INDIANS GIRDING FOR BATTLE WITH STAMFORD SQUAD

Local Gridsters Expecting Hard Battle Friday With Battling Bulldogs

PLAY AT NIGHT

Encounter Friday Night To Mark Close of Football Season in Haskell

The end of the football season in Haskell, so far as conference games are concerned, will occur here Friday night when the Stamford Bulldogs, traditional rivals, invade the city for the annual grudge affair against the Indians.

Dope favors the local gridsters, but such dope, so say Richey and Mason, Haskell coaches, may be knocked into a cocked hat unless each Indian warrior gives everything he has against the smarming Bulldogs, who have never failed to play their best against Haskell.

Stamford was downed 7 to 6 by Anson last Friday, but Coach Richey believes the invaders will give his charges one of their hardest tilts, and the local mentor declares that the layoff his boys had last week did not help their cause to any great extent, as he fears that the boys may have become stale so far as a hustling and fighting attitude is concerned.

Terry, Stamford's hard-fighting quarterback, is expected to give the Haskell line many anxious moments if he displays the brilliance he has manifested throughout the season. He has demonstrated his quick thinking ability and has no parity so far as either right or left end is concerned.

FARMERS SHOULD PLAN FOR CREDIT NOW' GARNER SAYS

President of Houston Production Credit Corporation Points Out Reason

Foresighted farmers in all parts of Texas are anticipating their credit needs for the coming growing season and already are making arrangements with their local production credit associations for loans in 1935, according to reports received by Tully C. Garner, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston. The practice of making credit arrangements before the money actually is needed has many advantages to recommend it, Mr. Garner pointed out, and the associations would like as many farmers as possible to make their application prior to the crop production season.

Before making application to a production credit association the prospective borrower should analyze his 1935 plans carefully; how many acres are to be planted to cotton, how many to feed and other crops, how much labor will be necessary and how much money will be needed for tractor costs or feed for workstock. After he has done this, he should be able to estimate accurately how much money will be required and when he will need it.

By following this procedure, the applicant has no worry about where operating expenses are coming from or when he will get them. When he is ready to begin operations, all he has to do is ask for his check. By budgeting his loan, the borrower affects interest savings that are sometimes surprising to those who have not used production credit before. Interest, which now is five per cent, is paid on each installment only for the time the borrower has use of the money, making a whole season's financing available at very low cost.

Evans Gholston Wins Roping Event

Out of a field of sixteen ropers, Evans Gholston won first money in the calf roping contest held here Monday. His time was checked at exactly nineteen seconds. Lee Smith finished second, time twenty-two and one-half seconds, while W. A. Pitcock and Burch Wilcox pulled down third money in a tie with a time of twenty-seven seconds.

In a special contest calling for the roping three different calves, John Selman bested C. S. (Dude) Gay. Selman's time was 28-27-34, while Gay was timed 25-41 for his first two entries, but he failed to down his third calf.

GOVERNMENT IS PURCHASING COWS

County Stock-Raisers May Dispose of 500 Head; Must Be Cows

Purchase of 500 cows in Haskell county under the drought measure has been sanctioned by the government and buying will begin next week, according to Michael Watson, Contracts are now being signed. Only two-year-olds and up will be purchased, said Watson, on account of the fact that calves will bring much more money on an open market and also because of the fact that cows will consume more feed. Stock raisers who wish to dispose of cows must sign contracts, even though they signed when cattle were being bought here several weeks ago.

Previously, 3886 head of cattle had been purchased in Haskell county, which brought $45,584 into local farmer's pockets, and it is estimated that at least 5000 head were disposed of individually. At least 1000 of those taken under the wing of the government were condemned.

Haskell Gin Is Furnished Data

The Harrison and Gilstrap Gin of Haskell, and Farmers Cooperative Gin, Rochester, which cooperate with the Dallas office of the United States Department of Agriculture, Division of Cotton Marketing are furnished with the grade and staple of each bale of cotton ginned at their gin, and in addition the weekly cotton report showing the quality of the entire State production. Other representative ginners over the State also have their samples classed by the Government and upon all of these the State report is compiled. This report furthermore shows the class of cotton grown in the different soil areas of the State.

Through this bale by bale classing service, which also shows preparation or quality of ginning, ginners are able to give their patrons a better job of ginning; they are also able to advise their patrons what varieties of cotton grown locally are proving most successful in producing a better staple. Thus, farmers trying to improve their cotton are aided by having a reliable source of information on which to base their seed selections. In this manner, farmers can determine whether or not their selection is the most profitable variety to grow on their individual farms. Similarly, they which has proved itself on the soil in question. The ginners and farmers are further benefited by having the Government classification of each bale when they wish to sell their cotton, which is helpful in obtaining a price more nearly in line with the actual value of their product. Such is not always the case when they sell with no knowledge of the class of their cotton.

The local report, as compared to the State report, is summarized as follows:

GRADE	Haskell Co.	State
WHITTE AND EXTRA WHITTE	96	6%
Good Middling	23.1	23.1
Strict Middling	70.3	44.1
Middling	9.9	15.4
Strict Low and Low Middling	4	4.5
Below Low Middling	4	1
SPOTTED
Strict Middling and above	10.1	10.1

These weekly State reports will be mailed throughout the ginning season to the United States Department of Agriculture, Box 1306, Dallas, Tex.

GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN A 'FRIEND' TO HASKELL COUNTY

Figures Show Approximately $534,274 Has Been Paid To Farmers in 1934

RESULT OF AAA

Plight of Farmers in County Would Have Been Serious Without Such Aid

Grumbles may be heard from a few Haskell county farmers relative to the manner in which the government has taken charge of their affairs, but very few votes will be cast against the results of the AAA program since every farmer realizes what might have happened since the drought struck this county with such devastating effect. Only about 9,000 bales of cotton will be ginned this year in comparison with 55,000 in 1933.

A total of $534,274 has already been sent into Haskell county by the government, not counting any parity payments, on cotton, corn-hog and drought-cattle contracts, according to figures now on file in the county agent's office. Farmers received approximately $500,000 in benefit payments last year in the plow-up campaign.

The year's totals will be further augmented by parity payments on cotton and through the sale of more cattle, as a special buying of cows to the number of 500 head will be started next week.

Lack of rainfall in 1934 has prevented Haskell county from enjoying what should have been one of the most prosperous years in its history. Government payments, combined with money which could have been realized if this county could have raised its 35,000 bale allotment, would have enabled most farmers to look at the world through the often mentioned "rose colored glasses."

A light shower in Haskell Wednesday night brought the total rainfall for the year here to exactly 11.56 inches, which is about ten inches less than the fall in ordinary years.

1933 and 1934 Benefit Payments
Benefit payments of 1933 plow-up acres, $500,000.00; Totals of rental payments 1934 Reduction A, $285,000.00; First distribution of Option Cotton Loan (1933) ($20 per bale), $86,600.00; Second distribution of 1933 Option Cotton Loan, $15,000.00; Parity payment 1934-35 Reduction A, $85,000.00; Corn-Hog Contract payments, $20,000.00; Drought cattle benefits, $42,584.00. Total benefit payments 1934, $534,274.00.

Hamiln Has Fire Loss of $65,000

HAMLIN, Tex.—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the $65,000 brick structure of the Central Nazarene College here Saturday night. The blaze was discovered at about eight o'clock p. m.

Only a small portion of the loss is covered by insurance, according to Rev. J. H. Whitaker, pastor, who returned Saturday night from the annual church conference at Wellington. About $4,000 in debt was still against the building and something like that sum in insurance was carried as protection for the loan.

The school, completed in 1912, was located about one mile south of the Hamlin limits, in the Nazarene addition. It was operated as a junior college until about four years ago, and had since served as a meeting place for the local congregation.

Paposes Swamped 30 to 0 By Hamlin Here Saturday

In a one-sided football game here Friday morning between the "B" teams of Hamlin and Haskell, the local entry was thoroughly scalped 30 to 0.

Ewing, sorrel-topped back of the young Pied Pipers, was the outstanding figure of the game by reason of his passing ability. The paposes had passes thrown around them, over them and through them throughout the game.

Tidwell, Papoose safety, used his fast-stepping feet on several occasions to get near Hamlin's goal, but "adventures and misadventures" on the part of his teammates nullified his efforts.

TOTAL $12,000 OF PAYMENT CHECKS IN

Only Part of Rental Cotton Checks Received by R. H. Maxwell Tuesday

Two hundred and forty-eight rental checks, amounting to $12,636.47, were received here Tuesday by R. H. Maxwell, county agent, as part of the second payment.

No parity payments have been received, although expected soon. Maxwell declared Wednesday that all farmers expecting checks should wait until notified by his office, before making a trip here. When the checks are ready to be given out, each farmer will be notified, he added, as the rumors claiming that he has all checks is unfounded.

STONEWALL VOTES FOR BOND ISSUE

Voters Cast Almost Two-to-One Majority for $50,000 Highway Issue Saturday

ASPERMONT—Declaring by ballot in no uncertain terms their desire for the $50,000 highway bond issue, Stonewall county voters pushed the measure through here Saturday by an almost two to one majority.

The bond issue was voted to buy approximately 80 miles of right of way for state designated highways 18 and 120. No. 18 will cross the county, connecting Sagerton to Jayton and filling a gap in the route to Lubbock. Right of way from the county line to Old Glory, will be purchased for No. 120, filling in a gap between Rule in Haskell county and the Stonewall county seat.

Harmony Club.

The club has started its twenty-seventh year's work, with much enthusiasm.

The way in which our new president, Mrs. Tommy Boone Hawkins, and her corps of officers are moving off with the work is very gratifying.

Our club stands for better music in the home, church, school and community and we are very desirous of the hearty co-operation of our town and community in making this desire a success.

On November 7th Mrs. B. M. Whiteaker directed an interesting program on "Early Nineteenth Century Composers." The members answered to roll call with their favorite folk song.

Mrs. R. L. Harrison gave a talk on Early Song Writers and Mrs. Carl Arbuckle gave a talk on the Works of Stephen C. Foster and L. M. Gottschalk. It is very interesting to study the lives of our early American composers and learn of their many hardships and the things they endured to lay the foundation on which the better music of our land is building on today.

Mrs. Kenneth Thornton sang, "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming," by Stephen C. Foster.

Mrs. O. E. Patterson played "The Last Hope," by Gottschalk.

