KNOX CITY, KNOX COUNTY TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1938

NUMBER 47

SUCCESS

Last Thursday night at the High School Auditorium was one of the largest Lions banquets ever held in this section of the county, when 137 people sat down at the two long tables to enjoy two hours of food, fun and laughter. The banquet was in honor of the 10th Anniversary of the recently organized Knox City Lions Club. President Lion Whittis opened the meeting, and invocation was given by Lion Haymes of Munday, after which the Tail Twisters of the different clubs were introduced.

The clubs from Munday, Seymour and Haskell presented programs during the evening. The Haskell number was two quartettes by high school girls of that city. Seymour's part was several musical numbers on a common hand saw which brought great applause from the large crowd. But the big show of the evening was put on by the Munday Lions with a short three act comedy imitating a WPA project that is so famous in this section. There were about a dozen hard working laborers on the job and the audience enjoyed every minute of the play.

Each Tail Twister introduced their membership. Munday had the largest membership, which consisted of twenty-three. Haskell, Seymour, Creston and Abilene were well represented. Miss Martha Crenshaw, one of the local teachers, gave two interesting readings, and coach Craig Walling gave a number of imitations which received great applause. Mrs. Q. Warren and her twelve-piece orchestra furnished the music for the evening, and the band was prepared and served by the Home Economics Club. They lived up to their reputation by giving the hungry Lions and their wives plenty to eat.

The Charter was then presented by Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, District Governor, of Abilene. In accepting the Charter Lion Whittis asked the cooperation of the entire Lion membership in making this club one of the liveliest in this section of West Texas.

Lion O. L. Jamison acted as toastmaster.

