Chamber Is Seeking Square Development

Legal Hurdles Must Be Cleared

Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture directors Tuesday wholeheartedly endorsed an effort to "see what can be done" with the one-time hospital now sitting vacant in the middle of Olton's square.

A group representing the Chamber was scheduled to meet today with District Judge E.A.

(Andy) Bills at Littlefield and discuss possibilities of starting a movement to rejuvenate the long unused area.

The group includes Percy Parsons, C-CA president; Dr. Basil Johns, James Hall, Elmer McGill and Dick Whiteley, C-CA manager.

No one of the group was certain how any sort of effort to remove the hospital from litigation might be accomplished. "We certainly want to investigate any possibilities," said Manager Whiteley.

Ideas expressed on the project ranged from turning the building back into a hospital or some other type venture, to tearing down the building and turning the square into business sites.

"It (the square) might be a good location for our new post office, when we get it," suggested one director.

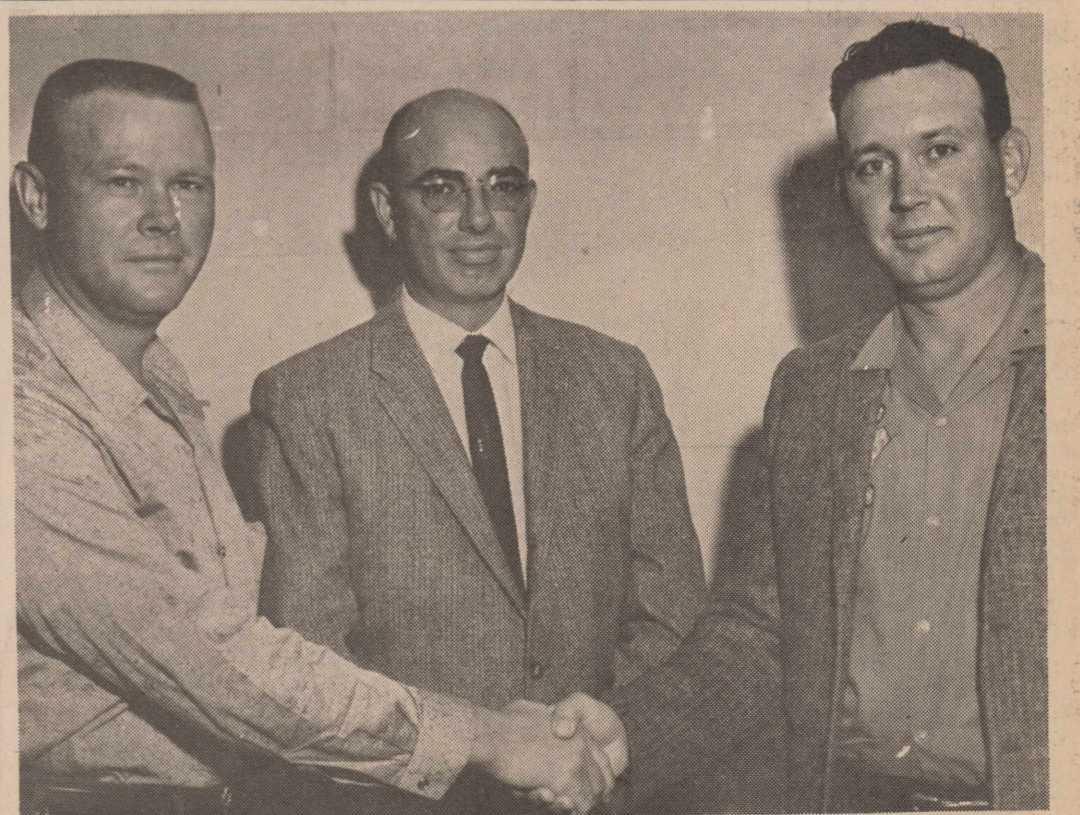

It was almost two years ago that Judge Bills ordered the building and grounds up for bids. Attorney Billy Hall of Littlefield was appointed receiver in the case in September, 1958.

The court case was styled Dr. B. J. Souders vs. Drs. James E. and Lynn Fite. Souders and the Fite brothers once were partners in operation of the osteopathic hospital.

Although some bids have been offered since June, 1959, none has been viewed as acceptable by the court.

In other action at Tuesday's C-CA board meeting, the directors voted to co-sponsor a Literacy Course to be presented in Olton starting April 19. Mrs. Lacy Armstrong is in charge of arrangements for the course.

Manager Whiteley was given the go-ahead on an effort to have representatives of Blue Goose, a nationwide vegetable firm, meet with local farmers interested in growing vegetables.

NEW PRESIDENT, BOARD MEMBERS --- Gilbert Roberson, left, new president of Olton's school board, welcomes O.J. Neeley, right, and Winston Bley, as new members of the board. Neeley and Bley were elected from a field of seven candidates last Saturday.

Roberson Voted New Board Head

Olton's school board, meeting for the first time with two new members, elected Gilbert Roberson, a farmer, as president at a regular meeting here Tuesday night.

Roberson succeeds Owen Jones, another farmer, at the helm.

New vice-president is Fred Hicks, while the new secretary is Roy Roberts, both farmers.

In addition to re-organizing for the year, the board took in two new members, Winston Bley and O.J. Neeley, both elected in last Saturday's trustee election.

