Accidental mishap fatal to pedestrian at east 37th Street

A 27-year-old Fisher County native was killed by an east-bound pickup truck as he attempted to cross the 700 Block of East 37th St. Monday night. Police said Rex Kemp had been attending the Western Texas College basketball games at nearby Scurry County Coliseum and was crossing the 50-mph-speed-limit highway-street from north to south when the 9:45 p.m. accident happened.

They said another motorist witnessed the incident and that the driver of the 1986 Dodge pickup that was involved, Ben Carreon, 21, of Roby, was not considered to have been at fault. The pickup was towed following the incident, although an officer said damage to it was minor. Services for Kemp are scheduled at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church in Roby with the Rev. Jim Hawthorn officiating. Burial will follow in Nienda Cemetery. He was born Sept. 24, 1911 in McCaulley. He lived in Fisher County all of his life, was a retired farmer and taught a men's Sunday School class. He was married to Mamie Lee Fields Dec. 15, 1935 in McCaulley. She survives. Q. — How and when can we apply for jobs at Walmart?

A. — The local Texas Employment Commission has received no word yet, although they speculate no hiring will be done until a manager is named and this is not slated until sometime in December.

In Brief

Victor talks

TORONTO (AP) — In a victory speech today, Prime Minister Brian Mulroney said Canada had chosen the road to free trade with the United States after a bruising election campaign that focused on the country's future.

Mulroney called for an end to divisiveness after voters returned him to office with 169 seats in the 295-seat House of Commons. He said he would call legislators promptly into session to pass the bill.

He defeated two rivals who based their campaign on opposition to the trade pact Mulroney signed with President Reagan. They claimed Mulroney's free trade program would subordinate Canada to the United States and ultimate rob Canada of its Sovereignty.

MCorp update

DALLAS (AP) — As MCorp continues to work on a recapitalization plan involving federal assistance, bondholders are holding off on demanding debt repayment, officials of the holding company said.

None of the MCorp noteholders accelerated maturity on indebtedness Monday, as the day passed on which they could take that action, according to George McCane, senior vice president for corporate affairs for MCorp.

If creditors demanded repayment, the move could have forced MCorp into involuntary bankruptcy. Dallas-based MCorp began a moratorium on payments of interest and principal Oct. 21 and had asked noteholders to refrain from demanding immediate repayment.

Prices go up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A second straight sharp increase in clothing prices associated with the new fall lines sent consumer prices up 0.4 percent in October, the government said today.

The 1.8 percent gain in apparel costs was accompanied by a moderation in price gains for food, which had posted steep, drought-related increases over the summer.

The jump in clothing prices was virtually as steep as the 2.0 percent increase posted in September. Over the last three months, apparel costs have replaced hospital costs and food prices as the greatest stimulant of inflation, the Labor Department said in releasing today's report.

Teacher shot, student sought in Abilene today

ABILENE, Texas (AP) — A teacher was shot with a derringer today outside Abilene Cooper High School and a male student was being sought in the attack, police said.

Detective Mike Hawkins said the incident happened between 10:20 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. The teacher was identified as Rick Maloney, who was in stable, fair condition in the emergency room at Humana Hospital, hospital officials said.

"It happened outside at the tennis courts," said Hawkins, who had no information on whether the student also was injured.

Secretary of defense...

Tower not yet offered job

POINT CLEAR, Ala. (AP) — President-elect George Bush said today he has not yet decided on his choice for secretary of defense despite widespread reports that he will name former Sen. John Tower of Texas.

"No decision has been made," Bush said when asked about news reports saying Tower would likely get the key Cabinet job. "The Tower story is not right."

Bush said he hopes to finish naming top-level members of his team within a month but expressed mild irritation about "reading these stories about what I have decided." He indicated the defense job would not be filled this week.

In Washington, Kim Garvin, a Tower spokeswoman, said: "He at present has not been asked. He is on hold."

The vice president spoke to reporters traveling with him aboard Air Force Two to a Republican governors conference in Point Clear, Ala.

At the meeting, he told the governors he had not wavered in his resolve to avoid raising taxes as a way of trying to reduce the federal budget deficit.