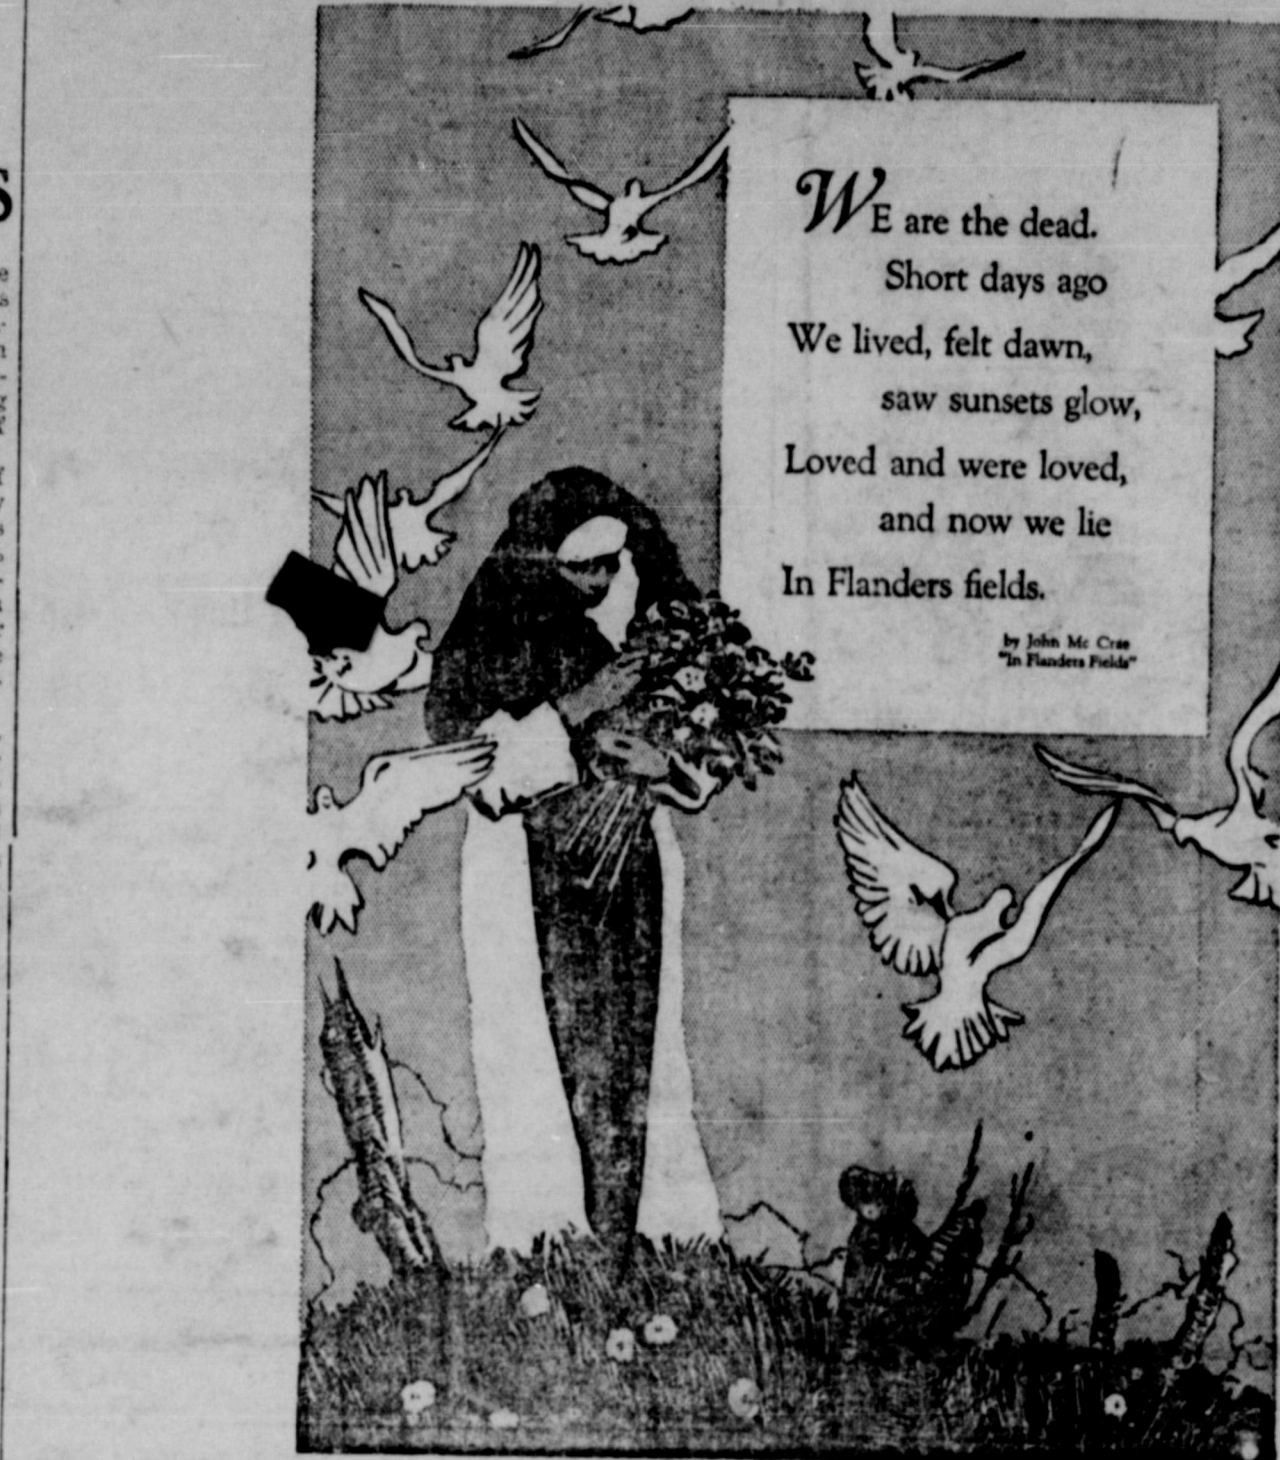

ON TO INAUGURATION

Since W. Lee O'Daniel has been elected Governor, Lloyd Davis, the original man of this section, is making plans to attend the inauguration and will get as many from Knox County as possible to attend. He says he will guarantee front seats and a good time at the street dances. Remember that you must carry your own horse feed and food as suggested by the new Governor, and all will have a good time as the comedy people will be there by the hands. The editor has promised to assist Mr. Davis in making arrangements to carry along the Knox City High School Band.

STORES CLOSE FRIDAY

All grocery and dry goods stores will be closed all day tomorrow in observance of Armistice. The drug stores will observe Sunday hours. A big delegation of Legion boys will attend the celebration at Rule.

We have in stock for your inspection re-conditioned motors of all kinds. Chevrolet any model. Ford A and Ford V-8. Money by buying from us. Leave town? Auto Parts, phone 42.

RED CROSS DRIVE FOR SATURDAY

We are all familiar with the splendid work done by the American Red Cross. Only once each year does the Red Cross go to the people for help, but thousands of times it goes to the people with help.

The record of practical service built up by this humanitarian organization over a period of fifty-seven years speaks for itself. Red Cross is the symbol of safety, healing, succor, and neighborliness without bias.

We should remember that all activities of the organization are dependent upon the support of the people at Roll Call time. Annual Roll Call starts tomorrow, November 11, and we urge that everyone fulfill his obligation of membership.

HERE ONE YEAR

One year ago tomorrow the present editor published the first issue of the Knox County Herald after buying the plant and good-will from H. B. Sweeney. When we assumed charge the plant was in a run-down condition and it required several months for us to get the office equipped as we desired. The people of Knox City were only receiving a four-page weekly newspaper. We immediately doubled the size, printing eight pages, and this we have continued with the exception of a few issues during the past year.

