State candidates for school board to appear tonight

The candidate debate for the two individuals seeking to represent the 50-county area comprising District 15 on the State School Board will begin at 7 p.m. Thursday.

The event, to be staged in the Snyder Junior High School auditorium, is sponsored by Snyder's Council for Educational Excellence.

Scheduled to appear here will be incumbent Dr. Paul Dunn, a Levelland dentist, and Monte Hasie, a Lubbock stockbroker and member of the Lubbock school board.

Dunn seeks the Democratic nomination and Hasie the Republican in the upcoming March 8 primary ballot.

The format of the debate will begin with each candidate making a five-minute opening statement. Both will then be asked to offer comments related to seven prepared questions.

After this, questions from the audience will be allowed. A two-minute closing statement from each will then close the session, expected to last approximately one hour.

The prepared questions will center on state funding for career ladder; opinions related to no-pass, no-play rules; and how the statewide TEAMS testing is affecting local school-district curriculum.

The primary elections and subsequent ballots in November will mark the state board's return to an elected rather than appointed body. State voters approved the reversion as part of the constitutional amendment election last November.

Ask Us

Q. — How do I vote for a candidate for State Senator Ray Farabee's post in the primary election?

A. — The choice of who will be a party nominee for Farabee's senate seat won't be made in the upcoming March 8 primary ballots. This decision will come after a special called May 7 election for both the Republican and Democratic parties. The nominees, if there are two, would then face each other in November.

In Brief

Suspect killed

DALLAS (AP) — An off-duty officer shot a man to death during an armed robbery attempt early today in a Dallas restaurant after the man reached for a weapon and challenged police to shoot him, police say.

"Shoot me," Dallas Police Lt. Ron Waldrop quoted the man as telling the off-duty officer as he reached for the weapon in his waistband.

Local

Cogdell meet

A financial forecast for 1988 is one of the primary agenda items for a 6:30 p.m. Thursday meeting of the Cogdell Memorial Hospital board of managers.

A report on work in Cogdell's behalf by representatives of St. Mary of the Plains Hospital of Lubbock, with which the Snyder hospital has a management contract, will also be heard.

API 'fry'

The Snyder Area Chapter of the American Petroleum Institute will host its annual fish fry and membership drive on Friday at the National Guard Armory.

Serving time will be from 6 until 7:30 p.m. and spouses are invited also.

Tickets are $6 per person and are available in advance from any API member or at the door. Membership signups for the Snyder API chapter will be available also. Dues for 1988-89 are $5.

Musical entertainment will be provided by the Billy Tim Atwood Group. Chapter officers for 1988 and advisory committee members will be introduced also.

The keynote address will be by Bobby Hall, director of the Production Department for the API in Dallas.

Weather

Snyder Temperatures: High - Wednesday, 60 degrees; low, 35 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. Thursday, 36 degrees; no precipitation; total precipitation for 1988 to date, .80 of an inch.

Snyder Area Forecast: Tonight, partly cloudy. Low in the lower 40s. Wind south 5 to 10 mph.

Friday, partly cloudy. High in the lower 70s. Wind southwest 10 to 15 mph.

Meese probe widens

WASHINGTON (AP) — Attorney General Edwin Meese III supported a plan to make secret payments from the Pentagon budget to Israel to protect a $1 billion Iraqi pipeline project being promoted by his longtime friend E. Robert Wallach, according to memos outlined in a published report today.

The Washington Post reported that it had obtained memos written by Wallach outlining the plan devised in late 1985 after other attempts to ensure the safety of the pipeline project had failed. The Wallach memos say that Meese supported the plan and that the late CIA Director William Casey endorsed it.

"The idea was it was to come out of the defense budget on an installment basis," the Post quoted one informed source as saying. "It was, effectively, to be a payment to the Israelis to be good" and not bomb or otherwise damage the Iraqi pipeline.

Former National Security Adviser William P. Clark characterized the plan as "a protection racket" when he was consulted about it late in 1985, the Post said. On Clark's recommendation, newly installed National Security Adviser John Poindexter reportedly blocked the plan, the Post said.

Meese's involvement with the pipeline project is the subject of a criminal investigation by independent counsel James McKay.

Responding to the latest disclosures, one of Meese's lawyers rejected suggestions that the attorney general had endorsed a Pentagon payout plan.

"It's ridiculous. The whole thing is ridiculous," James Rocab said. "This is a pipe dream, not only of Bob Wallach, but of the press. We have a lot of people who don't like Mr. Meese."

President Reagan's personal approval would have been required for Pentagon payments to have been made, but Reagan apparently was never told of the proposal, the Post reported.

Reagan told a news conference Wednesday night that he knows little of any aspect of the pipeline project.

"I have no recall of knowing anything about this pipeline plan until fairly recently," Reagan said. "I was given information earlier... I have totally forgotten it. I have no knowledge of anything of that kind."

Meese's lawyers have said that the attorney general had only a passive role in the project.

THAT KIND OF DAY — Snyder firemen answered three grass fire calls Wednesday, the first at 11:07 a.m. four miles south of Snyder on ranchland property owned by the Winston family. Roger Potts (above) is shown at that fire. Roadgrader operators from county commissioner Pats. 3 and 4 assisted the fire fighters in containing the blaze, which burned from the Big Spring highway to Round Top Acres. At 1:19 p.m., the alarm rang again to a possible house fire northeast of the city. That fire, with volunteer Tim Woellert shown at the scene, involved only front yard grass, however. ## Metal theft trial ends with 1 plea

A 132nd District Court jury trial was halted Wednesday afternoon when a 21-year-old Snyder man pleaded guilty to a theft charge and was given a four-year probated sentence.

