LOVELLY SNOW!

Outstanding Judges Named For Next Week's Fat Stock Show

Two of the top-ranked animal husbandry experts in the Panhandle-Plains area will be here next week to serve as judges in Olton's eleventh annual FFA, 4-H and FHA Stock Show.

They are Ray C. Mowery, professor in the animal husbandry department at Texas Technological College, and Stanley E. Anderson, associate professor of animal husbandry at Texas Tech. Prof. Mowery will judge sheep and hogs, and Prof. Anderson will judge beef cattle.

Mr. Mowery received his bachelor's degree at Texas A & M in 1921, and taught vocational agriculture at Lubbock High School for five years. He received his master's degree from Iowa State College in 1926.

He has been professor of animal husbandry at Texas Tech since 1926, is a member of the American Society of Animal Production, and has been vice-president and president of the National Block and Bridle Club.

Prof. Mowery is best known for the many livestock shows that he has judged, and for the sheep feeding experiments carried out under his direction.

Prof. Anderson received his B.S. in agriculture from Iowa State, and his master's degree from Texas Tech in 1951. After graduation from Iowa in 1948, he worked for a time with the Iowa State Extension Service and the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Judging of all rabbits and poultry at next week-end's big stock show will be capably handled as in prior years by Elmo Hall.

"Plans are shaping up, and it looks like the show will really be a dandy," stock show directors said this week.

Show dates are Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 16-17-18. Thursday will be given over to entering livestock. Schedule for Friday includes the grand opening of the show, judging of rabbits and poultry during the morning, and judging of swine and sheep in the afternoon. Included on Saturday's schedule are the FHA awards, judging of dairy and beef cattle, grading of commercial steers, judging of fat steers, and the annual auction sale.

The Olton show is being talked as "the biggest community

She will study at home and take the last few weeks of her course in active training in Minnesota. After she completes her schooling, she will be placed with an airline of her choice. "I am so excited," LaNelda exclaimed, "that I'm already flying!"

Olton Doctors Find Going Tough As Storm Hampers Transportation

Transportation was an acute problem during the snow storm for Olton Memorial Hospital Doctors Ben Souders, Jim Fite and Lynn Fite.

They made house calls on foot, aboard tractors and one even contemplated going on horseback but the weather was too rough even for the horse.

The three doctors appeared little the worse for their hardships Monday.

Thompson Brothers Implement Company put a John Deere tractor at the disposal of the hospital. Aboard this conveyance Dr. Jim Fite made several trips between his home at the western outskirts of town and the hospital.

Dr. Lynn Fite said calls in the country were made aboard tractors at the height of the storm. Calls in town were made on foot.

Dr. Fite said there seems to be very little illness during the inclement weather.

Business Manager Jimmy Evans remained at the hospital through the storm.

Laboratory Technician Ray Thornton gave the doctors an assist. He rode part of the way on a tractor and then walked the remainder of the way to the Carl Macon home to give Mr. and Mrs. Carl Macon injections in treatment for virus illness.

RAIN??

H. C. Winburn, chief of the Weather Bureau at Amarillo, told The Enterprise by telephone Tuesday that the outlook for the next few days is for rain rather than snow. Winburn said rising temperatures and light to locally heavy rainfall is expected through Friday.

Mother, Child Overcome By Gas Fumes At Home Monday Morning

Mrs. J. D. Burnett and her three-year-old daughter, Jewell Dean, were overcome by gas or gas fumes Monday morning at their home on the Morris Gene Brown place about 8½ miles northwest of Olton.

Mr. Burnett is employed on the Brown place.

Dr. Lynn Fite and Jimmy Evans rushed toward the scene as fast as possible in the Olton hospital ambulance. With them they took the Olton fire department portable resuscitator.

They were met at the F. M. Holland place, about a mile and a half from the Brown farm, by Mr. Brown and Mr. Burnett who transported the victims by pickup and then by tractor to the neighbor's home.

The mother and child were then sped to the Olton hospital where Dr. Fite said their condition was good Tuesday morning.

