifts and receive gifts to make everyone have a special smile on their faces. Christmas always makes me feel special.

Mary Trevino

What Christmas Means

What Christmas means to me is very hard to put in words. First of all it reminds me of when Jesus Christ was born and the wisemen came to give him gifts. Oh! Christmas is such a wonderful time of year to sit back and thank God for all the things he has given us. Next, Christmas means to me, it's giving to poor or the ones not able to have a Christmas like you and me, to help them see that Christmas is a happy time of the year. Lastly Christmas means giving gifts to your friends and loved ones. Christmas means a lot of different things to different people, but to me it's just a time to thank God for being so good to let us see another Christmas.

Sarah Miller

Christmas To Me
Christmas is my favorite time of year. It is a joyous occasion. Everyone enjoys receiving presents and sending them. However, people often forget that it is Jesus birthday. God loved us so much that he gave us his son on Christmas. We need to remember Christ's birthday and not take so many things for granted. The thing I like best about Christmas is all the happy people together and sharing. I also love white Christmases. Almost everyone, except Scrooge or the Grinch, is cheerful on Christmas and I really like that. Merry Christmas!

Jackie Riddell

A Special Time Of Year

Christmas is the best time of year to me. It is when all the family is together again. They all sit around the fire on Christmas Eve singing of Christmas bells and baby Jesus birth. The little ones can hardly wait for Santa Claus to appear. They try to stay up to greet him, but their eye lids soon grow heavy and off to dreamland they all go. When as each one wakes, he is greeted with many new toys from old Saint Nicholas. Then Christmas time soon ends and everything goes back to its normal pad once again. However, each adult and child remembers that special day, when Christ was born, for many years to come.

Lori Pope

What Christmas Really Is

Christmas can mean a whole different bunch of things. But what it means to me is the day in which Jesus, God's son, was born. I think that sometimes people misunderstand the meaning of Christmas. They get too much involved with getting and giving presents. They need to slow down and remember the real reason we celebrate Christmas.

Kathy Ellis

Christmas is...

Christmas is Santa Claus, reindeer, and snow. Its all kinds of presents wrapped up with a bow. Its snowmen, and stockings, and tons of good food. Carols and candles that set the mood. It's a great big tree with a star up above. But more than anything else, Christmas is love!!!

Melissa Hagstrom

What Christmas Means To Me

Christmas to me means sharing. You share your friendship with your friends. You give presents to them to show gratitude for their friendship, and you share love with your love ones. You thank them for the help they have given to you throughout the year. You share the thoughts of the good times of that year. That's what Christmas means to me.