Returns of the election were canvassed, with no changes in figures reported by election officials.

In other action, the board re-employed Mrs. Ray Slatten as lunch room manager, approved bills payable and okayed routine monthly reports.

Neeley, Bley Take School Board Posts

Two area farmers, O.J. Neeley and Winston Bley, were elected to the Olton school board Saturday from a field of seven candidates that included two women.

In a turnout that election judge Eldon Franks termed "exceptionally good", voters cast 371 ballots in the local election.

Bley and Neeley will take the seats on the board being vacated by Lloyd Graham and J.C. Miller, Jr., both of whom did not seek re-election.

Neeley, who lives in Hart Camp area, led the list of hopefuls with 163 votes while Bley garnered 141.

Losing only four votes was one of the women candidates, Jean Hall, who captured 137 tallies. The other disstaff member of the seven, Mrs. A.E. Cade cornered 103 votes.

Other in the race included Cleo Smith with 80 votes, Bill Langford with 76 votes and Don Williams with 41 votes. Of the men in the race, all are farmers with the exception of Williams who is a local insurance man. Both the women are housewives.

In the county trustee race, Pat Boone, Sr., running for the trustee-at-large position received 42 votes. He was unopposed on the ballot.

Of the 371 votes cast in the election, 19 were absentee.

Mayor James Re-Elected By 2-1

City Vote Names Incumbents, Tower Leads Senate Election

Olton voters re-elected Mayor M.T. James Jr. by a 2-1 margin and gave incumbent councilmen Fred Thompson and Robert Duncan another term in balloting here Tuesday.

Conservative John Tower, who campaigned strongly against the New Frontier, swept to a good-sized lead in Precinct 1 voting in the Special Senate Election the same day.

A total of 302 voters made their way to the city polls on a warm, fair day Tuesday, giving Mayor James 198 votes to 101 for his challenger, Charles McClain, former Mayor D.V. Ray received three write-in votes.

Thompson led the balloting for city council with 171 votes, while Duncan polled 136.

The challengers scored this way: Bob Gullett, 101; Cecil Gallaway, 72; Howard Buchanan, 70; and Charles Polk, 33.

In the senate election, Tower marched to the state-wide lead and assured himself of a spot in a runoff, Interim Sen. Bill Blakely held second spot by a slight lead over Rep. Jim Wright, but the margin was so razor thin early Wednesday that the issue was still in doubt.

Attorney General Will Wilson ran a poor fourth, with the other two of the "Big Six" on the 71 name ballot, Maury Maverick and Henry Gonzalez, further down the line.

In Lamb County, Tower built up a 680 to 467 lead over Wright, with Blakely at 399, Wilson 320, Maverick at 104 and Gonzalez at 44.

Olton precinct voters gave Tower 163 votes to Wright's 101. Blakely polled 59, Wilson 48, Maverick 21 and Gonzalez 1.

The Hart Camp precinct went for Tower with 15 votes, while Blakely had 6, Wilson 4, Wright and Gonzalez, 1 each, and Maverick none.

Springlake precinct voters made it a three-way split between Tower, Blakely and Wright. Tower polled 22 votes, Blakely 21, Wright 20, Wilson had 12, Gonzalez 3 and Maverick none.

Grain Program To Be Outlined

Somebody has popped the emergency feed grain balloon.

The Kennedy administration's new program believed by many at first to be economic shot in the arm for area farmers, now has some doubters.

Many questions have arisen over the new program, most of them tied to speculation on how the county's grain sorghum yield average will be set.

L.D. Aten, county ASC office manager, is scheduled to speak to farmers here tonight at 7:30 in a meeting at the high school auditorium.

"I should have some of the answers by that time," Aten said Wednesday, explaining that he planned to attend a meeting for ASC managers today in Lubbock.

"We sort of figured at first that the county's overall average would be around 3,000 pounds to the acre," he said. "Later investigation shows the overall average may be about 2,500 pounds."

Aten based his first estimate on the idea that the average for irrigated farms probably would be around 4,000 pounds and for dryland would be about 1,000 pounds.

Averages will be set for each grain sorghum-producing farm in the county, Aten said. Each will be indexed according to its productive capacity.

"Our highest index is 160 per cent, so if our county average is set at 2,500 pounds, our best farms would have an average of 4,000 pounds," the ASC manager said.

He pointed out that most of the farms in the Olton vicinity are indexed at about 135 per cent. If the county average is set at 2,500 pounds, farms indexed at 135 per cent would carry averages of 3,325 pounds.

The point is that farmers want their averages set as high as possible. Under the new law, only the farm's average - or limit - could be put into government loan at $1.88 per hundred.

All grain produced over the limit would have to be sold on the open market. No one has any idea what market prices will be.

Aten will outline the program at tonight's meeting and then open the floor to questions.

The ASC office is scheduled to mail notices of the county average and the indexes to producers about April 15.

Farmers will have until early May to decide whether to enter the program.

TOO HOT IN THE HOUSE ---Mrs. Charley Meyer sits dejectedly on a couch outside her home here Monday afternoon as firemen finish putting out a blaze which damaged the roof and attic of the house. Furniture was moved outside by firemen, saving it from smoke and water damage. Faulty wiring was blamed as cause of the fire. The blaze was one of three battled by firemen here Monday and Tuesday.