The near tragedy occurred about 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Burnett had been out fueling the tractors to haul feed for the cattle. He returned to the house to find his wife and daughter sprawled on the floor.

Mr. Brown notified the hospital. He also administered artificial respiration to the two victims until the doctor arrived.

SNOW STORM KEEPS FATHER FROM WEDDING

L. R. Goynes couldn't get home for his daughter's wedding Friday night because of the snow and ice.

Mr. Goynes had gone to Amarillo and began his drive home Friday but just got as far as Plainview. His daughter, Loy, was married to Bennie Doggett in the Olton Methodist Church Friday night while her father was stalled in Plainview.

Mr. Goynes had to stay in Plainview until Monday before the highway was safe for driving home.

HIGHWAYS BLOCKED, MOTORISTS STRANDED; SNOW BENEFICIAL TO SOIL FARMERS SAY

COMPILED BY THE ENTERPRISE STAFF

Olton floundered in snow drifts early this week after a snow storm described as the most severe in recent years.

Estimates set snow fall at some 18 inches with a moisture content of well over an inch.

The mercury hovered about the 10 degree mark.

The storm set in Tuesday. It worsened Thursday and took on almost blizzard proportion Friday afternoon. Snow fall abated Sunday and slacked off to a very light fall.

Town Is Isolated

The town was isolated for almost two days. Some food stuff—especially milk and bread—were in short supply. Spotted line trouble hampered telephone communication.

Benefit to the soil was considerable although wind blown snow drifted along fence rows and left some exceptionally flat fields almost bare.

Of prime importance was the effect of the storm on transportation. Roads in and out of Olton were blocked Friday afternoon and remained so until a trickle of traffic began coming through Sunday.

Traffic was returning to normal to most points Monday.

Drs. Make Calls By Foot

Here in Olton, doctors were forced to make many house calls on foot and on tractors. Mail arrivals halted Friday at 2:30 and were not resumed until Monday afternoon.

Telephone trouble was spotted. Trouble was worst in the rural areas. Denver Offield, General Telephone repairman, answered a trouble call north of Circle Friday afternoon. His company pickup truck became stalled in a snow drift and he was unable to get it out before Sunday afternoon.

However, Olton was in communication with the outside world most of the time.

Southwestern Public Service Company reported no cases of power line trouble. City officials said one water line broke in North Olton during the storm but the break could not be blamed on the cold.

Couldn't Clear Streets

"There wasn't a lot we could do about clearing the streets," declared Mayor G. H. Bley. "These tractors running up and down them have done more good than anything else."

He said maintainers were unable to get through before the way was broken by tractors.

Gas company officials said there were reports of weak pressure in the west part of town. They said bigger lines would be installed as soon as conditions permit.

Few church worship services were held Sunday. Main Street Church of Christ had about 22 present Sunday and Olton Methodist Church had three present. Church services were not held at the First Baptist Church, Cumberland Presbyterian Church or the Church of Nazarene.

Schools Turn Out

School was turned out at 2 p.m. Thursday week and will not take up again until Monday, Feb. 13, because of the snow storm. An extra week will have to be added at the end of school, according to Principal J. A. Williams to make up for the school days lost. "However, it would have been impossible to have school during the snow," Mr. Williams said.

Hart school officials said that classes there would be resumed

Monday.

Three men—Guy Porter, Weldon Owens, and Charles Black—from Olton Butane Company were stranded out in the country Saturday night after making a butane call. Jess Parker, bookkeeper, said. They spent the night in the T. J. Roberson home.

Deliveries were made by both Consumers Butane Co. and Olton Butane on tractor and by pickup. "We had very little hardships during the snow," Barton Prestidge, Consumers Butane bookkeeper, remarked. "We used tractors for all town calls and pickups for country calls."

Farmers Butane Company reported no cases of distress.

Show Neighborliness

Noteworthy throughout the howling snow storm was a townwide attitude of neighborliness and cooperation, evidenced in a variety of ways.

Chief among these was the "volunteer tractor fleet." Farmers and implement dealers broke out a virtual fleet of tractors about mid-morning Saturday. Some, equipped with large blades set about the enormous job of clearing deep drifts from city streets and soon opened up several main traffic arteries. Others went to work freeing hopelessly stuck passenger cars. Still others ran neighborly errands for people marooned from town.

