DEEP CREEK FIELD IS PROMISING

Oil fans apparently believe in the possibilities of the Deep Creek Shallow Field, encouraged by the good showing made so far by the Baird Development Oil Company's No. 1 well, which is still flowing steadily by the head, the oil being tanked.

To accommodate its output and the possible output of other wells now being drilled in its vicinity, engineers began yesterday a survey for a pipe line 4 1-2 miles long to Moran. It is announced that a similar line will ultimately be built to Baird to connect with the T. & P. new 500-barrel tank, consigned to the B. D. O. Co., was unloaded at Moran Wednesday.

Yesterday morning Driller J. B. Roberts, who brought in the B. D. O. Co.'s No. 1 well, set up a new rig on the Hughes lease, 300 yards north of that well and will begin drilling.

On the same tract, 700 yards northwest of No. 1 well, Homer Peoples, of Fort Worth, has started a well.

McGowan Bros., of Baird, on the Slaughter lease, are drilling at 485 feet.

Ungren & Simons, on the Joe Neuman lease are drilling at 122 feet.

A location has been made on the Joe Neuman lease, northeast corner of Section 34 by Sipe Spring parties. Madden Brothers, of Rising Star and W. E. Lows, of DeLeon, are looking over the field with the view of making a location.

BACK FROM FIREMEN'S CONVENTION

Delegates James C. Asbury and Brown Jones left Monday night, May 9th for Weatherford, to represent the Baird Volunteer Fire Department in the 45th Annual Convention of the State Firemen's Convention, which was in session in that city May 10, 11 and 12. They returned home Thursday night of last week on the Sunshine Special.

They left here "loaded for bar" with Baird-boosting propaganda, which they distributed with prodigal hands. The delegates, from all parts of the state, were most hospitably entertained by the Weatherford people, and the visitors reciprocated by pulling off various fire stunts for the entertainment of their generous hosts, about which The Star will have something to say next week. Brownwood secured the 1922 Convention.

Lots of interesting subjects were discussed by the fire fighters and papers on six interesting fire subjects which had been assigned at the Waco Convention last year, were read and have been printed in pamphlet form. Beginning next week The Star will begin the serial publication of such of the topics as are of general interest.

WOODMEN CIRCLE DECORATION

The Star is requested to announce that Holly Grove No. 570, Woodmen Circle will hold their decoration services at Ross Cemetery, Sunday, May 29th. All members of the Grove are requested to meet at their Hall at 3 o'clock, p. m.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEARING ITS CLOSE

The finish of the 1920-21 session of the Baird Public School draws near, and Superintendent J. F. Boren and his faculty are stressed with the extra work that falls upon their shoulders. Because of the epidemic of measles and chicken pox among the smaller children, interrupting the orderly carrying out of the various programs, there have been drastic changes made in the original commencement plan. The following is the final schedule of events as agreed upon:

Tonight, Friday, May 20, in the Auditorium, at 8:16—Entertainment of the Intermediate Grades, when a very interesting program will be presented.

Sunday, May 22, in the Auditorium, at 11—Baccalaureate Sermon, by Rev. D. S. Ligon, of Denton.

Monday, May 23, at 8:30 p. m.—Mrs. C. B. Holmes's Music Class will give a Recital, presenting the Cantata "The Moon Queen," as a finale, in the Auditorium.

Tuesday, May 24, at 7:15 p. m., on the school grounds—The tiny tots in the Primary Grades will present, on an elaborate scale, an unique Maypole program.

Thursday, May 26, at 8:15 p. m.—Senior Class Play, "Kingdom of Heart's Content."

Friday, May 27, at 8:15 p. m.—Graduating Exercises and Baccalaureate Address by Prof. J. O. Hardy, President of Baylor-Holton College.

There are eleven graduate students from the Senior High School this year, and as a result of the school year, Superintendent J. F.

Boren will hand diplomas to the following:

Messrs. R. F. Jones and J. B. Morrisett; Misses Eva Cutbirth, Marie Dawkins, Bessie Jones, Pearl Cleveland, Edith Bowler, Catherine Mullican, Jessie Lidia, Allene Ivey, Bertie May Pointer.

President of the Board of Trustees of the Baird Independent School District L. L. Blackburn will present the scholarships, two each from state colleges except A. & M. and the College of Industrial Arts, which give but one each. He will also award the proficiency medals to winners in the grades.

THREE NOTED AMERICANS DEAD

The daily papers yesterday contained announcement of many prominent people dead, among them:

Franklin K. Lane, member of President Wilson's cabinet.

State Senator James Clayton McNealus, editor of the Dallas Democrat, aged 75.

Mrs. Isabella E. Neff, the venerable mother of Governor Pat Neff, aged 91 years.

Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, Edward Douglas White, was reported dying at Washington. He was born November 2, 1845.

JUDGE BURKETT SPEAKS

Judge Joe Burkett, of Bastian, candidate for State Senate, will speak at Baird at 2:30 p. m. today. He will speak on the subject of "The State of Texas."

BOY SCOUTS HIKE UNDER NITSCHKE

With George Nitschke acting as Scout Master, ten Baird Boy Scouts went on a hike Saturday and Sunday camping on the bank of Mexia creek below the iron bridge, where they pitched their pup tents and built their camp fire.

The outing was a most pleasant one and the scouts, being healthy, red-blooded kids, were as joyously hungry for all sorts of outdoor sports as young mavisches are for worms.

"We fished, did scout work, played games and cooked chow—mostly the last, for hiking sure makes a kid hungry. It rained Saturday night, but our pup tents were O. K. and we slept snug and dry. We sure had one bully good time," is the descriptive log of the hike, briefly made by one of the hikers.

ODDFELLOW'S 40th ANNIVERSARY

The fortieth birthday of Oddfellowship in Baird will be fittingly observed by that order at the Princess Theatre, next Tuesday evening, commencing at 8:30 o'clock.

An address will be made by Phil Schwarz, on "Oddfellowship," followed by Mrs. Jake Alexander, of Cisco, Warden of the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma.

All Oddfellows, their families and friends are invited to attend.