However, he said, "This problem of the federal deficit is pressing. On the first day of my presidency, I will name negotiators to represent the executive branch in deficit talks with the Congress."

He told the 20 GOP governors and two governors-elect at the meeting that results of the election will be discussed.

Doctor search due talk

The topic of physician recruitment will again surface Tuesday during the regular November meeting of the Cogdell Memorial Hospital Board, changed to a Tuesday date this month due to Thanksgiving.

The board of managers will gather for an evening meal at 6:30 p.m. with the business session to follow at 7 p.m.

Administrator Tom Hochwalt is to discuss with the board the possibility of employing a physician recruiter to secure a family practice specialist for Cogdell.

Hochwalt indicated he was not prepared to make that recommendation Tuesday but would like to discuss the possibility with the board. If ultimately approved, it would follow similar action already undertaken in the search for both an internal medicine specialist and a general surgeon here.

Hochwalt is to update the board also on the progress in the physician search underway for these two medical areas.

It is being undertaken by the See HOSPITAL, page 9

Rural ISDs 'pass' TEAMS at 80 percent rate

Students at Hermleigh ISD scored high enough on TEAMS tests administered last school year to qualify them as falling within the top 25 percent of Texas school districts statewide.

Both Hermleigh and Ira school students had passing rates at the 80 percent level. Hermleigh receiving an 80.9 percent passing rate and Ira, 79.1 percent.

Ira ISD ranked in the middle 50 percent of schools statewide with its "adjusted scale score" of 806.8. Hermleigh, to rank in the top 25 percent, had an adjusted scale score of 822.

The lowest scaled score noted for a "1" rating was 815. A rating of 2 meant the district fell within the middle 50 percent statewide and a rating of 3 indicated the district fell within the lower 25 percent.

This information was released recently by the Texas Education

Agency, which noted statewide TEAMS scores are showing a marked improvement in the majority of the state's school districts.

TEAMS is an exam to measure basic reading, writing and math skills. It is given annually to students in odd-numbered grades to include first, third, fifth, seventh, ninth and 11th graders.

To compute the "adjusted scale score" statewide, TEA officials did not include scores of first graders.

The scaled score formula also used calculations designed to avoid unfairly penalizing school districts where more students took the "harder" tests—those given at higher grade levels.

Adjustments were made also to account for the number of students taking the test.

The following information related to TEAMS was released regarding the two rural school districts in Scurry County.

—Hermleigh ISD: A general rating of 1 or in the upper 25 percent range when compared statewide. The average adjusted scaled score was 822 which was an improvement over the previous year by 33 points. The percentage of students passing the TEAMS test was 80.9 percent.

—Ira ISD: A general rating of 2. The percentage of students passing the TEAMS test was 79.1 percent.

FFA teams compete for chance at state

Leadership teams from both Snyder and Ira FFA Chapters competed at area contests held in Big Spring Saturday with two teams from Ira advancing to state-level competition.

The teams from both schools had won the right to compete by advancing from district contests.

Two teams from Snyder competed and four from Ira.

At Saturday's area competition, the FFA quiz team from Snyder High School finished fourth and the chapter conducting team placed third.

The FFA quiz team was comprised of Dusty Sterling, Joe Gordy and Marty Shields. Members of the chapter conducting team were Jimmy Kitchens, Terry Leatherwood, Amy Dixon, Shawn Uptergrove, Sid Franklin, Mark Stansell, Kim Massey and James Henderson.

The Ira teams earning the right to advance to state included the first-place winning senior farm skills team of Alan Martinez, David Holmes and Gary Gunet.

Also winning first place was the junior chapter conducting team consisting of Jody Elam, Roger Lindsey, Michael Latham, Joe Luna, Brett Long, Chris Haynes, Travis Goswick and Kory Clark.

The state contest will be held Dec. 3 at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville.

Two other Ira FFA teams also placed Saturday. The farm radio team and the senior chapter conducting teams each won fourth place. Farm radio team

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Real luxury is having so many closets that one of them is empty."

We missed last month's official observance of "Ask A Stupid Question Day." However, there is no law that says such inquiries have to be made only on that day.

We deal with questions on a daily basis here at the newspaper. We don't view them as dumb questions, but we have been accused of dumb answers.

