P. T. A. Halloween Carnival

The outstanding recreational event sponsored annually by the Parent-Teacher Association is the Halloween Carnival. This year the carnival promises to be even greater and by far more exciting than in previous years.

The big night will be Wednesday of next week, October 31. The parade will be in the afternoon immediately after school with all the school children participating. Other parade features will be added so be in town next Wednesday afternoon.

Booths will be arranged in front of the stores on each side of the streets and the pop corn and peanut man will be on every corner. Among the many and varied sights to view this year will be an art gallery, a swimming match, a hair raising event domino parlor, vaudeville show and many others.

The proceeds of this carnival will be used by the Parent-Teacher Association for the Knox City schools. Every dollar will be used to its greatest advantage in furthering the work of the school. In view of this fact it behooves every parent to not only allow his children to attend the carnival but to do so himself. It will be an enjoyable occasion, and at the same time become a blessing.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Church of Christ has been going forward nicely for the past few months under the direction and leadership of our minister, Brother Wilburn Hill, who, as most people know, is employed in the Sunset public school system. We have been following our old schedule with only a slight variance now and then. Brother Hill is able to be with us for both services on Sunday and our mid-week service on Wednesday evening. For some few Sunday nights he has been following a chain of old Testament characters from which practical and valuable lessons may be ascertained by every individual of to day, and he expects to follow this same chain for some few succeeding Sunday evenings.

Our mid-week service is always beneficial and conducive to further Bible study and greater effort. We are now making a somewhat systematic study of first Corinthians usually progressing one chapter in each evening's study. Brother Hill has charge of this class.

The ladies also have not been idle. Last week a representative group met and quilted in the home of Mrs. Clark. The quilt to be presented to the Boles Orphan Home. Next week they expect to meet again for the same purpose in the home of Mrs. Dearing and both quilts are to be presented together.

BROUGH WATERMELON WEIGHS 36 POUNDS

Despite the drought of the year farmer T. S. Nesbit raised an abundance of watermelons, some weighing near 50 pounds.

Tuesday morning Mr. Nesbit presented the Herald family with a 36 pound melon, stating that he had sold around a thousand melons this year and that many of them were as large and larger than the 36 pound melon.

Mr. Nesbit lives on the Foshee farm there and one half mile north east of the city. He planted his melon patch in his cotton rows but happened to receive sufficient rainfall to grow the melons.

HAVE YOU WEIGHED TODAY?

According to Statistics in Knox City Wednesday, "Have you weighed today" was a tabulated fact and every person was justified in asking just anybody the question.

Were it not for the throng of rail-clad women and girls clamoring for the other fellow's weight, one would have thought that the people in Knox City were becoming most anxious about the other person's health.

Strangers in the city Wednesday were no exceptions to the anxious contestants. They were asked the question "have you weighed today" just the same as was the old codger who has lived here a lifetime.

Then, there are some people who think it doesn't pay to advertise. Any article, regardless, described adequately, presented to the public in a pleasing manner or priced at a bargain rate, will attract the physical eye and people will be clamoring to receive, acquire by votes or purchase the article.

Guests in the W. E. Elliott home Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Mabry Lackey of Avoca, Mrs. Exa Bates, Mrs. Mayme Jones and Mrs. Lottie Lackey of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Proctor of Dundee and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Strickland of Munday.

Misses Mildred Dutton and Hazel Jones and Brother Stovall, Mr. John Dutton being in the crowd, attended the home coming of Hardin-Simmons University Friday of last week. They also attended the Baylor U and Simmons football game Friday night.

Mr. Robert Park of Abilene was here Sunday with his father E. L. Park, and other relatives. Mrs. Bob Park stopped in Munday where she visited her mother.

KNOX CITY C. OF C. ENDORSE W. R. ELY FOR STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER

The Knox City Chamber of Commerce at its regular monthly luncheon passed a resolution of commendation on the present State Highway Commission. R. Ely.

TWO KNOX CITY FAMILIES MOVE TO QUIMADO

Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hammock and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Teague and children left Knox City for Quemado Texas.

Mr. Hammock hopes to find the land productive and the climate agreeable to his health as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thornton moved Tuesday morning to the G. D. McCarty home where they will be for one week. They will then go to the home of Mrs. C. B. Teague and infant daughter are well enough to make the trip to Quemado. They then will join the Hammock family there.

Among the out of town guests to be present will be Mrs. Nat G. Rallins, who is president of the Northwest Texas Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cleveland of Beaumont Texas and their son Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland of Tulsa Oklahoma were in Knox City over the weekend visiting in the Ed Shaver home. They were accompanied by Jonesboro by Mother Anderson where she is visiting relatives.

Reduction In Electric Rate Given K C

Hon. Mayor and City Commission, City of Knox City, Knox City, Texas.

Gentlemen: Due to the constantly increasing public objection to the present residential rate structure, the West Texas Utilities Company now proposes a plan to change this rate from the room count schedule to a block rate schedule, which we believe will meet the desires of our customers.

