

Badly Needed Showers Come, Warm Weather Needed

SOME UP, SOME NOT...In the top photo is a field of cotton near Abernathy that is up to about 3 inches tall. In the bottom photo, taken just outside Abernathy, water stands between the rows, but no cotton has appeared. Most farmers have planted their crops, but little moisture and cool weather have prevented germination and growth. (Review Photos by Robert Brantley)

Abernathy area farmers received some badly needed rain showers this past week, but with the influx of cool weather the past two weeks, warm weather crops have not been able to get off to a good start.

Last week area farmers were desperate for surface moisture necessary to get their crops started. Many had planted their crops, but there wasn't enough moisture or warm weather to get the seeds started.

Rain showers Saturday evening and Monday provided the necessary moisture on the surface to get the seeds and small plants going. Once the plants get larger, there is enough moisture in the deeper soil levels to help it mature.

Another important factor, which may have caused some farmers to plant late this year, is the unseasonably low temperatures. It has gotten down to 45 degrees two times the past three weeks. The soil temperature has to be at least 60 to 65 degrees for seeds to germinate. Some farmers have not even planted their crops yet and are waiting for the ground to warm up.

Area Showers Spotted

Parts of the surrounding area received beneficial rain over the weekend, but some portions of the area barely received showers, as they were spotted showers.

Four to five miles north of Abernathy, one farmer's wife stated, "all our cotton is up, and the hail has been very light." Saturday afternoon they received one inch of rain.

One mile south of Abernathy, they received 1/2 inch of rain on the Willie Dunn farm. Mr. Dunn stated that he farms both in the Center Community and Shallowater area. On his farm in Center Community, he received about 1/4 inch rain, but he got 2 1/2 inches or more rain on his Shallowater farm. He has received only small hail and not much damage. All of his cotton is up and the moisture is sufficient at this time. On his dryland, the moisture is still short and he could use more rain.

East of Abernathy, approximately 12 miles, on the J. W. Ferguson farm, it is a different story. They have had very little moisture to date. Saturday afternoon, the Fergusons received only 2/10 inch of rain. They have had no hail. Some of their crops are up, but they need more moisture. They have cotton, feed and wheat. The wheat is nearly ready to harvest.

On the L. D. Burgess farm, approximately eight miles west of Abernathy, things are in good shape. He received 1/2 inch of rain Sunday and some small hail, but not enough to do any damage. Mr. Burgess grows only wheat, and the wheat is 7 to 10 days away from harvest. He stated that he is in good shape on the amount of moisture he has received.

The entire area could use more moisture, but the greatest concern for most farmers at this time is the need for warmer temperatures.

School Board Talks Computers

The Abernathy School Board met Monday at 8 p.m. to discuss several important items, one of which was school computers.

The Board discussed terminating the lease of computer terminals and use this lease money to purchase more microcomputers. The school presently spends $37,900 each year to lease 12 computer terminals. This money is provided by the federal government each year to the school through chapter I regular funds and chapter I migrant.

If the lease of the computer terminals was terminated, the $37,900, plus $14,100 in migrant funds available ($52,000), could be used to purchase 27 new microcomputers. This would eliminate having to lease computer terminals and the school would own all of its equipment.

School Director of Federal Programs, Charles Bowen, stated that the 12 hardwear computer terminals being leased have become obsolete, as the software for microcomputers is being constantly updated.

Presently the Abernathy Schools have 24 school-owned microcomputers, which were purchased with federal funds, and 16 microcomputers purchased with migrant funds, which is 40 microcomputers in all.

"With the $52,000, which would be available in chapter I regular and migrant funds, the school would be able to purchase three Apple III computers and 24 Apple II computers, all software computers," Bowen explained.

The Board discussed this item and decided to terminate the computer lease, but they did not make any decision as to how the $52,000 would be spent and will not do so until a future meeting.

Other Business

Minutes of the previous meetings held in May were approved with no discussion.

Transfer student, Byron Hughes, of Cotton Center, was accepted into the Abernathy I.S.D.

The July School Board meeting falls on July 4, therefore, the Board voted to have the meeting the next Monday, July 11.

Laurin Prather was selected to be Abernathy's delegate to the Texas Association of School Boards (TASB) convention to be held September 17-19 at San Antonio.

