A CARD.

Editor of THE STAR.
Referring to Mr. C. Cummings' communication in the last issue of your paper permit me to say that I have neither the time nor inclination to answer this self styled "fool-like" person according to his folly and I have no desire to inflict upon the readers comments of a personal nature in which the public have and take no interest.
The matter of which I wrote in my card of the 12th instant related to the public records of the Commissioners court I again repeat that Cummings' published statements that the County Commissioners' court had adopted jail plans is untrue as the recorded minutes of said court clearly show, there is not a word recorded in relation thereto. I have already published the certificate of the county clerk to that effect. And after I have shown his public statements to be false, he now comes with a statements by putting language in the mouth of other men and says that it should be on record but a clerical error caused by the absence of Mr. Foy is the only trouble in the way. The very statement carries the brand of falsehood upon its face because if the clerk and his deputy were not present in the court, as Cummings says, then they could not have any personal knowledge of what took place. He says that Mr. Jackson says that it is a matter of record and yet it is not recorded. Jackson never made any such statement, the statement refutes itself. It is not in the minutes of the court then it is not recorded. Mr. Jackson was not waiting on the court and of course he has no personal knowledge of the matter. And just think of it tax payers of the Cottonwood precinct your own commissioner sent a set of jail plans here that they have thereby become a part of the records of the county, or as he puts it "a record of themselves," and you are thereby made legally liable to pay for them whether the court has adopted them or not. Suppose that a dozen elephants should be sent to the court they also would become "a record of themselves" and you would have to pay for them according to the logic of your man. According to Cummings' own statement he is willing to pay out your hard earned money for the plans simply because they were sent here and are "a record of themselves." He says "but fool like I told it out of school." That is the most truthful expression in all of his statements, he talks in this matter more like a fool than any man I ever saw who was elected and sent to represent and industrious and intelligent set of people. He has no more regard for the facts and truth of the matter than he has for the money of the people for he is seeking by his acts and words to make the county liable to pay for the plans, and you will see that if a law suit, does arise out of the matter you will find Cummings with the enemy and a witness against the people and the county. He cannot escape the position for his statements to that effect are in print over his own official signature. You are a generous and noble people and do not deserve such base treatment, but such is the result of electing to public office a man who is willing to sacrifice every principle of honor simply to gain his own personal success. Each of the other three commissioners have stated to me personally that they had not voted to adopt the plans which seem to give Cummings such grievous trouble. And without further comment I respectfully refer the readers to W. A. Hinds, J. H. McClesky and Phillip Yost, all of them occupy the same official position as Cummings, each of them being County Commissioners. Some time ago, on the streets of Baird, Cummings asked me if the Court would take up the jail matter at the November term, and I told him that I did not think so for the reason that I had not heard the county commissioners say anything about it, and it was my understanding that they had decided to let the whole matter drop. That so far as I was concerned I was fully determined to stand in opposition to it where I had always been from the time when the matter was first brought before the court by the report of the grand jury. But at the same time I said to him, and I have repeatedly so stated, to other persons, that three commissioners constitute a majority of the court, the court being composed of four commissioners and the county judge, and in the event that at any regular term of the court three of the commissioners voted for some public improvement which they have the power under the law to construct, that neither I nor any other member of the court, being less than a majority of the court would have the legal power to absolutely prevent such action being taken by the court, and that if a majority of the court insisted upon its legal orders being carried into effect, it could by legal process require each officer to perform every duty required of him by law. That is the law, and I so stated it in the conversation to which he alludes. It seems from Cummings' statement that there was a contractor here in May from the grasshopper state, I do not know where he was from nor where he went and I do not care. About the same time his alleged adopted plans arrived. Cummings' supposed contractor appeared before the court and expressed a desire to see the plans which were then in the express office and he requested me to give him an order to the agent for the plans, but I declined to do so for the reason, as I stated in open court, that I would not receive the plans nor have anything to do with them. He then appealed to the commissioners for permission to get the plans and the commissioners requested me to write a note for them asking the agent to deliver the plans to Cummings' contractor. I then wrote the note for them stating that the court had directed me to request that the package be delivered to the bearer of the note. That is all I had to do with the matter. Every Commissioner except Cummings will do me justice to say the same thing.

At a recent term of the court an order was asked requiring the proposition named by Cummings to be printed on the election tickets and the order was refused on these objections which I suggested from a legal standpoint as follows:
1. Because there is and was nothing pending before the court relating to the building of a new jail. And yet he says that his proposition was not denied when every man in the Court heard what I said and they know that this statement of Cummings is absolutely false.
2. Because nothing can be legally placed upon the general election tickets but the name of the party, names of the offices and the names of candidates to be voted for, and such propositions as the constitution of the state permits Legislature to submit to a vote of the people.
3. Because the court had no power to force the various political parties to put Cummings' proposition on their election tickets.
4. Because the court has no power to require the election officers to count the vote cast on any proposition not authorized by law to be submitted to the voters.
5. Because that if such a vote was taken it would not be legally binding on this or any future court.
6. Because if the ballots when presented by the voters to the election officers contained any marks, characters, figures or propositions not authorized by law the ballots become void and thus the candidates for whom the majority of the voters might cast their votes would be deprived of the offices to which the people had elected them.
I trust that those reasons constitute a sufficient answer, and they were all made by me in open court and in the hearing of Cummings. He was sitting on the opposite side of the office table and so close to me that I might touch him by reaching my hand across the table.