Chris Maxfield of Rt. 2, Box 59, entered the plea in the third day of the trial in exchange for the probated sentence and the dropping of charges against his mother, 51-year-old Patsy Maxfield, who was also being tried.

The two faced three counts each of theft in connection with the alleged purchase by Snyder Iron and Metal, owned by Mrs. Maxfield, of almost 8,000 pounds of steel fixtures said stolen from Santa Fe Railway last September.

The younger Maxfield pleaded guilty to one of the counts, indicating he was involved in the taking of 220 136-pound tie plates, and was ordered to pay $4,641 in restitution at a rate of $110 per month.

Patton again seeks college board seat

A second incumbent for the Western Texas College board of trustees, one of the board's charter members, R.C. Patton, has again filed as a candidate for the post.

Patton again seeks place 6 on the board. Also announced is incumbent John Gayle, seeking his first full term in place 7.

The only other seat with an expiring term is place 7 and incumbent Edwin Parks has indicated he will not run again.

Patton's announcement was the only new development in any Snyder-based boards which have elections scheduled May 7.

For two school board single member district seats, incumbent Mike Jordan, place 2, has already announced. Charlene Light, who represents place 3, has not announced.

There is also no candidate to fill the unexpired term for Ben Wilcox, who recently resigned his single member district place 5 seat.

For the city council, incumbent Councilman Ralph Williamson, place 2, is announced; and Jack Greene Jr. has announced for the place 4 seat held by Joe Fowler, who is not seeking re-election.

Anxiety 4th sale again slated here

The 39th annual National Anxiety 4th Hereford Breeders show and sale, which has become a fixture at the Scurry County Coliseum in recent years, is slated here again Monday.

Two Snyder breeders of the Hereford strain will also be offering animals, the Koonsman Ranch and O.M. Martin. The Koonsman Ranch will offer 11 animals and O.M. Martin will have two.

In all, 94 purebred cattle, each with guarantees of bloodlines, will be included in the exhibit.

The show is to begin at 9 a.m. and the sale at 12:30 p.m. Auctioneer will be Stanley Stout.

Other consignors to be represented at the show and sale include:

- Buchanan Herefords, Big Spring
- Dry Creek Herefords, San Angelo
- Kathryn Knox, Tarzan
- 07 Ranch, Plains
- Pied Piper Farms, Hamlin
- Brad Stuart, Roby
- Summeroar Ranch, Dalhart
- Sven R. Swenson Cattle Co., Stamford
- Leland Wallace, Big Spring

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Gossip is divided into two types—malicious and delicious."

If you're planning on going to Plainview tomorrow night to watch the Snyder Tigers play Levelland, we can suggest a person who puts on a good party.

Last Tuesday, four local guys left their spouses in Snyder and headed for the playoff game with Big Spring. Well, Snyder was the big winner and Milton Ham was the big loser.

Ham suggested that he take his vehicle, and about halfway Ham suggested that we might buy supper since he was furnishing the transportation.

Being a person of some experience with guys like Ham, David Gist and G. A. Parks—we suggested that we "play the game" for dinner.

You guessed it, Ham lost. Someone in the back seat, feeling only a margin of guilt, offered to buy the tickets since Ham was springing for the meal.

"Naw, let's play the game." Ham hit the number on the first try.

After the meal, somebody offered to leave the tip. Again, it was suggested to play the numbers game, and for the third time, Ham plucked the number right out of the air.

At least three of us thoroughly enjoyed the impressive Snyder victory, and we decided a celebration was in order—a cup of coffee at the truck stop in Sweetwater. You guessed it, Ham again picked up the tab.

If you need someone to go to the game in Plainview, we can't think of a better person with whom to go.

Peace Justice Dan Callaway was in Louise's Coffee Shop Tuesday morning and called the attention of his coffee buddies to his hands.

Said Callaway, "These hands look like they've been through two lifetimes."

Stanley Noah wouldn't let it pass and asked, "Dan, what do the seat of your pants look like?"

Lawyers hail Falwell decision

NEW YORK (AP) — A U.S. Supreme Court ruling overturning a $200,000 award won by the Rev. Jerry Falwell against Hustler magazine has dashed a legal argument that could have stifled political satire, constitutional lawyers say.

The unanimous decision Wednesday held that even pornographic parodies about public figures are protected by the First Amendment as long as the satire could not be reasonably interpreted as factual.

The decision was greeted with relief by First Amendment specialists.

"I've been telling my class, if that one makes it, we're in trouble, the First Amendment is in serious difficulty," said Professor C. Thomas Dienes of the George Washington University National Law Center.

Falwell had successfully argued in lower courts that he had suffered emotional distress as a result of an ad parody in Hustler's November 1983 and March 1984 issues. The "advertisement" had a photograph of Falwell and purportedly quoted him discussing a sexual encounter with his mother and describing himself as a habitual drunkard. At the bottom in small print, readers were told that the ad was "not to be taken seriously."

Falwell stood by his arguments Wednesday.

"I fully appreciate the deep concerns the court has shown for the sacredness of the First Amendment," Falwell said in a statement. "However, I respectfully disagree with their ruling. Just as no person may scream 'Fire!' in a crowded theater when there is no fire, and find cover under the First Amendment, likewise, no sleazebag like (Hustler publisher) Larry Flynt should be able to use the First Amendment as an excuse for maliciously and dishonestly attacking public figures as he has so often done.

