boy were undergoing treatment at Cogdell Memorial Hospital at mid-day. The cause of the fire was not immediately known. (SDN Staff Photo)

Mideast peace talks...

'Yes' sought from Shamir

WASHINGTON (AP) — American officials hope Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir, who arrived here this morning for talks, will say "yes" to a U.S. proposal to open Mideast peace negotiations by May 1.

The Israeli leader's four-day visit could be critical to the future of his country and the region. Secretary of State George P. Shultz wants him to attend an international conference to arrange self-rule for Palestinian Arabs on the West Bank and Gaza and then an overall settlement.

The U.S. position is that Israel should relinquish at least some of the land it captured from Jordan and Egypt in the 1967 Six-Day War in exchange for Arab recognition.

Shamir is committed to Palestinian autonomy under the 1978 Camp David agreement signed by the United States, Egypt and Israel, but he is reluctant to cede the lands on which 1.5 million Palestinian Arabs live under Israeli control.

Before leaving for the United States, Shamir said Sunday that he would not call for a government vote until after his trip.

"After I come back with a summation of my talks with representatives of the American government, the Cabinet will meet immediately and I think we'll have a decision on this subject," Shamir said on Israeli radio. "It's a matter of about a week."

Shultz urged Shamir last week to consider the "ticking demographic time bomb" of the rapidly growing Palestinian population. At a congressional hearing, Shultz suggested Israel had much to gain by territorial compromise.

Ask Us

Q — Will there be a runoff election here?

A — Yes. On the Republican ballot for this area's U.S. Senate representative, a runoff is slated between Beau Boulter and Wes Gilbreath. The runoff ballot will be April 12 and Republicans are expected to vote at the El Paso Ave. west fire station again.

In Brief

Fewer deaths

AUSTIN (AP) — Fewer people were killed on the state's highways in 1987 than in any year since 1976, the Texas Department of Public Safety reported today.

The DPS said 1987's traffic death toll was 3,261, down 8.6 percent from the 3,568 deaths recorded during 1986.

The record number of traffic deaths occurred in 1981, when 4,701 fatalities were reported.

"I find this continuing decrease in traffic deaths very encouraging. However, the fact that more than 3,000 persons lost their lives as a result of traffic accidents in our state is something that should be of concern to all Texans," said Col. Leo Gossett, DPS director.

Deadline set

DALLAS (AP) — Former Methodist minister Walker Rayley could face a default judgment if he fails to respond today to a civil lawsuit alleging he is responsible for the near-fatal choking of his wife, according to the lawyer who filed the suit.

One deadline in the damage suit, filed by Rayley's mother-in-law in connection with last April's attack on Margaret "Peggy" Rayley, has already passed.

But Bill Arnold, who represents Mrs. Rayley's mother, said last week he would wait another week before seeking a default judgment.

Rayley, now living in San Francisco, may have been served in California on Feb. 16 with a copy of the lawsuit filed Feb. 2 by Billie Jo Nicolai, which would mean he had until last Monday to respond.

Bags of food

PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP) — The Panamanian government began distributing low-cost bags of food to unpaid public employees today as it struggled with a fiscal crisis that has crippled the nation.

The sacks of basic foodstuffs, called "dignity bags," were being sold for between $15 and $16 each. It was believed that officials were not demanding cash, and it was not clear how the workers were paying for the supplies.

The government has said it does not have enough money to meet this week's public payroll of $33 million for its 130,000 public employees.

Weather

Snyder Temperatures: High Saturday, 57 degrees; low, 33 degrees; high Sunday, 57 degrees; low, 22 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. Monday, 24 degrees; no precipitation; total precipitation for 1988 to date, 1.20 inches.

Snyder Area Forecast: Tonight, fair, lows in lower 30s with wind south 5 to 10 mph. Tuesday, partly cloudy, warmer and high in upper 60s. Wind south 10 to 20 mph.

Wildfire blackens cattlemen's hopes

ALBANY, Texas (AP) — Ranchers will be hard-pressed to recover from the destruction wreaked by a wildfire that raged for three days over several West Texas counties, killing cattle, burning fences and destroying grass the livestock fed on, officials said.

The savage range fire began as an innocent grass fire near Abilene on Thursday and developed into perhaps Texas' largest wildfire on record. At its biggest, the fire scorched a swath 24 miles wide and nearly 56 miles long from northern Callahan County, through Shackelford County and adjoining Jones County, then north into southern Throckmorton County.

Officials were appraising the damage on Sunday, and Gov. Bill Clements was mulling whether to issue a disaster proclamation for the region.

Officials said Sunday night about they would monitor hundreds of square miles of charred prairie land, even though the fire appeared to be contained.

"If you leave a fire too soon, it can come back and haunt you again," Bill Terry, a representative of the Texas Forest Service, said at a mobile command post that was set up in Albany.

No one was killed or seriously injured by the fire.

"I would say we were very lucky. There were no lives lost. There were no homes lost," Shackelford County Judge Marie Smith said.

But agricultural officials said the cost to ranchers was massive.

By midday Sunday, nearly 73 percent of Shackelford County's 340,000 acres lay scorched, black and smoldering. Much of that land fed the estimated 15,000 head of cattle in the county.

If ranchers had to buy feed for all 15,000 cattle, it would require 175 tons of feed a day.

TRACK FANS — Cool temperatures and windy conditions prevailed here Saturday for the annual running of the Canyon Reef Relays, but the fans were out anyway. Snyder's Lady Tigers finished in fifth place for Division I and the boys team placed fourth in Division IV at the competition. (SDN Staff Photo)

Sales tax return for first time has payment to county

The City of Snyder has received its monthly sales tax return—a figure which is running some 4.9 percent higher than last year—and, for the first time, Scurry County received a sales tax payment, an option approved by local voters in August.

Figures for both were reported by the state comptroller's office.

The county's first payment of a ½ cent tax on sales made here equaled $18,849. Following the intent of the tax, these funds will be used to offset personal property taxes during the coming tax year.

The city's 1 percent sales tax return was $38,208 for the month.

Snyder's monthly return was down from the previous year by some 5.7 percent, but the cumulative total remains ahead of 1987 by 4.9 percent. The exact figure year-to-date is $183,242 compared to $174,624 last year.

The checks sent to both the city and county government during March reflect sales reported for January. In all, $52.4 million was sent to 834 cities and 81 counties.

The only other county adjacent to Scurry which now collects the ½ cent sales tax is Mitchell. Its first monthly return equaled $9,241. For the area, Lubbock, Midland and Tom Green Counties collect the tax as well. Lubbock received a check for $309,307; Midland for $184,706; and San Angelo, $123,800.

A sampling of area cities indicate sales tax figures are generally up over last year, in part due to an expanded base of taxable services. These cities include:

—Lubbock: plus 8.6 percent with $3.5 million received to date compared to $3.2 million last year.

—Abilene: plus 5.6 percent with $1.9 million received to date compared to $1.8 million last year.

—San Angelo: minus 5.5 percent with $1.3 million received to date compared to $1.4 million last year. See SALES, page 11

Building total has 2 permits

The new construction report for Snyder during February equaled only two building permits issued with a combined value of $54,600.

This brought the year-to-date figure to $677,600 compared to $727,050 last year at this time.

The projects applied for included a mobile home move-in issued to E.R. Kennedy, 606 Ave. U; and remodeling work for a fire-damaged structure at 1102 32nd St., a permit issued to Ophelia Brazier.

County schedules item sale

An auction of surplus items from Cogdell Memorial Hospital, commissioner precincts and the county courthouse, including some motor vehicles, will be held on April 15 at Towle Park Barn, county commissioners decided Monday.

