Luke 2:11-14

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger. Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favor rests."

A GARY HOUSE RIDDLE
 Submitted by Maebelle Francis

Once I bore the foliage of Spring
 The fruits of Fall
 And the fowls of the air
 I was stricken unto death
 But my mission was not complete
 The fruit I now bear
 Was produced by another
 My task is to feed the hungry
 The last duty
 I was called to perform
 Was indeed the most honorable
 I held life as it had never been seen before.
 What am I?

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph John Speiser

Couch - Speiser Vows Exchanged in Lubbock Ceremony on November 7

LaShawn Sheree Couch became the bride of Joseph John Speiser in a double-ring ceremony held Saturday, November 7, at the Lubbock Regency Holiday Inn. Jerry Hammond, Justice of the Peace, performed the Pool Terrace ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a cathedral-length ivory gown. The gown was designed with long sleeves with hand beading on the bodice, sleeves and train. She wore an elbow-length veil of ivory illusion, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

To carry out bridal tradition, for something old she selected her gown. Something borrowed was the table which held the unity candle, which belonged to her great-great-grandmother and was covered with a linen belonging to the groom's great-great-grandmother. She added a blue garter.

The maid of honor was Kristen Stetzenbach of Las Vegas, Nevada. The bridesmaid was Meredith Weiss of Phoenix, Arizona. Flower girl was Cortney Gragson, cousin of the bride, of Rison, Arkansas.

The attendants wore plum floor-length dresses, and carried bouquets of plum and pink carnations.

Best man was Roberto Rivera of Dallas. Groomsman was Lyndon Couch, brother of the bride. Ringbearer was Nick Gaston, brother of the groom, of Las Vegas. Guests were seated by Lyndon Couch and Dan Speiser, brother of the groom.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the McKenzie Room at the Lubbock Regency.

The bride is the daughter of Lyndall and Lydia Couch of Lubbock. She is the granddaughter of Lou Younger of Silverton and Darrell and Shirley Couch of Lubbock. She is the great-granddaughter of R. A. Thompson of Amarillo. A graduate of Green Valley High School in Henderson, Nevada, she is currently attending South Plains College.

The bridegroom is the son of Matt and Lori Gaston of Las Vegas, Nevada and John Speiser of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. He is the grandson of Merle and Maxine Owens and Clayton and Lorraine Speiser, all of Sioux Falls, South Dakota. A graduate of Green Valley High School, he is a Lance Corporal in the United States Marine Corps. He will be attending artillery training at Fort Sill in Lawton, Oklahoma.

Are You Trying Too Hard?

In little league baseball, when a young player is at bat, the coach may tell him, "Don't try to kill the ball; just meet it." When you swing as hard as you can, you lose control and you may just strike out. Sometimes in our daily lives we may be trying too hard as well, and we may strike out. Perhaps we're trying too hard to please someone, or to succeed at something.

In many instances trusting in God, and being yourself, may be all that is needed to be respected and successful. God doesn't want us to be lazy, and He does expect us to do our best; but accepting our potential, and not jeopardizing our moral standards are important.

In life, everyone occasionally strikes out, but learning from our mistakes and not dwelling on them, makes one a better person.

Remember the Lord in everything you do, and He will show you the right way.

Remember the Lord in everything you do, and He will show you the right way.