Such a day may be a good idea since it would give folks an opportunity to satisfy a burning curiosity about any number of issues.

Why doesn't the U.S. surgeon general either shave his chin whiskers or grow a full beard? Does he believe that a mustache can be hazardous to your health?

Is there a plot that makes every light blub in the house burn out at almost the same time?

Why does the other line always move faster? Do all service station attendants always have that sinister gleam in their eye, or does it come only when they inform you that your car is two quarts low on oil?

Has anyone ever really ordered a Slim Whiteman record?

Will Roger Staubach ever come out of retirement?

Why is the new employee being trained always in my checkout line?

If Dr. Joyce Brothers married author James Joyce, would that be cause for rejoicing?

What would happen if the national debt went unpaid? Could the country be repossessed?

Why does the last cookie always taste the best?

Why does the stomach growl only during quiet times in church?

Why do I play better golf when playing alone?

Are Jim Wright's eyebrows for real?

Is Elvis Presley really dead?

Why should stupid questions be limited to just one day a year?

Amnesty deadline approaches

HARLINGEN, Texas (AP) — With the deadline nearly here for the final group eligible to apply for amnesty under the immigration reform law, agricultural workers have started camping out for the final rush at legalization centers.

"There have been lines daily," said John Armistead, a spokesman for the Immigration and Naturalization Service's 13-state Southern Region based in Dallas. "The offices are very, very busy."

About 300 people were waiting when the business day began at 8 a.m. Monday at the INS' Legalization Center in Harlingen. Some said they had camped out since Saturday to keep a good place in line.

That meant good business for

Gloria Barrera, manager of a nearby Circle K convenience store. Ten people were in line to use the store's restroom, but they represented all of the snack foods, coffee and other survival items bought by the aspiring legal residents who braved a cold front and light drizzle over the weekend.

"I'm going to miss them," said Ms. Barrera, who had just finished calling in a request for more coffee pots.

Mario Luis Vasquez, 27, a native of San Fernando in the Mexican state of Tamaulipas had camped out at the Harlingen center since Saturday to ensure that his application would be received Monday. He and a friend came prepared with blankets for the ordeal.

"It is in order to be legal, so they'll pay us a just wage," Vasquez said.

Buenos Aires, Argentina, natives Fernando Balbi, 28, and Sylvia Menendez, 35, had been at the Harlingen center since Sunday.

"There will be more peace of mind being legal," Ms. Menendez said.

Some 1.1 million people have applied under the special agricultural worker (SAW) program, more than twice the number of farm workers the agency had expected to apply, said Vern Jervis, an INS spokesman in Washington.

The SAW program, however, has been riddled with fraud, officials said, and more than 100 cases are under prosecution.

SAW applicants must document that they worked in U.S. agriculture for 90 days in certain types of crops between May 1985 and May 1986, or that they worked for 90 days in each of the years 1983, 1984 and 1985.

Deadline for applying under the SAW program is midnight Nov. 30.

The deadline for non-agricultural amnesty applicants was midnight May 4, when legalization centers saw a similar last-minute crunch.

Hance believes quota agreement may be reached

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Railroad Commissioner Kent Hance said Monday he believes OPEC will reach a new oil production agreement that could increase prices, but he warned that there is also a chance any deal might fall through.

Hance is in Vienna, Austria, where ministers of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries are meeting to try and resolve a dispute between Iran and Iraq that is delaying a quota agreement.

"I think there's an 80 percent chance they're going to reach an agreement," said Hance in a telephone interview from Vienna. But he added there still is the possibility OPEC countries will fail to resolve their differences, which would cause a further tumble in oil prices.

Hance said the 13 OPEC countries appear headed toward signing on to a quota of 18.5 million barrels per day. Such a quota, he said, would boost oil prices from the $13 to $14 range to $16 or $17.

Currently, OPEC produces about 21 million barrels of per day. The result of such production has been falling oil prices and a dramatic lessening of domestic production, which has hurt energy-based states such as Texas.

Dr. Gott

Peter Gott, M.D.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I recently received a letter from my dad — who lives three blocks away. In it he said he was sure his apartment was bugged and that the people upstairs had a CB with which they were broadcasting demonic messages to him. He has been acting a bit weird lately, but this takes the cake. What should I do? I don't know if he has tinnitus or dementia.

