METHODIST GROUND-BREAKING

MORE THAN 250 persons turned out Sunday night for ground-breaking services at the site of the new $100,000 Methodist Church building in northeast Olton. In the panel to the left, Rev. Russell McAnally looks on as Mrs. L. S. Kennedy turns a spade of dirt. Mrs. Kennedy has been a member of the church longer than anyone else present. In the panel to the right L. D. Bartlett, oldest member, turns first spade of dirt for the building. Others participating were Wanda Bleeker, representing Mrs. Henry Miller Sr., her grandmother, who is the only living charter member of the church; and Sydney Hair, representing the young people of the church. Dr. Luther Kirk, district superintendent from Plainview delivered the ground-breaking sermon.

Don Williams was named temporary president of the re-organized Olton Chamber of Commerce last Monday night in a meeting at Olton Fire Station.

Members of a temporary board of directors also were elected at the meeting

They include Russell Grimes: secretary; and Lefty Hollingsworth, Fred Thompson, Bill Kelley, Tom Carlisle and Wilton

Next meeting of the Chamber will be held at 8 o'clock the night of August 26.

In the meantime, the board plans to survey the surrounding towns. They will try to ascertain how their Chambers of Commerce are financed and how they are Directors elected Monday night will serve only until the Chamber can be put on a permanent basis, it was pointed out.

Interest in the Chamber heightened this week as 19 persons including some farmers turned out. "We should make it clear that we want farmers included," declared Board Member Lefty Hollingsworth. "I don't think a Chamber of Commerce can succeed without the farmers."

Membership dues also were discussed at the meeting. No amount has been designated, pending outcome of investigations in progress by the board of

Much discussion was centered on the possibility of hiring a full-time Chamber of Commerce business during the past year simply because there has been no active Chamber of Commerce.

One thing is true: writers are not necessarily good speakers.

I have suspected this for a long time, but it was confirmed for me at the West Texas Press Convention in Lubbock last week-

It isn't that what the journalists had to SAY wasn't good and interesting; it is that the way in which they PRESENTED it, by good speaking standards, didn't rate very high.

Almost invariably, they "backed into" their speeches. Usually