LARGEST NUMBER OF BAPTISTS IN SOUTH

MEMBERSHIP IS MORE THAN THREE MILLIONS AND STILL GROWING

HOSPITALS ARE ON INCREASE

Enrollment in Educational Institutions Increase Twenty-Five Per Cent in Year

Chattanooga, Tenn.—During the year just closed four new hospitals have been opened by the Southern Baptists, according to reports made to the Southern Baptist convention here. Total valuation of their hospital property has increased from $2,614,720 to $6,240 $15. Four new nurses' training schools have been opened and four additional hospitals have been qualified as standard instructors. Baptists of the south now own and operate 17 hospitals, while two others owned by Baptists have the sanction and support of the church. Sites have been chosen and appropriations made for seven new hospitals in various states. These will cost more than $2,000,000. Sixteen of the new hospitals have nurses' training schools in connection with them.

Other reports were on the several educational institutions of the church. The Baptist Sunday school board reported that receipts for the last year have been $1,147,721.73. This is an increase of over $200,000 as compared with last year.

Enrollment among the Baptist schools of the south during the last convention year was 25 per cent in excess of the preceding year.

Some of the Texas Baptist preachers who occupied Chattanooga pulpits Sunday were Dr. T. V. Neal, Dr. E. P. Kennedy, the Rev. E. F. Adams, Dr. George W. McCall, the Rev. Bonnie Grimes, Dr. Millard A. Jenkins, Dr. James B. Leavell, Dr. M. T. Andrews, the Rev. F. F. Evans, Dr. L. R. Scarborough, Dr. W. A. Hamlett, Dr. A. L. Booth, the Rev. Jeff Davis, the Rev. Mevin W. Edison, Dr. Harold Major and Dr. George W. Truett.

"I do not entertain the shadow of a doubt but that every dollar pledged to the $75,000,000 campaign will be paid in by Southern Baptists by the time the allotted five years have elapsed and I venture to predict that our leaders will then come together in conference and map out another great program for the collection of not $75,000,000, but $200,000,000, for the carrying on of our work at Baptist church, Truett, pastor of First Baptist church, Dallas, declared in an address delivered before an audience of not less than 6,000 messengers and visitors who thronged the convention hall to hear Dr. Truett and Dr. J. H. Brook of London, England. Prolonged and vigorous applause followed Dr. Truett's statement.

ONLY THREE CONVICTS ARE NOW AT LIBERTY

One White Prisoner and Two Mexicans May Be Surrounded

Houston, Texas.—Thirty-seven of the 40 convicts who escaped from the state penitentiary at Huntsville early last Thursday morning had been accounted for late Sunday. The other three are reported surrounded. Of the 37 accounted for two have been killed and two injured. Joe Woods, one of the men taken after a running battle near Riverside, is not expected to live. The other men captured Sunday are as follows:

Gerald A. Brice, 39 years, murder, Bell county; F. C. Osborne, five years, El Paso county; Creed Watkins, 14 years, horse theft; Henry Spillers, life, murder, Limestone county; Juan Capelo, 50 years, Williamson county; a Mexican who is being held at Conroe, not yet identified; a Mexican caught in Montgomery county, not yet identified.

YOUNG IRISH WOMAN IS SHOT BY SNIPERS

Victim Daughter of Head of Masonic Order in Munster

Belfast.—Miss Barrington, only daughter of Sir Charles Barrington of Glenstal Castle, county Limerick, and head of the Masonic order in North Munster, and Police Inspector Biggs were shot dead from ambush Saturday night by civilians while motoring from Killoscully to Newport, county Tipperary.

The father of the dead woman is a former high sheriff of county Limerick.

Nine policemen, two soldiers and a number of other persons were killed Saturday in attack and counter attack at various places. Numerous persons were wounded.

PEN OF THE REVOLUTION

- 1743—April 13, born at Shadwell, Va.
- 1767—Admitted to the bar.
- 1769-74—Member of House of Burgesses.
- 1774-76—Member of congress.
- 1776-79—Member Virginia assembly.
- 1779-81—Governor.
- 1783-84—Member of congress.
- 1784-89—Minister to France.
- 1790-93—Secretary of state.

THOMAS JEFFERSON as much as Abraham Lincoln. Was nursed at the breast Of the unexhausted West. At the time of his birth beneath one of its foothills the Blue Ridge of Virginia was the American frontier. The farm on which he was born had been cleared in the wild forest by his pioneer father when the smoke of a neighbor's chimney hardly could be seen from his cabin door.

When he rode east, with his darling fiddle under his arm, to be a student at William and Mary college, the tall, slender, sandy-haired, snub-nosed, freckled-faced seventeen-year-old boy of the frontiersman never had seen a mansion, a church or a village of twenty houses, and he looked with a stranger's eyes upon the baronial wide and display of the old families who formed the viceregal court at Williamsburg.

To support the large family of his father on their too small farm Jefferson turned to the law. In seven years he doubled his estate and at the same time increased his slaves to 400. Buying the little mountain at whose feet he was born, he built upon its summit from plans of his own drawing, with bricks of his own making and with wood of his own cutting, the noblest house in all Virginia. There at Monticello he made his home ever after.

Jefferson's law practice continued rapidly to grow until it amounted to $2,500 a year, when he abandoned it forever to prosecute George III in the great and general court of mankind. He had heard the first call of the Revolution while a law student in Williamsburg. Its clarion had been ringing in his ears ever since he stood, an eager looker-on, in the door of the house of burgesses. He saw Washington in his seat and he saw his own friend, Patrick Henry, a fiddling Virginian like himself, holding the floor amid cries of treason as he invited the king to profit by the example of Caesar, who had his Brutus, and Charles I, who had his Cromwell.

The sword, the tongue and the pen of American freedom were well met that memorable day. After the pen had waited twelve years for its turn to speak Jefferson sat in the congress at Philadelphia. The squire of Monticello was a silent member, as silent as the squire of Mount Vernon. Opportunity and duty went straight to those two speechless congressmen as the needle leaps to a lodestone.

