

Anniversary Edition
Pleases Most Folks

Much favorable comment has been received on the 50th Anniversary edition of the Advance last week.

Out of a large number of congratulations and expressions, only one complaint was received. These are all appreciated, and we don't try to please everyone—just do the best we can and if we have the support of the majority of citizens we think the effort was a success.

As we explained in the edition, this was not a promotion for financial gain but an effort to commemorate the occasion and to pay respects to the pioneers who laid the foundation for Rotan and area. If financial gain had been the motive, we would have brought in high-pressure promotion salesmen and increased advertising rates, charging for pictures made and engravings of these for printing. But the Advance stood this extra expense.

We realize many ways the edition could have been more complete, all of which would have cost extra money. We are proud of the edition and have no apology to anyone. We did our very best with the money available, and every member of the staff did an abundance of free work.

If you were pleased, we are glad.

CORRECTION—

The 'gremins' got in our type this week and caused two errors in grocery ads.

In Young Food Market the biscuit item read 3 cans for 10c, which should have been, can 10c, which is a bargain.

In Piggy Wiggly ad, liquid lux reads 24 ounce instead of the correct 12 ounce.

Mike Howard of Lubbock, came Monday to visit Lawrence Wayne Sparks this week.

Rotan Tenn-Age Baseball team, winner of the Double Mountain League will go into state play next Thursday at Waco.

In drawing for first go-round, Rotan drew Corsicana to be played at Waco at 6:00 p. m. Aug. 15. Other games that day are Lake Charles-Port Lavaca vs. Bryan; New Boston vs. Alvarado and Gatesville-Brownwood vs. Waco. State play ends Saturday.

Manager Rudy Lotief and all the boys have worked hard this season in winning the League and are taking a good club to Waco for the state play. The team played Hamlin colored team here Monday night in exhibition and to raise funds for expense of the trip to Waco. The same team will be played in Rotan at 8:00 o'clock tonight. Our team needs your support in order to make the trip and play in the state finals and have no other way of raising funds. You will see some real baseball tonight in addition to helping your home team play for state championship.

Roster of the team is, Denny Ivey, Bobby Snyder, Teddy Underhill, Tim Montgomery, Mike Porter, Leroy Hill, Charles Thornton, Jackie Waggoner, Bubba Edwards, Doyle Hayes, Rafor Ratliff, Todd Baugh, Joe Morrow, Manuel Yanez, Joe Burnes, George Bridges and Mike Carter.

In the Monday night game, play ran until midnight with 17 innings and play ending at 3-3 tie. The game was sparked by good pitching and sometimes brilliant fielding, neither team could muster a big inning. The crowd enjoyed a good ball game and the humorous antics of the Hamlin team. Don't miss the return game tonight.

The total market for U. S. cotton can dwindle to 8 million bales or grow to 16 million bales in four or five years.

Facts supporting this statement will be discussed at a special meeting of cotton industry members at the air conditioned Lance Theatre in Rotan, August 14 at 3:00 p. m.

This meeting is one of a series being held in the major cotton growing counties of West Texas. It follows a recent meeting at Rotan where a representative group of Fisher County cotton farmers, ginners and other industry members listened to basic information on cotton's problems, program and potential presented by staff members of the National Cotton Council. It was recommended by the group at Rotan that the information be taken to a wider cross section of the cotton industry through a series of similar county meetings.

The local planning committee for the meeting is headed by L. E. Newton, growers and ginners. Speakers at the meeting will include Earl Sears, Richard Yeager and John Greg.

All cotton growers, ginners, processors and others interested are urged to attend this important meeting. At the conclusion of the meeting there will be a drawing in which five (5) valuable prizes will be given. Just sign your name to a slip when you enter.

Burglars Hit Four Rotan Places Saturday

First burglaries in several months for Rotan were discovered Saturday morning.

Burgarized were the high school, the Piggy Wiggly Grocery Store, Billiard Parlor and the VFW Hall.

Entrance to the high school was gained through a door at the south end of the hall. Doors of the principal's offices were forced and money boxes were rummaged. Nothing was reported missing.

The Piggy Wiggly store was entered through the roof. A piece of tin was pulled up and the intruders gained entrance to the storage part of the building, officers said. Loot there included about $30 in change from the cash register.