A LETTER that's been making the rounds of most weekly newspapers across the state turned up on my desk this week. It's from a fellow downstate who calls himself The Philosopher.

J.A., as he signs the letter, sends out a weekly epistle to papers which subscribe for his services. We plan to add the feature to the Enterprise starting later this month.

The letter I received this week is one of the best I've seen him turn out and I'm passing it along. You'll get a kick out of it. Here it is:

Dear Editor:

I have seen some strange and hard-to-believe things come out of Washington in my time, but the one I have now found out about has bowled me over. That is, it would have if I hadn't been sitting down already at the time. These days a man has to be in a position to brace himself to handle any new idea, and the best position I know is sitting.

At any rate, as I understand it, and I checked it in three different papers, even went into Olton and paid money for two of them, Washington has come out with the proposal that the farmers themselves figure out the answer to the farm problem.

"Let the farmers themselves write their own farm program," is the way the idea goes, and I don't mind admitting I'm in a state of shock.

Up to the present, one of the real and I thought enduring satisfactions of farming was the realization you could always explain away an unsuccessful year by saying: "What did you expect me to make, under the farm program we got? Them birds that write the farm programs don't know anything about farming." We haven't got a chance.

But now some smart alphas fed the President the idea that the farmers themselves ought to write their own farm program, and I'm calling on you right now to help put a stop to it. It's the most outrageous thing I ever heard of.

You don't hear doctors asking patients to do their own diagnosing and write their own prescriptions, do you? You don't hear bankers asking their customers to set their own interest rate and borrowing limit, do you?

You let the government turn the farm program over to the farmers, and farmers then wind up in the same shape they're in now, and who're we going to point our finger at?

No, sir, it's the government's job to figure out the farm problem solution. If us farmers could have figured it out, we'd have done it long ago. The tried and true method is for the farmers to create the problem, and somebody else handle the answer. Everybody to his own job. This new idea is government interference at its worst. Yours faithfully, J.A.

MR. AND MRS. RANDEE BUCHENAU

Nicholas-Buchenau Vows Read

Miss Sylvia Jane Nicholas became the bride of Randee Michael Buchenau in a double ring ceremony last Thursday night at 8:15 p.m. in the home of the bride's parents with the Rev. Tommy L. Austin, pastor of the Westmoreland Baptist Church, Lubbock, officiating.

Marriage vows were exchanged Saturday afternoon, March 25, in a candlelight ceremony by Miss Mary Dell Sanders, Olton, and Jerrell Johnson Young, Halfway, in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hysinger in Olton.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Tommy Jones pastor of the Halfway Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Sanders of Pampa, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hollis Young, Halfway.

Music for the ceremony was provided by an organ, recordings of "Always", "I Love You Truly", and "Because".

The couple stood before a nuptial center arranged with tall standing candelabras holding white tapers, floor baskets of white carnations arrangements and blue ribbon streamers, against a background of greenery.

She carried a handkerchief borrowed from the groom's mother, and wore a blue satin garter made especially for her by her matron of honor.

Mrs. Hysinger attended her niece as matron of honor. She wore a dress of pale blue knobbed silk, featuring a large collar, three-quarter length sleeves, and pleated skirt. Her ensemble was completed with a blue flowered hat, and slippers and gloves dyed to match. Her flowers were blue carnations fashioned into a corsage.

Olton Youths Take Honors At Plainview

Olton FFA, FHA and 4-H members captured 22 awards in the Plainview Fat Stock contest last Thursday.

In the livestock judging contest, the Olton team placed second in overall with two of the team members, Jarold Simmons and Larry King, copping second and fifth high individual honors respectively. Third member of the team is Robert Duncan.

The team went on to place first in the Littlefield district of the show.

In the lamb division, Curtis Hall showed the top lightweight Southdown and also took ninth place in the same category. Too, Hall exhibited the champion medium wool lamb with the animal placing first in the heavyweight class. King exhibited the tenth place heavyweight Shropshire.

Richard Hall captured second place with a heavyweight Southdown, and Robert Duncan's heavyweight Southdown was judged fourth. Rea Horn copped the fourth spot in the lightweight fine wool show.

In the swine division, Duncan was awarded fourth place in the heavyweight Chester White class and the same spot in the heavy weight Duroc show. His lightweight Hampshire was awarded ninth place.

Don Blades' heavyweight

Duroc took top honors in its weight show and went on to win as reserve grand champion of the breed. Others showing Durocs were Danny Cade who took fifth in the medium-weight class, and Marilyn Cade who finished behind her brother in the same weight.

Simmons and Jimmy Tollett exhibited fat steers with Simmons taking third place with his animal and Tollett capturing fifth place with his steer.

Local People Will Attend Ginners' Meet

Several local people are planning to attend the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association 48th annual convention in Dallas this weekend, April 9-11.

The convention will draw more than 5,000 cotton ginners and their guests for the largest show of its kind held in the world.

The three-day event opens with a two-million-dollar exhibit of gin machinery, supplies and equipment.

The machinery show and convention sessions are held in the Varied Industries Building and Agriculture Building at the State Fair of Texas. All except two of the 48 conventions have been held in Dallas.

