

It is so funny to me that everything in the copy of the newspaper looks so nice before it goes to the printer, and then when the papers come back all ready to be mailed here are all these little things screaming and jumping up and down saying, "Look at me-look at me-I'm wrong!"

I know I read back over the cutline under the picture on the front page after I set it last week and it looked okay, and then when I read the printed copy there it was: Durene Nance. Well, she was Durene Nance for a long time, but now she's Durene McPherson.

When I think about Durene I recall some good times in days past. One in particular concerned our work with the Rainbow Girls quite a few years ago-back in the olden days, I guess you'd say. She and I and other Eastern Star members helped chaperone a chartered busload of Rainbow Girls to Grand Assembly in Corpus Christi and back. Just about everything that could go wrong, did-or so it seemed to me.

Our problems didn't really crank up, I recall, until we arrived at our motel in Corpus. We had come through light rains in the hill country and our bus windshield kept getting yucky and we had to stop and get someone up there high enough to clean it once or twice-but all that was really the driver's problem. He and my husband were the only male animals on this bus.

When we arrived at the motel, they hadn't taken our orders about how many were to be in each room into account. They had just assigned that number of beds. Well, that didn't work at all because everyone already had picked roommates and Charlie and the bus driver didn't particularly want to be stuck in a room with three females. Well, after we left in a huff and I had a crying jag, we went back and the motel worked things out for us.

Then just about as soon as the girls could skin out of their clothes and into their swim suits, one of them stepped in a partially-open utility meter at the edge of the pool and cut her foot. She needed medical treatment and the bus was our only transportation, and we had to roust out the driver who had just gotten comfortable in his room. And so on.

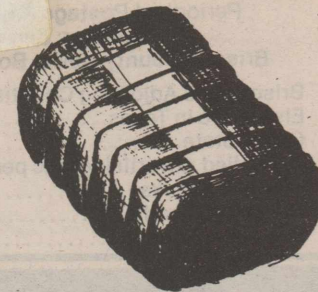

But the funniest thing was how one of the chaperones (who wasn't from here) kept calling Durene "Noreen" in a real nasal voice the entire trip. I still imitate the voice and call her that now and then. Probably almost everyone but Durene and I have long since forgotten this-in a pig's eye! I know LaVerne Long and Dorothy Bomar won't ever forget it either!

Lindsey Jennings Performs In State Music Meet

The Texas State Solo-Ensemble Contest of the University Interscholastic League in Austin attracted over 13,000 of the most talented high school musicians throughout Texas, including Lindsey Jennings of Silverton, May 25-27.

All Class A, AA, AAA schools performed on the beautiful campus of San Marcos University, 30 miles from Austin.

Miss Jennings, a sophomore this coming school term, was the only contestant from this area to place highest at the Regional contest in Lubbock to qualify for this trip.

She performed in the Music Building on the University campus, playing "Ronda a La Lurque" by Mozart from the State Music List. She performed very well and earned a superior II rating. Her judge, Dr. David Reaner, had comments including: "Congratulations on a very fine performance . . . very good preparation and solid memory." She earned a beautiful plaque.

Miss Jennings was accompanied to San Marcos by her mother, Juannah Jennings; her piano teacher, Mrs. Ross Herrington, and Mr. Herrington.

All visited the Outlet Mall in San Marcos, one of the largest in Texas. Mrs. Jennings and Lindsey returned via San Antonio to enjoy the famous River Walk and other points of interest. The Herringtons remained for a few former resident, Henry Norrid, who lives in Amarillo. He wrote, "I sure enjoy the paper each week. The Looking Back part is great. The number of students that do so well in school, sports, and extra activities is so heart warming. The people in Briscoe County should really be proud."

Thanks for the kind words, and we are proud!

We also had a letter from another former resident, Gladys Brannon, whose family lived here until 1959. She writes from Chillicothe, "I always look forward to Thursday and getting my paper. It's like a letter from home, but there are so many new people and so many old friends are gone since we left Silverton . . . I enjoy the 'Looking Back' and your 'All Around the Town'."

Thanks for all the kind words.

County Birthday To Be Celebrated Here August 9-10

Briscoe County's 104th birthday will be celebrated in Silverton August 9-10, with a rodeo, parade, barbecue and all the trimmings.

The Silverton School Homecoming will be held on Saturday, August 10, and a large crowd is expected to come home for these events.