After serving as governor of Virginia and member of congress Jefferson was sent as minister to the court of France. "You replace Doctor Franklin," the Count Vergennes said to him on his arrival in Paris. "I succeed him," the new envoy happily replied; "no one can replace Doctor Franklin."

Six weeks and a day after he had seen that old France of the Bourbons crash beneath the walls of the Bastille Jefferson left Paris to become our first secretary of state. Taking his seat at the right of Washington he was free to face across the cabinet table with Alexander Hamilton, the secretary of the treasury.

By nature and training the two were as opposite in their political opinions as in their chairs, and they found themselves, as Jefferson said, "plitted like fighting cocks." As they fought and the feathers flew a great crowd collected behind each to urge on its favorite in that cocking main over which Washington had the unhappiness to preside. Quickly all the people in the land took one side or the other and formed themselves into the two political parties which with changing names and changing disputes have divided the country to this day.

AN UNHAPPY PRESIDENT

- 1788—John Adams elected vice president.
- 1792—Re-elected vice president.
- 1796—Elected president.
- 1797—Inaugurated second president, aged 61.
- 1800—Concluded peace with France. Defeated for second term by Jefferson.
- 1820—Member of Massachusetts constitutional convention.
- 1826—July 4, died, aged 90.

PROBABLY John Adams was the unhappiest man who ever sat in the presidential chair. One of a dozen unwanted presidents, who were taken only because the men that were wanted could not be elected, this humble role embittered all the remaining days of the proudest man in the line of our chief magistrates.

It was hard enough for Adams to be the understudy even of George Washington, while serving as vice president. When he became president it was maddening to his ego that he should be expected to play second fiddle to Alexander Hamilton, the master spirit of the old governing class, left over from colonial times and which controlled the Federalist party. The president made the fatal mistake of keeping Washington's cabinet, which really had passed under the control of Hamilton, who presumed to direct the new administration, very much as a Tammany boss puts a Tammany mayor through his paces. As Adams never had succeeded in ruling himself it was impossible for another to rule him.

Like aristocrats everywhere, the Federalists were thrown into a state of panic by the French revolution and by the rise of the Jeffersonian democracy in our yet aristocratic republic. In their alarm they frantically rushed through congress the alien and sedition acts, which became only millstones about their necks, sinking their party forever. Not satisfied with shutting the revolution out of the New World, many of them were for joining the monarchical coalition against it in the Old World. In an uproarious quarrel with the absurd French directory, the militia was called out and Washington summoned to command it, after which the president astonished the jingoes by suddenly throwing them over and returning to a pacific policy.

As he had been the first minister to England, John Adams was also the first president to take up his residence in Washington. As Mrs. Adams had been the wife of the first American envoy in London she was also the first mistress of the White House, if for only a few months. On the way from Philadelphia she and the president lost their trail in the wilderness until a "straggling black" came to their assistance.

The capitol was yet unfinished, and out of a desolate bog, far off, the unfinished White House rose to view. There was neither a fence nor a tree about the structure, and the president's nearest neighbor dwelt half a mile away. Mrs. Adams had a hard time to get wood enough to keep her family warm in the big, bleak mansion, and she smiles at us still as her letters tell us of how she hung her washing to dry in the great east room.

We can prove it again,—with any other Official Laboratory Model in our store. This marvelous exhibition was not the achievement of a special New Edison. It was simply a regular performance for any Official Laboratory Model.

After sitting at his desk until midnight hastily signing appointments, to forestall his successor, Adams drove out of Washington at the dawning of the day of Jefferson's inauguration. He had no smiles to bestow on the triumph of his rival, and few enough to light his own pathway, through his remaining years.

After his brave, good helpmeet had been taken from him, he lived on eight years more, lived to see what no other ex-president has seen, a son in the White House. At ninety, as he lay dying in the sunset of the fiftieth Fourth of July, we are told that his thoughts turned to the first and most glorious Fourth and that his lips murmured "Thomas Jefferson still survives." The author of the Declaration really had died a few hours before, and in their flight from earth the spirits of the two old patriots of '76 were strangely united again.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas.—Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it. . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my house work.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.

JOHN ADAMS AND ABBY

1735—Oct. 19, John Adams born, Braintree, Mass.
1755—Graduated at Harvard.
1764—Married.
1774-77—In Congress.
1775-85—On Mission to France.
1785-88—Minister to England.

A SCHOOLGIRL complained that American history was so "littered up with Adamases" that she couldn't tell one from the other. Yet this most distinguished family in our national biography lived in America one hundred and fifty years before it broke into fame.

When the engagement was announced of John Adams of Braintree, Mass., to the daughter of Parson Smith of the adjoining town of Weymouth, people were shocked that Abby should marry so beneath her station. Was she not a Quincy and a Norton? And John, the son of a small farmer, was put down to fourteenth place among his twenty-four classmates, when Harvard catalogues were made up according to social rank. After that he taught school in Worcester to get enough money to study law, and the strictest of the Puritans looked on lawyers as ungodly.

Father-in-Law Smith was game, and tradition says that he preached down his gossiping parishioners from this well-chosen text: "John came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and ye say he hath a devil!"

Although she never went to school, this parson's daughter was by long odds the cleverest in the entire line of our president's wives, her published letters forming a delightfully human document in our too often unhuman history. When John joined the fathers of the republic in the great work of setting up the most masculine government the world ever saw, this mother of the republic had to stay home to rock the cradle, cook and patch for four little Adamases and to tend the farm. Milking and churning, knitting and darning, teaching and praying, tolling and saving, she supported the family, inspired her husband in his progress to the presidency, and reared a son to follow in the father's footsteps. To Abigail Adams alone belongs the glory of having been the wife of one president and the mother of another.

In the war, it fell to Adams to do picket duty in Europe. Congress sent him to France with a thoughtful warning to put in the bottom of his dispatch bag plenty of lead or stone or other weighty substance to sink his papers. For his own neck no protection was proposed in event of the British capturing a signer of the rebel manifesto of July 4, 1776. Nevertheless, he took with him on the perilous trip his ten-year-old son, John Quincy.