The Billiard parlor was entered through the back door. Officers were unable to determine any loss.

The VFW Hall was entered through an east door. Attempts were made to enter a part of the basement of the building. In the main hall, the back of a music machine was removed. However, owners had emptied the machine recently.

Officers are investigating the four break-ins.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fraser of Kerrville, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Strayhorn and Mrs. A. R. Tyson Wednesday evening.

The leafworm and bollworm seem to be causing the most damage to the cotton here in Fisher County. However, a few fields of cotton showed light damage caused by fleahoppers.

The big question on everyone's mind is "When should I begin to use poison to control the harmful insects?" A rule of thumb helpful for deciding when to control leafworms is when from five to ten worms of all ages can be found on a lot of the stalks when making a check across the field. The presence of leafworm eggs also indicate that leafworm damage will continue for several days.

A good check for bollworm damage is to examine the terminal buds (upper three to four inches of the plant) of 100 cotton plants, and 100 consecutive squares and bolls at each of several points in field. Treatment should begin when bollworm eggs and four or five young worms are found per 100 terminals, or 5% of the small squares and bolls have been injured by bollworms.

Several insecticides can be used to control both of these insects and also the fleahoppers in one application. One of our old standbys is to use as a spray is a mixture of Toxaphene-DDT at the rate of 1 to 2 quarts of the chemical per acre. The regular 20% Toxaphene-40% sulphur dust used at the rate of 10 to 15 pounds per acre is also recommended as a control when using a dusting machine.

In the late season program, dusts and sprays are equally effective when properly applied. Repeat the application as soon as possible if the poison is washed off within 24 hour, except where edmeton and other apicides are used.

Dusts should be applied when the air is calm or nearly so. Dew on plants is not necessary. Dust nozzles on ground machines should be placed 5 to 6 inches above the plants.

Spray applications may be made during wind velocities up to 12 miles per hour. Apply spray when leaves are dry. Poison 'run-off' may occur if leaves are wet. For early season treatment with ground equipment, 1 to 2 cone-type nozzles per row, placed 6 to 9 inches above the tops of plants, are sufficient.

The number of nozzles should be increased to a maximum of 3 per row as plants increase in size. Sprays should be applied at approximately 60 pounds pressure and at 2 to 8 gallons per acre. A safety measure, mount spray booms on the rear of the tractor.

Fish certainly aren't human beings, but they are like people in one important respect, they can't live without oxygen.

Weed control and fertilization of farm ponds are important. However, Ed Cooper, wildlife conservation specialist, says that certain precautions should be taken to prevent oxygen depletion.

If mosses and other plants are sprayed with chemicals during the hot days of August and September the masses of decaying matter will cause a loss of oxygen in the water. Without this oxygen, fish will die very suddenly, warns Cooper.

The application of fertilizers to farm ponds will also bring about an oxygen depletion. There should be no more fertilizing until cooler weather this fall or next spring, advises the specialist.

If the pond owner will fertilize properly in early spring of 1958 the fish will be aided by increased food supply brought about by fertilization. Too, the resulting change in water color will not allow the mosses to get a start.

If oxygen is deficient in a fish pond, Cooper advises taking a motor boat ride across it to stir up the water. This helps aerate it and provides more oxygen for the fish.

Pond owners interested in proper pond management practices can obtain a copy of B-213, "Farm Fish Ponds," from the local county agent office.

"BAPTISMS IN NEW TESTAMENT

John the baptist "did preach the baptism OF REPENTANCE." (Acts 19:4.) Paul used the past tense when he mentioned this. At the time Paul was speaking, it was a matter of the past. Now, a different purpose or idea was connected with baptism. In John's day he "did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins." (Mark 1:4. But Paul says he told the people whom he baptized "that they should believe on him which was for to come." (Acts 19:4). The twelve also baptized during those days of "preparation" for the institution of the church and the gospel in fact. So did Jesus—by his disciples. (John 4:1, 2.) There is no sort of evidence to indicate that any man ever did baptize "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. 28:19), until after Jesus died and was raised up again. John never did, the twelve never did. The baptism mentioned in the commission (Matt. 28:19, 20; Mark 16: 15, 16), was not only to be "in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," but was when performed after Pentecost, "IN THE LIKENESS OF HIS DEATH." (Rom. 6: 3, 4, 5). This could not have been done before his death was a fact! Hence the difference is clear between what John did and what the apostles did after the ascension of Christ to the Father.

