'DROWNED' KNOX CITIAN IS ALIVE IN CALIFORNIA

Fritz Seyfarth, 30, of Knox City, object of an intensive search at Lake Stamford after he disappeared last December 29, is alive and was recently in California, officers announced last week.

Texas Ranger Byron Currin of Vernon said Brady Richie, assistant district attorney in Wichita Falls, had been informed by a friend on the West Coast that Seyfarth had applied for a job with an oil company there.

His mother, who lives in Houston, also told officers she had information through friends that her son was alive. And Sey-farth's divorced wife, who lives in Enid, Okla., with the couple's two children reported to officers a few weeks ago that her former husband had been seen there.

Seyfarth was a petroleum engineer for Katz Oil Co., and lived at the Katz Camp near Knox City. Last December 29 he went to Lake Stamford, presumably to retrieve a capsized sailboat. The next morning his car and some personal effects were at the lakeside, and a rowboat he had been using was tied to the sail boat about 100 yards from shore.

The search of the lake involved dragging operations by area officers, firemen and other volunteers on a 24-hour basis for seven days, flights by a U. S. Air Force helicopter, horseback patrols by rangers and a Haskell riding club, and an underwater search by divers.

State rangers also launched an investigation into the circumstances surrounding Seyfarth's disappearance. It was believed he was bitter over his marital difficulties.

During the height of the search his mother was at the lake and his brother of the U. S. Air Force stationed in England, returned on emergency leave to be with her.

No charges have been filed against Seyfarth.

Merchants Vote to Close Two Days For Christmas

Members of the Knox City Lions Club voted Wednesday to observe a two-day Christmas holiday, Thursday and Friday, December 25 and 26. Stores would reopen for business Saturday, Dec. 27.

Members also voted not to meet on Wednesday, Dec. 24, since everyone will be busy in the Christmas Eve rush.

The club's annual "toy party" will be on Wednesday, Dec. 17. Each Lion takes a toy to the annual affair, and after the meeting, toys are given to the American Legion for distribution at Christmas.

In other business Wednesday the club voted to increase the dues of members-at-large from $1.00 to $2.00 per month.

Methodists Have Open House in New Parsonage

The Rev. and Mrs. Oran D. Smith and members of the Knox City Methodist Church held open house in the new parsonage Sunday, Nov. 30. Calling hours were from 2 to 5 p. m.

The minister and his wife and members of the official board composed the receiving line.

Mrs. Melvin A. Lowrey provided organ music. Mrs. Joe Murray Clonts and Mrs. G. W. Coats registered the guests.

Mrs. E. Q. Warren and Mrs. T. S. Edwards alternated in serving punch.

Tours of the home were conducted by girls from the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Out of town visitors were from Haskell, Munday, Throckmorton, Ft. Worth, Temple, O'Brien, and Abilene.

Special guests were Rev. Walter Driver of Roscoe, former pastor of the church and Mrs. Driver. The parsonage was begun during the pastorate of Rev. Driver who did much of the actual construction on the building.

The completely furnished home is built in an H shape, with two bedrooms and a bath on the west side. In the center is the living room-dining room combination and kitchen. The master bedroom, bath, den, utility, carport and storage are on the east side.

The house is carpeted throughout. A new living room suite and bedroom suite were purchased by the church.

The structure is located next door to the old parsonage. Started over three years ago, the house has been built on a cash basis with much of the help volunteered and some materials obtained wholesale.

This meeting is open to anyone in this area who prepares farmers income tax returns or who is interested in hearing the discussion on income tax management.

Speaker Urges Organization of Civil Defense Unit

John Waddell, minister of the First Christian Church, urged organization of a Civil Defense unit when he spoke at the Wednesday noon meeting of the Knox City Lions Club.

Waddell recalled the circumstances of the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor, and pointed out that improved communications have been offset by faster planes and the development of missiles, so that a surprise attack is still a possibility.