The Board agreed to have the Teacher Appreciation Banquet this year. It was decided that too many banquets and other activities take place in the spring, and this banquet will be held in the fall.

The Booster Club suggested that, they be allowed to sell the football programs this fall as a money making project for the club. There will be five home games this year and 1,000 programs are ordered for each game. The Board decided that the school would continue to distribute the programs free at the games, as they have done in the past.

School enrollment at the end of the year was 943, down 23 students from last year's total of 966. The average daily attendance for the 1982-83 school year was approximately 850 students.

Tax collections are right on schedule and some overdue taxes from previous years have been collected.

The Board then went into executive session and accepted the resignation of Melinda Megna. She taught second grade.

Aggravated Assault Heads Police Report

A local man has been charged with aggravated assault after pulling a gun and aiming it at two Abernathy Police officers last month.

May 12, Delio DeLeon, 29, of Abernathy was charged with aggravated assault, according to the Abernathy Police Department.

It all started when a disturbance was reported to be taking place in the parking lot of Vecchio's Burger Hut at approximately 4 p.m. May 12, police officers reported. The report stated that police officers Johnny Clayton and Raymond Naron arrived at the scene and found two people arguing by a car parked in the Burger Hut parking lot. Both officers approached the car and DeLeon, who was standing near the two people arguing, pulled a hand gun out of his left pants leg, according to police officers.

Officer Clayton saw DeLeon pull the gun and Clayton immediately drew his gun and pointed it at DeLeon. DeLeon was told to drop his gun, police officers said.

DeLeon did not drop his gun at Clayton's request, but then turned and pointed it at officer Naron. Naron drew his gun, pointed it at DeLeon and DeLeon was again told to drop his gun, according to police officers.

At this point, with both officers pointing their guns at DeLeon, he turned his gun over to the officers and was arrested, according to police officers.

Other Arrests

For May, the Abernathy Police Department made 7 arrests: 4 for public intoxication, 2 for DWI, and 1 aggravated assault (mentioned above).

One incident of aggravated assault, in which no one was arrested, took place May 29, when a black male pulled a gun on another black male in the alley behind Buck's Cafe at east 2nd street, according to police officers.

The two men were having an argument over $4, when the man who had loaned the $4 to the other man, pulled a gun, according to officers.

Police officers arrived on the scene, but the man who pulled the gun was not arrested, because the other man did not file a complaint against him, according to officers.

A misdemeanor assault occurred May 14, when a 27 year old Mexican American male beat up his 21 year old Mexican American wife. She suffered several bruises, according to officers.

The wife filed on her husband for misdemeanor assault, but he has since left town and has not been arrested yet, according to police.

ON THE COUNTY LINE

BY KEITH TOOLEY

"HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY" is the only policy we have on a lot of our Abernathy newsstands.

These newsstands are called "honor system" newsstands because we depend on the honesty and integrity of locals to purchase the papers, rather than just taking them.

For instance, 64 papers were stolen from Allsups' newsstand alone in one week. Many papers are taken from the newsstand at Pay-N-Save without being paid for, etc.

Don't get us wrong. We are not blaming Abernathy as a whole. Abernathy has more honorable folks than not, but we have trouble rationalizing this one out.

Believe it or not, there are some folks in the community who cannot afford a whole quarter and resort to snatching papers from the newsstands

Parable of Jesus Part #1

Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

Wheat Board To Hold Election

The Texas Wheat Producers Board formed in 1971 to support wheat research and market development will hold its sixth biennial mail election between July 1 and July 15, according to W. R. Moore, Jr., Munday, Chairman. The terms of three current board members expiring at that time include: Cagle Kendrick, Stratford; Otis Harman, Tulia; and Dwight Hamilton, Olney.

In 1971, when the Producers Board was formed by Texas producers as a self-help program to enhance the value of their crops, 3.5 million acres was planted to wheat that produced 31.4 million bushels valued at $37.3 million. In 1983, even with 22 percent of planted acres idled by the PIK program, Texas is expected to produce 141 million bushels valued at over $600 million. All of the increased production in the ensuing years has been exported through markets newly developed by U.S. producers through their Boards and Commissions self-assessment programs.

Any wheat farmer producing within the 34-county commercial wheat area is eligible to vote for a board member for that district. Counties included are:

DISTRICT I: Dallam, Sherman, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hansford, Roberts, Moore, Hartley, Hutchinson and Gray.