County Judge Bobby Goodwin said an auctioneer has been contacted and that the sale will begin at 10 a.m. that day, a Friday.

Commissioners said "one or two dump trucks," some old pickup trucks, typewriters and adding machines from the courthouse and various used equipment from the hospital, including a whirlpool, will be offered.

Other action in the 10 a.m. Monday meeting included a presentation by county coliseum manager Wes Partain on the large number of new tables and chairs for which he recently advertised for bids.

Partain said only one out-of-town bid and no local bids were received, over which the court expressed disappointment, tabling the matter until next week to see if any local bids may be obtained.

They also tabled the Snyder Amateur Radio Club's request for the used radio cable, antenna, console and other equipment that was replaced in the recent renovation of the sheriff's office radio communications system.

Goodwin said the city must see COUNTY, page 11

Scout aquatic area buildings to honor local men

Two Scurry County men known for their longtime support of Boy Scouting will be recognized Saturday with dedication ceremonies of buildings named in their honor at the scout aquatic camp established on the shores of Lake Colorado City.

To be honored will be Nolan von Roeder, who passed away in 1963, and Lyle Deffebach, who died in November of 1987.

The dedication ceremony is scheduled Saturday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Coltex Aquatic Base located seven miles southwest of Colorado City.

It will be officially named the G. Newell Hughes Aquatic Base and Training Center at Saturday's event.

Hughes is expected to attend the ceremonies. A retired engineer, he has helped design the aquatic area.

Members of both the Von Roeder and Deffebach families have been invited to attend the dedication ceremonies also.

Both men are former members of the executive committee for the Midland-based Buffalo Trail Council, which serves Scurry and 17 other counties.

The decision to name facilities in their honor was made by the current executive board.

In honor of Von Roeder, a chapel is to be constructed at the site and named in his memory. A residence at the camp in which the caretaker lives is to be named the Deffebach Ranger Residence in honor of Deffebach.

Other facilities at the camp which will be named for council leaders will be the Marie Hall Tent Camping Area, an eight-acre tract named for the Big Spring scouting supporter; and the Thomas Activity Building, named in honor of Dr. Clyde E. Thomas, a longtime scoutmaster and former Eagle Scout from Big Spring.

Plans for the Saturday ceremony will include tours of the facility beginning at 10 a.m. A barbecue lunch will be served at noon and reservations for it may be made by calling the council at (915) 684-7171. The charge will be $5 per person.

Families are encouraged also to bring picnic lunches and to dine on the grounds. The dedication ceremony will be held at 1 p.m.

To get to the camp, individuals are advised to drive four miles west of Colorado City on Interstate 20, then to exit back to the south for a distance of some three miles.

Noteholders balking at offer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Note holders are balking at accepting less than 50 cents on the dollar as part of a plan to bail out the troubled First City Bancorporation of Texas Inc., federal officials say.

The $1.5 billion rescue plan — which would be the second largest government bank bailout in history — calls for $970 million in federal assistance, a $500 million infusion of capital raised privately by an investor group headed by Chicago banker A. Robert Abboud, and a spinoff of $1.79 billion in book value of poorly performing assets.

But Alan Whitney, director of communications for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., said

Sunday that holders of First City's debt securities are reluctant to go along with the plan. He said it would require the note holders to settle for less than the face value of the notes.

The amounts offered to the note holders ranged from 35 cents to 45 cents on the dollar, he said.

According to Whitney, Abboud told federal regulators during weekend meetings in Washington that not enough of the note holders have agreed to sell at those prices.

"The agreement provides that we have to have a 90 percent response to that tender offer, and Mr. Abboud advised us that that level has not been reached," he said.

Whitney said he didn't know how far the tender offers were from the 90 percent level and added that the note holders have until Tuesday afternoon to respond.

"The FDIC is working with Mr. Abboud and his investor group to handle First City on an alternate basis should the tender not be successful," he said.

Whitney stressed that people with accounts at the bank will be protected. He said FDIC will use its powers "to assure stability in First City banks and in the banking system."

However, he would not disclose what alternatives would be considered to the Abboud plan which First City shareholders approved March 4.

"Whatever alternative way we'll come up with will ensure stability for First City and for the banking system as a whole," he said. "The FDIC has statutory authority to handle imminent or potential failed bank situations in various ways. ... We'll deal with that on Tuesday, not to say that they'll have an announcement on Tuesday."

The FDIC's $970 million pledge to First City is the largest such government-rescue of a bank since the 1984 federal bailout of Continental Illinois Bank and Trust of Chicago.

First City grew quickly during the Texas oil boom, but was hampered by energy and real estate loan losses when oil prices plummeted. For 1987, the company posted a $1.1 billion loss.

It has assets of $11 billion and operates 59 banks in Texas and one in South Dakota.

Under the Abboud plan, Abboud would become chairman of the board and chief executive officer upon consummation of the deal. The proxy statement sent to shareholders before they approved the plan predicted the new company would become profitable almost immediately after spinning off the poorly performing assets.

Shoplifting Conviction Has Student Down in the Dumps

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1988 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Four years ago, I made the most stupid mistake of my life. I was arrested for shoplifting from a K-mart department store. I appeared in court and was fined $200 on a misdemeanor charge. Very few people know about this.

Since then, I've graduated from college in social work. I am presently unemployed, and social work jobs are hard to come by. But my situation makes it worse. I'm afraid to fill out a job application. When I see a question concerning "convictions," I leave it blank. The guilt I carry is so enormous, I have even considered suicide. My life is ruined. What can I do if I am unemployable? How I wish I would have thought out the devastating consequences before I committed such a stupid act.

I've enrolled in a nursing program recently. I answered "No" on the application concerning convictions. I called my state licensing board and explained my situation. They advised me to inform the school, and answer "Yes" to a couple of questions on the nursing board examinations. But they added it would not be cause for denying me a license.

Abby, I can't bring myself to inform the school. I am not a bad person. In fact, most people would say that I am an outstanding young woman. (I have many awards to prove it.) Yet I feel worthless and depressed. How can I get out of this nightmare?

DEPRESSED DOWN SOUTH

DEAR DEPRESSED: You need counseling in order to forgive yourself. We all make stupid mistakes when we are young, but it's not the end of the world. I checked with the director of the nursing school and she said if you tell your counselor, they will not throw you out because of this one blemish on your record. You can rise above it and succeed in your chosen field. Now, go for it — and good luck. And if any more suicidal thoughts should surface, call your suicide prevention hotline. The people there are wonderfully helpful.

DEAR ABBY: I never dreamed I would ever write to you, but here goes:

Everywhere I go, I see bumper stickers on people's cars that say, "HAVE YOU HUGGED YOUR CHILD TODAY?"

Just once, I would like to see one that says, "HAVE YOU HUGGED YOUR PARENTS TODAY?"

It seems to me that a parent could use a hug every once in a while. Please print this and sign me ...

ALICE T.

DEAR ALICE: Why only a parent? Everybody could use a hug once in a while.

DEAR ABBY: As a registered nurse in a large county hospital emergency room, I have seen this "it can't happen to me" attitude over and over again.

I heard those words screamed by a young father who had had "a few beers" just before he wrapped his car around a telephone pole and sent his 4-year-old son to the morgue.

"This can't happen to us" both families cried as a 14-year-old girl lay dying, and her 15-year-old boyfriend was paralyzed from the neck down. He had been driving 120 mph on the interstate when his car was caught by the end of a semi-trailer truck. Cocaine was found in the car.

