

Hance Optimistic About Budget, Terms Farming Situation A Depression

Kent Hance, Representative for the 19th Congressional District, was the speaker at the Hale Center town hall meeting Saturday. The meeting was held at the Hale Center High School Auditorium at 10 a.m.

Hance was there to visit with farmers and business men and women concerning legislation before Congress and to answer questions from the general public.

Pete Laney introduced Kent Hance before a crowd of several hundred people, many of which were from Abernathy. Hance first pointed out that Hale Center was in the center of his agricultural district and was therefore selected as the prime place to hold the meeting.

Hance began by saying that the present farm situation did not occur over night. "It is a situation that has been changing for the worse since 1975," Hance said. He attributed the present situation to embargoes and a big surplus of agricultural commodities.

Hance stated that the bad farming situation is also the result of bad farm bills. "The Farm Bill that just passed is worse than the previous Farm Bill," Hance said.

He also acknowledged the Farm Bill Charles Stenholm recently devised that would save the federal government $2 billion. "It was a good program that Congress didn't pass, and there were others," Hance said.

"We are presently in an agricultural depression, not a recession," Hance said. He also stated that one problem is the lack of national attention that has been focused on the agricultural depression in this area.

"No other industry has produced to the extent that it over-ways consumption," Hance said. "Because of the great surplus in agricultural commodities, they are more under-priced than any other commodities," Hance added.

Hance pointed out that the more that goes into loans and reserves, the better the prices will get.

There is presently a $91 billion deficit, but Hance is very optimistic about the federal budget in the future. "Reagan has designed several sound programs in the new budget, but those that helped Reagan the first time will not be there this time to support his budget proposals," Hance said. Hance added that if the correct adjustments are made, we could see some improvement in inflation.

Hance stated that it would be wise to double the excise tax on alcohol and tobacco. He also suggested that defense be cut by $10-$15 billion.

"Retirement programs have to be addressed," Hance said. "The problems is that other people are having to pay for those who retire early," Hance said. He also stated that he does not advocate a cut in social security.

City Council Discusses Facility Plan, GTE, And Election

The Abernathy City Council met Monday, February 8 at 7:30 in the City Hall meeting room with all members present.

The Council first discussed step one of the facility plan with a Representative from the City's Engineering Firm, Clayton Yeager.

The facility plan had been submitted to the Texas Department of Water Resources for examination. The plan calls for a primary treatment land application, which is the same sewage treatment method Abernathy presently has.

City wastes are presently disposed of on 40 acres of City land and private land north of Abernathy. This facility plan would require that the City purchase 170 more acres near the present facility.

City Manager Rod Ellis stated that the land might have to be purchased through a third party. The land purchased would be used to store and treat City sewage water before it is applied to nearby farmland through irrigation.

The Council approved this type of sewage treatment. Clayton Yeager and Rod Ellis will examine the possibilities of acquiring this type of sewage treatment facility for Abernathy.

"The City would like to get the facility plan approved immediately in order to get a federal grant that would pay 75 percent of the costs," Rod Ellis added.

Lady Lopes District Champs

The Lady Lopes won district 3-3A for the second consecutive year in a row by defeating Tulia, Childress and Floydada this past week.

The Lady Lopes are 10-0 in District and are ready to go on to the playoffs. They will face Lubbock Cooper in the Bi-District match-up Tuesday, February 23 at 6 p.m. The game will be played at the South Plains College gym in Levelland.

Plans were made for this playoff game last Monday when Superintendents, Principals and Coaches of both teams met at the Western Sizzler in Lubbock.

Cooper played the Lady Lopes earlier this year and won by 15 points 61-46. Head Girls Basketball Coach Larry Steele explained that the team was hitting less than 30 percent of their field goals and less than 35 percent of their free throws at that time. "Our percentage is much better on free throws and field shots since the first time we played them," Steele said. "We have a 50-50 chance of beating Cooper, it just depends on how we perform Tuesday night," Steele added.

The Lady Lopes have an overall record of 18-15 while Cooper has a record of 25-2.

Match Game
The Lady Lopes will play a practice match game with New Home, the District 1-A Champs in their district, at 6:30 here tonight.

Moore Announces Candidacy For District Attorney

Today, I am announcing my sincere desire to continue to serve the people of Hale and Swisher Counties as their District Attorney. Accordingly, I have filed the required documents with the office of Secretary of State and the Republican Party of Texas, officially proclaiming my candidacy.