The real animus towards me grows out of the fact that I have exposed him for falsely claiming and receiving more from the county treasury than he is lawfully entitled to receive, as the following statement of the law and facts will show.
Article 4390a, public road laws, constitutes the commissioners of the several precincts supervisors of public roads of their respective counties. And provides as a compensation therefor three dollars per day for the time actually employed in the discharge of his duties to be paid out of the road and bridge fund of the county: provided that no commissioner shall receive pay for more than ten days in each year. But the county records show that Cummings is the only commissioner in the county who has claimed and received more fees than he is entitled to, and his claims and receiving of payments for alleged services are as follows:
Feb. 15, 1893.....$18.00
Aug. 14, ".....6.00
Feb. 16, 1894.....24.00
April 20 ".....6.00
May 16, ".....5.00
June 27, ".....5.00
Sept. 1, ".....6.00
Total $69.00
So it will be seen that he has drawn for this year $15.00 more than he was entitled to claim and receive, or if the two years are averaged together he has unlawfully claimed and received $9.00 more than he is allowed by law for the whole two years. The records show this yet he claims that all of the other commissioners and myself are trying to deceive the people, and in effect that he is the only thoughtful and honest man in the court. I am sure that the honest and honorable men in his own political party do not indorse his course and conduct in these matters. If he will return the money thus unlawfully obtained from the county treasury it will save the trouble and expense of a law suit

WASHINGTON NEWS.

THE SUPREME COURT RENDERS A DECISION

Of Much Importance to Land Litigants in the Territories—No New Cases of Small-pox Reported—Secretary Carlisle and Morton's Coachman.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—In the supreme court yesterday Chief Justice Fuller handed down a decision in the case of the United States vs. Earl B. Coe, involving the title to the Algodones land grant of Arizona upon a motion to dismiss, on the ground that congress had no power to confer upon the supreme court jurisdiction to entertain an appeal from the decree of the court of private land claims, by which this case was originally tried, because the latter is not vested with political power in virtue of any provision of the constitution. The motion to dismiss was denied, and the decision is of importance because it affects all the decisions of the private land claims court.

To Reimburse Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The recent decision of the second comptroller relating to the right of enlisted men of the army to receive money from the government for personal property lost while in government service, has shown that the law, if properly construed, works a great injustice on the private soldier, and Acting Secretary Doe, who has carefully examined several meritorious cases, which have been rejected under the comptroller's decision, has been so impressed with the fact that he has determined to recommend an act of congress in the soldiers' interest. One case of this kind grew out of the railroad wreck near Sacramento during the strike, when two enlisted men lost their clothing while in the line of duty. Another soldier, ordered to attend the funeral of the late Mayor Carter Harrison at Chicago, had his overcoat stolen, though he had placed it, by orders, in the depot. In each of these cases the comptroller held that the law did not permit of their reimbursement.

A Test Pension Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The mandamus proceedings of Judge Long of the Michigan supreme court to compel Pension Commissioner Lochren to continue him on the pension rolls at the rate of $72 a month, came up again Saturday and was argued before Justice Bradley of the district supreme court. The case argued is a decisive test suit brought by stipulation between counsel to take the place of a previous case now pending in the court of appeals, Thomas H. Hopkins, representing Judge Long, and Assistant Attorney General Whitney, the commission. The arguments presented were pretty much the same as the former hearing.

Republican View.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Acting Chairman Apsley of the Republican campaign committee, a congressman from Massachusetts, in a prepared sequence of exportations of gold was $147,307,500. The cost of transporting this amount was $93,480. The aggregate shipments between the more important points are given as follows: Washington to New York $12,000,000, Chicago to New York $11,500,000, San Francisco to New York $509,000, Philadelphia to New York $69,960,000, Philadelphia to Boston $54,900,000.

Chilian Exposition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Senator Don Domingo Gana, the Chilian minister at Washington has received the announcement from the hands of the government of the opening at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon of the metallurgical exposition at Santiago, Chile. The exposition was inaugurated with appropriate ceremonies and there is every evidence that it would be a great success. England, Germany, America and other countries are among the exhibitors. The affair is to continue three months.

General Amnesty.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The United States minister to Chile has advised the state department that the Chilian government has granted general amnesty to all persons accused of political offenses prior to Aug. 28, 1889. The effect of this amnesty is to pardon the adherents of ex-President Balmaceda up to the day he was forced to resign, and does not extend to those who resisted the new government formed after the ex-president's abdication.

Hopful.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Chairman Faulkner of the Democratic campaign committee returned from New York last night. He says there is nothing discouraging in the congressional situation there. In a conversational Senator Faulkner said: "The situation has improved very materially for us during the last few days. Unless all signs fail we are certain to control a majority of the next congressional delegation from New York."

Argument Concluded.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Argument has been concluded in the United States supreme court on the appeal of the government from the decision of the circuit court for the eastern Pennsylvania district in favor of the American sugar refining company, E. C. Knight and the Sprockles and Franklin refineries, against which the government brought suit under the Sherman anti-trust law.

White House Inmates Vaccinated.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—All the inmates of the white house were vaccinated yesterday as a precaution, in view of the appearance of smallpox here.

Venezuela Commission.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The Venezuelan claims commission held its first meeting at the state department Saturday.

urday. The purpose was to effect a temporary organization and consult regarding the selection of a third commissioner. Secretary Gresham received the members and extended the usual courtesies. There were present Minister Andrade, the Venezuela commissioner; Benjamin T. Jeffries, the United States commissioner; Mr. Morse, the United States agent and ex-solicitor general; Phillips, the Venezuela agent. The matters which the commission is expected to adjudicate are the claims of an American corporation known as the Venezuelan Transportation company, growing out of the seizure and detention of their vessels by Venezuela some years ago. Before this can be entered upon, however, it will be necessary for two commissioners to select a third one to act with them. This was not done Saturday and the commission adjourned to meet again to-day.