DEAR READER: The type of mental aberration your father is experiencing is a common consequence of the aging process and of certain drugs — especially those used for cardiovascular disease and insomnia.

If his perceptions are unrealistic (and I assume they are), he is showing evidence of paranoid delusions. This could be a form of dementia, loss of good reality testing and judgment — or a reversible, drug-related phenomenon. I doubt that tinnitus (ringing in the ears) is a consideration.

Your first step should be to contact your father's doctor, explain the situation and request assistance. A medical examination and testing are certainly in order.

In my opinion, the problem should be placed directly in the doctor's lap; the physician is in the best position to supervise and coordinate an investigation that will certainly include treatment and, perhaps, the utilization of a nursing home if your father is becoming incapable of caring for himself.

If your father is not under the care of a physician, find one. Or, consider taking him to the emergency room at your local hospital. Your priorities at this point are to find assistance in diagnosing your father's ailment and obtaining the necessary help for him, before he harms himself or others.

For example, older patients with paranoid delusions may come to believe that they are persecuted and that their food is poisoned. They stop eating. Nutritional deficiency may become a problem.

In addition, paranoid patients are often confused and may forget to take their medicines — or take too many, thereby contributing to the deficiency.

Thus, medical attention is your first and best step. Other resources — such as specialists, visiting nurses and home health aides — can be brought in at the doctor's discretion.

DEAR DR. GOTT: When I was a kid, polio was rampant. Are there still people in iron lungs? How much polio is around?

DEAR READER: Since the advent of childhood polio immunizations, the disease has become rare in most of the Western world. Sporadic cases do occur, such as the recent epidemic in Israel, in children and adults who have not been immunized.

Some parents refuse to allow their children to have baby vaccines — either because of religious preference or because the adults don't understand how important childhood immunizations are. Such children are placed at unnecessary risk, in my opinion.

In many parts of the underdeveloped world — especially Asia and Africa — polio remains a rampant killer and maimer of children. There are several international efforts underway to bring polio immunization to these areas.

The iron lung is a cumbersome ventilating machine, popularized years ago by Sister Kenny, a pioneer in the treatment of polio during the 1940s. Patients are placed into the machine, with only their heads exposed, and a bellows device breathes for them.

The iron lung was developed for patients whose polio had paralyzed the muscles of respiration. Iron lungs are still used today, but only for adults who had severe polio as children.

Ninth victory with 76-49 win...

Dusters romp over Ranger

It took the Lady Dusters almost a half to solve the mystery but when they did, Ranger was victim number nine as Western Texas' women romped, 76-49, here Monday night.

"They play a match-up zone and it's real effective for a little while against us because we don't see it that much," said Coach Kelly Chadwick. "You've got to hit from the outside because it shuts the post game down."

Valery Jackson came off the bench to bag 19 and regular Stephanie McKnight scored 11 as the point-guard position accounted for almost 30 points. Stacy Smith added 12, mostly from the perimeter.

Western trailed only twice in the game but never after Joy Muller converted on a three-point play with 6:20 left in the first half. Led by Jackson, a 5-10 freshman from Morton, the Dusters scored seven of the final 8 points in the half to lead 33-23. Jackson tallied 11 of her points in the 20-minute period, including six straight just before intermission.

Western came out in the second half ready to put the Rangers away. Though some good shooting from Trisha Young kept RJC within 8 for several minutes, the Dusters finally broke free on a 10-point run. Jackson got the first four points, followed by Smith and Nickey Allen. Smith scored again before Tuju Cornell hit a free throw for Ranger to break the string with 11:14 to play. A free shot from Tami Wilson and a 3-point goal by McKnight completed a 14-1 run and gave Western an unsurmountable, 53-32 lead.

Last Saturday, Chadwick had left his starters on the bench during a 49-40 win over Temple, electing to give his less experienced players some time on the court. Jackson and Tabitha Walton were two key players in that win, and gave a solid effort again Monday.

"Valery played great tonight and Tabitha played real well. I think one of the reasons is they played so much against Temple. We're trying to develop a bench," said Coach Chadwick. "I thought our bench played well tonight."