Knox City is midway between Dyess AFB and Sheppard AFB he said, both of which are part of the Strategic Air Command. And all SAC bases, he added, would be prime targets in any enemy attack.

The speaker also pointed out that an organized civil defense unit would be invaluable in the event of any natural disaster, such as a tornado.

Civil Defense is actually divided into four parts, he continued. They are:

1. Self protection (Learning what to eat, drink, and otherwise protect yourself against contamination).
2. Extended self protection (cooperating with each other, such as building shelters, etc.).
3. Organized self protection (wider or community cooperation, including assigning everyone to a certain shelter, appointing individuals to do certain tasks, etc.).
4. Fixed support (aid that can be expected from the Red Cross, Salvation Army, mobile blood units, the armed forces, etc.).

The minister urged the community to begin a civil defense organization. A training course he said, would consist of five two-hour meetings, and aid in the organization could be expected from the state and national levels.

The O'Brien Bulldogs defeated Jayton, 50-45, in a basketball game at Aspermont Tuesday night.

Danny Walsworth was high scorer with 29 points while Louis Cox scored 23 for Jayton.

In other area action, Munday boys and girls beat Rochester, 48-19 and 57-46, respectively.

Mattson boys beat Vera 53-49, and the Mattson girls were also victorious, 53-29.

Dr. D. L. Ligon to Speak at Knox Football Banquet

Dr. D. L. Ligon, vice-president of Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, will be speaker at the annual banquet honoring members of the Greyhound football team Tuesday night, Dec. 9.

The banquet, planned by the Pep Club, will begin at 7:30 in the school cafeteria.

Dr. Ligon went to Midwestern in September, 1937 as coach and director of health and physical education. He served in various administrative capacities, and from June, 1945 to August, 1956 he served as acting president. Since 1956 Dr. Ligon has been vice-president and director of the Division of University Development. For almost 30 years he served this entire area as football and basketball official.

He is a member of the Wichita Falls Lions Club and its immediate past president, a past commander of Post 169, American Legion, a past president of the Wichita Falls Teachers Association, a member of the Church of Christ, and is a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason.

Jeff Graham will be toastmaster. Doyle Gene Graham will give the invocation.

Following a dinner served by Underwood's Catering Service of Abilene, Donna Gayle Fitzgerald will present special music. Supt. E. A. Youngblood will introduce Dr. Ligon.

A girls' quartet, composed of Mary McElroy, Lou Denton, and Jeanne and Jeanette Colson, will sing before the football sweetheart is crowned by the tri-captains, Montie White, Jim Anderson, and Donald Johnson. The sweetheart will be selected by the Greyhound squad and her identity will be revealed at the banquet.

Coach Ted Darland will introduce the Greyhounds. Singing of the school song, led by cheerleaders Doris Bales and Jeanette Colson, will end the program.

Tickets to the banquet are on sale now at $1.50 each. Mrs. Ottis Cash, Pep Club sponsor, said tickets will be sold in advance only, with none available at the door.

The menu will be barbecued ham, barbecued beans, potato salad, pickles, onion rings, bread, tea or coffee, apple pie, and after dinner mints.

Members of the football team are Montie White, Benton Bolin, Robbie Wall, Ronnie Spencer, Laval Verhalen, Jim Anderson, Donald Johnson, Arnold Casillas, M. C. ## B-K ELECTRIC CO-OP RECEIVES $493,000 LOAN FOR EXPANSION

The REA at Washington has approved a loan of $493,000 to the B-K Electric Co-operative of Seymour. The money is to be used for improvements and extensions.

Manager T. E. Craddock said the Co-operative already owes about $2,000,000, which is being paid out over a period of years from monthly receipts. The new loan will be liquidated in the same manner.

The B-K Electric, in operation since 1939, has been accumulating assets through the years, with some of its improvements being paid for by receipts. The value of the system is now figured at something over $3,000,000. The co-operative has repaid $610,000 of loans made from the REA.

