MERRY XMAS HAPPY NEW YEAR

The Year 1910 is fast coming to an end and we wish to thank our many customers for their liberal patronage during the year past, and we will be pleased to serve you during the year 1911.

THAT CHRISTMAS DINNER!

Our stock of Groceries is overflowing with good things to eat and we are anxious to sell you that Christmas bill. We have just received a big shipment of Christmas candies, nuts, fruits, etc, and our prices are always the lowest.

GET SUITED NOW.

Next week we will be very busy taking invoice of our entire stock of dry goods and in order to decrease our stock, we will make some FANCY SPECIAL PRICES on men's and boys clothing, ladies' coat suits, cloaks and skirts.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR BUSINESS.

B. L. BOYDSTUN

LET US SERVE YOU FOR 1911.

EULA LOCALS.

(This communication was received too late for publication last week.)

Good Morning Uncle Billie. We are having a fine rain, something we needed and something we certainly appreciate. Wheat and oats will do some growing now. Land was getting too dry to plow but now things will be quite different.

Cotton is about all picked now, so you see we don't have any to do but get busy for a new year.

J. T. Roberson and J. F. Hampton have returned from Sterling county where they took a bunch of horses for Roberson Bros. They report things awfully dull down there.

W. J. Riley made a business trip to Abilene one day last week.

D. G. Hurst went to Abilene last Monday and sold some fine mules.

J. B. Williams and family went to Baird shopping Saturday.

Arthur McEachern made a business trip to Baird Thursday.

Geo. Wilkerson was in Abilene trading Saturday.

J. P. Wankins will move to East Texas in a few days.

B. S. Adams has had his house newly painted.

HORSE OVERTURNS BUGGY INJURING THREE WOMEN.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. J. M. Estes wife of Dr. J. M. Estes, of Abilene, and Dr. Estes' two sisters, Misses Myrtle and Mollie, of Clyde, were victims in a runaway accident at Clyde. They had just taken Dr.

Estes to a train on which he was coming to Abilene, when the horse became frightened at a freight engine and wheeled, turning the buggy over and breaking the shafts. The women were thrown out. Mrs. Estes had her shoulder dislocated. Miss Mollie suffered a dislocation of the wrist and Miss Myrtle received several minor injuries about the head. Although the injuries were not serious, they were very painful and will require some days to overcome.

The train on which Dr. Estes was riding was caught by a man on horseback before it got out of the Clyde switch yards and the doctor was called back.—Taylor County News.

Editor Shields, of the Cross Plains Review, wife and little daughter, Lulu Mae, were pleasant callers at THE STAR office yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Shields left last night for Greenville, to spend Christmas with relatives.

STAR NEXT WEEK.

THE STAR will be issued next week, Christmas, just as usual. We never have missed an issue on Christmas week, but intended to give the printers a lay off this time; however, some legal notices, that require continuous publication, compels us to issue a paper Christmas week. Everybody rests but the newspaper folks.

COAL—Phone Grant Bowls.

BURNT BRANCH LOCALS.

Dec. 20.—Christmas Gift, Uncle Bill. I wish the dear old Star and all its force a Merry Xmas and a Prosperous New Year. May its rays shine with all brilliancy, and your shadow's never grow less. And when you have finished your grand work and lay down the stick, may you all receive the well deserved plaudit, "Well done." God bless you all.

Xmas, I guess, will be jolly as there is much passing back and forth to the capitol city. We can't buy the overjoyful, you know, but with a little "cussing" can get it by express. But you know Blanton and his grand jury is hable to put the whole Christmas push in jail if they don't just so Be careful boys, and old men alike.

We learn the schools in these parts have vacated until after Christmas on account of the institute, which is in session this week.

We have had some rain, which is beneficial to small grain, and has placed the ground in good shape for plowing, but we need more rain on wheat and oats.

Mrs. Charley McDermett has been very sick, but am glad to report her much improved. May the good lady recover her health intirely.

The terminal city of Cross Plains expects a New Year's present in the shape of a railroad—and the Review man will be happy, indeed.

Speaking of Christmas reminds me of the Christmas of 1864, "enduring the war." A few days previous some of us visited, in the dar breaks, a distillery, and in several gallons of "Mou Dew", tendering payment for same in the currency of the country. Confederate money, which was accepted and no papers passed, we departed for the Christmas festivities; that night we had a banquet and several of us continued the banquet after the original banquet over, as Bob Taylor said, and the Company was a gentlemen will call Uncle Bill, (not Uncle of The Star). At last Christmas morning dawned bright and with many headaches and other feelings among the boys. So concluded we would see how Bill was making it, and found trying to get rid of the soles boots. "How you make it, Bill?" "Tough by grauny, be damned if I want any pies, cakes or any kind of mas fixups, this day of all just let me sleep." That ago, and in trying times, we don't do that way now, too old and have so many to pass the day. This was and this Christmas was soldiers in winter quarters from home, kindred and I know the good Lord will the little sins we committ, eventful Christmas of '64.

A Merry Christmas to everybody, and may you all live long and prosper.

Sister Nan Curtis is quoted as saying in a speech at Fort Worth, that no man who votes the anti-ticket at the coming state-wide election is a Democrat.

Ten years ago we learned what was the population of Callahan county and the various towns in a few weeks, but eight months have elapsed since Dick Cochran took the census of Baird and still we do not know what is our population.

Cyclone Davis, Sister Nan Curtis and Dr. Gambrell, President of the Anti-Saloon League, all say a man cannot be an anti and a Democrat at the same time.

S. J. Thomas has one advantage over the deaf mute; he can do all the talking. Just like a newspaper man, ain't it?—Baird Star.