As District Attorney, I respect and appreciate more than anyone the fine communities and people we have in Hale and Swisher Counties. Having been raised in West Texas, I know the people here share by dedication to the effective enforcement of our laws.

Since assuming the duties of the office of District Attorney, I have consistently worked to improve the daily operations of the office as well as its overall effectiveness. Toward that end I have become Hale and Swisher Counties' first full-time District Attorney.

I am the first District Attorney to devote all of my professional time, skills, and efforts to the prosecution of those individuals whose conduct endangers the public interest and safety, and I do not engage in any outside practice of civil law.

I have prosecuted more than a dozen individuals for violations of the Welfare Food Stamp Program and, in addition to convicting these violators, I have taken the necessary steps to prohibit them from receiving welfare benefits in the future. Also, under Texas' Organized Crime Statute, my office has instituted legal proceedings against nine individuals for conspiring to bring over 600 pounds of marijuana into this area. This is a first for Hale County and the largest drug case ever.

The Abernathy Antelopes are 9-1 in District, losing only to Tulia by 2 points two weeks ago. Tulia is 8-2 and winner of the second round of district play. The Lopes won the first round.

Earlier this week the Lopes crushed Childress 82-61 and Floydada 87-60 to finish out their regular season.

Head Boys Basketball Coach Carl Irlbeck is optimistic about the playoff game. "We will be ready to play and I think we will play our best game this year," Irlbeck said. "Tulia would have to give a peak performance to beat us," Irlbeck added.

Irlbeck also stated that we will do well in the playoff games. If the Lopes defeat Tulia, they will face Slaton in Bi-District, followed by playing the winner of the Perryton-Dimmitt game in Regionals.

ON THE COUNTY LINE

BY: KETH TOOLEY

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE Lady Lopes on winning district hands-down by defeating Childress Friday night and Floydada Tuesday night.

The Lady Lopes are a well coached team and each individual player has expressed an enthusiastic and winning attitude always characteristic of Abernathy students.

The Lady Lopes and Antelopes have once again proven to be the "teams to beat" for all other area schools. This makes the Lopes both popular and unpopular depending on who is the judge.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Antelopes and coaches for making the playoffs. Tulia is just a short stepping stone to the district title and we wish the Lopes well this Saturday night.

KENT HANCE seemed to be optimistic about inflation, interest rates and the price of gas, but he was not overly optimistic about the future of agriculture in this part of the country.

Hance stated that farming is no longer in a recession, but a depression. He said that a politician told a group of people that 2 percent of the farmers could pay their FHA loans this year. One man in the group got up and said, "What did those farmers do that paid it, grow marijuana?"

I don't think this would be the answer to our farming problems in this area, but there are probably those who would disagree.

THERE IS A FELLER up at Tulia that has been boasting about how good the Hornets are this year in basketball. He is absolutely right, you would have to be pretty good to take second place in this competitive district.

And we hope he won't be to disappointed with being only second best following the game Saturday.

as long as deficits remain high, interest rates will in turn remain high. He expressed some optimism saying that interest rates may go down to 13 or 14 percent by late summer or early fall.

In the area of foreign affairs, Hance stated that Reagan's inexperience in foreign affairs is obvious by the way Reagan is handling it. "This inexperience in foreign affairs is due to Reagan jumping from Governor to President and not having any experience in Congress," Hance said.

Hance disagreed with the President when he made a decision to pay $71 million interest to U.S. banks on a Poland loan. The U.S. government is paying this money to U.S. banks because Poland couldn't afford to.

Hance was also critical of Secretary of Agriculture John Block, saying that Block has no conception of our agriculture problems.

"I suggested a 25 percent set aside program and Block wanted a 15 percent set aside program," Hance said.

Hance answered several questions from people in the audience. Hance discussed the price of gas saying that it has levelled off and should drop. He also explained that farm bills do a lot more to hurt prices than embargoes do, before the meeting adjourned.

prosecuted in the history of this office. In an effort to offset the expenses of my office, and thus save our citizens' tax dollars, last April first, I instituted the District Attorney Check Collection Fee Program. As allowed by state law, my office is collecting a fee from the offender of Texas' Checks laws as well as returning funds to those citizens and merchants who might otherwise have been defrauded. This money is in addition to the tens of thousands of dollars my office has otherwise collected in the form of restitution and fines. The money is being returned to our citizens who have been the victims of crimes against their person or property. I believe efforts of this nature are in the best interest of the people of this district and they will continue to be a priority of my office.

