The Place Where Most People Trade

TO BUILD CHURCH

A. T. Young is soliciting subscriptions to build a church near the Belle Plaine Cemetery. He was in town Monday and said he was doing very well in raising the money and expressed his gratification at the interest the people of Baird were taking in the matter and the material aid they had given the enterprise. Many of the old timers here lived at Belle Plaine and we all have a tender spot in our hearts for the old stamping ground. Then two, many old pioneers of this county sleep their last sleep in the beautiful Belle Plaine cemetery. We hope Mr. Young and his friends will be able to build a good sized church building out there. If you have not subscribed to the building fund, do so, if you can.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank all, and especially the ladies, who in anyway assisted us during the illness and death of our little son.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Alex Robinson.

JIM BRYANT DEAD

Jim Bryant, aged 40, a prominent and respected citizen of Ovalo, died Tuesday at a sanitarium in Ballinger. The body was shipped to Ovalo, Wednesday, where interment took place. Mr. Bryant was well known in Abilene and news of his death will be received with regret. He leaves a family.—Abilene Reporter.

Jim Bryant was well known here, and had many friends who regret to learn of his death and tender sincere sympathy to his bereaved wife and little children. Mrs. Bryant was formerly Miss Willie Cliett, a niece of the late Judge W. H. Chett, of Baird, and is well known here.

LITTLE CHILD DIES.

Wister Earl, little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Robinson died Friday afternoon July 14th, after several days illness and was buried Saturday at Ross Cemetery. The STAR extends sympathy to the bereaved parents.

HENDRICK-CARTER MEETING.

The meeting closed Sunday night with perhaps the largest attendance of the meeting. Brother Hendrick preached one of the best sermons of the meeting, although he was nearly sick. His text was Luke 24:6 "He is not here; but is risen."

We did not learn how many conversions there were during the meeting, but the number was not large. However, we believe the good effects of the meeting will be felt in the future.

The evangelistic party scattered. W. B. Fitzhugh left for his home at Fort Worth Sunday night. Rev. E. E. Hendrick left Monday morning for his home in Nashville Tennessee. Mr. Carter left Tuesday for Anson, where he was a witness in court, but at Abilene received a message that the case was continued, and he returned east Wednesday. His home is in Springfield, Mo., but he goes to some point in Arkansas, where he has charge of the music at a Chau-tauque meet. Dale Haven, the pianist, left a day or two later and we see from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram that he is playing in the Ham-Ramsey meeting there.

HOT WEATHER

The past week brought the hottest weather this year. Tuesday and Wednesday were extremely warm with the mercury above 100 and Wednesday 106. It turned cooler late in the evening when some clouds in the west obscured the sun. Yesterday morning was cool and pleasant with indications of rain.

Will Rice was up from the Bayou Tuesday.

MRS. G. W. STEWART DEAD.

Mrs. G. W. Stewart one of Howard county's highly respected and well beloved citizens passed away at the family residence two miles east of Coahoma last Monday night.

She had been ill but a short time and her death came as a great shock to relatives and friends.

Having been a resident of this county for many years she was held in high esteem by everyone who knew her. A kind and loving mother, a devoted wife and a true friend and neighbor, her death is deeply mourned.

To the sorrowing husband and to the seven children who are denied a mother's love and care, and to her mother, Mrs. J. L. Monteith and her brothers and sisters who mourn for one much beloved is tendered the deep sympathy of many friends.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday and the remains were laid to rest in the Coahoma cemetery.—Big Springs Herald.

Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Annis Monteith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Monteith, who lived at Tecumseh for many years before moving to Howard county several years ago, and has many relatives and friends in this county who regret to learn of her death.

Mr. Seth Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lawrence returned to their home at Anson, Friday, after a weeks visit with Mrs. Lawrence's sister, Mrs. A. D. Williams and other relatives. They were accompanied home by Mrs. O. S. Dickerman, a sister of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Lawrence, who will spend a few days with them then return to Baird for a short visit before returning to her home at Sherman.