Peter Ruiz

What Christmas Means To Me

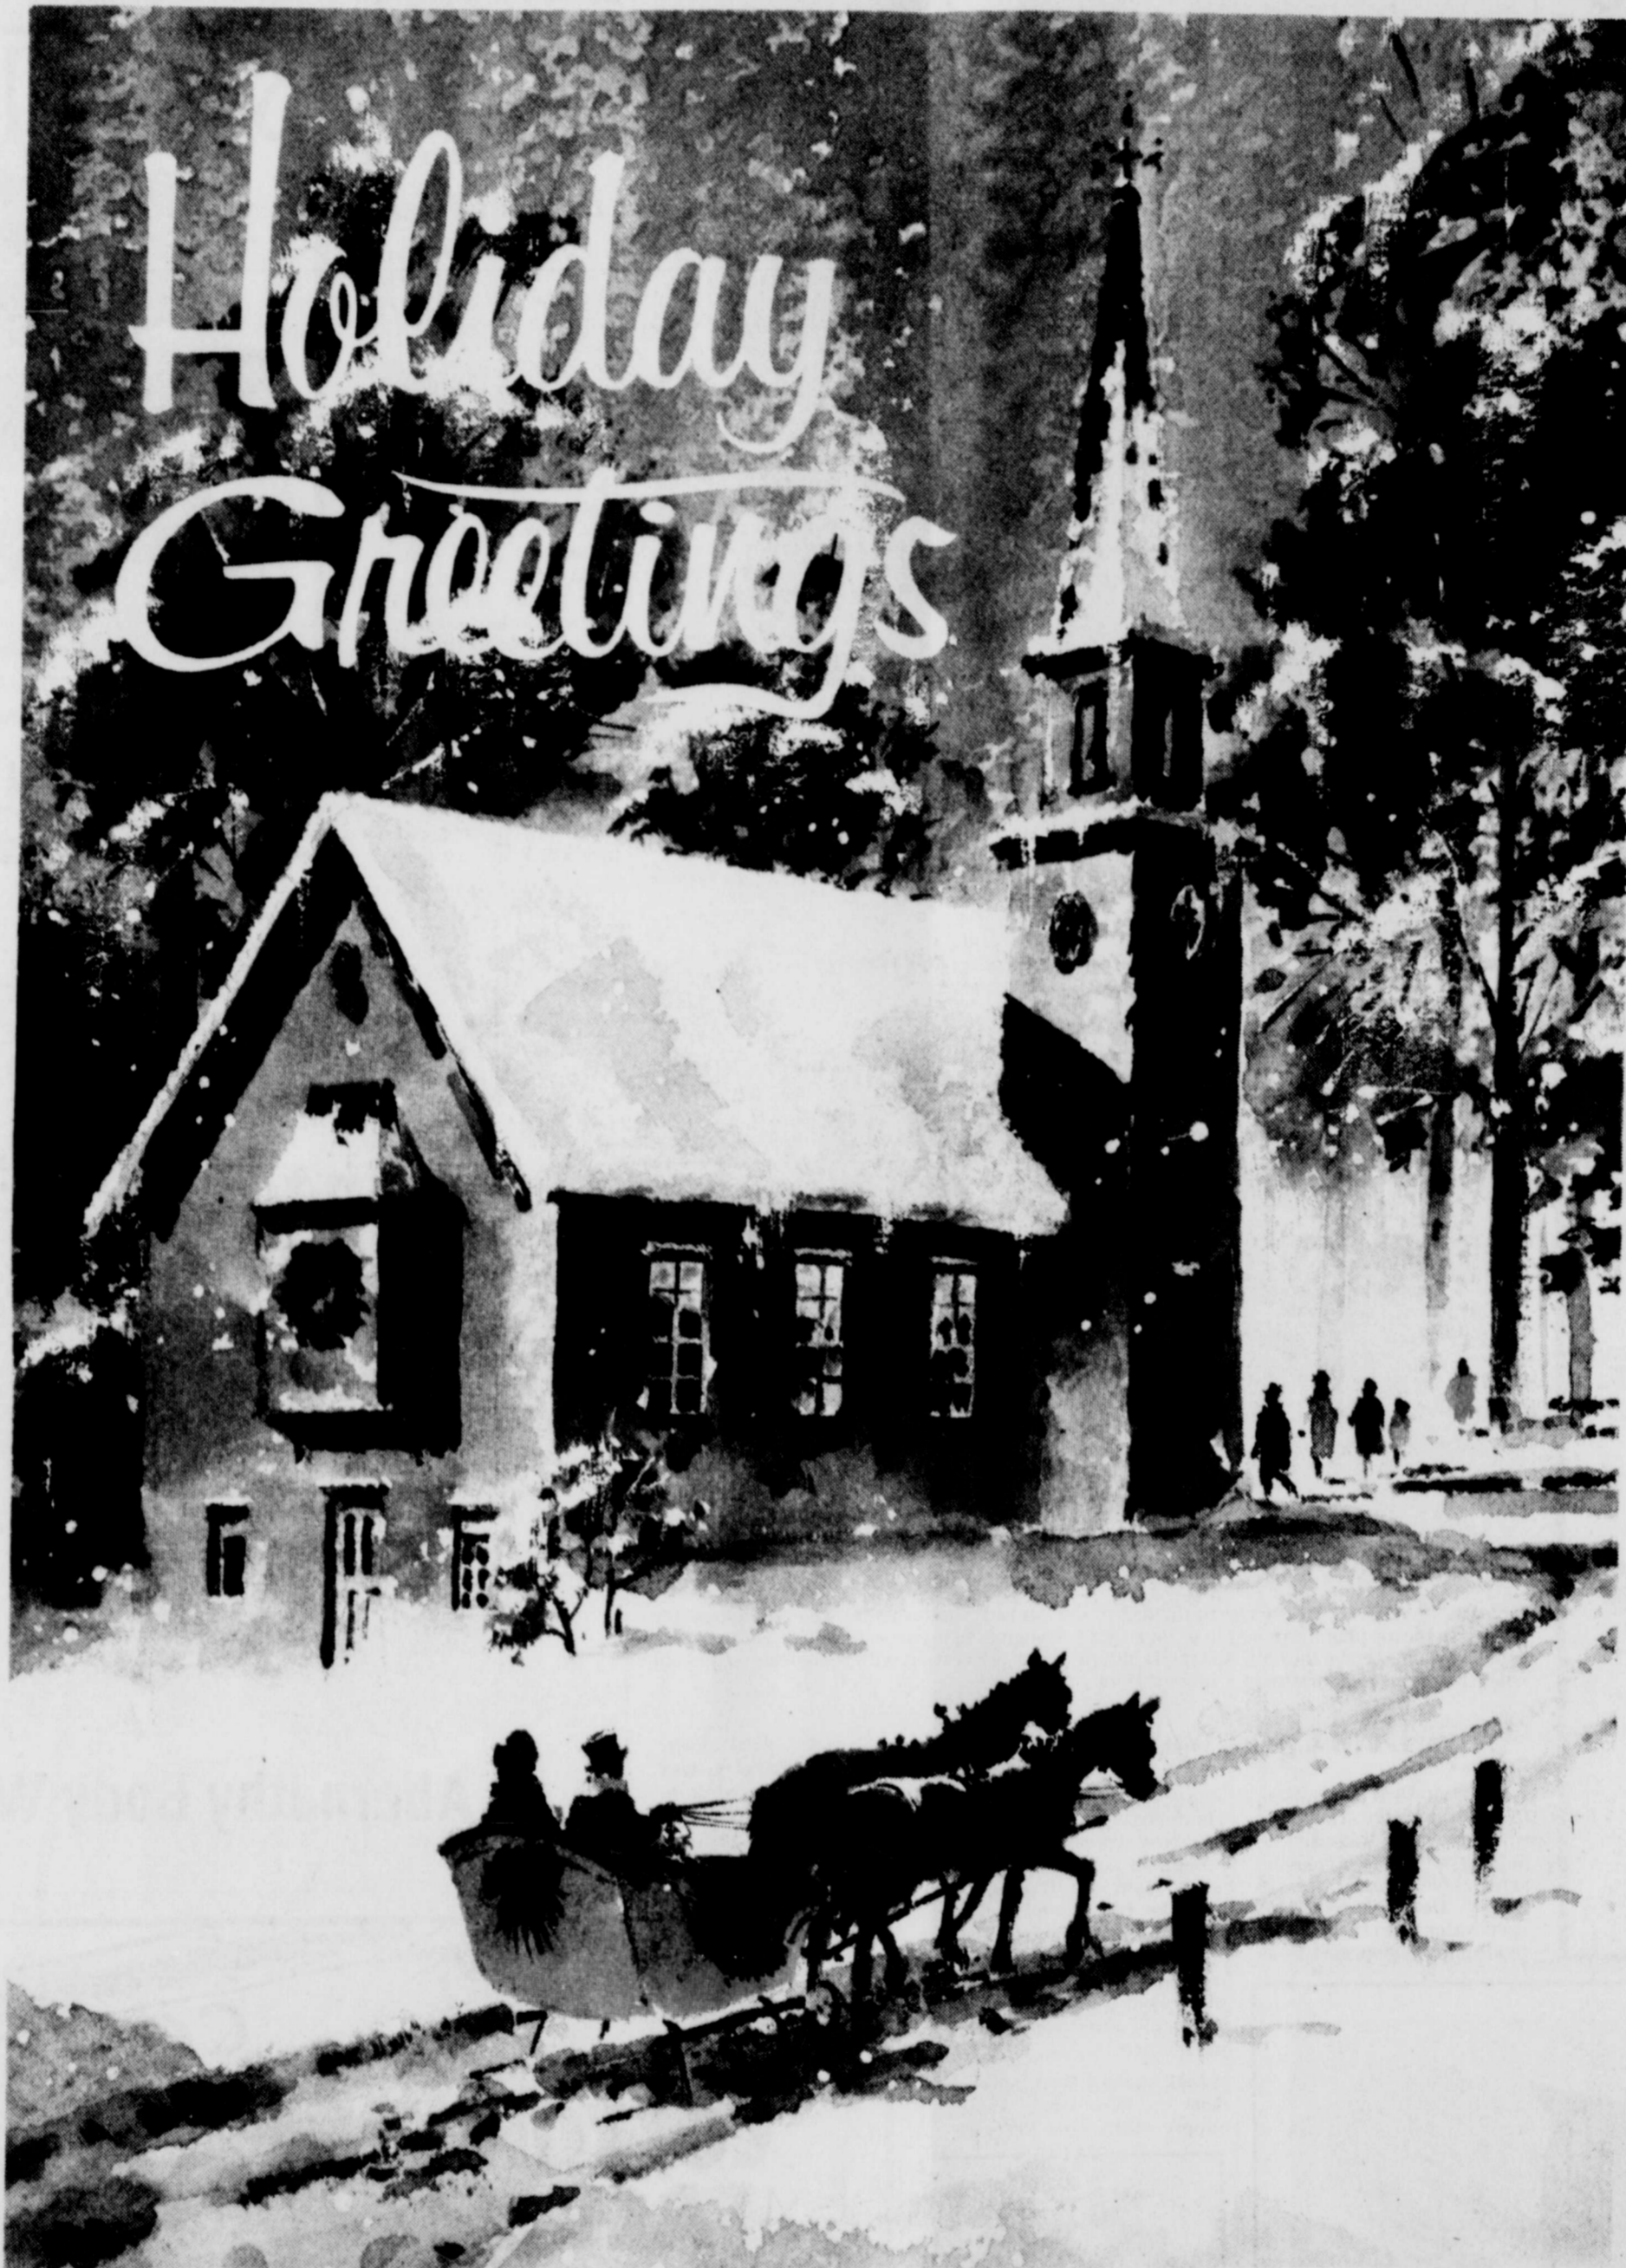

Christmas means receiving and giving gifts. A time to relax and enjoy what you received. A time for laughter, singing and just having fun. When everyone can spend the day together. Christmas is just a day to have fun and enjoy yourself.

Annette Ponder

What Christmas Means To Me

Christmas means celebrating the birth of Christ. It is also a time when all of my family comes together. At Christmas, the poor do not have a lot of money to spend on presents. So a lot of friendly people get together and collect food and toys for them. Christmas is the happiest season of the year for me.

Ramiro Martinez

Out of the brisk, tingling air comes a warm and heartfelt wish that the holidays bring merriment to you and your family. May your days be filled with the simple, old-fashioned joys of Christmas. May you experience all the love and fascination of the season.

For more efficient cooking, match the pan size to the size of the range's surface units. Flat-bottom cooking utensils with tight-fitting lids give the best cooking results and can help conserve energy as well, since foods in covered pans begin boiling or steaming more rapidly than those in uncovered containers.