On the next voyage, he carried not only John Quincy, but also his second son, and they were shipwrecked off the coast of Spain.

After five long, anxious years of separation from husband and children, the mother herself sailed to Europe, and the pioneer American woman to appear at the Court of St. James was Abigail, the farmerette of Braintree. Her presentation costume, according to her own description, was white lute-string "covered with white crepe, festooned with lilac ribbon and mock-point lace, over a hoop of enormous extent, and with a narrow train three yards long; also ruffle cuffs, treble lace ruffles and dress cap, with long lace lappets and two white plumes."

"You will be stared at a great deal," the Duke of Dorset kindly warned the Adamases. On the contrary, every back

A man can defend himself always as Abigail's husband did right manfully when it fell to him to be the first independent American to stand before the throne of England. George III venturing to infer from his supposed dislike of France, a preference for England, his one-time subject frankly corrected the king: "I must avow to your majesty that I have no attachment but to my own country."

MINING COUNTRY IS SCENE OF GUN BATTLE

STATE FORCE IS BELIEVED TOO SMALL TO CONTROL SITUATION.

Charleston, W. Va.—Governor Morgan has responded to the request of county officials of Mingo county and asked the war department for federal troops to restore order in Mingo county.

Williamson, W. Va.—Guerilla warfare, with all odds apparently favoring the forces opposing the state, is being waged in the mountains of the Mingo county coal field, where a strike has long been in progress.

Beginning soon after dawn Thursday morning, at the little mining town of Merrimac, four miles up the Tug river from this city, a fusillade of shots was poured from the mountain side successively into Merrimac, Rawl, Sprigg and Matewan, W. Va., and McCarr, Ky.

All available state police and deputy sheriffs centered in Williamson were rushed to the scene by train and automobile, but, according to reports, they have been unable to check the shooting.

Harry C. Staton, a state prohibition officer and merchant at Sprigg, was killed by a bullet from the mountains, and Noah Phillips and a man named Calvert, employees of White Star Coal company commissary at Merrimac, have been seriously wounded. Rumors of other killings and woundings have been received at headquarters of the state police here, but to a late hour had not been confirmed.

This outbreak, the worst since the Matewan battle of last May 19, in which ten persons were killed, including the mayor of Matewan, had all the appearance of pre-arranged attack.

The towns visited with the hail of lead are all within seven miles of each other and lie in a narrow valley on the banks of the Tug river, which here separates West Virginia from Kentucky. The firing came from the mountains on both sides of the river, according to the state police.

Grand Saline Has Fire.

Grand Saline, Texas.—Fire loss estimated at $100,000 was caused here Wednesday night when three brick buildings were destroyed.

LEGION ROLLERS UNDER THEM

Ex-Service Men Promptly Halt Exploitations of Pro-German Troublemakers.

In response to the warning issued by their national commander, F. W. Galbraith, Jr., American Legion members in many parts of the country have been active in fighting against efforts of pro-Germans and other hyphenated persons to drive a wedge between America and her allies in the World war.

Twenty-five thousand patriotic citizens of New York attended the "All American Meeting for God and Country," which was held in Madison Square Garden under the auspices of the Legion, as a protest against a previous pro-German meeting, said to be for the purpose of creating sentiment against the alleged "Horrors on the Rhine."

When word was received in Philadelphia that Dr. Edmund von Mach, notorious German propagandist, was planning to hold a meeting in that city, Legion members and other patriotic citizens opposed the proposition and succeeded in blocking the scheme.

Similar action was taken by the Legion and various societies in Indianapolis. Among the organizations cooperating with the Legion was the national executive committee of the American Gymnastic union, composed of a large membership of citizens of German extraction, which insisted upon unhyphenated citizenship and scored Von Mach and George Sylvester Viereck. On the same day the Indianapolis board of public works announced it would not permit the use of its large convention hall for the proposed Von Mach meeting.

Learning that Louisville was on the proposed itinerary of Doctor Von Mach, the Kentucky department of the Legion instructed posts to use "every lawful means practicable to stop the threatened invasion of Boche propagandists." The Kentucky Legion's bulletin also warned against the activities of Viereck.

Legion posts have also opposed the hyphenates in Chicago, Cleveland, Omaha, Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

A man goes to the pen for a year for violating the Dean liquor law, but they tell us the law wont stick. It has stuck several, and the better way and the only right way, is to obey the law, whether you like it or not. The Dean law has teeth in it.

They are fighting in West Virginia over a coal strike or something, and dispatches speak of a battle line seven miles long, on Tug river. It seems like the war has shifted from Europe to Tug river, in the West Virginia mountains.

Sam Gompers speaks of the greed that is trying to lower wages. Well, how does he expect war time wages to continue in time of peace? It cannot be done and every sane member of the unions knows it.

The Senate and the House are squabbling in Washington over the size of the regular army. The House favors an army of 150,000 men and the Senate wants an army of 175,000. Both are wrong. The regular army ought to have at least 250,000 men, and we are not in favor of militarism either, but do believe in preparedness. We also believe the United States ought to have a navy equal to the best in the world. To be prepared to defend our rights from the jump is the best guarantee of peace.

MRS. H. J. O'HAIR U. of T. REGENT

The appointment of Mrs. O'Hair to the University Board of Regents is gratifying to the women of the state and of the university. Her high intellectual capacities, linked with her extensive study and travel, make her appointment all the more pleasing to Texas womanhood. It is, indeed, a privilege to have a woman who has traveled extensively in the eastern and western hemispheres, visiting the most important universities as Vienna, Berlin, Oxford, as well as in both China and Japan, come to the University of Texas in an administrative capacity. Her ability to carry on work has been proven in the management of the Pershing Home, of New York City for several months, during the war. Other achievements of hers are numerous, for she has held executive positions on many of the leading woman's clubs. She is a refined and cultured Christian woman, who has had wide experience, which should make her ideally fitted for the Board of Regents. Her presence on the board will add much to that body. The women of Texas are proud of the fact that they have such a representative for their daughters who are attending the University of Texas.—Austin Statesman.

