Money Taken In Aggravated Robbery At Allsups

A Hale Center man has been charged for the aggravated robbery of the Allsups store in Abernathy last Friday night.

Formerly charged by Abernathy Police Chief Raymond Naron for aggravated robbery, was John Henry Marshall, a 33 year old black male from Hale Center, according to Raymond Naron.

Marshall entered Allsups at approximately 9:15 p.m. and pulled a butcher knife on store employee Norma Linda Flores, Naron said.

Marshall told Flores he wanted all the money in the cash register. She gave him an undetermined amount of money and the man fled on foot, Naron said.

Flores immediately called Abernathy Police. Naron called Hale County and Lubbock County deputies to assist him in finding Marshall, after having searched Abernathy streets, Naron said.

Marshall was found and arrested in Hale Center by a Hale County deputy. He was taken to the Plainview jail, Naron said.

Flores was asked to go to Plainview and pick the robber out of a line-up of suspects. She picked Marshall and he is presently in the Hale County jail.

Antelopes Fall Prey To Bobcats At Regional

The Dimmitt Bobcats defeated the Abernathy Antelopes 61-57 in the first round of Regional play last Friday night in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

It was an extremely competitive game and remained close to the end. The team that the Antelopes had earlier beat by 8 points on their own court, had improved and played a perfect game Friday night. The accurate shooting of Dimmitts Jeff Watts and free throws, by Kevin Cleveland helped the Bobcats escape a loss to the Lopes.

For the Lopes, Sammy Galloway was the leading scorer of the evening with 17 points, followed by Rodney Cannon with 14 and Malcolm Dunn 12. For Dimmitt, Watts scored 27 points and Cleveland 16.

The first quarter went back and forth with both teams taking and then losing the lead. Malcolm Dunn put on a great performance scoring 8 points in the first stanza, but the Lopes were behind 12-16 when the first period came to an end.

The Lopes came back in the second quarter and everyone got a piece of the action. Irlbeck, Cannon, Houston and Galloway all scored points. Galloway made five of five free throws for the night, three of which he made in the second quarter and the Lopes led 27-25 at intermission.

The Bobcats out-scored the Lopes 17-12 in the third quarter to go ahead 42-39.

The Bobcats maintained their lead in the fourth quarter and with less than 3 minutes left, the Lopes were behind 45-53. Riley, Cannon and Galloway all made points to bring the Lopes within 1 point 55-56 with 26 seconds left in the game. A series of Lopes fouls determined the outcome of the game at this point. In the last 38 seconds, Dimmitts Cleveland scored 6 points in free throws and the Bobcats won 61-57.

The Bobcats made 17 of their points with free throws. Abernathy had 24 fouls.

Man Escapes Serious Injury

A man from Pacoima, California escaped serious injury when his tractor-trailer rig turned over on I-27 North of Abernathy last Wednesday afternoon at approximately 2:30 p.m.

Conley Rhodes, 47, was taken to Lubbock General Hospital following the accident and was later released after treatment of minor injuries.

Rhodes was thrown through the windshield as his rig skidded to a stop, which was caused by the wind blowing over his rig, a Department of Public Safety officer stated.

The officer also stated that Rhodes was travelling north at I-27 and FM 54 when a wind gust blew the empty trailer over, causing the cab to fall over.

The rig blocked traffic on I-27 north for more than 2 hours.

Vicky McKenzie was also selected to the All-Regional tournament.

Antelopes Rick Houston and Malcolm Dunn made the boys' All-District list. Honorable mention went to Max Riley, Cletus Irlbeck and Sammy Galloway.

Rodney Cannon was awarded the "Most Valuable Player" in District. This is the third year in a row that Abernathy has had the most valuable player in this district.

Seal Coating, Water Project, EMS Discussed By City Council

The Abernathy City Council met Monday night at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall Meeting Room with all members present.

The Council approved the minutes of the previous meeting before discussing several important items of business.

Richard DuBose was present to inform the Council of his intentions to put a Recreation Center for the young people of Abernathy in his building next to DuBose Insurance.

DuBose stated that the recreation area would cater to school students and there would be rules for kids to follow when there. He also stated that the recreational area would be open after school hours and it would be under adult supervision.