Christmas lights can be dangerous if not used properly. Use only those lights that have an Underwriters Laboratories label on the package and be sure to buy the right kind of lights for indoor or outdoor use. Check lights for loose or broken sockets or cords with bare wire showing BEFORE putting them on the tree and always unplug them before leaving the house or going to bed. Electrical safety tips like these can help insure a happy and safer Christmas for your family.

SPS sells the byproducts created by burning coal for fuel. Of the ash products generated at coal-fired Harrington Station, the majority are fly ash, a powder-like substance. Fly ash has been used for cementing oil wells, as a water and abrasion-resistant ingredient in concrete, and can be used around dam areas to prevent water from eroding away surrounding soil. By marketing fly ash and other coal byproducts, SPS is using our natural resources as efficiently as possible and helping keep down the costs of generating the electricity we all need.

Myrtle E. Nesbitt

Services for Myrtle Ezell Nesbitt, 72, of 1311 30th, Lubbock, were conducted Saturday at W.W. Rix Chapel with the Rev. Paul Jantzen, pastor of Trinity Church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Reginald Bridges of Lubbock State School. Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park under direction of Rix Funeral Directors.

Mrs. Nesbitt was killed in a 7:40 p.m. accident Thursday in which the car she was riding in was struck from the rear by a pickup truck at Frankford Avenue and Spur 327.

