Car Inspection Period Open

Austin — The 1969 vehicle inspection period began today in Texas according to Colonel Wilson E. (Pat) Speir, acting director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"More than six-million vehicles are expected to receive the compulsory inspection prior to the April 15, 1969 deadline," Speir said. Inspections may be performed at any of the almost 5,500 vehicle inspection stations in Texas, each of which displays the official vehicle inspection station sign. Texas law requires inspection of the brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering) and wheels and rims (not to include removal of the wheel from the vehicle) on all motor vehicles registered in the state. Special inspection provisions apply to trailers, semi-trailers, pole trailers or mobile homes having a loaded gross weight in excess of 44,000 pounds.

The minimum fee is $1.75. This does not include the cost of repairs or adjustments necessary to enable the vehicle to pass inspection.

Speir said the new vehicle inspection sticker will be a two and one-half inch square replica of a DPS patrolman's badge with red background. Motorists are urged to have

New Rules On Estimated Tax

Everybody knows that the new surtax law raised the amount of income tax that you will pay (7½% this year) by 10%. What a lot of folks don't know is that the rules for paying estimated taxes have also been tightened up. Most of us work for wages and our employers withhold income tax and social security tax from our wages and pay it to Uncle, and we don't have to worry about filing an estimated tax return. However, those folks who are self-employed or who have income outside of their pay check, do have a problem. This type of taxpayers have been required to file an estimated tax return in the past, but there were lots of good excuses that wiped out a tax penalty if you did not file and you met the exception. Congress decided to wipe out and tighten up these exceptions. If you are self-employed or if you have substantial income on which you have not paid any tax, you better review the amount of estimated tax that you are due to pay on September 15, or find out whether you have to file and pay because your good excuse is gone.

Beef Consumption on Increase—The beef cattle industry has enjoyed a tremendous increase in the consumption of beef, due in part to selection programs being used by more and more breeders. Dr. Frank A. Ortis, Extension meats specialist at Texas A&M University, says consumers are asking for more muscular beef cuts along with more quality.

'A Typical Combat Soldier'

The following is an article received by Mrs. Mary Lou Landes, from SP-5 Ronald D. Landes, now serving with the U.S. Army in Tay Ninh, Vietnam. Written anonymously, it describes the typical combat soldier.

A SOLIDER

Just imagine most of the guys over here are 18 and fighting to make it 19. The average age of the combat soldier in many units here is 18½. And what a man he is. A pink-cheeked, tousled-haired, tight muscled fellow who under normal circumstances would be considered by society as half-man, half-boy, not yet dry behind the ears, and a pain in the unemployment chart.

But here and now he is the beardless hope of free man. He is, for the most part, unmarried, and without material possessions except possibly for an old car at home, and a transistor radio here. He listens to rock 'n' roll and 105 Millimeter howitzers.

He just got out of high school, received so-so grades, played a little football and he had a girl who promised to be true.

He has learned to drink beer, because it is cold, and it is the thing to do. He is a private first class, a one year military veteran with one or possibly three years to go.

He never cared for work, preferred waxing his own car to washing his father's, but he is now fighting from dawn to dark, often longer.

He still has trouble spelling, and writing letters home is a painful process. But he can break down his rifle in 30 seconds, and put it back together in 29. He can describe nomenclature of a fragmentation grenade, explain how a machine gun operates and use either if the need arises.

He can dig a foxhole, apply first aid to a wounded companion, march until he is told to stop, or stop until he is told to march. He has seen more suffering that he should have in his short life. He has stood among hills of bodies, and has helped to build those hills. He has wept in private and in public, and has not been ashamed at doing either.

because his pals have fallen in battle and he has come close to joining them. He has two pair of fatigues, washes one and wears the other. He sometimes forgets to brush his teeth, but not his rifle. He keeps his socks dry, and his canteen full.

He can cook his own meals, fix his own hurts, and mend his own grips—material or mental. He will share his water with you if you thirst, break his rations in half if you hunger, and split his ammunition if you are fighting for

Martinez In Combat Training

(PM0178) San Diego, Calif. (FHTNC) — Marine Private Jimmy Martinez, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martinez of Route two, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot here.

