PETITION BEING CIRCULATED FOR VOTE ON CITY-COUNTY HOSPITAL

Baird citizens at the municipal polls next Tuesday will vote on whether to increase the water rate 10 percent over a period of six years to provide a fund of approximately $5,000 for equipment of the Callahan County-City hospital now in its embryonic state.

The city-county hospital will cost approximately $35,000. Of this WPA would provide $20,000, Callahan County $15,000. Equipment would be additional.

A petition now is being circulated in the county to secure a minimum of 210 signatures of qualified voters, which petition will be submitted to the county commissioners at the April sitting asking the county to call an election to vote the requisite bonds. It is understood that the voting of additional bonds will in nowise increase the county tax rate, as the county is in good financial condition with income sufficient to take care of the additional debt.

The proposed institution, according to architect's plans, calls for twenty beds, an operating and a delivery room and kitchen and other departments. It would be under supervision of a proper head, efficiently and economically operated. All physicians of the county would be permitted the use of the facilities. Location for the hospital has not been selected, but several proposed sites have been suggested.

It is estimated that Callahan County is now expending around $200 a month for hospitalization of the poor, transients and others. At that rate the county could soon pay for its part and have a permanent asset remaining.

Generally over the county sentiment seems strong for the hospital. At present Callahan county has only one such facility at Baird. The hospital would keep many Callahan county patients at home.

If any opposition, proponents of the enterprise say it lies in the proposal to increase the Baird water rate 10 per cent. The increase, opponents say, would impose a burden on the poor. On the other hand, proponents declare conveying one patient of a family to Abilene or elsewhere would cost many times over what would have to be paid for increased water.

At any rate Baird and Callahan county now have an opportunity to secure a much needed institution with very little increase of taxation, whereas the 60 per cent grant from the federal government may never again be offered.

The proposed building would be a credit to any county or city. A picture of the structure appears in the Baird Star this week in connection with this article.

Plans Being Made To Improve Ross Cemetery

At last, after many disappointments it seems that we will now be able to improve Ross Cemetery since the Luncheon Club have taken the matter in hand and the improvement will be made under plans approved by the Club.

The iron fence facing highway No. 191 which must be removed to widen the highway, will be placed as north boundary of the plot, while the side facing the highway is to be fenced with a native stone wall. Cemetery roadways are to be caliche.

Through the efforts of the late Dr. R.G. Powell one of Baird's most loved public benefactors the road leading to the cemetery was caliche some eight or ten years ago and a year or so later he succeeded in raising funds to have city water piped to the cemetery.

Sam Windham and little son Billy, of Oplin were in Baird Tuesday.

School Building To Be Dedicated at Bayou

The Bayou school building will be dedicated Tuesday evening April 5th the program beginning at 8 o'clock.

The building completed at the beginning of the year is one of the finest in the county and the district is also one of the wealthiest in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Woodley, have with them their daughters, Mrs. J. R. Parten of Houston and Mrs. Kenneth A. Hackler of New York.

Fine Rain Blankets This Section

Fine rains have fallen all over this section the past week the precipitation at Baird being 2.25 inches.

The rain fell slowly in most places and did not fill tanks and creeks to any great extent. The railroad lake which is one of the largest in the county is said to have gained a foot in water level as a result of the rains.

The rain fell slowly and soaked into the ground which will be beneficial to the grain crop and rangelands.

T. & P. Improving Road Bed At Baird

Work started this week to raise the railroad track near Baird and to complete reconstruction of the high bridge located three miles east of here.

Starting at the bridge and extending two miles east, the track will be raised two feet. This elevated track and improved bridge will mean a great saving of time to west bound trains. Heretofore the trains have been slow-ordered at a rate of six miles an hour at this point. This work has necessitated the adding of two work trains on to run west of Baird to carry dirt and rock for the work and the other to carry on direct construction work.

According to reports from train master A. C. Ogg, the job will require 45,000 yards of dirt and will be completed in approximately three weeks.

The Gifford-Hill company has brought its large equipment here including dump cars. A pile-driver and caterpillar shovel have been put into service.

"The Door of Death"

By FLOYD GIBBONS
Famous Headline Hunter

HELLO EVERYBODY:

Well, boys and girls, this is the pay-off. A bird who had an adventure—in church. I've always known that Old Lady Adventure was no respecter of persons. Now it seems she doesn't respect the cloth either.

Henry B. Willson of New York city is the lad who found adventure down at the end of the old sawdust trail. "As a boy," Henry says, "I had more than my share of particular escapes, but one in particular has left such a scar on my memory as time will never efface. Anything, even today, that represents confinement—anything from a small room to a tight collar—throws me into a panic."