The club closed the program by singing "Old Folks at Home," after which Mrs. Bert Welsh directed a rehearsal of the Christmas cantata, "The Christ Child," by C. B. Hawley.

The club will have a rehearsal of the cantata each Sunday afternoon at two-thirty at the Methodist church.

Mrs. J. M. Martin was hostess for the afternoon.

Reporter.

Appetizing Dishes Are Made From Autumn Vegetables; Menus Tasty

Old fashioned cooks are usually the ones to most appreciate the vegetables which come into the market plentifully at this season. Turnips, squash, carrots, parsnips, eggplant, cabbage and beets may not appeal for their sophistication, but certainly flavor and low cost make them valuable assets to the menu maker. Look about at the vegetable stands before planning the week's menus, and consider these vegetables as important items in your plans.

Then remember that meat organs such as liver, heart, tongue, tripe and the kidneys are usually available at this season at slightly lower prices; and smoked meats such as ham and bacon are also plentiful. Poultry, especially turkey is not necessarily limited to the holiday season, so indulge the family in a roast bird, either turkey, chicken or duck some Sunday afternoon.

At the fish market include smoked fish, oysters, whitefish, shad, and fresh salmon and cod steaks in your menu plans; if you have no fish market, remember the grocer carries excellent canned fish, and some grocers carry the freshly frozen sea food and fish which are delicious, and no different in flavor from fresh unfrozen fish.

Here are some seasonal recipes from my best files; dishes I prepare for my own family and which are favorites wherever they have been tried.

Baked Ham With Apricots

This is a casserole or one-dish meal which the family will enjoy. Have ready one and one-half pounds sliced ham, cut about one inch thick; one tablespoon brown sugar; one-half teaspoon cinnamon; one cup canned apricots; one fourth cup canned apricot juice; six potatoes.

Remove the skin from the ham, lay in a two quart casserole, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon; arrange the canned apricots over the top and pour in the apricot juice. Arrange the pared potatoes around sides. Brush potatoes with melted butter and sprinkle with salt. Cover and bake for one hour, at 350 degrees, or moderate oven.

Charlestown Sweet Potatoes

Six sweet potatoes; one half or orange; one teaspoon salt; two tablespoons butter; one third cup of brown sugar; one half cup water. Arrange layers of sliced sweet potatoes and unpeeled orange in one and one-half quart casserole which has been rubbed with butter. Dot with butter, sprinkle with sugar. Place slices of unpeeled orange over the top. Add water and bake uncovered in a moderate oven, 350 degrees until the potatoes are tender; about twenty-five minutes.

Baked Squash

Two-pound Hubbard squash; salt; cinnamon; butter. Wash and cut the squash into pieces for individual serving. Sprinkle each with salt

Chicken Noodle Loaf

Two quarts boiling water with one and one half teaspoons salt in it; an eight ounce package of fine noodles; three cups diced, cooked chicken (pack down when measuring); one teaspoon onion juice; one tablespoon diced green pepper; one tablespoon diced canned pimiento; one tablespoon chopped parsley; one half teaspoon salt; one cup of chicken broth; one half cup cream; two eggs well beaten; small can of sliced pineapple; three tablespoons butter.

Drop the noodles into salted boiling water and cook twenty minutes. Put chicken, onion juice, green pepper, pimiento, parsley and salt into mixing bowl. Add broth, cream, eggs and mix well. Drain cooked noodles in a colander, then combine with the chicken mixture.

Line the bottom of a one and three-fourths quart mold with waxed paper and rub the sides with shortening. Fill the mold with the mixture. Enough will be left to fill five individual molds (chicken form if possible). Set the round mold in a pan of hot water and bake forty-five minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees. Place the little molds in a pan without water and bake in the same oven. Turn the large mold out on a platter unmold three little chicks and arrange on top of round mold, garnish with parsley.

Have slices of pineapple sauted in butter to rich brown. Arrange around mold, using the two other little chick molds at ends. Delicious with a sauce of cream gravy flavored with minced pimiento.

COUGH AND SIDACHE

Mrs. Lola Riess of Route 9, North Little Rock, Ark., said: "I weighed only 96 pounds, coughed continually, was not able to sleep, my sides ached and I felt so weak. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and gained strength quickly. Then my cough cleared up and I was able to sleep again. I felt stronger and better in every way." New size, tablets 50c, liquid $1.00. Large size, tabs. or liquid, $1.35. "We Do Our Part."

Appetizing Dishes Are Made From Autumn Vegetables; Menus Tasty

Old fashioned cooks are usually the ones to most appreciate the vegetables which come into the market plentifully at this season. Turnips, squash, carrots, parsnips, eggplant, cabbage and beets may not appeal for their sophistication, but certainly flavor and low cost make them valuable assets to the menu maker. Look about at the vegetable stands before planning the week's menus, and consider these vegetables as important items in your plans.

Then remember that meat organs such as liver, heart, tongue, tripe and the kidneys are usually available at this season at slightly lower prices; and smoked meats such as ham and bacon are also plentiful. Poultry, especially turkey is not necessarily limited to the holiday season, so indulge the family in a roast bird, either turkey, chicken or duck some Sunday afternoon.

