SMALL BUSINESS SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26 — LOVE LOCAL!

We are hosting our Small Business Saturday on November 26th and hope you all will help in making it a successful year! It's more than shopping and finding the best deals. It is about supporting the local community where you live, work and play. The same small businesses that continue to give out of their pockets for the countless fundraisers, sponsorships and organizations, the ones we don't see the BIG BOX CHAIN Stores and Amazon on those banners. It is not calling our local

Motherly Advice

Now junior, I'll give you A bit of advise
So listen close now
Cause I won't tell you twice
This milk here is free
Always been here for you
A gallon a day
Or maybe even two
Since you hit the ground
A couple of months ago
I've fed you well
And taught you all you know
So when you're teeth come in
Bigger and stronger
You won't need this milk
For very much longer
I'm tellin you now
Just count on what I say

You'll wind up eating Mostly grass and hay
The guy we work for Might decide to make A donation to us
Of cottonseed cake
When it comes to eating, You can never hold back
Cause if it's cottonseed cake I'll cut you no slack
So junior, I'm telling you
Now in advance
Nothing, personal, of course
You kids don't have a chance!
Did you know?
There were eleven southern states that seceded before the civil ware. South Carolina was the first and Texas was the seventh.

sleep could also be a cause of spiritual malady – I read an article a couple of months ago where a person was re-counting advice a spiritual mentor had given him. The author had been complaining about desolation of spirit and the mentor, in lieu of offering more fancy or formal advice, simply asked the author how much sleep he had been getting. The author went on to elaborate how energy is needed for the spirit as well as the body, and just as the body doesn't produce good results as easily when it is sleep deprived, neither does the spirit.

does not cure the symptoms listed at the beginning of this piece, consider the possibility of a spiritual malady at hand. Those seem to be more complicated to deal with than a sleep deficit, and solutions are beyond the capability of this author; nevertheless I will share something I heard this year that I believe is always helpful: it was recalled after I read a quote by Willie Nelson to the effect of, "When I started counting my blessings my whole life changed." The saying I had heard earlier this year is, "When you trade expectation for appreciation, your whole life changes." And these changes are for the better, whether or not they resolve the spiritual malady. And if they don't resolve the spiritual malady, at least they will provoke its sufferer to find something to be grateful for or appreciative of, in the midst of it, or even because of it.

160 acres 5 miles NW of Shamrock, Excellent stand of grass, new well, pond, cross fenced, loading pens, cattle barn. Easy access to I:40 and FM Road 3075. This property would be excellent to start a new ranching operation or would be a good addition to an existing operation.

Beautiful 640 +/- acres with scenic views located 15 miles NW of Shamrock. The property can be easily accessed off County Road 9. The topography is level to rolling with five ponds located on the Red River bottom in the NE corner. It has 100 acres of newly established love grass, and the rest is in native grasses. It has been cross fenced into 5 pastures with some new fencing, making it excellent for livestock grazing. It has new water well with a new pipeline between the north and the south water tanks. It has the potential to be irrigated with easily accessible electricity throughout the ranch. There is an abundance of wild game. This property is ideal for hunting, farming, grazing and weekend retreats. There are several potential homesite locations.

Universal Blood Type Impacted Due To Supply Chain Issues

O negative donors needed.

AMARILLO — Coffee Memorial Blood Center is losing hundreds of O negative blood units a month due to recent blood bag shortages. O negative is the only universal blood type, which means it can be transfused in an emergency to any blood recipients, regardless of their blood types.

Specialized bags are required to safely draw "double dose units" of blood from larger-sized donors. Without this efficient, bonus-giving option, CMBC is struggling to collect enough O negative blood, and more donors must be recruited to make up for the lost production.

Due to its universality, O negative blood is by far the most in-demand type used by area hospitals. This urgent supply chain issue could very quickly impact area hospitals' transfusions of trauma victims, premature babies, and sickle cell disease patients unless more O negative donors step up now to donate blood.

"Sufficient O negative donations are a daily requirement for our mission," said Dr. John Armitage, president, and CEO of CMBC. "When we don't have the specialty bags, we need to draw our doubly effective donations, we put both emergency and routine response capabilities at risk."

These supply chain issues have exacerbated an already difficult situation as CMBC enters the holiday season. "Donation rates around the holidays are typically lower, and we're fighting with a hand tied behind our back," said Armitage.

"Sadly, the supply chain fowl ups aren't likely to get better anytime soon. From the last couple of years, we have all learned that broken manufacturing and delivery pipelines are never good; but in the blood world they aren't just frustrating, they put lives and patient care at risk," he said.

To get the O negative blood supply back in a healthy range, we need more members of our community to respond by giving blood today. Individuals of age 16 and older* are urged to give blood.

Appointments to donate can be made by online at yourbloodinstitute.org or calling 806-331-8833. Blood donation* typically takes only about an hour, and one donation saves up to three lives.

Coffee Memorial Blood Center is part of the sixth-largest independent blood center in the nation, providing blood to all major hospitals in the High Plains region. *16-year-olds must weigh at least 125 pounds and provide signed parental permission; 17-year-olds must weigh at least 125 pounds; 18+ year-olds must weigh at least 110 pounds. Photo ID required.

Oct. State Sales Tax Over 3.8 B.

(AUSTIN) — Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar today said state sales tax revenue totaled $3.82 billion in October, 11.9 percent more than in October 2021. The majority of October sales tax revenue is based on sales made in September and remitted to the agency in October.

"Rapid growth in state sales tax revenue was again led by business spending," Hegar said. "Double-digit growth in receipts continued from the mining, construction, manufacturing and wholesale trade sectors, fueled in part by high inflation in the prices of building materials and other business inputs."

"Receipts from restaurants and retail trade were up from a year ago at about the respective rates of inflation in prices for those sectors, possibly indicating a reduction in real per capita spending for those items as rising costs for housing and groceries claim larger shares of household budgets."

"Within retail trade, the greatest growth was in receipts from automobile and parts dealers, online shopping and general merchandise stores. Receipts from furniture and home furnishings stores, and sporting goods and hobby stores, were down from the previous year."

Total sales tax revenue for the three months ending in October 2022 was up 14 percent compared to the same period a year ago. Sales tax is the largest source of state funding for the state budget, accounting for 56 percent of all tax collections.

Texas collected the following revenue from other major taxes:

- €motor vehicle sales and rental taxes — $588 million, up 8 percent from October 2021;
- €motor fuel taxes — $312 million, down 3 percent from October 2021;
- €oil production tax — $544 million, up 33 percent from October 2021;
- €natural gas production tax — $410 million, up 59 percent from October 2021;
- €hotel occupancy tax — $66 million, up 22 percent from October 2021; and
- €alcoholic beverage taxes — $150 million, up 16 percent from October 2021.
