Video Of Christmas Parade To Be Shown On Television

The 1993 Knox City Christmas Parade was videotaped for re-broadcast to the community. Because so many were involved in the parade and not able to see everything that took place, the video will be shown this Thursday evening at 7:00 by the First Baptist Church on cable channel 17.

To have your own copy of the parade video, have your VCR's ready and record your own copy. Remember, that's channel 17, Thursday, at 7:00 p.m.

Giant Christmas Parade Thrills Record Number Of Spectators

A larger than expected crowd turned out Saturday afternoon to witness a giant Christmas parade, which was described by some as possibly the largest ever in Knox City.

Hundreds of spectators lined the parade route through downtown Knox City and east on Main Street long before the parade officially started at 2:00 p.m.

Under clear blue skies and temperatures in the low 60's, the spirit of the Christmas season was evident as dozens of floats and other entries rolled through Knox City. With "The Joy Of Christmas" as the parade theme, floats showed many different holiday scenes, and it was clearly evident that a lot of hard work had gone into construction of the various entries.

Sponsored by the Knox City Chamber of Commerce and under the direction of Roger and Rita Rosencranz, the parade provided some intense deliberation for the judges. In addition to watching the parade first hand, the judges also resorted to the use of a video of the parade to help them make their decisions. Judges for the parade were Patsy and Laveme Rogers, owners and publishers of the Twin Cities News newspaper in Rochester; Kellye Elkins, owner and publisher of the Stonewall County Courier newspaper in Aspermont, and Louis Alambar, owner and publisher of the Stamford American newspaper in Stamford.

Beautifully carved wooden plaques by Oscar and Leta Mangis of the Whittle and Paint Shop were presented as awards in the following categories: oilfield, ranching, churches, business, individuals, youth, bands, antiques, services and motorcycles. There were also two Best of Show awards.

Adding to the festivities downtown were food booths set up by the American Cancer Society and the Foursquare Church. Jones Pharmacy also held an open house

City Police Department Gains Strength With The Addition Of Reserve Officers

The Knox City Police Department added to its strength recently with the addition of a reserve officer force. Completing a 400 hour training course and certified by the State of Texas, the new reserve officers are Harry Steen, Ronald Joe (Joey) Ainsworth, and William J. (Buddy) Curd. Margaret Russell is also a reserve officer, having served in that position since May of 1991.

The new reserve officers started an intense 400 hour training school back in February, and graduating in October. The course is the same as full time officers attend, the only difference being that reserve officers go to school on a part time basis instead of full time.

The new reserves were also required to take and pass the Texas Peace Officers exam that all peace officers in Texas have to pass.

The training course was taught by Ricki Russell, currently serving in the interim capacity as Knox County Sheriff. A total of 22 students representing various area agencies started the course, only 13 graduated and passed the Texas Peace Officers exam.

The use of uniformed reserve officers with the Knox City Police Department is a plus for the city as the officers serve on a volunteer basis without pay. Since Knox City only has two full time officers to cover police matters on a 24 hour a day, 365 day a year basis, the use of reserves to accompany the regular officers provides an additional safety factor.

The reserves will normally only work in full uniform with the regular officers, but they can be called out in the event of a civil emergency or disaster. Each reserve will be required to work at least 8 hours a month to keep certification current. All of the reserves will be continuing with ongoing education, and are allowed to ride with other agencies in their reserve capacity.

Police Chief Dean Homstad is very pleased to have the reserve officers working, largely because of the added safety factor of having two officers in a patrol unit instead of just one.

More and more ophthalmologists are performing radial keratotomy to remedy nearsightedness. In the procedure, four to 16 incisions are made around the cornea, causing the cornea to flatten and allowing light rays to focus farther back in the eye.

The oldest living American is Margaret Skette, age 115. She was born in 1878 near Corpus Christi, Texas, and has lived in Radford, VA, since the 1950s.

Guthrie Falls In State Six-Man Semifinals

To State Champion Panther Creek, 44-27

The Guthrie Jaguars had a great season come to an end Friday night when Panther Creek defeated them 44-27 in the Six-Man football semifinals at Anson.