Cleveland Silent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—No authoritative information can be obtained here respecting the direct question as to the president's purpose to write or not to write a letter announcing his desire that all Democrats should earnestly support the Democratic state ticket in New York. Nevertheless, it is the opinion of many of his friends that he will not in any way interfere in the New York campaign. With reference to the president's registration or voting, one of his closest friends made the statement yesterday that Mr. Cleveland had no legal residence in New York and could not lawfully register or vote there. Mr. Cleveland himself, it is understood, has said that his legal residence is in Washington. It can be further stated that at the expiration of Mr. Cleveland's present term he will not again take up his residence in New York. This statement was made by him some months ago, and at that time he had not fully determined as to where he would make his future home.

Oklahoma's Progress.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Governor William C. Renfro of Oklahoma has submitted his annual report to the secretary of the interior and sums up as follows: "Oklahoma's progress has been steady and rapid ever since the 22d of April, 1889. Capital has not as yet sought investment to any great extent in Oklahoma, but there has been a real substantial increase in wealth from the almost unlimited natural resources of the territory and it now furnishes one of the best fields for capital in the United States." Report by county clerks to the territorial auditor on February 1, 1894, showed the population to be 219,635. The taxable valuation of the territory is $19,974,922. The assessed valuation of the railroad property is $1,350,692. There are fifty-six banks in the territory, six national and fifty private.

Gold Movement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—A statement received at the treasury department shows that during the periods between March, 1893, and October 1, 1894, the amount of gold transported between sub-treasuries, mints and banks at quence of exportations of gold was $147,307,500. The cost of transporting this amount was $93,480. The aggregate shipments between the more important points are given as follows: Washington to New York $12,000,000, Chicago to New York $11,500,000, San Francisco to New York $509,000, Philadelphia to New York $69,960,000, Philadelphia to Boston $54,900,000.

RECEIVED CALLERS.

A MAN IN FEMALE ATTIRE ARRESTED AFTER

Ending the Officers for Three Years—A West Newton, Mass., Man Shoots at a Rat and Kills His Wife and Child, Choked to Death.

WINFIELD, Ill., Oct. 30.—Peter Cline, residing near here, was arrested in an Iowa town three years ago for robbery. The crime he was charged with was the taking of goods out of the store where he was employed as clerk. He made his escape before he was taken to prison, and was never recaptured until Sunday night, and then under peculiar circumstances. After his escape $50 reward was offered for his arrest, but no one succeeded in getting it. Three weeks after he escaped a woman made her appearance at Farmer Cline's and was introduced as a sister. Miss Cline had gentlemen callers and everything went well. An officer of Iowa, however, put in an appearance and arrested the supposed woman, who proved to be Peter Cline, and who for three years has worn female garments and made his home here entirely unsuspected. Cline has been taken to Iowa.

Killed His Wife and Son.

WEST NEWTON, Mass., Oct. 30.—Phillip L. Raymond was waiting Sunday night, gun in hand, for a muskrat which has been making depredations in his household. As the animal appeared he fired. One barrel of the gun exploded, shattering the stock and tearing the barrel into splinters. Raymond had concealed himself for the rat without the knowledge of his wife and family and she and her son were walking across the yard at the time. As Raymond fired the boy was heard to cry out and fell dead and Mrs. Raymond was also hit by a flying shot and died soon afterward. Raymond's arm was so badly shattered as to require amputation.

Their New Piano.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—When Cornelius Vanderbilt opens his new house on Fifty-eighth street and Fifth avenue with a ball soon to introduce his daughter to society, Seidl will sit down to a $15,000 piano, which has been put in place in one of the magnificent parlors. This piano is said to be one of the finest ever made. Mr. Vanderbilt was not to be satisfied with an ordinary satinwood instrument, and an eminent artist was engaged to decorate it. The paintings are on the handles, along the sides and on the cover. The wood has undergone a preparation to keep it from warping before going to the painter. In this condition it is said it will last for centuries.

Choked to Death.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 30.—Inmates of disorderly houses on Market street are in a panic in consequence of the belief that they are in danger at the hands of a supposed strangler. On Sept. 3 Lena Tapper was found choked to death in bed and the murder remains a mystery, although Richard Demany, who was under bond awaiting trial, Sunday Marie Cincassot was found dead, also choked. Richard Demany, Charles Schoter and John Callahan have been arrested.

Young Lady Hanged.

VIROQUA, Wis., Oct. 29.—Little doubt now exists in the minds of the people that Miss Mary A. Jones, who was found hanged by the neck in her lonely house a few miles from here, was murdered. Sam Buxton, a neighbor, has been arrested and charged with the crime. The theory of suicide has been exploded. Buxton and the murdered woman are alleged to have been criminally intimate for two or three years past.

A Severe Earthquake.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—A Buenos Ayres dispatch received states that an appalling earthquake has occurred throughout the Argentine republic. The dispatch says that the city of San Juan de la Frontera, capital of the province of the same name, has been totally destroyed. Hundreds of lives are reported to have been lost. No details of the catastrophe have been received.

A Bride's Death.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Magruder, nee Bessie Duncan, who was married last Wednesday evening to Prof. A. C. Magruder of the Oklahoma Agricultural college while on a sick bed, died at Stillwater yesterday. The wedding took place at the appointed time at the request of the bride, who felt that she would never recover.