Mrs. Mollie Eastham, of Lou, Dawson county, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Maggie and Claude, and grand-daughter, Miss Bertha Gaultney of Lamesa, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Eastham and other relatives in Baird.

C. L. Dickey and family returned Tuesday from a month's auto trip to Bell and Leon counties and other points south. He got back with his two wheel trailer (for baggage) to our surprise. They made the trip in a Ford.

Congressman Smith For Prohibition

The following is contained in a letter from Congressman Smith to Editor Chambers, published in the Winters Tribune, April 27, 1916: "I have been a prohibitionist all my life, and have never at any time been on the Anti side. I have supported prohibition for precinct, county, state and nation. I assisted in passing the Webb-Kenyon bill giving the State complete jurisdiction over all intoxicating liquors immediately upon coming within their territorial limits thereby removing all obstructions to the enforcement of the state prohibition laws. In the last Congress I supported the Sheppard-Hobson resolution to submit an amendment to the Constitution providing for nation wide prohibition. Yours very truly,

W. R. SMITH.

Officers of Union Labor Speak

Abilene, Texas, July 19, 1916

We certify that we are UNION MEN, and are members in good standing in labor organizations belonging to the TRADES & LABOR UNION of Abilene, and that the charge now made that Judge Blanton is not a friend to union labor is untrue, unjust and not right. The building done by Judge Blanton was built through a Mortgage Company, which furnished every dollar, and Union Contractors in Abilene were unable to comply with the requirements of the Mortgage Company, and did not object to the work being done by the Company's Contractor. Judge Blanton has been a friend to Union Labor ever since we have known him, and we believe that 90 per cent of the members of Labor Organizations in Abilene are supporting him. The Carpenters Union, of Abilene, wrote a letter to Judge Blanton stating that only one Contractor was able to handle his proposition, and we know that this Contractor turned down the job as he was not able to handle it.

INCREASING VALUE OF LANDS

Immense Uncultivated Area Cannot Be Developed Until Improved Highways Are Constructed.

There are over 400,000,000 acres of uncultivated land in the United States awaiting development that cannot be developed without improved highways. It has been shown that the value of land is increased evenly with the improvement for the roads, the increase running from $2 to $9 the acre. As the roads are improved, there is a corresponding increase in population. In twenty-five counties, taken at random, which have contained on an average only 1 1/2 per cent of improved roads in the decade 1890 to 1900, there was a falling off in population of 3,000 in each county. In twenty-five other counties, taken at random, in which there was an average of 40 per cent of improved roads, the increase of population in each county was 31,000. The 'back-to-the-farm' movement will progress just in proportion to the improvement of the highways, and the improvement of the highways is dependent upon administration not less than upon construction.

There must be skill in the supervision as well as in the building of the roads. Heretofore at least nine-tenths of the work on the roads has been done under the direction of men without any knowledge of roadbuilding, which is an art based upon a science. There are today more than 100,000 petty road officials in the United States who have no practical knowledge of the simplest engineering problems that must be solved in the location of the roads, in their relation to a general system, or to related systems; but who are supposed to have great influence in neighborhood politics and are mighty at the polls. It is from this incubus that the problem must be relieved if the country is to enjoy the benefits of a well ordered system of highways.

Good roads not only cost a great deal of money in their construction, but also in their maintenance or administration. It has been the habit in this country to 'work on the roads' when all other work was done, and this has meant that the roads have had attention only once or twice a year. Macadam roads do not take care of themselves, concrete roads should have constant attention, sand-clay roads require daily supervision if they are to give service for which they were designed and built. In France every mile of road is inspected daily, and it is the constant vigilance of trained supervision that enables the railroads of the country to take care of the business of the country. There ought to be the same sort and degree of supervision of the roads of the United States if they are to give the service for which they are built. To make a mile of macadam road eight feet wide and eight inches thick, 1,750 tons of stone are required, and to build a mile of gravel road eight feet wide and eight inches thick, 1,142.93 cubic yards of compacted, or 1,564 cubic yards of loose gravel are required, and in order that the best results may be obtained, there must be competent supervision not only in the mixing of the materials employed in the building of the roads of the several types, but in the placing of materials.