DISTRICT II: Carson, Potter, Oldham, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Briscoe, Swisher, Castro, Parmer, Hale and Floyd.

DISTRICT III: Childress, Hardeman, Foard, Knox, Throckmorton, Haskell, Archer, Baylor, Wilbarger, Wichita, Young and Clay.

Moore points out that any person qualifying to vote in the election may place his name in nomination for membership on the Texas Wheat Producers Board by application to the organization, signed by himself and at least ten other persons eligible to vote in the election, at least 30 days (June 15) prior to the election final date (July 15), in order to have his name placed on the ballot.

The election will be held by mail ballot, which will be provided to all eligible voters 15 days prior to the election, Moore said. He also indicates that any person qualified to vote who does not receive a ballot 15 days before the election date, may obtain one at Agricultural Extension Service offices in the 34-county area as provided by the Texas Commodity Referendum Law.

Wheat producers fund TWPB with a 1/2 cent assessment on their deliveries of wheat at commercial handlers. Proceeds from such participation supports programs of foreign and domestic market expansion, food and feed wheat technical service, insect control demonstrations and other activities designed to strengthen wheat producers income. In addition to Moore and the three members with expiring terms, other TWPB members are: Robert Graves, Perryton; Wiley Tabor, Quanah; Leo Witkowski, Hereford; Kenneth Keisling, Dumas; and C. L. Edwards, Panhandle.

Applications for names to be placed on the ballot should be sent to the organizations headquarters office, 625 Commerce Bank Building, Amarillo, Texas, 79109.

COTTON TALKS
FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

LUBBOCK, Friday, June 3, 1983

Official 1982 cotton acreage and production figures from the 25 High Plains counties represented by Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., compared to figures from the 1981 crop, show a sharper contrast than any year-to-year comparison in recorded High Plains history back to 1928.

Just released by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, the numbers put total production in 1982 at 1,285,600 net weight bales, a 63.5 percent reduction from the 3,522,000 bales produced in 1981 and the lowest total since the 1,193,100 bales harvested in weather-ravaged 1974.

Yield per harvested acre in 1982 came to only 259 pounds, compared to 378 pounds the previous year, a 31.5 percent reduction.

Not surprising after the long-to-be-remembered destruction of 1982 summer hailstorms, the greatest change from 1981 is seen in the planted acres that were abandoned before harvest. The 25 counties, TCLR reports, planted 3,685,700 acres in 1982 and harvested only 2,380,900, an abandonment of 1,304,800 acres. That's a loss of 35.4 percent, over nine times the 3.7 percent of planted acreage lost in 1981.

The chart below tells the story county by county, showing 1982 planted and harvested acres, yield per harvested acre and total production in 480-pound net weight bales for each of the 25 PCG counties.

National Farm Groups Resist Target Price Freeze

Grain Sorghum Producers Association has expressed opposition to a proposed freeze of 1984-85 target prices. The Agricultural Act of 1981 set annual increases for target prices to offset the increases in the cost of production. Secretary of Agriculture John Block has asked Congress to freeze targets at the 1983 level.

Grain sorghum targets for 1983 are $4.85 per hundred-weight and, as currently set in the law, will be $5.14 in 1984 and $5.40 in 1985. Corn will increase from $5.11 cwt. in 1983 to $5.41 in 1984 and $5.68 in 1985, if the current law is allowed to stand.

In letters to members of the Senate and House Agriculture Committees and other members of Congress, GSPA Executive Director Elbert Harp pointed out that the 1984 grain sorghum target prices, as they now stand, are still 22 percent below the national average cost of production. Target prices are the only real price protection farmers have under the present program. Secretary Block has stated that the target prices are too high and will encourage overproduction and increase government cost.

Harp contends that low prices encourage more production through expanded acres, heavy fertilization, double-cropping, etc., as farmers try to produce more to offset low prices. He pointed out that if USDA will operate the farm programs in a way that will hold market prices above the target levels, then government cost in the form of deficiency payments will be totally eliminated. "Nothing would make farmers happier," Harp said.

The National Farm Coalition, a national group of twenty farm organizations with Harp as vice-chairman, has also issued an appeal to Congress to resist the proposed freeze of 1984-85 targets. "Grain Sorghum Producers Association and the National Farm Coalition are encouraging farmers across the nation to let their congressmen know their views," Harp said.