At the fish market include smoked fish, oysters, whitefish, shad, and fresh salmon and cod steaks in your menu plans; if you have no fish market, remember the grocer carries excellent canned fish, and some grocers carry the freshly frozen sea food and fish which are delicious, and no different in flavor from fresh unfrozen fish.

Here are some seasonal recipes from my best files; dishes I prepare for my own family and which are favorites wherever they have been tried.

Baked Ham With Apricots

This is a casserole or one-dish meal which the family will enjoy. Have ready one and one-half pounds sliced ham, cut about one inch thick; one tablespoon brown sugar; one-half teaspoon cinnamon; one cup canned apricots; one fourth cup canned apricot juice; six potatoes.

Remove the skin from the ham, lay in a two quart casserole, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon; arrange the canned apricots over the top and pour in the apricot juice. Arrange the pared potatoes around sides. Brush potatoes with melted butter and sprinkle with salt. Cover and bake for one hour, at 350 degrees, or moderate oven.

Charlestown Sweet Potatoes

Six sweet potatoes; one half or orange; one teaspoon salt; two tablespoons butter; one third cup of brown sugar; one half cup water. Arrange layers of sliced sweet potatoes and unpeeled orange in one and one-half quart casserole which has been rubbed with butter. Dot with butter, sprinkle with sugar. Place slices of unpeeled orange over the top. Add water and bake uncovered in a moderate oven, 350 degrees until the potatoes are tender; about twenty-five minutes.

Baked Squash

Two-pound Hubbard squash; salt; cinnamon; butter. Wash and cut the squash into pieces for individual serving. Sprinkle each with salt

Chicken Noodle Loaf

Two quarts boiling water with one and one half teaspoons salt in it; an eight ounce package of fine noodles; three cups diced, cooked chicken (pack down when measuring); one teaspoon onion juice; one tablespoon diced green pepper; one tablespoon diced canned pimiento; one tablespoon chopped parsley; one half teaspoon salt; one cup of chicken broth; one half cup cream; two eggs well beaten; small can of sliced pineapple; three tablespoons butter.

Drop the noodles into salted boiling water and cook twenty minutes. Put chicken, onion juice, green pepper, pimiento, parsley and salt into mixing bowl. Add broth, cream, eggs and mix well. Drain cooked noodles in a colander, then combine with the chicken mixture.

Line the bottom of a one and three-fourths quart mold with waxed paper and rub the sides with shortening. Fill the mold with the mixture. Enough will be left to fill five individual molds (chicken form if possible). Set the round mold in a pan of hot water and bake forty-five minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees. Place the little molds in a pan without water and bake in the same oven. Turn the large mold out on a platter unmold three little chicks and arrange on top of round mold, garnish with parsley.

Have slices of pineapple sauted in butter to rich brown. Arrange around mold, using the two other little chick molds at ends. Delicious with a sauce of cream gravy flavored with minced pimiento.

COUGH AND SIDACHE

Mrs. Lola Riess of Route 9, North Little Rock, Ark., said: "I weighed only 96 pounds, coughed continually, was not able to sleep, my sides ached and I felt so weak. mixture. Add one tablespoon fat to the same pan, then stir in the flour and mix until smooth; gradually add the lima bean mixture, stirring constantly. Cook ten minutes over hot water. Turn into a flat pan and spread three fourths of an inch thick. Cool, and when firm cut with a biscuit cutter, dip in beaten egg and crumbs and fry in deep hot fat. Serve with whipped sour cream. Delicious.

CHOCOLATE NUT SAUCE

Two squares chocolate; one cup water; two cups sugar; one half cup toasted or salted Brazil nuts, sliced; one fourth teaspoon of salt; two teaspoons vanilla or one teaspoon essence of mint; two tablespoons butter.

Cut chocolate into five or six pieces and stir over direct heat with the water until smooth and thick. Add sugar and salt and stir until dissolved. Boil three minutes, add vanilla or mint and butter and serve hot. Sprinkle nuts over sauce after the ice cream is served.

Sweet Potato Cutlets

Four to five sweet potatoes; one quarter cup butter; salt, pepper; nutmeg; one half cup Brazil nuts; three quarter cup of crushed Brazil nuts; macaroni sticks.

Scrub potatoes and boil in salted water until tender. Peel. Put thru ricer and beat in butter seasonings and cut Brazil nuts. Form into cutlet shapes and roll in crushed Brazil nuts. Put in three-inch stick of macaroni in each cutlet for bone. Fry in deep fat (395 degrees F.), until brown on both sides.

and dabs of butter and a little cinnamon. Place in a casserole, cover bottom with a very little water. Cover tightly, set in moderate oven, 350 degrees, for thirty-five minutes to three quarters of an hour.

Here's her own account of how Mrs. T. W. Hardin, of Greer, S. I felt better after I took my first bottle, so kept on taking it as I felt such a need of strength, and it helped me so much."

Thousands of women testify Cardul benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Support Basketball

Basketball practice started with about twenty-five or more reporting, each one making the team and each one trying to get glory for his part to get glory for the team. The students should be proud of these girls—just as proud as the boys of their football players. We wonder if basketball is too much for granted? The girls put as much into it as the boys. They never miss a game. They are in the end with the team that a football player would be. Why, our girls' basketball team last year was county champion and I'll wager you are not far from it; probably you are aware of all the games. A football boy, remembering the hope of a sweater; for years they have been token of their success. A girl playing basketball, however, gets back only the pleasure and sportsmanship of the game. Basing on this, we should have a team this year, for the girls are all they have into the game.