We have received a fair advertising patronage from the business institutions and are thankful to all of them. To those who refuse to patronize us we have only the kindest regards and are sure that as time goes on you will give us some of your business. A newspaper does not belong exclusively to the editor, but is a community enterprise and the public should take an interest in the home town paper regardless of their likes and dislikes for the editor. We have tried to give the people of the town as good a newspaper as any town its size in this section, and we leave this up to our subscribers and advertisers to be the judge. We have not only doubled the size of the paper but our subscription list has almost doubled during the year and we urge all our friends to continue reading the Herald. We promise you in advance that we will strive to make the paper better with each issue. What kind of town would Knox City be if it had no newspaper?

LOOK FOR ADVANCE IN PRICE OF BREAD

A little daughter was born Wednesday at the Knox County Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Odie Karr. They have two boys and with the arrival of the little daughter they both say they are "setting pretty." The price of bread will probably advance within the next few days, as Odie is handing out presents to his many friends.

KILLED IN CAR WRECK

Paul Brothers, one of the men employed on the steel gang on the Brazos river bridge received a telephone call Monday night announcing that his wife, Mrs. Velma Brothers, had been killed in an auto wreck on the Grapevine Highway east of Fort Worth. Their daughter Evelyn, age six, was seriously injured and is now confined to a hospital there. Mr. Brothers left immediately after receiving the message. Mrs. Brothers was only 26 years of age and for several weeks was in Knox City while her husband was working on the bridge. She is survived by her husband and little daughter.

THE ELECTION

Only about one hundred and fifty votes were cast in Knox City Tuesday, notwithstanding the fact that more than five hundred were cast in the primary election. W. Lee O'Daniel was elected governor and only polled 184,000 votes and the Republican candidate only polled about 6,000. The New Deal received a severe setback as the Republicans gained 77 new members in Congress and 15 Senators.

GOVERNMENT COSTS RISE

For five years the cost of State government in Texas has risen sharply, the U. S. census bureau reported this week after an exhaustive study of State finances.

During the five years between 1932 and 1937, the per capita cost of operation and maintenance rose from $11.44 to $17.98, an increase of $6.54 for every man, woman and child in the State in five years.

The tax burden has increased in proportion, from $17.12 per capita in 1932 to $28.79 in 1937, an increase of $11.44.

It is significant that this increase in cost is in connection with ordinary expenses of government, such as operation and maintenance, and does not take into account the new activities of the government in connection with social security.

Every citizen must contribute $6.54 per year year more than he was called upon to pay in 1932.

An investigation to determine the cause of this sharp rise in expenses should be enlightening. The taxation curve has risen much more rapidly than the business. Expenditures have risen much faster than the increase in population.

The figures indicate there is a crying need at Austin for real economy in government. They should tell us also that the people need to understand better how much their government is costing them.

Many of the taxes which provide the revenue to finance the increasingly expensive governmental establishments are hidden, but in the end the man who works for a living pays them.

When this fact is more clearly understood, there will be fewer demands for government benefits and services.

"SET-UP ALIBI" KNOCKED DOWN

Beer tavern owners who furnish "set-ups" to their customers must be liable for the conduct of those customers, Liquor Administrator Bert Fort warned last week.

Several tavern operators, he said, have attempted to evade responsibility for the fights and brawls at their places by claiming they sold no alcoholic beverages, but readily admitting they provided "set-ups" for drinking parties which became rowdy and caused a breach of the peace.

"It is not against the law to provide 'set-ups' but tavern owners are required to police their establishments. The Liquor Board is issuing fair warning to tavern owners that it will not consider the 'set-up' alibi or any similar alibi at suspension or cancellation hearings."

193 CLEMENCIES APPROVED

Typical of a month's work, the October turnover of the State Board of Pardons was reviewed last week by board member T. C. Andrews to give the people an idea of the board's activities.

During October, Judge Andrews said, the board made written recommendation to the Governor for 121 conditional pardons, 11 full pardons, 51 reprieves, and 10 other clemencies, a total of 193 favorable recommendations.

During the period 130 interviews were held with persons seeking clemency for convicts; 1,000 convict files were examined; 1,325 letters urging clemency were received and considered and about 2,250 letters were written to trial officers and others interested in clemency.

This work, Judge Andrews pointed out, is exclusive of the duties of the office of the board at Huntsville, where personal interviews with convicts are had.

150,000 TEXANS BENEFIT UNDER WAGE-HOUR ACT

Approximately 150,000 Texas workers have benefited from the Federal wage-hour law through higher wages or shorter hours, Harry W. Acreman, executive secretary of the State Federation of Labor, estimated last week.

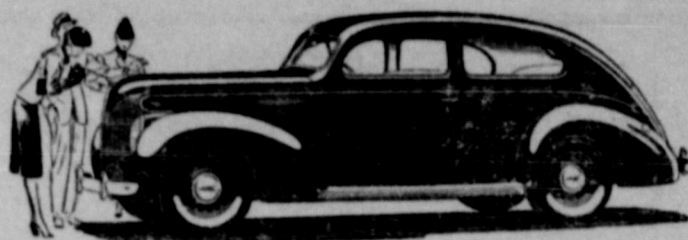

"The Federal law affects only those industries engaged in interstate commerce and therefore covers only about 300,000 workers in Texas," Acreman pointed out.