"I believe the Supreme Court has given the green light to Larry Flynt and his ilk to print what they wish about any public figure at any time with no fear of reprisal."

But First Amendment lawyers said Falwell's claim of distress as the basis for a libel judgment invited such chaos in the libel field that even such Supreme Court justices as William Rehnquist and Antonin Scalia, not considered steadfast supporters of press rights, could not accept it.

The high court also rejected Falwell's claim that the parody was libelous because of its "outrageousness."

Dear Abby

Couple Doesn't Let Vasectomy Cut Down Hopes of Parenthood

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1988 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I'm writing in reference to "No Baby of My Own," whose husband's urologist said his vasectomy could not be reversed. I would have told her to get a second — or even a third — opinion.

It was also my first marriage and my husband's second. He had had a vasectomy for 15 years when he had a reversal. His urologist said he had a 30 percent chance of fathering a child because of the length of time he had the vasectomy.

For 11 months nothing happened, then he recalled that he had read in your column that if a man wanted to become a father, he should quit wearing those snug-fitting undershorts. Abby, two months after he had switched to boxer shorts, I was pregnant! So thanks to my husband's doctor and Dear Abby, we are the proud parents of a beautiful baby girl.

BLESSED IN COLORADO

DEAR BLESSED: Congratulations! It should be noted that those considering a vasectomy should inform their urologists that a reversal (or "vaso-vasotomy") may be considered later. The surgical procedure would be slightly different in order to make the reversal easier.

DEAR ABBY: I took a bold step when sending out invitations for a holiday party held in my home. On the invitation I had: "To accommodate both smokers and non-smokers, smoking on the patio only, please."

Since about 20 of the 80 guests were smokers, I feared that the smokers might be angry and decline to come. I was wrong. All the smokers accepted.

I placed a large ashtray on the patio, and when the party was over, I noticed it was full of cigarette butts.

My non-smoking guests expressed gratitude for a smoke-free atmosphere, and the smokers thanked me for allowing them to smoke where they didn't have to feel guilty.

ED BAMBERGER, FLOWER MOUND, TEXAS

DEAR ED: Hooray for you. Smokers are people, too, and I'm sure your providing smokers with a place to light up without feeling guilty was appreciated by them even more than by the non-smokers.

DEAR ABBY: My mother recently passed away, and I'm looking for a poem or article that appeared in one of your columns about six years ago. I can't remember it exactly, but it likened death to a ship passing out of a harbor and across the horizon. I would love to have a copy and to see it in print again.

MRS. DOT JUDGE, SOMERSET, MASS.

DEAR MRS. JUDGE: The title of the piece is "A Parable of Immortality" by Henry Van Dyke:

"I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength, and I stand and watch until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other. Then someone at my side says, 'There she goes!'"

"Gone where? Gone from my sight ... that is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her. And just at the moment when someone at my side says, 'There she goes!' there are other eyes watching her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, 'Here she comes!'"

People are eating them up! To order your copy of Abby's favorite recipes, send your name and address, clearly printed, plus check or money order for $3.50 ($4 in Canada) to: Abby's Cookbooklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. Postage and handling are included.

Funds withdrawn from one college

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas businessman Clifford Alan Sugerman withdrew his pledge to financially strapped Bishop College for $300,000 and 5,000 scholarships after school attorneys demanded payment.

Bishop attorney T. Glover Roberts said Wednesday that Sugerman failed to deliver the donation by a 1:30 p.m. deadline and notified the college through his attorney, Jerry Pittman, that the pledge was withdrawn.

"He said he no longer cared to participate," said Michael Goldstein, another Bishop attorney. He said Sugerman gave no specific reason for the withdrawal.

Sugerman anonymously challenged the school in January to raise $300,000 in seven days and he would match the amount in a single contribution.

Bishop, which is fighting to hold on to federal bankruptcy protection, owes more than $12 million to scores of creditors and has not met its January or February payrolls.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

Most women don't need to douche

DEAR DR. GOTT: You missed the boat in your reply to the woman whose boyfriend developed a rash after she used a douche prior to sex. Why not tell her that the practice of douching has no value and is discouraged by knowledgeable health professionals? Why did you not tell her that her body is good; it's not dirty and doesn't require douching to be "good enough" for her boyfriend?

DEAR READER: Douching is a controversial topic. Unquestionably, women are well advised to avoid douching entirely or to do it parsimoniously. The reasons, as you have stated, are that the reproductive tract is basically clean and women are often misled by media advertising into believing that douching is a necessary part of female hygiene. This is not the case.

On the other hand, for one reason or another, some women prefer to douche. Although I wouldn't recommend regular douching, I see no reason why a woman, depending on the circumstances, shouldn't douche on occasion, if she so wishes. All I did was answer that douching can cause a skin rash. I didn't intend to mediate a disagreement regarding the pros and cons of the practice.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I have an imbalance when I'm on my feet. I also have tinnitus, and my right ear hurts all the time and feels like it's full of something. I've had two CT scans, four tests for dizziness, 10 hearing tests (my right ear has 85 percent hearing) and have been to seven doctors. Everyone prescribes different drugs, but nothing helps.

DEAR READER: You certainly seem to have received more than adequate attention to your distressing symptoms. Despite this, you are still having trouble that appears to be rooted in or around the nerves of your ear.