Those planning to attend from Olton are Mr. and Mrs. Laus Hair, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Graham, T. J. Roberson, Owen Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus DeBerry, Bob Williams, Vernon Carlisle, Jr., Dick Evans and Walter Cooper.

Speeches are made for two purposes -- to tell the truth or to hide the truth.

PLACING SECOND in the Livestock Judging Contest at the Plainview Stock Show last week was this Olton team, composed of Robert Duncan, Jarold Simmons and Larry King. The team won first in the Littlefield District to qualify for an area contest at Texas Tech. Earlier in the year, the team won second at the Hereford Stock Show.

Tax Receipts To Rise

NEW YORK - How much will Uncle Sam collect from residents of Lamb County in the form of personal income taxes when tax day, which is April 17th this year, rolls around? Will it be more or less than it was last year, when local income and employment taxes added up to approximately $5,353,000?

That figure is based on income reports and on an unofficial breakdown of Treasury Department receipts from the State of Texas. They show that individual income taxes collected in the state came to $2,059,000,000 last year.

Thus, residents of Lamb County paid some 0.26 percent of the state total.

Although the nation was in a period of recession during the greater part of 1960, with incomes dropping in many areas, the country as a whole ended the year with earnings that were higher than in 1959.

As a result, the Government counts on nearly $2.9 billion more in the way of personal income taxes being produced, come April 17th, than was turned in a year ago. The total then was $44.9 billion.

On the basis of preliminary figures on income levels in Lamb County, the current payments are expected to come to nearly $6,017,000.

From many directions now come signs that recession is reaching an end and that there will be an upturn before the middle of the year. The Kennedy administration generally thinks it will occur in the April and June quarter.

The art of cooking does not end with the preparation of plain food.

Such a resumption of business activity is being counted on to reduce unemployment and to boost the gross national product well over the $503 billion recorded in 1960.

A rise in personal income, which would naturally go hand-in-hand with it, would yield income taxes next year of $50.2 billion, according to the Federal budget, as compared with this year's $47.8 billion.

To keep pace with this budgetary forecast and to continue carrying their present share of the tax burden, residents of Lamb County would have to attain a combined income in 1961 that is 5.0 percent greater than it was last year.

Earlier Tuesday, fireman answered a call to the Paul Hammer farm five miles east and one north of Olton. A cotton seed house afire there was described as a total loss.

Faulty wiring was blamed in a fire which struck the Charley Meyer home in Olton Monday afternoon. Five damaged the roof and attic of the home. Main part of the house had smoke and water damage.

Wiring troubles were listed at the cause of the fire last Thursday night in a trailer house southwest of Olton. The trailer, located near the home of Mrs. Lee Green, was a total loss. Residents of the trailer, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Clark, were away when the blaze broke out. The trailer was owned by Willie Gene Green.

Cancer Mortality Rate Reduction Is Forecast

NEW YORK, Prospects for a reduction in the heavy toll taken by cancer each year in Lamb County are seen in the encouraging reports coming from the research laboratories.

The outlook for cancer patients who receive early and adequate treatment is better than it has been at any time and is improving steadily.

Even now, although the researchers have not yet attained the major breakthrough they have been seeking, it has become possible to save half of all cancer victims, states the American Cancer Society.

The subject is attracting special attention at this time because of the approach of April, designated Cancer Control Month.

Lamb County has been experiencing a somewhat lower rate of mortality from the disease than have most areas of the United States.

This is shown in the latest comparable figures, covering the entire country, released by the U.S. Public Health Service for the year ending January 1, 1959.

It attributes a total of 22 deaths of local residents in the year to cancer and other malignant growths. Not included are deaths locally of non-residents.

It represents a rate of 101 cancer deaths per 100,000 population in Lamb County, a lower rate than was reported for the United States as a whole, 148 per 100,000.

The local figure was also under the West South Central States rate of 120 per 100,000.

Although cancer holds its position as the nation's number two affliction, topped only by heart disease, it is showing a gradually improving cure rate, due partly to earlier and better diagnosis.

A still better result would be obtained, say the authorities,

Cancer Goal Here Is $1,000

Olton's goal in the upcoming Cancer Crusade for Lamb County will be $1,000, it was announced this week.

The county goal will be $4,500, according to Percy Parsons of Olton, chairman of the Lamb County Cancer Chapter.

Tentative plans call for a business - professional campaign about the middle of April, followed by a house-to-house canvass in the latter part of April.

to the extent of an additional 85,000 lives saved a year in the United States, if people would take advantage of what science has to offer. They mean annual physical checkups for people over 35.

The form of the ailment most discussed in the last few years is lung cancer, which is now the leading cause of cancer death among men.

In Lamb County, in the year covered by the report, 18.1 percent of the cancer mortality was due to lung cancer, as against 13.9 percent nationally.

Lamb County Ranks 3rd In State Cotton Growth

Lamb County climbed the ladder of cotton production in 1960 to end up as the third ranking county in the state, trailing Lubbock and Hale in that order.

The county output of 175,696 bales was good enough to land it in the top ten counties for cotton growth in the nation, ranking tenth.

Lubbock led the state with 244,323 bales followed by Hale 188,822.

The 1960 production topped 1959's bales by 1,006 in Lamb County.