In addition to Jackson, Smith and McKnight, Allen scored 10 for the Lady Dusters. Wilson tossed in 9 and Muller added 8.

Young, a 5-11 freshman, led Ranger with 20 points. Cornell added 16.

Next action for Western Texas, 9-4, will be Wednesday in Cisco at 6 p.m.

Tigers host Lee in final home game for awhile

If you want to catch the Tigers at home - and they're off to a hot start - be at Scurry County Coliseum tonight. Otherwise, you'll have to wait until next year.

Coach Larry Scott's cagers are 2-0 on the season and go after their third straight win over a Class 5A opponent when Midland Lee comes calling at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students at the gate. A junior varsity game tips off at 6 p.m.

Tonight's action represents the final Tiger home game until 1989 - Jan. 10, in fact - when Snyder hosts Lake View in its fourth district ballgame.

Snyder High School's Lady Tigers are out of town this evening, playing in Robert Lee at 6:30 p.m. The ladies are off to an 0-3 start and hoping to find their first victory tonight. A junior varsity contest is set for 5 p.m.

"They'd better catch us now if they're going to see us at home for awhile," quipped Coach Scott after his Tigers defeated Lubbock High 64-51 on Saturday.

Following tonight's game, the boys play in Levelland on Nov. 26, against Brownwood in Abilene on Nov. 29, in the Levelland Tournament on Dec. 1-3, Mineral Wells in Clyde on Dec. 6, in the Denver City Tournament on Dec. 8-10, at Seminole on Dec. 13, at Andrews for their first District 4-4 game Dec. 20, in the Brownwood Tournament on Dec. 29-31, at Big Spring on Jan. 3, and at Fort Stockton on the 6th before finally playing another home game on the 10th.

Tech players may be charged

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Officials said they expect arrest warrants to be issued today for two starters on the Texas Tech football team, including wide receiver Eddy Anderson, one of school's all-time leading pass receivers.

School officials say they are studying the situation that stems from a sexual assault complaint by an 18 year-old woman

Williams hits late shot as...

Western holds on for 79-77 triumph

Bernard Williams nailed a short jumper with five seconds to play here Monday, lifting Western Texas' Westerners to a 79-77 win over Ranger Junior College.

Western had led by as many as 13 points in the second half but some accurate shooting from Ken Austin put Ranger within seven points, 69-62, with less than five minutes to play. Back-to-back WTC turnovers allowed Chris Walker to score four more points as the Rangers threatened.

Western held on to a dwindling lead with a bucket from sophomore point Keith Hawkins and by hitting four of six free throws over the final 2:48.

With 21 seconds left, Williams bagged two free throws as Western held a 77-74 advantage. The Westerners would be pushed to the wire on this one, however. James Bell canned a 3-pointer to tie the game and WTC called time with 13 seconds to play.

"We wanted to take it inside and Bernard did a good job of that," said Coach Tony Mauldin. "We wanted to go to the post or get the short jumper."

Williams dribbled around one player along the perimeter, headed toward the bucket and stopped-n-popped from eight feet out. With no timeouts left to plan last-second strategy, Ranger attempted to improvise and never got off a final shot.

The win was the Westerners' sixth in just seven games this season. Mauldin said it was an important one.

"Winning close games gives you confidence, that's the positive thing," said the coach. "It's important to win the close ones."

The teams had fought back and fourth the entire first half with Western holding a 31-28 lead at intermission. The Westerners used a trapping defense effectively in the final 20 minutes and got a strong performance from 6-7 freshman Vladimir McCrary.

"We needed something to get us going so we went to a half-court trap," said Mauldin. "I thought we would break the game open there a couple of times but we weren't able to."

McCrary scored 16 of his team-high 18 in the second half, sprinkling points between those by Williams, Hawkins and Bobby Spear. Only five minutes into the half, Western had a 49-36 advantage.

That was before Ranger came back to eventually tie the game and set up Williams' winning shot.

"They didn't shoot the ball as well as they can tonight," said Mauldin of Ranger, which hit 11 3-pointers in an 86-84 loss to Western earlier this season. "We were off and on and they made a spurt right there at the end. We need for that to be a lesson to us - put them away when you get the chance."