Guthrie took an 8-0 lead on its opening series when Shane Pettiet threw a 10-yard, fourth down pass to quarterback Roy Fuentes and Fuentes kicked the two points.

Two series later, Chad Humphries got Panther Creek on the scoreboard with a 6-yard run but the try for the point after failed and the score was 8-6.

Guthrie then retaliated with a fourth-down, 12-yard pass from Fuentes to center Billy Vinson. A fumbled snap prevented a kick, but Fuentes passed to Vinson again for a 15-6 edge.

The Panthers drove for their second touchdown, but it was costly. On first down, Humphries ran for eight yards, but landed on his collarbone, breaking it. He stayed in for four plays, completing a pass for three yards and then running 32 yards to the Guthrie 5, setting up a touchdown by Bolton on the next play.

Chad Bolton took over for Humphries and an interception by Bolton ended the next Guthrie threat at the Jaguar 35, and three plays later, he headed to the right, then cut back and raced 34 yards for a touchdown. The kick made it 22-15 in Panther Creek's favor.

Panther Creek took the third quarter kickoff and marched in for another score with Monty Bouldin going over from the 3 on fourth down. A third down, 13-yard pass to Bouldin kept the drive going.

On the next series, Bolton ran three yards for a touchdown to make it 38-15 with 2:22 left in third quarter, following a fumble, but Guthrie came back to make it interesting.

The Jaguars ran only once from scrimmage in the third quarter, the fumble play, but Will Hale took the kickoff, stepped out of a tackle, and ran 65 yards for a touchdown, making it 38-21 with 2:11 left in the third quarter.

Hale's 1-yard run cut the lead to 38-27 with 7:52 left, but the Panthers scored again on a 22-yard run by Clayton Hinds with 5:28 left.

The 27 points were the second most allowed by Panther Creek, which now has won 28 straight games, 14 this season.

Hale had 47 yards to lead Guthrie's ground game, and Pettiet had 43.

Coach Harvey Wellman's Jaguars had a great season and with as many returning lettermen for next year should go all the way.

Panther Creek (14-0) will meet Dell City (13-0) in Six-Man finals Saturday at Big Spring at 3:00 p.m.

THANKS to the CITIZENS OF KNOX CITY!

Knox City shined Saturday with one of its greatest Christmas parades. Our thanks go to Roger and Rita Rosencranz who served as Chairmen. You did a great job. Also all the people who served on the committee, the businesses, school, churches, and service organizations and individual people who had floats and donations toward the parade. Thanks to the City employees and the Fire Dept. for their help. We appreciated Bob and Joyce Wille coming to serve as our grand marshals. A special thanks to Dave Thompson and The Knox County News who helped with publicity and getting our sound system and being our emcee with the help of Marq Brockett. We couldn't have had a parade without everyone working together as a community.

Also we appreciate the participation and help with the Miss Merry Christmas pageant. It was great and all the kids were great. It's great to live in a place like Knox City.

King Co. Public Library Accredited For 1994 Year

The King County Public Library was recently accredited as a member of the Texas Library System, for fiscal year 1994, according to William D. Gooch, Director and Librarian of the Texas State Library.

"We are pleased to award a certificate of system membership in recognition of the efforts this community has made in providing public library services," said Gooch. "It is a symbol of having achieved a level of excellence."

The King County Public Library is a renewal member of the West Texas Library System and serves citizens in King County. The King County Public Library had to meet strict criteria, according to Laquita Fields, such as hours of access, professional staffing requirements, number of library materials, and local per capita support to become an accredited member. Public libraries must apply and qualify for system membership annually. King County Public Library has been a member of the West Texas Library System for six years.

O'Brien Happenings

By Audie Johnston

"One evening, as we went through the line at a cafeteria, I observed my husband ordering fried steak with cream gravy, french fries, and fried okra. "You're selecting too many fried foods," I told him. "You should choose something baked or broiled."

"Then he grabbed a piece of cherry pie topped with ice cream. "There," he said, "I got something baked!"

