GTE Rate Hike Goes Into Effect

The new GTE rate increase became effective May 19 for General Telephone customers. Included is a new charge, brought about by deregulation of telephone instruments and telephone systems earlier this year, this levies a fee when a customer with a company-owned single-line telephone requests the company send an employee to the premise to repair the phone rather than the customer bringing the phone to a repair center. For Abernathy, on local rate band one and EAS band rate one, the present business one-party rate of $19.75 will be increased to $21.80. The present residential one-party rate of $7.45 will be increased to $8.35.

The present Extended Area Service (EAS) business one-party rate of $3.25 will be increased to $3.55 and the present EAS residential one-party rate of $1.20 will be increased to $1.35.

Rates changed for most types of service under a request made by GTE and then later issued by the Public Utility Commission of Texas May 19.

Local, EAS Changes

Local basic service rate increases, range from $2.05 to $2.15 per month for business one-party customers, and from 90 cents for $1 for residential one-party customers.

One-party rates for extended area service increase in some cases and decrease in others. Extended Area Service allows customers to call nearby exchanges without a long-distance charge.

Previous and new EAS rates for one-party customers are: business, $3.25 to $3.55; $4.20 to $4.40; $14.55 to $13; and $23.20 to $22.95. Similarly, residential one-party, $1.20 to $1.35; $1.60 to $1.70; $5.50 to $4.95, and $8.75 unchanged.

Optional measured service will become effective Jan. 1, 1984, in electronic exchanges in the Houston and Dallas/Fort Worth area. Under this optional service, local calls are charged based on frequency, duration and time of day. Additional details on this service will be made available at that time.

New Charge

E. L. "Buddy" Langley, president of General Telephone, explained the new charge for sending an employee to a customer's premise to repair a company-owned single-line telephone is required due to deregulation of

Proposed $488 Thousand Ag Center Dropped For Now

The Abernathy School Board held a special meeting Tuesday, May 10 at 8:30 p.m. to discuss the proposed Ag Center.

After careful examination of the school's financial condition and lengthy discussion about future revenue prospects, the board decided to drop the proposed $488 thousand Ag Center for now. The decision was made due to the drop in valuation of mineral property in the school district, which in turn causes the tax roll to drop and the school district will bring in less revenue.

"The decrease in oil production and decrease in oil prices caused the drop in the valuation of mineral properties," stated Gid Adkisson, school superintendent. "The decrease in mineral properties caused a drop of approximately $100 million in the 1982-83 valuation," Adkisson said. He also estimated that the valuation would drop another $50 million during the 1983-84 school year.

Bids which had been submitted to the board for construction of the Ag Center have all been refused and the project has been dropped for now. "If this project comes up in the future, the school board will start from scratch again," Adkisson ended.

The board had discussed having a bond election to get the necessary funds to construct the center, but it was decided that this would not be wise at this time.

ON THE COUNTY LINE

BY KEITH TOOLEY

I WAS READING a letter written by Martha Kirk to her friends at Crosbyton. The letter was printed in the Crosbyton Review. She and her husband are presently working in Saudi Arabia.

The most interesting part of the letter was about Arab laws. The letter stated that theft is no problem in Saudi Arabia because if caught stealing, they cut off the hand. A murder or rape is punished by cutting off the head. These punishments are carried out every Friday in a public square.

Saudi Arabia also has a stiff penalty for drugs. One man was sentenced to 15 years prison for trying to smuggle marijuana into the country. Drinking is prohibited. An Arab man caught drinking can be sentenced to 90 days in jail. Unlike our jails, the prisoner's family must furnish food and clothing.

Needless to say, there is very little crime in Saudi Arabia. These laws may be a little harsh, but criminals take a second look before committing a crime. Losing a hand would make it very difficult to steal again and losing a head would make it very difficult to do anything again.

At least there would be no second, third or fourth time offenders running around who keep committing crimes, because they know our laws are not strong enough to keep them behind bars.

WE WANT TO CONGRATULATE the seniors on one of the greatest accomplishments of their lives up to this point - graduating from high school. This is a great honor and we wish them well at work and/or college.

The Abernathy businesses have purchased space in the edition of the Review to deliver special messages to these graduates. These businesses have been behind these students all through their years at AHS.

A special congratulations also goes to Jay Harrison for breaking all school records as the Valedictorian with the highest grade point ever, and Johnny Shafer for being this year's Salutatorian.

LET US KNOW...We sometimes hear parents say, "my son in college made the dean's honor roll...or my daughter graduated from college, and the story didn't appear in the Review."

We can't put a story in the paper about it if we don't know about it. Many times area colleges may overlook Abernathy students because they don't list Abernathy as their home.

So, if we miss anyone from now on, please give us a call, tell us a little bit about your son or daughter, and we will give them the recognition they so richly deserve. After all, graduating from college or being on the dean's list is a great honor and we know how hard it is to do it.

THE ALL SPORTS banquet story should have read that Melinda Almaguer was selected the most valuable tennis player. Vicky McKenzie was selected the most improved tennis player.

Kveton-Dever Wedding Vows Exchanged May 21

Jane G. Kveton and James A. Dever exchanged wedding vows Saturday, May 21 in St. Phillip's Church in Idalou. James' vow was read solemnly from cue cards; Jane's was recited from memory with only a slight tremble in her voice. The Reverend Gerry Frawley officiated and made jokes in his Irish accent.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Kveton of Abernathy and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dever of Coahoma (no relation, in spite of all the John E.'s).

