Farm Labor Needed Over Entire State

With grain sorghum harvest, plowing and wheat drilling all under way in the Panhandle, there is an acute need for help in several counties. Rains of the past week have retarded this work. Tractor drivers, feed shockers, and year around hands are needed in Dalain, Hansford, Hartley, Armstrong, Carson, Deaf Smith, Randall, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Oldham, Castro, Farmer, Swisher, and Potter Counties.

In the High Plains cotton area all counties except Dalay report sufficient labor at this time. Cotton pickers will be needed in parts of the area around September 25.

Wilbarger County in the low rolling Plains needs 400 cotton pickers. Other counties needing this type labor are: Kent, Knox, Stonewall, Clay, Fisher, and Jones. Rains have retarded farm work in parts of the area.

Kaufman County is in acute need of cotton pickers. Picking was retarded in Denton, Tarrant, Ellis, Hill, Navarro, McLennan, and Williamson Counties by rains. When the weather permits cotton pickers will be needed in several of the larger counties of this area.

Cotton picking has started in the Pecos valley. Pickers are needed in Pecos, Reeves, Loving and Ward Counties. Howard County expects to start picking September 25.

A shortage of cotton pickers now exists in Calhoun County. Pickers are leaving Refugio and Nueces Counties.

Trucks and drivers are needed for rice hauling in Galveston. Cotton picking has started in Red River County but rains stopped this after the first of last week. Bowie County needs pickers and Cass County needs labor for sweet potato digging.

To September 10th, the migratory labor field assistants had made 30,454 placements of cotton pickers. From July 10 to September 7, 14,065 migratory farm laborers had passed through Riviera and Falfurrias.

Panama Missionaries Will Lecture Here

On Saturday and Sunday night, September 23 and 24, Dr. and Mrs. Edwards from the Panama Canal Zone will be visiting the Knox City Foursquare Church. Dr. Edwards and his wife have spent many years as missionaries to Panama, a land while on furlough here in the United States they have left their sons to carry on the work in Panama. Dr. Edwards will describe the work on the mission field, and tell many thrilling experiences that they have undergone to win the natives.

Rev. and Mrs. Byers, pastors of the Foursquare Church in Knox City cordially invite the public to attend the services.

Last Sunday night at the close of the revival, a beautiful baptismal service was conducted when 12 converts and members followed their Lord in the waters of baptism. Rev. Byers was assisted in the baptism by Mr. Clarence Goodson, while E. H. Tankersley led the congregation in many appropriate songs.

Knox City Gin Has Entirely New Plant

The new Knox City Gin, under the management of E. R. Carpenter, is now open for business and have turned out several bales of cotton from the new crop. Starting from a vacant lot following the loss of the old plant by fire last year, Mr. Carpenter has built a modern fireproof gin that embodies the latest in ginning machinery and methods.

With a view of building a plant that offered the cotton grower everything he needed in ginning facilities, Mr. Carpenter has spared no expense or trouble in making the new plant modern in every detail and fireproof throughout. The new equipment under test runs has turned out excellent samples and promises to improve the grade of local cotton.

Mr. Carpenter invites the cotton grower to inspect the new gin and take advantage of the facilities and service offered.

A new, heavy-duty Frigidaire freezing unit has been installed in the Meat Department at Brad's Grocery. 'More Pork To Bushel' Is Aim of Scientists In Feeding Program

U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists are working to develop for swine a test method that compares with "cow testing" under the Dairy Herd Improvement program. They hope to find a way to breed hogs producing "more pork to the bushel."

Testing has proved to dairy farmers that it pays to get rid of the "boarders" and to keep the cows that give most milk for each dollar's worth of feed. Ability to produce much milk from a unit of feed "runs in the family." It is inherited. Weighing the feed in and weighing the milk out gives facts to guide dairy breeding plans.

With swine the output is pork. The product is sold all at one time, instead of in daily lots. But scientists are finding evidence to prove that pork producing efficiency also runs in families, is inherited, and that tests can disclose the swine families that have ability to grow to standard market size on the least feed.