Pass Agreement.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 26.—At the meeting of the Central Traffic association yesterday a resolution was adopted unanimously pledging the members to issue no passes whatever with a view to affecting freight traffic. It was also agreed to retract the issuing of annual and other passes to railway officials and others.

Troops Cannot be Used.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—It has been determined that no troops can be used to suppress lawless bands in the Indian Territory, unless called upon by the courts to assist the United States marshals. The request for troops must then come through the department of justice.

Three Men Killed.

BRISTOL, Pa., Oct. 29.—A class-

trous freight wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad near Corydon station occurred about 7 o'clock yesterday evening, in which three men were killed and a score or more injured. A construction train having on board about forty laborers pulled up near Corydon and stopped to take in more workmen. While the train was at a standstill fast freight No. 1147, E. W. Stout, engineer, and William Rich, conductor, crashed into the work train. The trainmen escaped by jumping. Several cars were wrecked in the crash. John McNulty, Stephen Daley and Frank Stone, all of this place, were caught and instantly killed. Of the twenty or more who were injured, nearly all live in Bristol. Three or four are so badly hurt that they may die from their injuries. All of the Bristol physicians were summoned to the scene of the wreck, and after attending to the wounded, sent some to this place and others to Philadelphia hospitals.

Royalists May Rise.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 27.—The British ship Alameda, from Apia and Honolulu, brings advices from Honolulu that rumors of a royalist uprising are being again circulated. Election day, Oct. 29, has been chosen for the attempt to restore the ex-queen. Very little stock is taken in the tale. Nominations for senators and representatives have been made. Out of twelve chosen for this island (Oahu) only two are natives. This causes criticism among the native annexationists. Every nominee has been pledged to support annexation. From Apia, date Oct. 10, it is reported no recent conflicts between the rival native bands have occurred, but the people are prepared for an outbreak at any time. The Samoan land commission, which is prepared to hold sittings in Atua, have been notified by the rebel party they were not to be allowed to. It is expected the commission will now proceed to Atua on a warship. A movement has been secretly inaugurated to circulate a petition to the treaty powers urging the removal of President Schmidt.

The Japs Victorious Again.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The Japanese legation received a dispatch yesterday which confirms the news published in a dispatch from Shanghai of a second victory of the Japanese army under Marshal Yamagata. The telegram is dated Hiroshima and reads as follows: "Before dawn of October 26, our army under Marshal Yamagata attacked Kink-Len-Chin, one of the important strongholds upon the Chinese frontier. The place was defended by 16,000 troops under Gens. Lin and Song. They fled after offering only a slight resistance, and the Japanese forces took possession of the fortifications and the city. They captured thirty large field guns, an immense quantity of rice, etc., and more than 300 tents. The Japanese loss is twenty killed and eighty-three wounded. The Chinese loss is more than 200 killed; the exact number of wounded not being known."

Fatal Mine Accident.

DETROIT, Mich. Oct. 26.—A special from Ironwood, Mich., says: What may prove to be the worst accident in the history of the Menominee range occurred on the fourth level of shaft No. 1 at the Pawabic mine at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. One man is known to have been killed and eleven others are entombed, and their fate will not be known for eighteen hours as it will take that time for as large a force of men as can be employed in the narrow shaft to clear away the rubbish. The accident was caused by the sandstone copping, which overhung the room, giving way with sufficient force to crush the timbers without any warning.

Tried to Shoot Him.

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 27.—William Green, the merchant charged with assaulting the 9-year-old daughter of Max Stromberg Monday afternoon, was held to answer before the grand jury without bail. His preliminary trial was concluded yesterday and there is much excitement. The mother of the victim attempted to shoot Green on the street while he was being carried to jail. A mob also gathered, but the prisoner was landed in jail in time to prevent a lynching. Green is 58 years old, a prominent member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and is the father of seventeen children.

Nebraska Fires.

GORDON, Neb., Oct. 27.—Prairie fires are sweeping over this vicinity doing immense damage. Thursday night a fire was driven by wind through the central portion of Sheridan and Cherry counties. In its track were the big Osborn mines. Yesterday morning not a vestige remained except the scorched ground. At noon the fire was reported to have reached Fulman. It is not known whether any lives were lost, but thousands of head of cattle have perished.

Hog Cholera Epidemic.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Oct. 27.—Hog cholera is causing great anxiety in various localities in this vicinity. It is raging among the droves at Kappa, Woodford county; Lanesville and Macanaw, Tazewell county. Many farmers have lost ten to fifty head each and one has but five remaining of a drove of 125.

Postoffice Looted.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Oct. 27.—The postoffice at Hoarings Springs was looted Thursday night. The safe was blown open and 13,000 stamps and cash and money orders amounting to $453 stolen. From Reptoglio's jewelry store a large quantity of jewelry was stolen.

BAIRD, FRIDAY, NOV. 2, 1894.

See that you get a straight democratic ticket, from governor down

Only a few more days of populist boasting and its glory will be no more.

The democratic party stands for law and order; against the carromant as well as the commune.

The pops hope to win in Texas by abusing Grover Cleveland. Vain, delusive hope.

Rally around the old flag, boys, and strike confusion to the enemies of democracy and good government.

The democrats never introduced a bill in congress to give Coxe's army a half billion dollars.

The pops all sing the same old song "hard times and worse a comin'" vote the pop ticket or go to the "deal"

If you are a democrat with democrats stand, and vote the ticket straight from constable to governor.