The maid of honor was Jane's childhood friend, Gwendolyn Mokry of Memphis, Tennessee, and the best man was James' childhood friend, Michael Wayne Ritchey of San Angelo. Other bridesmaids were Carrie Kitten, Janet Kristinek, and Dana Jones; other groomsmen were John Hodgson, Tracy Frazier, and Royce Siebman. The precious flower girl was Christina Montes-Williams and the adorable ring bearer was Kevin Guinn. Kit, Ann and Sandra Kveton and Catherine Therby, sisters of the bride, served as the elegant ushers. Readers were John E. Kveton, Jr., brother of the bride, and Jeff Dever, brother of the groom. Music was provided by Martin Hagen (on absence—he sent a cassette of wedding music he'd recorded on a church organ in Pforzheim, West Germany), Debbie and Usbaldo Trevino, Olga Flores, Susie Johnson, and Julia Kveton, sister of the bride. Regina and Esteban Lopez served as acolytes, and Angelina Provine and Rusty Hastings, aunts of the bride, presented the offertory gifts. Hoa Ho and Hue Ho Handy, sisters of the bride, registered guests.

James was dashing in a white tuxedo, but he was upstaged by Jane who was smashing in a floor-length, off-white velvet dress that was white when her mother Jean sewed it thirty years ago for her own wedding.

Jane's veil was attached to a white satin hat that had been her Grandmother Kveton's. The bridesmaids wore chinset cotton dresses in a dusty rose color (also sewed by Jean, using the yellowed and crumbling pattern she'd used to make her own bridesmaids' dresses), and the groomsmen were all very handsome in charcoal gray tuxedos. The ancient cloth of the beautiful wedding dress did not rip until the 37th hug in the receiving line.

Mrs. James A. Dever

Society and Features

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Fortunately, Jane still had some sisters in reserve, so they were put to work serving refreshments, but they didn't mind, since they had direct access to the champagne. Carolina Montes, Barbara Jackson, Julie Richerson, Josalin Reinitz, and Jean Jr. Chen served untraditional and very delicious food. The bride's cake was an old-fashioned German fruit cake baked and decorated by Jane's sister Julia. The groom's cake was a monumental German chocolate cake baked by her dear grandmother, Rose Kitten. Other munchies were kolachy, baked with expertise by Angeline Kristinek, empanadas, hechas con amor por Nena Ramos, and wontons, made with skill and sublimity by Grace Chen. Gallons of punch were consumed as fast as the aunts in the kitchen could concoct it. All the champagne was also drained as fast as Uncle Henry could pop the corks. Danny Hancock took lots of pictures of all the revelry. Jane threw her bouquet three times, but no one seemed to be too eager to catch it. James' toss of the garter fell into the hands of Jane's five-year-old nephew, Scooter.

Both Jane and James managed to finish their degrees at Texas Tech, even though they had to study for finals in between addressing invitations and sending thank-you notes. Jane graduated with a degree in textile engineering and many prestigious awards; James graduated magna cum laude with a degree in accounting and a job with Peat, Marwick, and Mitchell.

Their love nest is located in a nicer part of the Tech ghetto.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE

Weekly Devotional

"Take heed that ye do not your aims before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 6:1) A flower does not bloom more beautifully because an applauding audience is watching. It would be equally as lovely on a deserted home place where no admiring eyes ever saw it. Carlsbad Cavern was as beautiful and breath-taking before being discovered by Jim White, as it is now when tens of thousands behold its beauty every year. The sea breaks with as much majesty on an uninhabited island as where it's waves kiss the feet of multitudes.

So it is with all true Christians. Constantly-anywhere-everywhere, they go about doing good. Warning the unruly, comforting the bereaved, encouraging the fainthearted and lifting the fallen, even if they know none are watching and no praise will ever be given by man.

The really important thing is that God sees and his eyes are ever upon us. It is his approval that we earnestly seek. The unassuming beauty of a humble-contrite spirit and a devoted sacrificial life is precious in our Father's eyes.

Sunshine Group Enjoys Music Program

The Sunshine Group met May 19 in the City Hall with Floyd Shipman in the lead spot, which tickled Dixie very much, as she filled that spot at the last meeting because Floyd was sick. Anyway, everyone was happy that everything is back to normal now, including me. I am very glad to be back. I will give it a try. HB gave the opening prayer. The group sang some songs as Betty Reynard played the piano. There was one birthday this month, so the birthday song was sung to her.

Rita Smith read the minutes. Lillie Mae announced that there would be a bridge tournament May 23. The proceeds would go to the Senior Citizens Building Fund. Lillie Mae, Cora Shuman, Mrs. Talbott and Betty Reynard volunteered to help serve the dinner. I volunteered to help eat it, as I will be trying to play something I really love to do.

Helen Crim, daughter of Jessie Duty, played a melody of songs from Billy Graham's programs, which was very pretty. It was enjoyed by all. There was a little time left, so Betty Reynard played, "He Touched Me" and "My Song of Songs." Betty can really play, as well as sing. Betty adds so much to the organization, and we are lucky to have her.

Erma Brewer gave the blessing and everyone rushed to the table. After eating was taken care of, games were played. They were six playing canasta and four playing Skipbo. A lovely time was had of giggling and playing, winning and losing.