Williams complimented McCrary's 18 points with 16 of his own. Spear scored 13 and Hawkins added 11. McCrary led on the boards with 13 rebounds.

Ranger, 4-9, got 30 points from Austin, a 6-5 high-leaping sophomore from Grand Crane, La. Walker added 14 and Bell had 9.

Western will enter the three-day Odessa Tournament in Odessa this Thursday. The Westerners will play at 4 p.m. each day in the classic-style format, facing Pratt, Kan. on Thursday, Hill County College on Friday and TSTI of Waco on Saturday.

Lawmakers busy filing bills

AUSTIN (AP) — State lawmakers are busy preparing for the legislative session, filing bills on subjects ranging from "cruising" and repeal of the "LBJ Law."

Legislators have filed 140 bills — 113 in the House and 27 in the Senate — since last Monday, according to the offices of the Secretary of the Senate and Chief Clerk of the House. That was the first day lawmakers could file bills for the regular session that begins Jan. 10.

If history is any guide, these bills are only the tip of the legislative iceberg. During the last regular session, 4,179 bills were filed and 1,185 eventually became law.

In the House, state Rep. Ric Williamson, D-Weatherford, has filed a bill that would entitle local authorities to designate a "no-cruising zone."

Under this bill, a local authority could establish the zone and penalties for drivers that cruise through the zone a number of times.

State Rep. Bill Wentworth, R-San Antonio, has submitted a measure that would repeal the "LBJ Law." That law allowed Democrats Lyndon Johnson in 1960 and Sen. Lloyd Bentsen in 1988 to seek the vice presidency while running for re-election to their Senate seats.

State Rep. Ron Wilson has reprised his handgun law, which failed last session. The bill would allow Texans to apply for licenses to carry a handgun.

Wilson, a Houston Democrat, also has filed a bill that would allow voters to register at the polls on Election Day, and one that would require establishments that sell liquor to display a sign saying alcohol consumption may cause birth defects.

Rep. Jim Parker, D-Comanche, has filed a bill that would allow the commercial raising of Tilapia tropical fish.

One of Parker's constituents raises Tilapia and sells them.

Nov. 23, 1988

Advantages will be bestowed on you in the year ahead that you would never be able to develop on your own. The secret to your success lies in cooperation and teamwork.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Don't expect too much to result from agreements you negotiate today. There's a possibility that neither party will take their commitments as sincerely as they should. Major changes are ahead for Sagittarius in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Where your career is concerned today try not to overburden yourself with more than you can comfortably manage. Your intentions may be industrious, but the load could be too heavy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) This might not be a good day to get involved in anything that smacks too heavily of chance or where you're relying solely on the benevolence of Lady Luck.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) It's important today that you complete what you begin, especially if it is something where others are counting on your performance.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) When implementing your plans today, don't leave the important elements up to chance. In order for your procedures to be successful, they'll have to be monitored every step of the way.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Be extra alert and careful today if you're involved in a testy financial or commercial arrangement. Impulsive behavior could have a deleterious effect on the bottom line.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Treat any type of partnership association with kid gloves today, because this could be a critical area. If you and your counterpart do not have harmony of purpose, the results may be undesirable.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You could be a trifle unrealistic today and commit yourself to something that you may later regret. Analyze matters wisely to be sure your actions serve your best interests.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Usually you're rather fond of group endeavors, but today it might be smart to avoid the crowd and operate as independently of others as possible.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Try not to put yourself in a tenuous position today where you have to depend on associates to achieve your objectives. Their support may not be forthcoming.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Unfortunately, you might put more credence in your emotions than in the facts today. Viewing things from this perspective will distort the issues.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) This might not be one of your better financial days, nor is it wise for you to offer economic advice to another. To be on the safe side, keep your suggestions to yourself.

Businesses worry about tourism

LAJITAS, Texas (AP) — Shootings that left one man dead in the Big Bend country of southwest Texas have unnerved tourists who planned to raft in the Rio Grande during Thanksgiving weekend, but most are keeping their bookings.

