Observing Veterans Day with respect

PARTICIPATING IN VETERANS DAY CEREMONIES last Tuesday at the Knox County veteran's Memorial in Benjamin, Sammy B. White (at left) and Marvin Jones are shown here raising 'Old Glory'. Both men are World War II veterans and residents of Knox City. A crowd of several hundred attended the event. Local residents had a big hand in the ceremonies, as Mina Banks of Knox City was one of the speakers, and the music was provided by the Knox City High School Band. (NEWS digital photo)

Exhibit depicts legendary 6666 ranch

Meinzer's work on display at Fort Worth Cattle Raisers Museum

By ART CHAPMAN
Star-Telegram Staff Writer

To the casual eye, the area around Guthrie - - halfway between Wichita Falls and Lubbock - - isn't a grand country. It is rock and cedar-speckled. It has a barren look, though it hides thousands of cattle behind its brushy nap.

It is ranch country, home to places like the famed Four Sixes, the Pitchfork and the Tongue River ranches.

Photographer Wyman Meinzer knows the region well. He was born on a ranch at nearby Benjamin and has made his living capturing life on these plains and in other rural folds of Texas.

That's why, on one particular day last winter, he noticed the afternoon sky. He knew the sun would quickly drop below the horizon and cast a red reflection on the turgid clouds. The clouds, he recognized, would scatter the dying light on the pastured horses below.

He captured the moment on film, and the photograph is now on display at the Cattle Raisers Museum in Fort Worth.

It is a dramatic photo, matted and encased in a large Gothic frame.

Meinzer's work is part of an exhibit titled The 6666 Today. There are 10 photographs in the collection, which will be on display at the museum until January 2.

The photographs are for sale - - priced from $350 to $1,500 - - with a portion of the proceeds going toward the museum's $20 million capital campaign.

The Cattle Raisers Museum is raising money for a new home near the National Cowgirls Museum and Hall of Fame adjacent to the Will Rogers Memorial Complex.

All the photos were shot on the Four Sixes. "I've been working on them since December," said Meinzer, who was recently in Fort Worth for several book signings.

His newest books are The Great Lonely Places of the Texas Plains, with text by Walt McDonald, the 2001 Texas Poet Laureate; and Texas Hill Country with John Graves.

Meinzer was proclaimed Texas State Photographer in 1997 by the Texas Legislature and then-Gov.

George Bush. He was quick to select a favorite among his new photo exhibit.

It was the snapshot of the red sky and the Four Sixes horses taken on that late afternoon.

"That picture continues to just floor me when I look at it," he said. "It was hard to imagine it turned out the way it did, the shooting conditions were so tough."

The lighting in the western sky was at a really low level, he said. It was a rich light that reflected on the horse, but it was dim. He had to balance the need for light with the need to stop action on the grazing horses. It was a difficult task.

"When I looked at the negatives, lo and behold there it was," he said. "It was a delightful surprise."

Meinzer said he continues to shoot on the Sixes. He goes out when there is a branding or weaning or any event that holds photographic promise. "I might not shoot for two or three weeks," he said, "then something comes up and I'm there for several days at a time."

There is an ebb and flow to life at the Four Sixes, he said. It is the kind of big ranch that has "a life of its own, a personality that is set apart from the smaller outfits."

"It is a progressive ranch but one that still reaches back to hold on to its history."

Meinzer said his photography shows the natural working order at the ranch. There is nothing set up. He never stages a shot, and he never asks to cowboys to do something over again for the camera.

"I never intervene in the action," he said. "This exhibit shows the natural heart and soul of the ranch."

The Cattle Raisers Museum is at 1301 W. Seventh St. The hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays.

O'Brien happenings

By Audie Johnston, O'Brien Correspondent

"Hollywood Rules - Like all great spectator sports, movies follow a strict set of rules:

- Beds have special L-shaped sheets that reach up to the armpit of a woman but only to the waist of the male star lying next to her.

- In murder mysteries, the killer is always the neatest dresser.

- No one ever locks a car when they get out of it. Even in New York City.

- The more a man and woman hate each other, the more certain it is they will fall in love.

- A single match is always sufficient to light up a room the size of the Colosseum."

