Greyhounds 'Spur' Bulldogs, 27-15

Knox City proud of season's first victory

The Knox City Greyhounds looked - and played - like a determined, finely tuned football team when they took on and soundly defeated the Bulldogs from Spur in a home game at Greyhound Stadium last Friday night.

Combining a sound offense with a crushing defense, the 'Hounds picked up over 400 yards on the way to defeating Spur.

Anthony Ainsworth and Michael Baez ran for a total of 358 yards, with Ainsworth gaining 197 yards on 18 carries and Baez running for 161 yards and two touchdowns. Ainsworth and Brandon Gutierrez each crossed the goal line for Knox City touchdowns.

Playing before a happy home crowd, the Greyhound win over Spur was the first victory for Knox City this season. KC now has a 1-2 record (with one open date), while Spur drops to 0-4.

The Greyhounds will travel to Roby this Friday night for a district game against the Lions. The kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

~ Player of the week honors ~

Offensive player of the week award: goes to the whole team!

Knox City Head Football Coach Lynn Lierly was a very proud man following his team's win over the Spur Bulldogs last Friday night here in Knox City before a home crowd. His choice for the offensive player of the week went to the entire team. "With over 400 yards against Spur, the whole team deserves this award," stated Lierly.

The coach's pick for defensive player of the week goes to Junior tackle Phillip Lerma, who had 5 tackles against the Bulldogs.

Houndettes 'Steer' in the right direction

The Knox City Houndettes won their district opener last Tuesday night by defeating the Rochester Lady Steers in two games, 15-7, 15-6.

"I was extremely proud of the effort and teamwork that the girls showed Tuesday night, stated Coach Dala Young. We had a great practice Tuesday, and it carried over into the game. We were all pumped up and excited, thanks to all of the fans and supporters who decorated the bus and cheered us on as we left town. This means a lot to us, just knowing that everyone is behind us and excited about Houndette volleyball. We carried all of this excitement and enthusiasm with us on the court and the girls never let up—the intensity was great."

Houndette of the week

This week's award goes to the entire Varsity team, which includes: Tamara McGaughey, Jennifer Vacek, Gloria Nevarez, Kim Grimsley, -Vanessa Rodriguez, Roni Morrow, Vallerie Rodriguez, Jessica Garcia, Sara Dillon, and Tandy Roberts. "there is no way I could single out just one individual this week. Every girl contributed their part to Tuesday night's win. It was definitely a team effort that won our district opener with Rochester," proudly stated Coach Dala Young.

Stella Curd receives 'extra mile' award at Knox County Hospital

By JOYCE GREENWOOD

The "Going the Extra Mile" recipient for this quarter is a lady who rises early day after day and goes unpretentiously about her work.

She doesn't always receive the rewards she deserves, but she doesn't seem to mind as she busies herself with her usual routine.

Stella Curd began working for the Knox County Hospital at 12 years of age when she began washing dishes in the kitchen. Over the years, she has brightened many, sometimes cheerless days, with her calm, unassuming manner and friendly smile. Recently, one of the many nice things she does for people was noticed by a member of the hospital personnel and earned her the nomination for the extra mile award.

A patient was brought into the hospital emergency room, treated and released. He sat waiting in the lobby until the nursing staff could find someone to come and take him home. The man was not as fortunate as most people. He would not have a hot meal waiting for him when he returned home.

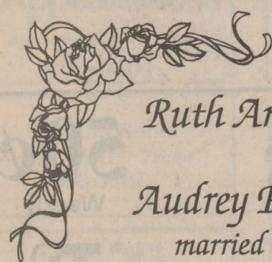

In fact, he hadn't eaten all day and expected to go to bed hungry. Stella, while preparing to go home after a long and hectic day of preparing hospital meals, saw him sitting there waiting for someone to come get him. When the nurses found transportation for him, they found him in the dining room, seated at a table with a piping hot, nutritious supper before him. Stella had made sure that man would not leave "her" hospital hungry.

Ellis granddaughter weds in Ozona

Julie Ann Childress and Matthew Wayne Harrison were married Saturday, September 20, 1997, at seven o'clock in the evening at First Baptist Church in Ozona. Rev. Bill Fuller officiated the double-ring candlelight ceremony. A reception followed at the Ozona Country Club. On the eve of the wedding, a rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents in Ozona.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Leasel Childress III of Ozona. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Leasel Childress Jr. of Ozona and Mrs. William Grady Ellis and the late William Grady Ellis of O'Brien. She is the great-granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reed of Knox City.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen Harrison of El Paso. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Farris of Snyder and the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Harrison of Dallas.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory Italian satin styled with a sheath silhouette. Appliques of Alencon lace embellished with bridal pearls and tiny sequins enhanced the portrait neckline and long lace sleeves. Beading covered the basque bodice which attached to a Cathedral train. The waltz length white silk illusion veil was fashioned with an open wreath headpiece decorated with pearls and bead crystals. The two tiers of veil were finished with white piping and swept over the V back of the dress.