The Electric now has approximately 1,500 miles of lines, located in the counties of Baylor, Knox, Haskell, Throckmorton, Archer, Wilbarger and King. Only a few miles are in operation in some of these counties with the bulk of the system being in Baylor and Knox; hence the

Knox City Preacher Held on Morals Charge

Robert L. Dodson, 38, pastor of the Knox City Baptist Church since July, is being held in Haskell County jail on a charge of fondling his 12 year-old daughter. Bond was set at $10,000.

The alleged offense occurred Saturday afternoon on a country road near Lake Stamford. The minister had told his wife he and the girl were going to the church to do some book work, and she became suspicious at the prolonged absence and notified City Marshal Eddie Carr.

Carr took Dodson into custody when he and the girl returned late Saturday afternoon, and the minister, his wife and daughter made oral statements to the marshal and Sheriff Homer T. Melton.

Learning the alleged offense occurred in Haskell County, Melton notified Haskell County officers and Sheriff Bill Pennington, District Attorney Royce Adkins and Highway Patrolman Arthur Mason came to Knox City, questioned the minister, then took him to Haskell.

Officers said Dodson told of driving to Seymour, Throckmorton, Haskell and then to the lake. He told officers that at one time he thought of abandoning the scheme but couldn't get it out of his mind.

Officers said after the car was stopped the girl's wrists and ankles were tied. Her wrists still bore the marks of the cord, but an examining physician said she had not been assaulted.

After the preacher was carried to Haskell he went with officers to the place of the incident. A cord was found on the ground there, along with a wash cloth officers said Dodson had taken from his home.

The minister, a native of Tennessee, came to Knox City in July from Bluff Dale, Texas, where he had been pastor about a year. He and Mrs. Dodson have two other children, boys 15 and 10.

Recent Court Decision Won't Affect Excess Wheat Penalties, ASC Says

In the recent Texas Court Decision, U. S. vs. Evetts Haley, Jr., it was the court's opinion that the provision of law requiring payment of penalty, where the excess wheat is fed or consumed on the farm, is unconstitutional. This is the opinion of one U. S. District Court Judge out of 238 in the U. S.

However, since the Federal District Court's decision in the Haley case is contrary to the law as established through a Supreme Court and other appellate court decision, the General Counsel of the U. S. D. A. is in the process of filing an appeal to the Supreme Court.

Gaylon C. Scott, chairman of the Knox A. S. C. County Committee, says that the decision in the Haley case will have no effect on the Secretary's regulation or on administration of the wheat program. The wheat marketing quota and other provisions will continue to be carried out as they have been in the past.

Scott says that wheat producers in Knox County will be subjected to a penalty for harvesting any acres of excess wheat.

Furthermore, Scott stated that due to the lack of funds necessary to operate the county office, wheat measuring of this year's crop will require the wheat farmers to assist the reporters in this work. The performance reporters will be using tapes and an assistant will be required for them to properly measure wheat acreage. Since the producers is equally responsible for this operation, and the financial budget of the office will not permit employing extra reporters, it will be necessary for them to assist the reporter or furnish an assistant when their individual farm is measured. If this assistance is not furnished, there will be considerable delay in making the acreage determinations.

The wheat producers are asked by the Knox A. S. C. county committee to fully cooperate in this matter.

Oil Notes . . .

Artex Oil Co. of Wichita Falls has completed a Tannehill discovery a half mile north of the S-B Tannehill pool in Knox County, but separated from it by failures. It is the No. 1 Colehour subdivision 5, D. G. Burnett survey 8, A-14, completed through perforations at 2207 to 2210 feet to pump 63 barrels of 40 gravity oil daily.

Skelly Oil Co. staked the No. 1 G. A. Branton as a wildcat five miles northeast of Knox City. Location is 1320 feet from the north and 1220 feet from west lines of section 70, block 2, D&W survey. Proposed depth is 2500 feet.