Or the day we lost a battle to save a beautiful 6-month-old baby who had been thrown out of the car during a "minor" accident. Moments before, she had been lying comfortably in her mother's arms, while the infant car seat was sitting empty in the back seat.

I could go on and on, but I think you get the idea, Abby. Please keep telling your readers not to drink and drive, to use seat belts and car seats — and don't use drugs! Terrible things can and do happen to them. They are your readers, but they end up being our patients.

LINDA M. R.N., POMPANO BEACH, FLA.

DEAR LINDA: Maybe we saved a life or two today. Thanks for caring enough to put your thoughts on paper.

Most teenagers do not know the facts about drugs, AIDS, how to prevent unwanted pregnancy and how to handle the pain of growing up. It's all in Abby's new, updated, expanded booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know." To order, send your name and address, clearly printed, plus check or money order for $3.50 ($4 in Canada) to: Dear Abby's Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. ## Almost vacant skyscraper looking for big tenant HOUSTON (AP) — The last major skyscraper built in Houston is only about 10 percent full, but the building's management didn't leap at a recent inquiry to lease 150,000 square feet.

That's because officials at Alfanco Inc., the management company of the 53-story Heritage Plaza in downtown Houston, are seeking a tenant to take all, or almost all, of the 850,000 feet of empty space.

"Sometimes a lease deal doesn't make economic sense — the comege," says David C. Horn, a representative of Alfanco.

Despite downtown Houston's high vacancy rate — about 22 percent — there is a lack of a large block of contiguous office space.

The $250 million building was completed two years ago.

"They are operating a building with very low occupancy, but they are doing it smartly," said Bill Pederson, senior vice president and head of Henry S. Miller Co. Realtors' downtown office.

Tenants at Heritage have been confined to between the 14th and 20th floors. Floors two through 12 are for parking and the 13th floor is Heritage's sky lobby.

Heritage's strategy of seeking a large tenant is being reviewed, those in the real estate industry say, after the sale of Amveco Investments' 25 percent interest in the building last week.

The strategy of waiting for just the right tenants has worked before.

M&F Plastic Pipe has variety of sizes

M & F Plastic Pipe is your locally owned dealer for polyethylene pipe, sales and rental, with a wide range of sizes and pressure ratings.

Polyethylene pipe is now replacing steel pipe and PVC pipe in many areas. It is much more versatile than PVC and more economical than steel. It's flexibility makes it easier to handle, therefore saving you time and labor. The durability of this pipe has been proven under all kinds of weather conditions and it can be re-spooled and re-laid several times without damage to the pipe.

They have spooling trailers, reel trailers and a spooling truck to handle pipe up to three inches. Pipe that is four inches or larger comes in joints and must be laid by hand. It is "welded" together by using an electric iron that melts each end of the pipe and then it fuses when put together. This eliminates the worry about leaks from bad threads or not being tight enough such as in steel pipe or the hassle of cleaning and gluing as in PVC.

Poly pipe can be used for water lines in homes, stock tanks, water wells, water supply for drilling, transfer lines, gas lines or production flow lines.

They will lay new or used pipe, provide you with valves, fittings, ditching, etc. to suit your needs and will also repair your lines, relocate it or replace it if needed.

M & F Plastic Pipe is owned and operated by Ricky and Teresa Trammell. Please feel free to call them or Darby K. Scott, manager, for prices or information at 573-8612.

Gephardt's trade bill is placed on agenda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic presidential candidate Richard A. Gephardt's plan for retaliatory trade policies comes face to face with its long-threatened demise this week following its sponsor's poor showing on Super Tuesday.
 Lawmakers who previously had held off on a decision now have decided to tackle the issue as they step up efforts to reach a compromise on legislation to sharpen the U.S. edge in world markets.

"I expect the trade conference to finish its work by the end of this month and we'll get it on the president's desk some time in April," said Senate Finance Committee Chairman Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas.
 A House-Senate conference committee weighing rival versions of the sweeping, 1,000-page trade bill had been hesitant to tamper with the plan that Gephardt, a Missouri congressman, has made a centerpiece of his presidential campaign.

Majority Democrats had sought to avoid anything that might trip up Gephardt, whose plan is part of the House version of the trade bill but not the Senate legislation.

The Reagan administration calls it veto bait and Japanese businessmen expressed elation last week when Gephardt carried only one of the 20 states — his own — where there was Super Tuesday primary and caucus voting.

After that disappointing showing, Democratic chairmen decided to go ahead with action on the issue this week, congressional sources said.

 The so-called Gephardt amendment would require the president to reduce "excess and unwarranted" surpluses run by Japan and a few other countries in trade with the United States. If negotiations failed, the president would be required to use import curbs to lower the surpluses at a 10 percent annual rate.
 The president could waive such action if he found it contrary to the national economic interest or if the offending country were wrestling with serious debt. But critics say the plan is a long step toward protectionism and invites retaliation against U.S. industries.

Senate conferees, returning from a one-week recess, planned to take up the Gephardt proposal along with related issues of Japanese trade barriers at a closed caucus today, an aide to a State Finance Committee member confirmed.
 "Up to this point, the Senate side has been making all the concessions and there's no question but what, come Monday, they'll be asking the House to give up Gephardt," said the aide.

3rd anniversary is upcoming

WASHINGTON (AP) — The reigning drama of 1980 was not so much the Carter-Reagan campaign but the interminable hostage crisis in Tehran. The two became intertwined, and as Jimmy Carter gave up his presidency, 52 Americans were being returned to freedom.

Cut to 1988. Another presidential campaign is in high gear and a new set of Americans is held captive in the Middle East. This time around, the hostages are bound and blindfolded far from the political limelight; the hope is that obscurity will diminish their value.

For one of them, Terry Anderson, Tuesday will mark three full years as hostage. It has been 1,094 days since Anderson, returning from a tennis game, was shoved at gunpoint into a waiting car.

Anderson is an old friend of this writer, your basic boy-next-door off to see the world in a foreign correspondent's trench coat.

We spent our salad days together in AP's Detroit bureau; he filed the state broadcast wire and lived out towards Ann Arbor with his family and a wonderful collection of Japanese etchings.

From Michigan, he became AP's chief Middle East correspondent by way of tours in Japan and South Africa.

In 1984, Anderson and I had

AP analysis

lunch in Washington and he caught me up on the dangers and satisfaction of reporting the complex story of Lebanon. I told him we called it "wartornLebanon" as if it were one long word. He laughed.

Now he is a part of the wartornLebanon story, longest held of some two dozen Westerners missing in the sad city of Beirut.

I was out pricing washing machines on Saturday, March 16, 1985, when a radio newscast said an American reporter had been kidnapped in Beirut. I figured it might be Terry Anderson, and it was.

I figured he might be free by Monday, and he wasn't.

Who would have thought a year would go by, or two, let alone three?

That his baby would be born and he wouldn't know? She would turn one, learn to walk, learn to talk, and he wouldn't know. Last spring she turned two. Is she a terrible two? Is she eating her vegetables? He wouldn't know.

The washing machine is three years old and Anderson is still the property of Shiite kidnapers, currency in a geopolitical ordeal that has killed two American hostages and threatens the remaining eight. Terry Waite, who negotiated tirelessly for all the Western hostages, now shares their fate.

In March 1986, we marked the first Anderson anniversary in a church on New York Avenue. It was an optimistic gathering; perhaps freedom was just around the corner. Rarely had a hostage been held so long; we hoped he was holding up.

Jesse Jackson, who knew Anderson celebrity-to-reporter, delivered a call for peace and brotherhood and deliverance.