Raft trips through the Colorado Canyons were canceled after one man was killed and his wife and a tour guide were injured when they were ambushed with gunfire while rafting in the area.

"People are calling and saying, 'Hey, I'm booked. Is it safe?' And we tell them that of course we're not going down Colorado Canyon. But they're coming," said Ed Allen, assistant manager of Lajitas-based Big Bend River Tours.

At least two snipers, firing from the rim of Colorado Canyon on the Mexican side of the river are believed to have been involved in the Saturday attack.

Bill Ivey, who owns Lajitas Trading Post and rents rafts to river adventurers, said a couple of people canceled rental reservations, "but I've had a couple of people calling to make them."

Thanksgiving is the last busy weekend of the year. Business picks up again in the spring. Ivey said the real test of how the sniper attack affected tourism will come then.

"It depends on whether they find them and the reason for the attack," he said.

FDA approves new cancer drug

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alpha interferon, a natural disease fighter already used to treat leukemia, can now be used to battle Kaposi's sarcoma, a cancer that primarily attacks AIDS patients.

The Food and Drug Administration announced Monday that alpha interferon was shown in tests to be effective against Kaposi's and now is approved for treatment of the cancer that has become common among AIDS victims.

Alpha interferon is a disease fighter that is present in the body naturally in small amounts, but has been artificially produced in large quantities in recent years through the use of gene-splicing techniques. It previously had been approved for treatment of hairy-cell leukemia and for genital warts.

In 1921, Margaret Gorman of Washington was crowned the first "Miss America" at Atlantic City, N. J.

Dear Abby

Shock of Kennedy's Death Recalled at 25th Anniversary

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: News reports indicate that there will be more than the usual annual publicity on the 25th anniversary of the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Shortly after that unforgettable day, I wrote a poem about the death of President Kennedy and submitted it for publication to the Pacific Telephone Co. where I was employed. It was published in the in-house publication (I retired from the telephone company 15 years ago.)

This poem was never copyrighted, so anyone who wishes to use it may do so. Abby, I have enjoyed your column for many years and would be honored if you chose to print it.

This poem is not intended to be any kind of political statement. I voted for Kennedy, but I also voted for Eisenhower, Nixon and Reagan.

ON THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

I felt the shock and rage and grief
And gloom and utter disbelief!
I heard the news; somehow it seemed
That it was only something dreamed.

The president was shot, they said —
A sniper's bullet through the head.
He'd fallen, and a red blood stain
Spread on the spot his head was laid.

There cradled by his young wife's arm,
Unable now to stop the harm.
My God, what sort of troubled brain
Would plot a deed of such disdain?

We ought by law to burn in flame
Such seekers of ignoble fame;
Yes, burn and torture publicly
To quell such thoughts of infamy!

Or am I giving vent to hate
Like that which brewed this tragic fate?
If Kennedy could speak, I'm sure,
He'd want us only to endure.

His passing just as we have done,
Then work to make this country one
Which really gives equality
To those who strive to keep it free.

A nation that will now unite
More strongly for his goals of right.
This land, this world will better be Because of John F. Kennedy.

FRED GROBEE,
GARDEN GROVE, CALIF.

DEAR READERS: Where were you when you heard "the news"? My husband and I were in Tokyo, traveling with then-California Attorney General Stanley Mosk and his wife. (He is now associate justice of the California State Supreme Court.)

Mosk was awakened about 5 a.m. by a telephone call from the United States, relating the terrible news. We all turned on the TV and saw Jack Ruby kill Oswald! Our reaction? Shock, horror and disbelief.

We were enormously touched by the sympathy extended by the Japanese people. Wherever we went — in the elevator, in the lobby of our hotel and on the streets of Tokyo — Japanese strangers bowed their heads and said softly, "So sorry about your president!"

We were in no mood to continue our vacation, so we cut our trip short and returned home.

CONFIDENTIAL TO HURTING: Cry your eyes out. Let yourself go, and let the tears flow. Give your grief a chance to express itself. It's healthy. Don't try to put on a "brave" show. It takes honesty, strength and courage for a man to express his emotions. That is real manliness. The weak man hides his feelings.