Since 1936, the Bureau of Animal Industry has been experimenting at Miles City, Montana, with the development of a new improved strain of black hogs resulting from crossing the Danish Landrace and American bred unbelted Hampshires. The test is simple. From each litter of pigs four are chosen for feeding under standardized conditions. Each pig has a chance to eat his fill of a good standard ration. The feed is weighed to each family and the hogs are slaughtered at weight of 225 pounds. It is simple to calculate the cash cost of the feed and the cost per hundred pounds of pork produced. The remaining brothers and sisters of the test pigs are retained while the test is under way, and the ones from the families making the best records in the tests are kept as breeders.

In 1943, the Bureau reports, all pigs on test were from the more promising families in the herd. In spite of this, the tests showed differences in feeding economy of nearly one-fifth (19.4 percent). The most efficient litter ate 330.7 pounds of feed to gain 100 pounds. The least efficient of these relatively desirable pigs had to have 394.7 pounds to gain a hundredweight. This meant a difference of about $3.00 a pig in feeding costs.

The FAI considers that a promising development lies in "the elimination of 'boarders' and concentration of the blood lines of the more efficient strains."

Gossett To Support Party Nominees

According to an article appearing in the Wichita Falls Record-News, Congressman Ed Gossett states that he is "wholeheartedly supporting the national Democratic ticket."

In a letter replying to an inquiry from a Wichita County voter as to his stand, Congressman Gossett had the following to say:

"I have your letter of Sept. 14 and am glad you have written me about my position on the national campaign.

"Since there seems to be some question in your mind about my position, I wish to state, and you can give it whatever publicity you wish, that I am first and last and always a Democrat and am wholeheartedly supporting the Democratic ticket.

"I disapprove of the Republican platform and think they have a weak candidate."

Lutheran Services Gaining Attendance

Since May 14 when Lutheran services were first held at the First Christian Church in Knox City, average attendance has steadily increased. It is to be noted with gratification that many Americans are still interested in Christianity and in the building of real Christian homes. This fact may be well noted by the increased interest in Sunday School and Sunday worship.

The Lutheran Church can and will fulfill that interest in basic Christianity. You may prove this to yourself if you will attend Lutheran services, or listen to the Lutheran Hour, broadcast every Sunday morning at 11:30, over an international radio network. Once you hear the Lutheran Hour, you will never forget it. Thousands have been led to Christ and their eternal salvation through this broadcast.

The same gospel as you will hear preached if you will listen to the Lutheran Hour, is preached at every conservative Lutheran Church (of the Missouri Synod) in existence. You have the opportunity to find your Savior, if you will.

Attend the Lutheran services at the First Christian Church in Knox City on the afternoon of September 24. Adult Bible class begins at 3:30, with regular services at 4:00 p. m.

LITTLE CHANGE IN AUTO ANTI-FREEZE SITUATION

The War Production Board is listing for production approximately the same amount of anti-freeze materials this year as last, the Office of Defense Transportation has informed its district managers.

This should result in a sufficient supply for all needs but hoarding might result in shortage. The supply of permanent anti-freeze (ethylene glycol) may be slightly less than last winter.

Mrs. Charles Randal of Seymour spent Tuesday with the E. O. Jamisons.

Huntsman To Open White Auto Store

The White Auto Store, owned by Loyd Huntsman, will open its doors to Knox County shoppers Saturday morning, Sept. 23. The new enterprise is located in the former Knox City Hardware building and will offer to the public a low priced line of quality merchandise for auto and home.

Mr. Huntsman has been busy for the past three weeks installing fixtures and arranging stock in the new store. While war time restrictions have created a scarcity of automobile and home supplies, the new store will offer several items that have been on the unavailable list for some time. Mr. Huntsman plans to add to the stock as fast as the new goods are made available.

"While we are operating under the White Auto Store name, we want the people of this territory to know that the store is a home-owned enterprise," said Mr. Huntsman. "We have the advantage of large scale purchasing and merchandising methods and will pass this saving on to our customers. We invite a comparison of prices with any of the large city stores and believe the public will find the same quality and low prices prevailing here," he added.