It is important to remind everyone who has been able to be here the last three years, of how lucky they are. I wasn't very active, even last summer. I want to tell you how beautiful the grounds are around City Hall. I see all the gorgeous flowers, which have been taken care of so faithfully, but most of all I think of the women or two of them who were responsible for them; Mrs. Sallie Gardner and Mrs. Guy Thompson. She was the mother of our mayor. They were in the Garden Club and as their project they beautified our yards and the cemetery. There were quite a few ladies who helped do this, but these two, I remember the best. They would all work together working here and at the cemetery.

Once, when the roads were so muddy leading to the cemetery, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner went to a funeral and the hearse and all other vehicles got stuck. Mrs. Gardner said, "Something should be done about this." Mrs. Gardner and another lady went to Plainview to the Commissioner's Court to see if they could get the road paved. Carol Byrd was Judge at that time, and he wasn't as sold on the idea as Mrs. Gardner was, but Mrs. Gardner won out. Now anyone can whiz out there anytime they want to. The flowers are as beautiful now as they were then.

Those attending the Sunshine Group Meeting were: Robert Lutrick, Erma Brewer, Dixie Pittman, Jessie Duty, Helen Crim, Minnie Northcutt, Blanche Coggin, H. B. Coggin, Cora Shuman, Martha Phillips, Ethel Petty, Reita Smith, Floyd Shipman, Lillie Mae Shipman, Dot Von Struve, Nancy Allen, Ona Maserang, Frances Howard, Bill Pope, Vera Pope, Maybelle Glass, Lizzie Struve, Dora Talbott, Elizabeth Harrison, Betty Reynard, Pauline Stone, Bernice Smith and Sarah Fitzgerald.

Extension Homemakers Learn About "Fears"

The Great Society Extension Homemakers Association met for their 3rd Monday get-together at Abernathy First Methodist Church to hear a program on "Our Fears."

Maybell Glass presided and opened the meeting with a prayer. Roll call was answered to "What I Fear the Most."

The club viewed two films "After Dark," which was imagined fears, and

"Gambling With Our Lives," which reminded its viewers that most people will either die of cancer or health failure.

This film showed the three types of cancer that are plaguing the world today. The stomach cancer of Japan, thought to be caused by eating raw, polluted fish - a fad that has hit the United States. Then there is the cancer found just behind the nasal structure, which is rampant in China. It is believed to be caused by a virus from something polluted eaten in the diet. Last, and very deadly, is black lung cancer found in the U.S. coal mining country and asbestos cancer found in manufacturing laborers.

Those are all well-founded fears, which have been brought on by our highly technical world.

Mrs. L. A. Suttle led the group in a discussion of these films.

Maybell Glass and Imogene Suttle attended the Plainview Council where Imogene was elected alternate delegate to State Convention in September.

Cat's trust is earned

Today, approximately 24 percent of America's households comprise the ranks of feline aficionados, with some 34,000,000 cats loved and doted on by their owners. This means that one of every five American homes has at least one cat, an increase of 55 percent in the last decade. Owning a cat is a highly personal thing, and it has become increasingly apparent that the owner is the key to a happy or unhappy relationship with a cat.

Need limited care

Cats are very easy to care for and have become more and more popular as pets for this very reason. Hundreds of families, working couples and senior citizens consider a cat the perfect household pet.

However, there are a few simple needs an owner must furnish to encourage a trusting bond with a cat. According to Dr. Robert Stansbury, noted feline veterinarian of Long Beach, Calif., and a member of the Research Advisory Board at Lowe's, manufacturer of Kitty Litter brand cat box filler, "A responsible owner must provide proper nourishment, a well-kept litter box, regular exercise and, of course, lots of attention. When satisfied," Stansbury added, "these few requirements make for a contented cat."

Independently dependent

Most cats are not interested in constant human companionship. This type of behavior has contributed to the fact that many people dislike cats. But, it is important to realize that a cat is dependent on its owner to fulfill both physical and emotional needs.

SUMMER CAMP ISN'T just for kids, and isn't just for summer either. More than 450 Texans from 55 to 85 proved that by having a "spring fling" at the Texas 4-H Center on Lake Brownwood. The camps, sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, were held in four three-day sessions during April and early May. "In the three years the Extension Service has been conducting these camps, we have had an overwhelming response," states Judith Warren, a family life education-aging specialist with the Extension Service. "It just goes to show that there are many older Texans who would like the opportunity to learn new things and make new friends in a relaxing camp atmosphere," she adds. The Extension Service will sponsor five "Octoberfest" camps during October and the first week of November. Persons interested in attending can write the 4-H Center, Route 1, Box 527, Brownwood, Texas, 76801 for information.

NEW DEAL BIBLE CLUB: The New Deal Bible Club meets at the Club House every Monday after school. They have a bus that picks the children up and takes them to the Club House. The children enrolled are between the ages of Kindergarten through 7th grade. Those receiving Top Honors recently were Abigail Ford, Marilyn & Carolyn Askins, Tommy & Brenda Leaf. There were two perfect attendance awards given to Marilyn Askins & Abigail Ford. There were about 20 children receiving awards. Teachers working with the children are Rynn & Anna Parker, and Lillie Belle Kramp. The children recently sent President Reagan a birthday card and received a letter from him and also a picture of him on his horse. A skating party was held recently and a weiner roast is planned sometime soon. The Bible Club's main program is telling Bible stories with flannelgraph. They sing songs, play games and the mothers serve refreshments. They only meet during the school year.