Briscoe County Activities Association is sponsoring the rodeo and will be giving away a handmade saddle which has arrived and can be seen here.

Silverton Fire Department will be giving away 100 scratch-off lottery tickets.

Plans are continuing to be made for the celebration.

First New Crop Wheat Delivered Here

George Reed brought in the first load of new-crop wheat to Dimmitt Agri-Industries at Silverton Elevator on Wednesday, June 5. The truckload weighed 30,780 pounds. The test weight was 60 pounds, with a moisture content of 11.4.

Reed estimated that the dryland field was yielding about 11½ bushels per acre.

City Fireworks Ordinance to be Enforced This Year

Silverton city officials have announced that the ordinance against shooting fireworks inside the city limits will be more strictly enforced this year due to the drouth which makes the threat of fires more imminent.

They also plan to ask County Commissioners to outlaw the use of fireworks in Briscoe County. The threat of wildfires on ranges and CRP land continues to be high even though some showers have fallen.

Water supplies are dwindling all over the area. The City advises residents not to risk starting fires that could accidentally destroy someone's home.

Swimming Lessons To Be Offered Here

Swimming lessons will be taught at 7:00 in the evenings from June 24 through July 5 at the Silverton Swimming Club.

Mary Woods will be taking children ages five and up.

You don't have to be a member of the pool club to enroll your children in swimming lessons.

Call Mrs. Woods at 455-1132 or 455-1264 if you are interested in enrolling your children for swimming lessons.

Putnam to Lead Revival at Silverton United Methodist

Wesley Putnam, widely-acclaimed evangelist, singer and composer, will lead revival services at the Silverton United Methodist Church June 28-30.

His ministry includes preaching, drama and music woven together to create a fresh approach to renewal. His clear call to commitment through both word and song has impacted the lives of people of all ages from all walks of life. Rev. Putnam holds a bachelor of music degree from Northeast Louisiana University and the master of divinity degree from Asbury Theological Seminary. He is an ordained United Methodist clergyman, and he is a member of the Northwest Texas Annual Conference. He pastored local churches for over eight years before turning his attention to full-time evangelism in the summer of 1981.

Rev. Putnam is a prolific songwriter whose compositions touch on virtually every aspect of Christian living from temptation and suffering to forgiveness and praise. He has cut six albums. Songs from his last three albums have had airplay on Christian radio stations nationwide. Selected songs from his last three albums, "The Battle's On," "Hope of the World," and "Live the Day" have been published by Tempo Music.

In addition, he has produced video cassettes of six of his dramatic presentations. Attired in authentic Hebrew costume, Putnam captivates audiences as he recounts the lives of Old Testament characters, such as Gideon and Elijah, as though they were alive today. He animates James, the brother of Jesus, to relate New Testament stories.

Rev. Putnam is in great demand for revivals, concerts, youth camps and retreats. Many of the local children will remember him as the worship leader at Ceta Canyon Elementary Church Camp each summer. He has presented special music at many national United Methodist gatherings. He has previously served as president and executive evangelist of the National Association of United

Local Conservation Efforts Supported by The 1996 Farm Bill

The conservation provisions of the 1996 Farm Bill establish cost-efficient programs that will direct conservation gains into the next century, according to local conservationists.

"The conservation provisions demonstrate a renewed commitment by the agricultural community and the public to environmental protection," said Matthew Kast, with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service.

Kast said the bill reauthorizes a number of popular programs and creates new programs that will help local landowners. "The CRP and RC and D programs will continue," he said.

The bill also creates a new program called the Environmental Quality Incentives Program that combines the functions of four existing cost-sharing programs into one that focuses federal funding into conservation priority areas.

The Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) will extend through 2002. The program encourages landowners to leave highly erodible and environmentally sensitive lands in grass, trees, or other conservation cover.

The 1996 Farm Bill provides that up to 36.4 million acres may be enrolled in the program at any time and allows new enrollments to replace expired or terminated contracts to maintain the total authorized level.

Contracts in existence before January 1, 1995, may be terminated after they have been in effect for at least five years and if the land meets other early release requirements, Kast said.

The Environmental Quality Program (EQIP) combines the functions of the Agricultural Conservation Program, and the Great Plains Conservation Program. EQIP is to be funded at $130 million in fiscal year 1996 and $200 million annually after that until 2002. Conservation practices related to livestock will receive half of program funding.