In conclusion, by my oath of office and under Texas law as District Attorney, my duty is to see that justice is done. I believe that justice is best served by effective prosecution through experienced, dedicated efforts. I have the experience and I pledge to our citizens my continued dedication in their behalf.

With the help of the people of this district, I will continue, as your District Attorney, to strive to make our community a safer and better place to live and raise our families.

At General Telephone... We're Not Simply Talking About Service Improvements We're Making Them In Abernathy

At General Telephone, better service isn't just a goal, it's a solid commitment. General Telephone spent over 354 million dollars in 1981 on capital expenditure projects (i.e. new electronic switches, expanded cable projects, modernization) and GTE will spend over 410 million dollars in 1982 to provide you the best telecommunications available.

For Abernathy this investment in service improvement is working as shown below. General Telephone is working hard to continually provide you with the best of service.

The Texas Public Utilities Commission (PUC) has established certain standards in public hearings, and our service results are listed against those standards.

Reporting a power outage helps SPS personnel restore service more quickly. During major power interruptions, plant operators receive a signal telling them that a problem exists. Calls from customers help these operators pinpoint the exact location of the outage, allowing service crews to make repairs quickly, with less inconvenience to customers.

Billy Mason, Area Dispatcher, Roswell.

The most energy-efficient portable appliances are those that can be used for more than one thing. For instance, an electric fry pan may be used to fry eggs and meats, make a cake, cook roasts or prepare one-dish meals. When buying portable appliances, look for good warranty coverage and local availability of replacement parts and service. And always read the use and care book provided by the manufacturer BEFORE using the appliance. Baking a cake in an electric skillet is twice as economical as in the oven.

Christye Waters, Home Service Advisor, Lubbock.

It takes nearly one pound of coal to produce one kilowatt-hour of electricity. Southwestern Public Service has long-term coal contracts with mines in Wyoming to provide the large supply of coal needed to generate electricity for its customers. Even though it is transported about 1,000 miles, in 110-car trains, coal is still the least expensive fuel.

Jerry Hermesmeier, Plant Manager, Harrington Station.

Knowing what electricity is worth is worth knowing. For answers to your questions, call or write your SPS manager.

Shallowater Woman Attacked

Last Friday morning an 18 year old Shallowater woman reported that she had been attacked by a Mexican American man in a Lubbock downtown alley, according to Lubbock police.

The incident occurred during the daylight hours at approximately 9 a.m., when a man reportedly walked up to the woman and grabbed her. He pushed her against a brick wall and attempted to make advances toward her, police officers said.

The victim said she tried to discourage the man's advances as he attempted to remove her skirt, authorities said.

The woman prevented the man from going further by striking the man on the forearm causing him to let go and she fled. She ran into a nearby store and immediately called the police. Reports stated that the man fled down the alley.

The assailant was described as being in his early 20's with long black hair parted down the middle and having a scraggly mustache.

ENERGY SAVING WAYS

With MICROWAVE OVENS

High energy costs have hit every family's pocket-books—and trying to find ways to save energy makes good economic sense. According to home economists from Whirlpool Corporation, the microwave oven can help cut cooking costs in a big way since it only uses about half the energy of a conventional oven.

Farmers Urged To Plan Their Wheat Irrigation Strategy

Farmers are more concerned than ever with the high cost of irrigating crops according to Ollie Liner, Hale County Extension Agent. Some are planning to irrigate their wheat only once or twice. The time to apply a single irrigation for the greatest yield response is a question foremost in their minds.

55 percent of the yield that might be obtained if the wheat were fully irrigated says Liner. Early spring irrigation promotes excess vegetative growth which could cause increased moisture stress if additional water were not available at the critical flowering stage. Research indicates that early spring or late winter irrigation is not advisable unless the excess forage is needed for grazing emphasizes Liner. The increased foliage growth resulting from early irrigations makes the wheat more susceptible to leaf diseases and utilizes nutrients that are needed later for grain production. Wheat irrigated in early winter and not grazed, grows too tall and frequently lodges with little or no enhancement of grain yield. If the producer plans two irrigations, one of these should be applied at jointing says Liner. For example, in Hale County an irrigation could be applied in late March or early April, when fall planted wheat begins to joint, and the second irrigation applied during the last week of April, when wheat normally begins to head. These stages may occur somewhat earlier following a mild winter such as we are experiencing this year. A grain fill irrigation in May usually contributes less to yield than either the flowering or jointing irrigations. It is advisable only if the soil is bonedry by the end of the milk stage of kernel development, according to Liner. In recent years this area has had cool temperatures and normal to above rainfall in May. A grain fill irrigation may be good insurance, however, in the event that hot drying winds occur that could cause shrivelling and rapid ripening of wheat fields that are low in reserve soil moisture.

sufficient supplies, exports of 8 million bales or more are generally expected for 1982-83.