"AMERICANS SPENT OVER $46 billion on home remodeling and home improvement last year," reports Dr. Jane Berry, a housing specialist. Even with mortgages at lower rates than in the past, the high cost of new housing is encouraging more homeowners to remodel. "But remodeling costs have also risen to the point where they represent a major investment for most homeowners," says Berry, who is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The cost of adding to an existing house in Texas runs from about $35-$40 per square foot up to $60-$65 per square foot for custom work. Tear-out costs for removing existing walls are additional.

telephone instruments Jan 1, 1983, as well as other regulatory decisions which encourage competition and require individual services to be more cost-based. The charge also helps keep local basic service rates for all customers as low as possible, since the customer requesting the service pays for it.

"We have responded to our customers' requests to come to their premises for years, and we are more than pleased to respond now," he said. "The only change, brought about by deregulation, is that we must now begin charging a fee to recover those expenses from the customers requesting the services."

He continued the company does the repair to company-owned single-line telephones without direct charges whether the repair is made at the company location or at the customer's premise. "The new charge is only for sending the employee to the customer's premise," Langley said. Charges will be $22.50 for single-line business and $17 for single-line residence for this service.

"Customers can purchase telephones from General Telephone or other vendors," he said. "Under the fully regulated environment of the past where we provided all the phones, the cost of sending an employee to a customer's premise was paid by all customers through higher local basic service rates.

"Now that more customers are providing their own phones and are responsible for the maintenance and repair of those phones, the cost of sending employees to premises must become cost-based and be applied only to the customers using the service."

He pointed out the company has expanded its GTE Phone Marts, Local Service Offices and Local Service Agency network to provide convenient locations for all customers to take care of their phone business, including repair service.

"By bringing their company-owned single-line telephones to our service locations, the customers can avoid the charge and have the repair made at their convenience rather than requesting we sent an employee and pay the charge, in addition to waiting at the premise for service personnel to arrive," he said.

He pointed out that similar premise visit charges were initiated last year when the Federal Communications Commission changed the accounting procedure for station connections, which includes new installations, moves and changes of service, and the installation and repair of house wiring. House wiring is the wire that connects the customer's telephone to the local and long-distance network.

"Under the changes last year, customers were given the options of doing some of the work themselves, such as wiring, jacking and picking up telephones, thus saving the costs if we do the work; contacting a third party to do the work; or pay the appropriate charge to have the telephone company do the work," he said. Charges for the repair of wiring are $54.50 for each single-line business outlet needing repair, and $42 for each single-line residential outlet. An additional $6 charge will apply if the company must also repair or replace the jack.

Langley said the charges for sending employees to customer premises and to repair wiring mean customers receiving the services will pay the cost of the service, reducing some of the pressure that continues to force local rates higher.

"If the old method of spreading these type of costs over all ratepayers was continued, the dollars received from these services would come from higher local basic service rates, even for those customers who have purchased their own phones, those who do their own wiring repairs or perform other services such as installing or repairing jacks," he said.

Customers with telephone service problems should continue to call repair service. Repair personnel will ask a series of questions about the problem to determine if the fault is in the telephone instrument, the house wiring or the local network. If the trouble appears to be in the telephone instrument or house wiring, the customer will be made aware of the options available.

"We realize these are major changes confronting customers, and they are major changes for us. They are required under the FCCX deregulation mandate," Langley said. Information concerning the changes will be included with statements showing the change in rates. Customers having questions should call their business office.

Soybean Outlook Clouded

Despite some price strengthening as a spinoff from PIK (the government's payment-in-kind program), a continuing large surplus is clouding the outlook for soybeans, says a Texas Agricultural Extension Service economist.

"Texas soybean growers will likely receive between $5.50 and $6.50 per bushel for their 1983 beans—slightly above last year's price," predicts Johnny Feagan.

"And the state's soybean acreage will likely be down sharply from the 920,000 acres harvested in 1982 when the crop sold for $125 million."

Soybean prices have improved some due to the high farmer participation in PIK regarding feed grains, cotton and rice. (Soybeans are not included in PIK.)

The high percentage of land to be idled under PIK will reduce total soybean production over the U.S. by about 8 percent since some farmers have double-cropped with soybeans in the past. Under PIK, this practice is not allowed, notes Feagan.

The economist expects soybean exports to remain soft during the year and increase only about 2 percent. However, 45 percent of this nation's soybeans sales could be to the European Economic Community during the 1982-83 marketing year, with another 20 percent going to Japan.

Feagan sees some slight improvement in soybean oil prices if economic conditions improve in the U.S. and Europe. However, increased soybean crushings in the South American countries will increase the competition for U.S. oil and meal products.

"An increase in livestock and poultry feeding could spark an increase in domestic soybean use," says Feagan. "As prices improve for meat products and competing feed prices increase."

The final price that farmers get for their beans hinges on a number of factors, according to Feagan. These include the total size of the crop both in the U.S. and abroad, weather conditions, the amount of double cropping, strength of the U.S. dollar abroad, marketing patterns of PIK products, and margins in livestock and poultry feeding.

PIK COULD MEAN LESS MILK—Higher feed costs due to PIK could mean reduced milk production, says an economist in dairy marketing with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Feed grain prices have jumped 26 percent nationally since PIK and that has boosted concentrate prices an average of 19 percent for Texas dairymen.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK, Friday, May 20, 1983

USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) is proposing that two new grades be added to the official U. S. upland cotton standards. If the recommendation is accepted, says Ray Joe Riley of Hart, considerably less cotton on the High Plains would be classed as "BG's" or Below Grade.