Since approximately 1,650,000 Texans have secured social security cards, the new law affects only about one-fifth of the Texas workers engaged in fields other than agriculture, domestic service, and government employment.

The only way the remaining 1,350 workers could be assured a minimum wage and a maximum on hours would be through the passage of a state wage-hour law covering all intrastate business, Acreman pointed out.

ARMISTICE DAY

Twenty years ago the joyful news of the Armistice rang around the World. To most of us the time has passed quickly . . . It seems only yesterday that we proudly watched our returning heroes marching home. The cheers and tears of joy are still vividly with us.

But what long, lonesome years they have been to those mourning Gold Star Mothers . . . What tortuous years they have been to those shell-shocked, blinded, maimed and crippled martyrs, many of whom are merely marking time to the relief that will be theirs when taps are finally sounded.

What Price Glory, if they be denied on this, the Twentieth Armistice Anniversary, a dedication of Remembrance.

SHAKESPEARE VS BACON

For many years some have believed that Bacon was the great Shakespeare. Shakespeare had all the virtues of other writers summed up in him, and his rich poetic talent and deep knowledge of human nature raised him above the crowd. He excelled in everything; romantic comedies, chronicle plays bitter comedies with happy endings, soul-stirring tragedies and pastoral tragedies. People were amazed that a poor boy from the country could write greater drama and poetry than all the learned men from the universities and the court circle.

That is probably why some Shakespearean students of the mid-nineteenth century decided that he simply could not have written all those plays and poems. So they said that Sir Francis Bacon was the author instead of Shakespeare. Now Bacon was an able writer, in a serious, logical way, and he was also a great lawyer. He knew the world and was learned in philosophy and science. Yet look through some of his works such as "Advancement of Learning" and you will not find the poet whose airy imagination could conceive "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Despite those things, people still insist that Bacon was Shakespeare. However, there are few scholars today credit that theory. But there are still some who cling to the idea. A few days ago the tomb of Edmund Spenser, who died in 1599, was opened in an effort to settle the controversy of the poets. It is believed that Bacon or Shakespeare placed poems in the tomb. If this were true, the handwriting could be compared with specimens of the penmanship of Bacon.

There were two hitches in their plans. Lawrence Turner, keeper of monuments at Westminster Abbey, did not know the precise spot where Spenser was buried or how deep the grave might be. Also, a manuscript buried more than three hundred years ago might not be readable now.

For three days workmen, under the direction of officials of the Baconian Society, dug for Spenser's casket. Experts decided that the one they found was not his.

The search is ended due to the fact that the Dean of the Abbey does not want further excavations.

So the question still remains. It seems that people forget that Shakespeare was a genius and they hate to admit that a country from Stratford could "go to town."

VOLLEYBALL NEWS

Friday night, November 4, the Sunset girls played Goree and I'm sure Goree was happy the next morning, because they beat Sunset two games straight. The Sunset girls really played punk, much to the disgust of those who saw their first game, in which they really played ball. But even though the girls were defeated, that strengthened their determination to win all of their next games and that means Benjamin Thursday night. At least the girls say they are going to stay awake from now on. Everyone come and see the Sunset girls beat the Benjamin Mustangs.

—Nellie Louise Prather

SENIOR BASKETBALL BOYS

The Eagles ran up against a little hard luck last Friday night. They did not play the brand of ball they have been playing. The first quarter, with Howard Myers rapidly ringing the goal, the Eagles were 8 to 0 in the lead. At the half the score was 11 to 5 with the Eagles still in the lead. During the third quarter, Strickland was fouled off in about two minutes of play, and from then on till the end of the game the Wildcats led in the scoring. The Eagles promise that in the next game you will see a different team in action.

Sunset teams will play the Knox City Greyhounds Tuesday in the Knox City gym.

Thursday night of this week Sunset teams will play the Benjamin Mustangs at Sunset.

There will be no games Friday night, November 11.

SENIOR REPORT

The Seniors have finished reading Macbeth and have started working on their contracts.

Work has also been started on the annuals for this year. This work should go over with a bang, because all of them are going to act as salesmen.

They also think that they will know how to vote if they ever get an opportunity, since they visited the election polls Tuesday morning. Some seem to think that they would like to have a job acting as judge at an election.

JUNIOR REPORT

The Juniors have been busy the past week pursuing regular class work. In English the study of biographies has been completed and Grammar study is to be taken up. In History the study of the tariffs of the United States has proven to be rather interesting, although a bit tedious. The class has been working hard, as they have observed the nearness of the six-weeks exams.