Atteburys Open New Business In Town - "The Workout"

Pat and Liz Attebury were thinking the same thing, approximately three months ago, when they decided to put in a body building center in Abernathy. Both had been pondering the idea to themselves for quite a while, until one day the idea was mentioned. The idea has become reality as the Atteburys have opened up an exercise and body building center,

"The Workout," which officially opened for business last Saturday. "The Workout" is located at 926 Avenue D, between the Review and DuBose Insurance.

Pat and Liz Attebury made all of the weight machines for the center. There are 15 body building machines in all. Pat welded the metal together and designed the machines from weight machines he has seen in magazines and at gyms and other facilities. Liz did the upholstery work on the cushions for each machine. It took approximately 2 1/2 months to construct the 15 body building machines and the Atteburys constructed them in their spare time.

The Atteburys also plan to add some more weight machines in the future, such as more leg machines, a jogging machine and more free weight benches.

Liz Attebury stated that "The Workout" features a womens workout room and a weight room. "Many of our weight machines have the aerobic effect," Liz said. "The will increase your endurance and strength, as well as trim inches and pounds," she added.

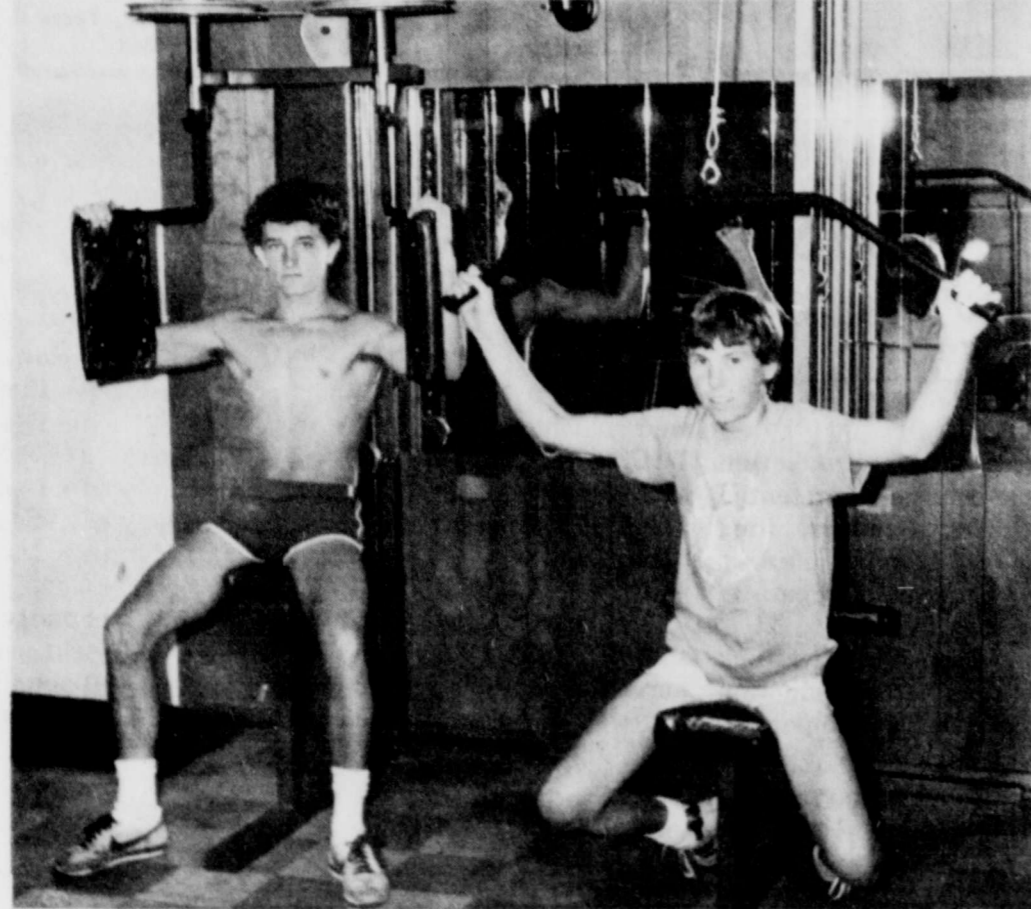

"The Workout" caters to the young, as well as the old and is picking up as many times as they want to each week. "The first workout is free," she added.