There is no verse which 'says' the apostles were ever baptized. The inference however is clear that they were. (Matt. 3:5). They WERE baptized on Pentecost day, but NOT in WATER. Jesus had promised them "Ye shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days hence" (Acts 1:5). This was fulfilled as shown in Acts 2: 2, 3, 4). The power and influence of the Spirit FILLED THE HOUSE where they were sitting, and they were completely covered in it. Not only covered in it, but FILLED with it. As if a sponge were dropped into a glass of water. We see it completely surrounded by, covered by, immersed in, and FILLED WITH WATER. This happened to the apostles on Pentecost. This however was NOT the baptism of the Commission. That was something they were themselves to do for others. "Teach the nations, and baptize them." Paul administered it to some of the Corinthians. (1 Cor. 1: 16, 17). No man could administer a baptism in the Holy Spirit. It took divinity to do that. Men could, and did, administer the baptism which Paul called "one baptism" (Eph. 4:4). The one which is "by" the teaching of the Spirit. (1 Cor. 12:13). Not "in" the Spirit as the element.

What John did, was to make "ready a people for the Lord" to use when the proper time came. The apostles were to preach the gospel, and "baptize in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." (Acts 2:38). Only gospel preachers do that today.

FB President Warns Of Losing Rural Road Construction

Fisher County may well have seen its last mile of farm-to-market road construction if a recommended change in the State's rural road program is approved, L. D. Singley, president of the Fisher County Farm Bureau, has declared.

Singley said the Texas Research League is advocating that laws governing construction of farm-to-market roads be changed. In a study made for the Texas Highway Commission, the League said the change would prevent the State from becoming burdened with a rural road program far in excess of its needs. It said that part of the funds earmarked for farm-to-market road construction should be used for maintenance.

"We have about eight hundred miles of unpaved rural roads right here in Fisher County," Singley said. "If the rural road program is changed to suit those who want to get our hard-won farm-to-market road building funds, we may never see another mile of country roads paved in the county."

The county farm organization leader said that 26,000 miles of rural roads, have been paved under the farm-to-market road program, but that more than 100,000 miles remain unpaved. He pointed out that the $36 million spent for farm-to-market road construction and improvement last year was less than one-tenth of the total State expenditure on highways.

Singley charged that the plan to use funds earmarked for construction to pay maintenance costs was a scheme to limit the building of an adequate rural road program. He further contended that rural interests, in lobbying for the rural road program, had to be satisfied with less than the amount thought necessary to finance the program.

"It was the understanding at the time the program was enacted that all the funds appropriated would be used for construction and that the highway department would maintain the road system," he said. "Now, they want to use our rural roads funds for other worthy highway projects."

Singley urged all rural residents to be ready to help defeat any proposed change in the rural road laws at the next session of the Legislature.

Miss Vera Cozart of Abilene, and her niece, Ann Cozart of McCaskey, spent last week end here with her sister, Mrs. Wade Curry, and other relatives, and as she was preparing to return home Sunday morning she fell in the yard and fractured an ankle. She received treatment here and was taken to Abilene Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Phil J. Malouf and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Aaron took her home. Also visiting here Sunday was Roy Cozart of McCaskey.

Mrs. Walter Collins visited her son, Mr. and Mrs. Sug Collins, in Sweetwater last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Edwards of Snyder, visited Mrs. W. F. Edwards Monday evening.

TALK ABOUT ECONOMY... FORDS COST LESS PER MILE!

Fords cost less to buy!

No doubt about it! Model for model, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And don't be fooled by those "low prices" now being quoted for some "stripped down" models in the medium-price field. Remember, a '37 Ford equipped the way most people want a car today—with automatic transmission, heater and radio—costs hundreds of dollars less than these medium-priced cars, similarly equipped.*

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

Fords cost less to run!