Under EQIP, five to ten year contracts will be established with landowners to provide cost-share and incentive payments for up to 75 percent of the cost of conservation practices. Total cost-share and incentive payments to any person are limited to $10,000 annually and $50,000 for the life of the contract.

The 1996 Farm Bill also establishes the National Natural Resources Conservation Foundation. It will be a nonprofit corporation which funds research and educational activities relating to conservation on private lands.

A new Conservation on Private Grazing Land initiative is designed to provide technical, educational and related assistance to landowners on the Nation's 642 million acres of private grazing lands. Another new provision, the Wildlife Habitat Incentives Program, provides $50 million over the life of the Farm Bill for wildlife habitat improvement on private lands.

Kast said that there are a number of other details in the new Farm Bill, and encouraged anyone with questions to visit the Natural Resources Conservation Service office in Silverton.

All USDA programs and services are available without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, marital status or handicap.

Silverton Team Wins Three of Four Games

Silverton's basketball team won three of four games in the West Texas Summer League last weekend. They lost to Lockney on Friday night, 75-48, in a game that really wasn't a very good one for any of the Silverton players.

They came back on Saturday to win the consolation bracket by defeating Ralls 60-50, Petersburg 59-52 and Motley County 51-43.

The team is coached by Rev. Jess Little.

Fudge-Patton Marriage Was Solemnized in Tulia Recently

Rebecca Suzanne Fudge of Tulia and Eric Lee Patton of Silverton were united in marriage on Saturday, April 20, 1996, at 4:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Tulia. Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dick and Barbara Fudge of Tulia. The bridegroom is the son of Mary Jane and J. E. Patton, jr. of Silverton. Grandparents of the bride are Robert Byrd of Clovis, New Mexico and Estelle Fudge of Copperas Cove, Texas. Grandparents of the groom are J. L. (Shorty) West and Lallie Patton, both of Silverton.

Lamonda Fudge of Amarillo, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Alesha Patton of Lubbock, sister of the groom; Donna Fudge, sister-in-law of the bride, and Rosemary Alvarez, friend of the bride, both of Tulia. They wore tea-length dresses of lapis blue lame with fitted bodices, sweetheart necklines, puffed sleeves and matching princess heels. They carried white lace fans with blue and white silk flowers and lapis blue bows and streamers.

Best man was Mark Patton of Silverton, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were James Alan Patton of Silverton, brother of the groom; Dwain Tipton of Lubbock and Mike Rucker of Burleson, both friends of the groom. Ushers were Rick Fudge of Tulia, brother of the bride; Rank Cogdell, friend of the groom, and Ken Crump of Amarillo, also a friend of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a designer gown of white regal satin. It featured a scalloped V-neckline and Edwardian sleeves. The bodice was designed in princess style with an elongated waistline and low V-back. Both the sleeves and bodice were embellished with Venetian lace appliques adorned with teardrop pearls and jewels. The skirt of full and flowing satin featured a back centered with a large designer bow of satin with roses and was of chapel-train length. Embroidered appliques with pearls accented the entire hemline.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white and blue silk lilies, stephanotis, and baby's breath with a white bow and ribbon streamers. She wore a picture hat of white lace with white silk floral and pearl trim. The back consisted of a large tulle pouf veil which fell to waist length.

For something old, the bride wore a strand of cultured pearls that had belonged to her grandmother, the late Ethel Irene Byrd. Something new was her wedding gown. Something borrowed and something blue was a traditional blue lace garter belonging to her mother, Barbara Fudge, which she had worn in her own wedding.

The couple were united in marriage before a white archway ornamented with silk English ivy and cascading blue and white flowers. A large white crocheted angel figurine suspended from the center of the archway. White wicker baskets of silk English ivy, blue lilies, and eucalyptus were in the foreground. Two heart-shaped brass candelabra with white candles and entwined with blue ribbon and greenery flanked the archway. The bannisters were accented with greenery and white angel figures. The pews were marked with white bows and blue silk floral bouquets.

Candles were lighted by Alice Wilborn of Amarillo and Sylvia Alvarez of Mesquite, both friends of the bride. They wore princess-style blue and white floral dresses.

Tory Patton, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a long dress similar to the bridal attendants and carried a white lace basket of blue flowers.

Thor Patton, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer. He carried a white satin and lace pillow.