Personals

We have missed Dorothy Herren from school recently.
Ed Bledsoe went to Spur last week end.
Jack and John Kimbrough spent the past week-end in Dallas, where they saw the Aggie-S. M. U. game. We can remember what a good Indian Bill was, so we know it wasn't his fault that the Aggie lost.
Mrs. John O. Stewart of Spur visited with us last Monday. She is a former student and we remember her as Miss Mildred Grissom.
Miss Donna Davis, accompanied by her mother, spent Sunday in Clyde, visiting friends.
Annie Barnett was absent from school Monday because of illness.
We are glad to have Eva Belle Pippen back in school after several days' absence.
Ava Grindstaff spent the past week end in Fort Worth.

Sophs Know-It-All

Dear Know-It-All:
I believe I have seen Mr. Sullivan's face some where before. Do you think this possible?
Puzzled,

Dear Odell:
Maybe you have. I hear he usually wears it.

Dear Know-It-All:
Where did Mr. Mason play football?
Interested,
Ruth Welsh.

Dear Ruth:
On a football field.

Dear Know-It-All:
What is James Cassie's address?
Inquiringly,
Hazel Foote.

Dear Hazel:
Your guess should be as good as mine.

Future Farmers Officers Installed

Initiation of the Future Farmer officers was held at the Haskell High School Thursday night. Those initiated were Louis Hamilton, Woodrow Roberts, Fred Gilliam, R. C. Couch, Helen Atchison and Artie Pippen.
The old members who carried them through the ceremony were Bob Gilliam, Garvin Foote, Clovis Norton, Fred Sanders, and Mr. H. T. Sullivan.
This initiation ceremony was enjoyed very much—especially by the old members; since the initiation of this organization is a secret order the procedure will not be printed.

Senior "Flight"

Well, at last the evening for the Seniors' buffet supper arrived, and about forty members of the class were ushered into the dining room of the Home Economic department by the class president, Carl Maples, Jr. Carl was given the "papa chair", and the rest of us found our places at the tables marked by place cards in the form of small airplanes—made of sticks of candy and chewing gum, and featuring the class colors of pink and silver.

Did we have a good time? Ask somebody else—I still have a headache; between you and me and the washday, I believe it was that coffee. Covell, they are called "starevith" and "tsarevith"—and congratulations on your extemporaneous speech.
We were showered under by the overflow of talent presented from the midst of our Senior class—by Fred, Woodrow, Mary, and Winston, Marjorie, Lyndell, Lorene, and the quartet. Oh, that quartet! And we'll agree that the "Half-Wits" seemed wholly half-witted.
What did you think of that airplane idea? "Not so hot," did you say? Why, I thought it was swell; I was a pilot, you know.
For the benefit of under classmen who will some day be "throwing" senior parties, we include here a little of the advice that we are giving certain of our members: To John E., "Don't eat over five sandwiches;" to Woody Dishong, "Dine with one—dance with another;" to Bill W., "Watch that sugar. I got three lumps;" to Yours Truly, "Go light on the fritos;" to Covell, "Be careful; I got fooled;" to Carl, "Don't think you are too good for Haskell girls like Howard;" and to Hugh and Lorene, "Take a longer flight next time, even if you are so handsome and so pretty."
Well, we worked out that plan, and you'll be hearing more about it in the future, from now until Christmas. More details next week.
Class Reporter.

Junior Party

The Juniors were entertained last Friday night at the library with Mrs. R. C. Couch as hostess and Miss Davis assisting hostess. We think that it is the best party we have ever had in our school history. Forty-two was the chief diversion of the evening, but we enjoyed Anna Belle's specials at the piano also. A salad plate was served to the following:

Members of the Sophomore class were entertained at the home of Mayre Lena Tubbs, Friday night. After a number of enjoyable games, we went on a scavenger hunt. A list of twenty articles was given to each group of four who started hunting. An hour was given for the limited time for the hunt, but in about twenty minutes one group was back with every article on the list. Then all the groups came strolling in. And what a dump ground that yard turned out to be! Dogs and cats were running around trying to locate themselves, while tin cans, papers, old shoes and many other articles were stacked in piles, but later taken away. We only hope that Mayre Lena doesn't have a hard time trying to keep the dogs and cats out of the house.
A bonfire was built where we roasted wieners, with which we had delicious buns and cookies. Those enjoying the social were:
Lillie Maud and Thomas Martin, Audrey Lee Guinn, Albert and Annie Barnett, Helen Mabel Baldwin, Catherine Wair, Mary Eleanor Diggs, Geraldine, Janice, Beverly, Margaret, James Roy, Earl, T. J. Watson, Woodrow, Jack, Sidney, Mary Frances, Winnie, Lottie Mae, Duffer, Muri, Louise Zahn, Mayre Lena, H. J. Elsie, and the class sponsor, Mrs. Young.

Freshman Party

Did we have fun Friday night or no! The Freshmen all gathered at Mrs. Wimbish's home and then went to the show. There were about forty-four of us and we just want those who were not there to know that they surely did miss a good time. After the show we went over to Payne's Drug Store and got our refreshments of candy, ice cream, or some kind of a drink.
The Freshmen want to thank Mr. Leon for reserving enough seats for us at the show.