In situations like this, I cannot second-guess your various doctors. Nevertheless, I believe that you could properly be referred to the ear, nose and throat clinic at a large teaching hospital or university center. Using newer techniques, not always available to doctors in private practice, super-specialists may be able to diagnose your ailment and suggest treatment.

In addition, I am sending you free a copy of my Health Report, HELP II: PHYSICAL ILLNESS. Others who would like a copy should send $1 and their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

Astro-Graph

By Bernice Bede Osol

Feb. 26, 1988

The aspects indicate that in the year ahead you'll be involved in the management of a larger enterprise than you have previously handled. It could be of either a social or business nature.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Someone in your crowd who has a knack for creating waves might try to involve you in one of her/his fiascoes today. Don't be a pawn. Major changes are ahead for Pisces in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In negotiating career matters today, be careful not to tip your hand prematurely. If you do, your competitor will have more clout than you in the final phase.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Shy away from a promoter today who tends to exaggerate the merits of his/her wares. The story this person tells may be fascinating, but the product isn't.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Instead of incurring additional debt at this time, concentrate on trying to clear up your old obligations. It's imperative that you lessen the pressure, not increase it.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Be your own person today, and don't let others decide what's best for you. Have the courage of your convictions and stand firm against the opposition.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Try not to fall behind at this time where your work is concerned. Indifference will create problems now and also further down the line.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be extremely careful today in situations where you have to bank on a friend or an associate to carry the ball for you. It's quite possible that they will fumble.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) It is still possible for you to achieve your objectives today, but the going could be tough. This isn't the time to coast or rest on your laurels.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Evaluate events realistically today. If you spot something problematical, don't kid yourself into believing that it doesn't exist.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) See to it that people who have dealings with you today pick up their fair share of the bill. You're vulnerable now, and someone might abuse your generosity.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Don't make hasty judgments today predicated on sparse information. Decisions should be made only after you're positive that you have all the facts.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You are not likely to perform too well under pressure today, so don't assign yourself more tasks than you can comfortably manage. Know your limitations.

It's the principle that counts

Today North was guilty of being inconsistent in his bidding. At his first two opportunities to act, he passed. Then, when South competed on his own to three hearts, North suddenly raised on the basis of his club ace. It was bad judgment, since if only the club ace was enough for game, South would have jumped to three hearts earlier. Still, the contract was makeable if the declarer could hold his trump losers to just one.

If there is easy access to dummy, the right play in the trump suit is to finesse against the hoped-for queen in the East hand. If the defenders' trumps are 2-2, it's a straight guess. When West holds a singleton, finessing against the queen with East wins when West's singleton is the ace, five or three, and loses only when West has the singleton queen. But this play is right only when declarer can lead from dummy more than once. Suppose declarer on the actual deal has reached dummy with the club ace and led the eight of hearts. It is fair to assume that with A-Q-x East will make the right play of going up with the ace. He will play low from three cards only if he has A-5-3 or Q-5-3, and it is easy to see that in the case that matters, A-5-3, declarer's correct play is to rise with the king and drop the singleton queen. With only one entry to dummy, it's right to go up with the king when the defenders hold only four trumps. With more entries, it's right to finesse against the queen with East. Ironically, on this particular deal, the wrong play succeeds while the right play fails.

Altrurians hear of Alaskan cruise

Janet Brown of Snyder Travel Agency gave a presentation at the Feb. 10 meeting of Altrurian Daughters Club. She was introduced by program chairman, Virginia Clark.

A member of The American Society of Travel Agents and an agent for six and one-half years, Brown spoke on cruising Alaska with Princess Cruise Lines. She also gave tips concerning changes in airline industry rules.

Brown pointed out that travelers may have only two pieces of carry-on luggage which must fit under the seat or in the bin overhead. Effective April 1, no smoking will be allowed on any flight of two hours or less.

Held at Martha Ann Woman's Club, the decor followed a Valentine theme with Valentine cookies served with tea and coffee. Hostesses were Claudine Atwood and Gussie Gray.

90th birthday to be honored

A reception honoring the 90th birthday of Exa (Sorrrells) Grant of Ira will be held in the Ira Community Center Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m.

The event will be hosted by her children, Doris and J.L. Byars of Ira; Elza and Hazel Grant of Lake Thomas; Dale and Kathrine Grant of Grandview and Don and Margaret Grant of Snyder.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the reception.

Excellence in education is group theme

"Evolving Patterns of Educators' Roles — Responding to the Public's Expectations" was the theme for the Feb. 15 meeting of Zeta Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held at Martha Ann Woman's Club.

Steve Smith, president of the newly formed Council for Excellence in Education, was the guest speaker. Smith said the purpose of the council is to support academic excellence in Snyder schools by promoting positive ideas which enable the system to reach its highest potential.

Smith stated the group was formed by individuals concerned with forming a counterpart to athletic booster clubs. Instead of backing athletes, the new group would support and recognize teachers and students in performance and excellence on the academic level.

The council is working at the present time to secure financial backing from companies and private sources to be used as incentive scholarships for students who take harder level courses.

Smith referred to a similar program offered by an oil company in Pecos which has been successful. Membership to the council is open to the public.

LaNelle Rambin offered the meditation, "My Cup of Tea."

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mary Williams, Marge Mathis, Emily Hataway, Vestal Maner and Linda Rhoades.

Poets share cinquains

Scurry County Penwomen met Feb. 15 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burk. Christene Killgo, chaplain, offered the invocation.