There are 2,000,000 miles of what are commonly called "dirt roads" in the United States, and to make them effective there must be proper drainage, such grading and alignment as will make them fit for the traffic and constant surface betterment, and it is nothing short of criminal waste to build roads of macadam and expect them to take care of themselves. Undoubtedly the best system of maintenance for all roads is that which provides for the permanent and sometimes continuous employment of skilled laborers who have charge of particular sections of road, or who may be assigned to any part of the county or other road unit where there is work most needed.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION RELATING TO LEVYING TAX FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES.

H. J. R. No. 30. House Joint Resolution.

Proposing an amendment to Section 3, Article 7, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, authorizing the levy and collection of an ad valorem county tax not to exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property for the maintenance of the public schools of the county, and authorizing the levy and collection of an ad valorem district tax not to exceed one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation of property for the maintenance of the public schools of the district.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended to hereafter read as follows:

Section 3. School Taxes.—One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes, and a poll tax of $1.00 on every male inhabitant of this State between the ages of 21 and 60 years shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free schools, and in addition thereto there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of such an amount, not to exceed 20 cents on the $100.00 valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources will be sufficient to maintain and support the public free schools of this State for a period of not less than six months in each year. The Legislature may authorize the levy and collection of an annual ad valorem county tax within the counties of this State not to exceed 50 cents on the $100.00 valuation of property situated within the county; provided, a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the county voting at an election to be held for that purpose shall vote such tax, for the purpose of maintaining the public free schools of the county, and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by general or special law, without the local notice required in other cases of special legislation, and all such school districts, whether created by general or special law, may embrace parts of two or more counties, and the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such district, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties. And the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed, or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided, that a majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district, voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year one dollar on the $100.00 valuation of the property subject to taxation in such districts, but the limitation upon the amount of school tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns, constituting separate and independent school districts.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State is hereby instructed to issue the necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at the next general election to be held in November, 1916, at which election all voters favoring this amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to Section 3, Article 7, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to the levy of ad valorem school taxes not to exceed fifty cents on the $100.00 valuation in the county and not to exceed one dollar on the $100.00 valuation in the district, for the purpose of maintaining the public schools of the county or of the dis-

The Deutschland has given old John Bull a shock.

The state campaign is getting warm and the lie is being hurled rather recklessly by some of the state candidates.

Emperor Francis Joseph is reported seriously ill again. The reverse of the armies of the tough old emperor is enough to make a stone man sick.

We are not mealy mouthed about it, we do not want a state-wide prohibition campaign next year. Do you? If not, vote against "submission" and give Texas a rest for two years.

Mexico has had three hundred revolutions and fifty presidents in 95 years since it obtained its independence from Spain. The masses of the Mexican people are not capable of self-government their own history proves it.

We frequently hear Democrats say that they are prohibitionist warp, woof and filling. All such should remember that there is only one political party in this country that really favors prohibition and that is the prohibition party.

The Prohibition party is arranging to spend one million dollars in the presidential campaign and say they expect to poll one million votes. If they could secure the votes of all who claim to be prohibitionist that still vote with the Democrats and Republicans parties they should poll five or six million votes.

Don't forget Dr. R. G. Powell when you go to vote one of the candidates for legislature. There is little financial compensation in the office but Dr. Powell can afford the sacrifice. He has served faithfully and well and ought to receive every vote in the county.

Pro speakers ask anties to vote for submission and grant them an opportunity to vote for state wide prohibition next year. Why should an anti vote for submission when he is opposed to it? We do not want a state wide pro election next year. Do you? If not, vote against submission.