Well, there's a curious reaction. The minute I started reading Hank Willson's letter—the minute I hit that opening paragraph of his, I wanted to know what sort of a scare it was that would make a man go nuts over a tight collar. And I guess you boys and girls will want to know, too. So here's the story.

Hank Used Kerosene to Start the Fire.

Hank was raised—as they say down South—in a little village in Georgia that went by the name of Cedartown. And like most kids did in small towns in those days, he worked around at various odd jobs to earn his spending money. Hank's dad was the pastor of a church in town, and one winter Hank had the job of taking care of the church furnace.

Now there are probably a million ways of starting a fire, but Hank's plan was to throw a bunch of paper in the furnace, chuck a lot of wood in on top of that, and then saturate the whole business with kerosene. It's a darned good way to get a blaze going quickly, but some horrible things have happened to people who used kerosene too freely in places where it was never meant to be used.

In fact, a very horrible thing DID happen—to Hank. Hank built fires in the old church perhaps two dozen times—always in that one particular way of his. And then he built one that brought Old Lady Adventure down on him like a ton of bricks.

Early one Sunday morning, Hank got up, put on an old sweater, and started out to do his job. He tossed in an armful of crumpled newspapers, and followed that with a couple armfuls of wood. He poured the kerosene on, giving the furnace an exceptionally liberal dose. Then, with a box of matches in one hand, he stuck his head and shoulders in through the furnace door to arrange the wood so that it would be sure to take fire quickly.

Caught in a Blazing Trap.

So far, everything was all right. But it was the matches that did the damage. You know, when you've got a box of matches in your hand, it's the most natural thing in the world to light one. You do it automatically—absent-mindedly. Well—Hank doesn't know what got into him, or where his wits were at the moment, but before he knew what he was doing, he had lit a match and—WITH HIS HEAD AND SHOULDERS STILL STICKING HALFWAY THROUGH THE FURNACE DOOR—applied that match to the kerosene-soaked wood and paper.

The fire blazed up in an instant. Hank's first reaction was to jerk his head and shoulders back out of the furnace door. He tried to do just that—but it didn't work. His sweater had caught on the catch of the furnace door, and though he fought like mad to draw back out of the way of the spreading flames, he couldn't work himself free.

Hank screamed. But his screams were so muffled by the furnace that no one in the street heard him. Meanwhile the fire was getting hotter—and closer. Hank's face was beginning to cook. His sweater caught fire and broke into a blaze. Death was leering at him through the flames that licked and lapped at his body.

"It was the most horrible fate I could imagine," Hank says. "And it was happening to me."

Fox Terrier Gave the Alarm.

About that time, though, Hank became conscious that there was some sort of commotion going on behind him. A little fox terrier had come wandering in through the open cellar door, and the dog seemed to know that something was wrong. He started to yelp and whine, and run back and forth between the furnace and the cellar door.

Early on a Sunday morning, when no one was about, that yelping little dog might easily have gone unnoticed. But fate had decreed otherwise, it seems, and down the street came an old negro. The old fellow was curious to see what strange happenings would make a dog act so at a time when most dogs are asleep, and he stuck his head in the cellar door.

That old fellow got the shock of his life. For what he saw was a furnace burning merrily, and a half portion of an eight-year-old boy sticking out of the door. He grabbed Hank by the legs, yanked him out, and slapped out the fire that was consuming his sweater.

Hank's hair was all burned off, and his face and hands were in a well-cooked condition. Two minutes more, and it wouldn't have been any use bothering with him.

That's why he doesn't like confinement. Even a tight collar reminds him of that furnace door.

Hollywood's Singing Starlet

Picture Parade

On December 6, 1936, a fourteen-year-old youngster sang Mimi in "La Boheme" opposite the great Martinelli at Chicago's Civic Opera House. On December 7 all America acclaimed young Betty Jaynes as a singing sensation. Betty Jaynes is now in Hollywood where M-G-M executives predict big things after the release of her first picture. Betty is taking the role of Kathie in a screen version of "The Student Prince."

Now sixteen, Betty lives like any other youngster off-stage, putting her feet on the family overstuffed chairs and doing her homework on the parlor rug. Her father died shortly before the "La Boheme" debut; now her mother, two sisters and a brother live with her in Hollywood.

The mailman who calls at her Beverly Hills English cottage likes Betty Jaynes' blonde hair and blue eyes. Southern California sunshine is tanning the complexion which has known a lifetime of Chicago atmosphere. But this young lady will not be turned away from her rightful place on the screen and opera stage by Hollywood's glamour.

The cameraman who visits Betty's home on Thursday night (maid's night off) will probably find this versatile youngster scrambling eggs for dinner. Next day he'll find her working in the family garden, a treat for the city youngster. More than one publicity wise opera official feels that Betty Jaynes' success may open new American vistas for this art.