No Food Shortage

Though business was at a near standstill here Saturday, food store proprietors stayed open with skeleton crews to provide necessary foodstuffs. For a short time, such heavy turnover items as bread, milk and eggs were in short supply. At no time, however, was there anything even closely resembling a food shortage. A few food supply trucks crept through on treacherous highways early Sunday afternoon to replenish the fast-windling supply of groceries here.

Grocery store suppliers resumed their deliveries on a near-normal schedule on Monday.

Department and ready-to-wear stores were beset with calls on Saturday for overshoes, galoshes and boots. Caps with ear flaps, long underwear, coveralls, tire chains and snow scoop shovels were other items in popular demand.

Snow Provides Exercise

In addition to walking through king-sized drifts, residents got plenty of exercise pushing their own cars and those of neighbors out of the drifts. Typical of the volunteer "pushers" was a group of high school girls which included Betty Jane Bryant, Kay Sherran, DeVeryl Daugherty, Brookie Johnson, Bettie Lois Daniel, Sue Hill, and others.

Other youngsters, and quite a few oldersters, took advantage of the blanket of snow to ride improvised sleds pulled by tractors. Less adventuresome residents sat it out at home with television, popcorn, Monopoly and Canasta.

SHORT GRASS

By G. P. T.

Among other things, our big snowstorm proved that adults are nothing but kids in disguise. They were out in force on Sunday, asking little or no excuse to tramp through the snowdrifts to town. The oldtimers say it was the area's biggest blizzard since 1906.

Saw Slim and Elaine Pinkerton forging toward late Friday afternoon. It was before the volunteer tractor fleet had gone into action, and Slim and Elaine were forcing their way through some monumental drifts. They came puffing homeward about an hour later, with Slim carrying a sack of groceries and Elaine out front, gaily forging a path through the drifts. They were having a big time... it is gratifying, somehow, to see adults get out and frolic like their youngsters.

My favorite brunette and I stayed home from church on Sunday morning, because some of the drifts in our block made it next to impossible to get to town on foot... so I availed myself of the opportunity to wash my hair, slipped in the shower and bruised some ribs and sprained a toe.

You always hear people talking about how nice it would be "just to stay home for awhile." But after the blizzard forced a few days of that on them, lots of them were saying, "Isn't it awful... just having to stay in the house all the time!"

It's an old newspaper saying that about the only times an average citizen gets his name in the paper is when he is "hatched, matched or dispatched." That's not the plan of operation on this newspaper. We want local names in The Enterprise—lots of them—and the occasion doesn't have to be anything more momentous than the success you have had with raising African violets, or a trip to Tahoka, or the fact that your Johnny has the measles.

It's a little late for New Year's resolutions, but one of my resolutions for 1956 is to do a better job of remembering folks' names. Unless someone kicks me in the shins, or gives me a push when the car battery has given out, or says something nice about my favorite brunette, or does some other little personal something that sorta registers in my permanent file box, a casual interchange of names usually does not stay with me long.

It has always seemed peculiar to me that it's the woman—not the man—who assumes airs of aloofness after the family gets in the chips because of the diligent business efforts of the man—not the woman.

But it's so in nine cases out of ten. The husband, whose efforts are usually responsible for the improved standard of living, usually remains pretty much the same sort of individual. But the wife forgets her former friends in the lower financial strata, and you can't touch her with a ten-foot pole. And likely as not, she celebrates her husband's many years of backbreaking effort by giving up the doing of her own housecleaning and joins the afternoon tea-and-bridge circuit, and further reminds her less fortunate acquaintances of her newly-achieved stature by purchasing her frocks and bonnets in a far city instead of at home from the merchants whose faithful cooperation had a lot to do with her husband's success.

This week's nomination for one of Olton's most-pleasant people: Vernon Nixon.

Could be: that come fall, R. V. Allcorn may be enrolled elsewhere than at Texas Tech. If so, it would not be hard to understand why.