HERE AND THERE

Grady and Beatrice Ellis were in Lubbock last week for Grady's doctor appointment. Grady is improving some and he has gained eight pounds since his last trip.

David, Trudy, Amy, Crystal and Josh Hunt visited Mr. and Mrs. Greg Covey and family in Littlefield for Thanksgiving.

Rev. George Yarger, Genna, Sarah, and Jonathan spent Thanksgiving holidays in Midland with relatives.

Don and Diane Roberts took Don's Sunday School class Sunday after church to see the living Christmas Tree at First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls. Those attending were Angelia Roberts, Dana Holmes, Sean Duncan, Sarah Yarger, Casey Carver, and Nicole Hayes.

Lynward and Juanita Wilcox are in Lubbock this week for Lynward to undergo surgery at Methodist Hospital. He expects to be there for several days.

Eddie and Claudia Bryant visited Claudale and Jean Barnard over the weekend. Eddie's grandmother had passed away and they were on the way to the funeral.

Dwight Gothard was in Abilene several different days last week to have some growths removed from his eyes. He goes back today to have the stitches removed. He seems to be doing o.k.

Visiting Ranzy and Adelle Herring last week were Andy, Tami and Haleigh Hines of Lubbock and Ernie Lancaster and son in law of Fort Worth.

"Balancing a home, a husband who travels, four energetic children and a full-time volunteer job was no easy feat. But when the school principal called and asked me to serve on the nutrition advisory board, I made room for one more worthy cause.

"Coming home from school, my daughter asked if I had taken the job. "How did you know about it?" I asked.

"The principal stopped at our lunch table and asked if anyone had a mother who didn't work," she replied. "I was the only one who raised a hand."

Brownie Troop 111 News By Troop Leaders

We have been very busy the last month, preparing for the 10th Annual Scout Program, which was held December 2. Our skit was "A Christmas Gift" and we practiced many hours to learn our parts well. We also had fun learning "The Twelve Days of Christmas", which we performed in an unusual way! The program was a big success, and we had a great time entertaining our families and friends.

Also, as part of the "Caring for Kids" gift campaign, we made ornaments for the Scout Christmas tree, which is at The Knox County News office. We are grateful to all of the people who have donated toys for the less fortunate for Christmas.

To finish off our Christmas activities, we went Christmas caroling at the Care Home and visited with the residents there. Next week we will be going to Stamford for a Christmas Pizza Party!

A 1951 2 door Chevrolet driven by Sterling Lewis was next, just ahead of two wreckers furnished by Lewis Paint & Body Shop.

Crystal Espinoza and J.J. Martinez rode their decorated bikes, they were followed in the parade by floats and equipment from Pumpers Oilfield Supply Company, Rolling Plains Well Service, the Wichita Brazos Soil Conservation District, and a musical float featuring the western sounds of Brownie Tackitt, JoAnn Maddox, Mutt Logsdon, Bob Berryman and Launa Hester.

Bringing up the rear of the parade were horses and riders from the Knox City Horse Club and the Brazos Valley Recreation Association. Trying to sneak into the parade by coming in with the horses was a very special visitor - Santa Claus on his 'Muledeer.' A stranger sight had never before been seen in Knox City, but Santa and his 'Muledeer' was a big hit with all those lining the parade route. After the parade ended, Santa headed off to The Christmas Store for a photo session with area youngsters as a fundraising project for the chamber. Over 40 youngsters (and a few adults) had their photo made with jolly old Santa.

Held as an event to start off the Christmas season, the parade was considered to be a great success by the many, many people and organizations that worked so hard to bring it all together. Shortly after the parade ended, there was already talk of doing it again - next year!

Counties To Form Rural Rail District

Knox County and three other counties including Foard, Fisher, and Stonewall have decided to form a rural railroad district in hopes of keeping the T&O line in operation.

The Pennsylvania-based T&O, which has connections to a scrap company, has asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to let it abandon the line--something that would hurt farmers, grainelevators, and other shippers.