NEW MEMBERS ON EAGLES ECHO STAFF

Since the basketball season opened, two new members are added to the Eagles Echo staff. They are Ausa Cluck, who writes the Boys Basketball News, and Nellie Prather, who writes the Girls Volleyball News.

These two new members were not elected until recently due to the coaches request that the respective teams be permitted to select their own reporters.

We are all very glad to have these two new members on our staff.

NEWS OF THE CLASSES

The first grade pupils have been building houses for their pets. Several have completed their pet's house and are very happy about it because it has been such cold weather. Many in the class made nice booklets about their pets and other animals that are good pets. They are now making toy pets from thin boards.

Ruby McWhorter has some nice new glasses to help her eyes. Betty Ruth Montgomery has come to our school from East Texas, and the first grade pupils are glad to have her.

The second grade pupils are working on an Indian unit. They are learning many interesting things about the redskins. They are making costumes to use in a play for Thanksgiving.

The third grade pupils are enjoying their Thanksgiving booklets. They are practicing on a play "Bobby Thanksgiving" for a chapel program.

Last week the sixth grade gave a play "The Pumpkin Hill Grammar School Graduation." It was really good.

We are sorry to hear that Winona Cheek's mother is in the hospital.

Friday Mrs. N. T. Underwood was called to Paint Rock because of her mother's illness. Mrs. J. T. Sykes is teaching music in her place this week.

Wendell Partridge got his read cut when the cellar door fell on it. The doctor took nine stitches. He is back in school, however, this week.

The seventh grade is glad to have W. C. Stephens back in school. The seventh grade was very disappointed because Sunset lost all three games Friday night to Goree. They believe we will win the next time.

Laughing Around the World

With IRVIN S. COBB

Not the Order of the Bath

By IRVIN S. COBB

NO DOUBT the reader is familiar with the old classic of the professor in a certain theological college who did not hold by the maxim that cleanliness is next to godliness. In fact, within the cloistered precincts of the institution which he served, he had the reputation of being the uridiest among all known living men. One morning on the campus a student hailed a companion:

"Did you hear the news? Old Prexy Smith took a bath this morning."

"Well," said the second student, "he may have taken one but I'll bet by now he's put it back."

I hasten to couple with the above a kindred yarn which I know to have been based upon an actual happening. In a small city which we will not name, there lived a maiden lady who, for convenience, shall here be called Miss Henrietta Blank. She was of an old family and she was prominent in club life. In fact, so constantly was she engaged by her communal activities that, according to local rumor, she rarely found time for applying soap and water to her neck and ears.

On a certain occasion a patriotic organization, of which she was a member was holding a session. Miss Blank was not present. The presiding officer, a lady civilly celebrated for her ready wit, was delegated to choose the members for a special committee, whose duty it would be to look after some detail or other, newly arisen.

After deliberation she made this announcement:

"For the members of this committee I shall name Mrs. Major Jones, Mrs. Dr. Robinson and Miss Henrietta Blank."

"Oh, Madam Chairman," put in a member, "I'm sure I do not wish to be unkind, but this is really a very important matter where decision is needed and prompt action. Don't you think you should substitute someone else for dear Miss Henrietta—she's so 'washy-washy!'"

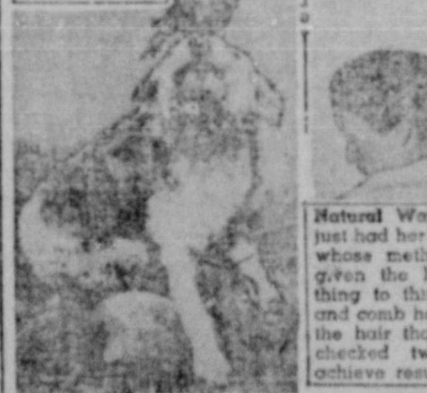

The presiding officer's report was instantaneously delivered:

"The person in question may be 'washy,' she said, "but the Lord in Heaven knows she is not 'washy!'"

THE AWFUL PRICE YOU PAY FOR BEING NERVOUS

Quivering nerves can make you old and haggard looking, cranky and hard to live with—can keep you awake nights and rob you of good health, good times and jobs.

What you may need is a particularly good woman's tonic—and could you ask for anything whose benefits are better proved than those of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and that help calm your shrieking nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again. More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to get "smiling days" trying from the past 3 generations? IT MUST BE GOOD!

Chevrolet Takes Big Strides Ahead for 1939

New Aero-stream styled bodies combine with major mechanical improvements to provide new beauty, safety, comfort and operating ease, in the 1939 Chevrolets, presented October 22, and featured at the big auto shows this month. The new models are offered on two chassis, the Master De Luxe and the Master 85, both of which are powered with Chevrolet's famous six-cylinder valve-in-head engine.