Hostage relatives expressed frustration, and more.

"There have been so many times that I was frightened they would do something to them," Anderson's sister, Peggy Say, said of the six Americans then in captivity. Another hostage relative, Sue Franceschini, said, "I'm on automatic pilot most of the time, but we made it through the holidays."

Her brother, Rev. Lawrence Martin Jenco, would be released in 1986, but for others, more holidays would pass and more Americans would be taken.

The second Anderson anniversary was marked at a second church, up 16th St. from the White House. The Iran-Contra story was out and it was clear that the hostages were key pawns in a multi-level "arms for hostages" intrigue. Optimism? Not so you could notice.

The third Anderson anniversary is upon us and Wednesday we gather in a third church, this time for a candlelight and olive branch ceremony in Georgetown.

No one knows how Anderson will mark the day. He was last heard from in a videotape on Christmas Eve, day 1,012.

Signals plus logic

Defense is a matter of making intelligent decisions in the play of the cards as you and partner strive to take enough tricks to defeat the opponents' contract. You do have tools to work with, one of the most important of which is signaling. For example, discarding a particularly high card in a suit other than the suit played commands partner to lead the suit of the card thrown. That signal was used effectively in today's deal.

West led the king and then the ace of clubs. East saw the futility of ruffing a third club with the spade ace, so he flagged the 10 of hearts in the hope that West would be able to lead the king. That signal had the desired effect, as West dutifully led the heart king. But there was more. On the second club play, declarer had played the queen. Did that mean that South held only the Q-9 of clubs initially? That question was more than academic, because declarer won dummy's ace of hearts and immediately played a low club. If East discarded on the third club, South would win the jack and ruff a diamond to get back to dummy, and now the club 10 would be a parking place for the losing heart. East finally decided that his partner would have overcalled in clubs if he had begun with the A-K-J-6-5-4 plus the heart king. So East ruffed the third round of clubs with his trump ace and led the queen of hearts to set the contract.

Sociologists say Wal Mart transforming Texas business

by The Associated Press
The fast-paced growth of Wal-Mart and its strip shopping center environs could eventually replace town squares, long the hub of social and commercial activity in rural Texas, sociologists say.

The fastest growing retailer in the nation, Wal-Mart has opened more than 200 stores in Texas in the last 12 years, the most of any state. It has located in small towns considered no-man's land by big retailers.

And although the changes have closed many small shops, consumers enjoy longer shopping hours and a wider selection of goods, often at significantly lower prices.

"Patterns of consumption and lifestyle have blended into each other so that a lot of people ask what really is the different between rural and urban American," said Darryl Hobbs, a rural sociologist at the University of Missouri.

Wal-Mart has speeded up that development in many places,

Hobbs said. From the Piney Woods to the Panhandle, from border towns with no traffic lights to outposts between the stalled rigs of the Permian Basin, the mustard-colored walls and vast parking lots of Wal-Mart Discount City are becoming fixtures.

Some small town residents say they don't like the changes.

Wayne Smith taped up "Going Out of Business" signs on his women's clothing shop in Dumas in the Panhandle, while Wal-Mart held a grand opening a half mile away. A week after the ceremony, Smith closed his shop.

"Wal-Mart killed our downtown," said David McReynolds, executive director of the Dumas Chamber of Commerce. "We're building it back slowly, but in a small town, you don't replace a 100-foot storefront on the main drag real quick."

President and chief executive David Glass acknowledges that Arkansas-based Wal-Mart has a significant effect on small towns.

But he sees the stores' location in them as a rallying point that transforms sleepy villages into retail hubs.

"The people who don't do better or who do go out of business, are those who do not want to reposition themselves in the market," Glass said.

"But I think the most significant thing of all is that small towns' business districts, in most cases are dying. Because the small merchant can't compete, price-wise, with the malls and the big stores that build on the edge of cities, what our store does is keep enough business there that it revitalizes the small stores," Glass said.

Wal-Mart is not the first chain to venture into towns of 3,000 to 15,000 people but it is the biggest.

Monument may reveal new ideas about some cultures

AUSTIN (AP) — An 1,800-year-old stone monument with an elaborately carved portrait of a ruler and hundreds of symbols in an undeciphered writing system could reveal new ideas about early civilization in the Americas.

The monument was the center of discussion during the 12th annual Maya Meeting at the University of Texas at Austin. The conference, which ended Saturday, featured workshops and seminars on the Maya writing system.

The monument was discovered in the Mexican state of Veracruz in 1986, said Linda Schele, a UT art historian.

Until the discovery, Mayan hieroglyphics were considered the only known complete system of writing in the Americas before Columbus.

But Ms. Schele said she thinks the writing will prove to belong to a language family known as Mixe-Zoque and will demonstrate that an advanced civilization occupied the area south of Veracruz about 2,000 years ago.

"What this means is that we are going to have a second, fully operational writing system that we can understand, and we're going to have history from another area of Mesoamerica, which is just absolutely mind-blowing. I mean, it's a miracle," said Ms. Schele, an authority on Mayan hieroglyphics.

Nancy Troike, a UT research associate who arranged the conference, said deciphering of the new writing system is many years away, but the discovery still is exciting.

"If it is early Mayan, it is something we have not had before, and if it is not Mayan, it is a real blockbuster," she said.

The stone slab, which is basalt and weighs more than 4 tons, was found in the Acula River near the town of Alvarado about 60 miles south of Veracruz, said Fernando Winfield Capitaine, director of the Museum of Anthropology in Jalapa, Mexico.

He said the symbols carved on the monument resemble the more fragmentary carvings found many years ago at Cerro de las Mesas, a nearby site.

A report based on analysis of the monument by Winfield and the Japala museum will be published next month by the Center For Maya Research in Washington D.C.

The king represented on the monument wears a bird-beaked headdress, and nearby glyphs, or carved symbols, associate him with the sun and a god of maize, Winfield said.

Dates in the text are from the second century A.D. and represent May 22, 143, and July 14, 156, on the Julian calendar, according to calculations by scholars at the meeting.

Much of the deciphering work on the monument is expected to be done at UT, Ms. Schele said.

The Veracruz monument strengthens the claim that advanced civilizations developed in the Americas before the arrival of Europeans, Ms. Troike said.

'Final Tuesday' lies ahead for candidates

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Super Tuesday behind them, the presidential candidates are looking toward the next big Tuesday on the calendar — June 7, when the California and New Jersey primaries offer the last big bloc of delegates to be allocated before the national conventions.

There are other big primaries in coming months, including Illinois, Pennsylvania and New York. But none offers a larger one-day delegate total than Final Tuesday, as it's been dubbed.

Montana and New Mexico also will hold primaries June 7.

For Democrats, with Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis, Jesse Jackson and Tennessee Sen. Albert Gore bunched in the lead, the late primaries on opposite sides of the country now loom as potentially decisive.

On the Republican side, where a big Super Tuesday victory last week made Vice President George Bush his party's likely choice, the June 7 primaries are expected to be much less crucial.

A day after Super Tuesday, both Dukakis and Gore announced ed they would soon make campaign stops in New Jersey and California. Jackson, too, is building organizations in both states.

California Democratic Party Chairman Peter Kelly says the Super Tuesday result "almost guarantees that the race will come down to California, and California will have a say in picking the nominee."

In New Jersey, Democratic Sen. Bill Bradley said, "New Jersey takes on real importance. We are, with California, the final two tests."

California voters will select 205 Democratic delegates in the primary, and 109 more will be chosen in post-primary meetings. Along with 22 pre-selected "super delegates," the state will send the largest single delegation to the convention with 336 members.

