REGIONAL

"We have a great team here at Denver City and we're expecting an easy game."

This statement came early this week from the sports editor of The Denver City Press.

Optimism of Editor Tom Rice appeared well founded. The "experts" again are predicting the Mustangs of Denver City will breeze past the Mustangs of Olton.

The two teams clash at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the regional playoff at Littlefield. It was a coin toss for site of the game. Denver City chose Brownfield as its favored site and Olton picked Littlefield as its "hometown."

Denver City's Coach Don Orr tossed the coin. Coach Joe Turner called for tails and tails it was. It was almost like history repeating itself, but not quite. Coach Turner tossed the coin back in 1952 when Olton played the mighty Denver City eleven in regional.

Coach Head of Denver City called for tails and tails it was so Olton traveled to Denver City on that occasion.

Olton lost the ball game 45 to 15 and Denver City advanced to the quarter finals. The DC Mustangs were stopped that year by Wink.

Mighty Wallop
Denver City's squad this year packs a mighty scoring wallop. It is, in fact, the highest scoring team in the state.

Denver City's touchdown machine has ground out 473 points this season and allowed its opponents only 109 tallies. It scored two touchdowns and two extra points against the state's greatest defensive team, the Whirlwinds of Floydada last Friday.

Denver City's game record is sobering.
Here's how it goes, Denver City 47, Lovington 6; Denver City 78, Tahoka 0; Denver City 19, Wink 14; Denver City 29, Sundown 14; Denver City 35, Seagraves 0; Denver City 41, McCamey 18; Denver City 29, Crane 0; Denver City 68, Fort Stockton 6; Denver City 78, Alpine 8; Denver City 35, Seminole 33; Denver City 14, Floydada 8.

Denver City's top scoring ace is Fred Kidwell. He has run 16 touchdowns and two extra point markers for an even 100.

Top Gainer
Kidwell also is Denver City's top ground gainer. Through the first 10 games he picked up 1,031 yards in 90 carries for an average of 11.4 yards a carry.

Tops on defense are Weldon Brown, center; Marcel Dorethy, guard; Bill Gravit, tackle; and Duane McDowell, end.

The town of Olton is at fever pitch for the game. Coach Turner says his immortal 15 will be at maximum strength for the tilt.

Underdog
Captain Tommie Wilson says he and his team mates thrive on being the underdog. "They've never been picked to win all season and should they go into a game as favorites they probably wouldn't know how to act," declared Coach Turner.

"Smart money is not going to be bet in any quantity against Joe Turner's team," one out of town sports writer declared Monday. "I know Olton is supposed to lose but you take a guy like Joe Turner and a team that has improved every game all season and . . . Well, darn it! You just never can tell."

Coin Spins

Denver City Head Coach Don Orr tosses a coin high as Olton Coach Joe Turner called tails and correctly to place the regional football game at Littlefield. Olton will be home team for the occasion.

SIXTEEN BANDS IN COMPETITION

Olton Band Wins Seagraves Contest

Olton High School Band won first place in the Seagraves Invitational Marching Contest Monday evening.

Sixteen bands competed in the contest, five of which were entered in class AA. Olton was given first place in that division and Slaton was awarded second place trophy.

The bands were inspected before marching by two judges, Fred Ebbs of Iowa University and Dean Killion of Texas Tech. The judges rated the bands on marching and playing while marching.

A large first place trophy was presented to Olton drum major, Elza Miller, and majorette, Becky Hall.

Band director, Dick Bentz, stated the Seagraves contest was a good warm-up for the interscholastic meet, which is to be held December 5. The band director was given the opportunity to talk with the judges following the contest. He was pleased by the judges' comments and suggestions for improvement.

Mr. Bentz expresses his appreciation to the Ag department for the use of their pickup, and to the band parents who volunteered to take their cars on the trip.

Seed House Is Razed By Fire

A seed house at Straw-Burrow Gin's east battery was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Bentz expresses his appreciation to the Ag department for the use of their pickup, and

Mustangs Win Bi-District

BY—JOE ALCORTA

Olton's immortal 14 wrote football history in Buffalo Stadium Friday afternoon as they swamped the Canyon Eagles for the bi-district championship.

Probably not since Masonic Home, with a crew of 13, marched into the state play off has so much been accomplished by so few on the schoolboy gridiron of Texas.

Canyon was a two-touchdown favorite going into the ball game but the Eagle eggs never hatched and the Mustangs emerged a 14 to 8 victor.

As one sports writer put it, Olton won by a Hair. Leading Olton's scoring attack was pint-sized John Wayne Hair. The diminutive quarterback scored all Olton's tallies.

As if in jubilation for his namesake, a hare flitted twice across the gridiron as the game ended, leaped high into the air, and fled.

As great as was Hair's game, it detracted not a whit from the sparkling performance turned in by 13 team mates.

Almost any player on the roster could be singled out for his contribution to the victory.

Randee Buchenau's heads up ball, without a doubt, saved the day twice for the Mustangs. Once he recovered his own blocked punt, staving off almost certain disaster. Then in the waning seconds of the ball game he intercepted a Canyon pass to put the game on ice.

Big Bob Priest's almost miraculous punting kept the Eagles on wing all afternoon. Probably the play that finally broke the Eagles' back was Priest's punt to the one inch line.

Priest's barreling, bull-like center plunges kept the Eagle defense so tight that fleet-of-foot little Hair was able to find running room. And run he did to the everlasting glory of the blue and white he wore.

Tommie Wilson led a defense that held the Eagles to a single touchdown.

Almost to the gun it appeared the game would be decided on statistics. Even before the final tally, Olton led in that department 3 to 2 on penetrations and 15 to 10 on first downs.

In Friday's ball game Coach Joe Turner used only 14 men—champions all. They include Bobby Brown, Randee Buchenau, Robert Duncan, Harold Feathergill, John Wayne Hair, Kenneth Hooper, Eddy Loveless, James Loveless, Jimmy Moss, Phil Neinst, Robert Priest, Fred Riney, Larry Timmins and Tommie Wilson.