A new vacuum gear shift mechanism with steering column control, optional on all models at small extra cost, does 80 per cent of the work of shifting gears. The Master De Luxe series features a new riding system, in which a brand new Chevrolet Knee-Action mechanism is scientifically co-ordinated with new ride stabilizer and double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers to furnish a smooth, soft ride.

Central picture is the new Master De Luxe Sport Sedan. Upper right: front end view of the 1939 car; Upper left: Master De Luxe front suspension unit, complete. Lower left: accessibility and finger-tip ease of operation are two major features of Chevrolet's vacuum gear shift with steering column control. Lower right: As the handbrake on all models is re-located under the cowl, front compartment floor is cleared in cars with vacuum gear shift.

The HEADLINES Say:

Here's how President Roosevelt's telephoneless "dream house" will look. Architectural rendering was completed from plans the President sketched with his own hand. Of Dutch Colonial design, the house is built of brown and gray-gold fieldstones topped with a blue-black asphalt shingle roof.

Who's Afraid of October 3, 1927?—Nobody, of course. Can't even remember that day, can we? So, we must have mastered its problem in our stride—and life went smoothly on. Yet, there was a time when some people feared October 3, 1927, because some people always fear the future.

Now—TODAY is here. What a thing of promise to Americans is each new day! Opportunities beyond the dreams of our forefathers. Comforts and conveniences beyond the reach of peoples of other nations. Each day providing well-earned moments of leisure to plan our personal contributions to America's tomorrow. Anheuser-Busch, Inc., in their current drive to "Sell America to Americans" hopes that this message will reawaken public confidence in the future of this country.

METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday of this Conference year. The pastor will leave on the following Wednesday for Annual Conference at Memphis. The Conference will continue through Sunday, November 20. Following the custom of other Texas Conferences this Fall, the appointments will probably be read on Sunday afternoon. There are approximately 250 appointments in the Northwest Texas Conference. This will be the last session of the Southern Methodist Conference for us, since we have united with the M. E. and M. P. churches and have become the Methodist church. All Methodist pastors are appointed for one year only, and next Sunday will be the close of the year. Either the present pastor will be reappointed or another preacher will be in charge.

Next Sunday at 11 a. m. we have invited all ex-service men and their families to be our guests of honor. Just twenty years ago they turned toward home again. Many who went away never came back. We shall earnestly pray that never again shall our young men be called to lay down their lives in a selfish, bloody war. We invite everyone who is not to be in church somewhere else next Sunday morning to come to ours.

Schedule for the day:
Church School, 9:45 a. m.
Preaching, 11 a. m.
Intermediate Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.
Senior Epworth League, 6:30 p. m.
Preaching, 7:15 p. m.

POPPY DAY

Poppy Day is now observed throughout the U. S. It is an event of national importance to every citizen of our liberty loving country. It is one of the most important days in our calendar year, though few regard it as such. Many pay tribute to the unknown soldier and the dead of the war on Armistice Day. They also place wreaths of honor at the tomb of the unknown soldier. However, there are many who do not have that chance and honor.

What are poppies? The poppy is the flower that grew out of that desolate and forlorn waste called Flanders Field. The destruction of battle did not hinder its growth. The atmosphere of hate did not alter its beauty. Instead, there grew from that soil, stained by blood of men, a flower simple yet beautiful. Its color was red as blood. It seemed that the energy giving moisture of fallen men who had fought and died for right or might was returning as a symbol of war's futility. Does it not seem odd that this one flower should find growth and existence where nothing else grows? It seems as though it were planted by the hand of a Divine Being.

So let us observe the flower day of war veterans. Let us all contribute in our small way to aid those who once aided us. That can be our small way of showing our humble gratitude. The cry of the civilized is "Let liberty reign!"

The "M" in Might can never be substituted for the "R" in Right.

KNOX CITY VS BOMARTON

There has been some comment that the followers of the City Greyhounds never when the team is going away. Sometimes this is undesirable but as often as possible the school is going to advertise the games so everyone will know just when they will have an opportunity to see the boys play.

Every Friday night until Christmas, except on holidays, the teams will be seen in action. As often as games can be matched there will be games on Tuesday nights. The Brazos Valley League Schedule however has games in Knox City with the Greyhounds matched with Bomarton this Thursday night because of Armistice. There will be three games, between the Junior Boys basketball teams, the Senior Girls volleyball teams, and Senior Boys basketball teams. On November 18 the same teams go to Goree for a League engagement with their teams. Then on December 2 Knox City plays host to their arch rivals, the teams from O'Brien.

The League schedule is culminated on December 9 with games between the two leaders of each division, but on every Tuesday night and every Friday night the fans may see the local teams in action either on this or some neighboring court. The games, when played here, will be advertised either in the paper or by poster.

SENIOR PERSONALITY

By Geneva Walker

Lillian Valene Hutchinson

Lillian was born at Knox City on October 8, 1920. She has blue eyes, brown hair, and is five feet and four inches tall.