Charlie Bell of Foard County said passage of the North American Free Trade Agreement could make the rail line, a part of the old Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway, an important link in north-south trade.

The line's special heavy-duty rails make it especially inviting for scrapping by operators who can't make the line profitable. Several have tried and failed over the years, mainly because of the seasonal nature of its main commodity - wheat.

But, Bell said, the heavy rails, in light of NAFTA, make the line an ideal part of the transportation systems that officials believe will spring up as trade increases among Canada, the United States, and Mexico.

Officials from each of the counties will meet at 10:00 a.m. on December 15 in the Crowell Activity Center to draw up the rail district's bylaws and decide what steps to take next to save the line.

He acknowledged that officials still have more questions than answers.

Letters From Our Readers

Dear Dave, Stacy and Crew: We were impressed !!! Knox City really did themselves proud in the Chamber of Commerce Holiday Parade this year. Not only was it the biggest but the best organized ever. We know, from first hand experience, the hard work and number of hours that had to go in to an effort that would have made much larger cities proud. Roger and Rita, we take our hats off to you. We were greatly impressed! Everywhere we looked we saw efforts of careful planning and hard work by you, Chamber members, the fire, police and sheriff's departments, organizations and businesses. Dave Thompson seemed to be everywhere double checking and his MCing was fantastic. The crowds were big, the mood festive. Thank you so very much for letting us share in your day. We consider it an honor and once in a lifetime experience. Seeing and greeting so many old friends was icing on the cake.

Sincerely,
/s/ Bob and Joyce

THANK YOU

We want each one of you who helped in any way or participated in our Christmas Parade to know how much we thank you.

You all were wonderful and the parade would not have been what it was without your help.

Thanks!

Rita and Roger Rosencranz

The Knox City Chamber of Commerce extends a warm Thank You to everyone in our community who helped in so many ways with both the Merry Christmas Pageant and the Christmas Parade. Without your help, the events would not have been the success they were. With the willing help of so many, both events served as a platform to reflect a special gift during this holiday season, the gift of old fashioned pride in the community we live in.

KC Circle Club Meets November 9 In Kight Home

By Charlotte Cragar
Club Reporter

The club met at the home of LaNell Kight with Niki Collins as co-hostess on November 9, 1993.

Rita Rosencranz, president, called the business meeting to order. Roll call was answered by recommending a food habit my family needs to change. Ramona Helms gave the financial report and read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Marie Darr gave the council report. The County Christmas Party for all county club members is to be held December 6 at 10:00 a.m. at the courthouse in Benjamin. Those attending should bring a Christmas tree ornament to exchange and a covered dish.

The nominating committee presented recommendations for club officers for 1994. The club voted to accept the nominations. The 1994 officers will be President, Rita Rosencranz; Vice-President, Pam Mongrain; Secretary-Treasurer, Julie Schur; Reporter, Charlotte Cragar; Council Delegate, Ramona Helms; Courtesy Chairman, Lisa Harrington; and Birthday Chairman, Betsy Allen.

Donations of $100 each will be given to the following organizations: PTO for playground equipment, Knox County Hospital Auxiliary, Knox County Aging Center and Merchants Park for a bench.

Pam Mongrain agreed to be chairman of the committee for the Christmas parade float. The entry fee for each float is a toy. The club will provide one toy and each member is encouraged to bring a toy for the parade or leave it in the box downtown prior to the parade.

The program was presented by Eileen Rolo on breast cancer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Marie Darr with Pam Mongrain as co-hostess. The meeting will start at 6 p.m. instead of 7 p.m. on December 14. There will be no business meeting. Each person attending is asked to bring a favorite party food and a Christmas tree ornament to exchange. A tour of homes is planned.

In order for a member to be listed in the 1994 county yearbook, dues of $4.00 must be paid no later than December 14 to Ramona Helms. If a member wants a copy of the yearbook, the cost is $2.50. Those participating in the "Birthday Fund" would owe an additional $12.00.

Anyone interested in attending a meeting or needing more information on any activity should contact Rita Rosencranz, president.