Here and There - Spending the weekend with Dan and Marilyn Talbot was their daughter Cathy and husband Gary of Shallowater and did they have fun. Among the things they enjoyed were re-roofing their house and going through the house and moving and cleaning the inside. Who wouldn't love that.

Eddie and Claudia Bryant were blessed over the weekend by having their little granddaughter, Cecylee and Hadlee of Hawley, spending the night with them. Despite Eddie's coughing and feeling bad, they were happy.

Bro. Milton McManus and wife Rhonda and daughter Laci left Sunday to go back home and visit with their son and also Rhonda's mom who has been ailing for a while. I'm sure she needs our prayers.

Billie Walker left last Friday and went to Amarillo to be with her daughters, Julie and Laura and children. She's had several of her families have surgery of different kinds and they all need our prayers. She plans on coming home Friday and one of her daughters and husband for a few days.

ReyRey Sanchez and wife Lara and daughter Reymae of Lubbock spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pablo Sanchez, and brothers, Pablo, Felipe and Aaron. We sure hate to see anyone move away but have to go where the work is.

Adelle Herring's sister, Claudia Reid of Rochester, came and spent a while with her last week. They spent some time discussing their families past.

There's several around that still need our prayers. Janoma Stephens is still in Lubbock at this time; Eddie Bryant and Jean Barnard both have coughs and colds; C.H. and Linda Underwood's daughter, Beth, who lives at Roby is having some different ailments and doctors appointments; and Billie Norton still needs our prayers.

Thanks for reading the NEWS... we appreciate you.

DPS urges driving caution for Thanksgiving holiday period

As the roads swell with anxious drivers, DPS cautions motorists to drive responsibly and avoid road rage this Thanksgiving holiday.

"The increase of traffic congestion coupled with poor scheduling often triggers aggressive driving," said Col. Thomas A. Davis Jr., director of the DPS. "An aggressive driver may commit several traffic violations to make up time. These violations place other travelers at risk and in the most severe cases can escalate into road rage."

When confronted with aggressive drivers, the DPS recommends that you:

- * Put your pride in the back seat and move aside.

- * Do not speed up, block lanes, slam or tap on brakes.

- * Report extreme cases of reckless driving to the appropriate authorities.

- * Do not retaliate, gesture or make eye contact.

- * Make sure everyone is buckled up.

Some actions that may contribute to road rage include not using turn signals, driving in the passing lane, tailgating, flashing lights or using high beams in traffic, honking and not allowing adequate time for a given trip.

During the week of Thanksgiving, Highway Patrol troopers along with other law enforcement agencies across the state, will be out in force targeting speeders, drunk drivers, seat belt violators as well as aggressive drivers.

Texas DPS is participating in the "Click It or Ticket Texas" campaign, running November 18 to December 1, which will focus on increasing and enforcing seat belt and child seat usage in the state. DPS has a zero tolerance policy toward seat belt violations and fines can range from $25 to $200.

Texas also participates in Operation CARE (Combined Accident Reduction Effort). Operation CARE is a nationwide effort by all state police agencies to reduce fatalities during holiday periods.

Don't believe the rumors.... KCHS will be playing 11 man football next year, NOT 6 man

In the past two weeks, several other newspaper stories or sports columns have said Knox City will be playing 6 man football next year. According to Superintendent Louis Baty, that is not true and he has no idea how that information was obtained.

While Paducah and Crowell have decided they will be playing 6 man ball next year, Knox City will continue to play 11 man football. Predicted enrollment figures put Knox City in the 6 man range, but the school still has the option to play 11 man as long as there are enough players coming out for football.

The 2004 district alignment will be decided by the UIL within the next two months. With Crowell and Paducah dropping down, the Greyhounds will probably end up traveling further for away games. Rumors have several current 2A schools dropping down to 1A, but there has been no confirmation yet on what schools the Knox City Greyhounds will face during the 2004 football season.

As soon as more information becomes available from the UIL, we will get the news to our readers as soon as we can.

Thank you . . .

We wish to express thanks to the Knox City Fire Dept. and friends for their help with the fire Saturday, November 8.

Thank you Knox City and Knox County for your support over the years.

Bob's grocery, market and cafe are now back in operation thanks to all of you.