AMS will formally submit its proposal at the Universal Cotton Standards Conference (UCSC) June 7 and 8 in Memphis, Tennessee. Riley, a past president of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and a producer-ginner delegate to the conference, stresses that new grades are needed to more accurately describe some of the cotton now being classified as BG.

The two new grades, which PCG and other producer groups have advocated for a number of years, would be a Strict Good Ordinary Spotted physical standard and a Strict Good Ordinary Light Spotted descriptive standard. Currently the two lowest spotted grade standards are Low Middling Light Spot and Low Middling Spot. All spotted cotton below these grades is called Below Grade, is ineligible for the Commodity Credit Corporation loan program and often suffers severe market price discounts.

According to Mack Bennett, Area Director of USDA's Marketing Services Office in Lubbock, adding the two new grades could be expected to eliminate from 70 to 90 percent of the High Plains BG's.

Participants in the UCSC include 14 signatories from 11 foreign countries and representatives from all segments of the U. S. cotton industry. Effected by the Universal Standards Agreement in 1923, the conference is held every three years to (1) examine and approve "key sets" of the Universal Cotton Standards for use in cotton trading in this country and abroad and (2) for proposal and discussion of standards changes. USDA, representing the U. S. cotton industry, has 50 percent of the vote and foreign signatories have 50 percent. Any change in standards requires a three-fourths vote and would become effective one year later.

Foreign signatory countries include India, Poland, Germany, Belgium, England, Japan, France, Italy, Spain, the Netherlands and Egypt.

In addition to Riley, others from PCG with plans to attend the conference include Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, President Tommy Fonden of Lorensa, and Director Frank Jones of Lamesa. All PCG representatives will also participate in a meeting of the National Cotton Council's Producer Steering Committee in Memphis on June 6. The Producer Steering Committee is expected to discuss and possibly take a position with regard to the new standards proposal.

The rapid increase in use of instruments to evaluate cotton will also be discussed at the UCSC, with emphasis on the effect of instrument classing in both domestic and international trade.

Look At PIK Costs

When the final verdict is in, PIK may not be as costly a government program as some have suggested.

While estimated costs of the payment-in-kind program range from $10 to $25 billion, two economists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, peg the cost at about $11 billion.

Dr. Ron Knutson and Ed Smith break this figure down to $7.5 billion as the value of PIK commodities, $2.3 billion for deficiency payments and $1.3 billion for diversion payments. Deficiency payments result when farm prices drop below a designated level, while diversion payments are for taking cropland out of production.

Analyzing the $11 billion cost of PIK, here's a breakdown by specific commodities: corn, $5.4 billion; wheat, $3.1 billion; cotton, $1.4 billion; grain sorghum, $700 million; and rice, $500 million.

"Although the total cost of PIK may seem high compared to farm programs in the '70s, the figure is low compared to what the government's farm program would have cost without PIK," says Knutson and Smith. They estimate that farm program costs for 1982-83 will reach about $18 billion and that costs for '83-'84 would total almost $21 billion without PIK.

Since this estimated $21 billion would include $3 billion for the dairy support program and another $2 billion on minor agricultural commodities and general administrative expenses, the remaining $16 billion represents program costs for grains and cotton in the absence of PIK. Thus, if the $11 billion estimated cost of PIK stands up, the program could be viewed as causing a net savings of about $5 billion.

"These savings would result mainly from reduced commodity storage costs and reduced deficiency payments," say the economists.

Hightower Announces Registration For 1983 Family Land Heritage Program

Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower announced today that registration for the 1983 Family Land Heritage Program opened May 10 and will extend through August 16.

"Hard times have dogged the farmer constantly," said Hightower, "making it all the more commendable that some families have managed to keep the old home place in production for a century or more."

The Family Land Heritage Program was created by the Texas Department of Agriculture to honor families who own land which has been maintained in agricultural production for 100 years or more by the members of that family. Since 1974, when the program began, 1,558 properties in Texas have qualified for the Family Land Heritage Program.

The basic requirements of the program are: Continuous agricultural production on the farm/ranch for 100 years, land ownership within the family, complete operation or supervision of the farm/ranch production by family members who are

Texas residents, and a size of at least 10 acres with a minimum of $50 income from farm or ranch products, or if less than 10 acres, sales of at least $250 a year. TDA is the final judge of eligibility.

Those who feel they meet the basic qualifications and wish to apply may obtain an application from their County Judge, County Historical Commission chairman, the nearest TDA district office, or by writing to: Family Land Heritage Program, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847, Austin, Tx. 78711.

Memorial Day Motorists Warned To Be Careful

Memorial Day signals the end of the school and the beginning of summer vacation. There will be an increase in the number of vehicles on our streets and highways, according to Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Cawthon stated, "countless lives would be saved if drivers would not disregard their own safety and the safety of others. Speeding, drinking drivers, and carelessness will account for the greatest percentage of deaths this Memorial Day weekend."

DPS records show that 58

persons died in traffic accidents on Texas streets and highways during the Memorial Day weekend last year, and the DPS Commander pointed out that, "one drinking driver or speeding motorist has destroyed an entire family."

Cawthon said, "Holiday or vacation trips should be planned and a rest stop should be made every two hours to allow drivers and passengers a chance to get out and stretch to help eliminate stress and fatigue."

Major Cawthon added, "Drivers who think ahead, stay alert, wear their seat belt, avoid the use of alcohol while driving, and

SPRING INSECT DANGERS

Spring weather can mean danger for Texans who get bitten or stung by insects, says an entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The greatest peril from insects, particularly bees, wasps and yellow-jackets, is allergic reactions. Insect bites kill at least nine times more Americans than do snake bites. Beware of insect activity and see a doctor if an insect bite or sting causes unusual swelling, abdominal pain, nausea, breathing difficulty, hoarseness or confusion.