Thus does Betty Jaynes, Hollywood's new "singing starlet," contemplate a rosy future. The screen has already recognized her as a box office attraction . . . will the opera stage be equally receptive?

TIPS to Gardeners

Protecting Flowers

AN EARLY season flower pest is leaf beetle, a chewing insect whose presence is indicated by holes in the leaves. Found most often on alysium, zinnia, marigold and annual phlox. Remedy: Use stomach poisons in the form of sprays containing arsenicals or pyrethrum.

Snapdragon, aster, petunia and verbena are the principal victims of the cutworm, a chewing insect which cuts off plants at the ground. It should be combated, says Gilbert Bentley, flower expert of the Ferry Seed Institute, by placing about a spoonful of poison bran bait around the base of each plant.

Aphids bother almost all the popular flowers except zinnia. They cause wilting, crumpling and discoloration of the leaves. Spray or dust with pyrethrum or nicotine sulphate.

Downy mildew shows up white all over a plant and discolors to black, killing leaves and rotting stems. Remedy: Dust regularly, but lightly, with flowers of sulphur.

HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

THIS pink and white chintz apron with pink gingham frills should inspire anyone to make long strides towards the kitchen. It is easy to cut. The material required is 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch-wide chintz or cotton print and one yard of plain material.

For the skirt of the apron, cut a piece of paper or cloth 27 inches wide and 23 inches deep. Fold this lengthwise through the center, as at A, then measure down from the top of the fold and in from the corners the distances indicated in the diagram and mark the dots. Using the dots as a guide, mark the outline of the apron skirt as you see it in the diagram. The dimensions for shaping the bib are given in the diagram at B. The pocket is a 5-inch square with lower corners rounded as shown here at C. The apron ties are cut 6 inches wide and 36 inches long. The strip for the belt should be cut 2 1/2 inches wide and a facing strip the same width should be cut for it. The shoulder straps are cut 4 inches wide and then creased lengthwise through the center.

The strips of the plain material for the ruffles are cut 6 inches wide. The ruffle material before it is gathered should be 2 1/2 times the length of the space it is to fill after gathering. Use the machine hemmer foot shown here at the lower left for hemming the ruffles and the machine ruffler for gathering them.

WHEN a tobaccodealer praises a brand, it means a lot to "makin'" smokers. But when he smokes that brand himself, well—read what dealer C. E. M. Johnston (in circle) says of his favorite tobacco: "I smoke P. A. and I've introduced it to a lot of men. They get excited over how fast P. A. rolls up—the grand way it draws—how mild, mellow, and cool it smokes. This sign on my counter says Prince Albert is the National Joy Smoke. Well, you can bank on that!" (So can pipe-smokers!)

War Against Germany

The United States declared war against Germany a few minutes after 3 o'clock on the morning of April 6, 1917, when congress passed a resolution "that the President is hereby authorized and directed . . . to carry on war against the Imperial German Government and to bring the conflict to a successful termination." Thus empowered, the President, April 6, issued a proclamation that "a state of war exists between the United States and the Imperial German Government."

Jud Tunkins' Idea of Fame

Jud Tunkins says fame just naturally comes to some people. George Washington got more credit for chopping a cherry tree than anybody else could get for breaking up a cord of wood.

Chronometers Corrected at Sea

The eclipses of Jupiter's moons, which occur daily, are computed and recorded in the Nautical Almanac, and it is through observations of them that chronometers are corrected at sea.

"The Act of God"

The legal meaning of "act of God" is an overwhelming natural event, such as a storm or earthquake, which no human being could be reasonably expected to foresee or prevent. According to the common law, no person is responsible for a loss or injury when it is caused by "the act of God or the enemies of the state." If a man is sued for breach of contract and can prove that his non-performance was due to "the act of God," he has a good defense.

Ed Schieffelin, the pioneer settler, named Tombstone, Ariz. He was told by friends when he left Fort Huachuca that he would find his tombstone there. Hence the name.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin—Intensive preparations for a bitterly fought campaign between Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commissioner, and William McCraw, attorney general, for the office of Governor of Texas were under way here this week, following clarification of the confused situation which resulted from Gov. Allred's silence as to his intentions in regard to seeking a third term.

the 46th Legislature will be much more conservative in tone than the 45th, and that taxation is going to prove very unpopular. Two years ago, there was at least one candidate in almost every county...

ISSUES FORTH COMING

Of course, the issues in the gubernatorial race will be made by the candidates, and their platforms should be out within another week or two. The most of the attention of the voters, naturally, will be concentrated upon the fiery individuals who seek the highest post, but actually, the Governor of Texas enjoys little power to formulate legislation.