THE SECOND QUESTION A DOCTOR ASKS . . . .

Here is some information that has relieved whole families from Constipation

When anyone is "out of sorts" the doctor's first question is about the bowels. And the second, what is being taken to help them. Doctors are impatient, and expect you to use them. But they prefer a liquid laxative. Do you know why?

Doctors and hospitals use liquid laxatives because they've seen the damage sometimes done by highly concentrated drugs in the form of pills or tablets! They know that a properly made liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative) does not do this harm. And they use liquid laxatives to relieve the bowels, because the dose can be easily regulated.

What to Use
There is a preparation of fine herbs, senna, cascara, and senna which goes away with all need of harsh cathartics. The active senna in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is gentle enough for any adult, mild enough for any child. And there are other valuable ingredients in this medicinal syrup.

Syrup Pepsin will usually relieve a case of constipation overnight. If a further dose is necessary, you give a smaller dose, each time less, until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all.
If you have a youngster who

My husband, who is a druggist, first recommended Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to me. It has always helped me and made me feel better. I have used it as a laxative for the entire family for 22 years.
Mrs. M. McMaster, Peoria, Ill.

doesn't eat, doesn't gain, gets upset and bilious no matter how careful you are about the diet—don't resort to strong cathartics which may only make matters worse.

Make this Test!
If you are "not yourself" because of a constipated condition, don't blame it on your blood condition, or your age. Try the help of Syrup Pepsin until you are relieved and nature restores your regularity.

When your bowels continue to move regularly, comfortably and completely every day—you'll know why. You'll know how a good laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

YOUR HEALTH

By John W. Brown, M. D.
State Health Officer

AUSTIN, Texas.—"He who treats himself has a fool for a doctor." This motto might well be displayed in every home in the State, as many people indisposed jump at conclusions as to what is wrong with them, go to a drug store for a bottle of advertised medicine. For a time they feel exceedingly clever but later they may discover that instead of getting better, they have become worse. Eventually the physician is bound to be called, in some instances too late.

There is no desire on the part of the Texas State Department of Health to insinuate that all or the majority who use patent medicine to cure their ills, will suffer greatly by so doing. The point is that there is a sufficient number of self-doctors who pay a big penalty for their practice to place every one on guard against it.

The body is the most wonderful piece of mechanism in existence. To tamper with it in any particular without due professional knowledge is running a great risk. When one's car is not working properly, you do not take it to any one but a mechanic who knows how to repair cars. It is remarkable that a person thinks less of the service his body needs in comparison to his car. If one is sufficiently ill to feel the need of treatment, it should be sought in its professional form. Avoid self-doctoring.

Heavy Yield of Mustard-Spinach Despite Drouth

SAN ANGELO.—In spite of the drouth, Mrs. A. E. Lock of Tom Green county gathered enough Mustard-spinach (tender greens) from one 40 foot row to can 17 number two cans and use 50 pounds fresh, according to Miss Nette Schultz, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Lock not only served the greens boiled but used them for salad. She makes the salad by shredding the greens and pouring a hot dressing over them or by serving them with a dressing made of cream, vinegar, sugar salt and mustard.

Club Boy Finds Watermelons Profitable

BASTROP.—Harrell Hancock, 4-H club boy in the Oak Hill neighborhood in Bastrop county sold $99.85 worth of water melons from his 4-H club demonstration, according to the report of W. S. Millington, farm demonstration agent. Young Harrell also said that the vines were still producing and had a number of green melons from which he hoped to sell enough to swell his sales to more than $100.

LETTERS DELIVERED AFTER LONG DELAY

STEVENS POINT, Wis.—Two letters recently were delivered to their destinations 21 years after they were written.

Written by former County Clerk Algie Burns, now dead, they were found by painters behind a coat of paint in the County Clerk's office in the courthouse. William Gaebing, one of the addressees, has been dead 17 years. The letter was delivered to his son, Ed, who lives here.

TO THE FOOTBALL FANS OF HASKELL:

This is the last game of the season in Haskell, and although apparently has no bearing on the conference title, it is an important game in several respects. The Stamford game will be tougher than most fans expect, because those Bulldogs will fight, and it is desired that a large crowd attend. The school has had heavy expenses, in more ways than is supposed, because everything pertaining to night exhibitions cost, but if we give the game a large attendance Friday night, our lighting system will be in good shape financially. You'll get your money's worth by seeing a good game . . . cheering those Indians to victory. Then . . . on to Roscoe! Let's all attend the game Friday night.

Musical Notes
The Haskell Municipal Band played Sunday afternoon for an Armistice Day program given by the American Legion. Preceding the program the band gave a short concert using several war songs. We have a new book of peppy music for the football game next Friday night. This book has seventeen songs that every one will enjoy. We hear people say, "Get that old spirit and boost the Indians"—well, the band is going to boost the Indians with some NEW MUSIC!

FEEDING THE WORLD

As nearly as can be estimated, the population of the world reached 850 million in 1800, but during the next century it practically doubled, and is now about 1,750 million. When it is considered that it took the human race possibly half a million years to reach the 750 million mark and only 100 years to double that number, the fact is significant. Looking into the future one wonders what will happen to the population during the next century for it must be remembered that better observance of health rules and the advancement of science has helped lengthen life and if future wars can be averted, the increase in the world's population may reach alarming proportions before the turn of the next century.