Here's how the game unfolded at Buffalo Stadium:

Phil Neinst kicked to the Eagle 20. Harry Lisle returned the ball to the 38. On the second play from scrimmage the Eagles fumbled and the Mustangs recovered on the 42.

Quarterback Hair went for 5 and then Priest plowed for 8. Buchenau ate up five more yards to the 23, then on the next play danced 23 yards to the double stripe, but an off sides penalty brought the ball back to the 28.

Again the Mustang field general sent Buchenau for six more. A pass from Hair to Priest was incomplete. On the next play Buchenau carried to the 15 for Olton's first penetration.

Priest picked up a yard and then Buchenau lost two. Two passes fell incomplete and the Eagles took over on downs at their own 17.

Led by Quarterback Jerry Richardson and Harry Lisle, the Eagles moved to the 31. On a first down play Fred Riney threw Richardson for a loss of 10 yards on a pass attempt. Several plays later, Eagle Tommy Henderson punted to the Mustang pasture on the 7.

Buchenau gave the pigskin a 4-yard ride. On second down Hair kicked to the Eagle 30 in a beautiful quick kick.

Four plays later the Mustangs took Henderson's punt on their own 40. Priest and Hair carried for a first down. The Mustangs made 5 yards in three plays and then Priest booted to the Eagle 12 as the first quarter ended.

The Eagles picked up a first down, recovered their own pun-ble and then on third down Priest set Richardson back 12 yards.

Hair returned Richardson's punt to the Eagle 41. Priest ate up two yards and then Buchenau galloped to the 28.

A penalty set the Mustangs back to the 33. On fourth down and a fake punt formation, Buchenau carried the mail, but was short of delivery and the Eagles took over on their own 30.

On third down, Richardson ripped off the right side of the line for a magnificent run and the first score of the ball game going 63 yards for a touchdown. Chuck Nester ran the points. The clock read 4:55 left in the first half.

Priest took the sailing kick off on the 15 and ran it back to the Mustang 36. John Wayne Hair went through the right side of the line for a beautiful 37-yard run.

The Mustang trio, Priest, Hair and Buchenau carried for two first downs, and then Hair again faked to Priest and going over for two points to tie the score. The clock stood at 1:20 in the first half.

The Eagles took the kick and some plays later wound up on the Mustang 17 as Olton took over on downs and the half quarter ended.

The score was tied 8-8. Penetrations were 2-2 and Olton led on first downs a meager 8 to 7.

Hair took Henderson's kick on the 20 and ran it back to the 49 as the second half of play opened. Buchenau carried for 1, 6 and 8 for a first down. Priest, Buchenau and Hair combined for another first.

The Ponies marched to the Canyon 20 and were denied a score as the Eagles took over on downs.

The Eagles moved to the Olton 28 and the Mustang defense stiffened. The Ponies got the ball on downs. Buchenau lost 4, Hair gained 7 and then Buchenau recovered his own blocked quick kick. Priest booted out of trouble.

The Eagles couldn't move and punted to the mid-field stripe.

An Olton aerial was grabbed from the ozone by flying Eagle Chuck Nester, who returned to the Mustang pasture on the 46.

The Eagles made 7 on four tries and again the Ponies owned the ball on the 37 as the third quarter ended.

Priest threaded the needle to Hair on the 46 and then racked up a first down on the Eagle 49. A few plays later Priest punted out of bounds on the Eagle 16.

Henderson carried twice for a first. Richardson was thrown for a 6-yard loss by Larry Timmins and Kenneth Hooper on a pass attempt.

A pass was complete from Richardson to Jim Killingsworth, Canyon's lonesome end, on the Mustang 40.

Olton recovered an Eagle miscue on the 28, Hair carried for a first and then Buchenau racked up a first down on three carries. Priest carried for one and two passes fell incomplete.

Priest punted and the ball rolled dead on the Eagle one-inch line. "I have never seen anything like it in all my years of officiating," one official told The Enterprise sports writer.

The Eagles were able to move the ball only four yards in three plays and then booted to their own 30.