He will now undergo from two to four weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop your life. He can do the work of two civilians, draw half the pay of one, and find ironic humor in it all. He has learned to use his hands as a weapon, and his weapon as his hands. He can save a life, or most assuredly take one.

He is now 19, a veteran, and fighting to make 20....

self-confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and 45-caliber pistol and equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join the Marine combat forces.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SUNDAY SERVICE:

"So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

This verse from Genesis is included in the Lesson-Sermon to be read this Sunday in Christian Science churches around the world. The subject is "Man."

Related passages from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, includes the following: "Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasures of Truth and Love are enlarged. Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual, — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite, — in order that sin and mortality may be put off."

"This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expensive love, a higher and more permanent peace."

Services at 1001 Crane St. Sweetwater at 11:00. All are welcome.

Gun Safety Important—Nearly all hunting accidents could be prevented if gun safety rules were followed. It's the "over-anxious" hunter who endangers the lives of fellow hunters and causes needless damage to wildlife. Approximately two-thirds of all hunting accidents are caused by humans in the line of fire, humans mistaken for animals and hunters not using the safety catch on their guns, Wallace Klussmann, Extension wildlife conservation specialist at Texas A&M University says.

WTU Has Executive Staff Changes

A young engineer who was teaching in the Electrical Engineering Department at Texas A&M College came to Abilene in the summer of 1926 to work for West Texas Utilities Company, seeking experience in the electric industry in order to be better informed in his profession of teaching.

That summer-time job lasted for more than four decades and came to a close September 1st when J. F. Longley, Executive Vice President, retired from active service.

Responsibility for District Operations, formerly supervised by Longley, has been assigned to Vice President Durwood Chalker. The change in the utility company's Executive Staff was announced today by R. W. Hardy, WTU President.

Mr. Longley's actual experience in the electric industry began in a substation crew, and during that first summer he worked on relays and circuit breakers. As summer was drawing to a close, Mr. Longley was offered a full-time regular job and he decided to remain with WTU.

During the first year he spent most of the time in the field and in 1927 assumed the duties of Chief Dispatcher. Two years later he was promoted to Transmission Engineer.

In 1953 he was elected a member of the Board of Directors; elected a Vice President in 1955; and served as Superintendent of Production and Engineering from 1954 to 1960, when he assumed responsibilities of General Superintendent. Mr. Longley has been serving as Executive Vice President since 1964.

Born in Baylor County near Seymour in 1903, Longley grew up on a West Texas farm and attended rural school near his home. Following his father's death in 1912, his mother was employed as a teacher in the rural school, and continued to operate the farm.

He worked in a grocery store while attending Seymour High School, following graduation in 1920, young Longley entered Texas A&M College. He was awarded his Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering in 1924. An outstanding student at Texas A&M, Longley was valedictorian of his class and served as Cadet Major of the Cadet Signal Corps Battalion. He joined the A&M faculty in the fall of 1924 as an instructor in Electrical Engineering, and served two years in that capacity before resigning to join West Texas Utilities Company.

Longley is an active member of the Abilene Lions Club, a member of St. Paul Methodist Church, and a member of the Institute of Electrical & Electronics Engineers. He was named to Who's Who in Engineering in 1954, and was named to Who's Who in America in 1967.

In addition to his many honors in the field of learning and engineering, Mr. Longley is also the recipient of the Insull Medal awarded to him in 1928 by the National Electric Light Association after the successful resuscitation of S. V. Renner who was injured in the McCamey generating station in 1927.

The Longleys were married in Seymour in 1924. She is the former Hazel Powell. They are parents of one son, J. F. Longley, Jr., who resides in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and one daughter, Mrs. E. F. Mullikin of Abilene.

The Longleys have four grandchildren. Elizabeth, Jim and David are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Longley, Mushroom Root Rot Affecting Peach Yield — Mushroom root rot on peach trees is causing serious decline in the yield of peaches over the state, according to Jerral D. Johnson, Extension plant pathologist at Texas A&M University. The disease is caused by a fungus organism which lives in the soil and causes a lingering death of peach trees.