The new store is efficiently arranged for shoppers and goods are handily displayed and prices plainly marked. As the new merchandise is released Mr. Huntsman will offer a full line of household electrical supplies, kitchen utensils, toys, bicycles, several items of mens clothing, radios, stoves and kindred items. In the automobile line, White's has long been famous for its accessories, batteries, tires and other items along this line.

General Land Office Funds Double Amount Of Previous Years

Baconm Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, announced the receipt of $20,576,819 for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1944. This amount was double that of any previous year in the history of the General Land Office, the largest previous amount having been slightly more than $10,000,000 established last year.

Commissioner Giles pointed out the $11,742,000 of this money went in the Permanent University and A&M Fund, bringing that endowment to $46,981,000, an increase of 65 percent during the last five years in which he has been Commissioner. The royalty receipts for the University Fund now amount to more than $100,000 monthly.

The Permanent Public Free School Fund was increased by the record-breaking amount of $6,529,000 during the year just closed, bringing that fund to $88,000,000 as of August 31, 1944, and increase of 42 percent during the last five years. The Permanent Free School Fund amounted to $62,268,000 on January 1, 1939.

Commissioner Giles pointed out this fund is increased by more than $500,000 monthly through receipts of the General Land Office.

WORDS: Their Power and Beauty

He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. — Psalms 107:20

Among the sources of those innumerable calamities which from age to age have overwhelmed mankind, may be reckoned as one of the principal the abuse of words. — Geo. Horne

Without knowing the force of words, it is impossible to know men. — Confucius.

Whatever weighs in the eternal scale of equity and mercy tips the beam on the right side, where the immortal words and deeds of men alone can settle all questions amicably and satisfactorily. — Mary Baker Eddy.

Words, like fine flowers, have their colours too. — Ernest Rhys.

I love smooth words, like gold-enameled fish Which circle slowly with a silken wish.

And tender ones, like downy-feathered birds! Words shy and dappled, deep-eyed deer in herds. — Elinor Wylie

With some people patience is a virtue; with others it is just a case of not knowing what to do.

Parents spend half their time worrying how their children will turn out; and the other half worrying when they will turn in.

Combining business and pleasure is easy. But combining vacation and pleasure is next to impossible.

Those who believe that the war is almost over would do well to remember that Texans still are fighting... and being wounded and killed... on all fronts. The fact that they aren't quitting should be a reminder that now is not the time to quit on the home front.

Here are some of the boys wounded on the European front during the past few days: Sgt. Arthur Appel of Taylor, Sgt. Victor Cmerok of Granger, and Pfc. Ike Mogford and Pfc. Baker Vermillion of Fredericksburg. Latest casualty reports from the Mediterranean report S-Sgt. Bill Lord of Georgetown as among the wounded, while Pfc. Emilian Mensik of La-Grange was recently reported as wounded in the Southwest Pacific.

S-Sgt. Ray Saunders of Wichita Falls, a spotter for a machine gun company in France, was wounded in the left leg and chest, and lay for many hours under the fire of both Americans and Germans before he could crawl to safety. But he didn't quit! He is now in a hospital in England.

The example of the Texas lads who don't quit should prove an inspiration to all of those on the home-front. No one should quit until the war is finally won... and that means when the last shot has been fired and every Texas boy is back home! Meanwhile every man, woman and child in Texas should pitch in to put the National War Fund campaign over the top!

The National War Fund drive will be conducted during the next few weeks in all Texas counties, under the leadership of local men and women. Funds raised in the campaign support USO, send relief to American and Allied prisoners-of-war in enemy hands, and help alleviate suffering among war-victims everywhere.

Fighting Texans continue to make news by their brave and gallant exploits in battle. Sgt. Dwight "Bud" Grider, Flying Fortress gunner who hails from Tahoka, has just won the Air Medal for his bravery under fire while bombing Germany.

The Tahoka American Legion post, incidentally, last week honored returned war veterans at a special meeting. At the same time, Legionnaires endorsed the War Chest drive in Lynn County, and agreed to help put the drive over the top. The Legion boys know what "over the top" means, and there is little likelihood that they will stop before the full job is done!