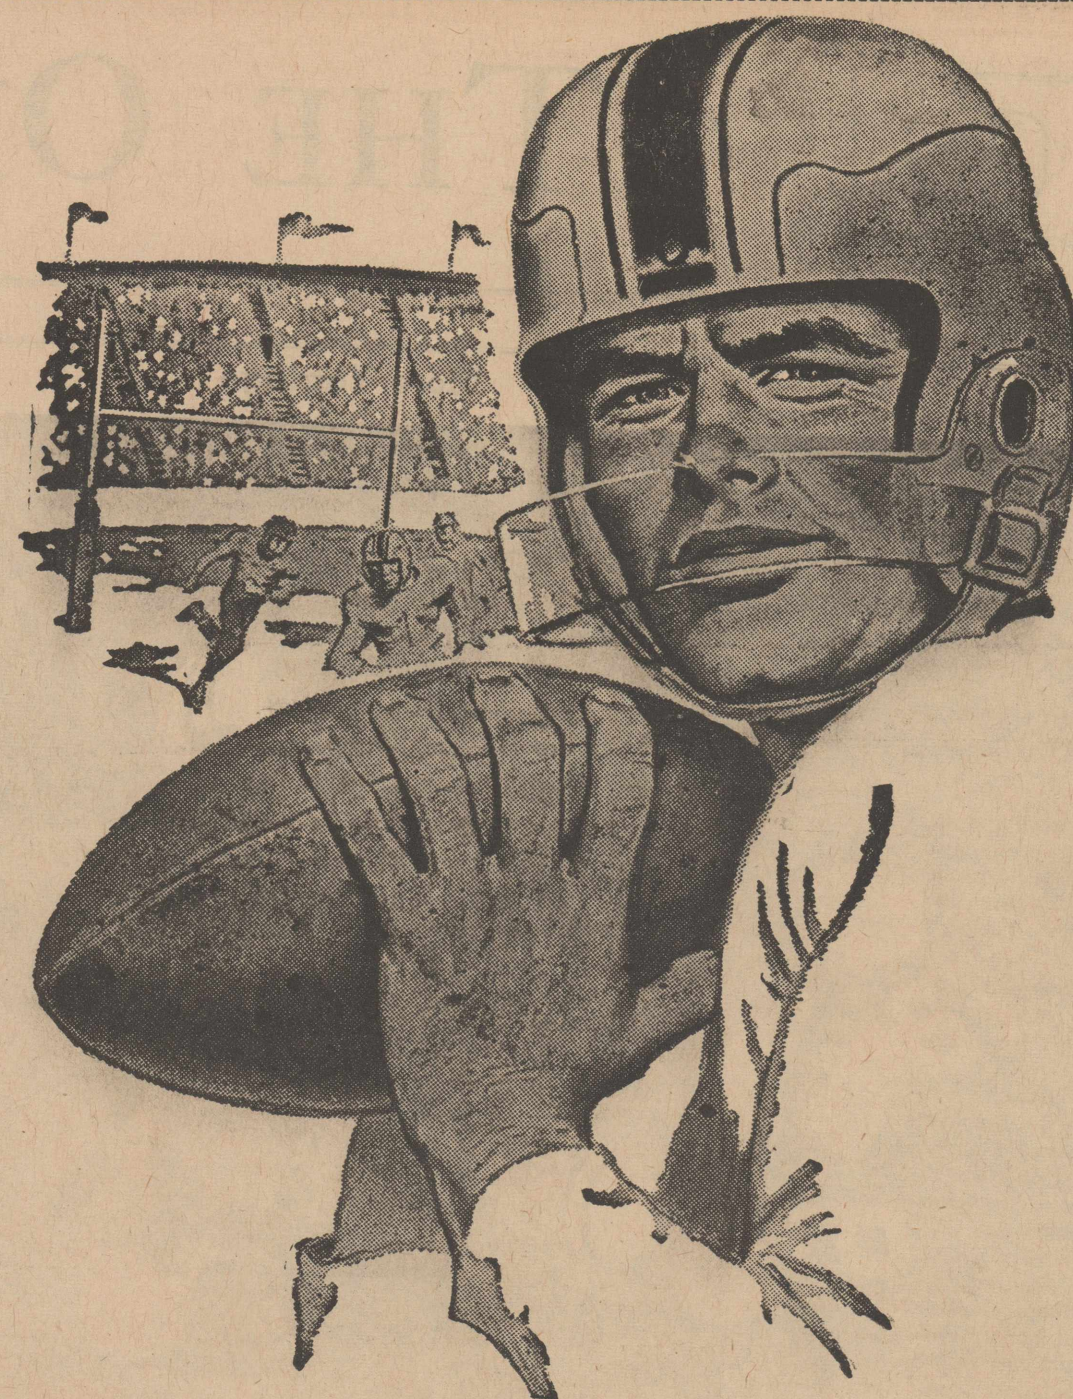

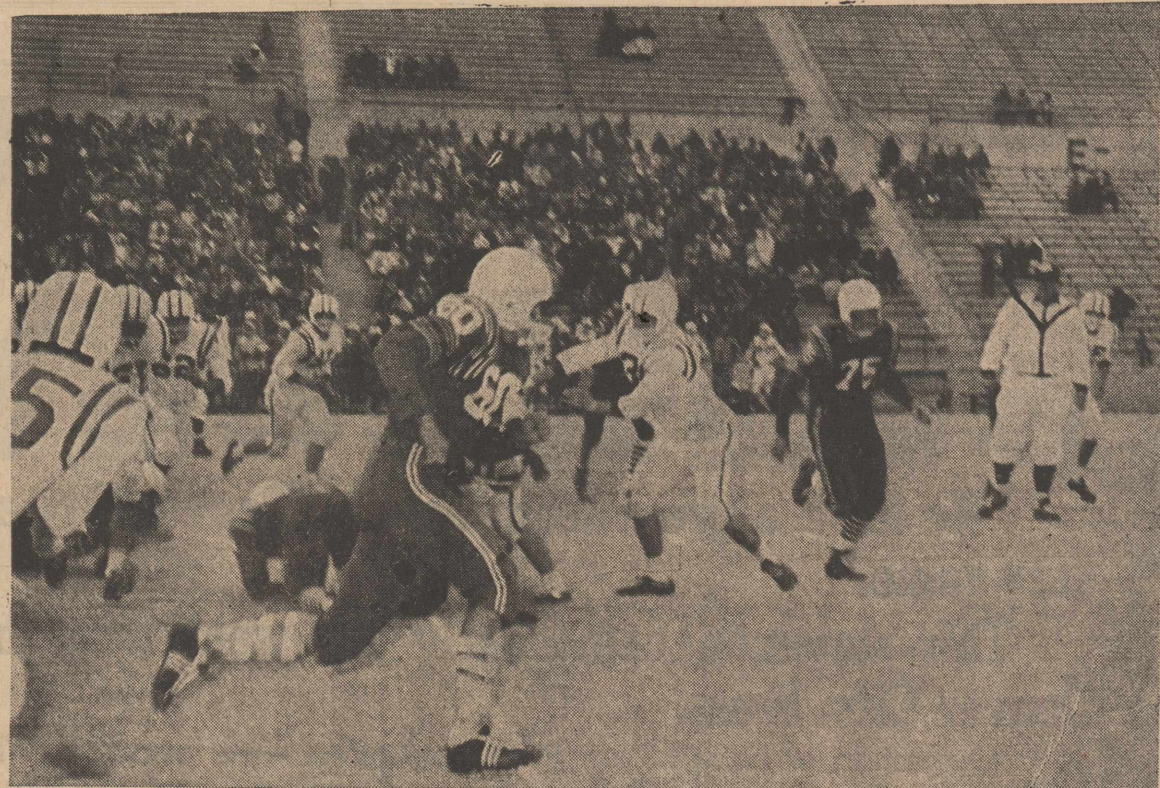

Lacking four yards for a first down, Buchenau tossed to Hair on the 5. Priest dived for 2 and then Hair went over from that point. Olton's kick was short, but the Mustangs held a precious 6-point lead as the clock ticked away with only 30 seconds left in the ball game.