The Council pointed out that there may be a parking problem. One Councilman also stated that they had tried a teen center years ago that had failed to remain the "popular place to go" after a period of time.

Election Ballots

The City ordered 1,000 election ballots. The Council agreed to number the first 100 ballots for absentee voting. The other 900 ballots will be for in-person voting.

Absentee voting will begin this Monday and will continue two weeks until March 30, for those who will not be present to vote April 3.

Street Seal Coat Project

The budget for the Abernathy street seal coat project was set at $30,000. Twenty thousand will be used from the City revenue sharing fund and ten thousand from the general fund for seal coating.

The City's goal is to coat 40-45 thousand square yards of Abernathy streets for the coming year. Last year the City seal coated 45,620 square feet, at 49 cents a yard, which amounted to $22,353.

Ordinance Passed

The Council passed an ordinance designating an alley in block five of the Vineyard Addition. Waymond Jones donated a strip of land 148 feet long and 20 feet wide to the City to be utilized as an alley in this addition.

Lubbock Water Project

The Council considered a resolution supporting the City of Lubbock's Post-Justiceburg water project. The resolution will be sent to the Texas Water Commission for approval before Lubbock can acquire this water source.

Council members approved the resolution as Abernathy is on a list with approximately 10 other cities to be considered a recipient of this water source from Lubbock.

The City of Lubbock will build a water treatment plant to treat the water that is pumped from Justiceburg. The Council voiced positive statements about Lubbock acquiring this water as it might be a future source of water for Abernathy as well.

EMS Report

The Abernathy Emergency Medical Services report was recently submitted to the City. It revealed that the local EMS operated with a deficit of $11,023 last year.

This deficit is paid out of the City general fund. The City, in turn, compensates for this deficit with taxes.

The EMS operated on a budget of $20 thousand last year. There are 17 volunteer emergency medical technicians on the Abernathy squad. Over $15 thousand was paid to EMS technicians last year for service calls.

The Council discussed the possibility of increasing the charge from $75 to $100 for EMS emergency runs to the hospital. Oxygen will continue to be $7.50 and the per mile charge for non-emergency transfers will be $1. The service charge may be increased to help compensate for the huge EMS deficit suffered by the City each year.

Other Business

The Council agreed to join with other cities to hire a rate consultant to audit buyers will have a free lunch at noon on March 18, sponsored by Fred Garrison Oil Company and Southwestern Grain, Inc.

All businessmen and farmers of Hale County and others interested persons are invited to attend.

If you are planning on going, get your tickets now as there are only 300 for sale.

THE ANTELOPES AND LADY LOPES are to be congratulated on a fine performance this year. They deserve a pat on the back for going to Regional and winning Bi-District.

The Lope's season ended Friday night when they were defeated by Dimmitt. Dimmitt went on to defeat Denver City in triple overtime 74-67 to win the Region I Class 3-A title.

We wish the Bobcats well at state and know they will represent this portion of the panhandle well in the state tournament.

ACCORDING TO A news release from the High Plains Conservation Water District No. 1, the amount of water needed to wet the top five feet of soil to field capacity around Abernathy varies.

The map shows that over 8 inches is needed for fields northeast of Abernathy. Northwest of Abernathy, 0-2 inches of moisture is needed to wet the fields. And south of Abernathy, 4-8 inches of moisture is needed.

Snow just doesn't amount to much moisture and hopefully we will get the necessary rain needed to wet the soil to the proper capacity with April showers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Keith:

A student wrote this, and I would like to see it run if possible. It sums up briefly and concisely the positive things about A.H.S. and our community.

Thanks,
Sharon Kester

"What I Think Makes A.H.S. Great!"

What I think makes A.H.S. great is that everyone participates in some kind of activity, and everyone has spirit in everything such as the basketball teams, track, X-country team, science team-everything.

We are also good sports, and we have a good student council, principal, and student body--Also, our school is clean and neat.

Everyone has worked hard to put all of those trophies in our school, and it makes all of us look like champs, and we are.

I cannot leave out the most important part. The teachers are what make A.H.S. great too! Without them, we would not learn anything. The classes are hard, but we do learn.