GRAVES ATTACKED

The Court of Criminal Appeals, when it hands down its decision in the matter of the eligibility of Harry N. Graves, of Georgetown, to serve as a judge on that court, which was submitted after argument last week, is expected by best-informed lawyers here, to rule Graves appointment constitutional.

Lump-Sum Payment

The Social Security Board is now making lump-sum payments to wage earners in covered employments who have reached age 65, or to the estates or relatives of such workers who died before that age.

NEXT LEGISLATURE

Both gubernatorial candidates have indicated endorsement of the economy in government sentiment which has gained such wide headway this year, as a swing-back from the "more taxes" slogan which characterized every session of the Legislature during the two Allred administrations.

Callahan County Farmers To Build Trench Silos

Approximately 50 trench silos will be constructed in Callahan County by Farm Security Administration borrowers, according to J. S. McKnight, rural supervisor for FSA. These silos, which require no investments except labor to dig the trench, will preserve the fodder of corn and grain sorghums which otherwise lose much of their feeding value.

expected to be one of the chief factors in helping FSA borrowers to a system of farming more profitable than that which forced them to seek FSA assistance, the supervisor said. The tenant farmer takes a more active interest in the land which he is renting when he begins to make improvements of this kind.

The silo-building program is being carried out under guidance of the county agent of the Extension Service. Trench silo being filled by a Farm Security Administration borrower. Waikiki Novelty Boys With Brunk's Comedians

Baird Audiences Strong For Brunk's Comedians

Show business is show business when the theatre-going public support a company as the people of Baird have responded to the entertainment offered by Brunk's Comedians. The show, though a day late in opening here due to inclement weather, opened Tuesday night to an almost capacity house, in spite of the fact that it was "Pay-Off" night at the picture shows, which also had a full house and each night since these Brunk players have been packing them in.

The class of entertainment, both the dramatic plays and musical presentations are sufficient indication that Glenn D. Brunk, owner and operator of the company, is a serious, sincere, and smart showman. Without a doubt every play offered in the company's entire repertoire is a top-notch bill; many of them former New York hits. The show has class, speed and flash equal to the best in the business, and every performance moves with life, gaiety and true professionalism.

Being exceedingly particular, as he always is in selecting his people, Brunk presents a cast of players perfectly balanced in variety. Unlike most shows that offer but one feature attraction, he offers many special features. Foremost, however, are the "Waikiki Novelty Boys", ace radio-broadcasting string band. These string artists conduct the forty-five minute musical and vaudeville presentation which precedes every dramatic bill. While there are but four of these miracle music masters, namely Curly Bowers, Frank Cummings, King Shidler and Raymond (Little Bit) Miller, they play some fourteen different string instruments and have the ability to make their four major strings sound like forty-four strings, horns and what have you.

With his electric steel guitar, Frank Cummings evokes every type sound from a train whistle to a pipe-organ.

Hugh and Margaret Moore, feature comedy team, supply smartest kind of modern comedy. They give you laughs enough in one night to last you a whole week.

June Brunk, eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brunk gives you personality singing and dancing; and Larry with his violin entertains you with every thing from classical to sentimental and novelty numbers.

To-night the company will present "Why Wives Step Out," a brilliant New York success a few years back. The leading roles will be enacted by Curley Bowers and Fay Adams.

Saturday afternoon will bring that beautiful love story "Your Boy and Mine," with Frank Cummings doing a new and different kind of Toby.

Saturday night "The Cowboy and the Dancer" will close the show's week stand.

Wednesday Club To Hold Memorial Service

The Wednesday Club conducted regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Nunnally.

A short service was held in memory of Miss Edith Collier. Mrs. Short read "God's Other Room" by Mrs. Melba West Foy.

GOD'S OTHER ROOM
(To Miss Edith Collier)

We watched, through our fears Of the impending gloom,
As you took the last step Into God's "Other Room."

On the threshold you lingered— Reluctant to go;
But your last step was trying— You'll rest There, I know!

For your face wore the beauty Of one in repose;
And you smiled at our grief As the Door softly closed!

Closed for to-day - - - but soon We will stand
Alone, on it's threshold With trembling hand;

Yet, we know that inside of God's "Other Room"
Stands our friend, just to welcome Us into our Home.

So, as leaves gently fall from A flower in bloom,
May we, too, take our step Into God's "Other Room."

Miss Price presented, "Three Players, "A Duchess and a Flop", which the Dramatic Club will enter in the one act play contest tonight.

The program was concluded by a talk "Pioneer Club Women of Texas", by Mrs. Clyde White.

4-H Clothing Demonstrators are busy remodeling or building clothes closets, one of the projects carried by 4-H Clubs.