C. B. Christie plans the No. 3 J. W. Howell, 990 feet from north and 330 feet from west lines of block 4, D. G. Burnett survey 9, as a 2300 foot project five miles northeast of Knox City.

D. D. Strange staked No. 1 J. D. Simmons as a 2300 foot wildcat 3 1/2 miles northeast of Knox City. Location is 1900 feet from West and 330 feet from south lines of section 93, block 2, D&W survey.

Location of a deep wildcat in Haskell County was announced by Alvin C. Hope, et al of San Antonio. It is the company's No. 1 S. N. Reed, two miles northwest of O'Brien. Spotted 660 feet from north and 1980 feet from west lines of section 22, block 14, H&T survey, proposed depth is 5100 feet.

Knox Oil Worker Critically Burned In Rig Accident

Everett Watson, 22, of Knox City received second and third degree burns over 80 percent of his body Monday while working as a roughneck on a Fletcher Oil & Gas Co. drilling rig on the Reed farm about 10 miles northwest of Haskell.

After receiving emergency treatment at the Haskell Hospital he was taken to a Wichita Falls hospital by ambulance. Watson and S. L. McCoy, 25, of Graham were burned when oil and gas soaked clothes they were wearing caught on fire.

The crew was running a drill-stem test on the Reed well at 4875 feet and as the tubing was being disconnected oil and gas escaped, spraying the two men. Watson ran from the rig floor toward a house used by the crew for dressing. Witnesses said his clothes caught fire when he reached the door of the house which contained a stove. When McCoy attempted to smother the flames on Watson's clothing, his own clothes caught fire and he was burned.

Watson then jumped into a slush pit and the flames were extinguished.

An accident on another rig eight miles northwest of Haskell, on the same day, resulted in an amputated hand for R. E. Pace, 53, of Breckenridge. His hand was mangled when it caught in the rotary chain of the rig.

Weinert Man Dies Of Injury Received In Tractor Mishap

Marvin E. Woodall, 60, of Weinert, died at 6:50 a. m. from injuries he received in a tractor accident the previous Monday.

He lost control of his tractor on a farm road a few miles east of Weinert. He suffered a crushed chest, internal injuries, and multiple fractures of the left leg and arm when the vehicle crashed across a deep ditch and hit several small trees before it stopped, partially pinning him under it.

Born Sept. 5, 1898 in Bosque County, Mr. Woodall married the former Nettie Elliott June 24, 1922 at Weinert. The couple had lived at Weinert since 1935 where he farmed.

Funeral was held at 3 p. m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church of Weinert with the Rev. J. P. Cole, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Weinert Cemetery under direction of Holden's Funeral Home of Haskell.

Pallbearers were Roy Tankersley of Knox City, Bailey Guess, R. S. Sanders, Clyde Mayfield, Edward Alexander and Leonard Alexander, all of Weinert.

C. W. (Pa) Garrison remains in critical condition at the Knox County Hospital this morning.

He suffered a stroke enroute home from Kentucky where he had visited relatives with his son, Harry Garrison, of Tucumcari, N. M. and Mr. and Mrs. Doss Fuller of Rule. Following the stroke he was admitted to a hospital in Kentucky and transferred here by air ambulance last Friday.

Mrs. Garrison died October 29 while visiting her daughters in Lubbock.

I don't have a thing to wear! I have an expression we thought was reserved for women . . . but I'm secretary George Houston and Santa Claus is in that predicament!

Plans are still on for the Santa Claus parade here December 19, and the only hitch is finding a suitable suit for sweet old Santa. Trying to avoid a trip to Dallas, C. of C. officials wonder if Santa hasn't left a suit in someone's closet that he could wear on this occasion!

Something will turn up, no doubt, if nothing better that red and long handles . . . so look for the parade to go on complete with Santa Claus, the band, and gifts for the children.

With Thanksgiving past, the Christmas lights up on downtown streets and gift ads appearing in The Herald, the Christmas shopping season has started in earnest.

