There's a little minister of the gospel who is as true as the stars in a firmament... He is sitting by our hearth stones, with his eyes, beaming on us...

QUEEN VICTORIA'S INFLUENCE.

A corner of the veil which screens the inner life of royalty from the common gaze was raised the other day by Mrs. H. Russell, M. P., at a meeting of ladies in support of the woman's suffrage movement. Mr. Russell said his idea had always been that the Queen was a merely ornamental part of a pageant...

THE FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE NORTH-WEST TEXAS CONFERENCE. The meeting convened at Mexia, June 21, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock a sweet consecration service was held.

On Saturday morning the reports were taken up. Mrs. W. M. Shelton, Secretary of Brownwood District, brought a most encouraging report, although she was appointed late, and Brownwood District had passed through three of our men's souls...

That the conference officers be allowed sufficient funds for their office expenses, to be paid quarterly upon presentation of draft properly signed. 2. That the contingent fund be $500.00 per year, and that we insist upon that being collected in full during the first two quarters.

Bro. Wright was called upon for an address, and gave us some beautiful, helpful thoughts to carry with us to our homes. Bro. J. P. Mussett, of Waco, was a thoughtful, helpful discourse on the commission: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." We were made glad by the presence of Mrs. Phillips, the President of the Texas Conference Society, who brought us her own greetings and those of her Conference Society.

THE recent letter from the Judge of Awards on Baking Powders at the Chicago's World's Fair, exposing the falsity of the claim of a Chicago house that its baking powder had received the highest award for strength, purity, excellence, etc., is a scathing rebuke to those manufacturers of inferior baking powders who have no regard for the truth, but habitually seek, in their public announcements, to deceive consumers.