Neinst's on-sides kick failed and the Eagles went to the air. Playing catch-up ball, the Eagles tossed wildly. Buchenau plucked an Eagle aerial and Olton controlled the ball as the game ended.

It was Olton's second bi-district championship during the tenure of Coach Joe Turner. Turnermen downed Lefors for a bi-district title in 1952 and ironically, lost the next round to Denver City, who in turn was stopped by Wink.

Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church has purchased forty New Testaments for the Trinity Baptist Mission.

The women have also sent two boxes of clothing and other items to both missionaries to Hong Kong, China, and missionaries to the Indians in Oklahoma.

A clothing bank has been started, and through it, the women will distribute clothing to the needy of the community.

A business meeting of the WMU was held Monday at the church, at which reports of committees were made, including the above information.

Mrs. R. L. Hipp led the opening prayer, and Mrs. C. W. Leathers read a poem, "Tribute to the Missionary." As she gave the poem, she placed fruit, which was labeled with various missionaries' names, into a horn of plenty.

Emphasis of the meeting was on prayer.

Those attending an executive committee meeting prior to the business session included eight members of the committee.

Present for the business session were Mesdames Kenneth Campbell, Robert Edwards, Leathers, Hipp, Garner Ball, J. G. Estes, J. F. Miller and Jerry Parker.

Thanksgiving

1959

We are THANKFUL for the business you have given us . . . We hope we can continue to serve you.

The picture has changed, but the spirit abides..

It is a far cry from the scene of the first Thanksgiving to the festive tables in modern, streamlined homes at which we celebrate the holiday today. But, basic to the proper observance of the Day is the same spirit of devout thankfulness for the blessings vouchsafed to us by a Divine Providence . . . the same steadfast dedication to maintaining those freedoms for which the founders of our country braved the hazards of the New World.

State Board Of Insurance

ADOPTS

Safe Driving Insurance Plan

For Years people have asked "WHY SHOULD I PAY AS MUCH FOR MY AUTO INSURANCE AS THE IRRESPONSIBLE DRIVER?"

The State Board of Insurance has realized this and has adopted a plan to reward the group of drivers who operate their automobiles in a safe and lawful manner. EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1960, this plan is MANDATORY for all Insurance Companies licensed to do business in Texas.

Under the "merit rating" insurance plan a point system has been established, in which a motorist is charged one point for every moving traffic violation and two points, with certain exceptions, for every accident. A driver with a perfect record during the three year experience period has no points and qualifies for the lowest rates, 20% below the regular rate. A driver with one point will receive no discount and no penalty. Drivers with two or more points will pay more proportionately.

NO POINTS WILL BE ASSIGNED AS A RESULT OF AN ACCIDENT IF:

1. The applicant's Automobile is legally parked.
2. The applicant or owner is reimbursed by or on behalf of the other party involved.
3. The applicant's car is struck in rear end by another car approaching from the rear.

SEE ONE OF THESE LOCAL INDEPENDENT INSURANCE AGENTS FOR DETAILS

Howard Hall Insurance Chitwood Insurance Agency

OLTON, TEXAS

4. The operator of any other vehicle involved is convicted of a traffic violation.
5. Applicant's car is struck by a "hit-and-run" auto, if applicant reports the accident to proper authority within 24 hours.

FOUR POINTS SHALL BE ASSIGNED FOR THE FOLLOWING:

1. Diving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs.
2. Failure to stop and render aid, or disclose identity when involved in an accident.
3. Negligent homicide arising out of the use of a motor vehicle.

A WRITTEN APPLICATION SIGNED BY THE APPLICANT MUST BE USED TO RATE EACH POLICY AND WILL LIST ALL ACCIDENTS AND TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS OF THE APPLICANT AND EACH RESIDENT OPERATOR DURING THE EXPERIENCE PERIOD.

These applications will be checked against your driving record with the Department of Public Safety. A $5.00 traffic ticket could cost the average driver in Olton $27.00 additional in insurance premiums over a three year period for minimum limits of public liability and $1,000.00 medical payments coverage.

A weary grieving woman stands and speaks
 With the priest of the Diocese
 And as the father asks her what she seeks
 She whispers softly, "Give me Peace."
 "Go thou, my child, if thou wouldst know a true release
 And bring to me one grain of rice
 That come from any home that knows no grief.
 And so upon this mission she departs
 Each day she goes from door to door
 Prying into her neighbors' lives and hearts
 Asking her question o're and o're
 She finds how full's the world with sorrow.
 Their griefs with all she sweetly shares
 And finds they've pain to lend, not borrow
 And worse by far than that she bears.
 'Til her heart is filled with overflowing
 With sympathy for other's pain
 'Til in her troubled soul there's glowing Peace that long she'd sought in vain.

M. E. Slack

How much do we have to be thankful for? We sometimes are discouraged and think nothing can go right for us, but just to be free and able to offer our prayers in thanksgiving to our Lord, is enough to be thankful for isn't it?
 How often do we get so wrapped up in our own little lives that we lose sight of the really important elements of living? It isn't hard to do.
 Everytime we feel we are getting in such a stew about what we're doing, or what we have to do, or put too much emphasis on something that does not really amount to a hill of beans . . . all we need to do is look up. Just pause in our hectic flights, and look up at the huge blue expanse of sky.

 Suddenly the chaotic kaleidoscope of people, places and things will fall magically into place, and we will find our feet once more planted firmly on the ground.
 "When I consider the heaven, the work of Thy fingers, the moon and the stars which Thou hast ordained, what is man that Thou art mindful of him?" Can anyone who has seriously thought about this quotation, lose sight of the real God, and become a little god in his own little pointless world?

Thanksgiving is a day for families to gather and genuinely give thanks. That is all there is to it. The turkey and cranberry sauce are only symbols. They are the trimmings that help make the day memorable, but they are not essentials. Prayer is the essential. Thanksgiving is the only element that is important.
 Can one find more importance in sitting all day before a television set watching a ballgame, or in racing hither and yon with the traffic, than sitting down for a few minutes with his family in reverence and prayer on Thanksgiving Day?