An exchange says there will be a rattling of dry bones next Tuesday, and the pops will furnish the bones. Correct.

Pop: pope, popi, populist. Bust, busti, bust'em. That's what the democrats will do for the poppies next Tuesday.

Do you hear the roll of that old democratic drum beat? You will hear it next Tuesday, boys, don't forget it.

The democrats have a good county ticket, worthy the support of every democrat whether they voted in the primary or not.

Next Tuesday is the day to strike for your country. Hit a blow for honest government and against every ism and schem of the day:

The election next Tuesday will be about for the support of conceit out

The democratic party endorsed this amendment at Dallas and is embodied in the democratic state platform.

The story circulated at Cottonwood that Judge Solomon told a certain individual on last election day to drink as much as he d--d pleased and say what he d--d pleased and it should not cost him a cent, is one of several campaign lies told on Judge Solomon for political effect. Judge Solomon assures us that there is not a word of truth in the statement, and we believe him.

Populism wherever it has succeeded in controlling affairs has proved worse than the blight, grasshoppers or the cholera. Kansas and Colorado are fair specimens of what populism would do for the country. Read what Waite's administration. Mrs. Lease bears witness that Kansas, under populism, is the most corrupt in the history of the state; yet she supports the ticket.

Judge C. J. Munroe says all the bills introduced in congress if simmered down would only amount to about six billions of dollars. He thinks if we had that much money added to our circulation it would ease up things for a while at least. If the government could keep it at par it certainly would make things hum, but unfortunately for the Judge's plan, history teaches us that such vast issues of paper has always brought ruin in its wake.

It seems that some candidates do not understand why no name but the nominee should go on the regular democratic ticket. If any man could get his name on the ticket what would be the use of making nominations? The populist will not allow the name of a democrat nominee on their ticket, then why should the democrats put any but their own nominees on their ticket? Early in the campaign we announced the manner in which the tickets would be printed so no one could claim that they did not have fair notice.

The populist have nominated a county ticket in part and tacitly endorsed some independent democrats and no doubt these independent names will all be on the populist ticket, but you will not find a democratic nominee for a county office on the populist ticket, yet some populist think it wrong in the democrats in not allowing populist candidates on their ticket. Rather queer reasoning is it not?

Old Sappy has a good deal to say about Gilliland failing to meet Munroe at all his appointments in this county, but is discretely silent about Munroe failing to meet Gilliland at Moran and Albany week before last, although he had ten days notice. Judge Munroe and the pops are not half so eager for joint debates as they professed to be early in the campaign.

Vote for the amendment to Section 51, Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas. The amendment empowers the legislature to make appropriations to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars for any

If the democrats will do their duty the populist will not elect a precinct or county officer in Callahan county, next week. Make the victory complete and sweeping, boys. We can do it if we will try.

The populist denounce and vilify lawyers, yet they put a lawyer at the head of their state ticket. They denounce national banks and national bankers, yet they put a president of a national bank against Joe Sayers for congress.

The Abilene Reporter, Buffalo Gap Messenger and Merkel Mail have our thanks for favors extended during the campaign that will not be forgotten as years roll by, and should occasion ever arise in the future we will certainly reciprocate.

The Dallas Mercury, pop organ calls the democrats a party of imbeciles. Oh my, ain't that gall for you? Whenever the pops have gained control of public affairs they have shown utter incapacity to deal with practical questions. Colorado and Kansas state officials are the laughing stock of the whole Union.

When D. B. Gilliland, populist nominee, was at Anson a few days ago a democrat asked a pop what was Gilliland's occupation. The pop answered that he was a newspaper man. The populist nominee for congress in this district is a lawyer and the pop just simply twisted the facts rather than admit that the pops had a lawyer candidate. See?

The populist have nominated a county ticket in part and tacitly endorsed some independent democrats and no doubt these independent names will all be on the populist ticket, but you will not find a democratic nominee for a county office on the populist ticket, yet some populist think it wrong in the democrats in not allowing populist candidates on their ticket. PAPER HANGING AND HOUSE PAINTING, ETC.

The populist have charged the democrats with perpetrating frauds of the worst kind in every election held this fall. All this racket is made by the pops for political effect. We advise the democrats to watch out for frauds themselves at the election next Tuesday. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

The pops claim the credit for the income feature of the Wilson bill, yet denounce the balance of the bill, such as does not suit them. As all the pops but Peffer in the senate and Newland in the house voted for the bill they cannot consistently condemn one part of the bill and claim credit for the balance. Oh consistency! But who ever heard of a pop being consistent?

She Kissed Them All.
It is not a Jack this time, but a Jean the kisser, who has been making a sensation on the streets of New York. She is described as a comely woman of about 35 years of age, and she spent something like an hour on the streets, hugging and kissing every man she could catch. She was not at all particular as to who they were. Young men, and old, handsome and ugly, she kissed them all with impartial affection. Some of them took it good-naturedly and laughed with the on-lookers, and others were mad and tore themselves away from her as soon as they could, which was not a very easy job, as she was well-built and muscular. She met a crowd coming from the ferry and she kissed as many as she could. She invaded the street car and ran all the men out of it with her affectionate demonstrations, and she even offered to give the policeman, who threatened to "take her in," the sweetest kiss he ever had in his life. She was not "run in," however, and finally carried herself away, after having tired herself and every man she met out with her kissing.

How They Slept.

MOTHERS and those about to become mothers should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its torture, terrors and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding Nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and also the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. During pregnancy, it prevents "morning sickness" and those distressing nervous symptoms from which so many suffer.