I had always thought the practice of handing a customer the entire box of cigars and allowing him to make his own selection was nothing more than custom. But a drugman tells me that it is the law. He believes the law dates back to the time when cigars were not cellophane wrapped.

Someone has reported seeing a sign on a filling station west of Gallup somewhere.

"Don't stop here for information. If we knew anything we wouldn't be here."

One of the several million reasons why we pay taxes: you could circle the globe in your automobile 16 times and then tour every state in the union with the 21,116 gallons of highest gasoline it takes to fill the wing tank of a B-36.

It occurs to me occasionally that it might be a good idea if preachers and college professors were required to make their way in the world of business for a few years before they launch themselves on a career of telling other people how everything ought to be.

"Pioneer Day" Exhibit In Smith & Struve Window

"Pioneer Day Exhibit," sponsored by the Girl Scout Troops 3 and 4, was in the window of Smith and Struve's store.

Some of the pioneer articles are as old as 82 years. One of the unusual pioneer articles is a friendship petticoat belonging to Mrs. L. S. Kennedy. Each insertion of lace was made by a friend. The lace is around the petticoat from the bottom to approximately a foot high. It is 55 years old.

Belonging to Mrs. G. W. Struve is a wedding dress that is handmade and has handmade lace trimming. It was worn in 1908.

The exhibit includes letters, pictures, razors, wedding slippers, quilt, books, clippings from 1875 magazines, jewelry box, a table over 40 years old, etc.

Mrs. Paul Burrus is the scouts' leader.

ACCORDING TO THE WORD OF GOD— IS THERE CONFLICT BETWEEN THE BIBLE AND SCIENCE?

ACCORDING TO THE WORD OF GOD—there is no conflict between the Bible and facts of science.

SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES. The five basic SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES: time, force, action, space and matter are announced in Gen. 1:1.

LIGHT BEFORE SUN. Scientists say that there was LIGHT BEFORE THE SUN. The Bible records this fact in Gen. 1:3, 14-18.

EMPTY SPACE IN NORTH. The astronomers have found an EMPTY SPACE IN THE NORTH—read Job 26:7.

TREASURES IN THE SNOW. The scientists have shown that there are TREASURES IN THE SNOW AND HAIL—read Job 38:22.

God has so arranged his word so that there are NO CONFLICTS IN HIS LAWS. In like manner there are NO CONFLICTS IN THE TEACHINGS OF CHRIST AND HIS TRUE-FOLLOWERS TEACHINGS.

MARRIAGE IS SOLEMNIZED IN SERVICE AT EL PASO BAPTIST CHURCH CHAPEL

In a formal ceremony last week at William Herschel Ford Chapel of the First Baptist Church in El Paso, Miss Mary Thompson of El Paso became the bride of James Madison Speer, Jr., of Olton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson of El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. James M. Speer of Olton are the parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. W. L. Person, pastor, read the impressive double-ring service. Flanking the altar were floor baskets of pink snapdragons and carnations before jade green palms.

Organ Prelude

Mrs. Wesley Veil, organist, played a nuptial prelude and immediately before the service played "Ava Maria" and "Lube-straum."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a ice blue satin gown, fashioned on classic-princess lines. The fitted bodice was designed with a wide scooped neckline and long pointed sleeves with flower appliques of delicate French lace embroidered with pearls. The skirt was floor-length.

She wore a rounded waist-length veil of Burgundian lace, falling from a Mary, Queen of Scots, face bonnet. The bride bought the lace for her veil last fall while traveling in Europe.

Has Two Attendants

Miss Sharon Speer, sister of the bridegroom and a sophomore at the University of Texas, was maid-of-honor. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Carol S. Vance of Austin. They wore identical styled gowns of satin, fashioned with molded bodices and flared waltz-length skirts. Their dresses were designed with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves of crushed satin. Miss Speer's dress was powder blue and Mrs. Vance's dress was pink.

Their headdresses were narrow satin bands with attached pearl dotted noseveils. They carried bouquets of white roses.