Justice of the Peace Wayne LeCroy ruled the death a homicide. Her death was the 30th traffic fatality of the year within Lubbock city limits.

A native of Estelline, Mrs. Nesbitt married William Nesbitt Dec. 5, 1928, in Lubbock. He died several years ago. She was a member of Trinity Church and was active in the 19th Street Senior Citizens Center. A former employee of Dunlap's department store, she had been a resident of Lubbock since 1916.

Survivors include a daughter, Patricia Ann, of Lubbock, two sons, Kenneth and Bill, both of Lubbock, a brother, Flim V. Dunn, who resides southeast of Abernathy; and five grandchildren.

She was a sister-in-law of Paul Nesbitt of Abernathy. Pallbearers were Ricky, Randy, Robin, Carol, Mike, Steve, Kim and Mark Dunn.

Dayton Ardis Cline, 64, also of Lubbock, driver of the automobile, was fatally injured in the accident, which happened at 7:40 p.m. He died at 9:20 p.m. in Lubbock General Hospital. Services and burial were at San Angelo Saturday.

Cline's survivors include two nieces and three nephews.

Vivian C. Barnett

Services for Vivian Cross Barnett, 78, of 1014 Jefferson Drive were held Monday at Resthaven Chapel, Lubbock, with the Rev. Lammie Boss, pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park under direction of Resthaven Funeral Home.

Mrs. Barnett died at Central Plains Hospital in Plainview after a lengthy illness.

She was born in Brownwood. She married J. Hollis Barnett Dec. 22, 1924, in Lubbock. They resided in Abernathy prior to moving to Plainview.

Survivors include her husband; three sisters, Marguerite of Dallas, Leta Alice Gray of Weatherford and Charlotte Landcum of Conroe; and a brother, Aud Cross of El Paso.

MEDICARE PATIENTS have been paying a bit more of their own medical costs since last January, says Judith Warren, a family life education specialist-aging.

Since Jan. 1, 1981, the Medicare deductible (the part you pay yourself) has increased from $180 to $204, she says.

In addition, patients hospitalized from 60-90 days pay $51 per day themselves rather than $45, the specialist adds.

Editors Note: Mrs. Bob Stillwell brought this to us to be printed in the Christmas edition of the Review. It was sent to her from her sister Mrs. Gladys Townes of Houston. We thank them both as this story carries a special meaning at Christmas time.

The Story Of Three Trees

Many years ago there were three little trees growing peacefully in a valley far away. As the little trees grew older they began to plan and dream of what they wanted to be when they grew up. It was not long before the little trees knew exactly what they wanted to be.

The first little tree said, "I want to be a beautiful cradle and rock some mother's precious little baby."

The second little tree said, "I want none of that sissy stuff; I want to be a mighty ship and carry great kings across the deep blue seas."

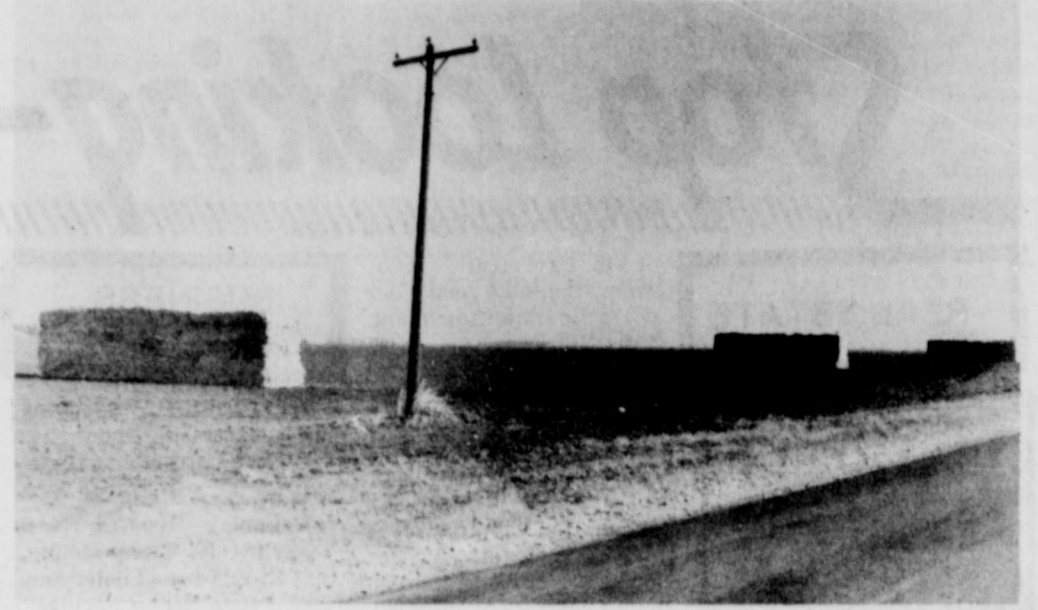

The third little tree also knew just what he wanted to be. "I just want to continue to grow right here in this beautiful valley and spend the rest of my days pointing toward God."

One day the ax man came and cut the first little tree. "Good-bye! Good-bye! I am going to be made into a beautiful cradle." But—the poor little tree was not made into a cradle at all—he was made into a trough for animals to eat from.

Soon the man with the ax came again. "Good-bye little friend, I will remember you while I am carrying mighty kings across the wide seas." But, as fate would have it, the second little tree was not made into a mighty ship at all. Instead, he was made into a tiny fishing boat.