"The Workout" is open six days a week. The hours are: Monday-Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Atteburys invite everyone to come see them and see what "The Workout" has to offer.

"THE WORKOUT" is for everyone and no one is too young or too old to stay in shape. Pictured is Donnie Williamson and Kelly Hill working out on two of the weight machines. (Review Photo)

Plains Pest Management Report

General Situation

Thunderstorms have given the area rain and hail during the past two weeks. Hail was reported from the Providence Community and west of Cotton Center. Due to the cool soil temperatures, corn and cotton growth have been delayed. Most cotton is in the cotyledon stage and some remains to be planted. As of Thursday, the temperature began to warm back up. This should help cotton and lower the incidence of seedling disease. Corn is now 10 to 12 inches tall and should begin to grow rapidly with the additional moisture and warmer temperatures.

Cotton

A few thrips are being found on cotton. As wheat dries down, thrips migrate to adjacent crops. Thrips attack leaves and leafbuds and may cause a silverying of the lower leaf surface. Often leaves will appear wilted, deformed or blackened. Thrips damage is most evident during cool, wet periods when cotton is growing slowly, as we have just experienced. Blowing sand after rains can also result in plant damage similar to that caused by thrips, or it can compound plant damage if thrips are present.

Demonstration work on control of thrips has had mixed success. Some tests have given a yield increase, while others have shown no advantage.

Control of thrips may be necessary when thrips average 2.5 per plant and damage is reaching a point where plants may become stunted or some terminal damage is beginning to show up.

In most instances, weather conditions and not thrip members will determine if thrips are going to be of economic importance.

Suggested Insecticides for Thrips Control

Insecticide	Concentrate/acre
Azinphosmethyl (Guthion 2 lb.)	1/2 pt.
Cararyl (Sevin 80 WP)	10 oz.
Dicrotophos (Bidrin 8 lb.)	0.8-1.6 fl. oz.
Dimethoate (De-Fend 2.67 lb.)	3.52 fl. oz.
(Rebelate 2.67 lb.)	1/3 pt.
	1/3 pt.

Corn

Southwestern corn borers are expected to be a problem this year, since so many stubble fields were left unplowed or plowed late. Because of cool soil temperatures, we expect SWCB emergence to be later. Normally we begin to collect a few moths in the light traps around May 30. At this time we have not collected any adults.

If one has corn planted adjacent to unplowed corn stubble, 1st generation southwestern corn borers may become a problem.

We left New York at 6 p.m. Who would have thought that we would be departing New York (JFK) this evening to arrive in Amsterdam, Holland about 8 a.m. Sunday morning.

As soon as we went through customs and got our luggage, we were given a tour package with maps and books on all the countries we would be visiting and an identification pin to wear with our name and state on it. Then we were given luggage tags with our name, address and itinerary on them.

It was wonderful to meet and make 48 new friends. With us on this wonderful flight was the Reverend Noah W. Hutchings, Dr. Hugh Moreton and others from the Southwest Radio Church of the Air from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

We had a delightful dinner and breakfast in the air over the ocean. A deluxe motorcoach met us at the airport, and after seeing many bridges and canals, we were taken on a tour through the cheese factory.

It was very interesting to see how they put the milk in big wooden vats and let it set all night and keep it at a certain temperature so it will form curds. Then, the next day, they strain it in big strainers and pack it in round molds to put on a drain table. Then heavy weights are put on it to press it down to get all the water out.

There was a man, his wife and children working in the factory. It is a family business and the children take over as the factory is handed down from one generation to another.

After leaving the cheese factory, we motored over to the wooden shoe factory called "H. Ratterman." Due to its favorable location, just outside the city of Amsterdam, the factory has become an outstanding tourist attraction. It looks like two big barns joined together. The first room you go into has big blocks of wood, which are cloven and roughly made to shape. The guide said this family had been making wooden shoes for over 150 years. The next generation is still looking and watching how to become good wooden shoe makers. They put a model shoe on the right side of the machine and work on the block of wood by scooping out the center. The wooden shoes are finished by hand, with traditional tools, so they will become a healthy and practical footwear for farming, gardening, camping and for children to play in the garden.