In order to make this change in rate form, it is necessary that we make some rate reductions to prevent raising a large number of three and four room customers. It is proposed to drop the rate 2c on the first step and 1c on the second step for lighting, making the new rate to any size house 10c per kilowatt hour for the first twenty five kilowatt hours, 6c per kilowatt hour for the next twenty five kilowatt hours, and all in excess at 4c per kilowatt hour, unless they have an electric range or electric heating, in which case all service used will be at 9c for the first twenty five kilowatt hours, 6c for the next twenty five kilowatt hours, and 3c per kilowatt hour for all over the first fifty.

This gives a very simple rate structure and while it does not equalize the cost of serving as correctly as does the room count rate from which has been universally adopted over the United States, it does provide an easy, understandable or incentive rate which this company feels will be more helpful in the development of increased business, or more unrestricted use of its service.

Our main purpose now is to increase our sales of electric service and bring back the revenue which will be lost through this proposed reduction and change, as well as increased Governmental expenses. We have found that over the last eight or ten years, our consumption per residential customer has more than doubled, yet we are not collecting as much in dollars and cents per customer as we did when they used less than one half as much service. While we have materially improved service, and have supplied a large increased amount of service. Government statistics show that the utility industry collects from the domestic customer only about 1 per cent of his total household budget expenditure, while the investment by utility companies in facilities to render such service a many times that required of other household items, such as food or clothing, for which the customer pays over twenty times as much.

Utility companies, through private capital and private initiative, supply more electric service in the United States than is supplied from any other source in all the rest of the world; and yet it is surprising to learn that this nation pays $100,000,000 more for the single item of tobacco alone than it does for the total of all household electric service supplied in the United States.

The West Texas Utilities Company believes that in changing from the room count rate schedule, which it proposes to do in all of its 160 communities within the next few months, it can improve its customer relations and sell an increased amount of service. It is with this in mind that we submit for your approval the attached new residential rate schedule. We propose to make this rate change effective with the billing rendered from meter readings covering October consumption.

Your acceptance and approval of this rate will be appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

adv.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Juleh, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Hooten of Tulsa Texas were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gilbreth one day last week.

Today and Tomorrow

SILVER—and trade boom

The Chinese Government has protested to the United States Government against the policy of buying silver, which has forced the price of the metal up in the world markets to nearly 60 cents an ounce. China has levied an export tax on silver, so much was being drawn out of that country.

Regular readers of this column will remember that I pointed out, more than three years ago, that an increase in the price of silver to its pre-war average would make it impossible for China and other silver-bearing countries to compete unfairly with the gold-standard nations in international trade. The silver policy adopted at Washington has had just that effect.

As an amateur economist, I want to register another guess about international money. It will not be very long now before France devalues the franc again, and other gold-standard nations will follow suit. Then a complete equalization of the values of the currencies of all nations will be possible and international trade will begin to boom again all over the world.

PRODUCTION—distribution

One good result of the depression, and the consequent efforts of thousands of intelligent thinkers to find out what caused it and how to prevent another one is that we have learned, for the first time, a lot of facts that nobody knew about our economic system.

When we have all the facts maybe somebody can do something about it, though it takes a long time for facts to become generally known. A lot of loose talk has been heard in the past few years about over production. Men have been disciplined for denying that America was producing more goods than we could consume. But now it has been ascertained with what seems to me convincing definiteness, that in almost every line of industry the equipment for production is far below what would be needed if everybody were to be supplied with all the goods he needs.

The problem is not distribution, and that is not going to be solved in a day. But I think we are coming out of the depression with a great deal more accurate knowledge on this and many other economic problems.

WAR—doubtful

Maybe, by the time this appears in print, ten nations of Europe will be flying at each other's throats, but I doubt it. I do not believe that the assassination of King Alexander of Yugoslavia will precipitate a war. That is not to say, however, that no European country wants something that it can only get by going to war.

I was in Italy a couple of years ago. Everywhere I saw and heard evidence that Mussolini's government wants to control the eastern coast of the Adriatic, which is Yugoslavia. Also, I heard much talk about Italy's desire to regain the whole Riviera, as far west as Marseilles from France. Italy wants to control the sea routes of the Mediterranean and is jealous of any other nation that might have a motive in shutting her off from supplies of fuel oil, coal and the products of her African colonies.

If Europe had recovered financially from the last war, the present situation would look more warlike to me. I don't think any nation except possibly France, could finance a war at this time; nor do I believe any of them wants to fight.

PEACE—resolutions

I have to smile, though somewhat sadly, at the numerous peace movements among well-meaning persons who haven't the remotest notion of the cause of war. Ladies' sewing circles adopting resolutions against war will never bring peace.

I counted up a while ago the major wars that had been fought in the world since the United States declared its independence. They totalled more than thirty. Our nation was only involved in seven of them. But let some able propagandist convince the people of the United States that some other nation is treading on our toes, or threatening to deprive us of some of our rights on the seas, and see how quickly the young men of America will rush to enlist for war!