Domestic demand for cotton could be stimulated by lower interest rates which would remove some of the disincentive for inventory ownership and lead to some rebuilding of stocks. While stocks have been reduced to bare-bones levels all the way from mills' raw fiber warehouses to retailers' shelves, the practice of hand-to-mouth purchasing will probably continue until buyers are convinced that the upside price risk exceeds the carrying cost.

The economists see prospects for a U.S. offtake of 14 million bales which would reduce domestic stocks to 4 million by August, 1983.

CCI OFFICIALS NAMED: Harold C. Weeth, Coalinga, Calif., producer, is the 1982 president of Cotton Council International, the overseas division of the National Cotton Council.

Weeth, who serves as board chairman of Calcot, Ltd., succeeds Robert H. Squires, Lubbock, Tex., who now becomes CCI board chairman.

New directors are: Morris M. Bryan, Jr., Jefferson, Ga.; W.L. Carter, Scotland Neck, N.C.; W.B. Dunavant, Jr., Memphis; J.S. Francis, Jr., Peoria, Ariz.; Bruce Heiden, Buckeye, Ariz.; Aven Whittington, Greenwood, Miss.; and Mike Wilson, Wilsom, Ark.

Re-elected directors were: L.N. Arnold, Jr., El Paso; Donald Comer, Jr., Sylacauga, Ala.; Eduardo C. Esteve, Dallas; Rufus Grisham, Lubbock; Robert A. Grove, Galveston; Frank B. Jones, Lamesa, Tex.; Roger Malkin, New York, N.Y.; Glen O. Petersen, Wardell, Mo.; Vernon Scott, Tillar, Ark.; and Charles C. Wisler, Fort Worth.

The group will supervise CCI program and activities designed to boost overseas sales of U.S. cotton.

Lakeview Philosopher Comes Up With A Plan For Making All Football Fields Weather-Proof

Editor's note: The Lakeview Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm watches football, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: Football fans who watched the play-off games on TV two weeks ahead of the superbowl, one played in finger-freezing sub-zero weather and the other on a slippery, muddy field, know that's no way to decide a division championship.

Every game throughout the season ought to be played in a domed stadium, fans say, but there's a hitch to it. Domed stadiums cost anywhere from 10 to 100 million dollars and under the present economic situation are out of reach of most cities who haven't got enough money now to patch their potholes.

But there is a solution. Don't try to inclose the whole stadium. That costs too much. Inclose just the playing field.

For about a tenth of what a regular domed stadium costs you could build a big glass box over the field. The fans of course would be left sitting out in the open in the cold and rain but that won't matter. They'll all show up regardless and sit through the whole game so long as their team isn't too far behind, including the few nuts who show up without a shirt in sub-zero weather just to get on television.

There are many advantages to the glassed-in field. For example, the quarterback could call his signals without trying to yell them over the angry roar of the crowd after an official makes a wrong call. A wrong call is one that goes against your team. The fans could boo to their hearts' content and the noise would never penetrate the glass. Furthermore, the referee could hear what a raging coach just called him.

I don't know how this set-up would affect the TV announcers, but some way ought to be devised to include and silence them in glass too. They talk too much anyway.

Football under glass is the answer. Neither rain nor sleet nor gloom of boos should stay a football team from its appointed job of earning its salary and paying a proper return to its owners.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

COTTON TODAY

A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

COTTON'S ECONOMIC OUTLOOK PRESENTED: National Cotton Council economists look for world cotton supply and demand to shift into a better balance in the coming season, and restore some degree of prosperity to the industry.

Reporting at the annual meeting, Council economists identified the global supply bulge as cotton farmers' biggest problem and the worsening textile trade deficit as one of the chief culprits behind cotton mill difficulties.

World cotton production is expected to take a 5.2 million bale leap this season, soaring the record 70.8 million bales due to increased yields and acreage. The average world yield jumped 5 percent over last year.