Neighboring counties and their 1960 outputs included Hockley with 167,913 bales; Floyd with 107,416; and Bailey with 89,893 bales.

Leading the nation during the year were rich irrigated regions of California and Arizona. Doubtless, the long staple cotton grown in those areas counts for some of that prodigious production, with acreage control programs different for the more scarce cotton of extra long staple.

Kern County, Calif. led the U.S. with 515,335 bales followed by Fresno, Calif. (505,318) and Maricopa, Ariz. (359,919).

Water District Office In Lamb Is Changed

Price is a long-time resident of Littlefield and is familiar with agriculture and irrigation. He will assist Lamb County residents in filling out applications for well drilling permits and help with any business that involves the water district.

According to McFarland, the Lamb County committee consists of five county men including: J.B. Davis, Amherst; Albert Lockwood, Spade; Willie Green, Olton; Henry Gilbert, Sudan; and Price Hamilton, Earth.

The county committee meets the first Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. at the Montgomery Cafe in Littlefield.

McFarland states that anyone who has business with the committee is invited to attend the monthly meeting.

THIS & THAT

BY MYRT LOMAN

It is always nice to have a vacation, but to me, it is twice as nice to come home.

We made our trip by train, saw a lot of pretty country, pretty wheat and beautiful weather.

I think Margarete did a marvelous job on the paper and I am most grateful to her for working for me. I thank each of you who helped her with your ads and your news.

It is a lot of hard work to get the paper ready to be in Olton by 5 p.m. on Monday and without the help of the ads from the business men and your news items we would have no paper. Especially do I thank each of you.

The Senior Class soon will be selling subscriptions for the Hart Beat, so will you please not help them?

We have a new mayor and two city councilmen. Let's get behind them and help them to make our City a place to be proud to live in.

When we buy merchandise in our neighboring town, we are not helping Hart to grow, if Hart has the merchandise. So let us shop Hart first.

Soon Margarete and I will be working on a story of the growth of Hart and if you have some bits of information, we most surely will appreciate your cooperation.

The flowers are coming up now and please, if you have more than you want, let's divide with our neighbors and friends. Our yards can be pretty with so little work.

These stray dogs are a public nuisance and I believe some of our residents are willing and ready to do something about it.

Might be well to have a city meeting and ask our new city officials to make some city ordinances about the dogs.

Let us all work and pull together and make Hart a CITY OF HEARTS.

Our telephones in the city were out last Saturday, but by noon Jimmy Singer was in Hart and had them working.

Jimmy is trying hard to give us good service.

Education can be spread so thin that it fails to cover the barbarians.

Here's Why

PEERLESS PUMPS
fmc FOOD MACHINERY AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION

... WITH Peerless Pumps YOU CAN REBUILD YOUR PUMP TO THROW a full pipe of water

Whatever the make of your present vertical turbine pump, your Peerless Dealer has the right motor and bowl combination for your pump and well. He has a plan to give a full pipe of water*. Think of all the advantages of this "Peerless Plan for Plenty" ... you'll enjoy lower energy costs, less irrigation time, and less plant wilt in hot spells when you need a fast irrigation.

PEERLESS PUMP BOWLS ARE YOUR BEST BUY

- Peerless Impellers are fully enclosed making the impeller less subject to wear. Bronze, Cast-Iron, or vitreous enameled impellers are available (your option at no extra cost). The basic Peerless enclosed impeller design makes possible the double seal ... for higher efficiencies, reduced operating costs, and longer pump life.
- Double Seal is a feature in the Peerless Bowl to seal the Peerless impeller on the bottom ... as well as on the sides. When impellers are lowered to compensate for normal wear by use of the adjusting nut under the motor helmet, the rubber end-seals "wear-in" to the impeller ... again forming a seal to minimize "short-circuit" water loss. This single feature will increase water delivery again and again ... over the life of the pump.
- Bowls and Bearings are the heart of a turbine pump. It's important that these vital parts are well lubricated. All Peerless turbine pump bowls and bearings receive instant lubrication by the water being pumped for more dependability ... and less wear.

*providing adequate well production is available

For better values in pumps ... more water, and reduced irrigating time is "in the bag" and just waiting for you to drive in and get it!

PICTURED below with his son, Garland, is A.G. Huguley, one of many Olton area farmers who have ordered DeKalb seed for 1961. A.G., who farms southeast of Olton, has found from past experience that he can bank on DeKalb performance year after year. Last fall, for instance, he planted 15 acres of DeKalb F-63 at a rate of 8 to 9 pounds per acre and fertilized with Anhydrous Ammonia. His F-63 stood well and matured early, he reported. "My yield was a little over 8,200 lbs. per acre - the best milo crop I ever had," A.G. said.

Did you know Gasoline is Taxed at a Rate 5 Times as High as Diamonds?

IN TEXAS, YOU PAY 90¢ TAX ON 10 GALLONS OF GASOLINE

Gasoline taxes will be lowered-- if the latest temporary Federal gasoline tax increase expires on June 30th as scheduled by the 1959 Federal Highway Act.

Along with all good citizens, we are in favor of building the roads that the motoring public needs. But, in the last 10 years alone, Federal and State taxes nationwide on gasoline have skyrocketed 51% -- skyrocketed to a point where gasoline, a basic commodity, is actually taxed at a rate five times as high as luxuries like diamonds and mink coats.

