Okay, let's hear it for the omnivores! "Omnivores?" you may ask. Yes, indeed, for that is precisely what the majority of us are. An omnivore eats both meat and vegetables.

Humankind falls into that category.

There is a small but very vocal movement that is promoting vegetarianism.

No one loves animals anymore than I do. I take in strays and coddle cows. But I'm also acquainted with the realities of life. I'm not a Humaniac, someone who is so humane they lose touch with the real world.

These folks that are ranting and raving about the murder of innocent animals for meat simply don't quite grasp things.

I certainly don't condone cruelty. If meat animals were tortured to death I'd be right in the middle of a campaign to have it stopped.

But they are dispatched quickly, and that's that.

What do these over-enthusiastic people think cattle, sheep, chickens and pigs exist for? Do they think farmers would keep them in their fields, breaking their backs to feed them year after year so that they could multiply and make a pretty picture for folks to see as they drove by?

Obviously farmers would be out of money instantly, and the animals would starve to death. What about old animals. Are we supposed to set up nursing homes for them? Isn't slaughter a better thing than a miserable, failing old age for these creatures?

The whole thing is...their reason for being on this earth is to provide protein. If that reason ceases, then the breeding and feeding of these animals ceases too, and soon they would be on the endangered species list! When it comes to fur is something of a different story. It's true that there is no physical need for fur. But once again, I don't think the people against it would be willing, or able, to spend hours and hours feeding, cleaning, and supporting mink or ermine with no financial return. So, seal the mink and ermine would cease to exist.

The people who think of farmers and ranchers as cruel people have never been up at two in the morning, in freezing sleet, working to help a cow have a calf. They have never blistered in the summer heat while putting up hay to feed those same creatures. They've never had a cranky sow attack them. Another words, they simply don't know what they are talking about!

They can be vegetarians if they choose, of course. But please, leave me alone!

One last thought for them, though. It has been discovered that PLANTS apparently have rudimentary feelings. I hope, the next time they chomp into a nice carrot, they think about that carrot's "death screams" as it was pulled cruelly from the ground.

To prevent that wicked torture perhaps they would like to quit eating vegetables? Hmmmm, sure is going to make for a skimpy diet, isn't it.

Ice, Snow, Bitter Cold, Then Ice Again! More On The Way!

After an unusually mild autumn, the first official day of winter turned out to be a real chiller.

Friday morning, December 21st, a massive arctic cold front moved into the area, sending temperatures plunging, and falling rain began to freeze.

Soon a layer of ice coated roads, fences, fields and homes, and sleet took the place of the freezing rain.

Afterwards it was fine snow, which layered over the ice, leaving the area looking Christmas-card perfect.

Conditions on roads and highways were much less than perfect, however, as accidents occurred throughout the area, ranging from minor to major. Law enforcement officials and wrecker crews worked round the clock to attend to accidents.

Motorists were warned that unless it was an emergency they should stay off the highways.

Plans were soon in disarray as people trying to get home for the Christmas holiday found themselves stranded or hours and even days behind schedule.

Schools, already out for the holidays, fortunately were not forced to cancel, while youngsters availed themselves of the chance to slide, glide and crash on the icy surface.

Snow and sleet fell through Saturday, and clear skies Sunday sent nighttime temperatures to about 9 degrees. Wednesday conditions were safer, but late afternoon and night time ice created a buildup on porches, steps and trees that was beautiful to behold.

Thursday morning the temperature hovered right at freezing, but roads continued their clearing trend.

However, the weather prediction is for massive ice and snow to hit just in time for New Year's. So, after a long mild spell, the area is firmly in the grip of old man winter.

City of Deport To Get Grants

The City of Deport has received two letters from the Texas Department of Commerce, announcing that the city will be awarded two grants.

The first grant will be for the entire city, in the amount of $12,500, for planning studies, and doing things such as updating city blueprints. The award is made available through the Texas

Community Development Program.

The second grant is much larger, and amounts to $140,000 for water distribution line improvements.

Streets that are proposed in the water grant are: Church Street, part of Kelsey Street, Part of Beville, North First, and part of Jeffus. Lines will be replaced with six inch water mains and added fire plugs. Construction should be started about July or August.

This grant comes from the Texas Community Development Program also. It will be matched with ten percent of city funds.

Paper Sale Extended Because Of Ice

Due to the extremely hazardous road conditions a large number of people have called to say they may not be able to get in before the paper sale goes off on December 31st. Therefore, we are extending the sale into January until such time as we feel everyone has had a reasonable opportunity to come by and renew their subscription.

DAMAGED-this tractor trailer rig apparently jack knifed out of control and struck a late model blazer Friday night as severe icing conditions occurred on roads throughout the area. The accident occurred on Hwy. 271 just west of Deport with no serious injuries reported. Deport Volunteer Firemen controlled traffic while the accident was worked out. (Staff photo by Thomas Nichols)

Sales Taxes Show "Nice" Increase

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that his office sent checks totaling $88 million to cities and counties across Texas that collect local sales taxes.

"This month's checks show a nice increase over last December's and that's a good indication of a healthy and growing state economy," Bullock said.

Sales tax rebates to Texas cities this month are up 9% over last December's figures and up 8% over last year's total payments at this time.

Payments to cities totaled $79 million and Houston received the largest check, $13 million. Dallas received the second largest check with $8 million.

Mt. Pleasant received $88,454.79 for a 3.88% increase.

Talco received $521.00 for an 18.08% decrease over last December's payment.

Bogata received $2,311.11 for a .18% increase while Clarksville received $14,072.37 for a 2.23% increase. Detroit received no payment for this period.

Blossom received $1,053.23 for a 2.66% decrease.