"Writing Stanzas as Complete Poem Units" was presented by Garnet Quiett, president. Five-line poems called cinquains were studied. Quiett stated they may be written in a wide variety of rhyme patterns and metrical styles.

Examples read were Quiett's "I Love West Texas"; "The Windmill at Dunn, Texas" by Dorothy Cox; "What Else Are Moms For" by Mary Westmoreland and "Too Soon" by Sherry Bryant.

Quiett said a popular five-line poem is the Adelaide Crapsey Cinquain composed of syllable count lines — line one, two syllables; line two, four syllables; line three, six syllables; line four, eight syllables and line five, two syllables.

Quiett read her six consecutive cinquains, "Winter Cinquains." Other members reading Adelaide Crapsey Cinquains were Cox, Westmoreland and Janelle Burk. Burk also read "Letters" and "Friendships and Old Silver." Bryant read "Baby Dear."

Bryant also gave a report on a writer's workshop which she attended at ACU. Poet Naomi Shihab Nye conducted the meeting. Bryant purchased her book of poems, "Yellow Gloves."

Refreshments were served. The March 21 meeting will be held in the home of Garnet Quiett. All interested writers and visitors are welcome to attend.

Tonight in coliseum...

WTC hopes to muzzle 'Dogs

Western Texas College's been on the short end - literally - most of the season. They get a break in that regard tonight, but that doesn't mean they can expect an easy time of it.

"We match up size-wise better with them than probably any other team in the conference," said WTC Coach Tony Mauldin, whose Westerners have played New Mexico Junior College, Odessa, Midland and NMMI in succession - all of which have players over the 6-8 mark this season.

Western entertains Clarendon's Bulldogs in what amounts to the next to the last game of the season for both teams. WTC brings a record of 8-21 into the 8 p.m. ballgame at Scurry County Coliseum. Clarendon is 9-17.

Mauldin's troops would like to stop Clarendon tonight and South Plains here on Saturday. Back-to-back wins would leave the Westerners in fifth place in the Western Junior College Athletic Conference along with Howard.

In other WJCAC men's contests this evening, Midland (23-6, 11-4) is at Borger to play Frank Phillips (11-17, 2-13), while NMMI (10-20, 2-13) is at Levelland to take on South Plains (21-7, 10-4). In a game for first place in the conference, Odessa (27-3, 14-1) plays NMJC (25-5, 13-2) in Hobbs, N.M.

The only women's game has Odessa (27-2, 11-0) at Hobbs to play NMJC (14-13, 6-5).

Clarendon took NMJC's highly-touted Thunderbirds to overtime Monday before falling 78-73.

"They seem to be playing well right now," said Mauldin. "They went to overtime with New Mexico and we expect them to be tough."

Clarendon features Tommy French, a 6-5 sophomore who averages 22.7 points and 8.6 rebounds a game. French leads the conference in field goal shooting, 65 percent, and is 78 percent from the free throw stripe.

"He's not a Larry Johnson type," Mauldin said of Odessa's standout player, "but he plays well inside, draws the foul and is a good free throw shooter. What we're going to have to do is put pressure on them all the time."

Cleveland Phelps, 15.8 points, 5.9 assists, and Vincent Samuels, 8.4 rebounds, are other standouts for the Bulldogs.

Western is being paced offensively by Darrell Nelson, a 6-4 sophomore who averages a league-leading 29.6 points. He also pulls down over 8 rebounds and has over 80 steals this season. Teammate Bobby Spear, a 6-5 freshman, is averaging 15.3 points and almost 8 rebounds, and Melvin Thompson is averaging 14 points.

Tigers set for Lobos

PLAINVIEW -- Snyder's Tigers, who won three straight ballgames to insure a spot in the Class 4A state playoff race, take their first test here Friday as they battle Levelland in bi-district play here at Wayland Baptist University.

Tipoff is 8 p.m. for the contest, which pits the 23-8 Tigers of Coach Larry Scott against Mark Weir's 21-10 Lobos.

Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for students.

Snyder goes into the game as District 2-4A's runnerup. The Tigers tied with Big Spring for second place, then defeated the Steers 60-39 Tuesday night to earn the playoff.

Levelland won District 1-4A with a 14-2 record.

District 2-4A champion Lamesa and 1-4A runnerup Lubbock Estacado are to play tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Brownwood in another bi-district clash. Lamesa is 25-7 for the season; Estacado is 16-14.

Thinclads ready to run

Snyder High School varsity track teams will be off and running this weekend - the boys in Fort Stockton and the girls in Wolfforth.

Coach Kevin Wiseman's Tigers open the action with the Friday-Saturday Panther Relays in Fort Stockton. Field events will begin at 2:30 p.m. Friday. Running prelims are set for 3 p.m. The finals begin at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

The field is expected to include Andrews, Monahans, San Angelo Lake View, Pecos, Kermit and Alpine.

Snyder's girls will compete in the ABC Tiger Relays on Saturday at Frenship High School in Wolfforth. Field events begin at 10 a.m., preliminaries at 10:30 a.m. and finals at 3 p.m.

Entered in the 4A girls' division are Frenship, Lamesa, Levelland, Lubbock Dunbar and Estacado, Amarillo Tascosa and Caprock junior varsities, and Snyder.

WTC golfers in Roswell

ROSWELL, N.M. - Western Texas College will compete in the 4th Annual Bronco Invitational here Friday and Saturday.