The facts about drugs, AIDS, and how to prevent unwanted pregnancy are all in Abby's new, expanded booklet, "What Every Teen Should Know." To order, send your name and address, plus check or money order for $3.50 ($4 in Canada) to: Dear Abby's Teen Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054. Postage is included.

 tion two weeks ago show that a majority of Americans "agree with our philosophy." And he said, "We are on our way to becoming the majority party in America if we don't lose sight of what is driving our success."

Though Bush won the presidency, the Democrats gained one in the balance of governorships, one seat in the Senate and three seats in the House — in all of which they hold majorities.
 Later today, Bush was heading to Houston for a get-acquainted meeting with President-elect Carlos Salinas de Gortari of Mexico, who takes office Dec. 1.

The leaders are expected to discuss the economy, trade, drug enforcement, and possibly immigration at the private talks and luncheon at the Johnson Space Center in Houston, according to Sheila Tate, Bush's spokeswoman. Bush also said he welcomed Monday's election victory of Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney with whom he said he had a "special kind of friendly personal relationship." Mulroney beat back a challenge from John Turner, leader of Canada's Liberal Party.

Mulroney's victory "was most interesting because to a degree it was a referendum on getting the free trade agreement through," Bon they remain anonymous, say the former head of the Senate Armed Services Committee is a likely selection for defense secretary.

Cavazos 'mends fences'

WASHINGTON (AP) — In just two months as the first Hispanic to serve in the Cabinet, Education Secretary Lauro F. Cavazos has extended an olive branch to teacher unions and other groups that bitterly opposed Reagan administration education policies.

Cavazos' predecessor, William J. Bennett, often blamed those groups for many of the troubles ailing U.S. schools.

After President-elect George Bush announced Monday that he was keeping Cavazos, the education secretary said, "There is much to be done. We will continue our thrust in the directions we've moved in already, and we will have the clear mandate from our department to educate every person in America to their fullest potential."

At his first news conference as secretary two months ago, Cavazos said, "I really bring no agenda other than to try to advance education in America. We're all on the side of the angels."

Mary Futrell, president of the National Education Association, hailed Bush's action.

"This reappointment is a hopeful sign that Mr. Bush will fulfill his campaign promise to become 'the education president,'" she said, adding that during his two months in Reagan's Cabinet, Cavazos has brought "a new atmosphere of good will and cooperation that was clearly lacking under his predecessor."

Some of the same qualities that have won Cavazos praise from the NEA and other education groups have raised hackles among conservatives who fear Cavazos is too liberal for their tastes.

For Cavazos, 61, the son of a foreman on the King Ranch in Texas, education has been the pathway to repeated success, first as a physiology Ph.D. and professor, later as dean of the Tufts University School of Medicine and, from 1980 until recently, as president of his alma mater, Texas Tech University.

Now he faces the challenge of trying to sustain and expand the reform movement that has reverberated through American education since April 1983, when a panel of Reagan administration advisers warned of "a rising tide of mediocrity" engulfing U.S. schools.

Cavazos began his own education in a one-room schoolhouse on the 800,000-acre King Ranch with other Hispanic children of ranch hands. When he was ready to start third grade, his family moved to the town of Kingsville, Texas, where he became the first Hispanic child to enroll in the local school.

His father stressed the importance of education to all his children. One became a four-star Army general. Another won honors as a college football running back and now owns his own ranch.

Cavazos enlisted in the Army upon graduation from high school and was contemplating a career as a commercial fisherman when he was discharged. His father vetoed that idea and took him to enroll instead at Texas Tech.

"I am convinced education is the key to many things," Cavazos said when Reagan nominated him. "If you have sufficient education you can solve almost any problem in the world. Famine. Ecological problems. Nuclear problems. Racism. They're all solved with education."

He met his wife, Peggy, a registered nurse, at Texas Tech. They married 33 years ago and have 10 children—seven of them Texas Tech graduates—including a physician, an architect, a teacher and two pilots.

Cavazos has voted Democratic in past elections and angered some conservatives by refusing to record a blanket endorsement ad for Republican congressional candidates. But he did campaign across the Southwest for Bush, who is a fellow Texan and old friend.

Cavazos has called himself "a very, very strong advocate of bilingual education. But my goal is to make the person competent as quickly as possible in English."