Thanksgiving, of course, should not be confined to the last Thursday in November. It should be practiced every day in everything that is done. This day has only been set aside as the one day of the year when Christians throughout the nation unite in prayer and thanksgiving for the blessings of the year.
 Do we not have more to be thankful for than many Christians who celebrate Thanksgiving with reverence?

Thankfulness, like affection, must be expressed before it has meaning. To the Lord who has given us so much in bountiful harvest, can we not, in no other way, express our appreciation in prayer?
 Look at the radiant face of your happy well-fed child. Look at the oven-warmed face of your wife or mother as she peeks at the Thanksgiving turkey. Look at your tireless husband or father, a loving faithful provider and protector.
 Look at the friends who are always there. Look at the abundant fields of cotton and grain. Look at your warm comfortable home and your well-stocked larder.
 Then look beyond the hills toward your Maker and say, "Thank you," on this Thanksgiving Day.

CHILDREN PUT HOLIDAY TOUCH IN DECORATIONS

Rooms In Old Building Almost Colorful As New

BY CELIE WALDRIP Classroom teachers in the "old" building of the elementary school have made their rooms nearly as colorful and attractive as the rooms in the new wing of the building. By the additions of displays, pictures and plants, the teachers have added that "extra touch" that promotes interest and enthusiasm in the young students.

Ready For Thanksgiving

With the exception of Christmas, Thanksgiving is the favorite holiday with young artists. Although teachers become a little weary of being surrounded with pumpkins and turkeys from the first of November until Thanksgiving Day, the children draw, paint, color and cut these scenes tirelessly.

First Thanksgiving

Intrigued by the story of the first Thanksgiving, primary youngsters decorate their rooms with all the familiar fall scenes of feed-shocks, owls, pilgrims, Indians and fruit.

Children in Mrs. J. W. Dale's first grade room have trimmed their lockers with brilliant orange turkeys. A cut-out scene of Indians, Pilgrims and teepees brightens one wall of the room.

Turkeys with spreading feathers, made from drawing around chubby little hands, have been placed on the bulletin boards.

Mrs. Dale's room, although in the old part of the building, contains colorful little desks and chairs which are new. This first grade teacher presents much of the primary work to the youngsters by color charts, counting charts, alphabet charts and general visual training.

In Mrs. Roscoe Trostle's first grade room, wooden cut-outs of animals are mounted on stands. Mrs. Trostle is demonstrating water evaporation by the use of bottles of water set in windows.

Stick-figure self portraits drawn by the children are placed on the walls. Pumpkins, pheasants, fall scenes and "leaf" ladies decorate the boards. Each child's locker is labeled with his name written in a bright color.

Unique Means

Mrs. Trostle employs a unique means of teaching children to count by tens. A long train with each little car numbered 10-20-30 etc., runs the length of one wall. Each time a new number is learned, a new car is added to the train.

In Mrs. Roye Aikman's first grade room, a bulletin board running the entire length of the room is labeled "Seasons of the Year". Each season the students, with their teacher's help, decorate the board appropriately. Hand colored pilgrims and cornucopias adorn the board during the fall season.

A colorful display labeled "We Are Thankful" with streamers leading to cut-outs of home, school, church, family and food is set up in the room.

In Mrs. Aikman's room also, visual aids demonstrating colors and number sequence are used. The student's number and counting papers are displayed on the lockers in the rear of the room. This room also contains new desks scaled to the size and need of six and seven year olds.

Mrs. Charles Galloway emphasizes "sharing" in her bulletin board display of Pilgrims and Indians. A poster bearing "A Song of Thanksgiving" is appropriately used at the front of the room.

In this first grade room is displayed a collection of bottles and jars filled with insects, worms and cocoons. The children bring leaves and grasses to feed the insects and hopefully wait for cocoons to open.

Encouragement

Mrs. Galloway encourages the children to do their best by placing all perfect or "100" papers on the bulletin board. The students in this room are making paper tents with cut out doors to illustrate the Pilgrim-Indian story.

Mrs. Jimmy Jenkins, also a first grade teacher, has decorated her front board with a huge sign trimmed in sparkling gold. The sign reads "Give Thanks", and is complemented with cornucopias and fruit.

Original drawings made by the children are also exhibited around the room. Each child has colored a "fruit man" whose body, head and limbs are composed of colorful fruit.

Mrs. Duane Eby has a large first grade class of Latin-American students. This is a very difficult class to instruct, in that few of the children speak English.

Mrs. Eby's students have decorated their classroom windows in order that their handcrafts may be viewed from the outside as well as inside the building.

Turkeys, squirrels and fall leaves trim the bulletin boards in this room. A large alphabet chart is also displayed. A safety calendar is on exhibit to keep safety warnings in the minds of the frisky little students.

Mrs. Lloyd Hardy's second grade room is decorated with original drawings by children. Four giant keys are displayed on the wall of the room. The keys are called "Keys to Good Conduct" and are labeled with the phrases "Thank you", "I'm sorry", "Please", and "Excuse Me".

A clever chart illustrating Animals and their Babies is displayed. Along one side of the room is a bulletin board with cut-out pictures of objects beginning with consonant sounds.

Helpers

Mrs. Hardy designates two "helpers" each week who read the class thermometer and place yellow or grey balls on the weather chart signifying sunshiny or cloudy days.

Two large pumpkins and several growing plants complete the colorful displays in the room.

Mrs. Joe Money's second grade room is decorated with posters suggesting ways to care for books. Drawings of turkeys with peacock-colored feathers surround the room.

A chart labeled "How a Tree Grows" is displayed on one board. Maps of Texas also add to the bright classroom scene. A large paper thermometer is tacked to the bulletin board to aid the children in learning to read the weather charts.

