Among the benefits of advertising, some of the more important are intangible.

Not the least of these is creation of confidence. It is impossible to measure the long range effect of consistent advertising in a trusted medium.

The manager of one of the oldest department stores in the United States has listed public confidence as the major goal of his advertising. He said

"We do not attempt to assess the immediate results of specific advertisements. We know that decades of advertising in our local newspaper have created public confidence in our company to such an extent that price is a secondary consideration for most of our customers."

"Each advertisement contributes to accumulated prestige. It may be designed to sell shirts on a particular day but it may help sell skirts a year later."

The sales manager of another department store expressed the idea differently: "We have experimented with advertising enough to know what happens when we cut down on our newspaper advertising, our general sales fall. The cost of recuperating losses is much greater than maintaining consistent advertising at a level in keeping with the size of our store."

Even people who do not follow advertising closely are consciously affected by consistent advertisement. Consistent advertising is indicative of stability and a company's faith in its own future.

The consumer realizes that he does not have the insight to judge the quality of many products. At first glance two pieces of fabric, or two refrigerators, may seem of equal quality. But hidden differences may be great. The consumer then turns to the store which has gained public confidence through honest advertising.

BAIRD VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ANSWER 10 LOCAL CALLS IN '66

The Baird Volunteer Fire Department answered 10 local alarms during 1966, as announced this week by Charles Walker, Secretary-Treasurer of the Department.

Of the 10 alarms turned in, there were no insured fire losses reported.

Mr. Walker noted that this year was quite an improvement over previous years. In 1965 there were 16 alarms, in 1964, 18 alarms, and in 1963, 42 alarms.

City garbage pickup, which began about June 1963, is credited with the decreases in fires, as citizens no longer have to burn their trash.

This decrease in local fires saved the City of Baird approximately $600 as compared to the 1963 losses. Also, Baird residents enjoy a much lower insurance rate due to the fine cooperation between our Fire Department and local citizens in the practice of Fire Safety.

Other officers of the department are Frankie Crow, Chief;

Well, it's news time again, and what news. Just dry and dusty and a cold norther today. Looks like most of the grain is dead from dry weather, and the cold, too.
 There is a lot of sickness from everywhere you hear from people. Mrs. L. V. Harris has been fighting a cold now for two weeks or more and yet it still hangs on and keeps her not feeling well.
 Mrs. J. G. Barton is feeling much better after spending some time in the hospital recently for a checkup. Two hernias, seems like it would be enough to make anyone feel uncomfortably good.
 Lynda plans to be home this weekend after some busy times in study for the finals of the first semester.
 The machines are busy at work moving dirt for the dam at No. 1 site on Ira Crawford's place.

BAIRD HIGH STUDENTS TO SEE "PREVIEWS OF PROGRESS"

General Motors "Preview of Progress" has been scheduled for appearance at Baird High School on January 23, at 1:45 p. m.

"Preview of Progress" is a dramatic, educational stage demonstration depicting science in action. Its purpose is to encourage American youth to pursue studies in science and engineering and point out some of the many opportunities available in these fields.

Narrating the 45-minute presentation will be David G. Gosler of General Motors Public Relations Staff. He is one of seven units that take the show to more than a million students each year.

Demonstrations to be seen by students include:

POLYMER CHEMISTRY — Unique demonstrations of the manufacture and synthetic rubber in a pop bottle and of a small piece of foam plastic used in automobile and airplane cushions and safety padding.

IMPACT SLED — A miniature model of a versatile automobile testing device is used to demonstrate the importance of seat belt use in automobile crashes on emergency stops.

SUNMOBILE — A model car illustrates one possible method of using sunlight as a power source. Photoelectric cells on the hood convert sunlight, simulated by a 300-watt lamp in the show, into electrical energy.

FUEL CELL — A device that converts chemical energy into electrical power at an efficiency of 90 per cent.

GYROSCOPE — A "misbehaving" suitcase helps illustrate how modern guidance systems safely guide today's planes, ships and missiles along predetermined courses.

EXPLODING WIRE PHENOMENON — Using a principal of stored energy, a 10-watt power supply furnishes over 30-million watts in an instant to demonstrate the electrical disintegration of a fine wire. This phenomenon may some day propel space vehicles.

REULEAUX TRIANGLE — A demonstration of a mathematical "odddity" showing that an object of constant width is not necessarily round.

AIR BEARING PLATFORM — A thin film of air nearly eliminates the sliding friction from a platform that can be used to move 1,000 pounds with only 5 pounds of force.

JET PROPULSION — The history of jet propulsion, traced from the first jet invented by Hero more than 2,000 years ago, is brought up to date with a demonstration of a roaring, miniature jet.

Wednesday Club Hears Talk On LSD

The Wednesday Club met on January 11 in the home of Mrs. V. E. Hill, with Mrs. D. F. Short as co-hostess.

Mrs. Lee Ivey presided over the business meeting. Sixteen members answered roll call with a health hint.