World cotton use is expected to reach a new high of 66.5 million bales this season. While this is 1.5 million above a year ago, the economists said it could have been significantly higher expect for depressed economic conditions.

These factors directly influenced U.S. cotton's market as the large global supply weighed heavily on depressed economies and pushed prices down to the loan level, the economists said.

Cotton exports for the season are expected to total 7 million bales, but U.S. mill consumption at 5.6 million bales for the 1981 calendar year is below projections.

Council economists said the economy alone is not to blame for weak domestic consumption, noting that the cotton textile trade deficit plunged to 1.3 million bale equivalents. This was more than twice the 1980 deficit, and resulted from both a rise in imports and a drop in textile exports.

Adding net cotton textile imports to U.S. mill consumption reveals that consumer use of cotton was actually about 100,000 bales higher in 1981 than in either of the previous two years.

For the 1982-83 season, the economists believe world cotton production will be near 65.6 million bales or about 7 percent below this year. Lower acreage is anticipated in view of current prices, and yields are not expected to equal this season's record levels.

World cotton consumption is expected to post another gain of 1 million to 1.5 million bales or perhaps more if the global economy improves significantly.

Most of the increase will occur in the net importing countries and, since the U.S. is again expected to have

Locals Tour Northeastern States

Monday we left Heritage Village after the christian broadcasting service was over. We stayed that night in the colorful hills in Hillsborough, North Carolina.

Tuesday we stayed in a valley in Charles City, Virginia where we visited the Shirley Plantation Records mention. Shirley as early as 1611 and the estate was inhabited by 1613. The present family has owned the plantation since 1660. Shirley was founded six years after the settlers arrived at Jamestown in 1607 to establish the first permanent English Colony in the New World, seven years before the pilgrims landed at Plymouth in Massachusetts. Shirley is truly Virginia's unchanged plantation. Visitors today see an 800 acre James River Estate owned and operated by the tenth generation of the original owners. The furnishings and family possessions of the Hill family and the Carter family are still in the mansion, many in the same places they have occupied for more than two centuries. Shirley situated on the plantation highway paralleling the historic James River was a well known center of hospitality one hundred years before and during the American Revolution.

Ann Hill Carter wife of Harry Lee of Stratford and mother of General Robert E. Lee was born at Shirley. Robert E. Lee the famous Confederate General one of the great Americans of all times spent several years in his mother's home and received part of his schooling there. We saw his crib and many other antiques of interest in the mansion. We saw some of the people, the tenth generation, who still live upstairs in the Mansion, on the eldest plantation in Virginia. The estate is a busy agricultural community that produces corn, barley, wheat, and soybeans. A number of interesting original outbuilding help fill out this eighteenth century scene all are built in brick of Flemish bone pattern, popular two centuries ago. Among them a large two story kitchen, an ample smokehouse, an elaborate stable and two sturdy brick barns. The visit to Shirley was a real and meaningful experience.

Wednesday we visited the Berkeley Plantation known as the most historical. A James River plantation ancestral home of a signer of the Declaration of Independence and two United States presidents. It is located halfway between Richmond and Williamsburg on State Route 5, Charles City, Virginia, only about three or four miles from the Shirley plantation that we visited the day before. Berkeley is a center of historical interest and a beautiful restored example of mansions that graced Virginia's "Golden Age". The land on which it stands was part of a grant made in 1619 by King James to Berkeley Company and was designated "Barkeley Hundred". On December 4, 1619 the settlers stepped ashore and in accordance with the proprietors instructions that the day of our ships arrival shall be yearly kept as a day of Thanksgiving. We were told that then and there they celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day more than a year before the pilgrims arrived in New England making Berkeley the site of the first official Thanksgiving in America. William Henry Harrison born at Berkeley was first secretary of the Northwest Territory and the ninth President of the United States. Benjamin Harrison was a member of the Continental Congress, signer of the Declaration of Independence and Governor of Virginia, he was the twenty third President of the United States. Benjamin Harrison was born at Berkeley, he was the grandson of George Washington, he entertained Washington often, we were told that every President from Washington to Buchanan, enjoyed Berkeley's famous hospitality. When William Henry Harrison was elected President of the United States he returned to write his inaugural address at Berkeley in the room in which he was born. In America's wars the Berkeley plantation did not escape. In 1781 it was plundered by British troops under Benedict Arnold. During the war between the States it served as headquarters for General McClellan after his withdrawal from the Battle of Malvern Hill. Federal troops were encamped in its fields, transports and gun boats anchored in James River. While quartered here with McClellan in the summer of 1862 General Butterfield composed Taps. At this time the estate was known as Harrison Landing. These people have ever right to be proud of their heritage.