Tanks, Cottle Co., Texas.
Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
"Dear Sir—I took your 'Favorite Prescription' previous to confinement and never did so well in my life. It is only two weeks since my confinement and I am able to do my work. I feel stronger than I did in six weeks before."
Sincerely truly,
Cordelia C. Culpepper

A MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE.
South Bend, Pacific Co., Wash.
Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
"Dear Sir—I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' the first month of pregnancy, and I have continued taking it since confinement. I did not experience the nausea or any of the ailments due to pregnancy, after I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription.' I was only in labor a short time, and the physician said I got along unusually well."
We think it saved me a great deal of suffering. I was troubled a great deal with leucorrhoea also, and it has done a world of good for me.

EARLY DAYS IN MISSOURI.
Ex-Governor Fletcher's Reminiscences of the Sturdy Pioneers of Old.

Ex-Governor Fletcher of Missouri, formed the center of a little group of congressmen who were discussing old times, says the Washington Post.
"When I was a boy," said he, "I lived among the pioneers in Missouri. They were a fine class of people, all in all the best people I ever knew. They drove back the Indians, and made bear and deer their meat, as the saying goes. It was before the days of the schoolmaster. Occasionally we had a three months' subscription school, but the master was employed more for his physical qualifications to discipline the big boys than for his learning. It was before the days of baseball and football, and the sport that stood at the head of the list was 'gander pulling.' The men met," continued the governor, "at some suitable cross roads store, where eighteen cents per gallon corn whisky was dispensed, and they pooled in $1 each, say twenty or twenty-five of them. That was a big purse in those days. Then they got the oldest and toughest gander that roamed in that circuit. The feathers were carefully plucked from his neck and the neck was covered with grease and soap. After these preliminaries Mr. Gander was securely tied to the swinging limb of a tree, hanging head downward. This done the men would mount their horses, a circle was drawn, the master of ceremonies took his place in the center of the ring, whip in hand, and kept every horse on a lively run as the riders tried to catch the gander's neck. The man that succeeded in pulling off the neck raked in the pot. If he held on until he was pulled off the horse it counted for the gander and the rider was out. It was a little tough on the horse, but as a feat of strength and horsemanship it was worth seeing, and the knights of old never put lance in rest or rode in a tournament to greater applause among the spectators than was showered upon them by the throng at a gander pulling. I was once an eyewitness to this strange sport. Of course it wound up with a dance, and the hero who pulled off the gander's head danced with the prettiest girl. Pretty girls? Your young ladies of today wouldn't have been in it with those rosy cheeked lasses. All the candidates for office were there electioneering. They didn't make many speeches in those days. They set 'em up and mixed about and talked with the boys. Well, all that old set is gone now. Their descendants are learned and have modern manners, habits and amusements, but they are not any better in any sense than the sturdy old pioneers, their ancestors."

Tramps at Sea.
A Washington sea captain complains of the tramp nuisance at sea. There is a large and increasing number of men who make a practice of beating their way from place to place on vessels, and the coasting craft are their favorite prey. They manage to slip aboard a vessel just as she is ready for sea and hide themselves until she is fairly out on the salt water, when they make their presence known. Sometimes a gang of five or six will get on the same vessel. Of course they have to be fed, as the captain is more or less responsible for their being there, but as no account of them has been taken in laying "in supplies" they sometimes force the crew to make short rations. Most captains put the fellows as far as possible, but there is little work on the sort of vessels that they usually select that a landlubber can do.

He Was Getting Ready.
"What'll you charge me for a marriage license?" asked the loose-jointed young man in brown jeans.
"Two dollars," replied the county clerk.
"Is that the reg'lar price?"
"It is."
"Can't git it no cheaper in any of the other offices?"
"No."
"Don't keep no second-hand licenses that was brought back 'cause the feller got slipped up on and hadn't no use for 'em?"
"Of course not."
"Well," said the young man, pushing his hat back on his head, "you kin save one fur me. I'll be round agin next Saturday with the $2. I'm goin' back now to hunt up a gal."

A Bear Movement.
Visitor—Your church is a beauty. That handsome house next door is the parsonage, I presume.
Deacon DeGood—No. Fact is, the parsonage is some distance up town, but we intend to make an offer for one of these nearby residences soon.
"The price will be high, no doubt."
"Um—I think not. We shan't try to buy until after our new chimneys are put in."

A Wood Mine.
In Upper Tonkin there are wood mines, according to the report of a French consul. The wood, which was originally a pine forest, was swallowed up by the earth, which covers it to a depth of eight yards. Some of the trees are a yard in diameter; the wood is imperishable and is sold to the Chinese for coffins.

The Twins in Distress.
Mistress—What in the world is the matter with the twins?
Nurse—Sure, I don't know; but from the way they have been frettin' and cryin' all day, it's my opinion that they've mixed themselves up and can't tell which is which.

Only a Fragment.
The aerial space within the limit of our vision is calculated to have a diameter of 420,000,000 miles and a circumference of 1,329,742,000,000 miles. And this is only a fragment of the immensity of space.