Bob and Joyce Easterling

Dear Friends,

Dad would have loved his service, he would have been honored and touched at how many came to wish him "goodbye". He was a truly amazing man, who will be missed.

I would like to thank -

- Dr. Shirley - she never gave up. Dad loved you!
- Nurses at Knox County Hospital and Munday Nursing Home - Dad had a very special love for each one of you.
- Bro. Gene, Bro. Bobby and Bro. John - thanks for the comforting words. Dad would have been very pleased.
- Donna and Stacy - what beautiful voices!
- Rodney Bennett - fellow Marine, thanks for helping out.
- Tammie Dillon, Darren Clark and Scott Lynn - behind the scenes. Everything y'all did made for a great celebration.
- Glenda Huff and Danny Reese for "hauling" me around.
- Glenda and crew at First Baptist Church for all the cookies after the services
- Church of Christ ladies for a great lunch
- First Baptist family thanks for the reception following
- Fellow Marines and Pallbearers for being a part of the service
- My husband, Scott, for an endless 11 months of hours of encouragement and always helping out with the kids so I could spend every minute possible with Dad.
- Sue, Christina and Bud for being there - so professional!
- Mr. Lowe - for always understanding.
- Friends - for food, cards, the calls, flowers, plants and words of encouragement.
- Lianne Tidwell and Christy Richardson - for helping with the kids
- Dave - for a special tribute for a special man.

Dad was a giant among Giants!

Love, Shea

Great American Smokeout is Thursday

Want to quit smoking? Now's your chance !

AUSTIN-TX. -- On November 20, the American Cancer Society, the nation's leading voluntary health agency, will host the 27th Great American Smokeout and help millions of smokers kick the habit, and help youth understand the importance of never starting to smoke.

The Great American Smokeout() promotion is the American Cancer Society's annual, nationally recognized day when we ask smokers to put down their cigarettes, cigars, spit tobacco, or any tobacco product because they all have the potential to cause cancer. Because we know that approximately 32 million smokers (out of 46 million current smokers) want to quit smoking completely, we will continue to offer support and education to the public. The promise of an addiction-free life has encouraged many smokers to join in and prove to themselves that they can live a day without cigarettes, and that they can therefore live the rest of their lives without them. Approximately 10,900 Texans will be diagnosed with lung cancer in 2003 and of those, 9,900 will die. Nationwide, 171,900 will be diagnosed and 157,200 will die. The American Cancer Society is sending a message this year with a poster stating "It's Never Too Late to Quit," proclaiming that quitting smoking significantly reduces your risk of cancer, not only of the lung, but also mouth, nasal cavities, pharynx, larynx, esophagus, stomach, pancreas, and other organs. Smokers who are ready to kick the habit can find help through the American Cancer Society's Quitline by calling toll-free, 1-877-YES-QUIT. The Quitline, funded by the Texas Department of Health using Tobacco Settlement funds, offers free telephone counseling services, advice and cessation materials to smokers, age 13 and older. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's "Cigarette Smoking Among Adults - United States, 2001" report shows a slow but continued decline in adult smoking rates from 25 percent in 1993 to 22.8 percent in 2001. Current or former smokers may enroll in a National Lung Screening Trial (NLST), a cancer screening trial funded by the National Cancer Institute that will take place at 30 study sites throughout the United States, including The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. The trial, slated to last eight years, will examine the risks and benefits of spiral CT scans compared to chest X-rays.

NLST will enroll 50,000 participants nationwide. To learn more about the screening trial, call: 713-792-5340 or visit www.mdanderon.org/nlst.

The Great American Smokeout() is not just about adult smokers and cessation. As the times change and our understanding of the addictive cycle of nicotine increases, we're working to prevent children from ever becoming smokers. More than 88% of current adult smokers started before they were 18 years old. That's why the Great American Smokeout() is also focusing on promotions that will communicate to our children the social disadvantages of smoking, and provide them with the tools to recognize and avoid negative social influences. The American Cancer Society@; is the nationwide community-based voluntary health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem by preventing cancer, saving lives and diminishing suffering from cancer, through research, education, advocacy and service.