Ola Faye Whitley of the Denton Club has built a complete clothes closet, by using back-grounds of some old basket ball goals, for lumber. She built her closet about 8 feet tall and 3 feet wide. She put shelves in the left end, the rod goes completely across the length of the closet, the shoe rack was built of box ends. The closet is papered with white ceiling paper, she says she used this paper because she had it, it makes the closet lighter, and moths do not like light. The shelves, shoe rack, and hat stands are painted ivory. The closet is very attractive with a place for every thing and everything in its place. Ola Faye was out only 35 cents and her effort.

Mildred Slough of the Oplin Club is building an attractive clothes closet of cardboard. The frame is of wood, this is covered with the cardboard, then the closet is papered on the inside and outside.

Across the left end Mildred is building three shelves, 10 inches in width, the first one is to hold hat stands for hats, the others will be used to store folded garments.

She is using a rod that extends from one end to the other for hanging clothes on. She plans to make clothes bags to use over garments that are not worn often so as to protect them. She is building a shoe rack from box ends and the rods will be of old broom handle.

Mildred will have a space above her clothes to store extra bedding and pillows.

The cost of this closet will be very small and well worth the effort and time spent in building it.

County Agent's Column

By Ross Brison, County Agent

Checks totaling $27,415.89 covering payments to 201 farms and ranches whose operators cooperated in the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program have been received during the last two weeks at the county office.

Notices have been sent to all parties who have checks at the office by A. L. Cook, Senior Assistant in Agricultural Conservation.

APRIL 4 LAST DAY FOR SIGNING WORK SHEETS

"Work sheets for all cotton farms in Callahan County must be completed and turned into the county A. A. office not later than Monday April 4th, in order for the information the work sheet might contain to be of any value in giving the farm a cotton acreage allotment in 1938," according to Steve N. Foster, Chairman of the Callahan County committee.

"Dairy cows must have green feed to return the most profit to the owner," E. R. Eudaly, Extension Dairy Specialist of A. & M. college, told the 59 people attending meetings at Eula and Oplin Wednesday, March 23rd.

Green feed is much better for dairy cattle than dry feed because (1) it contains more water and since milk contains 87 per cent water, cows get lots of water with which to make milk; (2) it contains 15 per cent protein while dry feeds contain only 4 per cent protein; (3) it contains 10 times as much minerals as does dry feed and (4) green feed contains vitamin A that makes animals healthy, whereas dry feed has no Vitamin A.

In America the cost of producing butter fat averages near 25 cents per pound foreign competitors produce it at a cost of near 14 cents per pound by utilizing green pasture and when that is not available, by feeding silage from trench silos, which is just as good as green grass.

Another interesting point brought out by Eudaly was that there are 235,000 trench silos in Germany and in each of the very small countries, Belgium, New Zealand, and Denmark, there are 10,000 trench silos.

Several Eula and Oplin 4-H boys plan to fill a trench silo 2 feet deep, 2 feet wide and 20 feet long that has a capacity of one ton.

At the conclusion of the meetings W. I. Glass, District Agent, invited club boys present to the District 4-H Club encampment that will be held this summer at Lake Brownwood.

On Baird Campuses

Called off because of rain, the Interscholastic Meet will be resumed this week. One act plays will be presented Friday night Baird's entree "A Duchess and a Flop" is progressing nicely and Clifton Harris in the role of the Great Garrick has a tailor made part. Ellen Nunnally, as the duchess, at last has a part she richly deserves. The Duchess has fire and spirit and Miss Nunnally gives generously of both. It is appreciated play and if the youngsters can maintain their poise and sincerity with 18th regalia swishing around them, they should merit a first place.

Winners in the County tennis championship games played Friday were:

High School Jr. Girls doubles, Vivian Nunnally and Pauline Coats; High School Jr. Girls singles, Ruth Dyer; Senior Girls doubles, Marie Hughes and Marion Dyer; Senior Girls Singles Wyoming King. In the boys division, Jim Tom Lawrence and Thomas West won senior boys doubles. Gene Finley and Mike Hughes Jr. boys doubles entrees have yet to play their game. Grammar school girls and boys doubles are both winners.

TVA Scandal Handed Over to Congress . . . Britain Will Fight for Her Allies, Says Chamberlain

Here in confidential conversation are Senator Sherman Minton of Indiana (left), chairman of the senate committee investigating lobbying, and Senator Lewis B. Schwellenbach of Washington. The committee's inquiry at present is directed particularly to a campaign against the government reorganization bill and its activities aroused Publisher Frank Gannett to demand its abolition.