Mrs. H. J. O'Hair, mentioned in the above article, is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McClellan, of Coleman. She was born and reared in Washington county, where her father was born and reared, and for twenty years was a successful merchant, at Ledbetter. He moved to Coleman county about 28 years ago and served for two or three terms in the Legislature from the district composed of Coleman and Brown counties. Being the first woman to serve on the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, her appointment has attracted much attention from the Texas press.

Byebye

With "Northern Lights" a-streaming 'cross the azure painted sky; And spots upon the sun—by Jove? Is this the World's bye-bye?

Blameless

The "Sunshine" of my soul is sick—it is a "measley" shame; It makes her peevish, crossly ill—you've had 'em—then don't blame.

Swatters

Baird's team of pigskin swatters now, are playing bully ball; If they keep up the gait they've struck, where will they be next fall?

Muscular

The Baird Boy Scouts went on a hike: there should be more in line; 'Twill make their flabby muscles hard, and physically fine.

Hungry

The molher birds are brooding now, and in each downy nest, Are fluffy birdlets and, all day, they have an eating fest.

MONTAGUE COUNTY FREAK HERE

Will N. Kennedy, whose present home is in Blair, Oklahoma, but who was born about thirty years ago in Montague county, Texas, arrived in Baird Sunday evening and that night attended divine service at the Church of Christ, of which he is a member.

Monday morning he was out on the streets, peddling his wares, consisting of shoe laces, pencils, etc., which he carried in a small basket, hooked over one misshapen arm. His merchandise was cheap and he did a good business, for, although his body is twisted and distorted past all human belief, he has a well shaped head, a comely face, a right loyal heart, a sunny disposition and a cheery smile and—he's a good salesman. He laughingly admits that he is a physical freak, and no one will gainsay him.

"I was born this way," he said simply, "and I'm known far and wide as 'The Montague County Texas Freak.' I've managed so far to make my way and pay my way and I hope I'll be able to keep on to the end."

Those who saw him, and most everybody in the business part of town did, will not soon forget his grotesque appearance as he propelled his hunched, squat body rapidly along, his whole weight, because of his deformity, resting on his toes. His arms are also twisted and contorted and his hands are grotesque fleshy hooks, but he can make change like a paying teller, and he hops in and out of a car or climbs a flight of stairs with the agility of an acrobat.

"How far are you from home?" asked one of his patrons.

"About three hundred miles."

"Suppose you'd happen to go broke, you'd hardly risk making the trip on the brake beams of a freight car or the blind, rods or top of a passenger, would you?"

"I could," he replied confidently, "but I'd rather walk."

"Walk?"

"Sure! I could make it easy in twenty days. You see, I've never known any other method of walking and my way is as easy on me as your way is on you. I like to walk and you notice that I get over the ground at a pretty good gait. Just watch me!" and he scuttled away, while his questioner stared after him open mouthed.

If that isn't optimism, self-reliance and courage elevated to the nth power, just mention what beats it.

JOHN W. CRAWFORD IS DEAD

A letter from E. J. Crawford, of Potosi, to the editor of The Star, says his grandfather, John W. Crawford, who had lived in and around Eagle Cove for the past forty years, had died April 4th, 1921, aged 85 years and three months.

We are sorry to hear of the death of our old-time friend, whom we have known ever since he moved to this county. John Crawford was a good, honest man and an earnest, faithful Christian, without any pretense or boasting about it. He never accumulated much of this world's goods and went through some hard, trying times, but amidst it all he was always cheerful and did not worry; if he did, he kept it to himself.

A good name and contentment with one's lot in life, is worth more than a barrel of gold without them. John Crawford had the first two, and no doubt was happier and enjoyed life more than many of those who have large earthly possessions. Wealth and fame are at best only fleeting shadows, and often cause more unhappiness than poverty and obscurity; but a good name and unwavering faith in Christ, gives happiness and contentment in this life and life eternal beyond the grave.

Peace to the memory of our old friend, who had passed beyond the allotted life of man long years before his summons came. May we all be as well prepared to meet death as we believe our old friend was. Further notice of his death will appear in The Star later.

"THE MOON QUEEN"—A CANTATA

The recitals, given at intervals by the music pupils of Mrs. C. B. Holmes are always events of importance. The coming presentation of these young students of tuneful harmony will be their chef d'oeuvre, judging from the artistically entertaining program to be given at the School Auditorium next Monday night, May 23, commencing at 8:30 o'clock.

The entertainment will be absolutely free, and staged under the personal direction of Mrs. Holmes. The public is cordially invited to be present to encourage these young artists with their applause. A feature of the recital is the finale, a cantata, "The Moon Queen," in which the entire class participates, with the following cast of characters:

- The Sun.....Harold Wristen
The Moon.....Elouise Haley
Evening Star.....Bernice Haley
North Star.....Joe McFarland
Morning Breeze.....Mildred Holmes
Evening Breeze.....Frances Harris
Summer Cloud.....Samalia Fay Grimes
Summer Shower.....Geneva Greenrock
Rainbow.....Marj Dawkins
Prince Sunbeam.....Stafford Alexander
Princess Sunshine.....Ruth Strain
Chorus of Raindrops, Stars, Clouds, Breezes and Sunbeams.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SERVICES

We were pleased with the splendid audiences last Sunday and Sunday night, and on Wednesday night, also. We were very glad indeed to have the Presbyterian pastor from Albany with the Endeavorers Sunday afternoon. They rendered a splendid program, which was of great benefit to us, and we hope they will come again. We appreciated deeply the splendid "pounding" we received Monday night at the close of the reception. We will ever remember with gratitude such generosity.

We will have no services at the church Sunday morning, but we will unite in the baccalaureate service to be held at the School Auditorium.

We will have service Sunday night at 8:15. We hope to have a goodly number out. Come.

Gerald Fitzgerald, Pastor.

MARRIED

Mr. Carl Smith and Miss Alice Boutwell were united in the holy bonds of wedlock last Sunday morning at 7:30 a'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Jones, Rev. J. C. McKenzie, pastor of the Baird Baptist church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in New Mexico.