Lillian has spent the past ten years as a student in the Knox City school and will complete her eleventh year here this year. Her favorite color is dubonette; her favorite subject is bookkeeping; her favorite sports are basketball and football, and her favorite hobbies are collecting poems and making scrapbooks.

Lillian hates for people to pry into things which do not concern them.

Lillian has made no definite plans for the future.

LIONS BANQUET A SUCCESS

The Knox City Lions Club entertained their wives and visiting Lions Thursday night in the High School Gymnasium, with Mr. O. L. Jamison acting as toastmaster.

Beside each plate there was a program and a Lions cap. Mr. Wetzel, the Tail Twister, furnished amusement as he passed out special editions of the Knox County Herald to the visitors. The table was beautifully decorated with vases of autumn leaves and flowers. The Knox City High School Orchestra furnished music all through the meal.

The Home Economics Club girls prepared and served the food. Each girl was dressed in black skirts, white blouses and black ties. Their menu consisted of fruit cocktail, baked chicken, cranberries, green beans, dressing, baked potatoes, hot rolls, hot coffee and pumpkin pie.

The Club made a profit of forty-eight dollars, and they plan to use the money for entertainment and improvement of the Home Economics department.

A highly touted Benjamin Junior Boys basketball team was held to a 14 to 7 score by the local junior team Friday night in the high school gymnasium. Favored to win by a lopsided score, the visiting team had difficulty in breaking victory from a stubborn Greyhound team.

The visitors led all the way but were never far enough in the lead to be safe. Knox City took a one point lead when they held for the balance of the first quarter, but Rutledge of Benjamin sank a field goal to take the lead that was threatened but never overtaken.

Pete Rutledge, a Greyhound of last year, and now of Benjamin, was high point man of the contest with seven points, Lynwood Hughes of Knox City was second with five points.

The locals were ragged all through the game, but slow opportunity for improvement that may spell victory in the future.

MUSTANGS WIN OVER GREYHOUNDS

Friday night the Greyhound volleyball team played the Mustang team of Benjamin. In the first game the Knox City girls got warmed up, but not quite soon enough. Benjamin won the game by several points. The second game was a very exciting one and both teams did some excellent playing. But it seemed that the home team simply had not practiced as they should have, and the game ended with a score of 13 to 15 in favor of Benjamin.

A BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF K. C. H. S.

If a visitor were to come into our midst he would probably be surprised at what he would find. Don't get the wrong impression, the entire high school really has a grand appearance. What I mean is the impression he might receive from the different students. If you were a visitor, and you had Mary Helen Evans as a guide to show you the sights around the campus, you would probably see faces that reflected the bright light of education in the making. If one looked close enough there might be detected under that bright surface other matters which would be of interest. Upon looking into the bright and shining countenance of Rowena Hutchinson anyone would instantly notice an air of complete happiness and joy for reasons unknown to us. Harold Daniels is nothing less than a bundle of energy, but unfortunately he expends that energy in anything but an educational way. In Clifford Cornett we find a true Freshman with a strange resemblance to the radio star, Charlie McCarthy. Emma Jean Shaver, Tomi Jane Teaff and Billy Jean Hamner give one the impression of the three blind mice trying diligently to gain knowledge without working. Jean Anne Smith and Marjorie are certainly assets to our little family of scholars, in spite of the fact that they evidently have other interests elsewhere. After this view of the study hall, Mary Helen would take you into the Home Economics department where the Junior girls are earnestly trying to learn the fundamentals of the art of home-making. In spite of burned fingers and cakes that fall, Zena, Anita and Ernestine still continue their dreams of one day having their own little homes. Going on up the stairs you would undoubtedly find yourself in the English IV class where Mr. Shumaker toils at the task of instilling knowledge in the heads of the brilliant Seniors. It is in this class that we find the most adept of our day dreamers and note writers. Chief among the day dreamers are Pearl Hendrix and Doris Apple. Hastily leaving this class of young intellectuals, Mary Helen will take you on out of the building, with warnings not to step on the grass, and escort you over to the gym where the girl athletes of the school are practicing volleyball. Before leaving you are sure to be shown the office of the "Kennel" where you find the "cream of the crop" among the lazy element of the school. When you have seen the workings of this little group of news writers you will no doubt want to be on your way. Mary Helen will then take you to the office of Mr. Whittis where you take your leave and receive an invitation to return at any time you can.

BAND TO COMPETE IN RULE ARMISTICE

The Greyhound band has been invited to take part in the American Legion Festival at Rule on the 11th. The band will appear in the parade and in the Band Marching contest. It is to be remembered that the Greyhounds won first honor in this event last year and are expecting to repeat again this year.

FOURTH GRADE ORGANIZES CLUB

The fourth grade organized a Citizenship Club Monday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Henry L. White; Vice President, Sam Emory; Secretary, Lee Rue.

Mr. Shumaker was the week's principal in Denton.