In the only nationally recognized test of gasoline economy, the 1937 Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford Six delivered more miles per gallon than any other car entered! This, remember, was no "private test" conducted for the benefit of a single manufacturer. This was grueling competition between 12 different makes of cars... supervised by the United States Auto Club. And when the test was over, Ford led all other cars in the thing you want most—actual miles per gallon!

Fords cost less to trade!

Latest official auction sale figures on used cars show clearly that the new kind of Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. The men who bid at these auctions are professional buyers—men whose very livelihood depends upon their expert knowledge of cars. They pay more for used Fords because they know that Fords hold up in value. Like thousands of Ford owners from coast to coast, they have discovered that Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it, too!

Cecil Edwards Strong For Chemical Weed Killing Program

"Spraying surely did kill the weeds. I had 17 acres of oats sprayed by airplane this spring to get rid of the weeds. At the same time I had my 35-acre pasture sprayed with the same chemical weed killer," said Cecil Edwards. Edwards now has a dense growth of good grass on his pasture, vine mequite grass, white tridens, blue-stems and buffalo grass. His cattle are fat and they can be found. All through the grass there are dead sunflower and bloodweed stalks. The chemical spray also killed some of the mesquite trees.

"Bloodweeds and sunflowers would have been too thick and tall to ride a horse through if I had not sprayed them. The weeds would have kept my grass smothered down. But now I have a good thick stand of grass," Edwards said.

"I would like to have this sprayed again, but there is too much cotton around that the chemical would kill. Some weeds have come up since I sprayed."

"I think it has paid me well to spend $1.75 per acre to poison my weeds," he said. "I have grass where otherwise I only would have had weeds."

Edwards became a cooperator with the Upper Clear Fork Soil Conservation District in 1949. Pasture improvement and management was included in his basic conservation plan. Soil Conservation Service men from Rotan have assisted him in carrying out his conservation practices. His place is on the Clear Fork river, 10 miles southeast of Rotan.

Edwards is now planning to put in 20 acres of blue panic grass on cropland next to his pasture. This land overflowed several times this past spring when the Clear Fork got out of its banks. The blue panic grass will help to protect his soil against erosion as well as furnish grazing.

Local Groups Attends Student Council Workshop at Sul Ross

The student representatives and sponsor attending the Student Council Workshop at Sul Ross State College last week were John M. Redd, sponsor with William Edwards, Lloyd Hurst and Carole Stephens student representatives.

In the leadership training workshop, each person is expected to read, to study, to arrive at conclusions, and to make reports. The group sessions are classes and are conducted as such. The purpose of the workshop is to learn the techniques of group leadership. Adult leaders, who have been chosen with care and are experienced in the field of student participation work served as teachers and counselors. The best group techniques and learning devices for leadership training are being employed.

Entertainment for the group provided by Sul Ross included a base-

4-H'ers Lead the Way to Safety

The future looks brighter for more people because more 4-H Club members than ever before are being trained and educated in safety. Participation in the 1957 national 4-H safety program enables them to make their homes, farms and communities safer places in which to live and work.

Boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 21 throughout the state are learning safe practices that will pay dividends later in life whether they reside on the farm or in the city. Conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service, the 4-H safety program has been supported continuously since 1945 by General Motors.

Incentive awards offered to 4-H'ers for superior achievement include distinctive medals, college scholarships, and educational trips to the national 4-H Club Congress held annually in Chicago.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 5, 1957.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2 proposing an amendment to Article III, Section 51a of the Constitution of Texas, so as to increase the limit on the maximum monthly payment to needy aged persons from state funds and on the total yearly expenditure out of state funds for assistance to needy aged, needy blind, and needy children; and allocating and appropriating additional sums, supplementing current legislative appropriations, for payment of assistance grants.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 51a of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to read as follows:

"Section 51a. The Legislature shall have the power, by General Laws, to provide, subject to limitations and restrictions herein contained, and such other limitations, restrictions and regulations as may be by the Legislature deemed expedient for assistance to and for the payment of assistance to:

"(1) Needy aged persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years, provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate, or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application, provided that the maximum payment per month from state funds shall not be more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per person, and provided further that no payment in excess of Twenty-one Dollars ($21) shall be paid out of state funds to an individual until and unless such additional amounts are matched by the Federal Government.