Underground Bells.
A mysterious phenomenon is observable at a place called Nakous, on the shores of the Red sea. Here, for an unknown number of centuries, strange, intermittent, underground noise has been heard. The spot is some half mile inland, and a long slope of sand from the shore reaches back to it, rising to the height of some 300 feet. The place resembles a rude amphitheatre, and is closed by a low, natural wall of rocks. The sounds coming up from the ground at this place recur at intervals of about an hour. They at first resemble a low murmur, but before long there is heard a loud knocking, something like the strokes of a bell, and which, at the end of five minutes, become so strong as to agitate the sand. The explanation of this curious phenomenon given by the Arabs is that there is a convent under the ground, and these are the sounds of the bell which the monks ring for prayers. So they call it Nakous, which means a bell. The Arabs affirm that the noise so frightens the camels when they hear it as to render them furious. Scientists attribute the sounds to suppressed volcanic action—probably to the bubbling of gas or vapors underground.

A Hat to Her Trunk.
Jess is an unusually gentle and docile performing elephant attached to a circus now exhibiting on the Pacific coast, and all the employes of the circus were amazed the other morning when she suddenly went on a rampage, broke away from her fastenings, wrecked the circus and started off through the streets of San Francisco. It was some time before she would allow anybody to come near her, and her keepers observed that she seemed frenzied from fright. Finally she stood still, apparently almost overcome with fear and permitted the keepers to approach. One of them observed something protruding from the end of her trunk, and catching hold of it pulled out a live rat. The elephant at once gave signs of great satisfaction and readily returned to the circus. It is supposed that the rat ran into her trunk as she lay asleep and that the contraction of the muscles had held it fast.

It Was a Mistake.
A St. Louis drummer, who was traveling in Texas, was very much surprised the other day to read in the papers that his wife, with whom he had always lived in perfect accord, and to whom he had transferred all his property, had sued for and obtained a divorce. He wrote to ask her why in the world she had taken such a step and she replied it was all a mistake. He hurried home to see about it and found that he was really divorced. It seems that his wife had employed a lawyer to petition the court to make her a femme sole, and on the same day another woman had employed him to get her a divorce. He got the two mixed up so that the court had divorced the wrong one. The unlucky drummer is afraid to go home to live until the decree of the court is annulled or he and his wife can be remarried. The lawyer is just now the butt of his professional brethren.

Don't Want to Pay.
The Massachusetts tax assessors are having difficulty in their efforts to assess the tax on bicycles provided for generally. They are unable to get hold of hardly half the wheels in use, and in some places could not have made even that showing had it not been for the wheelman's directories, published before the tax law was passed. Many of the wheels are owned by minors, whose property to the value of $1000 can be exempted. The Massachusetts assessors had a similarly bothersome task some years ago in the taxation of hens, of which the legislature subsequently relieved them.

The Public to Pay.
The grand council of the Swiss canton of Neuenburg has decided that funerals shall hereafter be paid for by the public. The canton in the future will defray all expenses save that of the coffin, which the family or relatives will provide. If necessary, however, the coffin will be supplied also. The expense of cremating bodies, however, must be borne by the friends or family. Under this arrangement such distinctions—common enough in many parts of Europe—as "first-class" and "second-class" funerals will be impossible.

Siberia's Grain.
United States Consul General Jonas, at St. Petersburg, reports that the early completion of the Siberian railroad is likely to have a depressing effect upon the prices of grain throughout the world. One rough estimate places Siberia's European grain export at 6,000,000 bushels for the West Siberian section.

A candidate for office often smiles when he feels like swearing.
If some girls attempted to run they would fall to pieces.
A woman never admits a fault except to give a man a chance to deny it.

Market Gardeners and Farmers.
Tremendous money is made by getting your vegetables into market 10 days ahead of your neighbors. Salzer's Northern grown Seeds have this reputation. Send to the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La Crosse, Wis., for their wholesale catalogue, inclosing a 2-cent stamp.

Every woman shows positive genius in finding out what other woman had to eat at her party.
"Homesick Ragie Corn Salvo." Warranted to cure or money refunded. Ask your grocer for it. Price 15 cents.

A grocer may smile when you take an apple, but he doesn't mean it.

It Is Condemned.
Some time ago a temperance association in Germany sent a circular to seventy prominent physicians asking their opinion as to the custom prevalent in that country of giving small quantities of beer and wine to very young children. With the exception of two all the physicians condemned the practice as injurious.

Losing Members.
Membership in the United Richard Wagner society has fallen off from nearly 9000 in 1891 to about 5000 this year. It is suggested that as the work for which the society was formed has been accomplished, it should be dissolved.

Ladies, Get One.
A new scrubbing machine is whirled over the floor like a lawn mower. It soaps, wets, rubs and dries the floor, and two or three movements of the machine make the boards shine.
If you can't sleep these nights it is a sign your conscience needs laundering.

A Temple of Health.
Where vigor, good digestion, appetite and sound repose minister to physical comfort, is the totality structure which, however much its foundations have been sapped by ill health, has been restored—re-built, as it were—by the great renovating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Nothing infuses strength into a debilitated frame like this saving medicine, which, in the vigor and regularity it imparts to the system, endows it with the surest defense against disease, and the best guaranty of a long life and hale old age. Worn out men of business, tired mechanics, overworked mill hands, miners broken down by hardship and exposure to malaria, mariners and tourists, all declare that it is the best safeguard against the influences of fatigue, bodily or mental, and of climate and temperature. Incomparable for bilious, rheumatic, kidney and nervous troubles.

There are plenty of people who are too nice.
A Child Enjoys.
The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious, the most gratifying results will follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.

There is the instinct of a beggar in everyone.
Brown's Iron Bitters cures Dyspepsia, Malaria, Biliousness and General Debility. Gives strength, aids Digestion, tones the nerves—creates appetite. The best tonic for Nursing Mothers, weak women and children.

No man need feel hurt if people say he is not good looking.