Thursday we drove 6.5 mile by way of the Carter's Grove country road that connects colonial Williamsburg with the plantation. The protected one-way road allows motorist to drive through Tidewater, Virginia woodlands, and across peaceful waters to see the beautiful Carter's Grove Plantation in Williamsburg, Virginia on the James River. For more than two centuries the stately home at Carter Grove Plantation has overlooked the James River in Virginia. Here George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and other American Patriots enjoyed gracious hospitality. For generations guest of Carter's Grove have been both numerous and distinguished. A noted architect and author called Carter Grove the most beautiful house in America. We had a well informed guide who told us in detail, as we leisurely climbed the magnificent carved stairway upstairs that the paneling in the entrance hall was described by an architectural historian as a masterpiece, it took six years to complete the mansion, she said. It truly was the most beautiful of all the plantations that we visited.

Friday October 16th we drove in the blue ridge mountain region of Virginia. I have never seen such beauty the flaming fall foliage and the green grass valleys with cattle grazing in the meadows. "The light of God surrounds us!"

The love of God enfolds us! The flower of God protects us! The presence of God watches over us! Wherever we are God is!"

The blue ridge parkway, America's most scenic drive connecting Virginia, North Carolina, and Tennessee overlooks campgrounds, picnic areas, trails, and way-side exhibits all contribute to make this a memorial trip. We traveled the Skyland drive to the top overlooking the Shenandoak Valley the highest point on the drive. The view was magnificent.

Friday night we stayed in North Bristol in the state of Virginia.

Saturday October 17th we camped in Buffalo, Tennessee and attended church there the next morning it was a small church but most inspiring we heard the gospel preached and they sang old time gospel songs every one was so friendly they made us feel most welcome, it is always such a blessing to me to be in the house of the Lord.

Sunday night we camped near Little Rock, Arkansas.

Monday we were back in Texas and stayed the night in Gainsville. Tuesday we had such a joyful time in Vernon visited with friends and relatives. Vernon had just celebrated its' first century, one hundred years of progress.

We arrived home Wednesday day October 21, 1981 thinking the good Lord for the wonderful trip and for a safe return home to our dear family and friends, that we love so much. We had such a blessing Thanksgiving with all our family together, and on December 6th the children, grandchildren and our two precious great-grand children honored us with a reception for our 50th Anniversary it was the most beautiful and the happiest day of our life. The Lord made it a lovely day with bright sunshine making it possible for our many friends who were so sweet to come, some of them so far to help make our day more lovely. Our daughter counted almost three hundred registered, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., in the lovely Golden Anniversary book. I can't say enough about how we loved an appreciated each one that helped in any way or had a part in coming and making it such a great day for us. I haven't been able to count all the beautiful cards not yet but I will read them over and over again. There were so many and then Christmas came and we had all the family together again and more, more lovely cards and gifts came from friends and family. So many many treasures and precious memories to cherish the rest of our life. I can't thank God enough for all our many blessings. Like Tammy Bakker's song We are blessed, we don't deserve it but we are blessed.

"To Thee dear Lord who created every flower, tree, and shrub, we give thanks. May we tend these rich blessings with care, and each day may we learn to appreciate beauty in Thee, in nature, and in our fellowman, as the flowers lift their faces to the sun, may we lift our hearts to Thee in praise and Thanksgiving.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

J. DAVIS ARMISTEAD, O.D.
DOCTOR OF OPTOMETRY

ASTIGMATISM

One of the eye problems that causes blurred vision is astigmatism. This happens when the cornea or "window of the eye" is out of shape. A normal cornea has a perfect curve, with the same degree of slope on all sides. Light rays that pass through the cornea come together at a single point on their way to the retina.

But that isn't possible in the astigmatic eye. The rays of light don't come together at the same point. There are two separate images. This doesn't mean that people with astigmatism see double. But it does blur their vision.

There are three kinds of astigmatism, depending on the eye's point of focus. It's "nearsighted" if the focus takes place before the image gets to the retina. It's "farsighted" if the focus takes place after the image reaches the retina. Or it can be a combination of both.

Whatever the cause, happily, it can be corrected with glasses. Then the images will be sharp and clear when they get to the brain.