Mrs. M. L. Stubblefield gave a most interesting talk on Texas Mental Health, followed by a talk on Instant Fantasy with LSD, given by Mrs. Ace Hickman.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Next meeting will be held on Jan. 25 in the home of Mrs. W. P. Brightwell.

Mrs. B. L. Russel Jr. Hostess For W.S.C.S.

Circle No. 1 of the WSCS of First Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. B. L. Russel Jr. and Monday at 3 p. m., with 12 members present.

Mrs. Bob Norrell was Program Leader. She gave the invocation and then presented material from the program book on the theme, The Christian and World Economy.

Mrs. C. C. Billingsley gave a part from the October issue of Together, The Rich Man-Poor Man Gap. Mrs. Ace Hickman talked on Stewardship and read scripture from Matt. 25. Program closed with all standing and repeating the WSCS motto.

Members present were Mmes. C. C. Billingsley, M. A. Cline, Albert Cooper, Frank Cunningham, P. E. Dungan, Ace Hickman, Brice Jones, Bob Norrell, B. L. Russel Jr., M. L. Stubblefield, J. O. Warren and Cecil West.

Club Holds Meet In Lanham Home

The Corinne Blackburn Club met Monday, Jan. 16 in the home of Mrs. Helen Lanham, with 14 members answering roll call.

A very interesting program was given on Public Affairs, with Margie Ray discussing The Shady Oaks Recreation Center, and Juanita Danielsen speaking on Traffic Safety Measures.

Those present were Mmes. Eulalia Ault, Eulless Corn, Juanita Danielsen, Beatrice Deal, Frances Dunlap, Mary Holley, Helen Lanham, Viva Peek, Margie Ray and Eldena Williams.

Luncheon Menu . . .

MONDAY
Fried chicken and gravy, buttered rice, green beans, salad, bread, milk and apricot halves.

TUESDAY
Italian spaghetti, blackeye peas, hominy, slaw, hot rolls, milk and honey.

WEDNESDAY
Pressed ham sandwiches, soup, crackers, milk and ice cream.

THURSDAY
Steak and gravy, green beans, candied sweet potatoes, bread, milk and brownies.

FRIDAY
Fish sticks, mustard, English peas, buttered corn, salad, bread, milk and banana pudding.

CRAZY SUITCASE — This "no-hands" suitcase takes off for a spin on its own. The time exposure catches it revolving on a turntable, one end in the air, during a "science in action" demonstration of gyroscopic principles which will guide tomorrow's space ships to the Moon. This and other scientific wonders are dramatized in General Motors 40-minute, admission-free stage show, which will be seen this year by more than three million students and adults.

Cultural Resources Inventory To Be Taken In Putnam, Baird, Clyde

An inventory of cultural resources will be taken in Putnam, Baird and Clyde, as a part of an official statewide survey now being conducted by the Texas Fine Arts Commission, according to Mrs. Lynn Williams, president of the Mesquite District of Texas Federation of Women's Club.

Designated as local coordinators for this inventory are Mrs. J. A. Yarbrough, Putnam; Mrs. Lee Ivey, Baird; and Mrs. Homer Kennard and Mrs. Gladys Mangum, Clyde.

John Ben Shepperd of Odessa, chairman of the newly created Fine Arts Commission, said, "We are indeed grateful to these ladies for undertaking the completion of our survey in their area. This is a unique project in Texas; nothing of its kind has ever been attempted in the State of Texas before."

The purpose of the survey, Shepperd explained, is to determine both the quantity and quality of cultural activity both by organizations and individuals now going on in the towns and communities in our state. "We plan not only to catalogue the various organizations active in the fine arts field in Texas, but to identify individual artists, authors and craftsmen, and the location and identification of local public and private works of art and collections," Shepperd said.

When tabulated, the results of the statewide survey will be used by the Commission to develop an over-all plan to utilize the cultural resources of the State to meet the needs of the greatest number of persons possible. The survey results will also permit the Commission to publish a "Who's Who" in the arts in Texas, a calendar of cultural activities and events, and a list of available talent, performing arts groups and exhibits, and to develop pilot projects that would assist in the development of the arts in Texas.

Wayne Berryman Speaks To Baird '48 Study Club

Baird '48 Study Club met on Monday night at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Charles Greenway, with Mrs. Dick Vestal as co-hostess.

Mr. Wayne Berryman, Assistant Director of Counseling and Guidance of Callahan County, was speaker for the evening. He spoke on What Parents Should Know About Testing and Guidance in Public Schools. Mr. Berryman explained to the members present the different types of tests which are given to students, and times in their school life when certain tests were given. His talk was very informative and interesting to the Club.

Mr. Berryman received his BA and M. Ed. degree from ACC and is working toward his Ph.D. at North Texas. He also explained about the various scholarships offered through the National Merit Test.