Registering guests was Derinda Patton of Silverton, sister-in-law of the groom. The registration table was accented with a white feather pen and blue candle accented with blue flowers and an angel.

Jim and Beth Reynolds of Tulia were in charge of photography for both the wedding and reception.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church. The bride's table was covered with white lace over blue underlay, draped to the sides and caught with blue lame' angels at the corners.

The bride's white cake was a three-tiered heart-shaped confection surrounded by four smaller heart-shaped cakes, and featured icing decorated with blue roses and greenery accented with white ribbons and blue lame' angels. The top was adorned with a Precious Moments bride and groom figurine.

The groom's table was round

Serving at the tables and members of the reception houseparty were Kari Patton, Candy Morales, Judy Vega, Erlene Barbour, Darlene Riley, Beth Reynolds, Wilma Dunn, Celeste Howard, Nina Gothard and Victoria Benavidez.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length white suit with bodice and sleeves of white lace and embroidery accented with a lapis blue and white floral corsage. The groom's mother wore a tea-length white suit with white floral accents and a lapis blue and white floral corsage.

Bridal courtesies consisted of a shower and brunch on Saturday morning, March 23, in the home of Dee Roberts in Tulia. On Saturday morning, April 13, a bridal shower and brunch were held in the home of Bobbye Bean in Silverton. On Saturday evening, April 13, a lingerie shower and bachelorette party was held in the home of Alice Wilborn in Amarillo. Also on April 13, the bridegroom was honored with an all-day cookout and bachelor party in Silverton.

The bride is a 1986 graduate of Tulia High School and has completed classes in business from Amarillo College. She has been employed by the Tulia Independent School District for ten years, and is the payroll/insurance clerk at the Tulia School Administration Office. She also had worked in the nursery department of the First Baptist Church for eleven years.

The bridegroom is a 1983 graduate of Silverton High School and a 1987 graduate of Texas Tech University with a degree in entomology. He is employed as a technical representative for Gustafson's of Plano, Texas.

After an ocean cruise to Freeport and Nassau in the Bahama Islands, the couple is at home on their farm near Silverton.

Joshua Hartman, grandson of Albert and Rita Hartman who live at Lake Mackenzie, was co-valedictorian of the Class of 1996 at Rolla, Kansas High School. He is planning to attend the Air Force Academy.

Students to Attend Seminar Next Week

Trista Davis and Brandon Sarchet are the delegates selected to attend the annual Texas Farm Bureau Citizenship Seminar. They will be leaving from Tulia by chartered bus Monday morning, and will be taking part in activities on the campus of Angelo State University in San Angelo until Friday morning.

The Silverton students have received full scholarships to the seminar, which have been provided by Farm Bureau. They will be staying in a high-rise dorm on the campus and having their meals in the campus cafeteria.

Topics of free enterprise, constitutional government, leadership, goal setting, family, self-awareness and others will be explored and discussed.

WTAMU Dean's List Students Announced

Letter Received From PTA In England

A letter has been received from the PTA in Silverton, England, a village in the heart of Devon in the Southwest of the country. The population there is about 1700, most of whom live within the village itself, the rest living on farms within a mile or two of Silverton.

Miles Snowdon, vice chairman of the Silverton PTA, writes: "Every year in August we hold 'The Silverton Street Market' when part of the village is shut off to traffic. There are stalls selling a large variety of produce and artefacts; there will be music, theatre and everybody has a good time for the whole day culminating in a dance in the evening. Every year there is a different theme. This year the theme is 'The Wild West'.

"The event is a fund-raiser that benefits local charitable organisations in turn. This year it is our turn as the Parent Teacher

Association of Silverton Church of England Primary School.

"Children from our school have written to your school and we hope this will lead to the establishment of a long-term 'pen-pal' relationship. The children are also studying North American Indian Art and they are making banners which will hang in the main street of Silverton on 'The Big Day'.

"At the Street Market we plan to stage an exhibition about your area and what life is like in another Silverton. We would be very grateful if you could send us some information about your business and your area.

Brush Individual Plant Treatment Clinic Planned

A Brush Individual Plant Treatment Clinic will be held on the Johnnie Burson Ranch on Wednesday, June 19, 1996. The program will start at 10:00 a.m. and will last until noon.

J. F. Caddenhead, Extension Range and Brush Control Specialist from Vernon, will be here to conduct the clinic. Subjects discussed will include the control of mesquite, cedar and yucca.