Must gasoline taxes be so high? Most people believe that gasoline taxes are high because the money is needed to pay for our national highway program. This is not so.

The fact is that out of every highway-user tax dollar collected last year by the Federal government, more than 40 cents was diverted to non-highway purposes.

If these highway-user tax revenues were spent for highways--as they should be--gasoline taxes could be lowered, and the highway program given a boost.

In fact, the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1959 provides that when the added temporary Federal gasoline tax expires on June 30th, 1961, as scheduled, some $802 million a year in highway-user taxes--now diverted to the U. S. Treasury's general fund--will instead be deposited in the Highway Trust Fund.

As a result, if the latest Federal temporary gasoline tax increase expires on June 30th as scheduled--the national highway program will actually get $225 million more each year than it now receives from the latest Federal temporary gasoline tax increase.

In January of this year, after an exhaustive 2-year survey of national transportation policy, a special U. S. Senate study group confirmed the wisdom of this decision.

This will be good news for you. You will be able to enjoy a steadily improving highway system, at a lower gasoline tax-rate.

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT TODAY'S HIGH GASOLINE TAXES

- In Texas, you pay 90¢ tax on 10 gallons of gasoline.
- You pay 9¢ tax a gallon--4¢ in Federal taxes plus 5¢ in State taxes.
- Gasoline is taxed at a rate 5 times as high as diamonds.
- The average Texas motor vehicle owner pays $78 a year in gasoline taxes.
- Since 1951 there have been three increases in the Federal gasoline tax alone.
- In the last 10 years, gasoline taxes nationwide have skyrocketed 51%--yet the national average price of gasoline itself has risen only 5.5% during the same period.

Medallion Home Open House Sunday

Public Showing Of All-Electric Home Scheduled From 3-5 P.M.

Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company will open its Bronze Medallion home at 1213 W. 9th to the public from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

The all-electric home, which has 2,140 square feet of living area and another 640 square feet of space in its two-car garage, features spaciousness throughout.

It is designated a "Bronze Medallion" home by Southwestern Public Service Company because it has all basic major electric appliances, "full

Light For Living Is Economical And Eye-Saving

The magic ingredient in decorating today is Light. Light from many sources and in a wide range of colors, now provides the home decorator with her most dramatic beautifying element.

Light for Living makes rooms appear larger and more attractive . . . colored light makes fabrics appear richer . . . the room is held together with a common color scheme of light. Lighting can be dimmed or brightened to suit the mood or the occasion. Using light in the intriguing and simple way, a wall can be splashed with brightness from decorative and functional lighted valances. Inexpensive, simple overhead light becomes a thing of rare design and beauty when diffused through plastic or metal grids to spread wall-to-wall light across the ceiling. Task areas in a Light for Living Medallion home are attractive as well as properly lighted places to work. Well-placed counter lighting plus overheads remove annoying shadows and ease eye strain.

New Light for Living is not restricted to the interior of the house. The use of carefully placed, yet inexpensive, and practical outdoor lighting brings a new beauty to the house at night. Outdoor Light for Living has the additional safety benefits of preventing accidents and discouraging prowlers.

Through portable lamps, wall lighting, and carefully planned fixtures, most home decorators can achieve high Light for Living standards for their home.

housepower and light for living," according to Ralph Glover, SWPS manager here.

Carroll Cox, Higginbotham-Bartlett manager, says the home is built to last. "We've used quality materials throughout the home," says Carroll.

The rambling (94 feet long) home faces north. It has three bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, a living room, kitchen-den combination, a utility room and plenty of closet space.

The closet in the 14 by 16 foot master bedroom is almost as large as many bedrooms. It is 8 by 10 feet.

The kitchen-den combined is 15 by 34 feet and features a rock pattern, Armstrong vinyl floor covering. A beam ceiling and Parana Pine and birch paneling accent the room.

Thermador appliances, including a refrigerator-deep freeze combination and a cook top oven, are features in the kitchen.

"Easy living might be an apt phrase for the house wife who moves into this home. She'll have a Kitchenaid dishwasher and a Waste King garbage disposal.

All the appliances are done in a color called Canyon Copper, including a nutone range hood.

Topping the list of conveniences in the kitchen is a Sunbeam Appliance Center, a master control unit which allows the housewife to plug in four appliances at one time for automatic timing.

The bathrooms are in "Salt and Pepper" ceramic tile. They feature plenty of storage.

The living room, bedrooms, are carpeted in Firth's Sugar cube pattern.

