"I'M THE BOSS.....ANY QUESTIONS?" is the message on Billy Young's apron, but his wife, Pat Young seems to be geeting a big smile at that suggestion! Actually, all these fine folks from the Knox City Chamber Of Commerce were on hand to help both Billy and Pat Young celebrate the grand opening of B & P Bar-B-Q last Wednesday. # B & P Bar-B-Q Celebrates Tremendous Grand Opening

B & P Bar-B-Q, Knox City's newest eating establishment, celebrated their grand opening last Wednesday and the opening day crowd was 'tremendous.'

Members of the Knox City Chamber of Commerce were on hand for the grand opening celebration, officially cutting a ribbon to mark the end of many months of construction and preparation.

So many customers showed up for opening day, some reported waiting almost an hour for their meal. Many compliments were heard, and quite a few of those in attendance were pleased with the renovation of what used to be a drive-in hamburger stand many years ago. Abandoned and in a bad state of disrepair for many years, the facility looks brand new and includes future plans for an even bigger dining and meeting

Owned and operated by Billy and Pat Young, B & P is located on the south edge of Knox City, at 709 South Central. Serving a variety of bar-b-q and other fine foods, the establishment will be open six days a week. Billy Young will also cater meals for groups and parties.

A lot of help was on hand to help with the opening day crowd, several youth from the community and members of the Youngs family and others from their church family were on hand to help out. Pat Young has indicated that she would like to help create jobs for area youth, this is the second business that the Youngs have opened in Knox City in the last several months. Pat's Hats and Accessories in the downtown area was also opened several months ago by Billy and Pat

Knox County Judge David N. Perdue declared that a state of emergency exists in Knox County due to the extreme potential for large and destructive

Judge Perdue issued his second emergency order within two months, effective immediately, which prohibits any open burning in the unincorporated areas of Knox County except the burning of combustible material in approved enclosures, such as trash barrels and charcoal grills which are designed to contain all flames and embers.

Dry conditions and the lack of significant rainfall still exist. Local fire department officials, the National Weather Service and Texas Forest Service personnel advise that there is no present forecast for improving conditions.

The order signed by Judge Perdue provides that repeated or flagrant violations of the order shall constitute a misdemeanor, and that any peace officer of the State of Texas may enforce the order in the venue of Knox County.

Single Vehicle Rollover Injures 1 Adult, 4 Youth

Under Age Drinking Involved In Near Fatal Wreck

Just after midnight on Sunday morning, January 25, five persons were injured when the vehicle they were riding in left highway 222 between Knox City and Munday and rolled over in a single vehicle accident. Those involved and injured in the accident included one adult and four youth from the communities of both Knox City and Munday.

Reported to the 911 dispatcher at 12:16 on Sunday morning by two different callers using mobile or cellular telephones, emergency services personnel responded to the accident scene near the Gillispie Baptist Church with all four Knox County ambulances and officers from various law enforcement agencies.

According to Knox County Sheriff Mike Carlson, injuries at the scene ranged from "lumps, cuts and bruises to suspected bro-

Sometimes a picture is worth a thousand words. Look at the picture in the accident story above. There were five young kids in this vehicle, all drinking alcohol, all hurt, and apparently none of the parents knew where their kids were. Every time something like this happens, there comes next, a long list of complaints and excuses. I know that some kids are going to drink regardless of how close their parents try to watch over and protect them, but when a peace officer, realizing this, takes one of the "experimenters" home and the parent(s) jump all over the officer for "allowing" this kind of activity in our community, the same answer applies: STUPID! We all know that I'm not referring to just the kids who wind up in an accident, or taken to jail or worse. I get more complaints about young kids (10 and 12 years old) drinking beer while out at the Rhineland dances than I do about my deputies enforcing traffic laws. Is it our fault, as law enforcement officers, that this happens? Is it the fault of those hosting the dances? Is our job to accept this and play parent to the kids? If your answer is yes, the same answer applies: STUPID! Some parents have actually told me, face to face, that they know their kids are drinking, but it is okay because they know where they are! STUPID! Others have told me that they can't control their child, some are being raised in single-parent homes or by other family members such as grandparents, aunts, cousins, etc. The bottom line is that the child is

Sheriff Provides Parents With Excerpt From The Texas Criminal & Vehicle Handbook

Section 12.04. Rights, privileges, duties and power of parent.