I do not expect to live to see the next threat against the world's peace removed. My great-grand-children, if such there be, will not see it. Meanwhile, peace societies will continue resolutions but wise statesmen will be preparing for war in time of peace.

JOHNSON—then and now

I am not one of those who believe that the moral standards of the human race are deteriorating. I don't know if it would say they're improving, but, taken by and large, I think there is little difference between the morals of 1934 and those of the period of my own adolescence, say 1884.

The principal difference is that people talk and write more about breaches of morals than they used to in the days when such things were not discussed in public. Boys and girls behave about the same as they used to, and I think about the only difference is that there is less parental restraint. There are more divorces, true, but that doesn't signify that there weren't as many ground for divorce fifty years ago as now. It is simply that it is no longer regarded as disgraceful to be divorced.

Just now many things are done and exploited publicly that used to be regarded as strictly private affairs. The pendulum will swing back as it has many times in the course of history, and we shall see another era of hushing up moral lapses instead of magnifying or glorifying them.

UNION GROVE H. D. C. NEWS

The Union Grove Womens Home Demonstration club met October 19 at the home of Mrs. J. S. Wilson. Lea, Mrs. Jim Gipson, Mrs. Clyde and Bill Wilson, Miss Florence Cornett and Mrs. W. D. Loper.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Arnold spent Sunday with relatives in Anson.

It is evident this week that Cecil Coats, now manager of the service station formerly owned by John Hyde Cecil had an undue amount of water and air customers his first day, Wednesday, but considering he was so courteous to those customers on the FREE jobs, they will doubtless return for gas and oil.

Mrs. B. L. Leaverton spent the past weekend in Lubbock with her daughter Miss Essie Mae. Friday and Saturday were home coming days for Tech.

The 4-H club girls and women will give a Halloween carnival Friday night, October 26. Everyone is invited and urged to come.

G. S. Foshee and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Foshee of Kentucky have been guests in the T. S. Nesbitt home for the past three weeks. They plan to return to Kentucky the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. O. Pewitt were called to the bedside of their sister-in-law last Tuesday, Mrs. J. H. Pewitt. She died Saturday night. Mrs. Pewitt was the wife of Bob's brother, who had been married only one month. She was 16 years old. Burial was made Monday in Allen, Oklahoma.

During the month of November the Greyhounds are playing three games at home, all of them with rival schools: Rule, Rochester and Monday. We believe that all of these games will be worth your time and money if you see them.

As most of you know it is especially difficult to put out a squad at this time because of financial conditions. We have been notified by our sporting goods concern that unless we make some payments on our bill it will be impossible to secure or purchase any more goods.

If these demands cannot be met then our athletics must give way to something else. It is our desire to give the boys and girls of our High School all the advantages we can. We want to have our school represent 43 in all the sports we can, but it will take money.

All that we ask is each and every one of you who can please attend these games and help us by paying your quarter at the gate. At our last game here we lost something like $25.00 from people who stayed out in the streets in cars and those who came in anyhow without paying.

 He's no diplomat.

USE YOUR HEAD

A woodpecker pecked out a great many pecks, of sawdust when building a hut;
 He works like a nigger to make the hole bigger
 He's sore if his cutter won't cut.
 He won't bother with plans of cheap artisans.
 But there's one thing can rightly be said.
 The whole excavation has this explanation—
 He builds it by using his head.

AS OTHERS THINK

Great lives and great ages never grow from hopes.
 The trouble with America right now is that we are afraid.
 To be a good American, you have to live aboard.
 The alumni want higher ideals and more football.
 Your greatest discovery will be when you find yourself.
 Anybody who says the theatre is dead is crazy.
 A man should live to be two hundred if he takes good care of himself.

Everybody will be crazy in 105 years if the present insanity increase continues.

Your Health

Austin, Texas Oct. 10, Nature has revealed priceless secrets to students of medical science, stated Dr. John W. Brown, Stat Health Officer. The Schick test is the key to one of these secrets. It determines whether children are susceptible or immune to diphtheria. The medicine used consists of a highly diluted form of diphtheria toxin, several drops of which are carefully introduced between the outer layers of the skin, on the inner surface of the forearm.

This susceptibility test is entirely harmless. Fifty times the amount used for a child would be necessary to injure a small animal such as a mouse or guinea pig. The read area is Nature's danger signal. Such a child, if exposed to diphtheria, might acquire the disease.

Seventy-five to 90 per cent of children under 12 are naturally susceptible to diphtheria. This information has been gained through Schick tests carried out on thousands of children in this country during the past decade or more. Young children should therefore receive immunizing treatments against the disease, without a preliminary Schick test. Such a test should however, be carried out six months after preventive treatments, to make certain that immunity has been established.

In older children and adults, a preliminary Schick test is advisable, since immunity may already be present.

During 1933, 632 children died of diphtheria in Texas. Nature has revealed the secret of susceptibility through the Schick test. With the knowledge of susceptibility, diphtheria could be reduced to the vanishing point if parents would have their family physician protect their children.