For information about cancer, call toll-free anytime 1-800-ACS-2345 or visit the American Cancer Society( Web site at www.cancer.org.

accreditation

The Vernon College Surgical Technology program has been awarded a three year accreditation from the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP). Vernon College is the 21st accredited program in Texas.

Jeff Feix, Surgical Technology instructor, applied for accreditation in June 2002 and submitted a self-study of the program in February 2003. An on-site visit was conducted in June 2003 by the Accreditation Review Committee for Surgical Technology, consisting of Betty Roberts from Virginia and Joe Long from Michigan.

Surgical Technologists perform a vital role in the operating room for the surgical patient. Their role as a member of the surgical team includes establishing and maintaining the sterile field for the surgical procedure, assisting with draping the patient, passing instruments and supplies to the surgeon, and assisting the Registered Nurse with patient positioning and transfer after the procedure.

Thursday rites are planned for Allie Mae Watson

Allie Mae Watson, 90, of Knox City died Monday, November 17, 2003, at Munday Nursing Center.

Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a.m., Thursday, November 20, 2003 at the Knox City Four-square Church with Paul Chambers and Sequoyah Reynolds officiating. Burial was in the Knox City Cemetery with Mansell-Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Born March 16, 1913, in Severe County, Arkansas, to the late James Lymon Vickers and Allie Miranda Askins Vickers, she married Chester Franklin Watson August 21, 1931, in Portales, New Mexico. He preceded her in death November 15, 1987. She loved to quilt and do crafts. Allie Mae also enjoyed gardening. She was a member of the Knox City Four-square Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, son Archie Watson, brother James Lymon Vickers Jr., sisters Junie Louise Parks and Frankie Counts, and one granddaughter Pamela Watson.

Survivors are a son Leon Watson and wife Elloise of Knox City, daughter Chestene Thornburgh and husband Bill of Mesquite, daughter-in-law Nell Watson of Mabank; grandchildren Rhonda Berry and husband Keith of Royce City, Carla Pellman and husband Jeff of Crandall, Kelly Hutchinson and husband Chuck of Knox City, Ginger James and husband Frank of Valliant, Oklahoma, Craig Watson and wife Tina of Midland, Tony Watson and wife Sherrie of Henderson and Vonna Leigh McMeans and husband Jay of Colleyville, 14 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to a charity of choice.

Obituaries

Mary Belle Stevenson Faver

Services for Mary Belle Stevenson Faver were held November 7, 2003, at the Cleburne Funeral Home Chapel. Interment was at Rose Hill Cemetery in Cleburne.

Mrs. Faver died November 4, 2003, in Fort Worth. Born July 17, 1918, in Knox City to Mary McManners Stevenson and Lester Stevenson, she graduated from Knox City High School in 1935. She was baptized at the First Christian Church in Knox City.

She married O.E. Faver on November 5, 1939, in Denton at Texas Women's University's Little Chapel in the Woods. Before her retirement, she worked for 20 years for the Civil Service Department of the Air Force and 10 years selling real estate. She was a member of the Central Church of Christ in Cleburne and served as secretary there for many years.

She was preceded in death by her husband, O.E. (Bill) Faver and sister Mildred Stevenson Burns.

Survivors are sons, Gerald and Glen Faver of Cleburne and James Faver of Fort Worth; sisters, Barbara Luper of Carthage, Jamie Ibrahim of Lubbock and Betty Quillen of Richardson; brother, Don Stevenson of Dallas; five grandchildren and eight grandchildren.

When making out your Christmas gift list, don't forget the Knox County Child Welfare Board. The kids are depending on you !!

The Angel Tree is on display at the Art Stall and Frame Shop. Those wishing to select an angel from the tree are asked to do so, select the gifts and return them to the Art Stall. Each angel has information about one child, the age, size and wish list.

Without the community support, we would not be able to make this a happy time in the lives of our children.

We wish the Knox City Greyhounds the very best of luck in the first round of the playoffs this Friday night at Shotwell Stadium in Abilene.

We are proud of all you have accomplished this season!

Switch IT & Keep IT

LOCAL NUMBER PORTABILITY

Simply put, number portability permits a customer who changes local telephone service providers and remains in the same location to keep the same telephone number.

You can now switch to Santa Rosa Telephone Cooperative, Inc. and keep your existing number.