Elementary principal, Fred Gordon, works tirelessly to see that the needs of the children and demands of the parents are met. The elementary building with its new addition is very large and spread out, but Mr. Gordon miraculously makes the rounds to each room during the day to see that everything is running smoothly. With such an experienced crew to help him, he finds that everything usually is.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

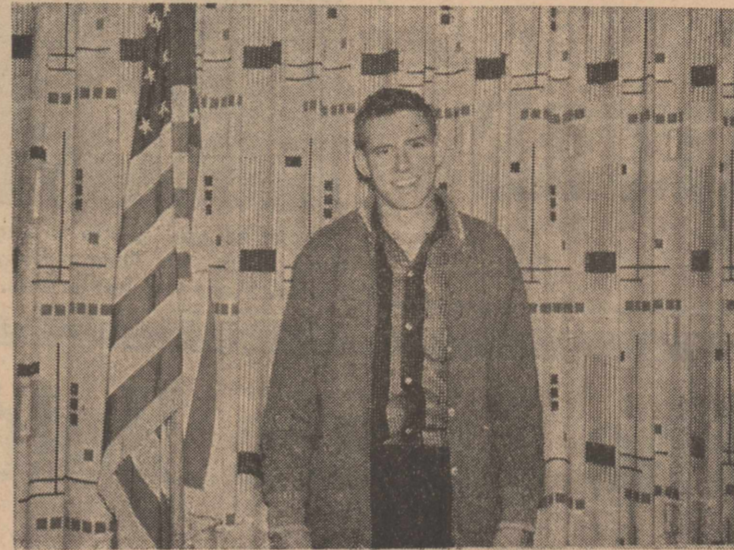

Dear Editor: When the times comes to fill any public place of responsibility we all begin to disqualify ourselves, but after the work has started and some mistakes are made we quickly become experts and begin to criticize the other fellow who tried. It is always easy to stand on the other side of the fence and criticize the other fellow. Good honest criticism is OK but unjust and harsh criticism is harmful. I have worked with and for the city commission of Olton and found them to be good, solid men trying to do what they believe to be best for the City of Olton and its citizens. However, I have not always seen eye-to-eye with them. They have made mistakes, yes, the probabilities are that they have, but only being human, they are likely to do so. He that makes no mistakes does not do very much. We are equally guilty of criticizing our law enforcing officers who serve us. They are only human and subject to making mistakes. But the most of them are considerate and cooperative when respected by the people. They have their jobs to do. I have worked with V. L. Smith, our deputy sheriff, for some time and have found him very considerate and cooperative at all times, most specifically with our young boys of our town who have gotten into trouble. There is not a man in Olton or Lamb County that will do more for a young boy than Smitty. Our retiring mayor has worked hard and given of his time freely trying to do what he believed was right and the best for Olton. I do not think that is questioned. One of the last things that he did was to bring before the commission the need of a limited parking zone in front of the post office. It is badly needed for the purpose of getting the mail. At times it is almost impossible to find a parking place to get your mail without double parking (parking behind a car which is against the law). The only alternative is to park across the street and jay walk across the street, which is also against the law. Yes, you can park across the street and walk a half block to the intersection and cross and to the post office and repeat back to your car. My understanding is the postmaster approved of the zone and it was advocated by many. I feel like the city commission should give this matter careful consideration before turning it down and leave room for just 5 or 6 cars. As to the mayor's responsibility, he cannot carry all the blame for mistakes, if any. He does not have a vote except in case of a tie by the council. That is not very likely as we have five members on the council. Some of you businessmen could help the parking trouble by refraining from parking in front of your place of business all day and let your customers have a place to park while they trade with you. If not, they will go some place else. An old boy was standing watching his neighbor struggling trying to lift his cow over the fence. He called out, "I praise your spunk, but I pity your judgment." This is the way it looks from across the fence. J. G. Cole

BOOKSHOP ALSO OUTLET FOR OFFICE SUPPLIES

County's Only Book Store Located Here

BY—CELIE WALDRIP

Ogletree's Bookshop, owned and operated by Mardema Ogletree, has successfully survived many odds since its establishment two years ago this month.

Mardema, who operates the only bookshop in Lamb County, is a member of the American Booksellers Association.

When Mardema first decided to open a book shop, her idea was met with much discouragement. She visited many leading bookstores and publishing houses in New York City, and did much research in the field of "book selling."

Was Discouraged

Mardema was advised a bookstore had little chance of being successful in a city of less than twenty-five thousand. This advice did little to dampen her enthusiasm, and Mardema, who is an avid reader herself, now supplies books, catalogs and Sunday School literature to much of the county. Mardema can now proudly boast she carries books on everything from "astronomy to yogi". She has access to every book in print and can put on special order any book she does not have in stock. Ogletree's Bookshop can get the newest books as promptly as the largest bookstores in the nation.

In delving into the bookstore situation, Mardema found it appalling that the United States is one of the least well-read nations of the world. She found that in Scandinavia, Germany, England, France and Russia bookstores are as common as grocery stores. In much of the United States they are more or less a "novelty."

For Looks Only

She also discovered the fact that many wealthy home-owners buy books by the foot or yard, bound in jackets to compliment the color schemes of their homes. A library has become a symbol of social status, although it seems unimportant to many library owners that the books are read.

Ogletree's Bookshop contains books on many subjects. Fiction, history, biography, religion, home-making, autobiography, books for teen-agers and books for children are among the most popular.

Some of Mardema's latest books include Lincoln, a picture story of his life, by Stephen Laurant; Affectionately, F.D.R., by son, James Roosevelt; Green Grows the Ivy, by Ivy Baker Priest, and The Day of San Jacinto, a book by Frank X. Tolbert, formerly of Littlefield, now on the staff of the Dallas Morning News.

For the homemaker, Ogletree's offers Encyclopedia of Household Hints and Dollar Stretches, by Michael Gore; Betty Crocker's Cook Book for Boys and Girls; and Betty Crocker's Dinner for Two. Also of interest to women are many books on home interior decoration and Better Homes and Gardens Holiday Book. Lilly Dache Glamour Book is another which will interest the fashion-minded woman.