Deport received $970.87 for a 1.11% increase over the payment for last December. Paris received $211,711.37 for a 13.10% increase.

Also included in this month's check were quarterly payments totaling $138 million for the state's six metropolitan transit authorities and one city transit department. The payments to MTA's reflect taxes collected in August, September and October.

This Week's Paper Doing Double Duty

The newspaper you are reading right now is a double duty issue. It will serve for both this week and next week.

Because of the Tuesday holidays this year only, this has been necessary.

With more icy weather forecast, and the holiday mail schedule, this has turned out to be a satisfactory solution so that employees can have a holiday break, and the papers can conform to regulations and standards.

All local news or news items turned in after deadline this week will be published in the next issue.

TOTALLED-this late model Chevy Blazer was virtually wiped out from the windshield forward as it was struck by a tractor-trailer rig Friday night. The truck apparently skidded out of control on the icy roads that ushered winter into the area. The accident occurred on Hwy. 271 just west of Deport. (Staff Photo by Thomas Nichols)

What Costs And What Doesn't?

By Nanalee Nichols, Editor

A customer asked the other day if we charged for putting in a wedding announcement. A few days later an elderly lady asked in Bogata if there was a charge for putting in local news! The answer to both is a resounding NO of course, but it set me to thinking it might be a good idea to list exactly what the papers charge for and what they don't charge for.

We do not charge for putting in local news such as who is visiting whom, or who has returned from a trip.

We do not charge to put in standard birth announcements, and we do not charge for putting in wedding or engagements. We don't charge for pictures that accompany these, and we do not charge for anniversary announcements.

We do not charge to put in write ups about people's promotions, achievements or other activities.

We do not charge to run a story announcing a revival or special church program, but we do reserve the right to limit the length of such announcements.

We don't charge for non-profit fund raisers such as church bake sales, school or civic club events.

We do not charge for school news. We welcome, indeed, positively beg for such items as are listed above.

We DO charge for cards of thanks, ads that are selling something.

We do charge to publish poems, even those in memory of someone. We do charge for happy birthday or anniversary ads that read "Happy 30th birthday John" or "Lordy Lordy, Look Who's Forty". The reason we have to charge for poems and ads like that are that if we didn't we would have no more room in the paper for news.

We receive several dozen poems each week from all over the nation, requesting publication. We charge for legal notices. So, you see, we charge for much less than we publish free!

That means you should feel free to call in all upcoming events, all local news, all things of interest.

We hope this will clarify things for anyone who had a question.

Country Cooking

By Gerrie Bankhead

"Country Cooking" this week comes from the kitchen of Kim and Joe Travis Kelsey of Bogata. Kim and Joe Travis have been married for 12 years and have lived in Bogata all their married life. They are active members of the United Methodist Church in Bogata.

Kim is employed at her father's doctor's office in Bogata where she is an xray technician and office assistant. Kim and Joe Travis are proud of their four nephews and one niece, and they babysit a lot and love to entertain them.

Kim's many hobbies include cooking, raising a big garden, making crafts and having pretty flowers in her yard. The couple has such a large garden that they freeze foods like peas, okra, etc., and still have lots of vegetables to give away to friends and family.

Kim says Joe Travis helps a lot with the daily cooking, as he likes to grill outside and enjoys frying foods while Kim likes to bake cookies. She recently went to a cookie swap and picked up several different recipes. She likes to bake and give them away to friends at Christmastime. She also has certain friends and family members that expect certain desserts from her during the holidays. Kim is sharing her recipe for Lemon Kiss Cookies with us this week.

Every Christmas morning, Kim is in charge of cooking breakfast at her parent's house. She is sharing the breakfast pizza that has become a family tradition. Also, each year Kim and a friend host a Christmas party for about 50 people. She enjoys preparing for this event. Kim is also involved each year with the open house held at their church parsonage which is a luncheon for about 100 people.

This is Kim's year to host their family and friends New Year's day feast. The host gets to decide what type of food will be served and everyone brings a dish accordingly. Kim says that the Pepparoni Pizza Dip is great for a New Year's treat.

Kim also enjoys collecting cookbooks. She received a holiday treats book from a co-worker which she put all her favorite dessert recipes for the holidays in.

We hope you enjoy the recipes this week. If you have a feature suggestion, please call 652-6032 or write to Rt. 1, Box 67A, Deport.

MY CAR ISN'T EQUIPPED WITH AIR BAGS, BUT IT HAS A WINDBAG ON THE PASSENGER SIDE!

Nineteen Year Old Earns College Degree, One Of ETSU's Youngest

Kristi Cawley of Bogata is an attractive, personable nineteen year old. She looks as if high school was just behind her...but instead, her college education is behind her!
 Kristi graduated from East Texas State University in Commerce December 15 with a Bachelors of Science Degree in Elementary Education with a Kindergarten endorsement plus an English specialization endorsement.

 She was one of 126 students to graduate from ETSU, but what makes that so special is that at 19 she is one of the youngest students to ever graduate from the University according to student relations officials at the college.

 "There may have been another 19 year old a long time ago" a representative said.
 Kristi has already completed six months of student teaching in Paris' Giveins Elementary and Justiss Elementary schools.
 Before attending college Kristi attended private schools in Bogata and Paris in her elementary and high school education.

 She presently lives in Bogata with her parents, Ralph and Bobbie Cawley. She is a member of the Bogata Assembly of God Church.
 While always an excellent student, she is far from a "grind" and likes to have fun as much as any typical teen.

She wants to relax a while and hopes to make a ski trip before settling in to enter her new profession. Teaching is something she has always wanted to do, and is looking forward to sharing with eager young minds the knowledge she has compiled through her years of training.