Pro leaders are pleading with the anties to vote for submission on the ground that it is right, fair and just to give the people a chance to vote on state-wide prohibition. The plea won't hold water, they are appealing to the people now and if the people of Texas four-fifths of them Democrats don't want an election next year they will say so by defeating submission.

President Wilson is being urged by many Democratic newspapers to declare his intentions as to Mexico saying that the present uncertain policy is making political capital for the Republicans, and so it is. American troops are still moving towards the Mexican border, but President Wilson's speeches indicate that under no circumstances will he make war on Mexico. The President's Mexican policy seems as much of a puzzle to his friends as it is to his enemies.

The British-French drive against the German western front has gained some ground, but the Germans believe the gains of territory which they say was won at the cost of enormous losses. The fact however remains that the enemies of Germany are pressing her on all fronts with greater forces than ever before. It looks as if the Kaiser will have to postpone his triumphant entry into Paris indefinitely. August 25, 1914 was his original date to enter Paris as a conqueror as his Grandfather did forty-five years ago.

The United States authorities have decided that the Deutschland, the German submarine, is a freight, not a war vessel. This, it is claimed, is likely to lead to a controversy with England. This is probably a fake, as it is none of England's business, not unless the Deutschland is really a warship, which the American port officials deny. A German or Austrian merchant ship has exactly the same rights in American ports as have the ships of the English allies. England no doubt feels chagrined that they have been outwitted by the German submarine freighter, but they cannot afford to raise a racket with Uncle Sam because he refuses to declare a German merchant vessel a war ship.

Saturday the fur will fly, but some of the candidate won't, they will even stop running. We wish all good luck. The best luck the editor of THE STAR ever had was to be defeated once long years ago for reelection to an office that did not pay much. We did not see it that way then and confess that we did not appreciate our good luck at the time. There are few, very few men, who ever make anything out of an office. The writer has held several public offices but never saved a dollar out of any. Most of them caused us actual loss. One term in the Texas Legislature cured us effectually and forever of any desire to hold any more offices, yet the position is pleasant if one can afford it, that is, can afford to lose the time.

Lest we forget: The Court of Criminal Appeals is composed of three members, Davidson, Harper and Prendergast. W. L. Davidson was Chief Justice of this Court for fourteen years. Three years ago the two pros decided, at the behest of the Anti-Saloon League, we presume, to oust Davidson and Prendergast was put in his place. A. J. Harper cast the deciding vote to oust the only remaining ex-Confederate in the higher courts of Texas. Two years ago the pros undertook to oust W. L. Davidson and the pro candidate was defeated by 118,000 majority. A. J. Harper now asks the Democrats of Texas to endorse him. Vote for W. C. Morrow.

Bob Henry says Colquitt is trying to prove that he, Henry, is a Pro, well Bob has been trying to prove that Colquitt is a republican because he does not agree entirely with the President's policy especially his Mexican policy. Bob Henry implores the voters to elect a democrat as United States Senator saying that Colquitt is not a democrat. Well what about Brooks, Campbell and Culberson? Are they all republicans too?

Bob Henry's idea of a democrat seems to be that he is one that sneezes every time a democratic president takes snuff.

If opposition to measures proposed by a democratic president makes a democrat a republican then Bryan and all his followers, including Bob Henry, became republicans in 94 and 96. The Democrats of Texas want a man in the senate who will take orders only from our people, not a mamkin, who will jump at every beck and call of the President who may happen to be a democrat. We do not believe a majority of the democrats of Texas indorse Wilson's tariff bill, or his Mexican policy, but do indorse most of his other policies, but Henry bases his opposition to Colquitt on the two policies mentioned. The primary will prove who is right Colquitt or Henry.

We received a letter from our old time friend Judge C. H. Jenkins of Brownwood, saying in reply to an editorial in THE BAIRD STAR, that he is not and never was an office seeker. We have no desire to misrepresent any one and would not of all men, misrepresent Charley Jenkins because we like him personally, and always did because he is a splendid man honest and sincere and qualified to fill any office in Texas. We will say that much for him. It is Charley's politics not the man personally that we criticize. Forty years ago in Brown county we tried in every way possible to persuade Charley Jenkins, then a young man, to keep him from going off with the Greenback party.