MONEY TALKS

Consider the future: will you have need for a Bank Account?

You hope that in the future you will have more leisure and more property than you have now.

This is a worthy ambition. The only way to realize it is to reserve a part of your earnings and turn them into capital. They become so even while drawing interest, and they are at hand when a way for more productive investment opens.

Begin making that capital now.

President Ryk van der Valk, of the Baird Development Oil Company has as guests for the next two weeks Adolph Millerand and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowler, of Chicago. The two gentlemen named are interested in Callahan county's oil development. In company with Mr. van der Valk they inspected the Deep Creek shallow field Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Mayo has moved her millinery goods from the Mayfield & Hall building to the rear room of the Goodie Garden Confectionery and with Mrs. W. O. Fraser, has opened the Style Shop. They will carry a full line of Ladies Ready-to-Wear, Millinery, etc. They also have a Beauty Parlor, where they do hair-dressing, hair curling, etc. The ladies have their shop nicely arranged and cordially invite the ladies of Baird to come in and give their shop the "once over." They will have a special display of ladies' dresses and hats on Saturday.

A. J. Northington, who is manager of the B. L. Boydston meat market, lost his Ford Thursday night of last week. He put it away in his garage and locked, bolted and barred the door before he turned in for the night. But alas! and alack! When he awoke the garage was busted wide open and the silver had vanished. Sheriff George Houston Corn has sent postals in all directions, giving a full description of the car and promising a reward of $50 for its return. He'd be glad to get clutches on the thief also, for whom he has an apartment which you can neither break into nor out of at his brick hostelry northeast of the court house.

PERSONALS

Ashby White, of Stamford, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. White.

Mrs. Bea Robinson, of Strawn is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Mayo, this week.

Mrs. R. V. Hamill and little son of Cisco, visited her mother, Mrs. A. Mayo, this week.

Mrs. W. O. Fraser left Wednesday morning for Dallas to select a new line of Ladies Ready-to-wear for the Style Shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes went to Ft. Worth Tuesday in response to a message that Mr. Wilkes' sister was seriously ill.

Mrs. R. M. Harris and children, of Denton, have returned home after a visit to their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Frank Johnson.

Mrs. A. F. Wright, of Grandfield, Oklahoma, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Johnson, and her sister, Mrs. Ford L. Driskill.

The music pupils of Mrs. Marcia Clement gave a piano recital at the Presbyterian church last night, which was attended by many of her pupil's relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ada Johnson, editor and owner of the Odessa Herald, passed through Baird Tuesday morning on the "Sunshine Special," en route to Fort Worth, where she will be the sometime guest of relatives.

Mrs. A. Mayo returned the first of the week from Dallas, where she purchased a beautiful line of ladies dresses and hats, which will be shown at The Style Shop, Saturday. See ad on another page.

Mr and Mrs. A. D. Williams spent Wednesday in Big Spring. Mr. Williams combined business with pleasure, but Mrs. Williams divided the day with as many old friends as possible, and both voted it a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Don Carter and little daughter, Haynie, accompanied by Miss Eliska Gilliland, who has been visiting her sister at Barstow for two weeks, come in on 26 last night. Mrs. Carter's little daughter has seriously ill, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bowler, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lones, who autoed here from Chicago, will make their future home in Baird. Captain Adolph Millerand, accompanied them and will return to duty at Fort Sheridan after a short visit here.

Alderman Ernest Cooke is the second recent sufferer in Baird from the bold and cunning auto thief. Tuesday night his new 5-passenger Ford was noiselessly run out of his garage, in the west part of town, after the lock on the door had been just as noiselessly busted, and the jitney disappeared as mysteriously as did Mr. Northington's. Sheriff George Houston Corn offers a reward of $50 for the return of the car and will generously give the thief free board and lodging at his burglar-proof brick hostelry.

"DOLLAR DAY" PRIZE WINNERS

The "Dollar Day" offered by the merchants of Baird to their friends and customers on Saturday, May 7, would undoubtedly have brought a record crowd of people to town—for the affair had been well advertised—but for the unpropitious weather. As it was there was a good crowd in town and many a dollar was spent. The prizes, except in the track events, were not all claimed.

In the south window of Mayfield & Hall's toggery shop there was scattered a bewildering olla podrida of coins, bills, foreign money and counterfeit money. A card announced that whoever guessed nearest to the amount of real, spendables money in the window—the counterfeit and foreign stuff not being counted—would receive a prize of a fine hat. There were many guesses, ranging all the way from $1.40 to $1054. Floyd Rogers, of Clyde, guessed $23.13, which was within two pennies of the actual amount in the window, $23.15, and got the hat.

In B. L. Boydston's store window was a tumbled mass of Red Seal hair nets. He offered two prizes, a gold mesh bag and a vanity case to the two ladies making the best guesses at their number. Mrs. P. Roberts guessed the closest and Mrs. George Hall guessed next best.

Miss Murel Dickey was awarded a three pound box of candy by the Dunaway-Bingham "Goodie Garden," she having been acclaimed the prettiest girl by popular vote.

B. L. Boydston awarded a pair of shoes to Eugene Leverett, who won the sack race.

Rawleigh Ray won the 30x31-2 inner tube offered by Mitchell-Gilliland Motor Co. to winner of auto race from the depot to their garage.

Woodfin Ray won the footrace and the blue work shirt offered by The Comadot.

No "bronc busters" entered, but Bill Kelly thought he could ride "Baldy Ables," the Henry & Estes champion bucking steer, and a purse was made up to tempt Bill to make the attempt. He made two attempts. The first time Baldy swelled up and burst the saddle girths and the second time Baldy gave two jumps and Bill Kelly hit the grit. The purse was awarded to Baldy's owners.

At the late term of the Callahan Commissioners' Court, the members thereof lived high and waxed fat on the numerous "contempt" fines imposed (and collected) by that august body. Richard Cord went was soaked $2.50 worth of fine "seegars," and even County Judge J. R. Black, despite the fact that he is the personification of judicial dignity, was also forced to come across with saccharine backsheesh. The baby commissioner, G. H. Clifton, who is not yet wise to "the ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" of his honorable associates, was also held up. Tax Collector C. W. Conner and others were nailed to the refreshment cross, but the newly appointed Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 1, Rev. G. E. Printz, forestalled their rapacity by generous tribute of chocolate candy, as soon as he received his commission.