New Jersey Democrats will select 71 delegates in primary voting. They'll join with 38 more picked by party leaders, and nine super delegates for a total of 118.

Snyder ladies record 60 points in running events here Saturday

Snyder's Lady Tigers did well in the running events but a low output in the field events put them a fifth place finisher in Division I action of the Canyon Reef Relays here Saturday.

The ladies were led by Nichole Overman's first-place clocking of 16:20 in the 100 meter hurdles. It was the all-around talent's best time of the season. Overman also ran on Snyder's fourth place 1600 relay team, and on its 400 relay squad, which finished sixth.

Fletcher hurls two-hit victory

BROWNFIELD - Lee Fletcher gave Snyder seven innings of two-hit pitching as the Tigers defeated Brownfield in the first of a double header, 2-1 here Saturday.

with 400 relay team which clocked a 52.74. The 1600 squad included Overman, Pickering, Melissa Williams and Dana Fenton. They ran a 4:23.24.

Individually, Fenton placed third in the 400 meters with a 65.12 and Anne Osborn was third in the 3200 meters with a time of 15:46.05.

In other results: In the 800 meters, Williams was fourth with a 2:42.07, Becky Becerra fifth with a 2:42.80 and Rana Eicke sixth with a 2:44.42.

In the 1600 meters, Michelle Candanoza was fourth with a 6:14.45 and Shelly LaRoux was fifth with a 6:19.50.

Annette Ramos was sixth in the 3200 meters with a 16:10.68, Pickering was sixth in the 400 meters with a 66.45, and Braziel was sixth in the 200 meters with a 27.76.

Snyder's only field event points, 1/2, came in the high jump with Williams' 4-10 tie for sixth place.

Borger, which won the 1600 relay in 4:12.87, took second in the 800 relay and placed in the top three in four other events, shared meet honors with 103 points. Sweetwater, which won the 800 relay in 1:50.28 and whose Tara Lemons took first place in the shot put and discus, also polled 103 points.

Levelland followed with 101 points, which included a first-place finish in the 400 relay with a 50.92. San Angelo Lake View was fourth with 81 points.

Amarillo High won Division II, which consisted of 'girl's' 5A teams. Amarillo posted 144 points to outscore Palo Duro, which had 110.

Pecos with 42, San Angelo Lake View with 38 and Sweetwater with 28.

Thance Springer accounted for 10 of Snyder's points by placing second in the shot put and fifth in the discus. Springer heaved the shot 44-8, and tossed the discus 119-6.

Snyder also got second and third place points in the pole vault with Charles Guynes' effort of 11-feet and Marcus Green's 10-6.

Other field event points came from Jason Presley in the high jump, 5-8, and from Jeff Thompson's 20-4 leap in the long jump.

"That was a good performance on his (Springer's) part. I'd say his effort was one of the top along with Jeff Thompson in the long jump. Jeff has been struggling this season and he went 20-feet, 4-inches. So they showed the best they've done this year and a big improvement over what they had done," said Coach Kevin Wiseman. "Our pole vaulters didn't vault high but they did get second and third. We scored in every field event and I was pleased with that."

Snyder's effort in the running events were pushed by Craig Watkins, who was third in the 300 intermediate hurdles with a 41.10 clocking and fourth in the 110 high hurdles with a 15.80 effort. He also had a hand in Snyder's sixth-place 1600 meter relay effort.

Snyder was also fifth in the 400 meter relay with a 45.83 time and sixth in the 1600 relay with a 3:46.20. Making up the sprint relay were Dewayne Cato, Thompson, Presley and Paul Anderson. On the 1600 team were Cato, Watkins, Presley and Thompson.

Points were not kept in Division III, the boy's junior varsity division, but Snyder competed well.

Highlighting the effort were Edward Rios and Les Rinehart, who ran second and third in the 300 intermediate hurdles and, in reverse order, second and third in the 110 hurdles. Rinehart was also fifth in the long jump while Rios was second in the high jump and a member of Snyder's fourth place 1600 relay team along with Greg Kiker, Tommy Lane and Benny Miller.

Lane, Miller, Israel Hinojos and Trey Wilson ran on the Cats' second place 400 meter relay team.

In other running events, Lane was fourth in the 100 dash and Brad Pilgrim was sixth in the 1600 meters.

Manuel Espinosa had a good meet, taking second in the shot put and third in the discus. Billy Nix was fifth in the discus and sixth in the shot and Carlton Sanders was sixth in the discus.

Next action for Snyder will be the San Angelo Relays on March 25 and 26.

Southeast Texas sheriffs don't fare well

HOUSTON (AP) — Six Texas sheriffs had a less than Super Tuesday as three were ousted from office and three others were forced into runoff in party primaries.

"It was due to illness and fatigue," said Jefferson County Sheriff Richard Culbertson, who lost his Democratic primary bid to ex-deputy Carl Griffith Jr. "The voters just were sick and tired of me."

No Republicans filed for the seat. Culbertson, 63, who has served for 25 years, said he will serve the almost 10 months remaining of his term.

Liberty County Sheriff E.W. "Sonny" Applebe, 58, traces his downfall to 13 indictments lodged against him in December, but he had still expected to make the runoff. Applebe says he is innocent of the indictments, which involve a variety of charges including three third-degree felony charges of theft by a public servant.

Applebe came in fourth, getting only 10.2 percent or 1,035 votes in the Democratic primary.

"I don't really know why the dickens anybody would want the job," the Dayton rancher said.

Clay Autery, a chief deputy for two decades under Applebe, and O.J. Stewart, a retired 27-year veteran with the Texas Department of Public Safety, will be in the Democratic runoff.

From the beginning, Applebe said the indictments were politically motivated since they occurred less than three months before the election.

In Madison County, Sheriff Ed Fannin lost his Democratic primary race to Vernon Baker, a retired Houston policeman. Baker had 1,561 votes, or 56 percent, to Fannin's 1,223, 44 percent.

Last summer, Fannin's wife of 15 years filed for divorce. On Dec. 8, the two engaged in a quarrel as he left a house, which led to a shooting and the amputation of the tip of Fannin's right little finger.

Wanda Fannin, 39, has been charged with attempted murder. Fannin, 58, has since asked the grand jury to no-bill her in the case.

Fannin, a sheriff for 17 years, attributes his loss on a combination of problems.

"It was dirty politics and bad publicity," he said. "I didn't retaliate any, I don't believe in dirty politics. When you start slinging mud, you're not hurting the candidate but his whole family."

Baker, 58, who lost to Fannin in the 1984 election, will face Republican Travis Neeley, 36, a narcotics agent for a Bryan-based multicounty drug task force, in November.

In Waller County, Sheriff Ronnie Sittin said his problems began Jan. 1, 1981 — the day he took office.

A former Houston police officer, Sittin, 45, said he ran for office to change things. He plans to fight to keep his position in an April runoff against the county's chief adult probation officer, Randy Smith, 30.

Sittin and his wife, Cynthia, were indicted in August on 43 misdemeanor charges of operating a security guard company without a license, a case the county attorney said he hoped to have resolved by the March primary.

That case, however, is still pending. Sittin and his wife pleaded innocent.

An earlier aggravated perjury indictment against Sittin was dropped in December 1986.

In Orange County, Sheriff James Wade is the target of a federal drug probe.

Federal investigators have said they believe a methamphetamine manufacturing operation was run in his county. The operation was allegedly funded through the sheriff's drug-buying funds and operated with lab equipment from the sheriff's evidence room, investigators said they were told by informants.