Mr. Speer served his son as best man. Ushers were Tom Rankin of Dallas and Carol S. Vance of Austin.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of the bride, was attired in a Claret suit with accents of crystal beading and a small pink hat encrusted with pearl dewdrops and beads. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Speer selected a suit of navy wool and a pink hat. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Breakfast Follows Ceremony

Following the ceremony, a wedding-breakfast was held in the Thompson home. The bride's table was laid with pink net over polished luvlin. An arrangement of pink flowers decorated the table and pink and white snapdragons decorated the reception rooms. Miss Annie Hulsey presided at the guest book and Miss Lena Cole and Miss Ruba Cole poured the coffee.

Following a wedding trip to Clouderoft, N. M., the couple are at home in Austin where the bridegroom is a third year student in the University of Texas law school and the bride is studying graduate work at the university.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy suit of raw silk and a small pill-box hat of winter white and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Speer attended Texas Western and graduated from the University of Texas last June. She was a member of Chi Omega sorority and was named a member in the Phi Beta Kappa sorority, which is a honor sorority for graduates.

The bridegroom is a 1951 graduate of Olton High School and a 1954 graduate of the University of Texas. Mr. Speer was valedictorian of his OHS graduating class and was in the upper ten percent of his university class.

Attending the wedding from Olton were Mr. and Mrs. Speer and Dana and Taze Speer, sister and brother of the bridegroom.

Olton Youths Sleigh Ride

Olton youths, who had never seen so much snow in their lives, took advantage of the snow by sleigh-riding Sunday afternoon.

Several of the young people constructed sleighs but one group of youngsters used an old car hood.

Kay Sherman, whose remark was similar to most Olton youngsters remarks, said, "I've never seen anything like this snow before! It really makes for lots of fun!"

Schenck Suffers Frozen Ear

Johnny Schenck, Southwestern Public Service Co. lineman, suffered a frozen left ear during last week's blizzard. Mr. Schenck's ear was frozen

STOVE MAY BE DEADLY FITE SAYS

Your heating stove may be a killer!

This grim warning came this week from Dr. Lynn Fite, city health officer.

Dr. Fite said stoves should be vented. If your stove is not vented then you should leave a window opened fairly wide, especially at night.

Stoves give off carbon monoxide—a tasteless, odorless, colorless gas which is extremely deadly.

Avert a tragedy and see to your stove before it is too late, the city health officer warned.

More Acts Needed For Amateur Hour

"We need more acts for the local talent show to be held here next Thursday," Fire Chief Tom Smith said this week.

The amateur hour, featuring local talent, will be held in conjunction with an appearance of The Serenaders, vocal and instrumental quartet of Lubbock radio and television fame.

"We need about 20 amateur acts in all," Chief Smith explained. All performers who wish to register for the amateur hour may do so at Smith and Struve, the chief said.

The Serenader and amateur show is scheduled for 8 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 16, at the Olton High School auditorium, under

Take Milk To Family; Get Marooned

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Mitchell carried some milk to the Paul McFaddens Saturday afternoon and were marooned at the McFadden farm about six miles southeast of Olton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell realized that the weather was bad Saturday but thought they could make it out to the McFaddens' and did. It was only when they started to leave that they realized they were isolated in the snow at the farm with the McFaddens.

Mr. Mitchell got into Olton Monday evening on a horse.

sponsorship of the fire department.

Prizes will be awarded the top three amateur performers, and the first place winner will get to appear on television with the Serenader, Chief Smith has explained.

Amateur performers who have registered include Misses Alisse Smith, LaNelda Maxey, Sharon Dennis and others.

Tickets for the show may be purchased from any member of the fire department. Admission will be 75c for adults, 50c for students and 25c for children.

WHAT WE BELIEVE . . .

Entire Sanctification

The Scriptures teach a life of holiness without which no man shall see the Lord. By the power of the Holy Ghost we are able to obey the command, "Be ye holy, for I am holy." Entire sanctification is the will of God for all believers, and should be earnestly pursued by walking in obedience to God's Word (Heb. 12:14; I Pet. 1:15, 16; I Thess. 5:23, 24; I John 2:6).