The days passed and the third tree grew peacefully in his lovely valley content just to grow taller towards the heavens. But, alas, the day came when the man came with his ax. "Oh, please do not cut me down—I just want to grow here forever and ever." But, the ax man paid no attention and soon the little tree was made into a cruel cross to be used to crucify someone!

As our story ends, you will find that our three friends did achieve their heart's desires. For, you see, the first little tree became the manger in which the baby Jesus lay. And the second little tree, well, he was fisherman Peter's boat and Jesus, the King of all Kings, used him to cross the Sea of Galilee. The third little tree, now a cross, continues through the years to point the whole world toward God; for it was through His gift to us and His Son's death on the cross that we can have the most wonderful gift of all—the gift of eternal life.

COTTON MODULES are about all that is left of the 1981 cotton crop as a very low percentage is still on the stalk. These modules are located 1 mile east of town in a wheat field. Farmers will begin getting ready for the 1982 crop by plowing the cotton stalks, if they haven't already. (Review Photo)

THEN and NOW!
CHRISTMAS MUSIC

The Christmas songs that holiday shoppers hum have certainly changed over the centuries, though some favorites remain as popular today as when they were first written.

THEN: Music for Christmas began with the litanies

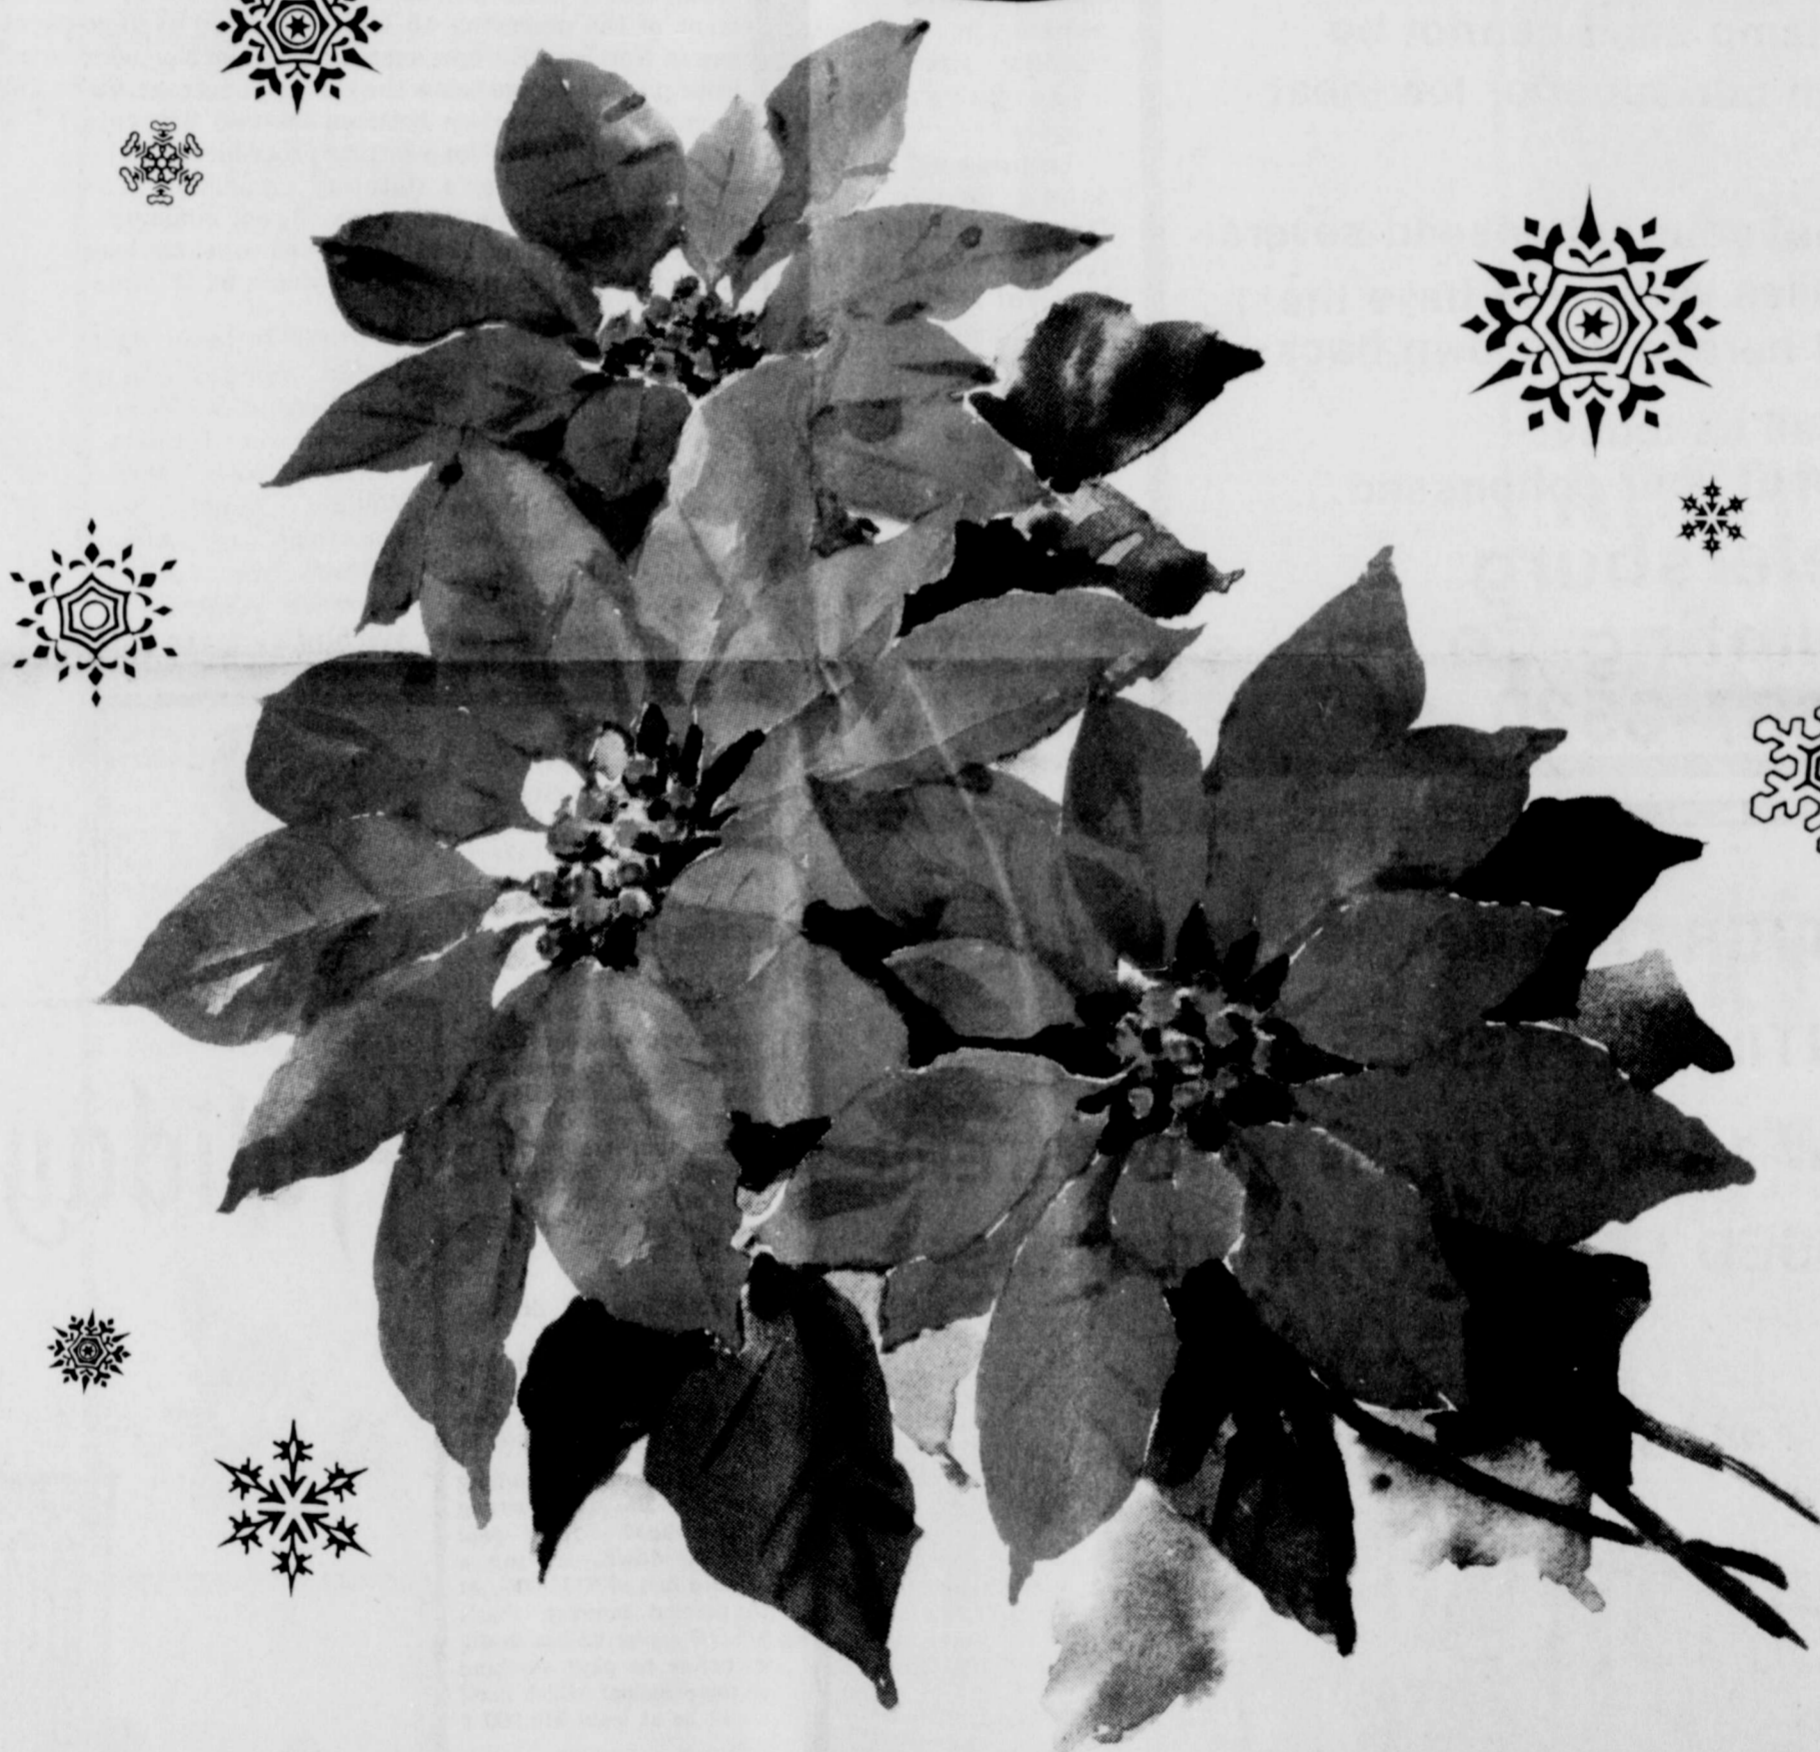

(musical prayers) of the Christian Church. Christmas hymns go back to the Fifth Century when most of them were written in Latin. Known as the father of caroling, St. Francis of Assisi brought the music to the people (before his time, only church officials had been encouraged to sing carols!).