That naturally brings up the question of how many people the earth can supply with food. So far, there is ample food in the world if it could be distributed where it is needed, but right now hundreds of thousands in the Near East, in Russia, in India, in China and other parts of the world are dying from starvation. During the past hundred years vast new areas of fertile land have been opened to cultivation, but famine still exists, partly through congestion of population and partly through lack of transportation, and it is likely always will exist until those problems are solved.

While this problem may not seriously affect America for many years to come, at the present rate of increase in population it will only be a question of time until the food situation will be a grave one for the entire world unless improved chemical means of sustaining life can be developed practically. Maybe the civic clubs of the distant future will be trying to devise ways to reduce the population of their cities instead of boosting for bigger towns.

PAYING RANSOM MONEY

When a person is kidnaped it is only natural that relatives should be willing to pay any amount they may be able to raise in order to protect their loved ones from probable harm and for safe return to the family. Kidnapers know this, and that is why they ply their nefarious trade, threatening harm or death to their captive if their ransom demands are not promptly met.

If it were made unlawful to make ransom payments and the making of them construed as "compounding a felony," it would remove the incentive to kidnaping. In a recent Canadian case the authorities stepped in and forbade the payment of ransom by the victim's relatives. When the kidnapers found that no money was forthcoming they turned their victim loose, not desiring to add the crime of murder when they knew there could be no profit in it.

At first glance it may appear a harsh procedure to prevent the release of a kidnap victim through payment of ransom, but it seems the only way to make this most atrocious of crimes unprofitable. Every time a ransom is paid it encourages other kidnapings because desperate criminals will always take a chance of beating the law when there is a probability of securing large sums of money as rewards for their crimes and in most American kidnaping cases the grief stricken relatives of the victims have made it easier for these criminals by beseeching police to keep hands off until their loved ones were released through ransom payment. Taking profit out of crime is the only effective way of stamping it out.

WORSE THAN WAR

Whatever else may happen during 1934, it is practically certain that more than 80,000 Americans will be killed and 750,000 will be injured in traffic accidents before the dawn of the new year. It is strange that the awful death toll of automobiles does not serve as a stern warning to drivers and pedestrians alike, but it does not seem to have much of an effect in making them more cautious. Many persons who worry about germs and other minor dangers will not hesitate when traveling the highways to take chances that are certain eventually to end in disaster.

Statistics show that three times as many casualties result from automobile accidents in a single year as were suffered by the American Expeditionary Forces during the entire World War. The war cost more lives, but the automobile is responsible for more injured.

Among the yearly automobile deaths are those of about 7,000 children of school age, the greatest number being between the ages of six and twelve years. The greatest number of accidents occur between 5 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and this may be attributed largely to the fact that fatigue is greatest at that time and neither the automobile driver nor the pedestrian is quite as alert as earlier in the day, or later at night. Drivers and pedestrians are about equally at fault in their responsibility for accidents, according to the best estimates available.

While the automobile has become an indispensable conveyance, it also has become a terrific instrument of death and as long as drivers and pedestrians remain deaf to warnings to be cautious there doesn't seem to be much that can be done about it.

The Stamford Game!

The Haskell Indians, rated as one of the best teams in District 13-B, will have an opportunity to demonstrate to a large crowd Friday just how good they may be, when they mingle with the snarling Stamford Bulldogs.

We believe Haskell should win, but... That's the question! Will those rampaging, yelling "second-half" warriors turn about face for once and start their stuff in the first half?

For the life of us, we can't see why the Tribe can't tear into things from the opening whistle as well as in the second-half, when, by all laws of gravity, they should begin to tire and not be fit to fight like they have been fighting in the latter stages of all games they have played this season.

And, again, for once, we would like to see Haskell's football representatives prance onto the field, get set at their positions and then start charge after charge that would leave the Bulldogs gasping, wondering who in the heck ever cut their tail off anyway.

We hope that every person in easy motoring distance of Haskell attends that Stamford-Haskell go Friday night. If you have seen football games before, be your own guest and attend. If you have never witnessed a football tussle, be there with bells on and receive thrill after thrill. Naturally, if you are a woman, and don't know the game, we'll help you find a good-looking man who can point out the various features, while, at the same time, he admires you. If you are of the male gender, you should have enough spunk to bring your own partner, without calling upon us to assist you.

"Men Working" read a sign on a Haskell street, but we only saw three men actually engaged in labor, while about two dozen others looked on.

Haskell is all right, declares one new arrival, but one almost needs a "blood-test" in order to be invited to a party.

On Monday, many Haskell stores were closed to celebrate the end of the war with Germany, but the only American flag we saw displayed was in front of a place operated by a man who was born beyond the Rhine.

Armistice Day. Radio stations blaring out patriotic airs by the score. Speakers vehemently denouncing war. Speakers vehemently explaining why we need to prepare for the next war. Blah! Blah! Blah! We weary armed conflicts and continue to engage in other "wars" every day. When we can treat our neighbor as well as we do ourselves — laugh instead of scowl; speak well of someone instead of indulging in vicious gossip; live our religion instead of just talking about it; try to be loving instead of cultivating hate—then, and only then, will we really outlaw wars involving nations.