The 54-hole event - 36 Friday, 18 Saturday - is hosted by New Mexico Military Institute.

Teaming off for the Westerners will be Andrews freshmen Jeff Beal, Mark Burgen and Lance Jones, Lacosta, Calif. sophomore Todd Neal, and Sweetwater sophomore Jack Poe.

Tigers to play Crockett

FREDERICKSBURG -- Coach Albert Lewis' Snyder Tigers, fresh off of a season-opening victory, take on Austin Crockett at 11:30 a.m. Friday in the Eberle-Boeck Memorial Tournament here.

The three-day tourney opened this morning, with Fredericksburg taking on Pleasanton and Kerrville Tivy playing Boerne. In Friday's other game, Hays Consolidated battles Corpus Christi King at 2 p.m.

Snyder defeated Estacado 7-4 on Tuesday to open the season.

SHS golf teams in action

Snyder High golf teams take to the road this Friday for area tournaments.

The boys will play in the Fort Stockton Tournament; the girls in the Odessa Tournament. Both events are two-days, 36 holes.

Chadwick starts rebuilding; recruits Lady Jays standout

Western Texas College Lady Dusters coach Kelly Chadwick has already begun stirring the mix for next season and the latest ingredient is Jayton standout Bobbie Brown.

A four-year starter for the Jay Birds, Brown helped Jayton to back-to-back district championships her junior and senior years.

"Bobbie has been the one big key to turning around the basketball program at Jayton," said Lady Jays coach Randy Courtney, a Snyder native. "She'll be hard for us to replace."

Brown used her 5-11 height and solid fundamentals to average 15.8 points, 9.8 rebounds and a blocked shot this past season, in which the Lady Jays posted a 25-4 record. Brown, an all-district choice as a sophomore and a junior, is almost certain to repeat again.

An all-around talent, she excels in track, golf and tennis, as well. She advanced to post season competition in cross country and the high jump as a sophomore, and as a junior, in golf and tennis. And, basketball.

"Boy, it's good to sign someone this early," said Coach Chadwick. "We're looking at Bobbie as a 3 or 4 wing player. She has real good fundamentals. Randy does a good job at Jayton. That's a big plus because we don't have to spend as much time going over fundamental things."

"Bobbie can shoot the ball well and I think she'll be a good rebounder. As with almost any freshman coming out of high school, her defense needs work, but we'll do that. For her size she's pretty quick and a pretty good ball handler. I think she'll be able to contribute right away," he noted.

Brown said she wanted to come to Western Texas because "it's close to home. I knew they had a pretty good coach and a pretty good team. And I wanted to play."

Brown brings the eighth player into the Dusters camp for 1988-89. Returning as sophomores next season will be Stephanie McKnight, Julie Roewe, Staci Smith, Nickey Allen, Tabitha Walton, Cathy Crowder and Monica Norman.

SWC hoops roundup...

Mustangs whip Tech

by The Associated Press

The Southern Methodist Mustangs were able to edge Texas Tech for a rare road victory in Lubbock and keep a slim lead in the Southwest Conference basketball race because of their free throw shooting.

The Mustangs defeated Texas Tech, 82-80, Wednesday night to move to 11-3 in conference games and 22-5 overall. It was their first victory at Lubbock since 1984.

SMU now has a 1 1/2 game lead over the idle Arkansas Razorbacks.

Richard Hollis scored 26 points and the Houston Cougars withstood a late rally to defeat Texas A&M, 73-70.

Hollis made nine of 16 field goal attempts, including four 3-point shots, as Houston upped its league record to 8-5 and its overall record to 14-10. Craig Upchurch had 14 points for the Cougars, while Rolando Ferreira added 11 and Randy Brown 10.

Donald Thompson, who made nine of 12 attempts, led the Aggies with 23 points, while Doug Dennis, who made nine of 13, scored 19 points.

A&M fell to 6-7 in SWC play and 14-13 overall.

Travis Mays scored 18 of his 22 points in the second half to lift Texas past Texas Christian 69-55.

The Longhorns scored the last 19 points from the free-throw line and raised their record to 14-11 and 8-5 in the SWC.

TCU fell to 9-16 and 3-11 in the conference and was led by Rod Jacques, who scored a career-high 28 points.

In other SWC games Wednesday night, Houston edged Texas A&M, 73-70. Texas defeated Texas Christian, 69-55 and Baylor whipped Rice, 72-57.

SMU converted 11 of 15 free throw attempts for 73 percent.

SMU Coach Dave Bliss said his team's conversion of 11 of 15 free throw attempts was the key.

"Those last five minutes we really weren't looking for the field goal than much as to force the foul and get the free throw," he said.

"In the last five minutes of our games this year, we've been an 80-percent free-throw shooting team and a 50-percent field-goal shooting team so we've got a lot of confidence in our ability at the line."

Reagan slaps Robertson, but defends George Bush

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan broke his silence about the candidates vying for his job, slapping out at Republican Pat Robertson, defending Vice President George Bush and ridiculing the Democrats, saying, "The kids will play."

The president, in fielding questions Wednesday night at his first news conference in four months, also gave strong backing to his embattled attorney general, Edwin Meese, saying, "I have every confidence in his integrity." However, Reagan refused to comment on the investigation of Meese's role in a proposed Middle East oil pipeline. Reagan said he had no recollection of knowing about the pipeline deal until recently.

A relaxed Reagan opened with a smile, saying "on the networks at last" — a gibe at ABC, CBS and NBC for refusing to broadcast his Feb. 2 speech appealing for Contra aid.