Morgan "Removed"

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT "removed" Dr. Arthur E. Morgan as member and chairman of the Tennessee Valley authority, reported this action to congress in a special message, and left Washington for a visit to Warm Springs, Ga. Thus the entire TVA row was thrown into the lap of congress, and senators and representatives continued to scrap over whether an investigation should be made by a senatorial committee or by a joint committee of both houses.

Mr. Roosevelt ousted Morgan after receiving from Acting Attorney General Jackson an opinion that he possessed the required authority. This is questioned by Senator Borah and other authorities, and it is presumed the matter will be taken up to the Supreme court. Morgan, who was in Chicago, consulted legal friends but would not announce his plans. Senator Bridges and some others hotly denounced the President's action as dictatorial and unjustified.

The President told congress he had named Harcourt Morgan to succeed A. E. Morgan as chairman of TVA, but he did not appoint his successor as a member of the board.

Reasons for the removal of Morgan as given by the President were that he had made grave and libelous charges against his colleagues and refused to substantiate them at the White House hearings, and that he had obstructed the work of the authority.

Efforts of administration leaders in congress were exerted to see that no avowed enemies of TVA should be named on the investigating committee, Majority Leader Barkley declaring this a prime consideration. He favored inquiry by a joint committee of five members from each house. Senator Norris wanted it done only by senators, and Mr. Borah thought that would be satisfactory.

THE history of this age will be hard to unscramble. Japan can't take a belt at a local power baron without landing on an American stockholder. Dr. Joji Matsumoto warned the government not to get in trouble with American investors by nationalizing its electric power industry.

This would endanger investments of $75,000,000, he contended, mostly held in this country.

He is Japan's leading corporation lawyer and one of its most important financiers, an officer of the Capital Rehabilitation Aid company, which has a quiet sound but which is understandable even in the Occident.

Sixty years old, he is a former professor of law at the Tokyo Imperial university, from which he was graduated. He is a director of the Tokyo Gas company and several other corporations, and was vice president of the South Manchurian railway.

Spain's Romeo and Juliet The "Lovers of Teruel," Spain's Romeo and Juliet, form one of the most ancient legends of Spain. They were Diego de Marcilla and Isabel de Segura and lived in Teruel during the Thirteenth century under the reign of King James of Aragon. They parted because of family disapproval and languished and died. Their bodies were mummified and they were buried in the chapel of the church of San Pedro.

Profits Tax Out PAT HARRISON meant what he said about altering the revenue bill that was passed by the house. His senate finance committee is making the changes. By a vote of 17 to 4 it eliminated from the measure the undistributed profits tax principle, substituting therefor a flat corporation income tax of 18 per cent.

As a further means of stimulating business and investment the committee adopted a provision drastically modifying the capital gains and losses tax. The committee removed capital gains on assets held for more than 18 months from the income tax category and substituted instead a flat rate of 15 per cent, which was what business and industry wanted.

In an effort to clear the way for speedy enactment of the tax relief legislation, the committee rejected a system of wartime taxes and a system of processing taxes on wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, and rice, which the administration desires to finance proposed additional bounties to farmers amounting to $200,000,000 a year.

House Passes Navy Bill

WITH only 100 votes in opposition, the house passed the administration's billion dollar navy bill. The measure authorizes construction of the largest battle fleet in American history by adding 46 combat ships, 22 auxiliaries and 950 airplanes.

The War department announced that army and navy officers were about to study plans for an enlistment program that would put more than two million men under arms within four months of a declaration of war. For this the army would require 1,250,000 recruits and the navy 500,000.

The first 300,000, under existing plans, would be sought as volunteers in the first month, before selective draft machinery like that of 1917-'18 was put into operation. Already prepared for quick submission to congress is a draft of a selective service law.

Britain Ready to Fight

GREAT BRITAIN will not flatly pledge itself to fight to save Czechoslovakia from German aggression. But she will use her armaments to fulfill her treaty obligations to France and Belgium, and is ready to go to war in their defense if they are unjustly attacked.

That was the warning to Hitler uttered by Prime Minister Chamberlain in the house of commons, in the most important statement of British foreign policy since the World war.

Declaring his belief that peace will be maintained, Chamberlain said: "I cannot imagine any events in Europe which would change the fundamental basis of British foreign policy, which is the maintenance and preservation of peace. However, that does not mean that nothing would make us fight."

Cheers greeted this declaration. Though he said central Europe was not an area where vital British interests are at stake, he gave plain warning that if German aggression should result in war there, Britain might be forced into it.

He urged peaceful settlement of Czechoslovakia's German minority problem and offered Britain's help in this.

He flatly turned down Soviet Russia's call for consultation against aggressor nations.

The prime minister said that in the case of Italy's conquest of Ethiopia a task beyond its powers was imposed on the League of Nations, and he admitted that his original belief in the league as an effective instrument for preserving peace was profoundly shaken. But he still believed the league might be revived and strengthened.