We've never seen such an array of good gift merchandise in Knox City stores . . . so save that time and try your local stores first. Chances are you can find something for everyone on your list.

We left Knox City for the holidays hoping to see some deep, fluffy snow . . . and what happened? Not a flake of snow fell in the New Mexico mountains, but it snowed in Knox City!

Each night, Roy and Marjorie would look at the sky and solemnly promise, "There'll be snow on the ground in the morning . . . Which goes to show that they are still newcomers to the town, or something."

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas — Texans are about on the 10-yard line in the drive to set a traffic safety record in 1958.

Safety officials will count it a "touchdown" if at the end of the year traffic fatalities have been reduced by 10 per cent of the 1957 toll. Despite the emphasis on percentages and numbers, it is not a campaign for satisfied glory.

None of the players on the safety crusade team can hope to benefit personally from an impressive scoreboard. Nor are they out to "win one for the coach." Gov. Price Daniel has had his "contract" renewed—at last summer's elections.

Real winners will be 254 Texas people. All of them would be dead by December 31 if last year's accident rate continued.

For the first 10 months of this year Texas has been achieving its aim of a 10 per cent cut in traffic deaths. This has been done even though travel has increased two per cent.

But the last four weeks—like the last four downs in front of the goal posts—will be the hardest. Christmas and New year holiday traffic will multiply driving dangers many times.

State officials, patrolmen and all the civic-minded associations and commissions and councils are geared for an all-out push. But actually "getting there" will depend on each Texan putting "drive safely" at the top of his Christmas list.

SAFETY LEGISLATION—For greater safety in the years ahead, the Governor's Highway Safety Commission will ask the next Legislature to pass a six-point program.

Points in the program: (1) state aid for driver education in the public schools, (2) creating county-wide courts of record to handle traffic violations, (3) legalizing use of chemical tests to determine intoxication, (4) strengthening drivers license law, (5) revising and updating the uniform vehicle code and (6) increasing salaries for members of the Department of Public Safety and starting a program to bring the highway patrol to the national standard of 1,600.

Essentially the same program also has been endorsed by the Texas Safety Association and the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

SCHOOL REPORT COMPLETE—Hale-Aikin Committee has completed its study and agreed—with some difficulty—on a proposed program for improving public schools.

Final report is 37 pages long, detailing improvements and expansions that would increase school spending by $110,000,000 a year. Suggestions for upgrading the quality of public education include more days of school, more pay for teachers, driver education, special programs for the gifted, pre-school teaching of non-English speaking children, clerical assistance for teachers, etc.

Full final report will be printed within two or three weeks for distribution to legislators and interested citizens. Copies may be obtained from the Texas Education Agency, Austin.

SCHOOL LAW TESTED—Texas officials are studying carefully the similarities between Texas' and Alabama's pupil placement laws.

U. S. Supreme Court declared the Alabama law constitutional "on its face." But which was applied.

Texas' pupil placement law, in the same general pattern, was passed in 1957, has never been tested in court. It allows local school officials to assign students to certain schools on the basis of 17 factors—aptitude, intelligence, home environment, personal conduct—almost everything except race.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said all the court tests of similar laws are being watched. By the end of the year, he said, "we should know pretty well what the law is."

PRISON FUNDS RUN SHORT—Texas Board of Corrections will ask the Legislature for a half-million-dollar emergency appropriation to finish out the fiscal year.

Untimely fall rains caused heavy losses in the Prison System's cotton crop. Result is that the system, which pays more than half its own way with prison industries and agriculture, will run short by an estimated $506,000 by August 31.

Department of Corrections also will be asking for funds to expand its overcrowded facilities. Needed, says the Board, is $9,050,000 to build two new units for prisoners and one tuberculosis unit.

GO SLOW—"Like pay for like work" is a great idea, says the Texas Public Employees Association. But its members, the state employees, are wary of any effort to put a job classification system into effect in a hurry.