She carried a hand tied bouquet of white gardenias with a Mother of Pearl Bible belonging to her maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Sam Reed of Knox City.

Following a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, the couple will reside in Plano.

MRS. MATTHEW WAYNE HARRISON

O'Brien News

By Audie Johnston, O'Brien Correspondent

"All Dressed Up and No Place to Go - For her upcoming prom, my daughter went to have her hair done at a trendy new salon. As she approached the door, she was greeted by a sign: "Some of the World's Most Beautiful Faces Have Walked Through This Door". Unsuccessful in opening the door, she then noticed another small sign posted on it: "Please Use Other Door."

HERE AND THERE - Taylor and Judy Hodges of Brownfield spent Saturday with Taylor's mother, Clara and husband Troy Hanson.

Spending the weekend with Vivian Hendrix were her daughters, Pretrecia of Oklahoma, LeNear Morris and Frances Howell of Wichita Falls. They helped Vivian do some shopping, and visiting and yard work.

Delbert and Norma Hayes, Troy and Clara Hanson and Bernice Rowan and I all attended the musical at Old Glory Saturday night. There was lots of good singing and music and especially enjoyable was a blind man (Steve Alexander) who picked the guitar and sang. He was really good.

Donnie and Diane Roberts, along with several other trustees and wives, were in Houston over the weekend attending a trustee meeting. Bob Acree of Knox City took Donnie's place as song leader Sunday for the O'Brien Baptist Church Sunday morning and Sunday night and did a good job.

Bernice Rowan was in Haskell last Saturday to visit her great-grandson Cutter J. Oglesby of Abilene. His mother is Treci (Burson) Oglesby. That was Bernice's number one great-grandchild and I just had a call Thursday about my 19th great-grandchild whose grandparents are John and Nancy Johnston and the baby's name is John.

Alton and LaUna Hester left on Monday of last week and went to Panhandle and picked up their daughter Brenda and they went to see another daughter, Cathy Mitchell and family in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. They spent a good week of fishing in several different lakes and had good luck most of the time. LaUna was lucky catching a "tagged fish" and won $50. On Friday, they came back to Pandandle and watched their grandson Zach play football of which he had a good night. They played Stinnett. Zach is a junior in high school and has good potential of being a pro football player someday.

Ranzy Herring was moved from the hospital in Abilene to Munday care home last Friday where he will be for several days of therapy. He seems to be improving pretty fast.

Hospital health fair planned October 11

The Knox County Hospital's annual Health Fair is being planned for Saturday, October 11, from 9:30 a.m. until 12:00 noon on the hospital grounds.

Twenty-five vendors have committed for the morning affair including representatives from home health, physical therapy, cardiac rehab, law enforcement, family violence, weight loss, Life Gift of West Texas, insurance and others.

More information will appear in next week's News.

Benjamin News

By Gladene Green, Benjamin Correspondent

Good morning to you all. These cool, fall mornings are good for lots of things but the main thing is sleep. It sure would be a lot easier to stay in bed than get up and get going, but that's life so we have to make a move regardless of how much we are enjoying those extra minutes of snoozing! This is my very favorite time of the year.

News is in short supply this week. Guess everyone is either staying at home, not having company, or not telling me, but whatever it is, there's not much to report today.

News of the ill remains about the same. Everyone seems to be holding their own and we are always glad to report that.

Rocky Barton spent last Wednesday night in the Knox County Hospital. He had that virus that is bothering a lot of people. He's OK now and back in school.

Mary Bohannon's son-in-law, Cliff Hacker of Knox City, has had some problems. Spent a night in Knox County Hospital, then was in Abilene Friday for a series of heart tests. No report on the results yet but he is feeling better.

Lamoyné and Christine Patterson's great-grandson, Jett Cash of Crowell, fell off a horse recently and broke his jaw in three places. One of those things that happen to kiddoes but being young, I believe he's about four years old, he will probably mend pretty quickly. Jett's parents are Tim and Angie.

HERE 'N THERE - Joy Jones was in Lubbock last Tuesday to be with her brother, Billy Trainham, who underwent some surgery. It was an outpatient thing and he's doing well.