Another thing that makes A.H.S. great to me, is that it is harder than any other school, and it makes us smarter than we used to be.

That is "What I Think Makes A.H.S. Great!"

Texas Cotton Farmers Likely To Reduce Crop

Most Texas cotton farmers will likely participate in the 15 percent acreage reduction program recently announced by the Secretary of Agriculture.

While participation is voluntary, farmers must comply if they wish to be eligible for target price protection and Commodity Credit Corporation loans on their 1982 cotton crop. And that's incentive enough.

Cotton farmers in Texas as well as in other states really have little choice but to participate in the program," believes Dr. Carl Anderson, cotton marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Farmers are faced with a poor price outlook for this year's crop due to surplus cotton supplies," he said. "So they really need the price protection offered by the program, especially with current prices hovering near the loan rate."

Cotton farmers are getting their first deficiency payments in history on their 1981 crop because the average market price fell below the target price of 70.87 cents a pound. The target price for the 82 crop will be 71 cents a pound, and farmers will likely get another deficiency payment unless something happens to strengthen the market, notes the economist. The 82 loan rate will be 57.08 cents for Base Grade 41-Staple 34, Mike 35-49 Upland cotton.

To illustrate the bleak price situation that cotton farmers face, Anderson points out that the price of Upland cotton averaged 50 cents a pound in mid-January compared to 76.60 cents in January of 1981.

"This was brought on mainly by a bumper U.S. crop last year that was the largest since 1963," he says. "At the same time, domestic use of cotton has slackened so that carryover on August 1 is expected to be around six million bales—more than double last year's level."

As far as the acreage reduction program is concerned, Anderson says that farmers must reduce their plantings by at least 15 percent of their established cotton acreage base—the higher of their 81 acreage or the average of the 80-81 acreages. However, where farms have been following a definite rotation pattern, the base will reflect such rotations.

Land taken out of production must be eligible cropland and must be devoted to conservation uses. It may be grazed except during the six principal growing months.

"Neither off-setting compliance or cross-compliance is a requirement in the program," adds the economist. "This means that farmers owning or operating more than one farm will not be required to participate on all farms to obtain program benefits on participating farms. Also, farmers need not participate in the Upland cotton program to qualify for program benefits on other crops. Of course, the $50,000 limitation on program benefits remains in effect."

Cotton farmers can obtain additional information about specific provisions of the acreage reduction program from their local ASCS offices, says Anderson.

COTTON TALKS
 FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK, Friday, February 26, 1982

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has "projected" target price deficiency payment rates for the 1983 crops of cotton, wheat, corn, and sorghum, but cautions that the projections "in no way represent USDA expectations for payment rates."

Using current price levels and sales volumes as a starting point and guessing at prices and sales for the remainder of the year, the current-year projected deficiency payment rate came to 9.8 cents per pound for cotton, 15 cents per bushel on corn, 18 cents per bushel on sorghum and 30 cents per bushel for wheat.

The projections are necessary under current law as a means to effectuate a provision aimed at giving fair treatment under acreage reduction programs to those producers affected by the $50,000 limit on total payments to any one farmer. Simply put, the law states that when there is an indication that a producer's total payments on all crops will be reduced by a given percentage, that farmer's acreage reduction requirement shall be reduced accordingly.

To decrease a farmer's acreage reduction requirement on the 1982 crop and to know how much to reduce the requirement, a top USDA official explained to Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., "We have to project as best we can a deficiency payment rate on all affected crops before planting time. But it should be made clear that these projections are not predictions, or even estimates," he continued, "because we know full well that the figures can and probably will change as production and demand prospects change in coming months."

At signup time Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices will calculate what each farmer might receive in payments on all crops this year and set the level of his required acreage cutback for the respective crops accordingly if the amount exceeds $50,000.

For example a cotton farmer with a 2,000-acre base in 1982 would normally be required to idle 300 acres (15 percent of 3,000). But if the figures show that his aggregate payments may add up to $100,000, only half of which he could receive because of the limitation, his acreage reduction requirement will be cut in half also, to 150 acres.