NOW: The 20th Century has given us many popular Christmas tunes, such as "White Christmas" and

"Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer." The words of another favorite song may be on the lips of many people as they shop for that special gift this holiday season. It's George Gershwin's lovely "Embraceable You."

Merry Christmas

Christmas means many things: laughing children, smiling Santas, the color of poinsettias and pines. It's a time for warmth and gentleness, kindness and good feeling. May all of the season's finest joys be yours this yuletide. We're hoping just the nicest kinds of things come your way!

A very happy Christmas to all our Friends!

Hale County Ranked 54th For Oil Production

The Sale of Crude Oil and Natural Gas from Hale County wells in 1980 boosted the county economy and accounted for $154.1-million of the $31.2-billion value placed on Texas production last year.

In a report on the economic impact of oil and gas industry operations in the top producing counties of Texas, Dallas-based Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association said the county ranked 54th among Texas 254 counties on the basis of the value of its marketed petroleum production. This includes condensate and casinghead gas.

The county's wells produced 7.1-million barrels of crude oil, valued at $152.6-million, and 1-million Mcfs of natural gas, valued at $1.5-million. Owners of royalty in the county received $19.3-million as their share of the output, the Association said.

"Although crude oil and natural gas production in Texas declined slightly last year from 1979 levels, we in the industry are encouraged by the fact that drilling starts in 1980 were up 16 percent over the previous year," said the Association's chairman, Avery Rush, Jr., of Amarillo. "Since petroleum remains the cornerstone of our state's economy and its tax base, Texas must continue to encourage the development of its energy resources," Rush added.

In addition to paying local, county, and state property taxes, producers in Hale county also supported state government through production tax payments estimated at $7.1-million, according to the Association. Crude oil taxes amounted to $7-million while natural gas levies totalled $112,883.

Based on Texas Employment Commission figures, some 38 oil and gas industry employees in the county received wages of about $308,652 in 1980.

In the search for new petroleum reserves in the county, oil and gas operators spent a reported $1-million in the drilling of five wells, although none were wildcat, or exploratory, wells. This effort resulted in the completion of five oil wells. As of March 1, 1981, there were 217 producing oil wells in the county.

Petroleum processing also contributed to the county economy, with one petrochemical plant in operation.

Lakeview Locals

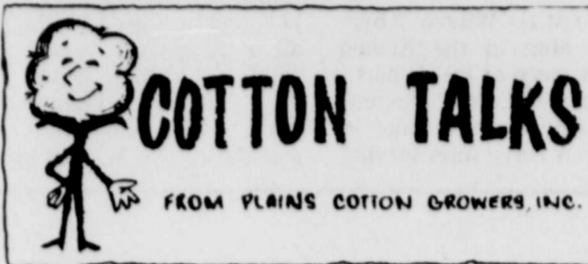

By Mrs. Norman Matthews

Mrs. Oleta Gilmore was the featured speaker Wednesday night, December 9th at Lakeview church. Rev. and Mrs. Coggin spent Sunday in Lubbock. He preached at John Knox Village Nursing Home and they visited Lawrence Amerson who is a patient in Methodist Hospital after having undergone major surgery.

Tammie Collins, Steve Spain and Debbie Collins of Lubbock visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Collins during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bristow and Casey of Big Spring visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Bristow during the weekend.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Montgomery this week are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon West of Midwest City, Okla.,

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON BROWERS, INC.

Producing cotton under the farm bill passed by the House in Washington December 16 will be pretty much "business as usual."

The cotton program included in the bill is the same basic "market-oriented" program in effect for the past four years, and with one major exception the differences in the cotton sections of the 1977 and 1981 bills are largely a matter of numbers.

The major exception is the absence of a disaster program in the new law.

That program, put into the 1973 farm act through the efforts of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, for eight years has provided sorly-needed crop loss insurance to farmers. "But unless it can be reinstated at some future date," laments PCG President Gary Ivey of Ralls, "that program is a thing of the past."

The Commodity Credit Corporation loan rate will be figured on the same formula as before — the lower of (1) 85 percent of the average of the median three of the preceding five years U.S. spot market prices or (2) 90 percent of the preceding 15 weeks adjusted average prices in Northern Europe, except that when Northern Europe prices average below the U.S. spot average, the loan can be set anywhere between the two. The only "improvement" in the loan-setting procedure is an increase in the 1981 law's statutory minimum, to 55 cents a pound, up from this year's 48-cent minimum.

The loan formula for 1982 is expected to set the loan just above 57 cents, up from this year's 52.46 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bonham of Sayre, Okla., and Nancy Montgomery of Lubbock.

Mrs. W. A. Goldston of Littlefield spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Mahagan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Meadows visited her brother-in-law, Bud Stokes, Monday who is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock.

Rev. and Mrs. William Mayo and Jonathan of Afton visited her father, Lawrence Amerson in Methodist Hospital, Saturday and Sunday.

LAKEVIEW PHILOSOPHER

Editor's Note: The Lakeview Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm explains how inflation is universal.

Dear Editor:

A friend handed me a newspaper clipping reporting that a survey among big shot executives making an average of $88,500 a year reveals they are having to struggle with inflation the same as everybody else.