OUTLOOK SPEAKER NAMED: Richard E. Lyng, deputy secretary of agriculture, will speak on farm policy aspects at the Cotton Foundation's Ninth Annual Cotton Outlook Conference in Fresno, June 7-8. The theme of the meeting will be "Efficiency Brings a New Day." Other topics will include conservation tillage, crop and export outlooks, and farm financing, according to the National Cotton Council.

LACK OF PLANTING WILL NOT AFFECT PIK PAYMENT: The United States Department of Agriculture has indicated payment-in-kind and paid land diversion payments will not be reduced if a farmer fails to plant his permitted acreage.

However, deficiency payments would be reduced by planting less than the allowed maximum.

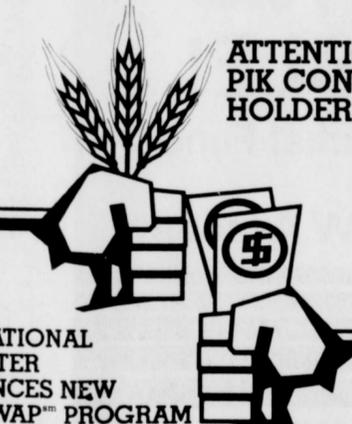

Information was issued following questions raised by cotton and other growers who are behind in plantings because of cool and wet weather, the National Cotton Council reports.

EXPORTS REPORTED: Sales of U. S. cotton for the current marketing year decreased a net of 1,800 running bales during the week ended May 12, the National Cotton Council reported.

Major buyers were Hong Kong and Japan. Increases were offset by cancellations for South Korea and Taiwan.

Sales for 1983-84 delivery increased a net of 127,800 bales. They included Hong Kong, 47,300; Japan, 25,000; Spain, 15,300; and Taiwan, 14,000.

County Line Chit Chats

By Faye Ann Nelson

Mr. Mike Valdez, Jr., of San Antonio, sent his mother a round trip ticket to fly to San Antonio April 29 for her birthday present. Mrs. Molly Valdez said that was the nicest birthday gift she could have had as she got to see her grandchildren, Eric and Gabe, as well as the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Valdez, Jr. They toured all over San Antonio and saw all the sights. She got to ride a boat down the river, which was a great thrill. Happy Birthday, Molly.

Mrs. Richard Havens (Vicki) was the honored guest for a farewell party Saturday at the County Line Clubhouse sponsored by the County Line Community Club. Spring colors were carried out in the decorations of yellow and green. The centerpiece consisted of a spring scene depicting County Line represented by a bale of cotton and a road leading to Odessa with an oil well, representing Odessa, at the other side. A cotton field was shown by the side of the road and animals. A moving van was on the road headed toward Odessa from County Line... with "Goodbye County Line" on one side and "Hello Odessa" on the other end. A big chocolate chip cookie was on one end of the table with "Good Luck Vicki" outlined in chocolate icing on it with 83 in white frosting around the sides. Punch and cookies (made by Lori Moralez) were served to the following guests and hostesses: Mesdames, Juanita Bell, H. V. Coggin, Dorothy Davenport of Abernathy, Frances Hudson, Ann Sims, Coatna Rice, Mary Lynn Rice, Dee Moralez, Molly Valdez and Faye Ann Nelson. The centerpiece and big cookie were given to the honoree as a hostess gift with a wall plaque honoring Vicki for being a good neighbor and friend to all. We wish her good luck and happiness in her new home in Odessa. They will move Saturday, May 28, from County Line.

We want to say a big "Thank You" to all the oil men of County Line who sprayed the weeds on the County Line cemetery last week. They donated the spray and the use of the sprayer, as well as their time and labor. We really do appreciate it and will try to tell them in person how much we appreciate their time and work on the cemetery project. Audry McGuire and I went to see Olen Horne to see if he would make us a gate and an entrance with "County Line Cemetery" printed on the entrance, and he consented. In the meantime, Audry took the pattern of the gate we wanted and showed it to her son Deryl McGuire and he said he had one in his front yard that he had been wanting to tear down and the Cemetery Association is welcome to it, if they will come and get it and dig it up. So, if we have any volunteers to dig it up and move it over to the cemetery, we can really get the cemetery looking good by the County Line Reunion August 14. Just call Audry McGuire or Wayland Nelson for information. Olen Horne said he had a hoist that could be used to move it.

Mrs. Lee Stanford of Dimmitt, Texas drove to Abernathy Tuesday for a dental appointment, and we had lunch together, and she spent the night with us so we could go shopping Wednesday. Her husband, the late Lee Stanford (my cousin), was a former pastor of the Methodist Church in Abernathy in 1955. She returned to her home Thursday morning.

Mrs. Bobby Embry of Lubbock, Jimmi Schoor and Faye Ann Nelson met Jerri Ford (who is employed in Texas Tech library) for lunch Monday, May 23, to celebrate Jerri's birthday, which is May 24. We did not know how many candles to put on the cake (Ha).... secret. Happy Birthday, Jerri.

Happy Birthday to Pam Connell and Mike Valdez, who celebrated their birthdays May 18. May you both have many, many more.