"(2) Needy blind persons who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and are over the age of twenty-one (21) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any state-supported institution, while such inmate, or to any person who shall not have actually resided in Texas for at least five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one (1) year immediately preceding such application.

"(3) Needy children who are actual bona fide citizens of Texas and are under the age of sixteen (16) years, provided that no such assistance shall be paid on account of any child over one (1) year old who has not continuously resided in Texas for one (1) year immediately preceding the application for such assistance, or on account of any child under the age of one (1) year whose mother has not continuously resided in Texas for one (1) year immediately preceding such application.

"The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Federal Government the necessary financial aid for the assistance of the needy aged, needy blind, and needy children as such Government may offer not inconsistent with restrictions here-in set forth; provided however, that the amount of such assistance out of state funds to each person assisted shall never exceed the amount so expended out of federal funds; and provided further, that the total amount of money to be expended out of state funds for such assistance to the needy aged, needy blind, and needy children shall never exceed the sum of Forty-seven Million Dollars ($47,000,000) per year.

"The Legislature shall enact appropriate laws to make lists of the recipients of aid hereunder available for inspection.

Seek State's Top 4-H Alumni For 1957-58 Honors

WOULD you like to nominate for special honors a former 4-H Club member who has become an outstanding citizen? This is now possible through the national 4-H Alumni Recognition program being conducted by the State Extension Service, and sponsored by Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Plant Food Division, Little Rock, Ark. To be eligible, candidates should have performed some outstanding service, made a notable contribution to the community, state or nation, or displayed exceptional leadership. The person need not now reside in your state. There are more than 21 million former 4-H'ers throughout the country, and undoubtedly the beneficial influence of 4-H training and ideals has affected the lives of every one. Among them are men and women whom you know as friends and neighbors—such as farmers, housewives, the family doctor, teachers, local business men and legislators. By sending in the name of a qualified 4-H alumnus, you may pave the way for well deserved recognition. Two winners from each county will be named for special recognition certificates. Four outstanding persons will be honored in the state, and will receive a burnished copper and walnut plaque.

Eight men and women will be honored during an impressive banquet at the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next December. Besides the expense paid trip, each one will be presented with a gold 4-H alumni key, the national award. The 1958 candidates also will be selected at this time. ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health, HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

Austin.—One of the most important health enemies in America today is tooth decay, a virtually incurable chronic disease which must be prevented if it is to be conquered at all. The ailment is so widespread that it involves 95 of every 100 persons and is still increasing.

It is estimated that there are now one billion cavities in the mouths of Americans, mostly children of elementary school age. And for every cavity a dentist fills, six are left unfilled because of failure to visit a dentist.

Dental authorities say the situation is now so acute that at its present rate of increase, within 10 years decay will have turned us into a nation of dental cripples.

Children develop cavities at about the same ratio as do adults—approximately one per child per year. But whereas one-third of the adult need for fillings is being met, only one-fifth of the cavities in children's teeth are being repaired.

Perhaps the reason is that so many parents still cling to the false notion that so-called "baby" teeth are unimportant because they are temporary. The frequent result is that good dental health for children is still a relatively scarce commodity.

There is one positive step all parents can take to avoid a fate of toothlessness among their children. It's a simple step, requiring only that the youngsters be taken to a dentist for tooth and gum inspection before being enrolled in school each fall.

The dentist will follow a careful routine in making the inspection. He will painlessly probe all tooth surfaces, looking for signs of impending trouble. Using an ingeniously simple little mirror, he can check even the most difficult-to-get-to corners, removing accumulations of "tartar," the name given to incrustated salivary mucus and food residue.

If spots of decay are found, he will remove it and fill the cavity with a material called "amalgam," a combination of mercury and bits of silver. Or perhaps he will choose a porcelain cement, also in use as a filling material.

Before the visit is concluded the dentist will have tutored the youngster in good dental hygiene at home —such things as when and how to brush the teeth, and how to make an excellent dentifrice from baking soda or table salt.

When enough children have received such instruction, and are encouraged by parents to follow them, we will be well on the way toward avoiding the fate predicted for us: that within a decade we will be a nation of dental cripples.