Members cheered this declaration, interpreting it as an invitation to the great powers outside the league—the United States, Germany, Japan, Brazil and Italy—to associate themselves with it.

To Save CCC Camps

REPRESENTATIVE WOODRUM of Virginia, a member of the appropriations committee, told the house congress soon will be called on to provide a huge sum for continuation of the work relief program, and that, in anticipation of this, his committee has taken steps to keep open 300 Civilian Conservation Corps camps scheduled for closing in July as an economy measure. "I have discussed this matter with the President," said Woodrum. "I learned that there is impounded in the Treasury the sum of $28,000,000 which congress appropriated for the CCC for the current year program and which will not be used. An appropriation of 50 millions will enable the corps to carry on its present program through the next fiscal year."

Roosevelt Warns South

ON HIS way to Warm Springs President Roosevelt paused in Gainesville, Ga., long enough to deliver sharp criticism of those southerners who are keeping the wage-hours legislation deadlocked in the house of representatives and who have opposed other of his New Deal measures. He asserted that southern workers are underpaid and under-employed and warned that unless this condition is changed the South cannot and will not succeed in establishing successful new industries.

He attacked "selfishness on the part of a few" for holding back "national progress and prosperity," and added: "This nation will never permanently get on the road to recovery if we leave the methods and the processes of recovery to those who owned the government of the United States from 1921 to 1933."

He referred sarcastically to those who insist on a balanced budget, but offer no suggestions on how this can be achieved without putting "dollars ahead of human lives."

"They have the same type of mind," said he, "as those representatives of the people who vote against legislation to help social and economic conditions, proclaiming loudly that they are for the objectives but do not like the methods and then fail utterly to offer a better method of their own."

Wheat Crop Estimate

PREDICTION by the bureau of agricultural economics of the Department of Agriculture is that this year's wheat crop will be 830,000,000 bushels, or 160,000,000 bushels in excess of the 1932-36 average. The survey estimates that the wheat carry-over in 1939 will be around 300,000,000 bushels.

The record wheat crop is based on the following factors: If farmers seed the acreage indicated in the prospective-planting report, and if average yields are obtained, this year's spring wheat crop, including durum, will total about 200,000,000 bushels. This, together with the winter crop of about 630,000,000 bushels, indicates a prospective output of 830,000,000 bushels.

Mexican Oil Seizures

PRESIDENT CARDENAS of Mexico announced the expropriation of oil properties belonging to American and British companies and valued at some $400,000,000. Wells, refineries and tankers were seized and workers took control of all company offices in the republic. The American and British employees and their families fled. For the present the oil industry in Mexico was paralyzed.

Cardenas made a public promise that the government would pay indemnity for the seized oil properties. Vicente Herrera was appointed general manager of the new national petroleum council.

Tetlow Heads Coal Board

PERCY TETLOW, a lieutenant of John L. Lewis, has been elected chairman of the national bituminous coal commission to succeed C. F. Hosford, resigned. This apparently puts the C. I. O. chieftain in full control of the commission, in which his influence has been predominant. Tetlow began his career as a coal miner in Ohio and was an official of the United Mine Workers when appointed to the board.

Victory for Poland

ONE immediate threat of European war seemed to be dissolved when Lithuania yielded to the demands of Poland for resumption of normal diplomatic and trade relations and virtually gave up its claim to Vilna, former capital of the country, which the Poles seized 18 years ago. General Smigly-Rydz, chief of the Polish army and "strong man" of Poland, had mobilized his troops on the Lithuanian border, and Polish warships were cruising off Memel. So there was nothing for the Liths to do except give in. Polish troops that had been concentrated in Vilna paraded in celebration of the bloodless victory, but in Warsaw the celebration was distorted into a "pogrom" in which riotous throngs attacked all the Jews they could find, killing several and wounding scores. Hundreds of Jewish-owned shops were smashed before the police could restore order.

C. Houston Goudiss
Describes the Precious MINERAL SALTS

That You Must Have in Order to Build Strong Bones, Sound Teeth, Healthy Nerves, Rich Red Blood

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS
6 East 39th Street, New York.

THE human body is often compared to a machine, but it is far more wonderful, far more complex, than the most intricate machine ever designed to run without stopping, day in and day out, for upwards of 70 years, is also a fully equipped chemical laboratory. For if a chemist should grind a man to bits and analyze the pieces, he would find at least 18 chemical elements, and possibly traces of several others.