Of course this is a free country and every man has a right to his own opinions. Charley Jenkins, after wandering around in the wilderness of political parties for two or three decades came back to the Democratic party, was sent to the Legislature by the Democrats. Was appointed Justice on the 3d Court of Appeals by Tom Campbell, was elected perhaps twice and now holds that position. He came out against Chief Justice Nelson Phillips, rumor says brought out by the Anti Saloon League that is trying to control every office from Dog Pelter to U. S. Senator, so says Dr. Barton, the head of the League.

We will accept our old friends statement that in the past he was not an office seeker, but he certainly is now because he voluntarily became a candidate and is now out campaigning for the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. We believe this is the first time any candidate for this high office ever went out on the stump to present his claims. This is no hanging crime to be sure, but some how we old time Democrats do not like to see the highest Judicial office in Texas become the football of politicians. If Charley Jenkins had come out for the office on his own merits and left prohibition out of it, we would have supported him against any man in Texas regardless of his past political affiliations, but we will not support any man put out by the Anti Saloon League, a foreign corporation that is trying to dominate the Democratic party of Texas.

DEEP CREEK NOTES

Our grain is all thrashed how glad we must feel
Before our father in heaven now let us all kneel
He has spared us our grain from the hail and the wind
Let us all from our hearts our thanks to him send
The yield was not great but the price now is good,
And if we don't thank our maker I think that we should
He has spared us from war he has given us bread
He will care for us all these words he hath said
Our John and our Bud we will never forget
The best thresher boys we ever have met
They will thresh for you late until the sun's out of sight
And each one that they thrash for we know they treat right
They are experienced machinist and work with an ease
Every man they have thrashed for always were pleased

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

BURNT BRANCH CULLINGS

Well Bro. Collier (everybody called him Bro. Collier, the niggers, whites and the whole push) was on one of his preaching tours, he hobbled out to spend the night and after supper we were all seated viewing the comet and predicting when the aforesaid gentleman remarked: "It gets lower and lower, and the first thing we know the contact will come and knock this old world into a cocked hat." This was enough for me and to the negro cabin I ran telling Aunt Nancy and the kids what Bro. Collier said. She prayed, she moaned, she bemoaned, bewailed and done around right sharp, when up comes Uncle Wash who generally did the cussing for the whole ranch "What's the matter, Nancy?" And she repeated what Bro. Collier had said. (Continued next week for lack of space.)

Our young friend, Geo. Baum is better and is on the hunt of thrasher hands. Although like myself a little lame he still moves and says he and "Juan" ought to be hooked together as a team.

Big picnic and general revival in politics at the Terminal Tuesday and Wednesday. Big Socialist debate, those people who believe in the "vide up." In my opinion they are unworthy of notice as a party on general principals, see.

We hail belt fellows who have any crop left have it generally worked out and in shape.

This week will nearly wind up grain operations in these parts.

J. B. Cutbirth sold his mules, pocketed the money and hit the grit for Baird. We hope they have a big time and safe return.

Thanks to Uncle Epp for good literature, send something of a religious turn of which we stand greatly in need.

A smart alex of a friend at Cross Plains called us over the phone to see a friend who never showed up. Never mind, the "foolkiller" will come along some day and get you the first rattle out of the box.

"Juan" and wife made several "pop calls" Sunday evening.

Uncle John Wagner and good wife are visiting Judge Russell and family at Plainview.

My old friend Capt. Taylor, candidate for reelection to the legislature for Brown and Callahan counties spent the night with us. He will be reelected as he should be, being one of the few living who enlisted under the Stars and Bars from Alabama when a mere boy and nobly did his part for the cause of the Confederacy, the grandest army that ever marched to music. We say vote for Taylor one and all.