EAT DEFICIT MUST BE PAID BY NATION

SENATOR CUMMINS ASSERTS REVENUES SHOULD GROW AND COST DECLINE.

Washington.—Unless some way is found to increase revenues and reduce expenses the railway deficit "will have to be met from the national treasury." Chairman Cummins of the senate interstate commerce committee, declared at hearings on the general railway situation.

Mr. Cummins said that the total loss sustained by the government during twenty-six months of its control of railroads was estimated by the director general of the railroad administration at $1,200,000,000. Considering railroad claims, conflicting with the government, the chairman said, the total amount rose to $2,500,000,000. He gave as his own estimate $1,800,000,000 as the final loss which the government was likely to sustain.

"That situation challenges the permanency of private ownership," he declared.

Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of the Southern Pacific, who was on the stand, said the great cause of the growing claims was "the neglect of maintenance which characterized the federal railroad administration."

Mr. Kruttschnitt was asked by the chairman whether the operation of the transportation act itself could not be considered as a failure. Mr. Kruttschnitt said the act itself could not be considered a failure, but that conditions had prevented the railroads from enjoying as great revenues as congress contemplated giving them under the 5-1-2 per cent return on capital clause.

SEVEN BIG PAPER MILLS HAVE CEASED OPERATION

New York.—Seven large paper mills in the United States and Canada employing approximately 9,000 men, shut down Wednesday because of failure of workers and owners to sign new agreements to replace those which expired Tuesday.

According to reports received here by the Labor Bureau, inc., the mills which closed were:

Union Bag and Paper company, Hudson Falls, N. Y.; Skeboygan, Mich.; and Kaukauna, Wis.; St. Maurice Paper company, Ltd., Three Rivers, Quebec, Anglo-Newfoundland company, Grand Falls, New Foundland; and ...

Spanish River Pulp and Paper Mills, Ltd., Sault Ste. Marie Espanola and Sturgeon Falls, Ont.; St. Regis Paper company, Deforiet, N. Y.; Hanna Paper company, Nerwood, Norfolk and Raymondville, N. Y.

The men asked for a wage increase of 10 per cent, while the manufacturers sought a reduction of 30 per cent and the adoption of a nine-hour day.

The unions, the Labor Bureau, Inc., stated, were keeping sufficient men at the plants to furnish fire protection and guard the property.

TEXAS BANKERS ADJOURN 37TH ANNUAL CONVENTION

San Antonio, Texas.—Fort Worth received a double distinction at the closing of the thirty-seventh annual convention of the State Bankers' association here when by unanimous vote the delegates elected Warren B. Andrews president and chose that city as the meeting place for the 1922 convention.

Mr. Andrews, vice president of the First National Bank of Fort Worth, was opposed by Gus F. Taylor of Tyler and the city of Fort Worth was opposed by Mineral Wells for the convention, but when the trend of a rising vote was seen the opposition withdrew. Fred Chamberlain of Cameron was chosen as treasurer for the ensuing year, no other nominations being offered.

POWDER EXPLOSION BLOWS FOUR TO BITS

Lawton, Ok.—Four enlisted men of the seventh ordnance depot detachment at Fort Sill, near here, were instantly killed late Friday when 500 pounds of black gun powder, condemned and ordered destroyed, prematurely exploded. The men literally were blown to pieces.

The dead are: Private Luther D. Gee, 21 years old. His widow lives in Lawton and his father, Sam Gee, at Snyder, Ok.; Private James W. Talley, 26 years old. Father, Charles Talley, lives at Vulcan, Mo.; Private Davis C. Monroe, 20 years old. Sister Jennie Morrison, lives at 37 South Second street, Elizabeth, N. J.; Royal J. Clark, 20 years old. Mother, Mrs. Laura Clark, lives on rural route No. 4, Cedarville, Iowa.

Organized Labor Condemns Soviet.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—Organized labor in the United States must not take any action which would be construed as an assistance to the soviet government of Russia, the executive council of the AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR UNIONS declared in its annual report, which was completed here Friday. The council, in a declaration which will be presented to the annual convention of the federation in Denver, condemns the soviet and declares it to be antagonistic to union labor.

PRISONERS FIRE ON GUARDS AND ESCAPE

Houston, Texas.—Latest reports received here of the sensational escape of 40 convicts from the state penitentiary at Huntsville shortly before 11 o'clock Thursday morning indicated that eleven had been captured, four having been arrested by a posse of citizens at Dodge.

Mutiny started about 11 o'clock when convicts charged the front gates of the prison with revolvers. These men are reported by officials to be G. R. Anderson, Louis Dood and Harry Lee Watson from Ellis county.

Two guards were wounded in the battle at the front gates to the prison. They are Lee Anders, who is seriously wounded and expected to die, and T. H. Arnold, who has a flesh wound.

Four or five prisoners charged the front gate with pistols which officials declare must have been smuggled into the prison. Breaking through the gates, they made a charge on the rear of the armory building just outside the front gates and effected an entrance and obtained several shot-guns.

Armed with these, they re-entered the front gates and gave the shot-guns to other convicts, who joined them in a charge on the east railway gates, effecting their escape.

MEDICOS ADJOURN TO MEET IN EL PASO

Dallas.—The fifty-fifth annual convention of the Texas State Medical association was brought to a close Thursday with the election of officers and the selection of the next place of meeting.

El Paso was awarded the 1922 convention by an overwhelming vote. Galveston and Fort Worth extended cordial invitations, but after listening to the speech of Dr. T. J. McCamant of El Paso, who extended invitations from all officials and commercial organizations, including the mayor of Juarez, there was a landslide in favor of the southwestern border city.