No charges have been filed in the case.

Wade came in second in a four-candidate race in the Democratic primary.

Huel Fontenot, 47, of Bridge City, a private investigator, led with 8,936 votes. Wade got 6,438 votes.

Montgomery County Sheriff Joe Corley's career was rocked by a federal court jury's findings of abuse in his jail. Now, he will meet a Republican rival in a runoff election.

Corley, 49, seeking a third term as sheriff over the state's fifth-largest department, faces W.W. "Buddy" Walker, 42, of Porter.

Corley captured 43 percent of the vote in the Republican primary, while Walker, on leave from his position as major over the Harris County Sheriff's Department's detective division, collected 34 percent.

The winner of the Republican runoff will face either Democrat Charles N. Nicholson or Steve McDonald, who also are in a runoff.

Ranchers search for missing cows

by The Associated Press

Snow-clogged roads plagued motorists today from the eastern Great Lakes region to Nebraska and other Plains states where road crews were digging out from the region's worst blizzard in decades.

The storm fizzled as it moved east, but still left 1 1/2 feet of snow on the ground this morning along the windy Wisconsin shore of Lake Superior and more than 20 inches in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

"For all practical purposes, it just kind of died as it moved into Canada out of lower Michigan," said Pete Reynolds, a forecaster with the National Weather Service's Severe Storms Forecasting Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Obituaries

Ella S. Nelson

Services for Ella S. Nelson, 89, of 2701 Avenue U will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with the Rev. Miller Robinson, pastor of Colonial Hill Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will follow at Snyder Cemetery.

She died Sunday at Snyder Oaks. She was born Nov. 13, 1898 in Springtown, Tex.

She was married to W. W. Nelson who preceded her in death.

She was a member of First Baptist Church.

She is survived by a sister, Sue Ann Howell and a nephew, Don Snider, both of Snyder; and a niece, Betty Clayton of Colorado City.

W. A. Sumruld

Services for W. A. Sumruld, 76, a longtime Snyder resident, were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with the Rev. Bob Harper, associate pastor of First Baptist Church officiating, assisted by the Rev. Lee Rogers of Temple Baptist in Big Spring.

He died at 7:11 a.m. Saturday at the Veterans Administration Center in Big Spring. He was born on Sept. 7, 1911 in Scurry County.

He was a veteran of World War II and did body shop work. He was a Baptist and was married to Maudie Oliver who preceded him in death in 1962.

He is survived by five brothers, Roy of Tulare, Calif., Alton of Big Spring, Charlie and Weldon, both of Snyder, and William L. of Farmers Branch; and one step-grandson, Ronnie Fields of Arkansas.

Pallbearers were Barry Bourland, Gene Sumruld, Grover Wall, Dale Stuard, Russell Jones and Cecil Mears.

E. E. Palo

Services for E. E. "Whitey" Palo, 83, of 908 16th Street will be at 4 p.m. Monday at Bell-Cypert-Seale Chapel with the Rev. Bob Rhodes, pastor of Northside Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will follow at Snyder Cemetery.

He died at 9:10 a.m. Saturday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. He was born Feb. 3, 1905 in Waukegan, Ill. He was a retired chef and veteran of World War II. He was married to Jessie Wilson on Oct. 12, 1954 in Snyder. She survives.

He was a Baptist and member of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Renda Derrick of Breckenridge; and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers will include K. O. Pitner, Carl Stokes, W. H. Grant, Loyd Isbell, Darbie Scott and Alonza Johnson.

'Bud' Heath

WAKA--Services for J. R. "Bud" Heath, 60, of Waka were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Waka Church of the Brethren. He died Thursday.

He was the son of Leo Heath and the brother of Margie Ryan, both of Snyder.

Other survivors include a son, James of Enid, Okla., two daughters, Neva Hatfield of Odessa and Tracey Heath of Amarillo; two other brothers, Leonard of Winters and Ray of Amarillo; another sister, Betty Sue Heath of Winters; seven grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Durine Phelps

LUBBOCK--Services for Durine Phelps, 74, of Lubbock were held at 1 p.m. Monday in Parkway Drive Baptist Church with the Rev. Wayne Williams, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Crosbyton Cemetery.

Mrs. Phelps died Friday afternoon in her mobile home near the Hurlwood community. Justice of the Peace Grady Brooke ruled the death due to natural causes.

Mrs. Phelps was born in Fannin County and moved from Wolfe City to Lubbock in 1959.

She is survived by five sons, Donald Phelps and Charles Brown, both of Midland, Wilbert Brown of Booker, Cody Brown of Lubbock, and Arnold Phelps of Lubbock; two daughters, Selma Stepp of Brighton, Colo., and Fredia Sneed of Hurlwood; a brother, O. C. Brown of Snyder; a sister, Darlene Moore of Dallas; 24 grandchildren; and 26 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons were pallbearers.

Buster Jones

HAWLEY--Services for Buster Jones, 80, will be at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday at Hodges Baptist Church with the Rev. Clyde Cook officiating, assisted by the Rev. Gale Baucum. Burial will be in the Midway Cemetery.

He died Sunday at an Anson hospital.

Born in Lamar County, he moved to Hawley as a child.

He was a farmer, a 50-year member of the Hodges Baptist Church and member of the Anson Masonic Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Mettie Thompson Jones of Hawley; a son, James H. Jones of Hermleigh; a stepson, Walter B. Jones of San Antonio; a daughter, Marva Nell Allen of Hermleigh; a stepdaughter, Jeanie Elliott of Lubbock; a brother, Otto Jones of Paris, Tex.; two half sisters, Ola Mae Rister of Anson and Ruby Jo Carter of Throckmorton; a half brother, Olan B. Northam of San Antonio; 14 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

Weekend has two arrests

A 28-year-old woman was arrested for driving with her license suspended at 7:59 p.m. Sunday in the 300 Block of the E. Hwy.

A 19-year-old man was taken into custody for DWI at 9:14 p.m. Saturday at E. Hwy. and Ave. A.

Hit-and-run noted Sunday

An unknown vehicle and driver hit a 1985 Ford pickup owned by Scott Walton of 2703 Ave. U in an incident discovered at 3:18 p.m. Sunday in the 2700 Block of U.

A 1988 Ford driven by Wynona Kay Carrizales of 1610 Ave. R was in collision with a fence owned by H.L. Davis at 5:06 p.m. Saturday in the 2100 Block of Ave. X.

Shed break-in worked by SO

The sheriff's office is investigating the burglary of a shed on the American Magnesium plant property eight miles southwest of Snyder in which a number of pipe wrenches and other items were stolen.

A deputy said entry was gained to the shed, owned by H.B. Sawyer, by tearing loose a door.

In the incident, reported at 1 p.m. Sunday, pipe wrenches "from 36-inch on down," four lounge chairs and assorted other items were taken, the officer said.

Hospital Notes

DISMISSALS: Terry Busby, William Johnston, Andrew Anderson, Shanda Blackwell.

Births

Jerry and Jeanne Richardson are the parents of a baby girl, Jenna Lee, born at 9:35 p.m. March 7 in Abilene Humana Hospital. She weighed five pounds three and one-half ounces. Grandparents are Jessie Richardson of Elbert; Carolyn Carey of Phoenix, Ariz. and Bill Goins of Vernon.

Scouts to honor two county men

A large contingent of Boy Scouts will be camped at the facility during the weekend. It has been under renovation since being donated to the Buffalo Trail Council by the American Petrofina Foundation. The camp was formerly used as the Cosden Oil and Chemical Company recreation building.