Michelle Conner and Stephanie and Bobby Brannan of Lubbock spent the weekend with homefolks.

Jimmy Barrientez of Lubbock was a weekend guest of his parents, Raul and Reyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jay Jennings of Rio Frio (I believe that's where they live - anyway, it's near Uvalde) visited Hazel Stockton, Bud Conner and Leroy and Gloria West Thursday night. They had been to Jayton to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law. It was good to see them.

Volleyball - The Lady Stangs opened district last Tuesday at Goree. This was a very exciting match and both sides did a super job and hung in until the very end. The Lady Stangs took the opening game 15-7. The Lady Wildcats come storming back with an effective serving game and steady play as they took the second game, 15-8. In the third and final game, it went down to the wire. The Lady Stangs fell behind early but came back and took a 14-11 lead but were unable to finish off the pesky Lady Wildcats as they came from behind and won the game and match 16-14. I felt we played well together and our serving was pretty effective but we didn't take advantage of some key opportunities during the match and Goree did and that proved to be the difference in the match.

In jr. high action, the Lady Stangs traveled to Harrold Monday to take on the Lady Hornets. The girls struggled a little bit early in the match and Harrold was playing much better than they did a week ago as Harrold took the first game. In the second game, the girls served extremely well and hung tough on several shots as they took the second game. In the third and final game of the match, the Lady Stangs hung tough and prevailed winning the third and final game, as well as the match.

Key dates coming up - Oct. 7, V vs. Knox City; Oct. 7 - JH vs. Knox City;

Football - The Mustangs traveled to Lueders-Avoca Saturday night to take on the Raiders on their homecoming. The Mustangs were coming off an extremely good effort against the Trent Gorillas. The ballfield looked as though a fire was burning right in the middle of it when the game started due to a smokey barbecue grill and a pesky southeast wind. The Raiders took an early 12-0 lead but the Mustangs came roaring back with an effective drive at the end of the first quarter and punching the pigskin for a score. As the second quarter began, the Raiders held on to a 12-6 lead but they exploded in the second quarter and took a 30-6 lead into halftime. The Mustangs fought hard but were unable to reel in the Raiders and they were handed a 61-12 defeat. The Mustangs were able to come away pretty much injury free but are still waiting word on Jesse Grimaldo who has been ill for several days with a virus. The Mustangs will begin a two game homestand beginning with Harrold next Friday night at 7:30.

The jr. high took on Lueders-Avoca prior to the varsity game Saturday night and played hard. The game lasted 45 minutes due to a continuous running clock, but the Mustangs scrapped hard against a big and quick Lueders group. The Mustangs were unable to catch the quick Raiders and fell 34-0. The jr. high will take to the road Thursday as they travel to Rule for a 5:30 game.

Cross Country News - Both jr. high and varsity teams will travel to Haskell this week to compete in the Indian Cross Country Meet. A study in the Archives of Internal Medicine maintains that living wills can save about $60,000 per patient in medical costs. Researchers studied 474 patients who died in a hospital during 1990-92. Bills for those without living wills were three times as high.

Currently only one medical school in the entire country, out of 126, has a full-fledged department of geriatrics: Mt. Sinai School of Medicine in New York.

KC Grad completes U.S. Navy training

Navy Airman Apprentice Eric L. Greenwood, son of Tammy Harris of Knox City, Texas, recently completed U.S. Navy basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the eight-week program, Greenwood completed a variety of training which included classroom study and practical instruction on naval customs, first aid, fire fighting, water safety and survival, and shipboard and aircraft safety. An emphasis is also placed on physical fitness.

Greenwood and other recruits also received instruction on the Navy's core values -- honor, courage and commitment -- and how to apply them in their military performance and personal conduct. Greenwood joins 55,000 men and women who will enter the Navy this year from all over the country.

Men and women train together from their first day in the Navy just as they do aboard ships and at shore commands around the world. To reinforce the team concept, Greenwood and other recruits also were trained in preventing sexual harassment and ensuring equal opportunity.

Even as the naval service gets smaller over the next few years, highly motivated young people like Greenwood are still finding an opportunity to improve their knowledge and education as they become part of the most highly technical naval force in history.

Greenwood is a 1995 graduate of Knox City High school of Knox City, Texas.

Shown here are (left to right) Biviana Silva, Amanda Homstad and Natalie Dempsey as they performed before the home crowd. Under the direction of Band Director Mark Tucker, the band has been the 'talk of the town' in recent weeks as fans at each game have noticed a much improved version of the Greyhound Marching Band this year.