Two Continuing Education Units (CEUs) will be given to participants. One CEU will be given in drift minimization, and one in the general category.

Those wishing to attend the clinic are asked to pre-register with the Extension Office in Silverton at 806-823-2131. Participants should meet at Johnnie Burson's house at 10:00 a.m., and from there proceed to the clinic site in a group.

Extension programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all people without regard to race, color, age or national origin.

Families in Training Program Recognized

As part of a joint national effort to highlight rural development programs, the National Association of Community Action Agencies (NACAA), the National Association of Development Organizations (NADO) Research Foundation, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) recently recognized the Families in Training program for its outstanding contributions to rural Texas.

The key to successful employment is education; however, for low-income families, especially single parents, it is difficult to manage the roles of parent, caretaker, wage earner and student. In addition, many of those in such households must also struggle to overcome the burdens of broken homes, poverty and abuse.

The Families in Training program focuses on providing rental assistance, case management and other services to low-income persons who are pursuing post-secondary education. The program provides financial assistance, emotional support and information to assist families in healing the scars of broken homes, poverty, and in many cases, abuse. Applicants for the FIT program must be eligible for rental assistance, be a parent of dependent child(ren) and be attending or preparing to attend college or post secondary vocational education. Ninety percent of the program participants are female, single heads of households. Seventy percent of the participants are AFDC recipients.

Upon eligibility determination, each applicant must go through an intensive assessment process to be accepted into the program. This process includes completion of an extensive application before being interviewed by a "Community Task Force." This task force is comprised of community leaders and representatives from resource agencies, and is responsible for determining admission to the Families in Training program.

Participants receive individual career counseling, personal development seminars, support from other Panhandle Community Services resources such as energy and transportation assistance, emergency food, information and referral, and rental assistance until their training is completed. In return, participants must maintain grade point averages of "B" or better and participate in the case management provided by FIT. Participants may remain in the program for two years, or until their education is completed if all program requirements are met.

Success is evident when graduates enter into employment averaging $9.00 an hour. The concept of this program has been in existence since 1989 with over 300 families participating.

Property Tax Protest and Appeal Procedures

The law gives property owners the right to protest actions concerning their property tax appraisals. You may follow these appeal procedures if you have a concern about:

- the value placed on your property
- any exemptions that may apply to you
- the cancellation of an agricultural appraisal
- the taxable status of your property
- the local governments which should be taxing your property
- any action taken by the appraisal district that adversely affected you.

Informal Review

If you feel there is a problem with your appraisal, contact the Appraisal District staff to discuss it, or telephone 806-823-2161.

Review by the Appraisal Review Board

If you can't resolve your problem informally with the Appraisal District staff, you may have your case heard by the appraisal review board (ARB).

The ARB is an independent board of citizens that reviews problems with appraisals or other concerns listed above. It has the power to order the Appraisal District to make the necessary changes to solve problems. If you file a written request for an ARB hearing (called a notice of protest) before the deadline, the ARB will set your case for a hearing. You'll receive written notice of the time, date and place of the hearing. The hearing will be informal. You and the Appraisal District representative will be asked to present evidence about your case. The ARB will make its decision based on the evidence presented. You can get a copy of a protest form from the Appraisal District office located at the County Courthouse at 415 Main in Silverton.

Note: You shouldn't try to contact ARB members outside of the hearing. The law requires ARB members to sign an affidavit saying that they haven't talked about your case before the ARB hears it.

Review by the District Court

After it decides your case, the ARB must send you a copy of its order by certified mail. If you're not satisfied with the decision, you have the right to appeal to district court. If you choose to go to court, you must start the process by filing a petition within 45 days of the date you receive the ARB's order. If the Appraisal District has appraised your property at $1,000,000 or more, you must file a notice of appeal with the chief appraiser within 15 days of the date you receive the ARB's order.

More information

You can get more information by contacting your Briscoe County Appraisal District, P. O. Box 728, Silverton, TX 79257, 806-823-2161. You can also get a pamphlet describing how to prepare a protest from the Appraisal District or from the State Comptroller's Property Tax Division at P. O. Box 13528, Austin, Texas 78711-3528.

Deadline for Filing Protests with the ARB*

Usual Deadline

On or before May 31 (or 30 days after a notice of appraised value was mailed to you, whichever is later).