A majority of the nations are now preparing for war, but trying, at the same time, to make their neighbors think they desire peace. Billions of words are spoken on "disarmament," but 1930-37 will witness most nations more heavily armed than in 1914. The airplane has changed the aspect of war, and the United States is no longer invulnerable, and if this country wishes to stay out of war, about the easiest way to do so is to fortify our coasts, keep our fleet in modern trim and maintain an air force equal to that of the best. Very few men walk up to a trained, and hard-hitting boxer, and deliberately pick a fight. We generally like to fight someone we think we can whip. And nations are made up of people who look on things the same way.

Loose Half Holiday Bid

CLEVELAND, O. — Cuyahoga county employees wanted a half holiday to go "X" their ballots in the Ohio primary. Chief Justice Homer G. ### Expression of Gratitude From Legionnaires

In behalf of the American Legion and all war veterans we extend to the Farmers and Merchants State Bank our thanks and gratitude for the expression of their thoughts and sentiments as used in their advertisement in the last issue of the Free Press. It is gratifying to know that some business men do not look upon the men who bore the brunt of conflict and wear the scars of battle as "raiders," "looters," "plunderers" and "robbers," but still hold the same sentiments and respect for them as they had in the days of 1917-18. With no thought other than to serve our country in peace as in war the American Legion was organized and is dedicated. We again thank you.—F. B. Reynolds, Post Commander; A. C. Chamberlain, Post Adjutant, Press Rogers Post No. 221.

COTTON ACREAGE CONTROL

(Semi-Weekly Farm News)

Many farmers will be surprised to learn that AAA officials are of the view that the Bankhead law will not be operative next season and that voluntary acreage control again will constitute the Government's efforts to keep up the price of cotton.

It is reported that those farmers, whom Nature favored last season by increasing their cotton yield above the allotted quota, now are opposed to the measure because they have to pay the 5c tax. Yet they, along with others, are said to form the army of growers who were reported to be 95 per cent for the Bankhead control bill at the time of its enactment, to keep them from overproducing. Contrariwise, farmers in drouth territory, who had little or no cotton to pick, are wondering how the bill helped them to overcome natural disadvantages. It all is but another example of man's puny attempts to cope with Mother Nature, at all times difficult and sometimes impossible.

It might as well be admitted that another campaign of acreage reduction, which Washington dispatches state the AAA officials are now outlining for 1935, holds the same dangers as the two efforts which have gone into cotton history. What is to keep farmers from increasing production when they make up their minds to till better and fertilize more intelligently wherever possible?

But there is still another side to the problem—that of losing our foreign markets for a large part of the Texas and Southwestern crop. Restricted crop production in the South and expanded acreage abroad must only lead to further complications, just as when, under Britain's Stevenson plan of rubber control, a ruinous competition was set up by Dutch and other competing interests. When the smoke had cleared away, the British rubber growers found the enemy holding a strategic line from which to this day he has not been driven.

Pioneer Gas Man Named President of Organization

L. B. Denning, of Dallas

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—National leadership of another Texan was recognized this week when the American Gas Association, convened here in 16th annual convention, elected L. B. Denning of Dallas, president of Lone Star Gas Co., vice-president of the international organization for 1935. Election to this position places the pioneer Texas natural gas man in line for president in 1936, according to precedent.

"The natural gas industry especially in the Southwest looks forward with courage despite its many problems. Its supreme aim is to deliver best possible service to customer," said Mr. Denning in accepting the election.

The American Gas Association represents one of the world's leading industries and is composed of artificial and natural gas distribution, transmission, production, and manufacturing companies in the United States and Canada. All previous heads of the association have been from the east and north, and Mr. Denning is the first to bring the office to the Southwest.

A pioneer and leader in the natural gas industry, Mr. Denning has been identified with Lone Star Gas Co. since 1909 when he organized the firm. He has served as president since 1915. It was under his direction that the company developed into the first extensive transmission system for serving small and widely separated towns in the Southwest.

Intensive Cultivation Produces More Cotton

GAIL.—"It pays to work your cotton land whether it rains or not," A. N. Surratt, Borden county farmer, told Ralph Howe, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Surratt has produced 1540 pounds of net lint from 12 acres of cotton and will get about one-half bale more from the same acreage. He summer fallowed his land and worked it four times before planting his certified Acala seed. He made the large yield in spite of the fact that less than 1-4 inch of rain was received on this crop from the time it was planted until it was harvested.

Our Customer Obligation

.. is to always supply a constant and dependable source of Electric Power in advance of immediate needs.

To do this, we have invested much capital in facilities and always kept a highly trained personnel to efficiently operate the properties. We have helped our customers obtain appliances of the highest quality in order that they may enjoy the greatest benefit from their electric service.

We have made rate reductions amounting to more than sixty per cent during recent years. We are supplying much more service to the average customer than in former times, and with the average customer bill much below that of former years.

We are doing away with the room count rate in the 160 towns we serve in keeping with our policy of low electric rates. We urge our customers to take advantage of these low incentive rates for a greater use and enjoyment of service.

Electric service is cheap! It is one of the most valuable commodities of the household, yet takes only one per cent of the workman's total household expenditures. You should use much more of it!