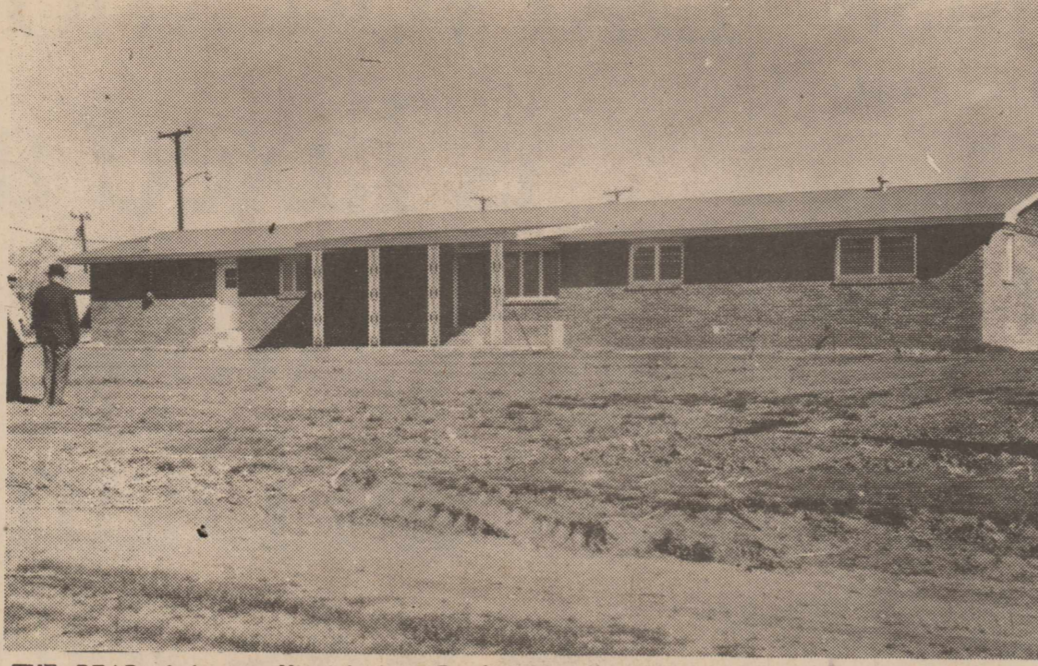

On the exterior, an antique-face brick is used, accented by staggered cedar shingle gables.

Storm windows and will and ceiling insulation are used throughout the home.

The home features Lennox forced air heating and refrigerated air cooling.

Pointing up the "built to last" idea, the 290-pound tab shingle roof has a 20-year guarantee and 40-gallon Mission hot water heaters have 10-year guarantees.

Outdoor living is also provided for, the 10 by 20-foot patio at the rear of the home.

"HERE'S A NICE FEATURE," says Cox as he and Glover inspect the Thermador cook top installed in Higginbotham-Bartlett's new Bronze Medallion home at 1213 W. 9th.

OPEN BEAM CEILING and Parana Pine and Birch paneling highlight the kitchen-den combination at the new Medallion home. A rock pattern Armstrong vinyl was used for floor covering.

GLOVER shows a Sunbeam Appliance Center installed in the Higginbotham-Bartlett home. The center is a master control unit designed to let the housewife plug in several appliances for automatic timing.

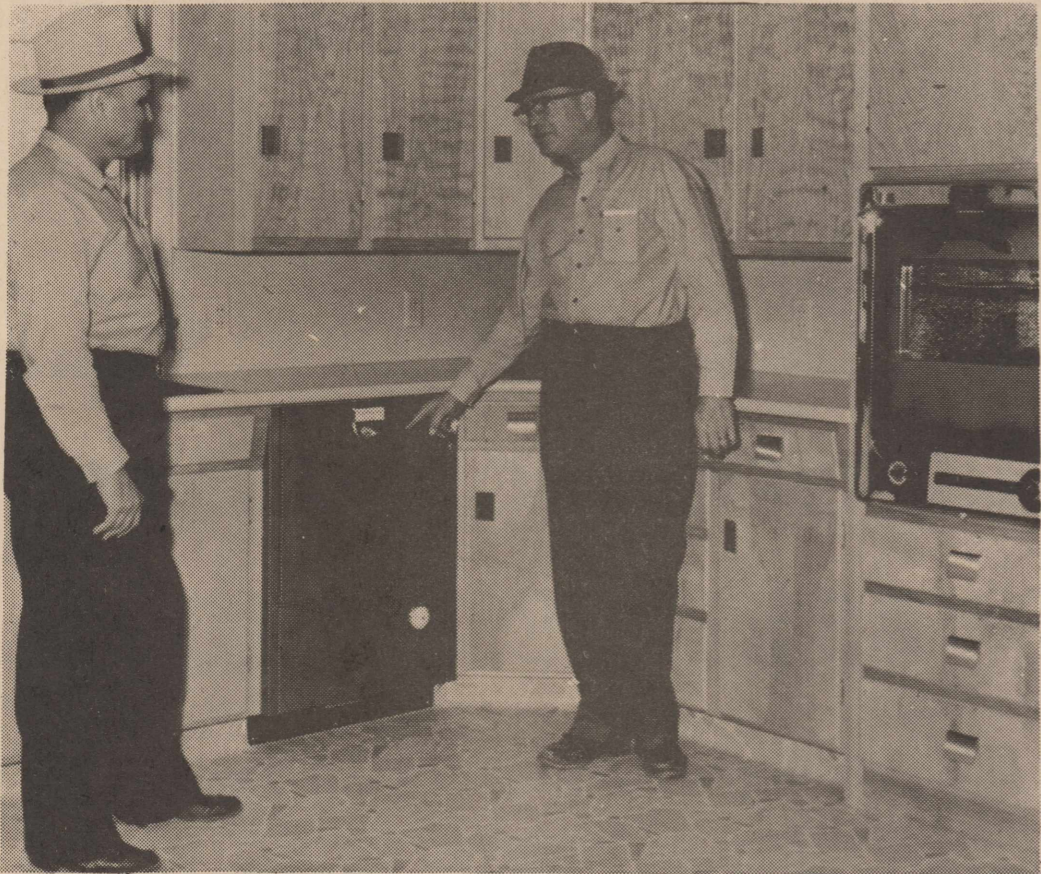

HIGGINBOTHAM BARTLETT CO. PROUDLY PRESENTS ITS MEDALLION HOME OPEN HOUSE SUNDAY, 3 - 5 P.M., 1213 W. 9TH

Creative Kitchen Heart of Home

HERE is the combination refrigerator-deep freeze in Higginbotham-Bartlett's new Medallion Home. To the left of unit is a Thermador built-in oven.