C. C. Hampton a lawyer of ability from Knox county, locates at the Terminal City.

Squire Drewery and wife have a visiting daughter.

Shower last night which will retard working operations.

Tom Campbell says if a certain statement made by Jim Ferguson is repeated, he, Campbell says the man who makes them is a libeler, a slanderer and a coward. Strong language, but Jim is capable of attending his own affairs and Tom had better "let out the job" I think.

Picnics on tap in the different portions of the county up to the day before the execution of a large share of them. In the language of Bob Taylor:

"There's a time to work, there's a time to play

There's a time to watch, there's a time to pray

But the grandest time in Tennessee is the barbeque and the primaree."

But we poor devils in Texas have the picnics you know, get in shape.

The fruit peddler goeth forth from away down in the brush, they bring their old decayed stuff and palm it off on we unsuspecting prairie fools, return home and cuss the grafters.

Cris Parson's outfit skimed the "Dark Corner," finished Cutbirth, Morrow, Austin, Baum, Spencer and others, and pulled for clear water on the Nick Brightwell ranch on the Bayou. Says he will be back Friday. May the good Lord help his return. Have raised my last crop of grain, am thoughly disgusted at the procedure in general. Am thinking of having a guardian appointed.

But won't the dear ladies have the clean up of their lives after the departure of the thrashing machine. There are several hundred acres yet to thrash in the Dressy country, but they are hitting it in the face. In the Turkey Creek neck they are in full blast with small outfits, however Next comes the picnic after which it will be goobers.

Found 2 sks of oats, the owner can get same by proving property and paying a blamed big price for this ad.

J. B. Cutbirth and family have returned to the Windy City.

Walton Wagner, our efficient phone man, was out connecting where the wreck occurred. Where you going "Juan?" "Hunting that dad blamed thrashing machine, have you seen it?"

Everything is bustle this week, but after next week it will be as the boys in gray and blue used to say: "All is quiet along the line tonight."

Jim Ferguson has called in most of his appointments. Maybeso he was saying and promising to do too blamed much, but Morris is shelling the woods without apparent avail. "Jim stands pat" with no disposition to "call off the dogs." He is only tired spouting.

We learn to Geo. Scott is marketing wheat this week at the City of the woods.

Hail beaten roasting ears for dinner.

This is to inform that "big Sister" of mine that I received her nice long letter and will reply in due course of time, you know.

For I'll be damed if you are in it.

Married at Cross Plains on Thursday, the 6th of July, Miss Eta Mae Drewery and Mr. Echols Ford, all of the celebrated Burnt Branch community. What better can I wish you than long life, prosperity and happiness.

Ed Odom and Jack Aiken received a car of lumber at the Terminal.

COTTONWOOD LOCALS

July 18th.—This weather must be right from the torrid zone, and we are forced to the conclusion that it is not inducive to our comfort if to our health.

This Uncle Jimmie has returned from the reunion at Eastland and to say we had a good time would be putting it mildly. An immense crowd was in attendance and a sumptuous and appetizing dinner was prepared for the old Confederates, and all the entertainments were free to them also. Both the ladies and the male citizens of Eastland are extravagant in their hospitalities to the veterans of the sixties, but poor old fellows they are growing feeble and their steps are tottering, and to hear them try to give the "rebel yell" is indeed pitiful. But when the national air of the Confederacy "Dixie" is played the hot blood in their veins is sent surging again to the heart and a vain effort is again made to utter the blood curdling yell of the sixties which on more than a few occasions sent terror to the ranks of the contending foe, but their ranks are thinning rapidly now and soon the last one will have answered the roll call beyond the river and all that will remain of the once brave and chivalrous army will be in memory alone. May the Lord bless them and keep them in the bivouac around the great white throne in a ty where all is peace, where they tread no use for guards, experienced machines or bayonets, work with an ease in they have thrased for days were pleased parade. "Juan" you ought to have been there. We laughed, we cried, we eat and we drank and listened to all kinds of speeches, save political speeches. The candidates had to go way back and sit down.