Mrs. Bobby Embry and Faye Ann Nelson attended the Lubbock Retired Teachers luncheon Thursday, which was held in the First Christian Church Fellowship Hall. It is nice to see the ex-teachers and ex-superintendents that I taught with in Lubbock and Quannah in the past years.

The County Line community wishes to express their sympathy to Fauncine Horne on the death of her cousin, Frank Farrar, 71, whose services were held in Plainview Saturday, May 21.

Also, to Vester Embry of Lubbock, whose aunt, Mrs. Lillian Embry of Carlsbad died Thursday morning in Carlsbad. The services were held Monday in Carlsbad with graveside services in Lubbock.

And also, to Jeanne Marr of Abernathy on the death of her father, Hubert Foster, who was buried in Abernathy Monday. May God bless each of these.

Wayland and I left Friday morning at 8 a.m. for the airport. Our good neighbor Mrs. Dee Moralez took us in her four-wheel drive, as it was snowing April 8, our 28th wedding anniversary, and we did not know whether the planes would be taking off in the snowy weather or not. We stopped and had breakfast on the way to the airport, and the snow let up and the sun was trying to peek through. We breathed a sigh of relief. If we hadn't made it to New York, we would have missed our tour. We rode Delta to Dallas and changed in Dallas for Atlanta, where we changed again. We had an hour lay-over in Dallas and an hour lay-over in Atlanta. The reason we took Delta Airlines, is that Wayland bought a Polaroid camera in January to get a free ticket to any city in the United States. So, that paid his way to New York and back. I had to buy mine. Ha! We arrived in N.Y. City at 4 p.m. and called the Best Western Hotel to come after us. They were the only hotel that will come and get you free of charge. All the others wanted $20 to come get us. The next morning we were up bright and early and asked the hotel about bus tours or boat tours of N.Y. City. He gave us a pamphlet, and we picked out one of the four hour tours, as we had to meet our tour guide and the 48 other people who were going on the Holy Land tour with us at the Kennedy airport at 4 p.m. We were afraid to take the six hour tour, as we might be late getting back. We toured the island of Manhattan and saw China town, and all the important buildings and churches. We toured several places, and then they put us on a boat to go out to the Statue of Liberty. That was a thrill to look back at New York from the boat. We got off and went to the building, where the Statue of Liberty is situated. After riding the elevator several floors up, they told us we could climb the 175 stairs up to the top, so we started out and about halfway, I had to sit down and rest, as my legs just would not carry me any farther. I should have started a year ago getting in shape for this. Wayland never did stop til he got to the top. When you reach the top, there is a ledge you walk out on and can see all of New York, which is a beautiful sight. We rushed back and got off the tour bus downtown Manhattan and went back to Long Island on a taxi to the hotel and the hotel van took us to the airport, where we met our new family from all over the United States. Trip to the United States. Trip to be continued next week.

Sharon Prather Attends "Leadership Texas" Seminar

Some of the top women leaders in Texas convened in San Antonio May 24-25 for a session on "The People of Texas," the third in a year-long series of Leadership Texas seminars. Sharon Young Prather, of Abernathy, was one of the women who attended the session. She is a community volunteer with the West Texas Museum and the Junior League of Lubbock.

Leadership Texas, a program of the Austin-based Texas Foundation for Women's Resources, is designed to sharpen the women's leadership skills and acquaint them with the critical issues and key people of Texas.

San Antonio Mayor Henry G. Cisneros spoke at the opening luncheon at noon Tuesday May 24 at the Four Seasons Hotel.

Fifty-eight women from around the state --leaders in business, law, local government, community affairs, health care and education -- participated in the seminar. The first two 1983 seminars, an introductory session and one on state government, were held in Austin in February and April.

The San Antonio program focused on the multi-cul-ral aspects of Texas, trends in housing and lifestyles, the issues of development and preservation, historic cultures and the arts.

"We are extremely pleased with the speakers and panelists who stimulated discussion on 'The People of Texas,'" said Martha Farmer, executive director of Leadership Texas. "The latest trends in grassroots politics, population shifts, cultural activities and real estate development are crucial areas of concern to Texas women leaders."

The women heard presentations by Jack Willome, president of Ray Ellison Homes, Inc., Jack and Pat McGuire of the Institute of Texas Cultures, artist and educator Amy Freeman Lee and Pat Burr, senior corporate director of marketing, Harte-Hanks Communications.

Two major panels were held Tuesday afternoon at the Four Seasons Hotel: "The Impact of Multi-Cultural Forces on the People of Texas" and "Protectors and Developers." Panelists included Lynn Bobbitt, president of the San Antonio Conservation Society, and Robert Rork, president of Republic Bank San Antonio.

two organizations which recently fought a battle over preservation of the Texas Theater.

Tuesday evening, participants attended a cocktail reception and video presentation at the Heart of Texas entertainment center on Alamo Plaza, and took a river barge ride before dinner at the Courand House.

Wednesday, lunch was at the Institute of Texas Cultures with a presentation by the McGuires on "Texan Cultures." Dr. Lee spoke on "Eye to Eye: An Inside to Art" and Dr. Burr gave a workshop on "Lightening the Cultural Load." The seminar closed at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

The Texas Foundation for Women's Resources, a non-profit educational organization, launched Leadership Texas in January as the first statewide leadership development program designed specifically for women. The program has received widespread civic and corporate support and applicants from every area of the state. The six 1983 seminars are designed to better prepare women for state public and private leadership positions.

Why not see if you're up-to-date on current events and laws that affect us all?