However, he appeared uncomfortable at times, saying he was not aware of Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan's complaint in Senate testimony earlier Wednesday that the administration was putting too much election-year pressure on the Fed to lower interest rates.

Appeals court grants death row inmate execution stay

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) — A death row inmate who was 17 at the time of his conviction was granted a stay of execution hours before he was scheduled to die.

Gary Graham, 24, who had been scheduled for execution before dawn today, was given a reprieve Wednesday night by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans after a federal judge in Houston denied a stay.

"He said 'Thank you very much,'" said Texas Department of Corrections spokesman David Nunnelee. "That's all he said."

The appeals court justices said they needed more time to study issues and arguments in the case. Graham was convicted of capital murder for the May 1981 shooting death of 53-year-old Bobby Grant Lambert of Tucson, Ariz., in a Houston grocery store parking lot. Lambert was robbed of less than $100, although police said the victim had $6,000 on him.

On Tuesday, attorneys for Graham filed an appeal with U.S. District Judge David Hitner.

Robertson campaign defends his remarks

By The Associated Press

Pat Robertson's presidential campaign is defending the candidate's assertions about American hostages in the face of skepticism from President Reagan and outright criticism from his Republican rivals.

Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis, facing escalating attacks from Rep. Richard Gephardt, urged his Democratic opponents to "not copy the Republicans" by squabbling with one another. But he also hinted he might hit back at Gephardt.

Most of the candidates were campaigning today in the South, with a dozen days remaining before the crucial Super Tuesday contests. Twenty states — two-thirds of them Southern or border states — hold primaries or caucuses that day.

The dust was still settling on South Dakota and Minnesota. Sen. Bob Dole, who won both, was crowing about his victories.

Two candidates who had hoped to revive flagging campaigns with a win in one of those states — Republican Rep. Jack Kemp and Democratic Sen. Paul Simon — plugged on after victory eluded them again, although Simon acknowledged that he doesn't have the money to campaign in the South.

Democrat Albert Gore Jr., asked if any candidate could afford to pass up the Super Tuesday contests, said succinctly: "No." And Dole, campaigning in South Carolina, pronounced Kemp's candidacy "about an end."

President Reagan, at a news conference, made a point of invoking the "11th commandment" — not to speak ill of another Republican. However, what he had to say about Pat Robertson didn't exactly amount to praise either.

The president was asked about a claim by the former television evangelist that his Christian Broadcasting Network once had information about the whereabouts of American hostages and "they could have been saved."

Reagan said if Robertson had any such information, he "kept it to himself," and went on to defend the administration's efforts to free those being held in Lebanon.

Swaggart's penalty may be stiffened

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Pentecostal leaders gathered today to deliberate the fate of TV evangelist Jimmy Swaggart after an admitted prostitute said she performed pornographic acts for him for about a year.

The woman's account, in a New Orleans television interview Wednesday, added to pressures besetting the Executive Presbytery of the Assemblies of God, at its international headquarters here.

The nation's largest Pentecostal denomination, which gets $12 million a year from Jim-

Robertson, in an Atlanta news conference, had made the remarks without specifying which hostages he was referring to. Robertson spokesmen later said he was talking about the passengers and crew of a TWA flight who were briefly held captive in 1985 when the flight was hijacked to Lebanon.

But his comments apparently left the initial impression he was talking about some of the nine Americans currently in captivity. Robertson's remarks were blasted by Kemp, who faulted him for "irresponsibility" and said he ought to apologize to the hostages' families.

Bush, in Boston, wondered why Robertson hadn't notified administration officials if he had useful information.

Robertson spokesman Scott Hatch defended Robertson's comments.

"I think what Pat said was accurate," he said. "I don't think it was irresponsible at all. The whole context was how Pat would deal with terrorism, and he used that as an example."

Bush, for his part, got a boost from his boss Wednesday night. Reagan corroborated the vice president's claim that he had expressed private reservations about selling arms to Iran.

Dukakis, at home in Boston, called on his Democratic rivals to "get this campaign back on the high road." But he suggested if attacks continue, he'll return fire.

"If I have to do what I have to do, I will do so," he said.

Gore and Gephardt engaged in some long-distance dueling as they traversed Texas.

Gephardt, in Waco, said Gore "has talked more about what is wrong with the Iowa caucuses than what is wrong with the national economy."

Gore bypassed the Iowa caucuses; Gephardt won them.

"My feeling is he is beginning to panic over the surge of Gore support ... throughout the Super Tuesday states," Gore, in San Antonio, said of Gephardt.

Gephardt also jabbed at Dukakis, saying the Massachusetts governor's foreign policy experience "consists almost entirely of negotiating with the governor of New Hampshire."

my Swaggart World Ministries in Baton Rouge, La., reported being swamped with up to 300 calls an hour since the evangelist confessed last Sunday to unspecified sexual misconduct.

One plea ends metal theft trial

District Attorney Ernie Armstrong said defense attorney Sam Saleh of Lamesa approached him with the offer of a guilty plea following a morning in which young Maxfield was further incriminated by the testimony of a current employee of Snyder Iron & Metal.

Darrell Robertson had testified that he thought the large quantities of metal being brought to the company's Post Rd. yard by Richard Spurlock, who pleaded guilty to the railroad thefts, were stolen.

Spurlock had earlier testified that Maxfield had known he was stealing metal and had encouraged him to get more.