Jr., and Mrs. Larry Spradley of Fort Worth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mullikin.

Durwood Chalker is a native West Texan. Born in Eolian, Texas in 1923, he is a graduate of Breckenridge High School and holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering from Texas A&M University. In 1967 he attended the Utilities Executive Course at the University of Michigan. Employed by the Company in 1950 as a Junior Engineer in the Transmission Department, Chalker worked on substation maintenance, construction and design until he was recalled for active duty with the U. S. Navy. A veteran of World War II, Chalker served in the Submarine Service from 1943 to 1946.

Following his release from active duty during the Korean crisis, Chalker returned to work in the Transmission Department. In 1954 he was transferred to the Abilene Distribution Department, and the next year moved to San Angelo where he served as district distribution superintendent for five years.

Chalker returned to Abilene in 1960 and served as Assistant Chief Engineer until 1967, when he was transferred to the Executive Department as Executive Assistant, reporting to the President. Chalker was elected a WTU Vice President at a meeting of the Board of Directors last March.

Active in civic affairs, Chalker is a member of the Abilene Exchange Club, where he has served as a member of the Board of Control, Vice President and was President of the club in 1965. A senior member of I.E.E.E., he is a past Chairman of the Abilene Section of I.E.E.E., and is immediate past President of the Abilene Chapter of Texas Society of Professional Engineers.

Mrs. Chalker is the former Vada Ray McAdams. The Chalkers, who have two sons, Daniel and David, are members of the First Baptist Church and live at 2113 Broowhollow Drive.

"SEVEN DEADLY SINS" NO. 1

"PRIDE"

The ancients listed seven sins which they referred to as being deadly. These sins are very much alive in America and the church today! The tragic thing is that these deadly sins are often looked upon as being quite respectable! Even the "best" people practice them, even staunch members of the church! These seven deadly sins are: pride, anger, covetousness, lust, envy, gluttony and slothfulness.

PRIDE is the sin that expresses itself in haughtiness and boastfulness. It results in self praise—boasting of one's achievements and possessions. It attempts to appear before others in a superior light. "Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips." Proverbs 27:2. Paul declares "Love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up." Sometimes pride reveals itself by tearing others down. Slander is the destructive child of pride. The person who seeks personal gain and advancement through the defamation of others is dealing with one of Satan's most destructive agencies.

To suppress this deadly sin we need to consider WHAT we are. "When I consider thy heavens the works of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him?" Psalms 83:4. David answers by saying, "But I am a worm." Psalms 22:6. Moses said "Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return." There is one thing certain, God knows what we are because he made us. "For he knoweth our frame; he remembered that we are dust."

Abraham Lincoln was fond of quoting a poem whose first line was: "Oh, why should the spirit of mortal man be proud?"

"Pride goeth before destruction and an haughty spirit before a fall." Proverbs 16:18. Truly a man's pride will bring him low. Are you proud and boastful?

Signed, Scott Mitchell

County Agent's News---

Grain Sorghum harvest is about in full swing here in the county. Most farmers are reporting good yields from this crop. The price of milo is way down this year, mostly bringing about $1.50 per hundred. If farmers have any maize storage, it would probably pay to study the possibilities of feeding this grain to livestock. If we can be of help in this area, feel free to call on us.

The West Texas Fair is coming up September 9. Several 4-H members will be in Abilene to exhibit their animals. Those that have animals entered in the Fair are Brad Stuart, Jill and Jemmye Leigh Laurie, Mike Herron and Karla Kreidel.

School has started by now and 4-H meetings will start again this month on a monthly basis. We urge all parents and boys and girls to study the opportunities of 4-H work and consider joining the organization. Further information may be obtained by contacting any 4-H member, adult leader, or the extension office.

It appears to the editor that Antique and Bottle hunters are not a thing of the past. A recent incident we learned of was two lady hunters were seen crawling under houses and around old sheds hunting these objects, wondering when a car passed if it was the landowner. We understand the ladies did a good job of hiding. This occured near Bellville, and is only carrying out a good hobby and we are sure the women were home in time to fix supper for their husbands after an afternoon of pursuing their hobby.