Miss Thelma Haley, who has been visiting her grandfather, J. R. Haily and other relatives at Gorman for the past four weeks, has returned to her home at Cottonwood.

Eld. E. R. Robinson, a Primitive Baptist minister is billed to preach at Cottonwood Wednesday night.

Mrs. Beulah Burkett and husband were visitors at Cottonwood, Sunday the guests of her father's family. Mrs. Burkett is a daughter of Uncle Jimmie and has been a teacher in Callahan and surrounding counties since she reached the age of sixteen.

Thursday is picnic day and it is contemplated that the meat will be butchered today, and the grounds will also be prepared, but we fear there being so many candidates who will desire to air their intellect that we will have to make the time short for each one.

Well at last the peaches are ripe and our living has increased and the chickens are ripening, but H. S. Varner is getting them all. He is Prof. Varner during school season, but between seasons he is a regular old "hayseed."

Now owing to the fact that our benign presence is expected at the Tabernacle to enhance the numbers that will meet there to improve the conditions, it becomes absolutely necessary that we should "Keno." "Uncle Jimmie"

FAIR OF TEXAS HAS LARGE INCREASE IN PREMIUMS

ALL AGRICULTURAL AND LIVE STOCK CLASSES ARE GREATLY BENEFITED

NEW PREMIUM LIST IS NOW READY FOR PERUSAL.

R. E. L. Knight, President.

R. E. L. Knight, president of the State Fair of Texas, announces that the most extensive and complete arrangements have been made with a view of making the 1916 State Fair at Dallas, which opens October 14, and continues to and through October 29, the largest, most interesting and most valuable agricultural and educational exposition ever held.

During the year just passed, the Fair management has conducted vast improvement enterprises at Fair Park—practically every department has felt the influence of the earnest desire to bring all details connected with the Fair right up to the minute; and, as a consequence, when the 1916 Fair opens next fall, every necessary equipment and facility for an epoch-making exposition will have been provided.

Premiums Largely Increased.

The State Fair of Texas is, essentially, an agricultural exposition; its purpose is to gather together and display annually a representative showing of the wonderful resources and possibilities of the great Southwest, and this in order that the peoples of other sections may have an increased appreciation of the marvelous fertility of Southwestern soils, and the incomparable advantages of our matchless Southwestern climate. It is obvious that this purpose can be best achieved by inducing and influencing a large majority of farmers of the section to bring displays of their products to Dallas, and with this end in view, the directors of the Fair have, this year, voted large increases in premium for practically all classes of agricultural and live stock exhibits.

The premiums offered by the Fair this year are undoubtedly the most valuable ever appropriated by any Fair Association; and, likewise, the total number of premiums will be much greater than in the past.

Many New Classifications Added.

In almost every division, and particularly in the sections devoted to agriculture and live stock, there will be found this year a number of interesting new classifications. In the poultry section, a classification for all kinds of pigeons has been devised, and a special building is now being constructed to house the large number of pigeon exhibits expected. The raising of pigeons for the market is becoming an important industry in the Southwest—of sufficient importance, in fact, to justify a good representation at the State Fair of Texas.

Premium List for 1916 Now Ready.

W. H. Stratton, secretary of the Fair Association, announces that the premium list for 1916 has just been issued and is now ready for general distribution. This is a book of 142 pages, handsomely printed on good paper, and is fittingly illustrated with photographic reproductions of portraits of the officers and directors of the Fair, and with scenes in Fair Park.

While the title of this work is simply "Premium List," the publication is, in fact, much more—as it contains a great deal of interesting and valuable information relative to the rules and regulations governing the different classes and, in fact, all necessary data relative to the aims and purposes of the Fair.