Except as otherwise provided bu judicial order or by an affidavit of relinquishment of parental rights executed under Section 15.03 of this code, the parent of a child has the following rights, privileges, duties and powers:

(1) the right to have physical possession, to direct the moral and religious training, and to establish the legal domicile of the child; (2) the duty to care, control, protection, and reasonable discipline of the child; (3) the duty to support the child, including providing the child with clothing, food, shelter, medical care and education; (4) the duty, except when a guardian of the child's estate has been appointed, to manage the estate of the child, including a power as an agent of the child to act in relation to the child's estate if the child's action is required by a state, the United States, or a foreign government;

(5) the right to services and earnings of the child;

(6) the power to consent to marriage, to enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, and to medical, psychiatric, and surgical treatment;

(7) the power to represent the child in legal action and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the

(8) the power to receive and give receipt for payments for the support of the child and to hold or disburse any funds for the benefit

(9) the right to inherit from and through the child; and

(10) any other right, privilege, duty, or power existing between a parent and child by virtue of law.

that you can't discipline your child for fear of being "turned in to CPS", then call Child Protective Services yourself. I'm not the perfect parent, no one is, but my kids are my responsibility. I don't blame anyone else for any problems I may have. Child Protective Services deal with problems of abuse and/or neglect, parents deal with raising the child. Who has not at some time allowed a child to drive a vehicle before the child is licensed? Something as innocent, and sometimes necessary in our farming communities, as that has lead to "joy riders" - or sneaking the car out at night for "just a spin." Then we get complaints that we, the law enforcement, are the ones letting these kids drive around without a license. STU-PID! This is just my opinion. Parents better wake up to the fact that more and more laws are including the parent being responsible. Does it take writing the parent a citation for allowing an unlicensed driver to operate a motor vehicle before a parent starts to wake up? What happens when a child causes an accident and the parent gets sued? We all know how Law-Suit-Happy our society is becoming! Being written a citation seems to have more impact on a parent than the child getting as the car went off the roadway and rolled over. Sheriff Carlson stated, "the only reason there was not a fatality in this accident is because there were so many people wedged so tightly into the car, there was no room to fly around inside the car and sustain more injuries." The Sheriff went on to add that both the front windshield and back window were gone, and that "there could have been a lot of problems, much worse than they were."

Those involved in the accident included a 17 year old male, a 26 year old male, and three females aged between 14 and 15 years old. Sheriff Carlson said it appeared all the persons involved had been consuming alcoholic beverages, including the underage minors. Two of the injured, one male and one female were later flown by helicopter ambulance from the Knox County Hospital to larger medical facilities. As of press deadline on Tuesday afternoon, all those injured in the accident were recovering from injuries that were not as bad as initially sus-hurt does! STUPID! Law enforcement personnel don't "allow" kids to drink, or drive without a license, and the reputation hanging over the Rhineland dance is not caused by those hosting the dance! Problems are caused by irresponsible parents who either don't know or don't care what their kids are doing or with whom they do it with.

I know what I am saying will make some people upset. Good! Great! Maybe you'll get mad enough to prove me wrong! Good, get after it! Get angry enough to know where your kids are! Get angry enough to take control of the few problem ones that do get in trouble! Get angry enough to think about it!

Benjamin Lady Stangs Accomplish Rare Feat, Score Over 100 Points In High School Girls Basketball Game

Benjamin

Reaching the 100 point mark is very rarely accomplished in high school girls basketball, however the Benjamin Lady Stangs topped that mark when they routed the Harrold Lady Homets 101-38 last Friday night in their first round of district action.

Senior Tacy Condron and Freshman Lacy Carver led the Lady Stangs with 29 points each while teammates Michele Conner scored 18 points, Cathy Rainwater scored 14 points and Audra Neal scored 11 points.

Suffering from injuries, the Lady Stangs are overcoming a lot of adversities this season. The team has already lost two starters to knee injuries. Juniors Rachel Duke and Julie Welch have been sidelined with knee problems, forcing the Lady Stangs into competition with a total of only five players.

Dominating Harrold with a full court press, Benjamin racked up 32 steals for the night while hitting 53% of their shots. They also dominated the boards with a combined total of 42 rebounds.