However the remaining 150 acres cannot be planted to cotton. They can be planted to soybeans or other program crops on which the producer does not choose to meet reduction or conservation requirements. This restricts or even nullifies the value of the provision to High Plains farmers who have no viable alternative to cotton. But in those areas where more than one program crop is grown, the benefit to producers can be substantial.

Orderly Marketing Plan Can Raise Grain Prices

A national marketing program is being developed that will raise grain prices one dollar per hundred pounds, (56 cents per bushel), in a very short period of time, according to Elbert Harp, Executive Director of Grain Sorghum Producers Association. The 20-10-20 Orderly Marketing Plan, designed by Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-Texas), has been endorsed by GSPA.

SS Rep. Coming Tuesday

The Social Security representative, Janet Jelen from the Plainview Social Security office will be working in the City Hall in Abernathy from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., Tuesday, March 16, 1982.

TYING THE KNOT-It's happening later in life these days.

As many young people postpone marriage and the rate of divorce increases, more and more marriages today involve individuals in their late 20's and early 30's, says Diane Welch, a family life education specialist.

Under the 20-10-20 Plan, farmers would place at least 20% of their supply and production in the farmer-held reserve and use the Government Loan Program for the balance where financing is needed. Other provisions of the plan are:

1. Farmers would sell no grain until the price reaches the reserve "trigger" price which currently is $3.00 per bushel ($5.36 per cwt.) on sorghum and $3.15 ($5.62 on corn.

2. After market prices reach the trigger, farmers would sell only 10% of their remaining stocks in any 30 day period during the first 3 months. This action will keep pressure on the market to raise prices.

3. After the first 3 month sales period, each farmer could sell 20% of his remaining stocks during a 30 day period.

4. Minimum sales prices will move up throughout the year as a storage and interest costs are added to the Reserve trigger price.

"This program will work," Harp said, "if it is coordinated with reduced planting when a surplus exists and if farmers are willing to cooperate to make it work." Harp urges grain farmers to carefully study the plan which is expected to have the support of most farm and commodity organization.

COTTON TODAY
 A NATIONAL COTTON COUNCIL SERVICE

PLANTING INTENTIONS ANNOUNCED: The U.S. Department of Agriculture's February 1 survey shows farmers intend to plant 12,599,000 acres of upland cotton in 1982. This compares with a 1981 plantings figure of 14,319,000 acres.

State planting totals include: Arizona, 550,000; California, 1,440,000; Oklahoma, 650,000; and Texas 6,300,000.

BALE COMMITTEE TO MEET: The Joint Cotton Industry Bale Packaging Committee will meet March 3 in Memphis, the National Cotton Council announces. The agenda includes discussion of a guide for acceptable bale conditions, systems for complete bale coverage, and reports on various experimental test products.

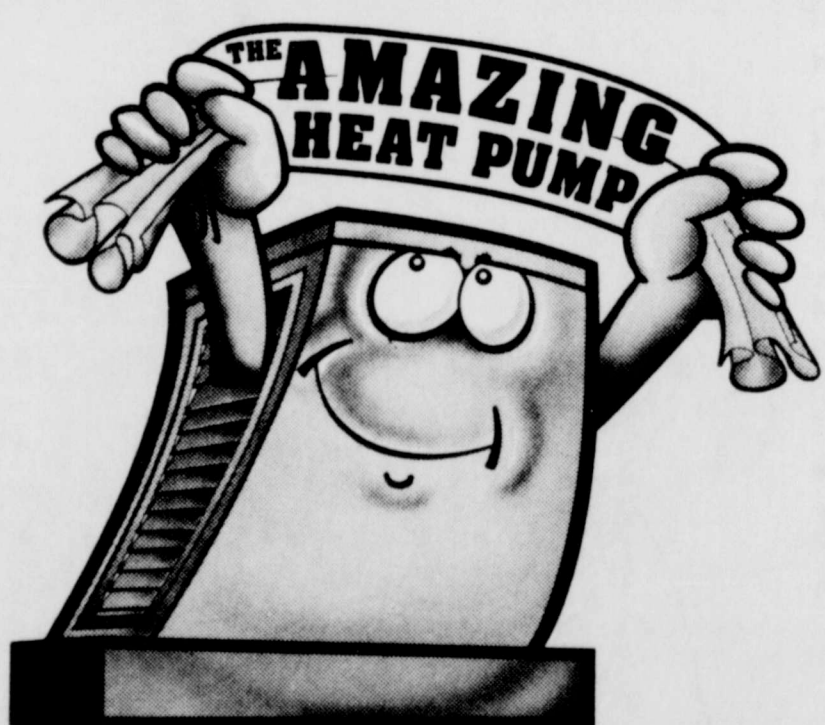

Proposals for testing new materials during 1982 also will be considered.