Not by a jug-full—we believe the jug is now legal tender in Callahan county—the deaf can talk in whole sale or retail quantities with tongue and hands, and really they have us who are in possession of our hearing bested.

All right "S. J." we are coming, not to study the mute language, but to sample the contents of that jug.

It is said that the people of Rising Star will make an effort to have the legislature create a new county, with Rising Star as a prospective county seat.

It is said that there are one hundred and fifty dry counties in Texas. The STAR is going to make a prediction that may horrify some of prohibition friends, but we believe it will come true, and it is this: the counties will give a majority for state prohibition.

Congressman W. R. Smith made the first tariff speech at this session of congress. From newspaper reports Judge Smith indorses the free raw material theories of Bryan and, consequently, opposes the position of the Texas Democracy on that question.

The Librarian of Congress, who receives a salary of six thousand dollars yearly, says he cannot live on that sum and asks congress to raise his stipend to seven thousand five hundred dollars.

C. E. Gilmore, editor of the Wills Point Chronicle, is a candidate for speaker of the next House in the State legislature.

prohibition question, but do know him to be an honorable, straight forward gentleman in every sense of the word.

There is a persistent rumor that the grand jury will reconvene about January 1st, but those who ought to know, say if there is any truth in the report they do not know it.

Judge Poindexter's covert declaration that he will be a candidate in 1912—two years hence—for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, will not tend to enliven the day thoughts nor tinge with resentment the night dreams of Mr. Oscar Branch Colquitt.

If Oscar Branch Colquitt makes good as governor, as THE STAR believes he will, he need not have any fears from Judge Poindexter or any one else in 1912.

Republic a cold bottle of San Antonio ale that Poindexter will not be a candidate for governor in 1912.

THE STAR does not take much stock in the kicking now going on about the Texas census being too low. Just as Census Supervisor Durand says, the census was taken by Texas people and there was no reason why they should have defrauded their own people.

Dr. Gambrell, head of the Anti-Saloon League, is to be congratulated for his frankness. He declares in favor of the Curtis bill now pending in congress that prohibits the shipment of intoxicating liquors into dry states.

quor himself. He cannot go there sign a receipt, pay charges and have some one else call for it. The booze must be delivered to the person to whom it is shipped.

DEMONSTRATION FARM.

Dr. Poindexter showed us a letter Monday that he had just received from Congressman Smith in regard to establishing a government demonstration farm in this county.

While Judge Smith holds out very little encouragement for such an enterprise just now, because of the lack of funds, we should keep working it up and by and by we may get it.

THE TALENT PLAY.

The talent play, "The White Mountain Boy," given at the Opera House, Wednesday night for the benefit of The Baird Citizens Band was a decided success.

Each member of the cast played their parts well and much praise was given them. They played like professionals.

The music by The Baird Citizens Band was enjoyed very much as also were the readings, "Biff Perkins' Toboggan Slide," by Miss Mattie Scott, and "The Devil's Wagon" by Miss Adine Seale.

Your Friends Prefer Jewelry to Any Other Gift in the World.

For thousands of years, as far back as historical records go, the universal token of Love and Friendship has been precious stones and jewels. To every race, in every age and generation, gems and jewels have held a charm more alluring than money, land, merchandise or any other form of wealth. And with each generation, the sentiment attached to the giving and owning of jewels grow.

Every achievement in Life is associated with gifts of beautiful jewels, a diminutive ring for baby; bracelets and neck chains for birthday remembrances; at graduation, perhaps a fine watch; a diamond ring announces the marriage engagement; and at the wedding, the crowning event of all, a multitude of precious gems, stones and jewels.

Search the gamut of human wants and you will find no gift so acceptable as jewelry. Good jewelry is a heritage that is handed down from generation to generation and an enduring remembrance of the giver.

When you want to select jewelry for your friends or relatives, come to this store. You can not find more dependable jewelry any place; you can not find so large a line or so many novelties elsewhere in this city. Nor are the prices we ask in any case unreasonable. In many instances a comparison will demonstrate that to trade with us means a considerable cost saving.

If you are unfamiliar with jewelry, we will be glad to help you make tasteful selections. On the other hand, if you are accustomed to buying rings, lockets, bracelets, watches, diamonds, etc, so much the better. You will appreciate the more keenly the high quality of our goods and up-to-date selections. Needless to say, every article of merchandise we sell is warranted to be exactly as represented. There is no chance for deception at this store. Our line is particularly interesting in rings, brooches, bracelets, necklaces, lockets, pins, watches, diamonds and late novelties.

We are local agents for the famous South Bend Watch, which you have advertised in leading magazines. Come and visit our store, whether you are ready to purchase jewelry or not. Bring your friends along. We take pleasure in showing the many beautiful gems and jewels that we have. We also have a complete line of Kodaks and supplies.

Military Record of John R. Wilson
 It is difficult to give a full account of all the hardships and dangers of any soldier but the subject of this short sketch entered the service of the Confederacy in June 1861 and remained until after the surrender at Appomattox. Living in the Missouri line where the Quantrells operated, his first military service was as scout for a strepid leader and he often gave the information which led to a Terr. for the bushwhackers, who were reported to the regular Confederation, and to the army when it was in reach. A Merry and Upton Hayes came in from the South, John Sister Nan enlisted with that company in a speech.  It is said that the people of Rising Star will make an effort to have the legislature create a new county, with Rising Star as a prospective county seat. The people for several years, in that section, have made a determined effort to secure a new county, while all adjacent counties, that have to furnish the territory, oppose it. The proposed new county will take one hundred and thirty-one square miles of Callahan county, which would reduce the old county to about 760 square miles. What are we going to do about it? If a new county would not take so much of Callahan's territory it would materially lessen the opposition in s county.