The camp entails some 20 acres which includes a large shoreline area for Lake Colorado City. During the summers, it will serve as an aquatic camp for Boy Scouts statewide.

Activities to be offered will include merit badge training in such skills as sailing, rowing, boating, canoeing, motor boating, skiing and swimming.

Bill Cosby, 'Fatal Attraction' big winners

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Comedian Bill Cosby won four People's Choice Awards and the movie "Fatal Attraction" won three from an admiring public that also bestowed honors on Cybill Shepherd, Dolly Parton and Whitney Houston.

"This is particularly special for me," said Miss Shepherd, named favorite female television performer for her role in ABC's "Moonlighting" despite a shortened role last year due to her pregnancy with twins.

"When you're out of the limelight, you're pregnant with twins and gain 45 pounds and you go through this enormous change, it always goes through the back of your mind, 'Are they going to forget?'"

"It's really nice to know they didn't forget."

The public chose the winners in the 14th annual People's Choice Awards, broadcast Sunday night by CBS-TV.

Winners were determined by a

Gallup poll of 5,000 people older than 12, a statistical representation of nearly 196 million people.

Cosby was named favorite male TV performer for the fourth consecutive year and favorite all-around male entertainer for the third. He also won a new award — all-time favorite TV star — while his top-rated NBC-TV series, "The Cosby Show," won its fourth comedy program award.

NBC's "L.A. Law" was the favorite TV dramatic program.

"Three Men and a Baby" won for comedy movie and "Fatal Attraction" for dramatic motion picture. Its leads, Michael Douglas and Glenn Close, were picked top motion picture performers.

"I want to thank you as my favorite father, and a supporter," Douglas told his father, Kirk Douglas, who presented the award.

"I got so nervous when I got up I didn't thank the people," Miss Close said afterward. "And that's what makes it so special. It's just a cross section of people who have nothing to do with the industry."

Clint Eastwood was chosen all-time favorite movie star, an award presented by Jimmy Stewart.

Miss Parton won favorite all-around female entertainer, and favorite female performer in a new TV program for ABC's "Dolly."

"It's always nice to be recognized," she said backstage.

"This has been a hard year and I've been working really hard on this TV show. It's really nice to know the people are on my side."

Kenny Rogers won his eighth award as male musical performer, tying with Cosby, Burt Reynolds and Barbara Mandrell as an eight-time winner of an individual category.

In other awards, Oprah Winfrey dethroned Johnny Carson as favorite television talk show host. Miss Houston was the favorite female musical performer, the group Bon Jovi was chosen favorite rock group, and Barbra Streisand was the favorite all-time musical star.

John Ritter was the favorite male performer in a new television program for ABC's "Hooperman," while Kirk Cameron of ABC's "Growing Pains" and Keshia Knight-Pulliam of "The Cosby Show" tied for favorite young TV performer.

The top new TV dramatic program was "thirtysomething" on ABC, while NBC's "A Different World" and "My Two Dads" tied in the new TV comedy category.

In a new category, the all-time favorite song was "Somewhere My Love (Lara's Theme)" from the 1965 film, "Dr. Zhivago."

Houston couple hurt in Saturday accident

An elderly Houston couple was treated at Cogdell Memorial Hospital Saturday and Sunday with injuries received in a traffic accident eight miles north of Snyder on U.S. 84.

A.G. Coconaugh, 72, was treated and released Saturday afternoon, and his 70-year-old wife, Willie, was held for 23-hour observation. She was released Sunday afternoon, a hospital spokesman said.

The Department of Public Safety had investigated the accident but had not completed a report on Monday morning. Firemen were called to the accident scene at 1:22 p.m. Saturday and were told to bring the "Jaws of Life" device to extricate the victims from the badly damaged vehicle.

The device was not needed, however, a department spokesman said, and the firemen returned to the station at 2:30 p.m.

Snyder EMS Ambulance Service took the victims to the hospital here.

On final day of primary George Bush is confident

CHICAGO (AP) — The race for a trove of Democratic delegates from Illinois has two favorite sons leading Michael Dukakis, according to the latest polls, while the Republican contest is looking like another George Bush runaway.

One poll out today said Jesse Jackson was pulling ahead of Paul Simon in the battle of favorite sons, while another showed Simon maintaining his advantage. Both showed Dukakis in third place, trying to cut into the home state support of his two Democratic rivals and claim some of the state's 187 Democratic delegates.

Bush, meanwhile, was a prohibitive favorite to add the state to his list of Republican presidential primary victories.

A poll published today in the Chicago Tribune said 32 percent of likely Democratic voters supported Jackson, 29 percent backed Simon and 20 percent said they would vote for Dukakis. Rep. Richard Gephardt of Missouri was the choice of 5 percent and Sen. Albert Gore Jr. of Tennessee had the backing of 4 percent.

The poll, conducted by Peter Hart Research Associates, interviewed 500 likely voters on Friday and Saturday and had a margin of error of 5 percentage points.

An ABC News-Washington Post poll published today in the newspaper gave Simon the lead with 42 percent support to Jackson's 33 percent. Dukakis had 14 percent, Gore 4 percent and Gephardt 3 percent.

Barring a major upset, Bush was expected to pick up the lion's share of the 92 GOP delegates at stake on Tuesday and deliver another blow to Senate Minority Leader Bob Dole's fading candidacy. The Tribune poll showed Bush the choice of 62 percent of GOP voters, compared to just 28 percent for Dole.

As it became more apparent that the vice president was locking up his party's presidential nomination, he became the target of more criticism from Republican and Democratic rivals.

"He certainly has a lot of baggage," Jackson said of Bush.

"I'd like George Bush to tell us whether (Panamanian Gen. Manuel) Noriega was on his payroll when he was CIA director," said Dole.

In a speech at Northwestern University Law School, Gore focused on the Iran-Contra affair and said.

El Paso Co. loser asks for recount

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — District Judge John McKellips, who lost in the Democratic primary by a 3-to-1 margin, says the lopsided loss could mean an error and he wants a hand count of ballots in six El Paso County precincts.

McKellips said he has asked for the recount to test the accuracy of the county's electronic tabulators.

Tom Diamond, chairman of the El Paso County Democratic Party, said McKellips' request Friday for a recount said that it was only the second time the electronic tabulation system had been used in El Paso and because of the lopsided vote against an incumbent, the possibility of an error existed.

Mary Anne Bramblett defeated McKellips, 32,412 to 10,752, in one of the most bitterly-contested elections settled in Tuesday's Democratic primary. Because no Republican filed for the seat, Ms. Bramblett will take over the judgeship in January when McKellips' term expires.

McKellips lost in all 102 El Paso County precincts and in absentee voting.

Ms. Bramblett, 34, was a first assistant county attorney. McKellips, 59, has served two terms as judge in 41st District Court.

During the campaign, six of McKellips' children endorsed Ms. Bramblett, and McKellips charged that Ms. Bramblett distorted his record.

County Elections Administrator Helen Jamison, who oversaw Tuesday's election, said she doesn't blame McKellips for requesting a recount, but "I feel pretty confident that the tabulating results are accurate."

FHLB allows limited audit practices

DALLAS (AP) — Texas savings and loans institutions have concealed losses by use of soft accounting practices condoned by federal regulators, a newspaper reported.

In a Feb. 11 meeting with top thrift auditors, Gary Maxwell, district accountant for the Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas, distributed a letter permitting private auditors of an applying thrift to ignore certain standard audit procedures, the Dallas Times Herald reported Sunday.