In addition to oxygen, carbon, hydrogen and nitrogen, the body contains a wide variety of mineral materials, which are necessary to its proper functioning—and even to life itself. The list includes calcium, phosphorus, potassium, sulphur, sodium, chlorine, magnesium, iron, manganese, iodine and copper. All these substances must be furnished to the growing child—through food and drink—and generous amounts must also be supplied daily in the diet of adults, to replace the minerals that are constantly being used up.

Minerals Necessary to Life

It is vitally important that the homemaker should understand the function of these various salts and where they can be found. For if certain minerals are lacking in the body, the heart will stop beating. Without others, the bones cannot form properly. Still others are responsible for the rich red blood that makes the difference between a healthy person and a sickly one. Laboratory experiments have proved that if you leave out the smallest trace of the mineral known as manganese, you destroy the love of a mother for her child. And nutritionists—but unfortunately not mothers—are well aware that less than a thousandth of an ounce of iodine makes all the difference between a normal man and an imbecile.

Calcium—Captain of Minerals

Calcium deserves its ranking position as the captain of the minerals, because it builds the bones, or body framework. And the bony skeleton is to the human being what steel is to a building. Calcium is also the chief constituent of the teeth and upon healthy teeth rests the health of the digestive system and, in turn, the entire body. For food that is improperly masticated is imperfectly digested and fails to nourish properly.

About 99 per cent of the calcium in the body is found in the teeth and bones. If the body does not receive an adequate supply of this mineral in pre-natal life and during the growing years, the bones will be porous, distorted and easily broken, and the teeth will develop cavities and eventually may fall out.

In addition to being the principal material for making and maintaining the bones and teeth, calcium increases the strength and pulsations of the heart and helps the blood coagulate in case of injury, thus keeping you and your loved ones from bleeding to death. That is why an extra supply of calcium is fed to patients just before an operation.

Calcium Builds Will Power

There is a close relationship between calcium and sound, healthy nerves. And this precious substance likewise helps us to concentrate mentally—it strengthens our will power—and assists us in acquiring that "do or die" attitude toward life, which is essential in an age when we must all struggle or go under.

Yet despite its importance, it is estimated by that outstanding authority, Henry C. Sherman, Professor of Nutrition at Teachers College, Columbia University, that one-half of the American people—even those with plenty of money—are literally starving for calcium, because they do not know the food sources of this vitally important mineral.

Where to Obtain Calcium

The foremost sources of calcium are milk and cheese, which is milk in concentrated form. It is chiefly to provide adequate calcium that homemakers must follow the rule of a quart of milk daily for every child, and a pint for each adult.

Vegetables, such as spinach, lettuce, celery, asparagus, string beans, cabbage, carrots and cauliflower are also a good supplementary source of calcium. And some fruits, such as oranges, figs, strawberries and bananas likewise supply significant amounts.

An Invaluable Aid To the Housewife

IN THIS issue you will find the fourth of the series of articles written by C. Houston Goudiss, famous food expert whose books, radio talks and lectures have made him known all over the country.

In this article Mr. Goudiss discusses the vitally important subject, "Mineral Salts." He shows the necessity of these materials in the diet, and their relation to the building of a strong heart, healthy nerves, rich red blood, strong bones and sound teeth. He also gives the food sources of these salts.

Read each one of these articles as they appear weekly in this newspaper. They will prove invaluable to the housewife in assisting her to keep the entire family mentally and physically fit.

It is her solemn responsibility to provide these four in abundance. For only in that way can you insure optimal growth in children, develop vigorous health in adults, and maintain the highest possible tone of every organ in the body.

A Splendid "Service" for Floors

Floors receive rougher treatment than any other part of the home—and it is floors that show up to poorest advantage when neglected—best advantage, when properly cared for! Up to now, attractive floors have required some little time and attention, but this is no longer necessary. For into the field of domestic preparations has come "self-polishing wax"—liquid-smooth, simple to apply, lovely to see. This remarkable preparation goes on easily, quickly, and dries in 20 minutes! Its results are 4-fold: The floors are protected—they are preserved—they stay freshly-clean longer—and they are beautified! A quality self-polishing wax protects and preserves, by forming a film over the surface—hard enough to withstand friction and grinding wear-and-tear. It induces floors to stay clean longer, because dirt and grease cannot become imbedded in the wood. It beautifies, because it is shimmering, transparent, and brings out the natural beauty of the wood. And what more could the home-maker ask for? There are, however, various qualities of self-polishing wax available. Only the best should be used, for both the appearance and condition of the floors. But the finest self-polishing wax is a joy to use—its lasting results a joy to see!

Floors Polish Themselves

...with O-Cedar Self-Polishing Wax. No rubbing—simply spread it on and let it dry—then watch your floors sparkle! Non-slippery, long-wearing—eliminates scrubbing—dusting alone keeps floors clean. Full qt., only 85¢.