1. The U.S. agency which grants operating authority for international freight carriers to operate in the U.S. is (a) OPA (b) NATO (c) ICC?

2. Mexican laws affecting U.S. carriers compared to our laws affecting Mexican carriers are (a) easier (b) harder (c) about the same?

3. Canadian laws affecting U.S. carriers compared to our laws affecting Canadian carriers are (a) easier (b) harder (c) about the same?

ANSWERS:

1. (c) 2. (b) In fact, the trucking industry reports that Mexican laws and its constitution completely bar U.S. carriers from being licensed to operate in Mexico. The trucking industry wants the Mexican government to liberalize its regulations, otherwise they feel the ICC should deny all applications by Mexican authorities since no reciprocity exists. 3. (b) Canadian provinces have very tough standards for granting authority to U.S. carriers. There is also a federal investment law which effectively excludes U.S. carriers seeking to open businesses in Canada.

SOIL-APPLIED HERBICIDES FOR BRUSH CONTROL--Soil-applied herbicides can be effective in controlling range brush if used in the spring before expected rainfall, says a range brush and weed control specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. These herbicides include 10 percent picloram pellets (Tordon 10K or Grazon 10K), 20 percent tebuthiuron pellets (Graslan 20P), 10 percent dicamba granules (Banvel 10G) and hexazinone (Velpar L).

The total construction cost of building the Eiffel Tower in Paris was recovered from sight-seers' fees within the first year of its completion.

These scholarships are provided by private sector donors and arranged by the National 4-H Council, a not-for-profit organization supporting the 4-H program through private resources.

To be eligible, all scholarship applicants must have completed at least one year of 4-H work. Winners are selected by the Extension Service and are announced prior to the 62nd National 4-H Congress, Nov. 27-Dec. 1, in Chicago.

FREE FOOT CHECKUP TODAY

May is Foot Health Month. Do your feet need "fixing"? How long has it been since your feet have had a checkup? The foot is one of the most overworked parts of the body. Many people assume "aching feet" are a part of life, but that need not be so.

For a free foot checkup, make an appointment now for the Podiatry Clinic to be held at Community Hospital of Lubbock Thursday (today), May 26 from 1-3 p.m. Dr. Gary Raymond will examine the feet of men, women, or children. The clinic will be held in the hospital, 5301 University Ave. To make an appointment, or for more information, call Volunteer Services, 795-9301, extension 113.

HALE COUNTY HISTORICAL COMMISSION TO MEET

The next regular monthly meeting of the Hale County Historical Commission will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 28, in the Llano Estacado Museum. Everyone is cordially invited to come by 909 El Paso Street at 1:30 p.m. for the "Blasingame Home" Historical Marker dedication ceremony. James and Gloria Maples purchased, restored and now reside in this Historic Landmark home. The program at the museum will be a panel discussion on "Memories of Happy Union" led by prominent residents and former residents of the Happy Union Community.

The new spring edition of the Hale County History Quarterly will be fresh off the press and available for distribution. This larger than usual "Happy Union" edition features many very interesting family stories and anecdotes that happened in this progressive community. Families who furnished pictures for this Quarterly may pick them up at this meeting.

Hostesses for the reception following the meeting will be Mrs. Owen Egger and Mrs. John McDonough. Plan to stay for the good food and fellowship.

This will be the last regular monthly meeting until September, but the group will be back together sometime this summer for the dedication of the Happy Union Historical Marker.

PARENTS CAN VIEW NEW TEXTBOOKS UP FOR ADOPTION

Interested citizens have an opportunity to examine textbooks and other instructional materials which are up for adoption by public schools. The materials are available for review at the Education Service Center, Region XVII, 4000 22nd Place, Lubbock, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, Room 267.

Materials may also be reviewed in Room 267 after hours and on weekends on the following days during the hours shown: Saturday, June 4, 9 a.m.-12 noon and Monday, June 6, 5-8 p.m.

As is the annual custom in Texas, the eight-month selection process will include an intensive study throughout the summer of all materials by the State Textbook Committee and their local advisors.

Citizen viewpoints and opinions will be heard at a series of public hearings in Austin; the State Board of Education will then adopt textbooks at its November meeting, and the new materials will be available for students at the beginning of the 1984-85 school year.

Further information may be obtained from Dr. Woodie Coleman at the Service Center, 792-4000.

TEXAS COMMISSION ON THE ARTS SEEKS ARTISTS FOR ARTISTS-IN-EDUCATION RESIDENCIES

The Texas Commission on the Arts announces the opportunity for experienced professional artists to be considered for participation in the Artists-in-Education program.

The program will begin August 1983. The Commission anticipates that artists will be needed to fill residencies in architecture and environmental arts, creative writing, dance, music, theatre, and visual arts. Residencies can range from one week to one year, and can be sponsored by schools and community organizations throughout the state.

Applicants will be screened by the Commission and the local sponsors based on the following criteria: artistic quality, professional experience, and proven ability to work successfully with young people, school personnel, and community members. Upon completion of the screening process, a list of qualified artists will be provided to potential residency sponsors who must choose artists from this approved list. Being on the list, however, does not guarantee that an artist will be selected by a local sponsor to participate.

AIE applications, along with supporting materials which include a resume, five references, and samples of recent work, must be submitted by June 1, 1983. Artists interested in requesting further information may call TCA at 512-475-6593 or toll free 1 (800) 252-9415, or write Education Program, Texas Commission on the Arts, P. O. Box 13406, Capitol Station, Austin, Tx., 78711.