A short business meeting followed the program. It was noted that in the last report of our meeting on Jan. 2, that the club contributed $10.00 to the Texas Federation of Women's Club's Charitable and Educational Fund. At this time we would like to read $100.00. This is a long range program within TFWC and headquarters asked each club to assume responsibility of raising $300.00 for this fund. The $100.00 mailed in this month was our first step toward the $300.00 goal. This Charitable and Education Fund will provide scholarships and room and board for girls attending the University of Texas. The Club Home in Austin is being remodeled to house female students and in participating in this fund drive, it is of course our hope that in the future a local girl or girls may be able to participate in this program.

Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. J. C. Earp Jr. on Jan. 30. A creative auction will be held at this time.

Many Thanks Expressed For Peruvian Library

In a letter received recently by Mrs. A. E. Dyer Sr., member of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Lee Woodward, Peace Corps Volunteer working in Peru, expressed her thanks in behalf of Peruvian mothers for the children's library established there.

Miss Woodward said one of the happiest hours she had spent in Peru was when she was given permission to pick out the books she wanted in Lima.

Her books included many scientific books with paintings of flowers, birds, animals, people of other lands, ships, and many other fascinating subjects. Miss Woodward said, "I did this because I have seen how limited the lives of these children are, how few birds they have seen, how few animals, and how little contact they have with anything outside their own dirt streets and straw hut houses."

Miss Woodward also selected books featuring stories with colorful pictures so as to bring some color into the lives of these coastal children who see no vegetation, no wildlife and no greenery. She stated, "I am sure that these books will open a new world for them."

The library will be part of a day school which will be run by Miss Woodward and mothers in the area. Besides the library, they hope to have paint, clay, blocks, and many other creative outlets for the children who have rarely seen anything except a notebook in which they copy letters, numbers, and small drawings from the blackboard.

When day school is over, Miss Woodward plans to donate the library to the local school, with the permission of local mothers. Should this happen, Huanchaqui will be the first school in Chimbote to have a children's library.

"WEEKLY MEDITATIONS"

Victory In The New Year

"Wherever I go, Thank God, He makes my life a constant pageant of triumph in Christ, diffusing the perfume of His knowledge everywhere by me." (I Corinthians 2-14. Moffatt).

On the first Sunday of a New Year the Christian preacher could well sound a strong note of courage and hope for Christians and for others on the way to becoming Christians. There is suggestion here for a topical sermon, to be lived day by day. "Wherever I go, thank God, He makes my life a constant pageant of praise and triumph in Christ, diffusing the perfume of His knowledge to me." The sermon we find in the exegetical and expository treatment of this text is found by using Paul's affirmation as autobiographical.

To be able to say this after such dreadful experiences of persecution, of opposition, of physical sickness and discouragement as the Apostle had, requires the kind of FIRST HAND experience of God which he, and countless others since his day, have had. The phrase "In Christ" was certainly true in Paul's life, and should be interpreted through and for us.

Professor James S. Stewart of Scotland created attention by the publication of his studies, "In Christ," in a book titled "A New Man In Christ."

The late Joseph Furt Newton, well known preacher on both sides of the Atlantic, once summed up his basic message of his ministry of preaching as being very simple. He believed that to live well and achieve victory in life, we should have a faith to live by, a self to live with, and a work to live for. Here is a simple outline for you to fill in for yourself.

A FAITH TO LIVE BY. Faith in what? Faith in Whom? These will determine the success of the failure of your life.

A SELF TO LIVE WITH. William James of Harvard, in his writings, tells of his wife, who, in so many instances, had the ability to save him from his "Turn to Pieces," and the ability to give himself back to himself all in one piece. Is this not the great work of grace, and Christ's tremendous service to men and women who commit themselves to Him, and trust and obey Him?

A WORK TO LIVE FOR. It has been said that to have a happy life, one's life should be found in a great love and much serving. There is a task to which each of us can give ourselves that will surely enrich life, and help to diffuse the perfume of the knowledge of God through us.

O Spirit of Truth and Love, Take our minds and think through them;

Take my speech and speak through it;

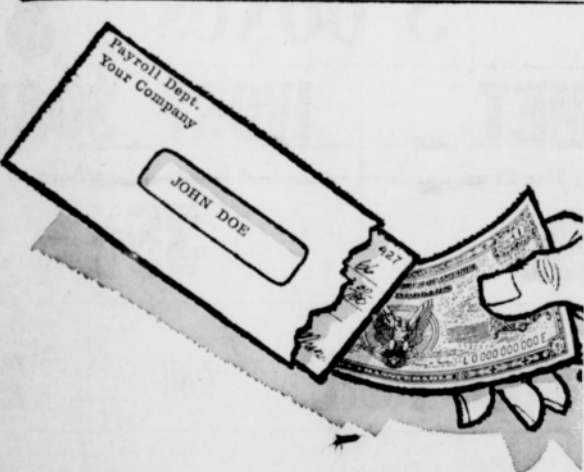

Take our hearts and set them on fire;

In Christ, Our Lord, Amen.
First Methodist Church
Albert Cooper, Pastor