POINTING OUT other electric features of Higginbotham Bartlett's Bronze Medallion home, Cox shows Glover a Kitchenaid dishwasher in the all-electric kitchen.

People frequently think of the kitchen as the real heart of the home. And that it is - or at least can be - with a little careful thought to good planning.

But just what is good kitchen planning? Though the definition may never be found in Webster's, it means an arrangement that offers flexibility, efficiency and gracious living.

Of course, if you're remodeling, you first begin your planning with four walls, several windows and doors. Usually these items fall into that "can't be changed" category. And since you plan this room for your family, you next decide what you want to include in your kitchen. Here are some of the things you can do - and at a small cost - to make life in the kitchen more convenient.

Perhaps to create a new kitchen a 30-inch range plus a cabinet could go where the old range had been. Not only will you have added a feature-packed electric assistant, but the extra cabinet offers storage of trays for serving or cooking utensils - right where they are needed.

Or the custom ranges may be your choice. Place the surface units in the counter top near the preparation center. Pots, pans and cooking utensils will take their place in the cabinet that fits underneath. The custom oven offers more carefree cooking and can be placed in another part of the room, if you like - out of the line of traffic. If built into its own wooden cabinet, the space below the oven might be designed with a sliding door. Perhaps this would be a good place to store the tank vacuum or shelves may be added for storing other items.

A range built in at waist height in either counter or cabinet, can really be called an energy saver.

In deciding where to place the upright freezer, you might find it's best to put it "off the beaten track", so to speak, where it will be away from the busy traffic areas. A neighboring cabinet is a good idea, too, for storing trays and freezer packaging materials. Or perhaps your kitchen doesn't have room for both a freezer and a refrigerator. If that's the case, the freezer, upright or chest-type, could make its home in the utility room or basement. Then the freezer could hold the major portion of food and the food freezer section of your refrigerator could be used to store a few days' supply of frozen food.

And speaking of mobility, don't forget the dishwasher. Rolled into action at meal times or tucked away when not in use, this flexible appliance gives you more of the desirable "elbow room" in your kitchen. Then, too, the top of the dishwasher gives added work surface while the interior adds more storage space. Dishes can be stored here from meal to meal - sparkling clean and ready to use. Then come meal time, it's a simple matter to switch the dishwasher control knob and warm them for serving. Of course, if space and plumbing will allow, the dishwasher sink with the addition of the food waste disposer would be first choice.

With a little added planning, a washer and dryer might be included in the kitchen. That frequently unused pantry could be easily converted into a laundry area. No more running up and down basement steps with this busy work center right next to the kitchen. Or remove a 39-inch range and a cabinet and replace them with a space saving 30-inch range, the washer and the dryer.

Of course, color, too, plays an important role in the modern kitchen. Use it in everything from curtains and walls to colored appliances.

Yard Light Beautifies Home

Yard lights send their cheery greeting of light to the visitor as he approaches the home - the electric yard light truly says "welcome" for all to see.

Electric yard lights beautify the premises by day as well as by night. Available in several attractive designs - either provincial - or modern, they blend in with the basic architecture of the home and its premises.

Then, too, electric yard lights are practical. You can turn them on or off as you please, or you can have them controlled to come on or go off automatically - by adding a photoelectric cell or an electric clock timer.

Want more or less light? The choice is yours with an electric yard light. It's simple - all you do is change the bulb from a higher to a lower wattage or vice versa. And, come Christmas, you have practically an automatic Christmas lighting effect just by changing the bulb from white (or yellow bug lamp) to an appropriately colored bulb to point up the Christmas greens and reds.

You can operate an electric yard light - with a 100-watt bulb in it -- eight hours every night for approximately two pennies with lower wattages costing even less, according to Ralph Glover, local manager of Southwestern Public Service.

Where will you find a handsomer hardtop than this Impala Sport Sedan!
MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

When one car outsells all the rest the way this new Chevrolet is doing - there's got to be a reason. And we can think of some pretty good ones. The clean-etched looks of the new Body by Fisher, for example. The eager brand of "git" that's under the hood. The easy way it handles. Plus the added advantage of extra-cost options like triple-turbine Turboglide.
 But to sample all these reasons together, you have to get a Chevrolet out on the road. And there's where that Jet-smooth ride takes over with its own gentle kind of persuasion. If you weren't absolutely sure, you'd imagine you were riding in a far costlier car.
 No wonder people are buying more Chevrolets than any other make! Chevrolets have more of what it takes to please people!
AND JUST ONE JET-SMOOTH RIDE WILL SHOW YOU WHY!