SIGN-UP DATES SET: Cotton Producers who plan to participate in the 1982 cotton program, which calls for a 15 percent acreage reduction to be eligible for price support loans and target price payments, should report to their ASCS offices between February 16 and April 16, according to the National Cotton Council.

LeMoine Honored At State Basketball Tournament

Mitch LeMoine, A.H.S. principal, and his 1973 Conference AA State Championship Basketball Team from Midway High School, (near Waco), were honored Saturday, March 6, 1982, at the Girls' State Basketball Tournament at Frank Erwin Center in Austin.

Coach LeMoine and the team members were recognized individually at half-time between the Phillips and Hardin AA game. Ten of the twelve girls on LeMoine's 1973 team were able to attend the U.H.I. 1982 Honor Team Presentation, with two coming from California.

After the Phillips-Hardin game was over, LeMoine and the team viewed their 1973 Exhibition Game with

Dallas South Oak Cliff at the East Texas State Basketball Clinic at Commerce, and later the group had dinner together at Hill's Steak

House in Commerce.

While coaching at Midway High School, LeMoine took a girls' team to state from 1973-1977, and won state championships in 1973, 1975, and 1976.

Abernathy District Ahead Of Times

THE TEACHER wasted no time in reviewing the student's work.

Almost instantaneously, the youngster knew which strokes she fumbled during her typewriting drill, how many mistakes she made and which keys she was slow to tap.

Quickly, she was ready to tackle a new exercise, still under the individualized tutelage of her efficient teacher.

There are 41 other instructors in the Abernathy public schools just like the one who aided the typing student. They have names like Apple II and Pet Commodore and they are computers.

They greet the students by name, encourage them when they have failed a problem and bid them farewell when they sign off the machines.

The computers are housed in two computer labs — one each in the elementary and in the secondary facilities — and in the academic center, which combines a library with learning centers in different subjects.

THE MACHINES are symbolic of the small but wealthy school district's commitment to innovation in education.

Jeri Boyles, a former secretary in the school system, runs the two-year-old computer network, with the assistance of elementary lab coordinator Wanda McKinney and several aides.

She operates a quiet, disciplined lab that allows students about 10 minutes of scheduled, intense concentration on tasks assigned by their classroom teachers through the computer.

Students in grades two through 12 use the machines, taking a portion of a given class to come into the lab and work drills and problems. The computers are utilized in many subject areas, including spelling, reading, math, Spanish, science, typing and language arts.

"It's a motivational type thing," Mrs. Boyles said of the lab. But the students also can work quickly on the machines and receive immediate feedback on their performance.

THE 50 TO 60 math problems a youngster could work in 10 minutes on a computer would take an entire class period using a pencil and notepaper, she said.

She added that the teachers can tap into the machines — 12 of which are hooked by phone to the area Education Service Center and the rest of which are self-contained units — to find out what a student is doing and how the youngster is coming along.

"I cannot overemphasize that we have very few discipline problems," said Mrs. Boyles, who operates the labs under the guidance of the teachers in the system. Students come and go on their own quite often, but there is little dawdling in the halls, she added.

"They're so intent on working. Most of them really get involved in"

AND TEACHING the video-wise youngsters how to use the machines was a snap, Mrs. Boyles said, adding that the teachers were a little more skeptical.

But the instructors are sold on computer-assisted instruction (CAI), the lab operator reported. "We've had just marvelous feedback this year," she said, adding one teacher told her she would hate to go back to instruction without the machines.

Despite the favorable assessment in Abernathy of computers as instructors, an extensive network of computers hardly is feasible for every school district.

The Abernathy district is just shy of 1,000 students, but, "We're fortunate to have 300-plus oil wells in our school district and brother, that helps," said Charles Bowen, director of guidance and federal programs.