A feature of this book which will interest practically all Texans will be found in the front of the publication in the nature of a large folder, 40 inches long by 8 inches wide upon which his illustrated a splendid panoramic view of a portion of the Fair Grounds. This is a late photograph and shows the grounds just as they are today. The reverse side of this folder presents a fine panoramic view of the present skyline of the city of Dallas. This is likewise a very recent photograph and glowingly depicts the wonderful growth which Dallas has attained in recent years.

In the back of the 1916 Premium List will be found a similar large folder presenting many of the amusements which are to be at the Fair this fall. The amusement program, as outlined by Secretary Stratton, is by far the largest and most expensive ever offered by the Fair management, and while both sides of this large folder have been utilized for the purpose, it has been found to be entirely impossible to present a large portion of the acts which have already been secured.

Mr. Stratton states that a sufficient number of Premium Lists have been published to take care of all demands, and that a copy will be mailed to any address upon receipt of request. There is no charge for this publication. Those who wish only the various folders can, for the asking, secure copies beautifully bound especially for free distribution to the people of Texas and the Southwest.

From the nature and extent of the preparatory work already concluded, it is easy to deduce that the 116 State Fair of Texas, to be held in Dallas October 14 to 29, will be the largest in the history of Texas.

A BEAUTIFUL WILL

Justice Walter Lloyd Smith, who presides over the third department of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, brought with him to the dinner of the New York University Law School Alumni Association a most remarkable document, the last will and testament of Charles Lounsbury. Here it is:

"I, Charles Lounsbury, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and publish this, my last will and testament, in order as justly as may be to distribute my interest in the world among succeeding men.

That part of my interest which is known in law and recognized in the sheepbound volumes as my property, being inconsiderable and of no account, I make no disposal of in this my will.

My right to live being but a life estate, is not as my disposal, but these things excepted, all else in the world I now proceed to devise and bequeath:

Item: I give to good fathers and mothers, in trust for their children, all good little words of praise and encouragement, all quaint pet names and endearments, and I charge said parents to use them justly and generously, as the needs of their children may require.

Item: I leave to children inclusively, but only for the term of their childhood, all and every, the flowers of the field and the blossoms of the woods, with the right to play among them freely according to the customs of children, warning them at the same time against thistles and thorns. And I devise to children the banks of brooks and the golden sand beneath the waters thereof, and the odors of the willows that dip therein, and the white clouds that float over the giant trees. And I leave the children the long days to be merry in, in a thousand ways, and the night and the moon and the train of the Milky Way to wonder at, but subject, nevertheless, to the rights hereinafter given to lovers.

Item: I devise to boys jointly all the useful idle fields and commons where ball may be played; all snowclad hills where one may coast, and all streams and ponds where one may fish or where, when the ice is gone one may skate; to have and to hold the same for the period of their boyhood. And all meadows with the clover blossoms and butterflies thereof, the woods and their appurtenances, the squirrels and birds, and echoes of strange noises, and all distant places which may be visited, together with the adventures there to be found. And I give to said boys each his own place at the fireside at night, with all pictures that may be seen in the burning wood, to enjoy without let or hindrance and without any incumbrance of care.

Item: To lovers, I devise their imaginary world, with whatever they may need, as the stars of the sky, the red roses by the wall, the bloom of the hawthorn, the sweet strains of music and aught else by which they may desire to figure to each other the lastingness and beauty of their love.

Item: To young men jointly I devise and bequeath all boisterous, inspiring sports of rivalry, and I give to them the disdain of weakness and undaunted confidence in their own strength, though they are rude. I give them power to make lasting friendships, and of possessing companions, and to them exclusively I give all merry songs and brave choruses, to sing with lusty voices.

Item: And to those who are no longer children or youth or lovers I leave memory, and I bequeath to them the volumes of the poems of Burns and Shakespeare and of other poets, if there be others, to the end that they may live over the old days again, freely and fully, without tithes or diminution.

Item: To our loved ones with snowy crowns I bequeath the happiness of old age, the love and gratitude of their children until they fall asleep."—Selected.