TPEA says it will study carefully the job classification study made by the Texas Employment Commission at the request of the last Legislature. Employees said they might have some recommendations of their own by the time lawmakers meet.

TEC's study makes no salary recommendations but is simply an individual description of some 25,500 state jobs.

RE-TREAD FOR ROADS—Texas Highway Commission has okayed a $20,000,000 program for improving 3,061 miles of existing farm roads.

Age and heavy use has brought need for re-surfacing, bridge widening and shoulder replacement, said the commission.

Texas farm-to-market road system has grown from 3,060 miles in 1948 to the present 38,203 miles.

Voss-Benson Vows Read Here Sunday

Miss Glenna Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Voss, became the bride of Jerry Benson at 3 o'clock in the afternoon Sunday November 30, in the Knox City First Baptist Church.

The Rev. K. E. Woolley, pastor of the Benjamin Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Benson of Benjamin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of imported white lace and white slipper satin. The white lace bodice was fashioned with a sabrina neckline and long sleeves which ended in points at the wrists. The pointed waist front was attached to a skirt of slipper satin and an overskirt of tulle and lace. Her bouquet was a ring of white feathered carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Sarah Scarbrough was maid of honor. She wore a blue embroidered taffeta dress with a fitted bodice and pleated skirt. Her shoes and off-the-face hat were of matching blue.

Mrs. Palmer Brooks Campsey organist, and Mrs. Tommy Abe Watson, pianist provided music as the guests assembled. They also accompanied Miss Glenda Givens, student at Ranger College, when she sang "I Love You Truly" and "Whither Thou Goest".

Tommy Benson of Benjamin served his brother as best man. Ushers were Charles Jennings of Benjamin and Ronald Voss, brother of the bride.

A reception was held at The Woman's Club immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with white lace over blue, and centered with the maid of honor's bouquet on a reflector. The arrangement was flanked by blue candles. The four-tiered cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Jim Bateman of Abilene, Mrs. Frank Pierce of Abilene, and Miss Lydia Cone, student at Hardin-Simmons University.

For a wedding trip to Wichita Falls, the new Mrs. Benson wore a royal blue two-piece crepe suit with red accessories. She wore the orchid from her bouquet as a shoulder corsage.

The couple is at home in Knox City where she is employed at Jones Drug Store and he is employed at Edwards M System grocery.

The bride is a May graduate of Knox City High School. Benson is a graduate of Benjamin High School.

Uncle Ben from Benjamin says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Them fellers in Washington figgers that us farmers and ranchers is sorter dumb, so they make us git up our income tax forms a couple months ahead of everybody else.

On account of me being so ignorant, I used to start on next year's forms as soon as I got this year's in the mail, but now that they got them from simplified down to about 20 pages of fine print I think I can start the first week in December and git it done in plenty of time. I don't know nothing that disturbs a man's peace and interferes with his thinking as bad as trying to rattle with his income tax forms and his conscience at the same time.

I started out at the first of the year putting everything down, so's I wouldn't have a headache with my report like I did last year. I did pritty good for the first week or two. I entered everthing, including the cost of that new spark plug I bought for my tractor and the 18 cents I got for 4 eggs my old lady didn't know I sold. But I've had a heap of bad luck with my records this year. I recollect writing down on the side of the house the cost of some fertilizer I bought, but somebody put his muddy hand on the spot and I can't read it now. Then I always kept a record of my chicken feed costs wrote on the inside of the hen house door, but a wind come along and blowed the door away. And I also had some valuable figures scribbled on the back of my old lady's Sears and Roebuck catalogue, but she let Ed Doolittle's wife have the catalogue and it and my figures went the way of all flesh.

Now when your records git in this shape and you ain't shore whether you owe the Government or the Government owes you, it takes some real solid thinking to fill out them forms.