He estimated the district has about $170,000 in federal and local funds tied up in computer hardware, software and personnel.

But he also predicted that prices will dwindle in the future to a point where many schools can pick up on the trend. He said he paid as much for the first four machines he bought as for eight computers he bought later.

BUT SCHOOL officials also must have an abiding interest in computers to expend the money and time needed to make CAI work. "For the last 16-17 years, anything that was new or innovative in education — this school district was the first one to try it," Bowen said.

He also credited the progress the district has made to Delwin Webb, the system's superintendent who just recently left to head up the regional Education Service Center in Lubbock.

As far as Bowen is concerned, computers cannot be ignored. "I've been telling folks around here for years how important computers are going to be in our lives. There are thousands of uses for it that haven't been thought of yet."

Mrs. Boyles said students graduating from the Abernathy system already are encountering university classes where students are required to take exams on computers.

BOWEN ALSO said he particularly is interested in the future of computers in agriculture. A West Texas farmer could call up his or her inventory on a computer screen and figure out exact income and expenses, he hypothesized. "Right now they have to wait until Feb. 1 when their CPA (certified public accountant) is through with it."

Very simply, said Mrs. Boyles, computers soon will become household objects, like color TV sets. "It's the coming thing."

INSTRUCTORS LEAD ASSISTANCE to Mrs. Reedy's 6th grade Math class while they practice on computers. The computers are used consistently. 200 Junior High School students use them each week. Some use them three times a week. (Review Photo)

"A GLANCE AT THE PAST"
By Buford F. Davenport

From The Abernathy Weekly Review dated June 9, 1966:

Named on the equalization board for the Abernathy School District were Marvin Floyd, Harvey Lutrick, Andy Reid, Bill Wolf and Charles Wilson.

A 50 x 60 ft. masonry-type addition was being built to the west side of Abernathy Church of Christ. Brick will blend with the exterior walls of the existing structure. When completed, the new portion will serve as Sunday school class rooms.

The Rev. Robert Hardin was the new pastor of Northside Baptist Church. And, the Rev. Conrad M. Ryan was the new pastor of Abernathy First Methodist Church.

Henry Wayne Northcutt and Mary Francine Green were married in the Joseph A. Hill Memorial Chapel at West Texas State University. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.I. Green, resided at Pampa. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Preston Northcutt of Abernathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Gragg and family were surprised with a housewarming party at their new home in the Phillips Addition in North Abernathy.

At General Telephone... We're Not Simply Talking About Service Improvements We're Making Them In Abernathy

At General Telephone better service isn't just a goal, it's a solid commitment. General Telephone spent over 354 million dollars in 1981 on capital expenditure projects (i.e. new electronic switches, expanded cable projects, modernization) and GTE will spend over 410 million dollars in 1982 to provide you the best telecommunications available.

For Abernathy this investment in service improvement is working as shown below. General Telephone is working hard to continually provide you with the best of service.

The Texas Public Utilities Commission (PUC) has established certain standards in public hearings and our service results are listed against those standards.

	Texas PUC Standards	Abernathy January 1981	Most Current Figure
% customer calls answered promptly	90	99.8	99.8
% service order commitments met as promised	90	100.0	96.9
% local calls completed on 1st try	98	100.0	100
% direct dialed long distance calls completed on 1st try	95	99.0	98.7

TV And Your Eyes

Your favorite TV show is on the screen, but why is the picture out of focus? Maybe it's not the picture. Maybe it's your eyes. Watching TV for long periods of time can cause eye fatigue. But TV watching is not harmful to the eyes.

To give your eyes a break when watching TV, you should be sitting at least six feet away from the screen. One guide is to sit at a distance that is five times the width of the picture. And don't sit in the dark. It's not good for your eyes. There should be light in the room, but not bright enough to wash out the TV picture. Move the light or the TV so that it doesn't cause a reflection or glare in the TV screen.

The set should be in perfect focus. If you've done all you can to get a clear picture but still have trouble seeing it well, maybe it's time for an eye examination.

Corrective glasses or contact lenses or a new prescription will put your eyes where you want them to be: back in the picture clear and sharp.