FHLB of Dallas officials say the "limited-scope" audits outlined in the letter have been granted to "only a small number of insolvent thrifts currently under supervisory agreements" and do not affect the accuracy of regulatory reports.

According to the most recent FHLB report, the 279 savings and loans in Texas had a negative net worth of $6.17 billion at the end of last year.

But top auditors, thrift experts and former FHLB officials say Maxwell's letter formalizes longstanding FHLB practices that are disguising a potential $12 billion negative net worth in the Texas thrift industry, the newspaper said.

And industry analysts question the credibility of financial statements issued by 145 Texas thrifts that meet or exceed federal capital guidelines. One industry expert, who asked that his name not be used, said it's possible that 50 of the 145 already are insolvent.

"It seems clear to me that the regulators are ducking their problems," the Big Eight accounting firm auditor said.

"How can there be any credibility in the FHLB's reporting," said another Big Eight auditor. "You can't ask for market discipline and at the same time say it's not important to tell the right numbers."

The auditors said it is especially important for regulators to obtain exact information now as they prepare a Texas thrift industry cleanup.

Under the plan, called the "Southwest Plan," 143 state thrifts will be closed, merged or sold at an initial cost of about $6 billion and an annual cost of about $1.7 billion.

"Portions of the thrift industry remain in crisis," said Fernand St Germain, chairman of the House Committee on Banking Finance and Urban Affairs. "It is imperative that reliable and timely financial information be available to accurately assess the extent of the problems and to develop effective strategies to resolve them."

Maxwell said the FHLB is encouraging independent accountants to ignore certain standard procedures of auditing and instead rely on unverified information furnished by bank management or generated by FHLB examiners to cut down on audit costs.

The Federal Home Loan Insurance Corp. requires each institution it insures to be audited at least once a year.

Accounting forebearances in Maxwell's letter include excusing auditors from performing an in-depth review of the adequacy of loan-loss allowance and examining the adequacy of reserves for possible losses that would occur when repossessed properties decline in value after foreclosure.

FHLB officials said they are relying on management teams at insolvent institutions and won't allow a limited-scope audit if they lack confidence in management.

Bid for Ewing Ranch home rejected

DALLAS (AP) — Even with a view of the Dallas skyline, a private lake and a small role in the TV show "Dallas," only one person bid on the Southern Cross Ranch, and that was for less than one-third of the ranch's $6.15 million appraised value.

With the property's location and ties to the show, Ewing Oil — which really owns the ranch — expected the Southern Cross to fetch dozens of bids at an auction Saturday.

But when only one bid surfaced, the Ewings sent San Antonio Realtor William Thompson and his $2 million offer packing with an undisclosed counteroffer.

Thompson said he represents

California investors who were lured by Texas' pari-mutuel horse racing opportunities, not nostalgia.

The Texas Legislature and state voters have approved horse racing with pari-mutuel betting, although tracks have not been built.

"We would like to negotiate," said Timothy W. Bell, Ewing's chief executive officer, adding that Ewing was selling the ranch to turn an unused asset into cash. "But we do expect a higher price."

"I think people look at the condition of real estate in Texas and think that ranches are a dime a dozen."

Though not as famous as Southfork, the television Ewings' stomping ground, Southern Cross is just as lavish. The 455-acre spread boasts a cavernous hacienda atop a hill, a gazebo, swimming pool, guest cottage, "foreman's house" and an unobstructed view of the Dallas skyline.

In the television show's early days, Sue Ellen slept at Southern Cross to get away from J.R. and Clayton Farlow, Miss Ellie's second husband, once called it home.

The ranch had been advertised since summer in national and international newspapers and magazines, said Linda Johnson, a spokeswoman for Nationwide

Auction Co., a real estate marketing service based in Newport Beach, Calif.

Melvin A. Giller, who conducted the auction for the marketing service, said the ad had drawn 1,000 inquiries from almost every state and several foreign countries.

One of the most unusual calls came from a newspaper editor in Glasgow, Scotland, who said Bobby and Pam are more popular than Charles and Diana, Giller said.

Because of the interest, Ms. Johnson said she expected about 200 people to attend the auction. About 75 people showed up for Ewing's barbecue Saturday.

You can lose on Diet Center plan

Diet Center offers a sound nutritional weight reduction program to lose weight quickly and easily. A year-of-free maintenance shows dieters the way to form proper and sensible eating patterns in order to keep the lost weight from being regained. Should a few pounds be gained while maintaining the weight loss, a one day controlling diet gets this weight back off quickly. Dieters feel well while reducing on the Diet Center program due to proper nutritional food consumption.

Dieters lose weight and gain self esteem at Diet Center. As the dieter's shape improves, their feelings of self worth improve. Whether needing to lose five pounds or over one hundred pounds, it can be accomplished by following Diet Center's total program and with the help of Mary Woodall, a certified diet counselor. Mary understands the dieter's needs and feelings toward their bodies while overweight and relates to them for she has had to follow the program also.

Mary received her certification by attending Diet Center, Inc. counselor training schools in Rexburg, Idaho. The school has now been located to Arizona. Diet Center, Inc. is the leading franchise weight loss program with over 2000 locations in the United States and Canada. Over a million pounds of weight have been lost at these various Diet Center locations.

Mary Woodall has helped many Snyder area men, women and children successfully lose weight during her five years as a diet counselor for Diet Center in Snyder. Mary joined Diet Center in 1982 and purchased the dealership shortly thereafter. She enjoys diet counseling on a one to one basis. Dieters are given program booklets to follow and their weight loss progress is recorded and graphed in these individual booklets for the dieter's information. Weight loss records are kept confidential. Mary finds dieters prefer morning weigh-ins and is open from 7:30 to 12:30 week day mornings. Afternoon appointments are available by calling Mary at 573-8583 or 573-0517, or by stopping by Diet Center at 2310 25th Street in Snyder, Texas, located just five blocks west of the square on the Lamesa Highway. Whether your needs are to lose a few pounds or many pounds, Mary would enjoy helping. The cost per week is less than the price of a new outfit, and you will look much better in all your clothes after losing unwanted weight at Diet Center.

Mesa withdraws its cash offer

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — Mesa Limited Partnership, controlled by oilman T. Boone Pickens, said today it has withdrawn its cash offer for Homestake Mining Co.

The offer was withdrawn to acquire all of the equity interest in Homestake Mining Co. in a negotiated transaction for a price of $20 per share in cash, Mesa spokesman David H. Batchelder said in a statement.

LET MARY WOODALL, diet counselor at Diet Center, located at 2310 25th Street, help you lose unwanted weight with proper nutritional food consumption.

Houston federal judges are swamped with cases

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston's federal judges are being swamped with heavy caseloads by presiding over an average of 721 cases and relief is not expected soon.

Federal judges in Houston and the rest of the Southern District of Texas carry the ninth-heaviest workload among judges in 94 districts across the country.

Chief U.S. District Judge John Singleton said vacancies on the bench and a shortage of judgeships, not a lawsuit-happy population, have caused the growing dockets in the Southern District.

U.S. District Judge Carl Bue retired last September, and U.S. District Judge Ross Sterling died in January. U.S. District Judge Gabrielle McDonald has indicated she will resign this summer.

Kenneth Hoyt, a state appeals judge nominated to fill Bue's post, is expected to be approved by the U.S. Senate and be sworn in this spring. Houston attorney Simeon Lake, nominated to replace Sterling, may not make it through the approval process before a new administration is sworn in in Washington.

Singleton said the Judicial Conference of the United States, a panel of judges that sets policy for the federal judiciary, has recommended for years that three new judgeships be created for the Southern District.