Books for men include Winner's Guide to Golf, by Bob Loke, a world championship golfer; and Eighteen Holes in My Head, by Milton Gross. Mardema also has in stock a book called "How to Water Ski", which she does not recommend, as she says it does not help much.

For the after-dinner speaker, Ogletree's offers a selection of joke and speech books such as Reader's Digest Treasury of Wit and Humor; 10,000 Jokes, Toasts and Stories, by Lewis and Fay Copeland; and Saturday Evening Post Cartoon Festival.

Bridge enthusiasts will find it necessary to read Goren's New Contract Bridge Complete; and Goren's Contract in a Nutshell. Also a book, Duplicate Tournaments, by Alfred Sheinwold is included on the shelves.

Children's Books

For the children, Mardema has purchased an assortment of Golden Books and educational puzzles and games. The new Shirley Temple series including books from which her childhood movies were made, may be found at Ogletree's.

A special encyclopedia for children, The Golden Book Encyclopedia, many educational toys and washable books for tiny tots may be found at the bookstore.

Many volumes for teen-agers such as books on manners, parties and grooming are offered at Ogletree's. Mardema also carries a series of Landmark books for young people. McCalls Guide to Teen-Age Beauty and Glamour, which promises to make the reader "beautiful, glamorous, popular and confident" might well be read by many of us.

A large selection of Bibles and Bible Commentaries, including The Amplified New Testament, King James Version, Revised Standard and Teacher's Bible will make good Christmas reading. Sunday School literature and pamphlets are also stocked at the bookshop.

In addition to the great assortment of books at Ogletree's, school and office supplies, stationery, classics in pocket editions, imported Christmas cards, records for learning to speak foreign languages, personalized Christmas greetings, Nativity calendars and collections of Christmas stories may be found.

In the two years Ogletree's

Bookshop has been in operation, Mardema has done much to add to the cultural interests in Olton. Her store has provided people of Olton with many pleasurable hours of reading, and has given children of this community an opportunity to strengthen their backgrounds of literature and knowledge.

ALL THREE REPORTED ON PROBATION

Young Trio Held In Hart Burglary

Two Plainview youths and a Happy boy landed in jail last week accused of burglaries in Hart and Dimmitt.

Alertness of two Hart people led to the arrest of the trio in Littlefield less than three hours after the Hart burglary.

Entered at Hart was the Green Frog Cafe. The Dairy Mart was burglarized at Dimmitt.

Mrs. Teaford Weems, who works at the cafe, happened to be passing the firm about 5:30 o'clock Thursday morning of last week and saw some boys leaving it. She supplied Deputy Sheriff Granville Martin with a description of the car.

A short time later owner of the cafe, Roland Shepard, was standing in front of the cafe when a car answering the description given by Mrs. Weems rounded the corner on the Dimmitt highway and headed for Olton.

Mr. Shepard gave chase in his automobile. After following the car onto a dirt road, part of the time with his lights out and in fear of a burst of gunfire, he finally got its license number and relayed it to the Castro County Sheriff's Department. The boys' ages are 16, 17 and 18.

All three are reported to be on probation. One was turned over to custody of a probation officer from Tulla, another to the Plainview Police Department and the third remained in jail in Dimmitt this week in lieu of $1,500 bond. Some $70.00 was taken in the Green Frog break-in.

Olton Superintendent To Attend TST Convention

Olton School Superintendent Joe W. Harper will be among the delegates to convene for the 81st convention of Texas State Teachers Association during the Thanksgiving holidays, at San Antonio.

The group will hear nationally known speakers and a leading musical program, pause for a worship service, consider educational problems and their solutions, visit educational exhibits, attend interest group meetings, and wind it all up with a business session—the TSTA House of Delegates—on Saturday morning.

Presiding will be TSTA President Vincent W. Miller, superintendent of schools at Pasadena. Slated to succeed him is Mrs. Mary Alexander, a classroom teacher from Palestine. Now vice-president, Mrs. Alexander was unopposed on the ballot conducted earlier this month in every school building over the state.

Winner of the vice-presidential race will be announced at the House of Delegates. Candidates are D. Richard Bowles, assistant director of instruction in the Austin public schools, and R. H. McKay, assistant superintendent of Dallas schools.

A Thanksgiving vesper service at 4 o'clock Thursday will open the convention, with Dr. Alfred Freeman, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Houston, as speaker.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Senate majority leader and potential candidate for president, will address the first general session that evening in San Antonio's Municipal Auditorium.

At the Friday morning general session, speakers will be Dr. John H. Furbay, education director for Trans-World Airlines, and Dr. W. W. Eshelman of Fort Washington, Penn., president of the National Education Association.

Most of the 30 TSTA sections, from arithmetic to industrial arts, will hold luncheon and afternoon meetings Friday. Leaders in various educational fields in Texas and other states will keynote these interest group meetings.

Among the many outstanding speakers scheduled for the various sections is Frank G. Clement, former governor of Tennessee. He will address the Texas Classroom Teachers Association breakfast and the National Education Association dinner Friday.

Fred Waring and The Pennsylvanians will dominate the Friday evening general session with their musical program, "Stereo Festival."

At the House of Delegates Saturday morning, committee reports, resolutions, and other items of business will be heard and acted upon.

Graham Film Coming Here

Evangelist Billy Graham's latest motion picture will be shown at First Baptist Church here at 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening.

This announcement came this week from Rev. John Lewis, pastor.

Judy Price Will Be In Recital

Judy Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Price, Olton, is one of thirteen Wayland Baptist College music students, who will be presented in recital at 10 AM, Nov. 30, in the college auditorium, according to Mrs. Maudell Meredith, assistant professor of piano and theory.