In dropping the charges against Mrs. Maxfield, Armstrong said he learned after the trial had begun that she, as owner of the business, was usually not there when the transactions with Spurlock took place. He said this made him more willing to negotiate the plea.

Robertson had testified that Mrs. Maxfield usually did not arrive at work until about mid-day and that Spurlock typically appeared around 8 a.m. and dealt with her son.

Spurlock pleaded guilty in the case last October in exchange for a four-year probated term but now is being held in Scurry County Jail on a Fisher County theft warrant and faces a probation revocation hearing here, Armstrong said.

He said such an agreement with the Maxfields probably could have been worked out prior to the trial if he had known what evidence the defense was going to present.

State candidates to appear here

Dunn was appointed to the state board with the implementation of House Bill 72 rules.

Hsieh was first elected to the Lubbock school board in 1976. He is currently not a candidate for re-election to that post. In Lubbock, he is a stockbroker with the firm Thomson McKinnon Securities.

The moderator Thursday will be Steve Smith, president for the Council for Educational Excellence.

2 arrests noted

A 31-year-old man was arrested for driving with his license suspended and not having liability insurance at 10:44 p.m. Wednesday in the 100 Block of E. 37th St.

Police arrested a 38-year-old man for DWI at 2:07 a.m. Thursday at U.S. 84 and Parks Ave.

Three grass fires occur Wednesday

Firemen extinguished three grass fires Wednesday, the first at 11:07 a.m. four miles south of Snyder off Highway 350, where they were occupied until 12:30 p.m. on rangeland owned by the Winston family.

Roadgrader operators from county commissioner Pcts. 3 and 4 "heavily assisted" the fire fighters in confining the blaze, which burned from the Big Spring highway to Round Top Acres, Fire Chief Terry Don McDowell said.

A 1:19 p.m. call to the rural residence of Tonya Parks six miles east of the city and about a mile north of Camp Springs Rd. was started by trash burning in a barrel. Damage was confined to the front yard.

An 8:27 p.m. call took firemen 20 miles south of the city to near the Lake J.B. Thomas dam on property owned by Billy Max West, where they were busy until 10:30 p.m. confining the blaze to about an acre.

Occupied lands violent on eve of Shultz's visit

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli soldiers shot and killed a Palestinian protester in the West Bank today, Arab and hospital officials said, as demonstrations heated up before the arrival of Secretary of State George Shultz.

The army said it was checking the reported death. If confirmed, it would be the 64th Arab killed by Israeli gunfire since the current wave of unrest began Dec. 8.

The Arab-run Palestine Press Service identified the victim as Issam Said Abu Khalifeh, 18, and said he was killed during a demonstration at the Jenin refugee camp. Hospital officials said he was shot in the head and chest. They said four other Arabs were wounded.

The Israel-occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip were shut tight today, the second day of a general strike, marked by demonstrations and stone-throwing incidents in several areas.

Palestinians in the West Bank village of Qabatiya, 60 miles north of Jerusalem, on Wednesday night lynched a fellow Arab suspected of collaborating with Israeli authorities. The man had opened fire on a crowd, killing a boy and wounding 13.

Most workers in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank stayed off the job today and most schools were closed.

Gaza streets were empty, making the town appear as if under curfew. Further south, at Khan Yunis, youths threw stones, burned tires and blocked streets. A curfew was imposed on the Nuserat and Shati refugee camps.

Police moved in force into Jerusalem's Shufat refugee camp to put an end to a budding demonstration by women. The Palestine Press service reported a 24-year-old man hit in the leg by a rubber bullet in Balata refugee camp.

Other demonstrations were reported in Jelazoun, Jabalya, Beit Hanoun and Yatta.

The strike and violence came hours before Shultz was scheduled to arrive, bearing a new American plan to end 11 weeks of unrest in the occupied lands.

Shultz's task is complicated by serious divisions in the Israeli leadership. The split between conservative Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir and his foreign minister, Labor Party leader Shimon Peres, went public again today in separate radio interviews.

Shamir re-stated his opposition to the U.S. land-for-peace idea, while Peres accused Shamir's Likud Bloc of inaction, stressing the need for negotiations.

Verification of INF treaty to cost hundreds of millions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S.-Soviet treaty eliminating medium-range nuclear missiles in Europe will cost hundreds of millions of dollars to verify and an additional investment of billions more for non-nuclear weapons, the nation's top civilian and military defense officials warn.

The Pentagon is seeking $198 million this year and another $148 million in fiscal 1989 to ensure verification against Soviet cheating, according to Defense Secretary Frank C. Carlucci.

That money will go for a variety of costs, including the on-site inspections which are a key feature of the strictest verification standards in the history of nuclear arms control, Carlucci told the House Armed Services Committee on Wednesday.

Adm. William J. Crowe Jr., chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told the House panel that "the treaty stands on its merits and should be ratified."

But NATO still faces deficiencies in non-nuclear weapons compared to the Soviet Union and its allies, Crowe said. "The level of risk is too great today," he said.

If war breaks out, he said, "our analysis argues strongly that Soviet conventional ground forces will be extremely difficult — if not impossible — to contain."

The Intermediate-range Nuclear Forces treaty, signed Dec. 8 by President Reagan and Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev, requires the elimination within three years of all nuclear-tipped missiles with ranges of 300 miles to 3,400 miles.

Senate ratification requires a two-thirds vote of the 100 senators, and both supporters and opponents predict the pact will be approved.