Here are more Texans who have been decorated with the Air Medal for their part in the war: Carl Alford, Lufkin; Alfred Colwell, Jr., Herwood; Bill Adair, Galena Park; Capt. O. L. Counselman, Hereford; Lt. Bill Simmons, Lorraine; Liburn Ogle, Dickens; Lt. Ola Hollowell, Abilene; Bert Drummond, Holland, and Eugene Donohoe, San Angelo.

Sgt. Olan Delaney of Sour Lake will soon be home from the wars. One of several dozen American airmen shot down and captured some time ago, he has just been freed from a Romanian prison camp. He is scheduled for a long leave... in Texas!

The men spent long, weedy months in the enemy prisoner-of-war camp, but they were not for a moment forgotten by their folks back home. Thanks to War Prisoners Aid, agency of the National War Fund, they received books, study courses, athletic equipment and even musical instruments with which to pass the dread prison hours.

There was an old song that said, "Everybody works but father." May be a good idea to write one now on how "Everyone works father."

Plans Made For 1945 Cowboy Reunion

Annual meeting of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Inc., was held here recently, and all directors were re-elected for the coming year.

A summary for the fiscal year, which closed August 31, showed that the attendance record for the 1944 show, which was changed from the usual three days to only two days, exceeded any record set in the previous 13 years the Reunion has been held.

Previous records for contestants also were broken, with approximately 260 entries in the various prize winning events.

Officers were re-elected and plans for a 1945 show were discussed at a directors meeting immediately following the membership meeting.

July 4, usual date, was named as one day for the Reunion next year, but definite action on how many performances and what days they will be held will be decided later, according to W. G. Swenson, President.

Directors re-elected are Mr. Swenson, Warren B. Taysman, Chas. E. Coombes, L. M. Hardy, A. C. Cooper, Cleburne Huston, and Roy Arledge. Officers are, Mr. Swenson, president; A. C. Cooper, vice-president; E. G. Keene, treasurer, and Maud Green, secretary.

The Family Altar

By Rev. Violet Byers
Co-Pastor, Foursquare Church

As we gather around the family altar again, let us give thanks for the blessings that God has bestowed upon us this week. The Psalmist David tells us in the 100th Psalm, to enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

It seems to be the trend in this modern day to take every blessing for granted as part of what the world owes us, and we can see how the individual is getting away from the old-fashioned courtesy that they once bestowed on one another. Not many years ago, before it was possible to travel the length and breadth of this nation in a few hours, our grandparents used to travel many days going from one town to another, and as evening fell they would stop at some farmhouse along the way knowing that there would be a welcome for them and a shelter for the night, and a resting place for their tired horses. With the coming of morning they were wished God's blessing on them, and given supplies for the day. That, dear ones, is true love, one for the other.

Real genuine LOVE is what is lacking in this world today, and making nations rise against each other, and even families turn against each other. When each individual has love for their fellow-man we will see this conflict brought to a close, but it must be a deep Christlike love. A love that will cause us to put our arms around the fallen brother and lift him up, or to care for the widows and the fatherless, not because duty demands it but because Jesus set us the example to go by.

As we look into the life of Jesus, there were many times that as He stopped to rest he would speak words of encouragement to some weary soul. Or, lay His hands upon some pain-racked body, or comfort a broken heart, and no matter how tired he was in His own body, his every deed was one of love and compassion. But on the other hand, Jesus was grieved with the hypocrite. Did he not admonish the hypocrite in the 6th chapter of Luke, verse 42, to "cast first the beam out of thine own eye, and then thou shalt see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye."

Paul writing to the Corinthian Church must have realized that even then there were hypocrites in the Church, because we find in the first Epistle to the Corinthians, chapter 13, that he spoke very firmly to them. He said that "Though I speak with the tongues of men and angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal," and the 4th verse says that "Charity suffereth long and is kind; Charity envieth not; Charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up."

The word "charity" in this chapter is rightly interpreted LOVE. Changing the word "charity" to LOVE, we can see how we stand in the eyes of God if we have not love for one another. Let us get back to that old-fashioned love for each other, because truly the world today is dying for real love. So as we come to the family altar, let us remember what Jesus said in John 15:12: "This is My commandment, that ye love one another as I have loved you." Remember, Jesus still loves you.