Mrs. Baker attended the S. M. U. vs A. and M. football game in Dallas Saturday.

Wynette Farmer spent the week end in Dallas where she attended the S. M. U. vs A. and M. football game.

Mr. Walling spent the week end in Canyon at the homecoming of W. T. S. T. C.

Mr. Wetzel refereed a ball game in Munday Friday night.

KNOX CITY TROUNCES BENJAMIN

With the starting whistle the Greyhounds with the speed and regularity that caused them to choose that name and symbol began pouring the ball through the hoop to thoroughly sew up their game with Benjamin by a score of 32 to 12. The score is not a true picture of the equal strength of the two clubs, for the ragged passing of the local club held the score down.

In the first minute of play Benedict started the scoring under the Benjamin basket, and the boys were not headed until the half, when the score stood 20 to 2. In the second half the Mustangs from Benjamin held the Greyhounds to 12 points, while they themselves were getting 11 points. The reserves for Knox City played the majority of the last half and were more potent at that stage than the starting club. The game was marked by fouling; Dutton and Clarke leaving the game by the foul route.

All members of the local quintet saw action. L. N. Bridges was able to get back in the lineup after not seeing action for a week because of a charley-horse on his leg.

EYE to EYE in your own living room, Your Mileage Merchant would unblinkingly talk this same good sense about saving your car's battery and oil by changing now to WINTER OIL-PLATING

CONOCO Germ Processed oil specifically OIL-PLATES your engine for winter. . . no other oil does. And winter OIL-PLATING specifically cuts down on draggy "starts," battery exhaustion and oil extravagance, for these specific reasons:

The Germ Process sets up a strong force of attraction between this oil and every engine surface. Even the upright surfaces instantly attract Germ Processed oil in the form of OIL-PLATING that can't drain down during the longest, coldest parking. Your starter speeds from the first, because before you've even got out your key, your engine is ready-lubricated by slippery OIL-PLATING. Never letting loose, OIL-PLATING can't shoot out of the engine, but remains a help to your oil-level—one of the smartest reasons for changing to Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco Germ Processed oil. Patented—your one way to change to WINTER OIL-PLATING!

I GIVE YOU TEXAS . . .

By Boyce House

If Fort Worth doesn't have the meanest man in Texas, they have one who will give someone a race for the "honor."

Cowtown has parking meters and one of them is in front of a barber shop. When the negro porter notices that the time is out and a policeman is coming, he hurries out and puts in another nickel. When the car owner returns and finds that he has saved a dollar fine, he rewards the shine boy. But the other day, a man growled:

"I didn't ask you to drop in a nickel for me"—and drove away without even giving the darker his money back.

The newest old age pension organization is the "Committee of 240,000", organized by Buck
Taylor, well known in South Texas newspaper and Chamber of Commerce circles, who announced as a hitch-hiking candidate for Governor last summer but withdrew. Taylor says all over the age of 65 should receive $30 a month, and he wants it retroactive to the date that the old age pension was adopted, which would mean a lump payment of $720 to those who have received no pensions.

"The time has arrived," he declares, "when the politicians have got to play ball with the old people. They must hit or get off the lot."

Returned to Ranger for the homecoming and the crowds looked like the big oil boom had come back. An interested observer was Ed T. Cox, Sr., of Eastland, who has spent several years (and is still busy) in compiling data for a history of Eastland County. He lamented the fact that all of those who had played a leading part in early events had passed away.
That is one of the difficulties facing the historian: the reconstruction of a bygone day with information gleaned from old newspapers, faded letters and the uncertain memories of those who learned the facts at second hand.

Amon Carter, Fort Worth's
famous newspaper publisher, is the subject of an article appearing this month in a national magazine.

Noticed where the price of crude oil was cut rather heavily but it costs just as much per gallon to fill the gas tank.

Several years ago when I was reporting the news on the federal run in Fort Worth, I used to talk to "Uncle Doug", a gray-haired, kindly man who had been a federal officer for 40 years. He had known and arrested many notorious "bad men." But so great was his modesty that he couldn't be induced to say a word if he saw a pencil and notebook. One day I said:

"Somebody is going to write a book about these things sometime and how are people going to read the true story unless the men who are the only ones having the information will tell it? You and I aren't getting any younger and I wish you'd help me. I'd like to write that book."

He agreed that there was weight in the argument but, next day, I was called away for a week. Upon returning, I read the back numbers of the paper to catch up on happenings, and there I saw his picture and writeup. Uncle Doug had died.

While attending the Lions banquet at the school building last Thursday night, Supt. A.
M. White took time out to show us through the entire new building that was erected last year. It is a beauty and the people of Knox City are indeed proud of it.

else in the world. And therefore, it is significant that so many famous stars use Calox Tooth Powder. Calox is made specifically to give teeth a real beauty polish. It contains five cleansing and polishing ingredients.