NOT PALMER'S BILL.

Those who heard Judge Munroe's speech at Baird last week will remember that he tried to hold the democratic party responsible for what he called Palmer's Sub-Treasury bill. This turns out to be another piece of populist extravagance as the following letter from Senator Palmer shows. Corsicana, Tex., Oct. 29.—Some weeks ago Col. J. C. Kearby and T. C. Gere, the blind Mississippi orator, stated in speeches delivered in this city that Senator Palmer of Illinois wrote and introduced into the senate a bill appropriating $38,000,000,000. This sounded very startling to many democrats here, but they had no proof to contradict the statement. Will L. Sargent, editor of the Courier-Observer, was among the doubting Thomases and wrote Senator Palmer in regard to senate bill No. 1917 and received the following reply this morning: Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.—Will L. Sargent, Esq., Corsicana, Tex.—Dear Sir: I have your favor of Oct. 23 1894, referring to the use of the populist in making of the fact that I introduced into the senate the bill of which the clipping you sent me from The Dallas News probably presents a true synopsis.

The history of the bill is brief. Capt. John Cowden, who is well known in Washington as an advocate of a plan for relieving the regions affected by the overflow of the waters of the Mississippi river, as well as an advanced populist, prepared this bill. He is a nominal resident of Illinois and very urgently requested me to introduce measure in order that it might be read. He did not desire its reference. I consented to introduce the measure, but in order to protect my place in the senate that I did so "by request," and the senate journal and the congressional record so state. The bill was printed and lies upon the table of the senate. All the printed copies so far as I know were handed to Capt. Cowden. No attempt has been made in Illinois to hold me responsible for Capt. Cowden and no one who knows me will imagine that I favor it. Perhaps I ought to add that Capt. Cowden has been in constant attendance upon congress at all its sessions for many years and is well known to your senators as well as to the senators from all the states bordering upon the Mississippi river. Some of them speak of him as a "crank," but I must be allowed to say on behalf of an Illinois man that his bill presents the best compendium of the extravagance of populism that has yet been produced.

If the paper mills, the printing presses and the fiat are to make money, what is a mere bagatelle of thirty-eight billions if it can be used. A correspondent from Texas writes me that the bill "out Herod Herod." Herod was a baby killing king in old times, but Capt. Cowden belongs to a different type of man. He does not propose to kill babies, but to make money by machinery and spend it. An old preacher in Kentucky, my native state, said once: "Brethren, Solomon was a wise man in his day, but he wouldn't be much now, for there are young men in this congregation, who, if they were to swap horses with him three times, he would go home with his bride under his arm." I say that Capt. Cowden's populism is the genuine article and the whole party ought to thank me for giving them an opportunity to read it in print. But I don't want them in their abounding gratitude to me to rob the captain of the honors he is entitled to. Yours etc. JOHN M. PALMER.

RUIN IN POPULIST RULE.

The Business League of Denver, Colorado, the leading commercial and trade organization of that city, composed of democrats, republicans and former populists, numbering 5000 in all, has issued the following address, portraying the effect of populist rule in that state: "Populist rule in Colorado has been like a devastating forest fire. By destroying our credit, which is the life of commerce, it has consumed for the time being not less than $300,000,000 of values in this state. Colorado's credit was so high that the borrowing power of her property ranked in the last census next to that of New York. This borrowing power, this main-spring of our splendid progress, has been temporarily paralyzed by the accidental ascendancy of a party which stands for repudiation and flatism, and is not a true friend to hard silver money.

"The property of Denver was assessed for $100,000,000, and was worth three times that sum when the populists came into power. Notwithstanding the city's inevitably brilliant future, the average selling price of this property, pending the overthrow of Waiteism, has shrunk two thirds. "Silver has declined only 25 per cent, or less than the average products of the other states, while the increased value and output of gold, together with our bountiful crops, have more than made up the shortage. Therefore not over one-half of our shrinkage of values can be charged to the panic and the universal depreciation resulting from the gold standard. The other one-half of loss is due directly and wholly to the destruction of confidence by populist misrule.

"So withering has this been that at the present moment, even a gold mine cannot borrow $1 or $5 worth of gold ore actually in sight with which to smelter. Lenders are anxious to reap the rich harvest offered, but hold aloof until the election in November decides whether we are to have anarchy or civilized government. Two hundred thousand farmers from the drought-stricken states to the east of us are anxious to come here and farm by irrigation, but under populist rule we can borrow no money with which to build irrigation canals. Manufacturing is more profitable here, but capital shuns populism as a pestilence.

"The people of Colorado are loyal to their contracts, and they are lighting up the camp fires on every hill for a campaign, regardless of party, which is to overthrow populism and re-establish the credit of the state."—DeLeon Free Press. The non-withering under the rule of introducing bills that would require an expenditure of over 39 billions of dollars have figured out that if all the bills the democrats and republicans introduced had become laws it would require an expenditure of 90 billions of dollars. The difference between these bills and those of the pops is this. The bills by democrats are republicans were mainly for the annual expenses of the government and not one hundredth part of them ever became laws notwithstanding every bill introduced by democrats and republicans could have passed if both parties had united on them as the pops only had 11 members in both houses. Now how is it with the populist bills? Not one of them were for the support of the government but called for oceans of paper money to carry into effect the wild vagaries of this crazy quilt party, as Gov. Hubbard calls it. Half a billion to Cozey's army (good road bill). Twelve billions to pay off mortgages, one and a half billion to pay pensions and so on; which any man with two grains of guption ought know would bankrupt the government the first year.