The most remarkable aspect of the game is that Benjamin lost Junior Audra Neal to fouls after just 2 minutes into the third quarter. With just four players left on the court, Benjamin still outscored Harrold 32-15 in the fourth quar-

Proud parents of the girls are: Tacy - Pete and Marsha Condron, Cathy - Max and Mary Rainwater, Michele - Steve Conner and Janet Reed, Lacy - Craig and Susan Carver, and Audra - Larry and Gay Neal.

Coaching the Benjamin Lady Stangs is Scott Whitman.

By Audie Johnston

"By Any Other Name - I got married in the summer. When I returned to teaching in September, I informed my first-graders, most of whom I had taught in kindergarten, that they were now to call me Mrs. Dundas rather than Miss Dolan. That afternoon, the mother of one of my pupils asked her daughter her teacher's name. "She says her name is Mrs. Dundas," the child replied. "But she sure looks like Miss Dolan to me."

Alzheimer's Disease is the nation's third most costly malady, according to a Univ. of Southern Cal. economist. The most expensive diseases are heart disease and cancer. Average costs for an Alzheimer's victim are $33,000 to $35,000 a year.

The Social Security Adm. will cut about 5000 jobs in the next five years as part of the government's efforts to trim costs. During the 80s, Social Security eliminated about 17,000 positions.

A few of the Baptist Church members met last Friday night at the church for a game of "chicken foot". We really enjoyed a good meal and lots of playing and laughing. Those attending were Bro. George and Gena Yarger, Delbert and Norma Hayes, Veeta Reid, Vivian Hendrix, Betty Poe, Leonia

"After a number of years of being a single mother, a friend of ours decided to marry again. She told her young son about her plans, saying that after the wedding her name would no longer be the same. She explained that if Greg wanted, he could also change his name. Mulling this over for a few minutes, Greg replied that he would like to change his name - - - to Clark Kent."

Benjamin News

Well, we have had pre-super bowl, super-bowl and post superbowl that I wonder what's gonna be on TV and in the papers here in aday or so. It was all very interesting - - the game was good and so for the most part, I think most everyone is pretty well pleased with it all. We had good high school basketball games here last week. Both boys and girls defeated Northside and Harrold and so far are undefeated in district. Only three more games left in regular season play, both away this week and on Tuesday of next week but back home on Friday, the 9th of February, for the last one. Try to see at least one of these games. The kids are doing well.

Sympathy goes to Charles and Joy Jones, Myrtle Shaw and Bill and Pearl Ryder and family today. Edwin Jones passed away on Wednesday night after health problems for a while. He was Charles and Myrtle's brother and Bill's brother-in-law. His funeral was Saturday in Gilmer. Those mentioned attended the funeral as did Judie Whitten and Sue Oxford of Knox City.

Most of the ailing of the community are making progress toward better health. Lewis Lyles is much improved and the dialysis treatment seems to be helping Leroy West. Ruth Ressel spent a couple of nights in the hospital last week due to a reaction to medication but she's feeling much

Bud Clower is back from Houston and feeling pretty well and if all goes well does not have to go back to Houston for a good while and we do hope and pray that all does go well. David Clower has his stitches out from his surgery after breaking his arm and will go back in early February to get the pins out so he's making progress

Dickie Lloyd has had a lot of respiratory trouble but is feeling better. Still avoiding people as much as possible because she doesn't want anyone else to get

Just keep all these folks in your prayers.

Rose Ellen and Daniel Albus of Lubbock visited last weekend with her brother and his wife, Don and Louise Hertel and with her mom, Nora Hertel in Leisure Lodge in Munday. Mrs. Hertel seems to be having some pretty good days now.

News is scarce this week. We have begun work on Homecoming and in the next few weeks you may be called on to lend your services to help the one in '96 be succesful.

Also good luck to Benjamin kids who will be showing their livestock at Fort Worth this week. See you next week!

BILL'S HINESight ..... By High School Principal Bill Hines

At the breakfast table one morning a mother was talking to her son. He was not wanting to go to school on this particular day. "Mother I don't want to go to school," the son replied. "But Son, you have too," the mother said. "The teachers don't like me," the son whimpered. "Oh, sure they do," the mother replied. "The kids make fun of me," he continued. "It can't be that bad, surely some of them like you," she said. "No they don't, and I don't want to go." "Now son," she scolded, "You have to go, you are the principal."