"That's the kind of struggle I'd like to have," he said.

I told him he doesn't understand.

Say an executive making $88,500 a year has a $200,000 house, and a man in that bracket can't live in a house costing a piddling $100,000. Be in the wrong neighborhood. Say he paid $25,000 down, leaving a balance due of $175,000. At 15 percent interest, that's $26,500 a year he has to dig up before he pays anything on the principal, which itself would be at least $10,000 a year.

If he has two children, that means he has to have four cars, one for him, one for his wife and one apiece for the kids. You'd be surprised to learn how many cars, even Cadillacs, are bought on the installment plan among upper bracket people. Add another $10,000 for that. I don't know what gas and upkeep would come to, but add another $5,000. If the two kids are in an elitist college, and where else would they be, add $20,000 a more a year, with a little more for the year one of them wrecks his car.

Add say $10,000 more for income tax and a lawyer's fee for keeping it from going any higher, and probably that much for property taxes and insurance and the total outlay for that executive making $88,500 a year comes to $91,500 before he buys a single sack of groceries or pays his utility bills.

My friend said he hadn't thought of it like that, but still he'd like to give living on $88,500 a year a try.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

Struve Trip Continues

By Arno Struve
Hotels: We had excellent hotels in Hong Kong and in Tokyo. In China there were none that would have been considered to be first class. Some of the folks in our group even complained about the accommodations. To Minnie and me they were very good. We had stayed in much poorer ones elsewhere in other travels. They were more than adequate. Once in a while the plumbing didn't work but we were lucky and had no such problems.

The hotel doors were never locked, but there were always people on each floor watching who came and went. Besides, that, the hotels were inside big compounds with high walls around them and a main gate that had to be entered to get to the hotels. Hotels usually consisted of not just one building, as we are used to, but several large ones (three or so stories) inside the big compound. The hotels were masonry and appeared to be fire-proof, actually rather massive in appearance.

The rooms were arranged almost exactly alike in nearly every case. There were some exceptions. At Langzhou Minnie and I "drew" a suite which was quite luxurious compared to most others. The rooms were parceled out to us by room numbers and some of us were occasionally lucky enough to get the suites.

Sometimes we had radios in our rooms. They had shortwave bands as well as Am bands. We didn't care to listen much, though we did hear a few Voice of America and Moscow broadcasts in English. One of our group members, David Elliot, had a good shortwave radio of his own and kept us informed about the current news at breakfast time.

There were always dining rooms at the hotels where we had our breakfasts. The breakfasts were supposed to be American breakfasts, i.e. eggs, toast, preserves and coffee. They were the best meals we had had. Even though we would eat big breakfasts we were always hungry when other meals came around.

One member of our group, a lovely lady from Las Vegas, Nevada, was the unlucky one when it came to plumbing problems. Sometimes they'd fix the plumbing, but other times they would just give her another room.

We didn't have hot water for bathing at all times, but we had enough hot water at each place to bathe as often as we needed to.

The windows in most of the hotels were double. The panes were about a foot or more apart. This indicates that their winters must be pretty severe. Sometimes there were no screens and it was necessary to close the windows to keep mosquitoes out. This was especially true at Beijing, but these rooms were air-conditioned so it didn't matter much. But we do prefer fresh air.

A custom that we appreciated at many of the hotels and most of the restaurants was the provision of a warm wet wash cloth to each of us as we arrived. They were refreshing, cooling and cleaning. Sometimes the cloths were slightly perturbed.

Guides: Linblad our travel company, provided an American, David Ownby, as our China guide. He apparently spoke very good Chinese, even at times comprehending local Chinese better than our Chinese guides. David was born in Abilene, Tx. but didn't stay here long. His home is now Nashville, Tennessee. He got his bachelors degree from Vanderbilt, his masters from Columbia and is working on his doctorate from Harvard. His major, China and the Chinese language.

We had two Chinese, Mr. Bei and Mr. Wu, with us at all times during the whole trip. They were under the direction of the China International Travel Service. They were most gracious, as all the guides were, always attentive to our needs and wishes. These two spoke fair English, but our slang often "threw" them. They were both fine gentlemen. However, they didn't seem to be as interested as we were in local features we could see from the trains. Neither had previously made the extensive trip we were taking and didn't know much about what we were seeing.

At each city, we had at least two local guides. One at Hohhot spoke excellent English. Others spoke English a little but the rest had little comprehension of the language. Once or twice we ran into individuals on the city who spoke excellent English. The guides were all very good people.

To continue next week.

GTE Advises To Direct Calls During Christmas

Besides silver bells, phones will be ringing Christmas Day so much that phone lines in Texas may become overloaded at times.

"Dec. 25 is one of the busiest days of the year at General Telephone since thousands of Texas residents call or are called by friends and relatives that day," according to Jimmy Davis, the firm's Memphis division manager.

The most economical way to place your holiday calls is by direct dialing them, he noted. If you get a "no circuits available" recording or a fast busy signal when attempting to place a call, try again later. Requesting operator assistance will seldom help since the operator may reach the same recording.

"To best the 'calling' rush Friday, it may help to make your calls on Christmas Eve instead," Davis said.

Reduced rates will be in effect for telephone customers in Texas on Christmas, but equally low rates are in effect Christmas Eve after 5 p.m.

For direct-dialed calls placed to cities within the state Christmas Day, there is a 25-percent discount from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. and a 40-percent discount from 11 p.m. to 8 a.m.

For direct-dialed calls to out-of-state points, a 35-percent discount from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. and a 60-percent discount from 11 p.m. to 8 a.m. will be in effect Christmas Day.