This has been made possible just this week through lengthy, extensive changes in our telephone network and support systems.

What LOCAL NUMBER PORTABILITY means to Knox City:

1. You can switch to SRTC and.....

- a. Keep Your Number !
- b. Lower your local service phone bills !
- c. Appreciate our personal, reliable customer maintenance
- d. Value SRTC's fast & friendly customer service without punching, pressing or hitting anything !
- e. Rely on over 52 years of telephone service business.
(Santa Rosa Telephone Coop., Inc. was established in 1951)
- f. Make use of the "One Bill" option.
You can have local service,
long distance service and Internet (dial up or a DSL)
all on one bill.
- g. No additional service charges or surcharges just to keep your number !

Call 889-1125
and let us tell you more,
and . . .
switch you over.

Benjamin news

By Gladene Green, Benjamin Correspondent

We are back to these summer like temps. Today (Sunday) has been a gorgeous but very unseasonable day. It was nice tho even tho we know it should be much cooler.

Sympathy to the family of "Puddin" Brown Whitmire who passed away Friday at her home in the Dallas area. She had been undergoing chemo treatments and her malignancy was thought to be pretty well at a remissive stage. Her death was attributed to an apparent heart attack. She had been in failing health for some time. Her husband Donnie died only two months ago. Her funeral is tomorrow in Benjamin.

Concerning our ill - Julia Trepanier is continuing her recuperation at home after being in Seymour Hospital about 10 days. She told me Thursday her trouble was food poisoning and I know first hand how sick that makes you. Each day, she feels a little better, I think.

Laura Benson is in Abilene Regional Hospital having been transferred there Saturday after a short stay in Knox County Hospital. Not sure of the nature of her trouble but hope she gets back on her feet very soon. Laura is a junior student at BHS and her little brother, Dylan, broke his arm Saturday. The same one he broke a couple of months ago in football. So they are sort of "having it" in the Benson household - Maybe their "down" time won't be long.

Our Dillon continues to improve. Walked by himself - without his walker - Saturday night so he feels like he has made real progress. He goes back to Dallas Wednesday for tests and evaluation.

Mabel Moorhouse seems to be doing pretty well. She just has to be real careful in whatever she's doing.

Here 'N There - Larry and Glenda Bearyl returned to their home in Erie, Colorado, Tuesday after a few days visit with her mom, Odessa Cox and her sister and brother-in-law, Reba and Charlie Morrill.

Mike and Debbie Moorhouse were in Childress Friday to attend a benefit supper for Dillon. Several hundred dollars was raised in sales and donations which will be a great help to Dillon and his family. Even with good insurance there's always plenty that's not covered in these long-term classes, as we all know.

Gloria and Leroy West were in Denton this weekend for the wedding of her grandson, Sammy Tomlinson and his fiance. They said it was medieval style - very different but also very interesting and an enjoyable event. Sammy's parents are Cathy Clower Tomlinson and Jr. Tomlinson.

The program Tuesday at the Veteran's Memorial was very impressive. Our elementary students (fifth and sixth grades, I think) led the pledge of allegiance and two of Nancy McGreger's students read interviews they had done with veterans and presented posters relating to their interviews. Colton Caldwell read his conversation he had had with his grandfather, Weldon Gideon, regarding his military service days and Cody Propps read his about his great-grandfather, Dick Harper. Those boys had tied for first place here at Benjamin in a contest sponsored by the Historical Commission. The contest was commission member Homer Lowrance of Munday's idea. Colton is the son of Lana and Carlos Mendoza and Cody's parents are James and Stasia Propps.

Bobby and Philomae Roberson are getting a new metal roof on their house. It's white and really "dresses-up" the appearance of the house. And Jan and Fred Carver continue to work on their house. Doing a lot of the work themselves so it will be exactly like they want it and from all accounts it is doing to be very nice.

A Mayo Clinic study says that depressed people tend to recover less well from heart attacks, coronary bypasses and other heart condition problems than people without emotional problems. The study followed 310 men and 70 women entering cardiac rehabilitation programs.
Researchers know that the protein ApoE is involved in Alzheimer's. Some Duke researchers say people who inherit a variant called ApoE are at risk before age 70.