The Church

The Church is the body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfilling of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the General Assembly and Church of the First born, which are written in heaven. (Eph. 1:22, 23; 2:22; Heb. 12:23).

CHAMBER ELECTION POSTPONED

Inclement weather, resulting in lack of sufficient members for a quorum, forced postponement of last Thursday night's scheduled Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Election of officers had been scheduled as one of the chief items of business.

Basil Sherman, C. of C. president, has announced that new officers will be elected at the next regular meeting, set for Thursday night, March 1.

Snow Causes Postponement Of Cage Games

Bad weather forced postponement of a trio of basketball games scheduled here Friday night between Olton and Dimmitt cage teams, according to Coach Joe Turner.

The games have been re-scheduled for play here on Friday night, Feb. 17.

Whatsamatter, No Deliveries?

It happened about 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

Outside, monumental snow drifts were everywhere.

Inside Sherman Food Store, Basil Sherman was on duty by himself, busily trying to tend to the immediate needs of the several customers who had managed to forge through the snow storm to his grocery.

One customer was buying quite a load of goods. He heaped his basket with several sacks of potatoes, flour, sugar, milk and bread items and took them to the checking stand.

Mr. Sherman began checking the ponderous assortment of items, then stopped to inquire of the customer, "Say, how are you going to get all this stuff home?"

"Aren't you making deliveries?" replied the customer.

Mr. Sherman looked briefly at the five-foot wall of snow in his parking area and the deeply-drifted streets, then muttered something to the customer.

"Well, in that case, maybe I better put back some of these things," replied the customer.

"Yes, it is impossible for her to move."
"Is the shroud over her?"

Leap Year
Caesar started it. He revised the calendar in 46 B. C. to fit it to the time elapsing each year, which is exactly 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, and 45.51 seconds. Inasmuch as a year is approximately 365 1/4 days long, Caesare decreed fractions should be taken care of by adding a day to the calendar every fourth year. There was a slight error in his calculations and the calendar was ten days ahead of astronomical time by A. D. 1582 when Pope Gregory righted the mistake by advising the omission of Leap Year at the end of each century, except those divisible by 400. Since then our present calendar has been known as the Gregorian calendar.

The Leap Year rights of women rest on a more solid foundation than tradition alone. Scotland passed a law in 1288 fining single man one pound for refusing the marriage offer of a maid, unless he could prove he was engaged. The fine, equal to $5, marked the offense as a misdemeanor, in a class with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. A few years later a similar law was passed in France, and before Columbus sailed for America, like measures were added to the statutes of Genoa and Florence.

It has puzzled persons born on February 29th, as to when to celebrate their birthdays in other years. This problem was settled in the reign of Henry III of England, who caused it to be written into the law that February 28 be the legal birthday in years when February 29 did not occur.

YOU'LL KNOW THE MOMENT YOU SEE IT . . .
The Texan Was Made For You!

It's your kind of car . . . this handsome rugged Texan by Dodge! At the very first glance, you'll know this is true. And when you take the wheel and "give the gun" to its mighty, aircraft-type, Super Red Ram V-8 engine, your enthusiasm will burst all bounds. For the Texan boasts a power plant just like the Dodge that made automotive history on the famous Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah.

Surely you've read or heard recently how a '56 Dodge stock car shattered 306 world records for endurance and speed in that sensational 14-day, non-stop run. This officially witnessed performance covered over 31,000 miles of round-the-clock driving at an average speed of 92.86 miles per hour . . . the greatest distance at the fastest pace any car has ever travelled!

Now this handsome, fair-fashioned, specially trimmed Texan offers you the same rugged endurance and the same eager power as the Dodge that established these records. What's more, you'll be in for your biggest surprise when you glance at the price tag. Big, powerful and luxurious as it is, you'll expect to pay perhaps a thousand dollars more than that tag reads. Yet here you'll discover that this Texan, with all its beauty and size and ruggedness, is priced right down with the so-called "low-priced three." Come and see for yourself.

Never will you find a better "buy" nor make a better deal than your nearby Dodge dealer will give you today. Better not delay for the supply is limited.