I reckon, Mister Editor, I'll just have to do like all the other farmers do when they make out their report. I'll just have to rely on my memory, and my memory tells me I owe them folks in Washington about the same as I owed 'em last year. I don't recall eating any more this year than last, and I ain't had no more clothes to wear, and I'm just as broke now as I was a year ago. So I figger if I git out last year's report, add a few cents here, knock off a few there, and make it come out about even with last year. It'll be a honest report.

I'll let you know next week how I come out. Yours truly,
Uncle Ben

Streams In Desert Places

By Orelle Stephens

Many hearts are still giving thanks unto our wonderful Lord, who lacked nothing and who gave all. If your heart is heavy, weighed down with disappointments, fear, or grief, the idea of giving thanks and singing may seem senseless and impossible. It is hard to give thanks and sing when everything seems to be going wrong. But remember, you may find your problems to be blessings in disguise. Sometimes closed doors may turn out to be open gates to God. Difficulties are not realities, but God is reality. And you can be thankful that God is. Whatever your problem, even in the depths of despair, God is your sure help. Thank Him for courage, confidence, and health. If your needs are great, thank Him for abundant supply. Thank Him for the smallest thing that comes your way. He will always make a way for He is "the Way".

HARDWARE & FURNITURE

Corner on Cotton

BY BOB COLLINS

Groups across the cotton belt are holding meetings to explain the new farm legislation as it affects cotton . . . if there is a meeting in your neighborhood (and there probably will be) by all means attend, even if you think you fully understand the bill . . . chances are you'll be the only fellow there who does ! . . . here are answers to some questions that keep popping up:

1. Your acreage change will be based on your 1959 allotment . . . NOT this year's allotment . . . this means that choosers of Option "A" will have to reduce their '58 acreage about eight percent, and "B" choosers will be about 28% more cotton land than they had allotted this year . . . (all this doesn't apply to farmers with 10 acres or less . . . in this group "A" will keep what he's got now and "B" will get a full 40% increase over the '58 acreage) . . . see how confusing it gets?

2. Your choice of Option "A" or "B" is for one year only . . . 1959 . . . the following year you can change your mind if you wish.

3. Nobody can say what the "B" acreage will be 1960 . . . that's up to the Secretary of Agriculture and it depends upon too many things to even hazard a guess.

Still want to know what you should do . . . here is the best advice available: Believe nothing you read about what choice you should make . . . it's an individual problem and no writer can give a solution that is best for all . . . talk to county agents, ginners, farm leaders, cotton buyers, neighbors . . . then when you have facts and opinions from all sources, make up your own mind.

Trash Really Waste?

What's happening to your cotton burs? . . . it could be you are losing all kinds of money by not making use of them, especially if you irrigate . . . recent experiments show that use of burs as fertilizer can increase lint production over 200 pounds per acre . . . they also have other value such as improving water penetration and soil texture.

Cotton Lazy?

Why does the cotton plant ignore about half its squares and blooms? . . . this is coming under investigation . . . if it can be corrected, your crop could be doubled with no extra land needed! ! Gives you an idea of what COULD happen with enough research.

More Cotton Acreage

There's a chance that some of you can get additional cotton acreage by being alert to certain county conditions . . . we'll talk about it next week.

Postmaster Pleased By Early Mailing

Postmaster Jeff Graham is pleased with the prompt response to his recently announced "Mail Early For Christmas" Campaign. He said today, "The biggest single factor in getting all mail delivered before Christmas is the full cooperation of the public in early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts. Post Office facilities have been expanded, extra personnel will be available, and everything is geared up to handle a record Christmas mail in Knox City this year."

With Christmas less than a month away, the postmaster says it's not a bit too soon to start following these three simple rules to insure delivery of your gifts before Christmas: Wrap them securely, address them correctly, and mail them early.

All mail going long distances should be sent well before December 10th, and Christmas packages for local delivery should be mailed by December 15th. Mail all Christmas cards for nearby destinations by a least a week before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Talbott and Kathy spent Thanksgiving in Houston with her mother, Mrs. Green, and her sisters. Mrs. Green returned home with them for a visit.