Late protests are allowed if you miss the usual deadline for good cause. Good cause is some cause beyond your control, like a medical emergency. The ARB decides whether you have good cause.

Late protests are due the day before the Appraisal Review Board approves records for the year. Contact your Appraisal District for more information.

Special Deadlines

For change of use (the Appraisal District informed you that you are losing agricultural appraisal because you changed the use of your land), the deadline is before the 30th day after the notice of the determination was mailed to you.

For ARB changes (the ARB has informed you of a change that increases your tax liability and the change didn't result from a protest you filed), the deadline is before the 30th day after the notice of the determination was mailed to you.

General Deadline

The general deadline for filing a protest this year is June 24.

If you believe the Appraisal District or ARB should have sent you a notice and did not, you may file a protest until the day before taxes become delinquent (usually February 1). The ARB decides whether it will hear your case based on evidence about whether a required notice was mailed to you.

*The deadline is postponed to the next business day if it falls on a weekend or holiday.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED GAS RATE CHANGE

On May 31, 1996, Energas Company filed Statements of Intent to change its gas rates with each incorporated city listed below. The proposed changes will take effect no sooner than 35 days after filing. Each city may suspend the proposed effective date for an additional 90 days.

The company proposes to increase rates to General Service (residential and commercial), Small Industrial Service, Large Gas Air Conditioning and/or Electric Generating Gas Service, and the Air Conditioning Rate Rider. Additionally, the company is proposing to offer a new service, General Service-State Institutions, to state agencies. The company may implement a different rate design than proposed provided the increased revenue does not exceed that specified herein.

The proposed changes are expected to increase the company's annual revenues by approximately 7.6 percent or $7.7 million. The proposed changes could affect approximately 200,000 gas consumers in the following communities:

Abernathy	Lake Tanglewood	Post
Amherst	Lamesa*	Quitaque
Anton	Levelland*	Ralls
Big Spring*	Littlefield	Ropesville
Bovina	Lockney	Seagraves
Brownfield*	Lorenzo	Seminole

Canyon*	Lubbock*	Silverton
Coahoma	Meadow	Slaton
Crosbyton	Midland*	Smyer
Dimmitt	Muleshoe	Springlake
Earth	Nazareth	Stanton
Edmonson	New Deal	Sudan
Floydada	New Home	Tahoka
Forsan	Odessa*	Timbercreek Canyon
Friona	O'Donnell	Tulia
Hale Center	Olton	Turkey
Happy	Opdyke West	Vega
Hart	Palisades	Wellman
Hereford*	Pampa*	Wilson
Idalou	Panhandle	Wolfforth
Kress	Petersburg
Lake Ransom Canyon	Plainview*

*The level of revenue increase in these communities constitutes a "major change" as defined by state law.

Copies of the filing are available at the Energas Office at 5110 - 80th Street, Lubbock, Texas 79424, and your local Energas Office.

GOD'S LOVE PROVIDES US WITH THE COOL TONES OF SUMMER

*Behold the shades of blue and green
Found everywhere upon the scene;
As cooling off the noonday sun,
They beckon us to outdoor fun.
Whenever we are so inclined,
We leave our cares and chores behind;
Determined now to take a break
By heading for some pool or lake.
Now camping out's the thing to do,
Like cooking on the barbecue;
And out of doors, at our command,
We view creation close at hand.
Your House of Worship makes it clear,
In this vacation time of year,
The joy the love of God
has planned
When summer livens up the land.*

— Gloria Nowak

Warm summer sun, shine friendly here.
— Robert Richardson

*"When her branch
...putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near."*
— Mark 13:28

My family and I would like to say thanks to the Silverton Volunteer Ambulance Service for taking me to the hospital each time I have needed you. We appreciate each one of you for the great job you are doing. We also appreciate each of your employers for giving you the time off work. Thanks again, to all of you.
Sincerely,
Gail Bullock

Our heartfelt gratitude and thanks to the Silverton Ambulance Service and especially to the crew that responded when we had the need. Won't name anyone for fear of missing someone, but you sure got here quickly.
Love,
Buck and Virginia

Dear friends,
Thank you all for the many prayers lifted up on behalf of Karla, this past year. They were felt and kept us going.

For the flowers, food, cards, calls, visits, memorials and each act of kindness, we thank you. For all of you who attended the services, we thank you for being with us.