There are all sizes and colors on shelves all over the store and hanging from the ceiling. Very colorful. Several in the group bought some to take home to their children and grandchildren. The workers all wore them. They were ideal to wear in the cheese factory, where they were having to walk on the watery, damp cement. They say they are very comfortable.

We were touring around the city, as they said our hotel would not be ready for us until 12 noon. We stayed at the Hotel Pulitzer in the heart of the city. It was located between two tree-lined canals near the palace and shopping area. The hotel is comprised of 18 historic buildings, completely combined and restored. After we had lunch at the hotel, we toured many interesting places such as the Royal Palace, the Rijks Museum, Anne Frank's house and the Van Gogh Museum. Then we returned to the hotel for dinner and everyone was ready for a good night's rest, after being up all night on the KLM Royal Dutch Airliner.

Trip to be continued next week.

Mrs. Theresa Vela and mother, Mrs. Stella Deleon, visited her sister, Mrs. Molly Valdez, and Mrs. Dee Morales last Friday. They returned to their home in Levelland Friday night.

We wish to thank each and everyone for all the donations for the County Line Cemetery that came in this past week. We surely do appreciate your thoughtfulness. Those who have contributed are: County Line Coop Gin, The Builders Sunday School Class of United Methodist Church of Shallowater, Mrs. Jewel Stanton - Shallowater, Jessie Lee Vance - Shallowater, C. C. Vance - Shallowater, Mr. & Mrs. Billy Hardy - Shallowater, and Mrs. James S. Cullison (sister of Jewel Stanton) - Monticello, Florida.

Ralph Bishop of Anton picked up the gate frame from the yard of the Deryl McGuire home and moved it to the cemetery at County Line. Mr. Doyce Woods has been digging up the bear grass from the cemetery and will continue to keep it mowed and the weeds down. It is beginning to look better week by week. We appreciate everyone helping financially or otherwise in the clean-up project. We will have a community project that everyone is proud of and can enjoy in years to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Valdez, Jr. and children, Eric and Gabe of San Antonio, spent the weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Valdez and sister, Kathy Valdez.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Nelson Friday. They had been to Lubbock to get a new Oldsmobile and stopped by to visit. They both look fine. Mr. Thomson had suffered a heart attack last year, but is doing fine now and staying on his diet and keeping his weight down. Mrs. Thomson is walking on her own, after being in a wheel chair for two years. She suffered injuries in a tornado that struck their home in Sudan several years ago. Mr. Thomson was gin manager at the County Line Gin about 1957 or 1958. They farmed for awhile in Sudan and then retired and bought a home in Littlefield. They have four daughters, all married, and lots of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

SCHOOL'S OUT CAMP'S IN

With summer approaching, kids are once again feeling the freedom summer gives them and thousands are signing up for summer camps all over Texas.

The American Camping Association (ACA), Texas section, a non-profit, educational organization made up of many major areas in camping, including Campfire, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Easter Seals, YMCA and YWCA, as well as other groups, is strongly dedicated to the interests of children nationwide. The ACA only gives accreditation to camps who meet certain standards in administration, program, personnel, health and safety programs and campsites. Camps lose their accreditation if they fail to meet a minimum score.

Parents who are interested in a directory of accredited camps in Texas can send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Texas Section, ACA, Box 148, Friendswood, Tx., 77546

"Riders in The Sky" June 16

The tradition of the singing cowboy, which thrived in the movies of the 1930's and 40's, will be brought back to life at Texas Tech in the form of Riders in the Sky on June 16 at 8:15 p.m. in the Center Theatre.

"Ranger" Doug Green, "Too Slim" Fred LaBour and Woody Paul formed this group through a mutual love of western music as performed by such legends as the Sons of the Pioneers, Roy Rogers, and Gene Autrey, but this group is more than a revival of old songs. They add more contemporary songs, plus original material written by all three members that faithfully keep to the tradition of western music (not country, but western).

The most interesting aspect about this band is its apparent ability to appeal to a variety of people. There is something for everyone, from the fanatic follower of traditional western music, to the person who sees them just for the fun of the show.

Tickets will go on sale June 2 at the UC Ticket Booth and the price will be $2.50 for Tech students and $4.00 for others.

A variety of hand-out materials will be available for homeowners, which will be beneficial for growing and maintaining yards and gardens.

The location in the Mall will be west of the fountain area. Persons with questions concerning the clinic should contact Lubbock County Extension Office at 741-8084.