Dr. Joe Beeton of Gainesville was elected president to take office one

D. 1921 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 282 wherein Phillip Yost is Plaintiff, and Rush Hambric is Defendant, and said petition alleging

The State of Texas | In the County
County of Callahan | Court of Callahan County, Texas,

To the Hon. J. R. Black, Judge of said Court, presiding:

Now comes Phillip Yost, hereinafter styled plaintiff, complaining of Rush Hambric, hereinafter styled defendant, and shows to the Court: That plaintiff resides in Callahan County, Texas, and that the defendant resides in Shackelford County Texas.

That heretofore, to-wit, on or about the 26th day of Sept. 1920, and on divers days before that time, plaintiff at the special instance and request of defendant, sold and delivered to him, at the several times specified in the account, marked "Exhibit A", hereto annexed and made a part hereof, certain hay, oat and johnson grass binds, shelled oats, eggs, pasturage and camping ground in said account mentioned in consideration whereof the defendant then and there promised to pay plaintiff, on demand, so much money as the said hay, oats and johnson grass binds shelled oats, eggs, pasturage and camping ground were reasonably worth, at his residence in Callahan County, Texas.

That the said hay, oat and johnson grass binds, shelled oats, eggs, pasturage and camping ground, were at the time of the sale and delivery thereof, reasonably worth the several sums of money charged therefor in said account specified and was then and there agreed upon as delivered amounting to the sum of $516.30, less a credit of $250.00.

Yet though often requested, defendant has not paid said sum of money or any part thereof, except as shown herein, though long since due, but has refused and still refuses so to do, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $300.

Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendant be cited to answer this petition and that plaintiff have judgment for $266.30 as aforesaid, together with interest thereon at the legal rate from the first day of September, A. D. 1920, cost of suit, and such other and further relief as he may be entitled to, either in law or in equity.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Baird, this the 10th day of May, 1921.

D. 1921, the same being the 6th day of June, A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 18th of January, A. D. 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court 498, wherein L. M. Barnard and C. M. Bradley are Plaintiffs, and W. M. Jolly, C. W. Rylee and E. D. Rylee are Defendants, and said petition alleges:

The State of Texas, Callahan County—In the County Court of Callahan County, Texas,
To the Honorable J. R. Black, Judge of said Court, Presiding:

Now comes L. D. Barnard and C. M. Bradley, hereinafter called Plaintiffs, complaining of W. M. Jolly, C. W. Rylee and E. D. Rylee, hereinafter called Defendants, and show to the Court:

That the Plaintiffs reside in Callahan County, Texas, and the Defendants live in Callahan County, Texas.

That heretofore, to-wit, on the 27th day of January, 1920, the defendants, W. M. Jolly and C. W. Rylee made, executed and delivered to E. D. Rylee, defendant, their promissory note in writing, bearing date on the day and year aforesaid, and thereby promised to pay to the defendant E. D. Rylee or his order, on the first day of November, 1920, the sum of Three Hundred Fifty-three and 61-100 Dollars, with ten per cent interest thereon from date until paid.

That thereafter, to-wit, on or about the 1st day of March, 1920, the defendant, E. D. Rylee, for a valuable consideration before the maturity of said note, sold, transferred and assigned said note to the said C. W. Rylee and said C. W. Rylee thereafter, on or about the 1st day of March, 1920, sold, transferred and assigned said note to the plaintiffs herein for a valuable consideration and before the maturity of said note.

That on or about the 5th day of November, 1920, plaintiff demanded payment of said defendants of the sum of money due on many occasions since said date have demanded payment of same, yet defendants have never paid said sum, or any part thereof, to the plaintiffs damage in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.
That the defendant, E. D. Rylee, endorsed said note, and as such endorser became liable to pay and as such endorser, promised to pay to the plaintiffs said note.

That said note provides for ten per cent on the amount of said note as attorney's fee, if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or collected by suit; that plaintiffs have employed B. L. Russell of Baird, Texas, an attorney to file suit on said note and have promised and agreed to pay him the said attorney's fees in said note specified, which is a reasonable fee.

That said note is past due and unpaid, and the defendants and each of them, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused to pay said note or any part thereof, and still fail and refuse to pay the same or any part thereof.

Wherefore plaintiffs pray the court that the defendants be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that they have judgment for their debt, Three Hundred Fifty Three and 61-100 Dollars, interest and attorney fees, and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and equity, that they may be justly entitled to, and in duty bound will ever pray.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this Writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Baird, this the 10th day of May, A. D. 1921.

County Court, Callahan County,
By Jonie Wilson, Deputy.

D. 1921, same being the 6th day of June A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of January A. D. 1921, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 484, wherein D. B. Cowling is Plaintiff, and Rush Hambric is Defendant, and said petition alleging:

The State of Texas | In the County
County of Callahan | Court of Callahan County, Texas,
To the Hon. J. R. Black, Judge of said Court, presiding: Now comes D. B. Cowling, hereinafter styled plaintiff complaining of Rush Hambric, hereinafter styled defendant, and shows to the Court, that Plaintiff resides in Callahan county, Texas, and that Defendant resides in Shackelford county, Texas.

That heretofore, to-wit, On or about the 26th day of Sept. 1920, and on divers days before that time plaintiff, at the special instance and request of defendant, sold and delivered to him, at the several times specified in the account marked "Exhibit A," hereto annexed and made a part hereof, certain butter, shelled oats, eggs in said account mentioned. In consideration whereof the defendant then and there promised to pay plaintiff, on demand, so much money as the said butter, shelled oats, and eggs were reasonably worth at his residence in Callahan County, Texas.

That the said butter, shelled oats, eggs, were at the time of sale and delivery thereof reasonably worth the several sums of money charged therefor in said account specified, and was then and there agreed upon as delivered amounting to the sum of $398.20.

Yet though often requested, defendant has not paid said sum of money, or any part thereof, except as shown herein, though long since due, but has refused and still refuses so to do, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $350.00

Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendant be cited to answer this petition and that plaintiff have judgment for $308.20 as aforesaid, together with interest thereon at the legal rate from the 1st day of September 1920, costs of suit, and such other and further relief as he may be entitled to, either at law or in equity.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