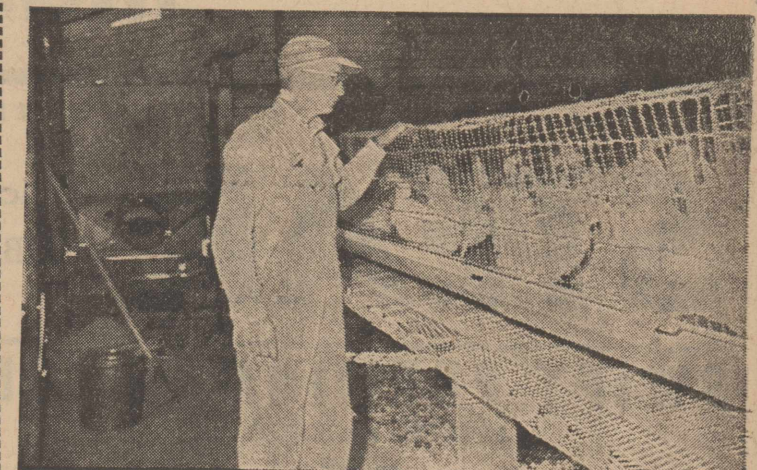

Miss Price, who has done her own adaptation of the second piano score of Tchaikowsky's "Opening of B flat Minor Concerto" for organ, will accompany Sam Brown pianist, as he plays the composition.

A 1959 graduate of Olton High, Miss Price, was valedictorian of her class, a member of the National Honor Society and Student Government. This year at Wayland, she is a member of the Chapel Choir. She is seeking the Bachelor of Arts degree with a double major in music and English.

Along with other students at Wayland, she took part in the annual Homecoming activities, which began Nov. 20, and included coronation of the Homecoming Queen, a downtown parade of floats, reunions of several classes, a three-act play, a doubleheader basketball game and a variety of other features.

Old plainsmen often placed a silk neckerchief on hard ground and listened by putting their ear on the neckerchief. Sounds otherwise inaudible were somehow manifested by the procedure.

Local Farmer Uses "Do-It-Yourself Technique" To Profitable Purina Caged Layer Program

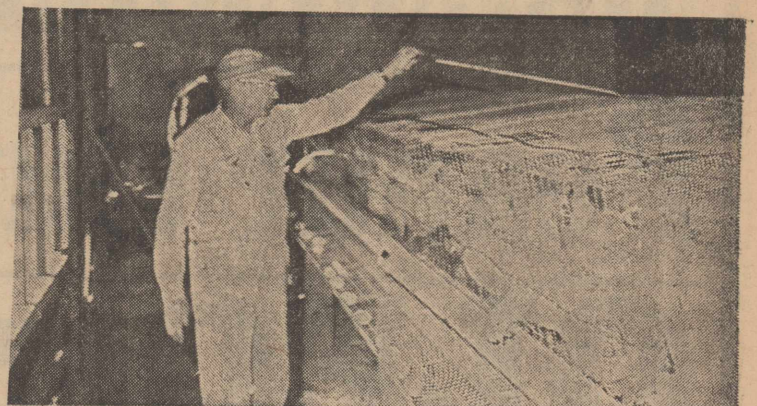

Charles Bowers, Circle, looks over the colony cages that he built. Mr. Bowers collects some 16 dozen eggs per day at a feed cost of 14.5 cents per dozen, using the Purina Check-R-Mix plan.

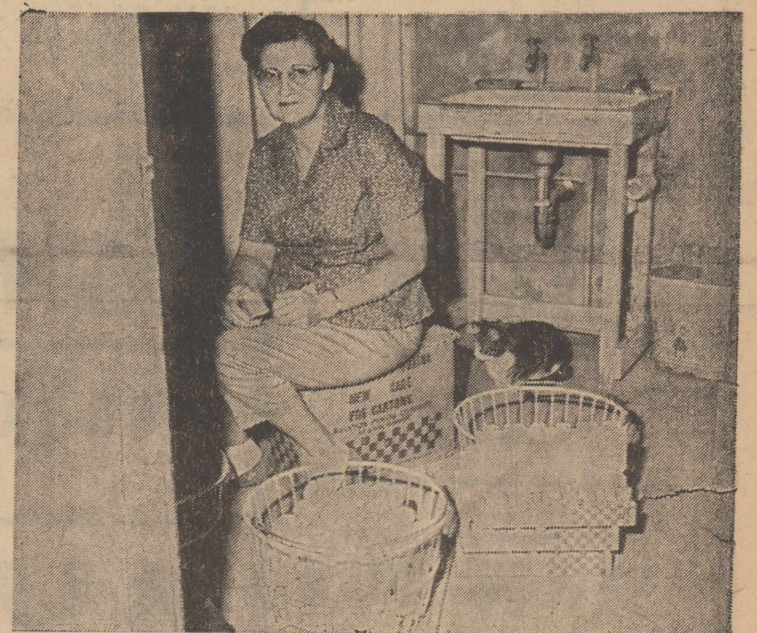

Don Spain, Purina dealer for Olton, points to the unique feed elevator Mr. Bowers built from an old combine bin.

Mr. Spain also points out that Mr. Bowers cages are built on frames that rest on the floor, rather than suspended from the ceiling . . .

. . . as shown here, Mr. Bowers cleans out the heated water trough that runs between the cages, this is accomplished with a long, curved handle brush he made; this could not be accomplished so easily if the cages were suspended from the ceiling.

Mrs. Bowers is shown here cleaning and packing the day's top quality eggs into Purina cartons ready for market.

Offering 2 Different Varieties Of Cotton Planting Seed This Year

FARMERS—Action often speaks louder than words—Action is what has been taking place at the NORTHERN STAR SEED FARMS in our breeding program.

Our latest improved No. 5 is a more storm-proof cotton—ideal for stripping—has an extra high lint turnout. Staples 15 to 1 inch—white cotton that will clean up and clean out at the gin—has less spots and is going to the bank with more money. The farmers that grew this cotton are carried away with the results.

Some of this cotton is still in the field for observation. We welcome visitors anytime to come and see it.

We will have a limited supply of this seed for sale and we advise you farmers to book what you will need at once with your dealer or ginner near you.

The latest improved No. 5 cotton has been developed and we believe possesses the qualities the farmers have been looking for.

For spindle picking we have developed Northern Star No. 4-11—a quality cotton for snapping, stripping or spindle type picking. Farmers planning to use mechanical pickers will find No. 4-11 will meet all the requirements.
